MYSTIC GLEE CLUB APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR

Acting on the recommendation of the Conductor Committee headed by William Cruger and consisting of President Robert Carlson, Ben Marshall, and Erskine White, Jr., the Board of Directors of the Mystic Glee Club of Winchester is happy to announce the appointment of Keith D. Snyder of Reading as Director of the Club. After two rehearsals, with the largest attendance the group has ever enjoyed, Mr. Snyder has completely won the respect, loyalty, and, most important of all, the personal liking of every man in the Club who has met him. In fact, the men seem to be overjoyed with the selection, and this augurs well for the present seasson, as the esprit de corp, which has always been such an appreciated feature of the Mystic Glee Club, will be preserved and will grow still more evident. This seems to be a certainty and will please the Club's many sponsoring members who will be looking forward to the two home concerts in the Winchester High School Auditorium. The dates this season are Saturday, December 11th and Friday April 22nd 1949, guest artists to be announced later.

Mr. Snyder is a graduate of Nebraska Weslyan University in the class of 1931 where he received a B.M.E. degree. As an undergraduate he was a member and accompanist of the glee club. After college he became Director of Music at Perkins County High School in Grant Nebraska, 1931-32. He next became instructor in theory and piano at Newberry College, Newberry, South Carolina, 1932-36. He was also assistant conductor of the Newberry College Singers. Next he obtained his M.A. degree in Music at Syracuse University, N. Y., in 1937. After this he became Director of Music in the Sayville Public Schools in Sayville, N. Y., 1937-45. While there he became Conductor of the West Sayville Choral Society as well as organist and choir director of the Sayville Methodist Church. From Sayville Mr. Synder came to the Boston University College of Music as Assistant Prof. of Musical Education where he is now, and where he teaches, among other things, a course in Conducting.

The Mystic Glee Club, which has for some time been searching for a Director who combined youth and personality with superior musical and conducting talents, seems to have found its man at long last. A resident of nearby Reading, Keith Snyder has made a most favorable impression. The Club is attracting many new candidates from surrounding towns, including Reading and Lexington, to sing under him. Trained and more experienced singers are joining in larger numbers, six appearing at the last rehearsal. Next Monday the Club meets at the Baptist church, as is the case on the first Monday of each month, and it is expected that over fifty men will be present.

With the Conducting department all squared away now, the Mystic Glee Club should be starting its most successful year to date. Watch the STAR for the opening announcement of the sale of Sponsoring Membership tickets. It is anticipated there will be practically no public sale at the box office on concert nights this season, the demand has been so great for the two-concert membership.

OBSERVED 91ST BIRTHDAY

Mrs. George W. Tilley of 5 Lloyd street, one of Winchester's oldest residents, observed her 91st birthday Tuesday, Sept. 28. There was no formal observance, but visits by her neice, Mrs. Margaret Brown of Newport, R. I., and her daughter, Suzanne; and by Mrs. Tilley's rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, of the Church of the Epiphany, helped to make the occasion memorable, with many neighbors and old friends dropping in to offer congratulations. Birthday cards and letters and a birthday cake indicated the esteem in which Mrs. Tilley is held by her many friends.

Few have been more popular in her neighborhood than Mrs. Tilley, whose hospitable home has always been open to share in the joy or sorrow of anyone seeking to enter its doors.

Winchester has been her home for more than 40 years, she having come here from Newport with her husband, the late George W. Tilley, a widely known resident, who died May 24, 1946. Mrs. Tilley lives alone, does her own work and goes regularly on foot to the town's shopping center to do her marketing and other business. WINCHESTER BOY DISCHARGED FROM NAVAL HOSPITAL

Richard Horn Injured on Naval Tanker

After two years service in the Navy during the war without a scratch, Richard Horn, fireman, 1/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordo H. Horn of 55 Wendell street, finally ran into trouble four months ago while homeward bound from Alaska on the Navy tanker, USS Kankakee, an auxiliary oiler.

The Kankakee had been taking high octane gas to aviation units in Alaska and on the way back to California members of the crew entered the empty oil tanks to clean them. They were overcome by gas fumes, and Fireman Horn was one of a rescue crew who entered the tank in an effort to take the men out.

Horn, himself, was overcome, and in being raised from the tank by a rope and safety belt was injured sufficiently to spend four months in the Oakland, California Naval Hospital under treatment for injuries and shock.

He arrived home from California on Monday and expects to be discharged from the Navy today. His brother, Henry, 19, left town the day after his return to enlist in the Army at Fort Banks, so that there is still a Horn in the service.

NATIONAL EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED WEEK

Whereas, it has been estimated that some 28,000,000 citizens of the United States are physically handicapped, and

Whereas, some 2,000,000 of this number are handicapped as a result of their service in World War II, and

Whereas, a number of these handicapped persons are citizens of our community, and

Whereas, all of these handicapped citizens, veterans and non-veteran, deserve self-supporting, self-respecting jobs in which they can make useful contributions to our community, state and nation, and

Whereas, the cities and towns of Massachusetts wish to lend all possible aid and assistance to the handicapped, and

Whereas, the President of the United States has designated October 3rd to 9th as Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and

Whereas, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts by statements has given his approval to the aims of Handicapped Week,

Now Therefore, We the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Winchester do concur in this designation of October 3rd to 9th as Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and we call upon all local officials, employers, organizations, and all citizens to assist in every way possible, to the end that attention of the community will be focused on the fact that disabled veterans and handicapped civilians are fully capable of productive work in many different occupations.

And we further urge that all employers place their job openings with the Employment Office operated by the Massachusetts Division of Employment Security located at 25 Montvale avenue, Woburn, so that all handicapped workers may be given an opportunity to prove that when placed in the right jobs, they are not handicapped but instead are safe workers who make good production records because they stay on the job.

"HUMAN GROWTH" TO BE SHOWN HERE

On October 8, 1948, at 8:30 p. m. in the High School Auditorium, the Winchester Junior Circle of the Florence Crittenton League will present the educational film, "Human Growth", in an effort to stimulate interest in bringing sex education into the schools of this town.

The film, produced by the University of Oregon, is the same one publicised by Life Magazine several months ago. The Circle is obtaining it under the auspices of the Mass. Society for Social Hygeine. The Reverend Paul Harmon Chapman, a member of its Board of Directors, will introduce the film and conduct a question period after its completion. Also Dr. George Gilbert Smith, President of the Mass. Society for Social Hygeine, will be on hand to take part in the discussion.

A letter has already been sent concerning the event to all official, religious, civic, and educational representatives and authorities of the Town. They have been requested in turn to call Mrs. Bradford Darling, WInchester 6-1276-M (between 9 and 1, except Friday) for the number of tickets they will need for all the members of their board or committee, and husbands or wives. The showing is by invitation only.

The circle is very enthusiastic over its opportunity to bring this film to Winchester, and sincerely hopes all the Town leaders will be present. It is extremely grateful to Reverend Chapman whose idea this originally was and through whose influence it is being shown.

This is a start to interest the townspeople in sex education. Representation, reaction, and opinions are needed to carry it along.

LINCOLN SCHOOL MOTHER'S ASSOCIATION

The Lincoln School Mother's Association held its first meeting of the school year Wednesday, September 22, in the school auditorium.

After a short business meeting Round Table topic "The Child and His Money" was discussed from the following viewpoints, "Giving" by Mrs. Burton Miller, "Rewarding" by Miss Marguerite Asher, and "Saving" by Mr. Vincent Ambrose. Mrs. S. M. Ward acted as Moderator.

To summarize the discussion: it was agreed upon by the majority of those present that children should receive an allowance compatible to the family income and his age level; that the child should have a certain amount of money to spend as he choses aside from money for banking, church and possibly clothing allowance; that rewarding a child financially for good marks is more often detrimental to honest scholarship than might be expected: that housework should be part of a child's regular contribution to the family way of living and that he should not be paid for that work unless it is a job other than routine.

Refreshments were served after the program.

FLOWERS AND SHIPS IN ART ASSOCIATION OPENING SHOW

A striking exhibition of Flower Studies by Grace Collier and equally vibrant paintings of Ships and Sea by Frank Vining Smith will be featured at the October exhibit of the Winchester Art Association in the Art Gallery, Winchester Public Library, open to the public during library hours. The exhibit will be opened formally at the meeting of the Association on Tuesday, October 5, at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes presiding, and Mr. Robert Vose of the Vose Galleries in Boston, the speaker.

A third feature to make this October exhibition of the Art Association a red letter one will be the fine display of handwrought jewels and silversmithing by William Mason and Leonard Field of Macefield, Winchester Place. Both these craftsmen are Association members, both are residents here, and both have made a name for themselves in their craft. Their work will be of keen interest to art lovers and to those who enjoy seeing such workmanship.

ROTARY NEWS

With four visiting Rotarians plus 96% attendance of our own club and three guests a goodly crowd was in attendance at Rotary on Thursday last.

Make ups were received for John Wallace, Don Simonds, Forbes Norris and Vin Ambrose.

One of the high points of the meeting was the singing. Such songs as "Clementine" "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and last but not least "Sylvia". Charlie needed some help on "Sylvia" and called in Winchester leading operatic tenor John Navarro. Aram and Milne also helped out.

Our guest speaker Sheriff Boutwell was introduced by John McIntyre. His subject "National Defense".

The sheriff and General who was in both World Wars gave a most interesting, educational talk.

Next week is to be an open meeting.

Sick	Mrs. Alice Haggerty
Publicity	Miss Margaret King

The next business meeting will be held on October 14, 1948, in Lyceum Hall.

A Harvest Roll Call Supper was planned to be held on October 28, 1948, in Lyceum Hall. The co-chairladies for this affair will be Mrs. Margaret Quill and Mrs. Betty O'Donnell, with a competent committee assisting.

NEW BOOK OF POETRY BY BASIL BURWELL

Announcement is made of the publication of a new book of poetry, "Slave Cargo" by Basil Burwell. His prose and poetry has appeared in a number of publications, and he will be remembered by many Winchester people as a former resident and High School graduate. He is the son of the late Edward L. Burwell of Winslow road.

Besides the title poem and several shorter pieces, a one-act play, "Fog", is included in the book. "Fog" was first staged in Boston in 1931 and has had several subsequent productions.

Basil Burwell has been writer, teacher, actor and director. He has appeared on the London, New York, Boston, San Francisco and Los Angeles stage, as well as in radio productions. At present he heads the widely famous dramatic department of Cherry Lawn School at Darien, Connecticut. He is engaged on a novel which has been contracted for by Little, Brown & Co.

RAINBOW FOR GIRLS

The 183rd Meeting of Winchester Assembly Order of Rainbow for Girls was held September 24.

A business meeting was held at 5:00. At 6:30 the Mothers' Club put on a delicious Turkey supper, which we all enjoyed and appreciated. At 8:00 public installation of officers was held and Alice Pride of Winchester was installed as Worthy Advisor and Martha Hodge also of Winchester was installed as Worthy Associate Advisor. Following the installation refreshments were served and dancing was held.

Marshal H. Fay and family from Weston Springs, Ill., have been visiting with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fay of 36 Park avenue.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

The Fortnightly Year Book is out and what a Year Book! It certainly does great credit to the Year Book and Printing Committee. It is thrilling to think of the hundreds of Winchester women, who, during 67 years have considered it an honor and a privilege to be recorded as members of The Fortnightly, the object of which is "the promotion of social, educational, and civic interests" in Winchester. In looking over the year's program, the caption "From Pigtails to Permanents" excites the imagination as to what we may see and hear. Mrs. Rudkin's yearly talks are delightful, and whether you care to read the books she reviews or not, we shall be charmed with her wit and grace. "France Today" with Kodachrome Color slides should be a lecture full of beauty and information on the current situation there. Max Gilstrap formerly in charge of "YANK" the Army weekly, will inform us as to our part in "this spinning Globe and its problems" out of his up-to-the-minute knowledge and experience in foreign countries as well as at home.

English Hand Bells, Xylophone and French Lyre offer music that we have not enjoyed in many a day.

If this limited array of programs intrigues you as it does many of us, come and join us, for women living in Winchester are eligible for membership.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS IN BOSTON SCENE OF MUCH ACTIVITY

The downtown campaign headquarters for all the G. O. P. candidates located at 39 Tremont street, Boston, is extremely active these days with concerting efforts for a Republican victory in November. These offices are working in conjunction with the permanent ones of the Republican State Committee at 6 Beacon street.

This new center was formerly a big store and has three large display windows which are decorated with Republican pictures, messages and other devices to attract attention. There is a large reception room staffed by experienced and friendly receptionists where various types of campaign literature are available for distribution.

Special committees and auxiliary agencies have offices here. Among them is the office of Mrs. William C. Cusack, president of the Winchester Women's Republican Club, who is Director of Women's Activities at these downtown headquarters. Mrs. Cusack may be contacted for information at CApitol 7-0520, extension 9.

HIGH SCHOOL GETS LINE COACH

The School Committee has announced the signing of a line coach to assist Coach Henry Knowlton with the Winchester High School football team.

John Gorczinski, a Pittsburg boy who last year played for Harvard, is the new coach and a peek at big John on Monday convinced any of the skeptical that he has been around in a football way.

Well over the six foot mark and weighing about 250, Gorczinski looks every inch the football man. The fact that he is able to wear the special pants bought for Sammy Walker without pads, and keep them up, gives some indication of his tonnage. John has played for Pittsburg, for University of St. Louis during the war and at Harvard last year, playing both tackle and guard. While in the service he coached an army team, and he went to work Monday in a way that impressed Coach Knowlton and his staff.

Gorczinski replaces Al Seferian, last year's line coach, who gave up teaching to enter business. With Ted Bartlett handling the backs and second team, and Carl Reed, the freshmen, Coach Knowlton will now be free to work with the kickers and passers, who can use a bit of specialized instruction.

ART AND DOT HILLS MIXED DOUBLES CHAMPS

Last Saturday afternoon Art and Dot Hills of Ledyard road won the Mixed Doubles Tennis Championship of Winchester by defeating Herb Ross and Sylvia Campbell to the tune of 6-4, 6-2. A small but enthusiastic gallery was present to enjoy the contest, and never at any moment did the final result seem to be in doubt. Since no record seems to have been kept of the battle, a blow-by-blow description is impossible. Yet as Herb and Sylvia left the courts bloody but unbowed, there seemed to be an inordinate interest in years. Reference was heard made to that gradual accumulation of straws, one of which, you will remember, finally broke the "camel's" back. Sic transit gloria? Never, say Herb and Sylvia. Just wait until 1949!

MYSTIC SCHOOL

On next Monday, October 4th, reserved seats will be on sale at Filene's for the forthcoming series of two plays sponsored by the Mystic School chapter of the Winchester Mothers' Association, Mrs. W. Campbell Ross, General chairman, announced last week.

This year it has been decided to present two of the nationally known Clare Tree Major plays for children... thereby bringing pleasure to the children of Winchester while raising money for our annual contribution to the Winchester Scholarship Fund and certain school projects.

Many will recall that it has been quite a few years since Clare Tree Major brought her plays here. And all who have seen them here or elsewhere will remember how delightful they were -- and still are.

For the "opener" on November 1st, Clare Tree Major, herself, chose "Toby Tyler, or Ten Weeks with the Circus". This story of an orphan boy who fell for the glitter of circus life will intrigue children and adluts too! Come meet the Thin Man, and his wife, the Fat Woman and Toby's first Circus friend Mr. Stubbs, the monkey (and he will be a real live monkey)... you'll love them! Come and see Toby Tyler gets along in the Circus.

The second play will be "Pinocchio". All of us know that story and will look forward to its coming on Monday, March 21st. Much more about it later!

Both plays will be presented at 3:10 p. m. in the High School Auditorium. All seats are reserved and they will cost $2.40 for the series... tax included. Tickets will be on sale for all Winchester Monday. Mrs. Ross pointed out that most mothers will want their children to see these good plays, as it is sometimes difficult to take them in to Boston on Saturday mornings. Hence after school in the Winchester High School Auditorium is easy on all concerned ...easy for the children to reach the High School... and easy to enjoy! Of course, adults will be most welcome too... I'll see you there.

Remember, first come, first best served with their choice of seats. However, if unable to purchase tickets on Monday at Filene's contact Mrs. Sears Walker, ticket chairman, at WInchester 6-1649-W on Tuesday afternoon. Be seeing you!

HENRY K. FITTS NEW TOWN TENNIS CHAMP

Before a good gallery of enthusiastic friends and fans last Sunday morning Henry Fitts of Grassmere avenue, "the new English teacher" at the High School and a former Winchester boy and resident, proved himself to be not only "the dark horse" of the Tennis Tournament but also the Town Champ. It is a pleasure to hail Henry as our new champion: Long may he reign! -- for not only does he play a sound, well-rounded game, he also knows and - mirabile dictu - plays ALL the rules of the game. Maybe a new era has been inaugurated for Winchester Town Tennis!

Henry's worthy opponent in the finals was Art Hills of Ledyard road who proved his well-known mettle by putting out Herb Ross in the semis. The first two sets of the finals went to Henry rather easily at 6-3, and 6-1, although at one moment of the first set Art was only one game behind. Despite the score, things did tighten up a bit in the second set when Henry took two of Art's services only after five deuces respectively. The third set was taken 9-7, but Art led for a time at 4-1 and again at 5-3. Henry then added the next three games to place himself ahead at 6-5. After that the services were held twice in succession to leave the final victor leading 8-7. Art then yielded the final game at fifteen.

Long live the new champ and Winchester Town Tennis!

BADMINTON NEXT WEEK

Last weekend the silverware was distributed to the victors of the Town Tennis Tournament and so, with the setting of the tennis sun our thoughts turn to badminton. We hope to welcome a goodly crowd next Tuesday evening at 7:30 when the 1948-49 season opens at the high school gym., and will continue every Tuesday and Thursday at 7:30 (except school holidays) through the winter until it is time to get out in the warm spring air once again.

The committee has plans for the coming season—the usual league matches will be held in our gym so we, of the "also ran" class will have a chance to watch our teams in action. It has been rumored that Winchester may play host to one of the state championships in December—nothing definite on this yet, but it would be quite an honor for our club as well as a wonderful opportunity for local fans to see the champs without going all the way to the big city. There are other plans cooking too, so we can look forward to an active year.

Newcomers, all you need to bring is a little energy and a pair of rubber soled shoes which will not mark the gym floor. Remember—next Tuesday, Oct. 5th at 7:30 p. m. There will a welcome for all!

Two boys, one 10 and the other 11 got the wrong pig by the ear last Friday evening when one of them hit Fireman Walter Carroll in the mouth with a pea-shooter as he was driving past the Telephone Exchange. "Cubby" caught the boys who were taken to police headquarters for a lecture and then turned over to their parents with a complete account of their activities.

PROMOTED IN NATIONAL GUARD

Michael D. Saraco of Farrow street has recently been promoted from technical sergeant in the National Guard to the rank of second lieutenant.

"Mike", well known ice cream dealer in this town, is a member of the 182nd Infantry in Stoneham, with which he has served for nine years, going overseas with the outfit during World War II to Guadalcanal and the South Pacific.

ROSS AND HILLS RETAIN DOUBLES' CHAMPIONSHIP

Last Sunday afternoon, while the gallery was large and the weather perfect, Herb Ross of Lloyd street and Art Hills of Ledyard road again established their claim as the Town's Men's Doubles Tennis champions. Again this year, as last, their worthy opponents were Hall Gamage and Jimmy Coon, and again it took the full five sets to determine the winners, although after the third set the result did not seem to be doubt. The scores were 4-6, 0-6, 6-4, 6-1, 6-3.

For the winners the real scare came in the third set when they were down 0-3, the third game, on Art's serve, having been yielded after five deuces. At that point the ultimate winners got serious and took the next two games at love. In the final set Hall and Jimmy tried to rally and led momentarily 2-1. After that, however, no game went to deuce and only the fifth game, Jimmy's serve, was won by the runners-up.

ADOPTED DOOMED PUPPY

In July Vicky, champion black-and-tan German shepherd owned by Miss Virginia Ramsdell, became the mother of six strapping black-and-tan and black-and-silver teddy-bear puppies. Vicky added another pup to her brood when she gladly adopted a black-and-white puppy born a week after her own. When Penny Penguin, as the little mite is called because of her white vest, was unwanted by her owner's landlord and doomed to be put to sleep, the shepherd mother came to the rescue and took home the tiny stranger as her own. Penny is now looking for a good, kind home. (From The Magazine TUCSON - September, 1948.) Ed. Note: Miss Ramsdell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ramsdell of Summit avenue, is living in Tucson. She formerly was very active in the Winchester Dog Training Club.

THE GIRL SCOUTS ON THE PRESIDENTIAL RANGE

During the second week in August four members of Storrow Troop II spent five days on the Presidential Range. Mrs. Parsons, the troop leader, and Mr. Parsons conducted the trip. The girls participating were Jinny Dyer, Sue Ordway, Judy Lamprey and Sally Birnie.

After spending the previous night at the A. M. C. camp at Pinkham Notch, on Monday the girls, carrying sleeping bags and food, hiked to the Great Gulf Shelter, their headquarters for four days. On the way in, swimming was enjoyed in the Peabody River and some excellent photographs were taken by Mrs. Parsons. On Tuesday a swing over the Northern Peaks - Jefferson, Adams, and Madison - including a stop at the Madison Huts was made by means of the Six Husbands, Gulfside Buttress, and other trails. On Wednesday they climbed the Great Gulf Headwall to Washington where they enjoyed the views. The return to the Great Gulf Shelter was made over Mt. Clay and the Sphinx Trail. The following day, in the pouring rain, the group packed out to the Glen House and Pinkham, where they spent the night. Friday an ascent of Mt. Cardigan was attempted but, on account of bad weather, they returned after reaching the Fire Warden's cabin, a half mile from the summit.

This trip, one of the most ambitious made by Winchester Girl Scouts, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Parsons for making it possible.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL AND FIRE REGULATIONS

The Department of Public Safety of the Commonwealth has issued to Winchester Hospital full approval of its provisions for protection from fire hazard, covering the Hospital itself and the Nurses' Home. This certificate of approval covers the period through October 31, 1952, and has been issued after a thorough inspection of the buildings and a final checking of the completion within recent months of certain changes demanded by the present regulations. All citizens of Winchester and others living in the service area of the Hospital will be glad to know of the thoroughness with which the patients and staff members are protected from fire hazards. The Hospital building itself is fireproof, with walls of reinforced concrete, floors which are non-inflammable, doors and door-casings of steel. All exits are plainly designated and doors open outward.

The Nurses' Home, a three-story building with a stone foundation, two stories of stucco and a third of composition shingle, contains fifty-one bedrooms in addition to bathrooms, laundries, a kitchenette, sun-porch, common rooms and lobbies. Every possible protection has been given to this building, including the automatic sprinkler system with very numerous outlets in halls, stairways, common rooms, bedrooms, and bathrooms, connected with an alarm bell placed on the front of the building. There are also large warning bells with three different pull-stations on each floor to provide for the quickest possible notification of all residents in case smoke is noticed or fire seen, this notification being separate from and in addition to the system for calling the Fire Department. This plan provides precious moments of warning to all within the Nurses' Home before the Fire Department could arrive. There is no corner of the Nurses' Home where these warning bells cannot be heard, in fact, they are audible nearly down to Washington street.

Each bedroom in the Nurses' Home is provided with a safety rope, permanently fastened into the timbers near to a window. In case of fire, the rope is to be thrown out the window and the room's occupant should with ease slide down it to safety. The doors at all exits are clearly marked and open outwards; all bolts have been removed so that there can be no danger of finding an exit door barred. There are also doors on each floor of the Nurses' Home which act as fire checks between sections of the building. These doors have fireproof glass panels.

Following the disastrous Cocoanut Grove fire in Boston in 1944, the Department of Public Safety in this and many other states made careful inspections of all public buildings, including of course hospitals, and the Department commanded changes which would reduce fire hazards to an absolute minimum. Winchester Hospital was fortunate in the fireproof construction of its Hospital building, presenting slight reason for criticism to the inspectors. The Nurses' Home, however, was another problem, and the arrangements described in this article have met with the completed approval of the Department of Public Safety and have resulted in certification for a five-year period. Inspections are, of course, repeated at stated intervals, and the Administrator and Engineers of the Hospital are constantly alert to permit no damage to the protection prescribed by the Commonwealth. Standard procedure for the future will include firedrills, instruction in use of fire extinguishers, and required acquaintance with fire regulations on the part of all employees. A recent meeting of the employees was addressed by Mr. Paine, Fire Chief James E. Callahan, and a representative of the Insurance Underwriters.

Television Sets in Hospital

Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Administrator, takes satisfaction in announcing that television sets are now available for rental by patients. Winchester Hospital thus becomes one of the first Hospitals to provide television service.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

Last May, 10 Massachusetts Senior Girl Scouts were chosen for the Girl Scout Conference at Cooperstown, N. Y. I had the honor of being one of the 10 girls.

Having received full information as to equipment, transportation and other details, the 10 of us and our two leaders, Mrs. J. R. Mansfield and Mrs. G. R. Williams, met at the Girl Scout Camp Wynona on July 27 to start the first lap of our trip. The main purpose at Camp Wynona was to chop wood. Thus we would have it ready to be set up according to its use at Cooperstown. There the wood would be made into tables, benches, wash basin stands, and tent poles!

We left for Cooperstown on July 30th, arriving there about 8 o'clock that night. On our arrival, we became acquainted with other girls and leaders. We found that previous to our arrival a leader had been assigned to each unit; and each of these had drawn a number from a hat for the plot of ground her unit would have. It was our luck to get one on a hill! Try setting up lashed tables on a hillside!

We started setting up the unit early Saturday morning, and on Monday morning everything was ready for the aides.

The completed unit included four sleeping tents, cabinets, work table, wash basin, shower, cache, two fireplaces, drains for grease and dishwater, a kitchen tent flap, dining room table and benches, and a weather vane in the shape of the state of Massachusetts carved by Mrs. Mansfield!

We only met the girls from the other units in the evening around the camp fire for the whole camp, because we were too busy during the day. There aren't many girls and leaders who could work and have so much fun together as we did at Cooperstown! And I am sure that the work and the fun we had will never be forgotten by any of the Senior Scouts who were so lucky as to be chosen.

HIGH SCHOOL HARRIERS WON AT EVERETT

Winchester High School's cross country team opened its 1948 season at Everett on Friday, September 24, by trampling Everett Vocational, 20-66. It was the first dual meet won by Winchester in three years and Capt. Tom McGowan had the distinction of leading home the pack after a battle with Johnson of Everett Vocational, who finished second.

Rounding out the first five were Sargent, Rocray and Blake, all of Winchester. McGowan's time was 8m.1s, just one second over the course record. The course was about one mile shorter than the regulation distance of two and one-half miles, and was very rough, the runners being crowded most of the way.

Coach Morse has had his boys out since the third day of school and they were in good condition.

The first 21 finishers were in order: 1, McGowan (W); 2, Johnson (E); 3, Sargent (W); 4, Rocray (W); 5, Blake (W); 6, Jesaraldo (E); 7, Riga (W); 8, Wolfe (W); 9, J. Underwood (W); 10, Antippas (W); 11, Foley (W); 12, Murphy (W); 13, Griffiths (W); 14, A. Underwood (W); 15, Sullivan (W); 16, Walters (W); 17, Ells (E); 18, Sorokin (W); 19, Lawton (W); 20, Mack (E); 21, Gorden (E).

WINCHESTER EDGES DEDHAM 2-1

Winchester's hockey talent again demonstrated itself last Sunday by a 2 to 1 defeat over a weak, but stubborn, Dedham sextet at the Boston Skating Club. The locals pressed Dedham for the majority of the game, and the fast type of hockey played by the Winchester crowd is not represented by the close score. Both teams showed need of more conditioning and a little sharpening of the shooting eye, but with a second game under its belt the home team showed a marked improvement over its first game.

Dick Collins slapped in Dean Tolman's rebound early in the first period after a scramble in front of the Dedham net and Winchester ended the period by hemming in the visitors. Once again, early in the second period, Winchester scored as Wimpy Burtnett grabbed a pass from Livingstone in front of the net and shot a beautiful backhander to the far corner. The second period ended with no further scoring, but with Winchester holding the edge of play. Late in the third Duryea of Dedham flipped a loose puck over the prostrate Connor for the only Dedham score.

The game on the whole was clean but with two questionable penalties for Winchester, one to Dave Merrow for interference and the other to Frank Livingstone for a trip. Scottie Connor played an exceptionally fine game in the goal considering the earliness of the season. Credit must be given to Dick Collins and Bill Dingwell for their spirited playing since joining the club. The whole team played well considering the lack of conditioning. The two Lally brothers looked good for Dedham as did Ed Hoyle in the goal.

Burtnett, rw		rw, Bradise

VICTORY FIELD, WATERTOWN

WINCHESTER AT WATERTOWN

Winchester High, smarting from its 15-6 defeat at the hands of Swampscott last Saturday, journeys to Victory Field, Watertown, tomorrow for what looks like another tough game with Class B Watertown High, commencing at 2:30. The Winchester band is going along and as Watertown usually has a good band there should be plenty of color at least.

Those who would sell Winchester short for this one should let their memories drift back to last year, when a Watertown team touted as the club to beat for the Class B title, had to get some real help from the officials and a perfectly executed trick play to beat Winchester, 7-0.

The week before that one Swampscott spattered Winchester all over the landscape, 24-0. A break or two could have given the locals a win over Swampscott last Saturday, and Watertown does not have a team comparable to last year's fine club.

Watertown will be favored. The Scarlet is a B club and last Saturday tied Dedham, which is usually a pretty fair team. If the weights sent over by Watertown are correct, the teams are evenly matched physically, but we suspect the Scarlet will be bigger, especialy on the rushline, than the published poundage.

We personally wouldn't be surprised to see Winchester give Watertown quite a ball game. The locals showed some nice plays last Saturday that just didn't go. They may tomorrow.

FIELD HOCKEY OUTLOOK NOT ROSY

Winchester's chances for a winning field hockey season do not look too bright at this point, and Coach Helen Carroll is trying all sorts of combinations in an effort to distribute her strength to best advantage. Thus far the forward line has shown promise, but defensively the team looks woefully weak, as evidenced by the 6-1 shellacking handed the high schoolers by an alumnae group at a recent practice session.

Veteran players included Capt. Dottie Kelley at right inner, Lynn Aitkens at left wing and Dee Barrett at center half. There are a number of second team players available and Coach Carroll is working hard to select a group for the opening game with Stoneham October 6. Following is the schedule:

October:
6 at Stoneham
14 Malden
19 at Concord
25 Belmont
29 at Arlington

November:
2 at Watertown
5 at Melrose

ELKS INTER-LODGE TOURNEY OPENS OCT. 21

Winchester goes to Winthrop Thursday, Oct. 21, for its first match in the Greater Boston Inter-Lodge Tournament League. Sam Kinton and Charlie Meek, Sr., represented Winchester at a league meeting Wednesday evening at Melrose. Tournament matches will be played in bridge, 45's, pool, billiards, cribbage and bowling. The league will sponsor a Ladies' Night Nov. 20, at Newton Lodge.

Friends of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Drake (Marjorie Rush) of Pleasant Hill, Tenn., will be interested to learn of the arrival of their second child, a daughter, Laurel Elizabeth, on Sunday, Sept. 26, at Pleasant Hill.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE DINED

Members of the Winchester Softball League with their officials, invited guests and fans, 150 strong, enjoyed a most successful post-season banquet Tuesday evening at Aberjona Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Hall in Waterfield Building. Roast beef was the principal dish.

Seated at the head table with Edward A. Bartlett, league head and master of ceremonies, were the guest speaker, Dr. Kosloff; Tom Duddy, senior vice commander of Aberjona Post, V. F. W., Park Commissioners Kenneth Caldwell and Fred Ives, Park Superintendent Herbert S. Mullen, John D. West, chairman of the Recreation Committee, sponsors of the softball program; Ted Norris, Winchester member of the Olympic swimming team; Henry T. Knowlton, director of athletics at Winchester High; Eugene Rotundi, venerable of Winchester Lodge, Sons of Italy, 1948 league champions; Manager Frank Procopio of the Sons of I[illegible] team; Manager Hall Gamage of the Sachems, runners-up; and Robert Fiore, banquet ticket chairman.

Mr. Bartlett ably filled the post of toastmaster for the post-prandial festivities, calling upon representatives of various teams for extempore remarks which were much enjoyed. Those who responded, more or less, were Bill Smith of the Atomics, John Sexton of the Red Shirts, "Skitchie" Fiore of St. Mary's and Stanley Puffer, umpire baiter of the Comets. W. Allan Wilde spoke for the fans, praising the league and players for the fine competitive spirit shown through the season.

Dr. Kosloff was guest speaker, and after expertly baiting the audience with a pseudo exaltation of Russia and denunciation of the United States, announced himself as Geoffrey Whalen, a professional humorist. Mr. Whalen's act was well done, so well done that several at the head table were surreptitiously edging out of line of the barrage momentarily expected from the increasingly outraged audience. So well did the speaker put his stuff across that cooler heads in the audience were completely taken in and rose to urge their menacing fellow members to accord Dr. Kosloff a hearing despite the fact that his views were abhorrent. Many faces were on the red side at the denouement.

Highlighting the evening was the presentation of a trophy, emblematic of the league championship, to the Sons of Italy team by the donor, Charlie Kochs of the Sport Shop. Venerable Rotundi, replying for the lodge, insisted that Manager Procopio of the Sons of Italy team receive the trophy, and reluctantly "Hokie" said a few words of appreciation. Other speakers were Mr. West, Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Norris and John D. Hanlon, local free-lance writer; the last two telling in interesting fashion of the recent Olympics, one from the standpoint of a competitor and the other as a covering newspaper man.

After the speaking program Mr. Knowlton showed motion pictures of the Lexington and Swampscott games with explanations and appropriate comments.

Tom Duddy was in charge of arrangements for the evening, assisted by Joe Duran and Harry Lindmark.

Alert Visitors Capitalized on Winchester Mistakes. Locals Blew T. D. Chances

A hard-charging alert Swampscott High team outscored a sluggish Winchester High eleven in an exciting game that saw the Blue and Silver Sculpins capitalize on three Winchester mistakes while the local boys failed to take advantage of opportunities that would have brought them victory by a comfortable margin.

Both teams had big uniformed bands and there was plenty of marching and color both before the game and between the halves, though somehow or other there was no "Star Spangled Banner" by either band. Swampscott brought a group of attractively uniformed drum-majorettes to Winchester, and between the halves these girls, put on a combination dancing-tumbling act, aided by big white hoops, that deserved the enthusiastic applause it drew from the big crowd.

Statistics show Winchester and Swampscott were very evenly matched. Winchester made the more first downs, 12-9, with Swampscott having a rushing edge, 185 yards to 174. Winchester was the more air-minded, throwing 18 aerials and completing seven for 73 yards, while Swampscott completed two of four passes for 19 yards. The Sculpins lost 25 yards in penalties while the only penalty assessed against the locals was refused. Each team fumbled three times.

While Winchester had a big edge in the air, it was this air-mindedness that led to the locals' undoing. Winchester obviously could have swept the Swampscott ends four out of five times for substantial gains, and had the locals stuck to this form of ground attack might well have won instead of lost.

On the other hand any one of four passes, two to Slack and one each to Dillingham and Amico, would have resulted in touchdowns and the ball game had they been just a bit better executed. In both instances Slack was beyond the nearest receiver, but the ball didn't quite reach him. Amico's pass to Dillingham on the final play of the first half just glanced off Pete's outstretched fingertips at the Swampscott 15 with no one within ten yards, and Dillingham's third period pass to Amico just wasn't covered properly. There wasn't a Swampscott boy within a country mile of Paul on that one, and had he simply crossed over to take the ball he could have walked the rest of the way for the touchdown that would have put Winchester ahead to stay.

The game had hardly begun when Swampscott blocked an Amico punt and recovered at the locals' 33. The locals stopped the Sculpins dead and Losano kicked outside at Winchester's 14. A Swampscott offside and a 14 yard dash around Swampscott's right end by "Lally" Myers put the ball on the 33. Here on a jump-pass Amico was hemmed in and threw the ball directly into the arms of Left Guard Dennis of Swampscott, who got back to the 33 yard marker.

Robinson, on a fake handoff and spinner got through to the locals' 16, then was piled up without gain, and then drove through a the trapped local line to the 5.

The fighting local linesmen held Robinson and Rawding to a scant two yards in two tries at the line, but on third down, Robinson sliced through over Winchester's right guard for the touchdown. Losanos dropkicked in the extra point on a curving shot that was declared good.

Winchester gave a fine exhibition of power in scoring after the ensuing kickoff. "Lally" Myers handed off the kickoff ball on a criss-cross to Dillingham and Dill just missed getting away from the field, being hauled down on the local 40 after a 30 yard advance.

Dillingham swept right end for eight, and then after Amico was held without gain, Myers, on a reverse, swept away across the field to the Swampscott 41. Amico dented center for seven, and then after a fumble had been recovered, Paul again fought his way through the line to the Swampscott 30.

One pass fell incomplete, but Amico hit Vern Slack for seven and then bucked for another yard. On fourth down Myers behind good blocking again swept Swampscott's right end for a first down just inside the five. The locals didn't fool around. Dillingham, behind three-man interference, really drove off his own right tackle to go over standing up. Instead of kicking, Winchester elected to rush, and for some unknown reason sent Amico on a sweep around his own right end. He just failed to make the yardage. Dillingham could have made it easily, he's that much faster.

Swampscott drove after the kickoff all the way from their 38 to the Winchester 28 when a holding penalty put the ball back on the 43 and forced the Sculpins to kick.

Dillingham was spilled at the 11 on the punt, and then the locals started a drive, sparked by a 26 yard jaunt by Dillingham that reached the Swampscott 38. Pete made the run of the game on that one, and had a mate or two blocked for him he would have gone all the way, no doubt about it.

From the 38 Carroll took a handoff from Amico and passed out to Dillingham, who passed down the field to Amico. The pass was partially blocked, and Paul had to come back for it. He made a great catch in a bunch of Swampscott boys and fought his way to the 20. Either Dillingham or Myers could probably have swept for a score but the locals elected to pass with time running out, and it wasn't a bad gamble, for had Amico's jump pass not been just a hair, and a thin hair at that, too far for Dillingham to reach, Peter would have gone to town. The ball glanced off his reaching fingers at the 15 with no one too close.

Winchester lost a chance to go ahead early in the third quarter. The locals ran the kickoff to their 28 and despite the loss of 12 yards on a Myers reverse, reached the Swampscott 45. Here Winchester again tried the hand-off, pitchout pass from Dillingham to Amico. Dillingham arched a corking pass across the field to the sprinting Amico, all alone well inside the Swampscott 20. Paul didn't change direction soon enough and just missed the leather. The whole complexion of the game changed soon afterward.

Carone ran Amico's punt back to his 21 and the Sculpins put together three first downs to reach the Winchester 45. The visitors got a lot of forward progress on that middle first down which they made by inches only.

With the ball at the 45 Carone started on a reverse and cut back over Winchester's right tackle slot to edge past several tacklers and finally go all the way to the Winchester end zone. Poor tackling, rather than brilliant running featured the dash, good as it was. Losano failed to kick the goal.

You still had a feeling Winchester was in the ballgame. Dillingham got the kickoff back to the 25, despite a fumble on the criss-cross from Myers. Dillingham faded and rifled a long pass to Slack, which Vern couldn't quite hold. Another jump-pass was again intercepted, this time by Rawding who headed for the far sideline and was barely knocked outside by Mottolo at the Winchester 3.

Rawding was a stopped short on a buck, and on a second drive into the line the ball was fumbled and recovered by "Gunner" Abrahamson, whose defensive play was good all afternoon.

Winchester tried the end around with a long pass out to Dill, but the pass wasn't within waving distance of the speeding Peter, who was out there again, alone as usual.

Definite interference on a pass play gave Winchester a first down at the 14, a Dillingham to Carroll pass reached the 21 and Dillingham drove to a first down at the 26.

A jump passout to Dillingham was no good, and a long pass from Dillingham to Slack, just lacked the necessary height to reach tall Vern, who had gotten behind three Swampscott defenders.

On the next play Webster knocked the ball out of Carroll's hands and recovered at Winchester's 24. The Sculpins' ground game faltered but a pass from Robinson to McCathern reached the 6 and first down.

Robinson and Carone were stopped at the line, but another pass to Carone reached the one, and on fourth down the Sculpins sent Robinson into the center of the line on a play similar to their first scoring buck. This time the hard-hitting fullback was stopped cold by Abrahamson and the whole middle of the Winchester line.

Winchester took over and with Amico back in the end zone the locals apparently got their signals mixed for the ball went back away past Paul beyond the end zone for an automatic safety.

That ended the scoring but there was plenty of action right up to the final whistle which saw Winchester driving toward Swampscott's goal, only to have a Dillingham pass intercepted by McCathern at the Sculpins' 26 to end the scoring threat. The summary:

WYANOKE HIGH IN NATIONAL RIFLE RANKING

Camp Wyanoke, the Bentley camp for boys on Lake Winnepesaukee in Wolfeboro, was placed among National camp teams and 4th among those from New England as a result of its showing in the National Rifle Association matches for summer camps this season

Winchester boys on the Wyanoke team, coached, incidentally, by George Gould of this town, were Dave Shiverick, Bob Oxford and Dick Richmond. Individually Bob Oxford was placed 15th in the nation and Dick Richmond, 17th. Since the NRA age limit for senior camp teams is up to 19, the boys did very well.

A Winchester boy, John Richmond, had the distinction of leading the junior division for boys under 15 with a score of 198/200. Other Wyanoke boys were second and third in this division.

SWITZER INJURED IN HARVARD PRACTICE

Tall Al Switzer, regular end on last year's Winchester High School football team, sustained a knee injury Monday while scrimmaging with the Harvard freshman eleven against the varsity at Soldier's Field. X-rays were taken and showed no breaks, but the former Winchester three-sport star, was on crutches for a couple of days and it is not known just how soon he will be able to resume play.

Switzer is one of two Winchester boys on the Harvard freshman squad, the other being Charlie Walsh, captain of the 1944 team and later Choate School star.

Apropos of last week's excitement over the statement that a school in Winchester is a potential fire-trap, it is always well to remember that there are two sorts of fire hazards, those that start fires and those that intensify fires once they are started. Either is bad, of course, but conditions that start fires constitute much the more serious menace. The local authorities seem to think that our schools are well off with respect to conditions that could lead to a fire. They are, however, checking carefully to make absolutely certain that Winchester's children are not being subjected to unreasonable fire risks.

Aside from the good time provided for those who attended, Tuesday evening's Softball League was very much worth while in providing another basis for that sort of spirit which is such an asset to any community. At the banquet men and young men from all parts of town, of all races and creeds, sat down with town officials in the fellowship of clean sport to enjoy a good meal and entertainment. Such occasions can not help but bring those who attend them closer together, and games like softball enable participants to learn that the guys they do not like because they do not know them are pretty good fellows after all while the chaps they have set on pedestals are only human when the going is tough on the playing field. The Park Commissioners and the Recreation Committee have made a good beginning in making basketball and softball available to a group of young people who need the outlet these sports provide. The town should see to it that the program is continued.

HELP THE HAPPINESS OF ADULT CITIZENS

Editor of the Star:

During the past few years, residents of Winchester have witnessed the construction of a considerable number of playgrounds and other such facilities for the young folks of this town, and up to the present no one has been more in accord with this program than the writer.

However, for the past four or five or more weeks, I have watched with interest the process of creating between the old and new parkways what I understand is to be a combination hockey field and skating field in winter with tennis courts for summer diversion, and which no one needs to be told is running into plenty of money. (The need of tennis courts, indeed, must be drastic. Apparently there are hundreds and hundreds of our young people who are desirious of taking up this sport, but lack opportunity). Expense, moreover, does not end with the completion of the project. The courts must, of course, be kept in usable shape, and it will take quite a bit of money to keep the snow off the skating rink in winter, for it will have to be trucked away, there being, so far as I can see, no place to throw or shove it off, due to the close proximity of the wire fence surrounding the premises.

I am no statistician, nor have I access to research facilities, but I will hazard the opinion that every time one of our young men circumnavigates the new running track, so elaborately laid out in the new Manchester Field development, it will have cost the town in the vicinity of $10.00 - a high rate, I submit, for a town of even Winchester's resources.

After seeing these elaborate devices for what Mr. Craughwell so aptly terms "developing the anatomies" of our young people, I have come to the conclusion that possibly the town should take under advisement the construction of some kind of building, edifice, or what have you, where the old folks of the town could enjoy themselves in their mild fashion and thereby perhaps gain a little healthful recreation and entertainment, they being the ones who, in the main, have to pay the taxes. I can even visualize a more or less elaborate pavilion where we might perhaps play a little "contract," or Chinese Checkers, and where there could be installed an up-to-date television set or two, to while away a few more happy hours.

This would, I am sure, go far to help increase the comfort and happiness of adult Winchester citizens, to say nothing of their physical development.

Sincerely,
Ernest Dudley Chase.

MILITARY MANPOWER COMMITTEE MET

29 Sept. 1948

Editor of the Star:

Yesterday the full membership of the Military Manpower Committee met with Major Douglas H. McKillop, CO, Main Recruiting Office, Boston, and members of his staff. Personnel of the Winchester Military Manpower Committee is as follows: Mr. Ralph Bonnell, Mr. Edward Bartlett, Mr. Norton Dempsey, Mr. Frank Hurley, Mr. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., Mr. Allan Wilde, and Mrs. K. B. Toye, chairman.

Major McKillop was enthusiastic over the Winchester set-up and the progress already made. He wishes the members of the Committee to know that he appreciates their willingness to serve as evidenced by the 100% attendance yesterday. The writer wishes to thank Mr. Wade Grindle for his cooperation in allowing us to raid his department of two key personalities.

S Sgt. William Knee outlined to the Committee the purposes of the Committee, the necessity of excellent public relations between the armed services and the civilian population and what the New Army has to offer. The writer reported on what has been done to date, asked for—and received—suggestions on how to get the Army's story over to the public. Major McKillop again expressed his appreciation of the cooperation of the Winchester Star, and the writer begs Mr. Wilson's further indulgence. Mr. Robert Graham, feature writer of the Boston Herald covered the meeting and on Sunday is writing a story on the Military Manpower Committees in general and Winchester in particular.

The Military Manpower Committee would like to set up a Steering Committee consisting of a key figure in every fraternal organization, club, religious orgaanization, etc. in Winchester. It would be of very great help if the new officers of these organziations would kindly contact the writer so that we may explain to them, in person, the functions and ambitions of the Winchester Military Manpower Committee.

It is with a sigh of relief that the writer is advised by Mrs. Spaulding, President of the Women's Council, that the Council will shortly hold its first meeting and has asked the writer and Army/Air Force personnel to be present to biefly outline this new venture. The cooperation of the Council assures town coverage among the mothers of Winchester—something the Army and Air Force are particularly desirous of having. It occured to the writer that members of the Council may not have had the opportunity of looking over a modern Army installation—such as Fort Devens—so has asked for and received permission to take as many members of the Council as might be interested to Fort Devens on an inspection tour. The Army will take care of transportation and you may see the Fort from top to bottom.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. K. B. Toye,
Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

THANK YOU!

The Flower Circle of the New Hope Baptist Church wishes to thank its many friends and advertisers for making the Musical Tea held Sunday afternoon September 19th a success.

Onida Kimbro, President.

To the Boston and Maine for transportation and especial thanks to the Baggage master for his ever ready, cheerful helpfullness. Also to Miss Hattie Snow, Cummings The Florist and to the Winchester Conservatories for their weekly bouquets.

The Ladies of the Catholic Episcopalian Congregational and Unitarian Churches have all helped us in many ways.

The Society wishes to invite everyone interested in the many different phases of Gilbert and Sullivan productions to an open meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the recreation hall of the First Baptist Church. AULD LANG SYNE

A group of former Winchester High School athletes met Tuesday evening for a reunion dinner with their old coach, Wendell D. Mansfield, now director of athletics at Pomfret School in Connecticut.

Dinner was enjoyed at the Hotel Manger in Boston, followed by the showing of motion pictures, produced by Dr. "Bill" Hickey, former quarterback in Mansfield's days at high school and taken by his father, Mr. William F. Hickey of Edgehill road. Time passed rapidly as everyone picked out the local players in the films, a number of whom were at the dinner. Few compliments came their way from their needling companions.

There was no formal program. Mr. Mansfield spoke briefly of his pleasure at meeting again with his former players, but aside from his remarks there was no "after dinner speaking".

There was plenty of talking of course. In fact that was the principal feature of the get-together as friend reminisced with friend and the "good old days" were pulled from the mothballs and dusted off again. Many at the party had not seen each other since their high school days and there was much to discuss. During the evening, Bruce Colpas, who acted as "Em Cee" and who really was responsible for the party, presented Mr. Mansfield with a football bearing the signatures of those present.

TROOP 12 TO MARCH IN HUGE C. Y. O. PARADE

The Troop, in full uniform, will attend the 8:00 a. m. Mass and receive holy Communion on Sunday, October 3rd. In the afternoon they will march in the C.Y.O. Youth Parade in Boston with other youth groups of St. Mary's and a Float. The parade route will be from Hereford street at Beacon, along Beacon to Park, to Tremont to Boylston street and disbanding at Copley Square.

A group of Winchester Country Club ladies have been attending the Women's Senior Golf tournament at Westchester, N. Y., during the week. The party includes Mrs. Maurice F. Brown, Mrs. Alan Howard and Mrs. Henry Reeves of Winchester and Mrs. Bonnie Sprague of Melrose. They return this week-end.

INTER-CLUB SMOKER AT WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB

For the first time in many a moon, it'll be "men only" at the Winchester Boat Club, when a Sports Night Smoker will be held Tuesday evening at 8:00 p. m. If you are a male 16 or over and have a quarter, you're invited. And it'll be worth many times twenty-five cents.

First of all, Paul Swaffield, speaker par excellence, and a football referee who handles most of the big games around these parts will give us many interesting and amusing anecdotes about football teams, players and coaches. Anyone who has ever heard Paul in action at the Advertising Club of Boston knows he is tops for fun and facts.

Second, there'll be sound movies on general sports and a movie featuring the football highlights on '47 plus Comedies etc.

There'll be other entertainment and loads of free refreshments at the conclusion of festivities.

It's a joint Smoker with the male members of the Medford Boat Club who are co-sponsers of the party. The Club having the most members present will win an award. Here's one trophy we can take from Medford by just being present, so let's all get down to the Club Tuesday Night.

BUSINESS WOMEN MEET OCTOBER 6

The first Fall meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Guild, First Congregational Church, will take place Wednesday evening, October 6, with dessert and coffee at 7:30 o'clock, followed by the business meeting and colored films. Dessert will be served to all members and their guests in the Kindergarten Room, Parish House, and the meeting will follow at 8 o'clock in the Ladies' Parlor.

All Winchester women in business or a profession will be welcomed to this meeting and to all others during the eventful year which the Guild has planned for its members.

Those attending on Wednesday evening will have the pleasure of hearing a most entertaining talk by Rev. L. G. Van Leeuwen of Stoneham on "This Is My Father's World."

Miss Helen Monroe has charge of the coffee and dessert, Mrs. George E. Connor will preside at the meeting, with devotions by Mrs. Donald Tarr.

Due to a typographical error no mention was made in the account of a party given Mrs. Harry Dotten last week of a gold pin which was presented to her on behalf of her friends and neighbors present. The pin was a handsome one and the STAR regrets that its original story made no mention of it.

John F. Hall, 4 Holton street, has been granted a license to sell certain articles on the Lord's day at 105 Cross street, formerly licensed to John I. MacLean.

Dorothea I. Sutcliffe and Beverly A. Smith have been granted a license as dealers in second-hand articles, doing business as Kiddos Kloset, to sell children's clothing and accessories at 5 Park street.

Board of Survey hearings will be held on October 11 on petitions for a street off Henry street, as yet unnamed, and Oakland Circle off Grove street, at 8 and 8:30 p. m. respectively. See ads.

Sherman B. Russell, 1 Wolcott road, was appointed to the Town Forest Committee to fill the unexpired term of the late Marshall J. England.

The various organizations in town are again reminded that functions at which any kind of admission is charged must be licensed by the Selectmen in order to avoid possible penalties, and that such licenses must be obtained prior to the date of such function. The Board meets only once a week, on Monday evening, so chairmen of committees should govern themselves accordingly. A possible fine up to $500 is a stiff penalty to pay for negligence.

Golden Text: "That night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light" (Romans 13:12).
Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:
"Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?... But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Matthew 6:25,33). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:
"Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need. It is not well to imagine that Jesus demonstrated the divine power to heal only for a select number or for a limited period of time, since to all mankind and in every hour, divine Love supplies all good" (p. 494).

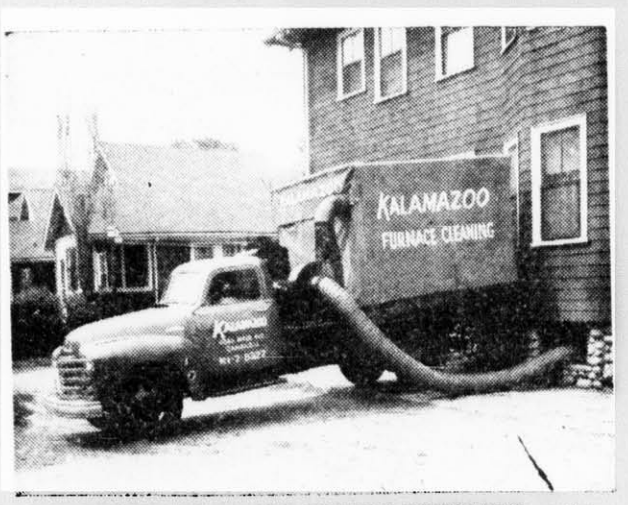
A Kalamazoo Service Gives Safe, Economical Heating



KALAMAZOO SALES AND SERVICE COMPANY'S service truck used in power cleaning furnaces. A sure, safe way to insure better heating at a lower cost. A phone call now, to KI 7-8327 will give you a winter of trouble-free heating.

With the approach of the Fall season it would be well to phone and have a check-up of your home heating system. A thorough furnace cleaning will help you save fuel and will provide a warmer heat from the fuel you're using.

And remember, too, that a faulty furnace is a fire hazard and so unnecessary when you consider the small cost of such a service. Don't put it off. Chilly fall days will soon be here and a warm, trouble-free furnace will come in handy. Phone KALAMAZOO, KI 7-8327 or KI 7-6394 for cleaning or repairing on any make of furnace. COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION TO PRESENT WHITTEMORE AND LOWE, DUO PIANISTS

The Community Concert Committee has announced the selection of the celebrated and popular young piano duo, Whittemore and Lowe, as artists for one of the concerts to be presented this season. Others will be revealed at the close of the membership campaign which is to be inaugurated tonight at the Winchester Country Club where Miss Adelaide Homer, president of the Association, will welcome all officers, members of the board of directors and campaign workers at a dinner. The campaign will run from Oct. 1 to Oct. 9, with headquarters generously loaned by Sophie Bowman of 45 Church street.

Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., general chairman, has reunited a group of workers who will contact last season's members for their renewals, and also canvas for new memberships up to the capacity of the high school auditorium.

Whittemore and Lowe, the first musicians to be chosen by the committee, had a sold-out tour of over 70 engagements last season, meeting with enthusiastic audiences everywhere, and they are already sold out again this year. They enjoy the privilege of being exclusive duo piano recording artists for Victor. (This will be of particular interest to the student members, who are undoubtedly familiar with the recent album "Doubling on the Ivories," the largest selling Victor album in its field.)

The campaign will close promptly at noon on Saturday, Oct. 9, unless the memberships have been completely subscribed prior to that time. Last year some people understood too late that no tickets are ever sold for single concert performances, and sent in their applications so belatedly they had to be refused. This year's innovation is that student members are no longer limited in their choice of seats but may sit wherever they wish.

Headquarters will be open daily from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

COMPETITIVE EXAM FOR NAVY COLLEGE TRAINING DECEMBER 11

The Navy announced recently that the third nation-wide competitive examination for its College Training Program has been scheduled for December 11, 1948, and will be open to high school seniors or graduates within the age requirements. Successful candidates will be given a four year college education at government expense and will be commissioned as officers of the Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation.

The program is open to male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21, and quotas have been assigned to each state and territory on the basis of its high school population. Those who are successful in passing the aptitude test will be interviewed and given physical examinations; then, if found in all respects qualified, their names will be submitted to state and territorial Selection Committees composed of prominent citizens and naval officers. The Navy expects to enter about 2,350 students into the program commencing with the fall term of college, 1949.

The students selected by these competitive examinations will be assigned to the 52 Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps units which are located in various universities and colleges in the United States. If accepted by the college, they will be appointed Midshipmen, U.S.N.R., and will have their tuition, books, and normal fees paid for by the government. In addition they will receive pay at the rate of $50.00 a month for the four-year period. Upon graduation they may be commissioned as officers in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and required to serve on active duty for two years. At the end of this time they may apply for retention in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or transfer to the Reserve and return to civilian life.

Applications are available at high schools, colleges, Offices of Naval Officer Procurement and Navy Recruiting Stations.

Mr. Wade L. Grindle, Principal of Winchester High School, who is acting as the Navy's local civilian representaive, will be pleased to provide specific information about the program, including the time and place of the competitive examination, the method of making application, and the specific age and scholastic qualifications.

MARYCLIFF DEDICATION

The new Marycliff Academy on High street was dedicated Sunday, September 19, by the Right Reverend Walter J. Furlong, Chancellor of the Boston Archdiocese. The beautiful new building, which houses the high school grades, contains well-lighted, air-conditioned classrooms and a spacious gymnasium-auditorium.

More than seven hundred persons witnessed the dedication ceremonies which opened with a procession. The Academy Students, dressed in white, were led by the Cross Bearer, Bernard Lane of Arlington. Fifteen priests who preceded Monsignor Furlong, filed from the former Sanborn Mansion along High street to the new building where the blessing took place.

The procession returned by way of High street to the spacious lawn, in front of the beautiful residence, where Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given. Monsignor Furlong, replacing His Excellency Archbishop Cushing, was the celebrant. Assisting him were Reverend John P. O'Riordan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Winchester, deacon; and Reverend Timothy O'Leary, Assistant Superintendent of Schools of the Archdiocese, sub-deacon Reverend William Kelley, Chaplain of Marycliff in Arlington was the Master of Ceremonies.

Through the courtesy of Reverend James Ryan the prize C.Y.O. Band of St. Joseph's Church, Medford played during the outdoor Benediction. The main speaker for the occasion, Monsignor Furlong congratulated the Christian Education for their fine work in training young Catholic ladies. The Chancellor of the Archdiocese not only congratulated the Religious, their pupils, and parents, but also the community in which they are located.

While OPEN HOUSE was held for the residents of Winchester and friends of the Religious of Christian Education, St. Joseph's Band, Archdiocesan Champions for three years, entertained with numerous selections. Throngs crowded to visit the convent and the new school.

Boston Architects, Maginnis and Walsh designed the new academy. The school was built by the Volpe Construction Company. Mr. John Volpe who is president of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church, Winchester, and heads the Sons of Italy, was in charge of the construction. At present the Volpe Construction Company is completing the new wing of the Beth Israel Hospital.

The subject of the meeting is "My Treasure" and it will certainly be most interesting to hear of each other's greatest treasure. Mrs. Martin Swanson, who has recently returned from an extended trip through Europe, and Mrs. E. H. Garrison, who toured the Northwest this past summer, will bring their impressions and experiences of these parts of the world. Mrs. Malcolm C. Wilson will lead the devotions of the afternoon.

MASON SWISS BELL RINGERS IN CONCERT AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The nationally known Mason Swiss Bell Ringers, consisting of the Rev. and Mrs. Benard Mason, of Los Angeles, Calif., will present a most unusual and unique sacred concert at the First Baptist Church on Friday, Oct. 8, at 8 p. m.

The program will consist of familiar hymns and gospel songs played on a large array of musical instruments rarely heard on any entertainment platform. Some of the instruments to be used are as follows: Swiss Hand Bells, Musical Glasses, Singing Saw, Golden Vibraharp, the world's largest set of Triple Octave Chimes and the instrument of mystery, "The Victor Theremin." The latter instrument has no key-board, strings, reeds or pipes and responds to the motions of the player's hands waving over it in space without being touched. This instrument must be seen to be appreciated.

The Mason Swiss Bell Ringers have travelled and presented their concerts in almost every state in the Union during the last 16 years. They have appeared in thousands of schools and churches and over many radio stations and have become nationally famous for their interpretation of sacred music on many novel instruments.

There will be no admission charge to this concert but a free-will offering will be received.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION HEAR DR. PARRY

A large attendance of women turned out on Tuesday afternoon, September 28, in the Social Hall of the First Congregational Church, to welcome Dr. J. Burford Parry of the Wellesley Congregational Church, as guest speaker of the afternoon at the Women's Association's fall meeting. Dr. Parry's subject was "What about our Freedom.", and having just returned from a summer of travelling through England, Wales, and the Continent, he knows whereof he speaks.

Born in Wales and educated at Oxford and Yale, Mr. Parry has returned to his birthplace each summer for the past 25 years, thereby noting the gradual loss of freedom of the people of Europe. He proved himself to be an excellent speaker, a perfect mimic of man's characteristics, and he carried his audience with him in laughter, pathos, and inspiration to the very end.

Dr. Parry was introduced by Dr. Howard Chidley, Mrs. Clarence Wickerson led the Worship Service, and a delicious tea was served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Alice Drew and her committee. The Home Church Guild was Hostess for the meeting.

ATTENDED REGATTA IN WASHINGTON

Meachams Saw Former Schoolmate Crowned Queen

Miss Dini and Miss Jan Meacham of Lakeview terrace flew to Washington last week-end to attend the President's Cup Regatta on the Potomac River, a boating event that attracts leading skippers and boat owners from all over the country.

Dini and Jan were guests of their uncle, Captain E. M. Meacham of Washington, and saw the races from his boat, having the distinction of being invited to the officials ship between races.

For the Meachams the highlight of the Regatta was the crowning of Miss Margery Clifford, a former Winchester High School mate as queen of the Regatta. Her crown and scepter were presented by no less a parsonage than Vice Admiral William Morrow Frechteler, deputy chief of naval operations.

"Gerry" Clifford will be remembered by many in Winchester as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Clifford, who were in Winchester a great deal while living at Mrs. Clifford's old home, the Kimball Arms in Woburn. "Gerry", a tall striking blonde is winning recognition with her voice in Washington and is appearing there in television.

"ROBIN HOOD" COMING TO WINCHESTER STAGE

The stage of the Winchester High School will come to life with the adventure-filled story of "Robin Hood" when the Tributary Children's Theatre group makes its first appearance here on the afternoon of Saturday, Nov. 27. These famous producers of children's plays will bring cast, costumes, and sets direct from their Boston stage at New England Mutual Hall and will present to the children of Winchester all the enchantment of the real theatre within walking distance of their homes.

This afternoon of fun is planned for Thanksgiving vacation time and is being announced today by Mrs. William G. Morse, Jr., of Cottage avenue, chairman of the group of local Radcliffe alumnae who are arranging the theatre to benefit the Radcliffe College 70th Anniversary Fund.

Hiscoe, as chairman of the Bazaar Committee has selected Mrs. Sydney A. Burr to take over the advertising, Mrs. Gerald Y. Hills the Gift Page, Mrs. F. E. Ritchie the Fashion Show tickets and Mrs. Marshall R. Pihl the publicity.

Mr. Walter Hampden inaugurates the new radio series, GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS, Friday, October 1, at 8 P. M. over all Mutual stations. The production is Cyrano de Bergerac, a role which Mr. Hampden has played more than 1000 times on the stage. Photo shows the dramatic climax of the play . . . "My White Plume!"

The new series is sponsored by the National Council of the Episcopal Church with the Episcopal Actors' Guild cooperating. It will be broadcast weekly at the same time, bringing great stars of stage and screen in fine dramatic productions.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH TO SPONSOR RADIO PLAY SERIES

In an effort to send a message to 70,000,000 Americans who have no church affiliations the Protestant Episcopal Church is instituting a radio series, "Great Scenes from Great Plays", opening tonight, October 1, at 8:30, over all Mutual Stations with the veteran actor, Walter Hampden appearing in Rostand's immortal "Cyrano de Bergerac." Thereafter Mr. Hampden will serve as host for succeeding play broadcasts to be given Friday evenings at the same hour over the same network.

Plays have been carefully chosen by the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church with the cooperation of the 800 members of the Episcopal Actors' Guild. Plays have been carefully chosen with a view to presenting a religious message and will be presented without hymns, prayers or scripture reading with announcements that differ only from regular programs in that they have nothing to sell but the message of the drama.

Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, writes in connection with the play series: "We all know that in this country there are millions of men and women who have no connection with any Christian Church. If this is to be a truly Christian nation, they must be reached and interested, and this must be done where they are and in a language at the initial approach they can understand.

"I urge your support of this new, to some daring, and yet essentially sound evangelistic plan."

INSTITUTING SAFETY CAMPAIGN

Promptly at the stroke of midnight on September 30, 9000 New England Electric System men and women started their 17th annual campaign against accidents. The campaign will aim to complete 31 days in October without a single disabling injury.

Prior to the inauguration of this annual drive, October was the worst month for this large group of public utilty people for industrial and highway accidents. As a result of past campaigns, October is now the safest month throughout the system.

Everett C. Bryant, manager of the Arlington Gas Light Company, announced this week that the Arlington Company will enter its 120 employees into this system-wide campaign, determined to do its share to complete the month with a perfect record.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR WRITER TO SPEAK

Mr. Roland Sawyer, staff writer for the Christian Science Monitor, will speak at the first meeting of the Evening Alliance of the Unitarian Church, Monday evening, Oct. 4, at 8 o'clock at the church. Mr. Sawyer is speaking on "Political Candidates." Everyone interested in this timely subject is cordially invited to attend.

WINCHESTER BOYS AT NEW HAMPTON

Several locars boys entered New Hampton School for Boys, New Hampton, N. H., when the school opened September 20 for its 128th year. They are: John S. Chaffe, son of Mr. J. Stewart Chaffe of 7 Warren street; Douglas A. Hamilton, son of Com. and Mrs. Donald G. Hamilton of 52 Oxford street; and Galen S. Vincent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Vincent of 3 Manchester road.

Richard H. Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Knight of 50 Oxford street; and Wesley B. Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Swanson of 3 Marshall road, resumed their secondary school work at New Hampton.

TENNIS CROWNS NEW CHAMPS

Last week-end the tournament committee maintained its incredible record for superb tennis weather during this year's Fall tournament. The game itself also held true to form locally, as nationally, by providing a series of upsets.

In the semis that were played off last Saturday Art Hills defeated Herb Ross 5-7, 7-5, 6-4; Hall Gamage and Jimmy Coon defeated Bud Nutter and G. Ed Williams 6-2, 6-0; Herb Ross and Sylvia Campbell defeated Jimmy and Wee-G Coon 6-3, 6-2. Then in the finals, which we describe elsewhere, the following were the new winners: Henry K. Fitts, Marnie Norris, Herb Ross and Art Hills, and Art and Dot Hills. The last team almost succeeded in refurnishing a room with the highly decorous and also utilitarian prizes awarded by the Committee. Besides being winners as here indicated, they were also the runners-up in the finals of the singles. They are certainly setting a stiff pace for Jeff and Jerry.!

And so the formal tennis season comes to an end. Yet in the afternoons, after school, and on weekends from now into early November it is likely that we shall see many die-hards playing away at their favorite sport. As we gaze back over the past season, however, visions still linger: sheer fun, good sportsmanship, dust, and weeds. No mentions or marks of calcium chloride can be recalled, nor any signs of chemical weed-killers: maybe the chemists are still only alchemists. And are we wrong again, or did we get a flitting glimpse of what might be called a materialization either of the zenith of democracy and demagoguery or of the nadir of management and ineptitude?

Richard Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Smith of 88 Church street, is a member of the Norwich University football squad this fall, being listed as a back. He is six feet tall and weighs 165 pounds.

MARNIE NORRIS WOMEN'S TOWN TENNIS CHAMP

After winning all sorts of state and regional tennis honors, Marjorie Norris, daughter of School Superintendent and Mrs. Forbes Norris and sister to the swimming champ Ted Norris, emerged victorious in Winchester's Women's Singles Tennis Championship Tournament. Last Saturday morning Marnie and Dot Hills, before a small but enthusiasitic gallery, fought at the Palmer Street courts for the Singles' honors. It looked for a time as though the first set might go to Dot, for she led 4-2 and then 5-3. At that point Marnie put on the pressure and took the next two games at fifteen and thirty. Thereupon the contestants proceeded to lose their respective serves twice in a row to make the score 7-all. The next two games Marnie took at fifteen and love, and thereby the first set at 9-7. The first six games of the second set were shared equally, whereupon Marnie took the succeeding three games: two of them at fifteen and the eighth game after two deuces, Dot serving.

It was a well fought final, and for this contest as well as for all the others the Committee can congratulate itself that the best contestants faced one another in the finals.

TOWN LINE, 19; SONS OF ITALY, 14

The Town Line, champions of the Woburn softball league, beat the Winchester champions, Sons of Italy, in a benefit game for Tony Saraco last Sunday afternoon, 19-14. Saraco broke his leg while playing with the Sons of Italy toward the end of the season and the team appreciates the response of the fans and the cooperation of the Town Line management with the respect to the benefit game.

Insofar as the game goes, it was a poor exhibition, though there was plenty of excitement and weird playing enough to keep everyone happy. The Town Line put over 10 runs in the 8th and 9th innings to clinch what was anyone's game till then.

Higgins and Duran pitched for the Town Line with Gangi, Procopio and DiMambro working for the Sons. Following is the score:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	r	h	e

WINCHESTER HAD GOOD SEASON IN PAUL REVERE LEAGUE

Winchester, for the first time in many years, had a team in the Paul Revere Baseball League this summer, and although the locals didn't win the circuit gonfalon, they gave a good account of themselves against teams much longer organized and more experienced.

Winchester did get into the league play-offs for the second half of the season, losing in the first round to the strong Lincoln team, a veteran outfit with loads of power.

Lou Warsky managed the Winchester team, and already is planning for next season when he expects to field a much stronger all around club, a team good enough to meet any of the teams on the circuit on even terms.

BELMONT P. O. TAKES WINCHESTER 4-0

McDougall of Belmont proved Winchester's undoing in the Suburban P. O. Bowling League. Bowling over 100 in every string, he simply outclassed the best that Winchester had, his three string total being 349.

While this was happening, Chelsea took Cambridge 3 to 1, Reading swamped Stoneham 4-0, Somerville still holding top place in the league took Melrose 4-0, Arlington socked Wakefield by the same score and Malden did the same to Charlestown.

Manager Davey of the Suburban P. O. Bowling League is now completing arrangements for a match at the end of the season between the post office leagues of Boston and vicinity to determine the championship of Greater Boston. The date has been tentatively set for May 16, the alleys to be decided at a later date, but will be in Boston.

McLAUGHLIN CHAMP!

"Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset, emerged with championship honors from last week-end's regular matches of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association on the "closed beach" courts. It is nothing new for Mr. McLaughlin to win titular honors at Palmer street, quite the regular thing as it were, but it isn't often even for him to win all his matches at one sitting, especially when he is saddled with partners like the Secretary and President R. P. Teele of the Boston Paper Trade. It's pretty hard even for a Pride of Stow to carry this pair to victory, and it gives some slight indication of the McLaughlin form last week-end that he was able to carry both Mr. Teele and the luckless Scribe to victory not once, but twice, each. That, my friends, is a real achievement!

Barely a quorum was present for the matches, Henry "Tiffany" Knowlton being busy with Trainer Lou Goddu licking the wounds of his Winchester High School football team after the rugged Swampscott game the day before, while Herbert "Garrulous" Gardner, the Dix street magnate, was reported as indisposed. Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham enabled the Association to field a quorum by joining, Mr. McLaughlin, the President and the lowly Scribe.

All the warriors had their moments. Mr. Pridham had one red hot stretch, which came of all times when he and Mr. McLaughlin were opposing the President and Secretary. Toward the end of hostilities, Mr. Teele threw three ringers in a row, his whoops of triumph causing the tennis gallery at the championship matches adjacent to the beach to raise a questioning eyebrow. The Secretary, of all people, made his contribution to the session by actually covering a double-header, thrown on by Mr. Pridham, who is getting a bit tired of having his doubles eternally covered.

Despite the flash-in-the-pan achievements of the trio named above, it was Mr. McLaughlin who was the winnah! Mr. Teele had a word to say about "sliding from the foul line" and "sportsmanship", but Mr. McLaughlin's rejoinder, "they all count", seemed rather well to cover the situation.

Coach "Joe" Tansey of Winchester had his Wentworth Institute football team, including "Sammy" Bellino, at his boys' camp, Hunter's Rest, in Groton, N. H., over the past week-end. Practice occupied plenty of the boys' time, but there was time out for eating, and in their spare time the football players gave "Muggins" a hand in closing the camp for the winter.

NATIONAL EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED WEEK

October 3rd to 9th, 1948

Remember — ABILITY not disability COUNTS

Before you, Mr. Employer, is a man who fought on the Beachheads of Tarawa or Anzio, who flew over bomb-gutted Tokio or fought in the Coral Sea. He is one of hundreds of thousands who marched in the Purple Heart Parade. Today he is an American looking for a job. Behind him are the hardships and dangers of war, the weary months in the hospital, and the long days of training for employment. Ahead of him is a future that is in your hands. What you do with his future is important to him, and to you.

MAN WANTED—We need hard-hitting veterans. We've hired many of them since V-J day. It pays off. Some aren't the same physically as they were before a Kamikaze attack off Okinawa, a shell burst below Cassino, or flak and flame over Kasserine Pass. Some have lost an arm or leg or eye. Others have hidden disabilities. But we have found these disabilities are not handicaps when we place them properly. Their efficiency and productive ability have saved us money. We need more workers of this type. We will continue to hire them throughout the year.

Signed: AN AMERICAN EMPLOYER

HELP WANTED—We'd like that job you have, Mr. Employer. There're more than a quarter of a million of us either actively looking for work or soon to leave hospitals or finish our training. There are many jobs we can fill capably. We know that surveys show that our fellow disabled veterans have been as efficient on the job as other workers, that they have had fewer accidents and have been reliable workers. We've put away that Purple Heart. Today we'll take our chances on that job you've got. We think you need us and we know we need you. We'll get your work done. And while we're doing that we'll pay for our homes and raise our families.

Signed: A DISABLED VETERAN

TEACHERS CLUB FORMULATES POLICY

Meeting in the Lincoln School Auditorium last Tuesday afternoon, more than a hundred teachers in the Winchester Public Schools heard the new president of the Teachers' Club, Miss Marguerite Asher, outline a comprehensive program for the current school year.

Printed programs prepared by a committee of which Miss Lydia Whittemore is chairman were distributed and reports of committees were heard.

Representatives of the various recreational groups told of their plans for the year. Mr. Otis Leary will direct the bowling league; Miss Edna Hatch, who exhibited several excellent pieces of work done by the seventh and eighth grade pupils in pottery, will direct the workers in ceramics; Miss Virginia French will assist another group in jewelry making; Mr. Arthur Butters will organize a series of monthly gatherings for those interested in playing bridge; and Miss Eleanor Anifantis will direct choral singing.

Plans for a dramatic production are in the hands of the Central Mothers' Association.

Officers for 1948-1949 are Marguerite Asher, president; Roland Nault, vice president; Winifred Richardson, secretary; and Virginia French, treasurer.

WINCHESTER BOY BOWDOIN GRID LEADER

Charles W. Lovejoy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lovejoy of Foxcroft road, is captain of the Bowdoin varsity football team which opened its current season with a 28-7 victory over Tufts last Saturday. At 5ft. 10 in. and 185 pounds he is one of the key men in a particularly big Bowdoin line this season, while his play a year ago earned him all Maine State honors.

"Charlie" graduated from Winchester High in 1945, after starring on both the football and track teams, Di spite his weight he was a sprinter on the track team, and was a rugged guard on "Charlie" Walsh's eleven that many close followers of Winchester football believe one of the best teams the high school ever had, and the best of Coach Knowlton's many fine teams, despite its lack of championship rating.

SCHOOLS TO SPONSOR DRIVER EDUCATION

At the regular meeting of the Winchester School Committee held last Monday evening it was voted to add driver education to the curriculum of the High School.

Mr. William F. Branley, instructor in Mechanical Drawing, will have charge of instruction. Further plans for the course will be announced later.

Miss Muriel Howard a 1948 graduate of Colby College and a graduate of Winchester High School in the class of 1944 has been elected assistant kindergarten teacher at the Lincoln School.

School Enrollment Exceeds 2500

An increase of twenty-one pupils in the Winchester Public Schools has raised the total enrollment to 2,510. On Monday, September 20, the High School reported an increase of three pupils, raising the total to 743. The Junior High School added one to raise the total there to 374. One pupil additional at Lincoln raises the figure to 214. One pupil was added to the Mystic enrollment, now 238. Six pupils increased the total at Noonan to 209. Four at Washington made their total 234. Wyman's enrollment was swelled to 498 by the addition of five more pupils, an increase of thirty-two over last year's September enrollment. The Mystic enrollment is twenty-eight more than last year. Total present enrollment in all schools exceeds last year's total by fifty-eight.

Frank Cross Weidman, son of Mr. John Charles Weidman, 31 Wildwood street and Thomas Neal McNamara, son of Comm. Philip Joseph McNamara of 51 Wedgemere avenue, have completed the Freshman Week orientation activities at Duke University and have been enrolled in the freshman class.

Bride Wins Battle of Budget

Pretty Mrs. H——, newlywed, knows how to get the most out of every food dollar — and how to please her hearty-eating husband, too. She uses lots of good, fresh milk.

"I asked my Hood Route Salesman," she says, "and he explained how much more nourishing — and cheap — milk is than any other food. Then he gave me Hood's book of 20 easy-to-prepare recipes. Now I take an extra quart of Hood's every day. It goes into soups, main dishes, and desserts, too. And we drink milk at every meal, of course. We 'eat like kings' — we're bursting with health — and, by using lots more milk in our diet, I need lots less money in my food budget!"

More and more people are agreeing with smart Mrs. H——. They know that milk gives you more for your money than any other food — and they make sure they get Hood's Milk for quality. ADVT.

BAD CHECK PASSER CAUGHT IN EAST ORANGE

The East Orange police took into custody Monday afternoon a man wanted by the State Police and the local authorities for passing several bad checks in North Reading, Wilmington and Winchester.

The man said by the police to be Emerald J. Vander Heuvel of Appleton, Wis., came to Winchester driving a buick, which it is alleged he turned in to the Winchester Motors at 1014 Main street for a Cadillac, giving the proprietor, John Catrone, a check for $700, said to be no good. He left town in the Cadillac, owing the proprietor of a vegetable market $80 and a local filling Station $100, as well as having allegedly passed a bad check to the owner of over-night cabins in North Reading.

Police say that Vander Heuvel sent a money order to the local filling station operator for $80, to be divided between him and a party in Wilmington, but that he still had not wholly discharged his debt at the station, and that in all he has passed checks for $17,000, drawn on a Wisconsin bank in which it has been found he has no funds. Mr. Catrone left for East Orange Tuesday, and at 12:55 Wednesday the State Police reported that he had recovered his Cadillac automobile. Since no warrants for Vander Heuvel have been issued here, police say he will probably be turned over to the Wisconsin authorities who have several warrants for him.

Meanwhile the State Police have broadcast an appeal seeking to learn the identity of the owner of the Buick, offered by Vander Heuvel to Mr. Catrone in trade for the Cadillac. Mr. Catrone was assured by a Wisconsin automobile dealer that Vander Heuvel was the rightful owner of the machine.

"DAYS OF YORE"

Clippings from the STAR Files

50 YEARS AGO

Sept. 23, 1898

To show how well the town is guarded at night by the police, two gentlemen were stopped Tuesday night at the centre and asked to account for a bundle they carried.

Mr Minot Hurd has been elected captain and Mr. Roland Locke manager of the High School football team for the coming season.

The annual tennis tournament of the Calumet Club on the club courts commenced today and will continue through tomorrow.

About the meanest looking thing in the centre now is that sickly liver-colored newspaper mail box of Uncle Sam's, but it seems it cannot be painted until it is covered with red tape and it takes too much time to unwind the ball.

It is hinted that Father Madden's parishioners will welcome him home with a substantial testimonial of their regard.

For the convenience of the general public, directing signs should be placed in the square at the Centre.

Wednesday, Odd Fellows' Day, about all the stores in town closed in the afternoon, that employers and employees might go to Boston and see the great parade.

Mrs. A. C. Bell was quite severely bruised by being run into by a bicycle on Washington street a few days ago. She had the alternative of being run over by an electric car or the bicycle, therefore she chose the later and the careless wheelman promptly threw her to the ground.

Mr. Herbert Sanborn, who has been spending the summer in Europe, arrived home Tuesday. He reports that he had a most enjoyable time.

Top coats and closed cars were in order Wednesday morning. Ice very near formed as the thermometer registered very close to the freezing point.

25 YEARS AGO

Sept. 21, 1923

Dr. Francis C. Newton, son of Rev. and Mrs. D. Augustine Newton, sailed on the Cunard liner Maurentania for Europe on Tuesday. He will spend a year in Europe in study and research work.

The Winchester Boat Club holds the last dance of the season this Saturday evening.

Lima beans, 15c qt; wax beans, 15c qt.; shell beans, 15c qt.; yellow corn, 35c; spinach, 35c; ripe tomatoes, 5c; lettuce, 10c; celery, 10c; sweet potatoes, 6lbs. for 25c. At Blaisdell's Market.

A great many of the active organizations in Winchester will strong sentiment expressed of a operative spirit of progression to need of a hearty, energetic, codo all that is possible for the civic benefit of our town.

The Winchester Red Cross has exceeded by more than $200 its quota of $900 for the Japanese Relief Fund.

Winchester Legion baseball team won from Saxony Mills on Manchester Field last Saturday afternoon 5 to 3.

It is reported that the School Committee is still holding nightly meetings in consideration of its appointment of a Superintendent of Schools. At last report the number of candidates under consideration had been narrowed down to eight.

Asst. Supt. Harry W. Dotten of the Water Department has been spending the week in attending the convention of water superintendents at Burlington, Vt.

Miss M. A. Shirreff, long one of Winchester's business women, holds the distinction of being the first woman member of the Winchester Chamber of Commerce, she being elected to that organization at Tuesday night's meeting.

The success of the clam bake held last year by the Benedict Club of Park avenue has led to plans being formed to repeat the event this year.

Those raucous automobile horns heard about town last Sunday afternoon signalized the winning of the National League pennant by the Boston Braves. Many of the cars at the Town Line-Sons of Italy softball game on Ginn Field, had their radios tuned to the Braves games and happy fans leaned on the horns, but hard, when the battling Braves finally clinched the championship for the first time since the miracle team of 1914.

WINCHESTER COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION

As the campaign draws to its close Mrs. Robert Roundey (left), co-chairman of campaign committee of the Community Concert Association, checks with the secretary, Mrs. Melville L. Hughes, Jr., new applications for membership.

The last twenty-four hours of the membership campaign of the Community Concert Association is here, as the lists close promptly at noon tomorrow, Saturday. The office at 45 Church street, kindly loaned by Sophie Bowman, is chaotic with last-minute applications, some brought in by campaigners, others submitted by those desiring the memberships. Word that the duo-pianists, Whittemore and Lowe, have been signed has been greeted with enthusiasm by all who have heard them, one exclaiming that ever since she was present at a Pops Concert where the two appeared she had been searching for another opportunity to attend one of their performances.

The fact that students can this year sit anywhere in the house, rather than in a limited section as last year's no-tax policy necessitated, has met with general favor. Anyone who has not as yet enrolled may still, up to tomorrow noon, do so at headquarters or by calling any of the team captains. The captains are Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, Mrs. Burton Cary, Mrs. Robert Drake, Mrs. Maxwell Fish, Mrs. Harold French, Mrs. Benjamin Marshall, Jr., Mrs. Warren Maynard, Mrs. Stanley Neill, Mrs. Robert Roundey, Mrs. Charles H. Tozier and Mrs. Sanborn Vincent.

CHARLES J. M. JOHNSON

Charles J. M. Johnson of 8 Wilson street, a retired leather superintendent and resident of Winchester for more than half a century, died at his home Sunday afternoon, October 3.

Born March 5, 1869, in Smaland, Sweden, Mr. Johnson was educated in his native land, coming to this country as a youth. He settled in Watsontown, Pa., where he learned the leather manufacturing business in all its stages. He married Emelia Gustafsson in Morristown, N. He was widely known among people of all walks in life and held in especial esteem by his business associates and friends.

Mr. Johnson left Beggs & Cobb in 1927, and for several years thereafter was associated with the Coxes in the leather manufacturing business in Bristol, Pa., until his retirement in the early thirties.

His wife died in June of 1942, and there are surviving two daughters, Mrs. Ernest L. Parker of Winchester, and Mrs. A. Alden Goldsmith of Reading. There are also four grandchildren.

LT. DAVID JOSEPH MESKELL

Lt. David Joseph Meskell of the Winchester Fire Department, a veteran of World War II, died Tuesday afternoon at the Central Fire Station. His unexpected death came as a severe shock to his associates in the Fire Department and to the many in town who admired Lt. Meskell as a man and a public servant.

Lt. Meskell was the son of David, and the late Ellen (O'Connor) Meskell. He was born Oct. 29, 1901, in Winchester, attended the Winchester schools and was graduated from Winchester High School in the class of 1919, playing on both the football and baseball teams.

Following his graduation Lt. Meskell was in the Navy for a time. Later Feb. 8, 1922, he enlisted in the United States Army regulars, serving with Co. D of the 13th Infantry and being promoted to sergeant. After his discharge he was appointed to the Fire Department July 19, 1925, and promoted to lieutenant Sept. 1, 1935. During World War II he was an acting captain prior to his enlistment in the Navy, and in Oct., 1941, was detailed by the then Chief David H. DeCourcy as an instructor in fire department methods for the Auxiliary firemen. He attended Fire Prevention School in Boston and was a lecturer on various fire service subjects in the course for air raid wardens at the Winchester Air Raid Protection School. On Feb. 15, 1942, he succeeded S. Bronson Garner as chief of the Auxiliary Fire Department, a post he filled efficiently until he enlisted in the United States Navy Sea Bees Sept. 15, 1942. He served in the Sea Bees with the rank of gunner's mate, 1/c, until June 24, 1945, spending much time in Trinidad, B. W. I., in the Caribbean.

Following his discharge from the Navy, Lt. Meskell returned to the Fire Department, in which he was known as a capable fireman and efficient officer, thorough and conscientious in his work and relationship to the department, and having the respect of his superior and fellow officers and of the men who served under him.

On Feb. 3, 1930, Lt. Meskell married Ruth J. Mullen of Winchester, who survives him, with a daughter, Joanne, training to be a nurse at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital; a son, David, Jr., a pupil at Junior High School and member of the Winchester High School Band; a sister, Miss Julia Meskell of Winchester; and two brothers, Bartholomew, of Wakefield, and Michael, of Medford.

Following Lt. Meskell's death, the Central Fire Station was draped with black, and flags on the common and public buildings were displayed at half staff.

The funeral was held this morning from Lt. Meskell's late residence, 8 Bridge street, with requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church. A detachment of 16 members of the permanent Fire Department, headed by Chief James E. Callahan, acted as escort with many call members of the department. Firemen from Woburn covered in at the Central Station during the funeral.

Bearers, all associates of Lt. Meskell in the Winchester Fire Department, were Captain Raymond C. Hanscomb, Captain J. Edward Noonan, and Firemen Joseph E. Shea, Robert F. Haggerty, John J. Flaherty and Charles R. Moran. Military honors were accorded by Aberjona Post, 3719, V. F. W. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

JOHN S. BROPHY

John S. Brophy, a veteran of the Spanish War and former well known store-keeper in the Highlands, died Sunday, Oct. 3, in Mansfield, Pa., after a long illness.

Mr. Brophy was 69 years old and a native of Lowell. He came to Winchester from Brighton in 1925 and for many years owned and operated Brophy's provision store on Cross street. He left Winchester in 1942.

Mr. Brophy leaves his wife, and three sisters, Mrs. George C. Campbell of Alhambra, Calif., Mrs. Charles Smith of Roslindale and Mrs. David Garland of Boston.

A military funeral was held Wednesday morning with requiem high mass celebrated at Holy Child Chapel in Mansfield, Pa. Burial was at that place.

MR. PAINE SPEAKS TO THE WINTON CLUB

In his talk to the members of the Winton Club on October 4th, Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Administrator of Winchester Hospital, paid a tribute to the dependable help of the Club through its supply of the hospital linen ever since the opening of the cottage hospital on Washington street in 1911. He told the members that the value of the linen annually supplied in recent years is $6,000., figured on a replacement basis, including labor. If Winchester Hospital had to purchase this linen it would add two dollars to each patient's bill.

Mr. Paine reminded the Club that, through this contribution of linen, it has a part in the tremendous humanitarian service rendered by the hospitals of the United States, representing an investment of six billion dollars with an annual operating budget of three billion. This makes American hospitals the sixth largest industry in the country, and means that Winton Club is in reality a stockholder in a very large enterprise.

Important as this material contribution is, however, Mr. Paine said, he hopes that the cooperation between the Hospital and the Winton Club will not end there. Another kind of assistance - not material - can also be given by Winton Club, - help in the education of the public. First of all, the public needs to know what makes up the facilities of the hospital, the nature of its equipment, the relation of personnel to patients about two employees to each patient), and the unvarying twenty-four-hour, stand-by nature of the service always ready for any demand upon it.

As a part of the public's education, the causes of increased hospital costs need explanation. One of these causes is the shrinkage in support from charitably-inclined individuals and organizations, some of them now being taxed out of existence. The result of lessening support from charitable sources, of high prices for everything the hospital uses, and of higher salaries is the passing on to the public of a greater proportion of hospital costs. These trends have combined with the general inflation to compound the expense of medical care to the ordinary citizen. Mr. Paine asked the help of the Winton Club in creating public understanding of what has brought about higher cost of living which makes hospital and medical services the "best buy" now offered. Since 1941 the raw materials used in hospitals have increased 98%, and the average citizen is aware of similar increases in many items in this budget, but the cost of hospital care during this period has gone up only 44%. The average citizen will do well to realize, also, that his average stay in hospital has been reduced since 1941 by 20%, the fundamental reasons for reduction in number of days in hospital being not shortage of beds but improved medical practices, the use of new drugs such as penicillin, and more efficient management.

Mr. Paine concluded by urging the realistic inclusion of medical and hospital care in family budgetting. Records show that one person out of every ten goes to the hospital annually. Speaking statistically, everyone goes to a hospital once in every ten years. Moreover the incidence of hospital use by the public is increasing steadily, partly because home care of illness is more difficult to manage, partly because new treatments can be given satisfactorily only under hospital conditions. Forethought in preparing for hospital expenses, through budget planning and insurance provisions such as those given by the Blue Cross, will lighten the burden when illness and accident come.

A good crowd of Rotarians and guests were called to order this week by President Don Simonds. Inaugurating a new policy John Wallace, chairman of the hospitality committee introduced the guests and visiting Rotarians. Joe Moffett had a guest, Charles Meek, Jr., and the visiting Rotarians consisted of Bill Gavin and Jim Piano McGrath of Woburn, with Dick Harlow of Winchester but a member of the Wakefield Rotary Club. The only make-up this week was Harry Benson who did it in Stoneham.

Wade Grindle signaled his first try at welcoming new members by one of the most stirring and best speeches that any new member has been priviledged to hear. He told John Navaro and Bill Cleary, who have recently been elected to membership, as well as the entire club, many of the joys, duties and honors that go with membership in any Rotary Club. He stressed the fact that Rotary is more than a 'knife and fork' club in that its main purpose is service above self to all.

Coming right on top of this fine speech the various committee reports that showed the club to be functioning in high gear was more than apparent. Every committee and sub-committee chairman placed plans either already in the making or looking forward in the near future. The Youth Committee has a fine programme outlined for this coming year under the leadership of Gordon Bird. The Hospital Committee reported progress in the sales of tickets on the Ford but urged all members to sell more than their quota of one hundred books. Pat Foley was asked to speak on behalf of the committee. Since he is familiar with the workings of Penny Sales. He urged all members to aid in contributing prizes for that sale.

Charlie Murphy announced that the programs for the meetings were arranged well into January. He has procured an excellent speaker for the next meeting which will be the now famous Earl P. Haney who though given up for dead outwitted the doctors and is alive today to tell the story of his fight to relax.

JUNIOR DANCES

The Winchester Junior Dances, to be held at the Music Hall, will be resumed in November. The three dances of the season are scheduled for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring vacation periods. The Committee wishes to include, on the invitation list, any private school students of the junior-senior age group who are interested.

Mrs. Theodore Chilcott would like to hear promptly from any who wish to receive invitations. Her telephone is WInchester 6-0871.

Dorothy Dix Knows Best because she has had confidential letters from thousands upon thousands of American women (and men, too) who tell of their domestic joys and troubles. Her advice is read daily and Sunday by thousands of New Englanders in The Boston Globe. There's a reason, when so many readers follow Dorothy Dix, year in and year out.

THE FORTNIGHTLY

The Fortnightly will hold its first regular meeting in Masonic Hall, next Monday, Oct. 11, beginning with a reception to members at 1 o'clock. Hostesses are Mrs. Henry G. Bigelow and Mrs. T. Parker Clarke. Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, Federation Secretary, will report the Federation meeting at Swampscott. A musical and dramatic program, "Glimpses of Stephen Foster," will be presented by the three young women of the Evmarede Trio.

Do You Know

That among all the women's organizations in Winchester, The Fortnightly is the only one that offers a rich progam of diversified interests? Practically every other oganized group of women in Winchester was formed to foster and further one particular interest, such as politics, gardening, dramatics, public speaking, a particular philanthropy, etc. The Fortnightly offers women a complete, varied and well-rounded progam. Among the many subjects considered are the American home, art, conservation, co-operation with war veterans, dramatics, education, international relations, legislature, literature, music, preservation of antiques, etc. In past years, whenever sufficient interest in some subject not ordinarily part of the year's program was shown, classes in that subject have been organized.

One year, for instance, a group studied Spanish. If one had some particular interest she might prefer to be in a group that placed special emphasis on that subject. But there are many women, of course, whose interests are not too pronounced, and who would enjoy what The Fortnightly has to offer on a smaller scale,—women who haven't time to make a deep study of any one subject.

Every woman can find in The Fortnightly congenial folk with like interests, and an interesting program, some phases of which will surely enrich her life.

The members of the membership committee are eager to present your application for membership.

Hard-Hitting Scarlet Outclassed Battered Locals

Watertown High School's hard-hitting white and scarlet football team eked out a 6-0 to victory, last Saturday afternoon at Watertown over an injury-riddled Winchester eleven that really did pretty well to hold the winners to a single touchdown. It took a couple of questionable decisions by the "white pants" to set up the Watertown score as it was, though by the same token time ran out for the half with the Scarlet at the local one yard line, third and goal to go.

Winchester couldn't move the ball at all against Watertown. You never had the feeling the locals might break away anytime. Watertown had a big edge on the rushline and its backs ran fast and hard. "Paulie" Amico was the only Winchester back to gain any ground at all, but he seldom had any hole up front, and his longest gain was 13 yards which came unfortunately just after Winchester had lost eight. On their last play of the game the locals might have gone somewhere. Amico threw a screen pass to Carroll, who had seven blockers ahead with most of the Watertown team in the Winchester backfield. "Skitchie" let the ball go through his hands and that was that. It might not have gone of course but Winchester had seven men to take care of the three Watertown boys able to halt the runner.

The locals took quite a battering from Watertown and much of the time were without Pete Dillingham, Harry Myers, Bob McElhinney, Mario Mascioli, Tony Peluso and Charlie Capone. That's losing a lot of key boys, and the locals naturally lost a lot of their spark with them. While they had their best team on the field the locals were playing Watertown very even, but as the game wore on Winchester lost its spirit, while Watertown played with a lot of fight throughout. That spirit was really the measure of difference between the two teams.

Watertown made nine first downs and 169 yards on the ground, adding 16 yards on one of three passes which the officials decided was completed. The Scarlet lost 40 yards in penalties and lost both its fumbles.

Winchester made one first down on a 15 yard penalty against Watertown for roughing, completed two of ten passes for a scant three yards, lost 20 yards in penalties and recovered all three fumbles.

The two teams fought muzzle to muzzle during the whole first quarter with Watertown getting its first big break just before the teams changed goals.

Paulie Amico had gotten off a booming kick from his own 35 to the Watertown goal line where Alberico flubbed the ball around, but finally got out to his own nine. A Watertown boy clearly clipped Galucia on this play right in front of an official who "didn't see it" and allowed the Scarlet to stay a comfortable 9 yards out instead of putting the ball back at the dangerous one yard line where anything could happen.

The Scarlet got rolling and drove to Winchester's 44 where Charsoodian shot a pass over center to Captain "Moon" Mullen, cutting in from right end. Mullen got the ball on the elbow as he turned, juggled it about a bit as he ran forward and finally dropped the leather, which was kicked along to the Winchester 28.

A Watertown boy recovered, and the officials ruled that the play was a completed pass and fumble, giving Watertown a first and ten at the local 28.

Mullen never did have control of the ball, and the decision hurt for it forced Winchester deeper in its own territory, and though the locals stopped the Scarlet drive at the 15, a fumble drove them back to their eight, and Amico was forced to kick hurriedly from his end zone.

His boot travelled only to the 23 where the Watertown safety gathered it in and was immediately smothered by three Winchester tacklers. Once again the officials went into a huddle and decided that the Watertown catcher had signalled for a fair catch, despite the fact that neither of his raised hands was higher than his head, as required, and he obviously started to run when he got the leather.

A fifteen yard penalty for interference put the ball on the local eight, Parella knifed through to the two and Alberico skirted Winchester's right end to score at the very coffin corner of the field. The kick for the extra point was bad.

Watertown just missed scoring again as time ran out for the half, but following half-time neither team could move far with the ball, play being in Watertown's territory much of the time, due to Amico's fine kicking.

"Gunner" Abrahamson played a whale of a game in the local line, with Slack playing well at end, and Amico and Richmond in the backfield. Young "Gene" Rotundi ran hard a couple of times when inserted late in the game as a substitute. The summary:

WOBURN HIGH HARRIERS BEAT WINCHESTER

Woburn High School's formidable cross country team, led by the capable Fowle twins, "Ree" and "Raw", beat Winchester over the Woburn course last Friday afternoon, 17-38. Captain Tom McGowan was the only local runner to challenge the Woburn top-flight harriers, finishing fourth, behind the Fowles and Larry O'Connor. Next Winchester boy to finish was Sargent in 7th place, followed by Underwood, Riga and Blake.

"Ree" (Richard) Fowle was the individual winner in 16m 7s. Winchester won the second team race, 22-40. The varsity summary:

1st - Dick Fowle (Woburn); 2nd - Bob Fowle (Woburn); 3rd - O'Connor (Woburn); 4th - McGowan (Winchester); 5th - Foster (Woburn); 6th - Dineen (Woburn); 7th - Sargent (Winchester); 8th - Underwood (Winchester); 9th - Rega (Winchester); 10th - Blake (Winchester); 11th - Galvin (Woburn); 12th - Murphy (Winchester). Time 16:7.

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB BOWS TO WINTHROP INDIANS 3-2

After having taken Fitchburg and Dedham Aces in stride on successive weekends in the fall division of the Mayflower League, Winchester Hockey Club ran into a tartar last Sunday afternoon at the Skating Club when it encountered the Winthrop Indians. The locals were handed a 3 to 2 beating. The game was every bit as close as the score indicates. Since last spring when Winchester defeated the Indians twice and tied them once, the Winthrop outfit has greatly strengthened itself by the addition of Copek and Hixon from Boston University's near-championship team of last winter, plus Rousseau, former star defenseman of the Belmont Aces. As indicated in the scoring these new acquisitions provided the margin of victory.

The first period was less than five minutes old when Lane drove the puck into the Winchester net to give Winthrop the edge. However Wimpy Burtnett who usually has his hand in much of the Winchester scoring grabbed a pass from Roy Monson and fired home the equalizer midway in this period. Toward the end of the period Copek and Hixon teamed up on a fast down the ice rush, Copek whipping the puck past Scottie Connor from close in on a lightning pass from Hixon.

Winchester, behind 2 to 1 as the second period began, was the only team to score in this period. Don Ellis shot a fast one into the Winthrop cage which the referee claimed just grazed Wimpy Burtnett's stick, technically to have the best of it throughout the second period, with the play in the forwards would lay a good pass right in front of the Indians goal, only to have the forward for whom the pass was intended either overskate it, muff it or miss it entirely. With the exception of Burtnett and Ellis, the locals appeared to be weak in their shooting.

The third period was tight all the way. When it was half over Hixon got what proved to be the winning Winthrop marker on a pretty pass from Tabor, Connor not being able to get down quick enough to keep the shot from going under his leg.

Scott Doub threw his knee out in the first period and had to leave the game for the rest of that period. Billy Dingwell was prevented from playing because of a bad cold. The locals were really quite shorthanded. The boys never gave up, however, and kept threatening the Winthrop net until the final buzzer. Gilbert in goal and Copek and Hixon on the forward line starred for the Indians, while Scottie Connor defended the Winchester net brilliantly and Burtnett and Ellis provided the scoring punch for the locals.

On Sunday afternoon, October 9th, at three o'clock at the Skating Club Winchester takes on the Fitchburg Hockey Club in a return engagement. Three weeks ago Winchester took the Fitchburg measure by a score of 6-2. Fitchburg is boasting of the acquisition of a new third line to bolster its offense. Winchester hockey fans who want to be treated to some fast action are invited to attend.

WINTHROP HERE SATURDAY

Visitors Expect Win After Four Lean Years

Winthrop High comes to Manchester Field Saturday afternoon expecting victory after a defeat drought that extends back four years. The Beach City boys beat Amesbury last week, 21-14, but against an achievement like that you have to remember a 19-6 defeat at the hands of Lexington, a team Winchester beat 20-6.

The locals' chances depend on how far they have come back after their physical beating at Watertown last week. Winchester was badly battered by the spirited Scarlet, and if boys like Dillingham, McElhinney, Myers, Mascioli and Carroll aren't ready tomorrow, Winthrop could win.

The invaders are especially confident this year because of the fact that little Sammy Bellino isn't around to plague them, after personally winning two of the last three Winthrop games for Winchester.

Winchester has a team weight edge, 169 to 163, but the visitors have a rugged line that equals Winchester's poundage even with Galucia's 200 pounds at right tackle. Both lines average 174 pounds. Both teams have eight seniors in their starting lineups.

The locals need badly to win this game, and based on what they could have done against Swampscott, even though they didn't, your reporter figures Winchester to beat Winthrop. It ought to be a good game with the breaks having quite a bit to say about the final outcome.

WINCHESTER P. O. TOPPLES LEADERS

In the fourth week of bowling in the Surburban P. O. Bowling League, Winchester toppled Somerville from its perch as league leaders. This puts Arlington in first place, with Somerville and Malden battling for second.

The battle was a slugfest all the way, Winchester taking the first by only three pins, losing the second by 21 and coming back by winning the third string by 19. In the total pinfall, the difference of one pin gave Winchester the final point, the result being 1292 against 1291.

The Suburban P. O. league manager, Mr. Davey announces that he has now made contact with six other post office leagues in Boston and vicinity and plans are now being laid to have a round robin of some kind at which all of the leagues will put in a team to represent that league and they will then bowl for the "Post Office Championship of Greater Boston."

Take heed ye who like to drive a car at high speed regardless of time or place. We have Chief Harrold's word for it that speeders arrested in Winchester will no longer face court and a nominal fine. Action will be sought at the Registry office and already several of the fast boys and girls have lost licenses for from sixty days up. This is just a friendly warning. According to Chief Harrold there is little friendship for speeders at 100 Nashua street, Boston.

In accordance with the Governor's proclamation, closing all forests in Massachusetts because of the long drought and the resulting fire hazard, all persons caught on horseback or afoot in the Fells or Town Forest or other wooded areas in the town limits will be prosecuted in court. Conditions in the woods are bad, and the local authorities are cooperating in the Governor's fire-prevention measure one hundred percent.

There are many sound reasons for supporting The Salvation Army 1948-49 Greater Boston Appeal for $500,000 but probably the best arguments if any are needed are the 31 institutions, corps centers and departments of the organization which serve this area.

Its work with children and young people is a strong force against juvenile delinquency. Its prison bureau helps keep men and women on the path that leads to a life of responsible, useful citizens. In its Men's Social Service Center each year, hundreds of homeless, unemployed drifters are given good food and shelter, wholesome recreation and the self-respect that comes from working to pay for what they receive. Its family service bureau, its day nursery, its Booth Memorial Home and Hospital for unwed mothers, its Camp Wonderland for underprivileged mothers, babies and children, save Metropolitan Boston, directly and indirectly, a lot of money.

These are sound reasons for supporting The Salvation Army, but beyond them lies something much deeper and less tangible-the grateful affection we all feel for men and women who all day, every day, throughout their lives put their beliefs not only into words but into deeds.

LABOR SPEAKS TO LABOR

"Have you ever considered the company you work with is just as important to you as it is to its president? If you don't feel it is, you should attempt to improve your relationship...

"You know it is a funny thing, but the worker who is just working from one paycheck to the next is usually the one that causes trouble with his work and his neighbor.

"Inefficiency cannot be covered up whether you are floor sweeper or company president...

"You feel you have pressure; but you have never known the pressure that stockholders can and do bring. You have a union to back you but management has no one. 'Make a success or you are fired' is always over the head of management.

"You are responsible for the success of your job, management's job and the company's success. You and you alone are responsible for the continuance of steady employment. There is only one answer — labor and management must be closer — the true problems can be ironed out. You both have the same thing in common — security." — [The Union, oldest labor newspaper in the United States.]

COUNTY FINANCIAL SITUATION

Editor of the Star:

As the Editor of a newspaper doing business in Middlesex County, you will, I believe, be interested in the financial record of the County. I am consequently enclosing a copy of the Abstract of Receipts and Expenditures of Middlesex County for the year 1947.

The County tax for 1947 was $2,277,249.35 as compared with the tax of $2,188,754.31 for 1946. This increase was caused by higher prices of food and other supplies, by increases in salaries and wages, and increased cost due to the normal growth in the volume of county business. The tax of $2,277,249.35 for 1947 compares with the peak in 1931 of $2,351,884.70. Middlesex County thus had a lower tax in 1947 than it had 16 years ago.

The debt of Middlesex County at the close of the year 1947 was $25,000, as compared with the peak of $2,024,600, in 1932. This is the lowest Middlesex County debt in 65 years, that is, since 1882. At the present moment the remaining amount of $25,000 has been paid, so that Middlesex County has no long term debt. There are short term, temporary loans outstanding, which will be paid before the end of 1948. The debt of the Middlesex County Tuberculosis Hospital District at the end of the year was $69,800 as compared with the peak in 1932 of $1,706,900.

The satisfactory financial situation of Middlesex County is due to the constant effort of your County officials and employees for sound economical administration.

If you are interested in receiving a complete copy of the County report, I shall be glad to mail it to you.

Very sincerely,
Charles P. Howard,
County Treasurer.

ADULT CLASSES AT HOBBY CENTER

Announced last week, a rug-hooking group starting at the Center, 12 Bacon street on Tuesday, October 19, still has a few vacancies in its morning and afternoon meetings. Anyone interested in learning this fascinating and, too, practical craft, register now (see below). The furniture decorating class is now filling its quota rapidly so look over your portable pieces and see what fun you can have fixing them up to be useful and decorative. We'll show you how at the Hobby Center. Tray painting is another popular craft, blending and mixing paints to make attractive designs that anyone will feel proud to display. Wood carving and photography should lure the male members of the family; the females, too, if they're so inclined. Then we come to finger painting which many have discovered is very decidedly a useful art. As the Christmas season is fast approaching, finger painted gift wrappings give a personal and individual touch to your gift. Finger painted book covers, too, are unusual. These are only a few uses to which finger painting can be put.

Why travel to Cambridge and Boston when your own town has a Hobby Center where you can gather your friends, be sociable and still have fun learning a new craft or hobby? For registering or further information call Mrs. Moulding, WInchester 6-2231-M.

WINCHESTER WOMEN'S COUNCIL TO MEET

The Fall meeting of the Winchester Women's Council will be held on Friday, October 15 at 10:10 a. m. at the Public Library. The speakers will be Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye, Chairman of the Military Manpower Committee, S/Sgt. William Knee, U. S. Air Force and Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Administrator of the Winchester Hospital.

Mrs. Toye will explain the function of the Military Manpower Committee as a liason between the armed services and civilians. She will introduce S/Sgt. Knee who is stationed in Winchester. Mr. Paine will speak on "Winchester Hospital and the Community".

All Winchester organizations are again reminded of the calendar which is provided for their convenience and which hangs in the Mary Spaulding Book Shop. If club secretaries will enter the time and dates of their various activities it will greatly minimize the possibility of a conflict of dates.

All organization representatives are urged to attend this Fall meeting and visitors will be welcome.

MOUNT HOLYOKE BOOK TALK

At the first book talk sponsored by the Winchester Mount Holyoke Club, Mrs. Alice Dixon Bond reported on many new books. For historical novels, Mrs. Bond recommended "Toward the Morning," by Hervey Allen, the third in his series of books of America, and "The Running of the Tide," by Esther Forbes, a story of Salem and its clipper ships. The trend is again to war books, and the two outstanding ones are "The Crusaders" by Stefan Heym, and "The Naked and the Dead" by Norman Mailer. "The Heart of the Matter," by Green concerns the freedom of man's spirit.

Elizbeth Yates, author of the new book, "Beloved Bondage," was Mrs. Bond's guest author. She told her audience how a cyclamen indoors and a snowstorm outside fostered the theme of her book, and said, "We never know what freedom is until we have known some kind of limitation."

APPOINTED TO FACULTY AT GEORGE WASHINGTON U.

The George Washington University announces the appointment of William Withington, son of Mrs. Frederic B. Withington of 174 Mystic Valley Parkway, to the faculty of the University's Department of Geography. He has been named an instructor in geography for the academic year 1948-1949.

Mr. Withington received the bachelor of arts degree from Harvard University in 1946 and the master of arts degree from Northwestern University in 1948.

He was a graduate assistant while a student at Northwestern. Mr. Withington, who is a member of Sigma Xi, will teach political geography and Anglo-American geography.

Former Water Superintendent and Mrs. Harry W. Dotten are reported to have left town and to be making their home in Biddeford, Me.

HENRY E. MOFFETTE

Henry E. Moffette of Rangely, associated with Hollingsworth & Whitney Company of Boston has accepted the Chairmanship for Winchester for the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee, according to Walter E. Robb, Jr., General Chairman for the State.

Mr. Moffette has undertaken the work because he considers "planned economy" to have failed, and that the muddle of Foreign Policy is to be straightened out at all costs. Therefore, he feels that each Republican of Winchester should be willing to contribute to the Republican discussion of these problems. He does not agree that the election is "in the bag," because the Administration has been entrenched for 16 years and has a large subsidized vote, including many laborers, farmers and public employees. He believes that many independent voters are ready for a change, but that wide publicity and radio programs must be used to educate them.

His plans call for an intensive solicitation in Winchester, and all Republican voters will be solicited.

WITHAM SINGERS REHEARSING

The first renearsal of the Mary Witham Singers was a pleasant occasion on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Witham who, with Lucy Wilcox Cushman, accompanist, carried the enthusiastic group of singers through many selections of delightful choral music. It is expected that the organization when complete will total fully 25 members. New members are being received, and the several new voices present Monday enhanced the tone and balance of the singing noticeably.

The officers of the organization are Mrs. Witham, director; Mrs. Lucy Wilcox Cushman, accompanist; Mrs. Gordon S. Bird, secretary-treasurer, with Mrs. Aram Mouradian, assistant; Mrs. Henry K. Fitts, Sr., chairman of press and program. The voice committee, comprised of Mrs. Witham, Mrs. Cushman, Mrs. Albert G. Dietz, Mrs. Herbert S. Gardner, and Mrs. Fitts, meets new applicants at Mrs. Witham's, 75 Bacon street, on Monday evenings at 7:15.

STAFF AND KEY WORKING ON "PIRATES"

The Winchester Staff and Key Society has started work on its fall production of "Pirates of Penzance" under the competent direction of Hassler Einzig. There was a good turn-out at the first rehearsal last Wednesday night, and great enthusiasm was expressed by all. There are still openings for anyone who is interested in joining the Society, as tryouts will not be held until everyone has had a chance to become familiar with the music.

Mr. George Hebb, president of the Society, has issued a special invitation to all men to come to the next rehearsal, Wednesday night, Oct. 13, at 7:30, at the home of Anne Hall, 63 Washington street.

HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA TO BENEFIT BY CONCERT

On Thursday, evening, Oct. 14, at the Music Hall on Bacon street, Adele Addison, soprano, will give a concert for the benefit of the High School Orchestra, sponsored by the committee of the Children's Music Group.

The receipts for a similar concert last year were sufficient to purchase a viola and case. This year the proceeds will go towards the purchase of a double bass.

All who enjoy music will be amply repaid, listening to Miss Addison's beautiful voice and responding to her delightful personal charm. As a young and gifted singer, she made her debut last year, singing with a number of glee clubs and with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and this year as one of the principles in the New England Opera Company.

The Committee sincerely hopes that this opportunity to hear a fine singer and at the same time to help the Winchester High School Orchestra will not be overlooked by our community.

ROBERT VOSE AT ART ASSOCIATION

With Mr. Robert Vose of the Vose Galleries as the informal and delightful speaker, the first Fall Meeting of the Winchester Art Association was held Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes, the president, presiding. The newly decorated walls of the Art Gallery were hung with fine ship paintings by Frank Vining Smith and flower studies by Grace Collier. An exhibit of craftsmen's silver by Leonard Field and William Mason of Macefield was still another attraction to a program of varied and complete interest for members. The paintings and silver may be seen by the public during Library hours through the month of October.

Mr. Vose commented on Smith and Miss Collier, saying that "Smith has made a profound study of old ships and waters in various parts of the world. Experts have never yet found an error in his rigging! But of recent time, Smith has taken to hunting pictures, and today he can't paint enough of them to fill the demand."

Of Miss Collier's striking flower studies, he said, "She is extremely artistic, a woman who was a noted pianist in her youth, who has painted flowers these past ten years until today she is a leader in this field. She has all the delicacy of pastels, but paints in oil. Like Smith, her paintings are modest in price."

Speaking from the dealer's point of view, Mr. Vose insisted that "anyone who enjoys art should enjoy it as he likes, regardless of the critics or art magazines. For taste is a very personal thing." He also touched humorously on the pitfalls that beset a collector who buys "bargains" in paintings.

"At least once a week I am asked 'how do you know the value of a painting?', and I always answer that it is by the law of supply and demand! "Mr. Vose went on to show how artificial boosts are often given to a painter — how books such as "Lust for Life" (Van Gogh) can push painters, how collectors seeking a certain painter or school can move the prices up.

"Today, 19th century Western art is much in demand — such as the cowboy paintings of Charlie Russell. In contemporary art, there are too many artists trying to make a living from art. No dealer could possibly make his own living by selling just contemporary paintings.

A gallery such as the Vose Gallery makes money by its familiarity and study of the WORLD market for paintings!"

He urged his audience to "select one field of fine arts — study it well, and you will get a great deal of enjoyment, and a great deal more pleasure from life".

MRS. REGINALD BRADLEE HOSTESS TO LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

To most people November second this year will mean the day they go to the polls to elect a President. They know too that they will vote for Governor and other State and County officials. To this end consciencious voters will look into the qualifications of the men and women seeking public office and will study party platforms. To do so is the mark of good citizenship.

But there is more to the ballot than candidates.

Do you know that there are nine referendum questions which will appear on the ballot, each of which should have the careful consideration of every citizen. The first three questions are offered as amendments to the Massachusetts Constitution. Questions 4, 5, 6 and 7 are proposed statutes. Question 8 is a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Question 9 concerns granting of liquor licenses by cities and towns.

These referenda will be explained and discussed at a meeting of the League of Women Voters to which the public is invited. The League is a strictly non-partisan organization and, therefore, both sides each question will be presented. The Voters' Service Committee is prepared to answer questions with regard to candidates, party platforms voting and registrations laws and referenda.

The meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 13 at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Reginald Bradlee, 6 Ledgewood road. Tea will be served. All are cordially welcome.

"COUNTRY FAIR" MEETING THURSDAY

Last Thursday morning in the Parish House, First Congregational Church, the chairmen of tables at the Country Fair, to be held November 17, were present to formulate early plans for the Fair, with Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, General Chairman, presiding. Mrs. Charles E. Crede displayed some of the hats, aprons, and table decorations which her committee is making for the affair, with Mrs. Frank Hawkins in charge of posters.

This year the Country Fair will hold a pre-sale of clothing in its "Opportunity Shop" on Tuesday, November 16. Mrs. Edwin R. Rooney is the chairman.

Mrs. Harold A. Smith reported that the unusual "Winchester Calendar for 1949" will be launched by her committee this week. The calendar of forthnightly listings for engagements has 27 excellent pictures of Winchester, and was beautifully arranged by members of the Social Service Guild.

Present at the meeting on Thursday were Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Howard R. Bartlett, Miss Alfreda Kearney, Mrs. Alice Jenkins and Mrs. William Strawbridge, Mrs. Crede and Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Edwin Rooney, Mrs. Richard Johnson, Mrs. Warren C. Whitman, Mrs. Harry M. Easton, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. Wilfred L. McKenzie, Mrs. Harrison Simpson, Mrs. James Coon, Mrs. William Hodge, Mrs. Harvey L. Macauley, Mrs. George E. Connor.

TEA FOR WINCHESTER DAY SCHOOL MOTHERS

At her school and home at 91 Grove street, Mrs. Walter Ennis, Jr., director of the new Winchester Country Day School, held her first tea meeting of mothers of children enrolled in this year's pre-school group on Tuesday afternoon, October 5.

A large number of enthusiastic mothers from Winchester and as far north as Reading came to hear Mrs. Ennis and her teachers describe the program planned for the year and to examine the play equipment and work materials of the school rooms as well as some of their children's first attempts at artistic expression with finger paints. Many were interested to find out that excited stories brought home about the existence of a real baby squirrel in a cage were true accounts and not figments of their boys' and girls' imaginations! The squirrel, on temporary loan to the school, was the center of much attraction.

After this initial get-together tea, Mrs. Ennis plans a series of mothers meetings to further the mothers' understanding of nursery school work and to help maintain the close home-school relationship so valuable to teachers working with children of this age.

LOCAL BOY GOES TO RIO

Walter Whitman Taber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Walter Taber of Pierrepont road, left by plane Thursday afternoon for Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Walter, a graduate of Winchester High School, served as a pilot in the Army Air Forces during the World War II, and was a member of the White Fleet.

In August of this year Mr. Taber received his B.S. Degree from the Boston University College of Business Administration, where he majored in Foreign Trade. After a three weeks vacation touring Ohio, New York State, and Canada, he entered the employ of the First National Bank of Boston. The Bank is sending him to their branch in Rio.

GOT CLEVELAND AUTOGRAPHS

Postal Clerk "Dinny" Collins of the Winchester Postoffice, who used to be quite a ball player in his high school days, got a big thrill out of attending the opening game of the World Series on Wednesday. He got perhaps a bigger thrill after the game by working his way into the Cleveland dressing room and getting the autographs of several of the Indian players, including ace pitcher, Bob Feller.

Others who wrote on Dinny's card were "Deacon Bill" McKechnie, Bob Kennedy, Larry Doby, Eddie Robinson, Jim Hegan, Mel Harder, Manager Lou Boudreau, Gene Beardon, Satchel Paige and Muddy Ruel.

Bobby Willing, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Willing, of 16 Ledyard road is convalescing at the Winchester Hospital after a serious operation.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

Royal P. If either "Willie" or Mr. Butters has any explanations, Roy would like to hear them.

HIGHWAY SAFETY FEATURED SCHOOL ASSEMBLIES

Last Thursday and Friday Inspectors Murphy and Higgins of the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles addressed each of the Winchester Public Schools on the topic Safety On The Highways. In their talks to the grammar schools, they stressed safety rules for pedestrians and bicyclists. The children responded eagerly to the speeches and enjoyed the film which illustrated many points brought up. Following are some of the safety rules which the pupils promised to observe:

Registrar's Safety Rules

1. Look both ways-cross at corners only.
2. Walk between the white lines.
3. Watch traffic lights-cross only on proper signal.
4. Never walk between parked cars.
5. Never play in the street.
6. If there are no sidewalks-walk on left side of road.
7. Wear something white at night.
8. Ride bikes single file-on right-obey traffic lights-use hand signals-no riders.

The student body of Winchester High School was urged to comply with the same safety rules. Special emphasis was placed on the problem of teen age drivers. Inspector Joseph W. Murphy closed his speech with a film, The Chance to Lose, which emphasized the consequences of careless driving.

A similar program is on the Junior High School calendar for today, with Inspector Joseph W. Murphy the speaker.

CHEER LEADERS' DANCE

They do, of course, every Saturday afternoon at the high school football games, but this is a different dance, a "Pep Dance" which the high school cheer leaders are holding in the school gymnasium tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, with the proceeds going to defray the cost of blazers for the leaders.

New cheers will be a feature of the dance, and "Mr. Hush", in person, is to be the guest of honor. Don't forget to come on down. You'll be glad you did!

WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING AND CHOWDER PARTY FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15TH

The Annual Meeting at which new officers are elected and old officers honored will be on hand next Friday evening at the Winchester Boat Club at 6:30 p. m.

The very popular Fish Chowder Party which has become an important part of these Business meetings is on the agenda too.

It'll be steaming bowls of luscious Fish Chowder, Pickles and Chips and dessert. All for only .50c per person.

Following the business meeting there'll be plenty of hilarious entertainment. Gillette - "old man music" himself will be on hand to entertain and American Airlines has graciously consented to lend the Club their famous color movies of Mexico.

If you're coming for the Chowder, let Ed Kent know before next Wednesday - but if you can't make it by 6:30 come down for the meeting and the fun anyway. There's no charge for that, of course.

Snipe Fleet Dinner Sunday, Oct. 17

The annual whoop-dee-do of the Winchester Boat Club Snipe sailors, their crews and guests, will break loose Sunday, the 17th at 6:30 p. m. This is the annual event at which the super-skippers are presented with the coveted cups they captured through the season, and the Fleet Flounderers fervently declare next year they'll win.

In one way, the affair will be a preview of Thanksgiving because the menu calls for a full course Turkey dinner and all the fixin's. And all for the pre-war bargain price of only .95c per person.

As always, the presentation of prizes will follow dinner and then there'll be entertainment of one kind or another - probably mostly another. All Club Members are cordially invited by the Fleet to attend the cup presentations and following entertainment. The Fleet would have invited one and all to come to the dinner too, but the limitations of the hall prevent a blanket invitation. However, if any of you non-fleet members wander down to the Club between 7:30 and 8:00 p. m., we'll wager you'll find it well worth while in laughs and fun.

So that Steward Kent will know how many will be at the dinner, please sign up at the Club no later than this Sunday . . .

BADMINTON BEGINS

The high school gym opened its doors to greet the beginning of the 16th year of the Winchester Badminton Club this week. The Committee and the 1948-49 team captains, Lois Ladd and George Farar were on hand to welcome back the old-timers and were glad to meet a number of newcomers, who, we hope will fight their way through snow-drifts during the coming months to become regular members of our club.

We are sorry to find our treasurer suffering from a strained back, obliged to sit quietly in a corner, unable to join in the fun. However, having been club treasurer for a number of years, he has no doubt had a little fun of his own silently taking in the necessary funds to keep the club afloat. We all hope Brad will be back on the courts soon, for we missed his enthusiastic whoops.

Unfortunately the season is no sooner under way than along comes a holiday, so there will be no badminton next Tuesday the 12th, but don't forget to come on Thursday.

REMEMBER! Your chance to join the Community Concert Association expires at noon tomorrow, Saturday, Oct. 9. Headquarters, 45 Church street.

WINCHESTER UPPED TO CLASS B IN FOOTBALL

The Boston sportswriters, originators of the schoolboy football rating system which has decided Eastern Massachusetts state champions in four classes since 1935, announced the current ratings this week, and Winchester has been raised from Class C to B along with Durfee of Fall River and North Quincy. Beverly, Brookline, Chelsea, Quincy, Saugus and Weymouth have been promoted from B to A., and Oliver Ames of North Easton and Stetson of Randolph have been taken out of D and put in C.

So far as Winchester is concerned there is little enthusiasm over the locals being upped from C to B, particularly when such schools as Belmont, Framingham and Woburn are left in C. The writers justify upping the locals by stating that Winchester is a big school of 400 boys and has a top coach in Henry Knowlton, a good farm system for football and a good winning record against B teams.

Just what they mean by 'farm system" is hard to understand. Certainly Winchester does nothing more than any other school can do for football. We don't start football early and we don't have spring football. Coach Knowlton gets large squads out because he interests the boys in the game through the season and keeps them busy. That's surely no reason for advancing a school from a lower to a higher llass. That doesn't mean that all the boys on a big squad are potential varsity material.

Coach Knowlton does have an excellent record, and he has worked hard to amass this record. So he is penalized for having done a good job and his school placed in a class with generally much larger, more powerful schools.

Now for the size of the school. Winchester regularly plays ten teams. Of the ten teams played only two, Swampscott and Stoneham are smaller than Winchester. Some of the others are quite a lot larger.

With the exception of Wakefield, all the schools Winchester plays are three year high schools, so for basis of comparison Winchester's three upper classes should be totalled against those of the other three year schools.

Winchester has a three-year enrollment of 533, boys and girls. Lexington has 567, Swampscott, 395, Watertown, 1109, Winthrop, 588, Framingham, 889, Stoneham, 371, Reading, 595, Belmont, 920, and Woburn, 634. Wakefield has a four-year enrollment of 951 against Winchester's, 747. How the Boston sportswriters get the idea that Winchester is too big for the schools it regularly plays is hard to understand. A look at the Winchester-Belmont and Winchester-Woburn records through the years should convince anyone that if Winchester is a B team, so too are Belmont and Woburn.

This "400 boys" stuff needs a bit of explanation too. There are 398 boys in Winchester High School, of which about 107 are freshmen. Winchester has a freshman football team and these boys are, generally speaking, not a part of the varsity squad. As high school football is played now it is seldom indeed that a freshman is able to make the varsity, so that the freshmen boys should be subtracted from the enrollment from which the school football team is able to draw. That leaves about 291 boys from which to pick a varsity football squad instead of the 400 mentioned in the city press. That is quite a difference.

Winchester has, it is true, played some Class B teams, but they have been chosen because of natural rivalry and because they have been teams against which it has been felt the local boys have a chance. An exclusive Class B schedule would find Winchester hard pressed to win many games year in and year out.

Placing the locals in Class B means that Winchester's championship chances are null and void, since the Red and Black is now an 8 point team while most of the teams it plays regularly are 6 point teams.

We suppose after all it really makes little difference about this rating stuff anyway. Winchester can continue to play its natural rivals and win or lose as it has for years, letting the rating chips fall where they may. It does, however, gripe a bit to see a relatively small school rated as a big powerhouse and put in a class with much bigger schools just because its coaching staff has done a good job, especially in interesting a large number of boys in playing football all fall.

CHILDREN'S OWN SCHOOL INC.

The Children's Own School, Inc re-opened for its sixth year on September 29, with many improvements in house and grounds completed and many plans for an active season. Since there have been so many requests for admission to the four year class, a second group of that age is being considered. Anyone interested in entering a four year old child should apply at once to Miss Gove, Director of the School.

The School also plans opening two new classes at the beginning of the second term in February. These will be a first grade with a limited enrollment and a remedial reading group, for children from 6 through 12 years, to be held in the afternoons. As the School, is chartered by the Commonwealth to care for children through 12 years. The remedial group will include that age. The Board of Directors does not contemplate adding any higher grades in the regular school for some time to come.

At an early date the Parents Committee is to hold a "painting party" to renovate the children's tables and chairs. This first event of the school year sponsored by the Parents Committee will be followed at intervals by interesting meetings with speakers on various phases of child care.

A little known point concerning the Children's Own School, Inc. is the fact that it is a non-profit making educational institution, under charter granted by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts since its incorporation in February 1947. The staff for the school year 1948-49 includes, besides the Director, Miss Dorothy S. Gove.

Margaret Adriance Withington, (Mrs. Frederic) Assistant to the Director, Graduate Mount Holyoke College: Courses University of Hawaii. (During her residence in the Islands, Mrs. Withington was active in the nutritional work of Honolulu kindergartens and later carried on a number of sugar plantation kindergartens, taking active part in their management.)

Josephine Littleton (Mrs. Earle), Graduate Tufts College. (Mrs. Littleton was for several years a psychometrist for the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health, working with the Child Guidance Clinics of this state. Mrs. Littleton now is preparing for her masters degree in education and psychology).

EMPLOY THE HANDICAPPED GOAL OF DRIVE

Increasing suitable job opportunities for the physically handicapped is a major objective of the fourth annual National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week which is being observed in Winchester and throughout Massachusetts and the Nation from October 3 through 9. Mr. Charles D. Roche is Chairman of the Winchester Committee with headquarters at the Town Hall.

A community-wide committee sponsoring the "week" held its first meeting recently and made plans for an intensive local campaign to find suitable jobs for disabled veterans and other handicapped persons.

As our committee met, hundreds of communities throughout the country were holding similar meetings in preparation for the annual NEPH Week observance," Mr. Roche said. "In this community, NEPH Week will mark the launching of fifty-two weeks of activity in aiding workers with physical handicaps solve their employment problems through expansion of placement and rehabilitation opportunities.

At the initial meeting of the committee it was decided that the 1948 NEPH Week program should emphasize three main points," said Mr. Roche. "First, we want to make sure that every person in this community is made aware of the job problem of the handicapped and what the community can do to solve it. In the second place we want to be able to provide job openings for all handicapped persons seeking employment. A third objective is to stimulate the use of vocational rehabilitation opportunities by handicapped persons who, at present are not ready for employment.

Our slogan for the week is 'Hire the Handicapped -- It's Good Business.' We hope to be able to drive home to the entire community the fact that the ability, not the disability, of the handicapped worker is what counts. We want every citizen to realize that handicapped workers are assets not only to themselves but to the entire community when employed in jobs which utilize their abilities. There is no longer any question of this fact because actual work records of employed handicapped workers have proved that they are just as efficient, reliable and versatile as non-handicapped workers when they are placed in suitable jobs."

The Employment Office of the Division of Employment Security, 25 Montvale avenue, Woburn, Mass., now has on file the applications of 4 disabled veterans, residents of Winchester, who are able to work and are actively seeking employment.

Mr. Stephen J. Flynn, Manager of the Employment Office states that undoubtedly there are additional handicapped persons living in Winchester but not listed with his office.

Mr. Roche said that the handicapped week program was authorized on a Nation-wide basis by Congress on August 11, 1945, through the passage of Public Law 176. This law, he said, directed the President of the United States to issue a proclamation each year calling upon all citizens and all communities to exert special efforts to enlist public support and interest in the employment of physically handicapped workers.

Mr. Roche stated that numerous Federal agencies and approximately 150 employer, labor, professional, women's, and other national organizations are cooperating in sponsoring NEPH Week.

SPECIAL SUNDAY FARE ON BOSTON & MAINE

A 50% cut in railroad fares for travel on Sundays between Boston and 19 communities in Massachusetts, Maine and New Hampshire, will be established by the Boston and Maine Railroad commencing on Sunday, October 10.

The new rates will be effective for Sunday travel in either direction. Fares will be the regular one-way fare for the round trip. The reduced fares will be available at ticket offices only and will not be sold by conductors on the trains. Children's tickets for those under 12 and over 5 years of age will be sold at half price of the cut-rate tickets.

The communities in which the experiment will be tried are Haverhill, Lawrence, Andover, Newburyport, Lowell, Greenfield, Orange, Athol, Gardner, Fitchburg and Ayer in Massachusetts; Dover, Exeter, Portsmouth, Concord, Manchester, and Nashua in New Hampshire, and Portland and Biddeford in Maine.

The 50% reduction in fares for travel between Boston and the 19 communities is intended to encourage more railroad travel on Sundays when patronage is much lighter than on week-days. The tickets will be good in coaches on all regularly-scheduled trains with, of course, the round-trip being made the same day.

WILL DELIVER ADDRESS IN NORTH CAROLINA

Albert George Henry Dietz of Winchester, associate professor of structural engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is scheduled to deliver an address on "Two-Species Laminated Beams" at the 1948 conference of the Wood Industries Division of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers to be held October 14-15, 1948 at High Point, North Carolina.

Professor Dietz, son of Peter and Adele Grevsmuhl Dietz, was born in Lorain, Ohio, on March 7, 1908, attended Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1930, and subsequently pursued further studies at M.I.T., which resulted in the degree of Bachelor of Science in 1932. In this connection, it should be noted that, as a brilliant student, he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, the honorary scholastic society.

With the exception of the year of 1933-34, during which he was bar mill foreman at the National Tube Company, Professor Dietz's career has been confined to the faculty of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Starting as assistant, he was promoted to instructor in 1936, assistant professor in 1941, in which year he was also awarded the degree of Doctor of Science, and since 1946 has been associate professor.

Recognized nationally as an authority in his field, Dr. Dietz has developed new methods of testing the fundamental strength properties of plastic materials and is the author or co-author of various articles pertaining to the strength of wood and wood structures. As additional evidence of his professional standing, he was awarded the Desmond Fitzgerald Medal of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers.

Professor Dietz was married to Ruth Avery in 1936 and is the father of one daughter, Margaret, and a son, Henry Avery.

Old Colonial Homes In Westford To Be Opened to General Public

Standing since 1730 at the end of a tree-shaded lane, is this beautiful old salt box home in Westford, which will be among the dozen old homes to be opened to public view on Saturday, Oct. 16. Many of the original features, such as butterfly hinges, strap hinges and a truly lovely corner cupboard, can be seen in this home, now owned by Mrs. R. S. Smith.

Lovers of Colonial architecture will want to journey to Westford on Saturday, October 16, to view a dozen or more old homes in this historic New England hill town, set in the midst of the famed Nashoba apple belt where autumn foliage should equal in appeal the apple blossoms in the spring.

A tour has been arranged to include many homes which are to be opened to the public for the first time and are considered outstanding examples of early New England architecture. One residence, near the center of the town, is a well-preserved, three-story brick-end house, built in 1800 by a young architect who was impressed by the old Salem houses. A ballroom on the third floor was later used for town meetings, dances, and also as a dormitory for early Westford Academy students.

Old-fashioned hot mulled cider will be served at another unusual house, which started as a simple country home in 1846 and was then enlarged with an ell. This ell, considerably older than the main building, was taken in trade for a cow and drawn over the snow by oxen to its present site.

Tickets for the tour may be obtained at the village green which has the double attraction of a superb view of the southern New Hampshire hills and a 225-year-old country church with a Bulfinch white spire. On this common, troops drilled for Colonial wars.

WINCHESTER NATIONAL FURNISHED BILLS FOR BRAVES

Fans who bought series tickets from the Braves last Saturday and got one dollar bills in change got money furnished the Gaffney street "Steam-Shovels" by the Winchester National Bank.

Last Saturday forenoon President Leslie J. Scott of the Winchester National got an urgent S.O.S. from the Braves management, asking if his bank could furnish them with as many small bills as possible. Many Boston banks were closed and the Braves were desperately seeking small bills for change to accommodate prospective customers. Could the Winchester National help them out?

They could and did! Mr. Scott is an ardent sports follower. You will recall he has already broken 90 once at the Winchester Country Club, and the ends to which he went to miss hearing the Lewis-Wolcott second fight are already history.

Jim rallied 'round with his staff, and as a result three thousand of the best were sent in to the little "Steam-Shovels" in exchange for the equivalent in larger stuff, with the compliments of the Winchester National, all in the way of sport! Jim claims neither he nor any of his staff profitted from the transaction to the extent of securing tickets for the World Series, and it just could be, of course, that he is telling the truth about it. It's pretty hard to tell about Jim when he doesn't want you to know the score!

Roberts, the ways and means chairman, is to be commended for planning this affair with special thanks to her splendid committee which includes: Mrs. Robert Armstrong, Jr., Mrs. Charles W. Blanchard, Mrs. Theodore Elliott, Mrs. Allan S. Farquhar, Mrs. George Houle, Mrs. Robert W. MacArthur, Mrs. Lois D. Meacham, Mrs. H. Parker Melanson, Mrs. Harry L. Mueller, Mrs. E. George Pierce, Mrs. Herbert P. Preble, and Mrs. Jacob VanVloten.

PUT OUT OF CAR IN FELLS

Last Friday evening a resident of the Parkway near the Fells reported a woman apparently demented seeking entrance to her home. Officers Clarence Dunbury and Robert Elliott responded and picked up a Boston woman, who had been drinking. She claimed she had accepted a ride from two men in Boston and had been put out of their car on Border road.

The woman was cut about the head and was taken to the Winchester Hospital for first aid. After she had recovered sufficiently she was put on a Boston-bound train.

TROOP 12 ST. MARY'S CHURCH MARCHED IN C. Y. O. PARADE

On Sunday morning the following Scouts attended the 8:00 a. m. Mass and received Holy Communion in uniform with their American and Troop Flags stationed at the pews reserved for the Scouts. Scouts Barstow, McFeeley, Thorne, Drohan, Barry, O'Connor, Gallagher, Coughlin, D. Doucette, Connolly, and Ernest Reardon with Scoutmaster Norm Doucette and Committeemen Washburn, Casey and Erhard. In the afternoon the Troop marched in the mammoth C. Y. O. parade which was one of the greatest demonstrations of its kinds ever seen in this Country. There were 80,000 members of the C. Y. O. Youth of the Boston Archdiocese marching along Boston's streets, in a 7 hour parade symbolizing unity in faith and devotion to Country. A throng estimated to be more than a million lined the streets to watch. St. Mary's Troop 12 marched behind a beautiful Float, "The Annunciation" in honor of the Patroness of St. Mary's Church. Miss Margaret O'Leary was "Mary" and Miss Virginia Hurley was the "Angel Gabriel". Other youth groups of St. Mary's marched also behind the Scouts with most favorable comments on the whole assembly made by spectators. Marching for the Scouts were Barstow, Barry, L. Erhard, Gallagher, Thorne, Coughlin, O'Connor, R. Pearson, E. Reardon, McFeeley, Loftus, Mawn, Drohan, Callahan, Scoutmaster N. Doucette, Asst. S. M. Bob Fiore and Chaplain Fr. Robert Supple with Committeemen Casey, Washburn and Erhard marching also to assist in keeping the boys and girls lined up. Seven Scouts whose names are not in the above were marching with other groups such as B. C. High etc. Only one member of the Troop was not able to be present which was a very fine showing for the Troop. All are to be congratulated upon for doing such a fine job. The Troop had a special bus assigned to them and Rollicking singing of many Songs was indulged in on the trip in and out. The boys were thrilled at the many dignitaries in the reviewing stands who smile and nodded at them as the Scouts marched past. Archbishop Cushing beamed all over at them and Governor Bradford likewise was all smiles.

WEEK-END FIRES

First of several week-end alarms was on Fraiday for an Olds sedan afire on Winchester place. Firemen with hand chemicals ran from the Central Station nearby to put out this fire, which did little damage. The machine was owned by Stephen Dodd of 86 Bacon street.

Saturday at 9:00 a. m. the department was called to the home of Mr. Edward Kleber, 26 Oxford street, where gas was leaking from a refrigerator. The men donned gas-masks and removed the refrigerator from the house.

At 12:35 p. m. Saturday, another car was reported afire on Main street near South Gateway. The men found burning wires in the car and also found that the owner, Frank L. Cook of Burlington, was much more interested in getting to the Red Sox game in Boston than he was in the fate of his car, simply pushing the disabled machine off the road and hopping a Medford-bound bus.

Box 62 came in Sunday at 12:03 p. m. for leaves burning at the corner of Highland avenue and Mt. Vernon street, and the final run of the week-end came at 9:25 Sunday evening to put out a chimney fire at the home of Mr. Roger Haven, 3 Overlook road.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL DANCING CLASS

The first meeting of the Sixth Grade Dancing Class of the George Washington School was held October 1st with Mr. Russell Curry as Instructor. Since the Sixth Grade is a very small group, the Fifth Grade has been invited to join with them. The Lincoln School Sixth Grade was also invited to attend.

The thirty-seven students present were told about ballroom etiquette and were taught various dancing steps and positions. They were also given ample opportunity to show what they had learned. By the end of the hour everyone including Mr. Curry was pleased with the progress that had been made. The next meeting will be October 8, and then one or two lessons a month until March.

Among the visiting mothers who enjoyed the class almost as much as the students, were Mrs. George H. Gowdy and Mrs. Stuart K. Harris as Hostesses, and Mrs. C. C. Peter and Mrs. Harold G. Carlson from the committee in charge of arrangements for the class. Miss Roberts and Mr. Nault, teachers of the two grades, were also present.

Walter Lee Bailey, Postor of the Church, will speak to the young people and plans for the winter will be discussed and formulated. It is anticipated that a large number will be present to enjoy the hospitality of the Eklund family, including Joanne and Nanette, who are popular members of this group.

WYMAN SCHOOL NOTES

Mr. Forte's sixth grade has repainted the safety signs that are placed on Church street for their school. The signs were badly in need of paint after a long, hard year. Mr. Forte's room also made some decorative safety signs for traffic conjestion in the corridors. They are placed above doorways and on the stairs.

The Wyman School reached the 500 mark recently for the first time in its history. This gives Wyman a larger enrollment than any other school in Winchester, except the High School.

THE W.W.G. GETS UNDER WAY

The World Wide Guild Girls of the First Baptist Church held their first meeting for the 1948-49 season on Tuesday evening, September 28. They met at the home of their leader and adviser, Mrs. R. Dale Simpson.

New members, Sandra Davis, Barbara Mulea, Helen Lunsford, Margaret Reid, Adele Jonah, and Helen Barrett were welcomed into the group, after which an election of officers was held. For the ensuing year they are as follows: Jeanne McKinley, president; Sandra Davis, vice-president; Barbara Mulea, secretary; and Joan Dade, treasurer.

Plans for the year were discussed, and the girls decided to provide a basket for a poor family at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. A Food Sale was voted on for the end of October, and work was begun on their three act play, scheduled for November.

At the close of the business meeting delightful refreshments were served with thanks going to the generous "old" members.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NOTES

The first assembly at the Lincoln school was presented recently by the fifth grade.

The entire class participated in the program entitled "Seeing America First", which deal with trying to interest the American public to travel in their own wonderful land.

The scene was centered at a travel bureau. Colored slides were shown of the colorful spots in the United States, accompanied by individual narrations by the entire class.

After Mass the Holy Name Society will gather at Lyceum Hall in the Center for a light breakfast and the regular meeting will be held with reports to be given by the various Officers and Committees. SENTENCED FOR WINCHESTER BREAK

Fred G. Hughes, no address, whose arrest following a series of breaks in Medford and Winchester caused so much interest in police circles during the late summer, was finally sentenced this week by Chief Justice Higgins in Superior Court to two terms of 8 to 10 years in States Prison with the terms to run concurrently.

Hughes was convicted of breaks in Winchester at North Gateway and Jefferson road homes, and was also convicted of four breaks in Medford. He was charged with breaking and entering and larceny in the night time, and at his hotel room in Boston the police found a collection of costume type jewelry that surprised even veterans in many Greater Boston Police Departments. Chief Harrold commended the members of his department who finally apprehended the much-wanted housebreaker and brought him to justice.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

Grades 5 and 6 begun a series of dancing classes held on Friday afternoon.

The pupils of the second grade have begun studying a unit on The Workers Who Protect Us. They have already learned about the roles played by the fireman and the policeman.

The sixth grade is learning about the air. They have conducted experiments to prove that fire will not burn without air. The pupils have also been studying about Galileo's Thermometer.

The school's Brownie and Girl Scout troops have gotten their year's programs under way.

The fifth grade students are learning how the earth turns with relation to the sun. Throughout the year they will keep a record of the shadow cast by a certain object at a certain hour to note how the angle between the sun's rays and the earth changes during the year.

Due to the great interest on the part of pupils and teachers, the 4th, 5th, 6th grades listened to Monday's play-off game between Boston and Cleveland.

The 3rd grade is studying the neighborhood in which they live. A map has been constructed on which each pupil has designated his own home and the route by which he comes to school. Their next project will be a table model of this neighborhood.

School supplies at the Star Office.

TO SEEK PERMIT FOR HOUSE THRICE DENIED

On Oct. 13 the Board of Appeal will hold a hearing on the petition of Ralph Sylvester of 366 Main street, entered in the name of his daughter, Constance E., of the same address, for permission to build a house on a lot at 3 Mystic avenue containing less than the 10,000 sq. ft. required by the town zoning by-laws.

The case goes back to June of 1946 when Mr. Sylvester first sought permission to build a house on this lot, containing 6500 sq ft. of land. The Building Commissioner denied the permit as a matter of law, and the Board of Appeal sustained his decision. Frank W. Howard, chairman; William J. Croughwell and Addison R. Pike, constitute this board

On March 11, 1947, the Board of Appeal denied a second appeal entered by Mr. Sylvester from the decision of the Building Commissioner, again denying a permit to erect a house on the same lot under similar circumstances. James N. Clark was chairman of this Board, the others being Charles H. Wansker and Frank W. Howard.

Once again in February of 1948 Mr. Sylvester sought a permit to build at 3 Mystic avenue, and once again his request was denied, with the Board of Appeal again sustaining the decision of the Building Commisioner. This Board comprised Walter A. Redding, chairman; George M. DeCamp and Frank W. Howard.

Mr. Sylvester in this instance took an appeal from the decision of the Board of Appeal to the Superior Court, asking that the court review the decision. April 26, 1948, a decree was entered by Judge Thomas H. Dowd, upholding the Board of Appeal.

In his decision Judge Dowd said that to grant Mr. Sylvester's petition would result in substantial detriment to the neighborhood in question and to the public welfare, and would constitute a material derogation from the intent of the Zoning By-law. He found no exceptional nor peculiar circumstances involved, nor any unnecessary hardship suffered by the petitioner, and felt that the case was one within the jurisdiction of the Board of Appeal and that the Board was within its rights in finding against the petitioner.

Subsequent to Judge Dowd's decision Mr. Sylvester applied, again in the name of his daughter, for a permit to build a three-car garage on the lot at 3 Mystic avenue. Since this lot is contiguous to property owned by the Sylvesters there was no legal bar to granting such an application, and the permit was issued by the Building Commissioner.

As provided by Section 10 of the Zoning By-laws, notices of the granting of the permit were sent to all abuttors within 100 feet of the lot. No objection was received from any of those so notified within the requisite 10 days, so that any right of appeal which abuttors may have had under the law is now lost.

Work was commenced on the garage which is said to extend within two feet of the lot line of Mr. J. M. Olivier, whose home is adjacent to the Sylvester lot to the west. He and other neighbors are now alarmed over the erection of the garage and are reported to have asked Mr. Sylvester to build instead the house which he first planned for the lot, the house for which a permit has three times been denied on a point of law, with a Superior Court Justice upholding the decision of the local Building Commissioner and Board of Appeal.

Apparently Mr. Sylvester is willing to change his plans, despite the fact that work had been begun on the foundation for the garage. At least he has again sought permission to erect a house on the lot at 3 Mystic avenue, a lot enlarged to 6500 sq. ft. by taking some land from the contiguous lot, formerly owned by the Winns, at the corner of Mystic avenue and Main street.

Oct. 13 has been set as the date for the hearing in the matter of the new petition, and it would seem that an interesting case is in the making.

BUILDING PERMITS GRANTED

The Building Commissioner has issued permits for the week ending September 30 as follows:

New Dwellings:

32 Marion street
24 Marion street

Reshingle dwellings:

The Board of Appeal in accordance with Section 147 of the Building Laws will give a hearing, Wednesday, October 13, 1948 at eight (8) o'clock in the evening, in the office of the Building Commissioner, 9 Mt. Vernon Street.

Grace D. Dondero requests permission to add garage to existing dwelling, numbered 16 Stowell Road, locating the same less than twenty-five (25) feet from the street line.

All persons interested are invited to attend.

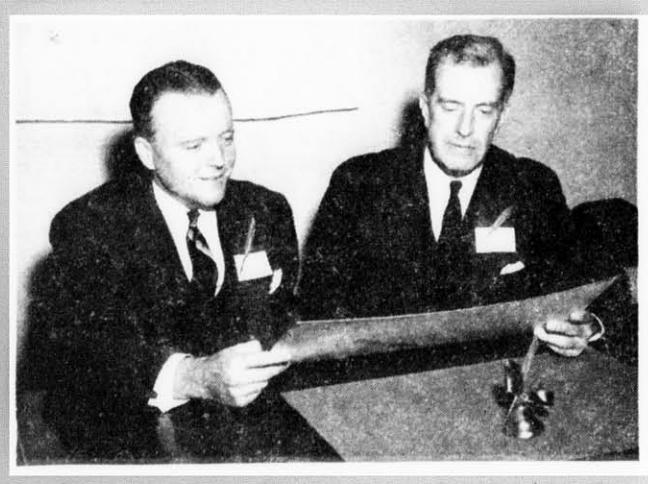
THE WINCHESTER STAR.

VOL. LXVIII NO. 9 THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1948 PRICE SEVEN CENTS



Powell Cabot, Greater Boston Community Fund Campaign Chairman, congratulates Walcott B. Thompson, chairman of Winchester's Advance Solicitation Division, for 100 percent enrollment of highest type workers in this division.

SPECIAL GIVERS NECESSARY TO RED FEATHER EXPANSION

Highlight of the mainfold current activities of Winchester's community effort for the great Red Feather campaign now in the final organization stage is the advance solicitation of special givers. This vitally important phase of the Community Fund's success calls for the utmost cooperation between solicitors and special donors this year of all years because of the continued expansion of Red Feather services to the community. These services now number 339—almost double the number in existence 10 years ago.

Think what this means in terms of good to the community and effectiveness as far as the giver is concerned as well as the receiver of help. Imagine the demands on ones time and pocketbook if each of these more than 300 agencies solicited your help individually. But all this increase in efficiency in administration and economy of fund raising has to be supported by a larger gift from each and every one of us. That is why the Community Fund goal is the highest in peacetime history—eight percent higher than last year—and why all of us will be asked to give more generously than ever before in order to attain that goal.

Chairman Walcott B. Thompson of the Advance Solicitation Division has organized a staff of the highest caliber to present this need to Winchester's roster of special givers. He has two experienced assistants in this important undertaking, James Nowell and Ralph T. Jope. His top grade staff of advance solicitors is comprised of the following individuals, all known and respected for their public spirit and contributions to our community and its welfare: Paul Avery, Walter H. Birnie, Mrs. Neil Borden, Norman Cushman, Frank Cranford, E. L. Dunn, N. H. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Harold French, Mrs. V. L. Ghirardini, G. H. Hood, Jr., Franklin Lane, Harlow Russell, Sherman Russell, Ben Schneider, J. W. Shoemaker, R. H. B. Smith, Robert Stone, Martin Swanson, Wayne Thompson, John Willis, Donald Wright.

Enrollment of volunteer workers for the intensive house to house campaign opening the 25th of this month is being completed under the leadership of Chairman Earl G. Carrier. The success of this enrollment is attested by the fact that Winchester received the Division Award for enrollment leading all communities in its area.

SPORT CENTER TO OPEN MONDAY

The Winchester Sport Center whose "hatching" a great many of the townspeople have been watching will open on Monday afternoon, Oct. 18, with the teachers league to "christen" it. There has been much advice given to Mr. Navarro, from the construction of the alleys to the colors of the venetian blinds.

The owner, Mr. Navarro, has stated to the Star that there will be no private opening, but that the Winchester Sport Center will just plain open for the enjoyment of everyone. He also stated that the whole town is welcome to come in anytime to inspect it and give their "ideas" on any phase of the whole Sport Center.

He will take a vacation, after which he will announce his future plans.

WINCHESTER CALENDAR READY FOR ORDERS

The charming and unusual "Winchester Calendar" for 1949, with space for engagements and with 27 beautiful photographs of Winchester scenes, is on sale to the public this week at $1.25, compiled and edited by a Committee of Women from the First Congregational Church as their project for the Country Fair (November 17). It is the first time such a calendar has been created and the Committee feels that its local flavor will appeal to a great many residents, and will make an unusual Christmas gift. Orders for the calendar, with envelope, may be placed with Mrs. Bartlett WInchester 6-1314-R; Mrs. Jenks, WInchester 6-2337; Mrs. Easton, WInchester 6-3022, and all others will be filled promptly. The calendar will also be featured at the Country Fair on November 17, at a special booth.

The calendar is lithographed, nicely bound, with a breath-taking picture for the cover. Pictures have been taken through the kind assistance of Mr. Arthur Griffin, James L. Jenks, Jr., Reginald Wentworth, George Niles, Jack Hanlon, Richard Conrad, and Leroy Frost. At the present time, the Committee has a limited number of calendars for sale.

Mrs. Harold A. Smith is chairman of the Calendar committee, assisted by Mrs. Edward Bartlett, Mrs. Harry Easton, Mrs. James L. Jenks, Jr., Mrs. Edmund Filler of the Social Service Guild, under whose guidance the calendar was launched. Mrs. Stanley Cairncross, Mrs. John Lobingier and Mrs. Howard Bartlett served as advisors. On the sales committee are Mrs. George Curtis, Mrs. Daniel Morse, Mrs. James Murray, Mrs. Charles N. Ladd, Mrs. Eugene M. Pollard, and Mrs. R. M. Boutwell.

TROOP 12 NEWS

We have two acknowledgments to make this week the first is to correct the inadvertent ommission of the name of Laurence Erhard from the list of those Scouts at the 8:00 a. m. Mass on the morning of the huge C. Y. O. Parade. The other is to acknowledge the winning of the Junior Marksman medal by Don Cullen at Camp Fellsland this summer. Leo Coughlin also won this award. Troop 12 has now had two meetings (September 30 and October 7th) Mr. George Thompson, Winchester District Commissioner addressed the Scouts at the first meeting who told the boys that big things were expected of them this year. Dennis Doucette, Laurie Erhard, Tommy Morrissey and Ernest Reardon were welcomed by the Troop. They were in the Cub Pack last year and graduated. Robert Pearson was on hand also. He will be eligible to join in a few weeks. He has been a Cub Scout also. Mr. Norm Doucette announced as Scoutmaster that the Troop will hold an Investiture Ceremony for these new Scouts on October 28th. Also on this date there will be held a Halloween Party with all of the Scouts bringing something. There will be games, skits, prizes etc. On October 12th, the Holiday, there will be a hike to Camp Lane taking all day. The Scouts are hungry for these affairs but the weather has not been right or the woods have been closed. On November 6th and 7th a Camporee will be held at Burlington with only some Scouts eligible to go. These will be lined up at the next meeting. A lively "Skunk Tag" game was introduced at the first meeting with the boys hopping all over the place. At this most recent meeting Asst. Scoutmaster Bob Fiore introduced a novel floor basket ball game with the idea being to "sink" a huge ball into a tube affair basket. The boys were lined up into two groups and the "Braves" won over the "Red Sox" with Tommy Morrissey tossing in the all important tiebreaking point. On the winning side were Notemyer, D. Doucette, Morrissey, O'Connor, Barry, Gallagher, E. Reardon Doherty. Present for the Scouts were the above and Connolly, Barstow, McFeeley, L. Erhard, Thorne, Coughlin, Weiss, Cullen, Pearson, Mawn. Absent were Russo, Callahan, McLaughlin, Loftus and Drohan. John Notemyer was promoted to the rank of Patrol Leader. Rev. Fr. Supple, Troop Chaplain spoke briefly, urging the Scouts to better advancement this year so that we will some time soon have our first Eagle Scout. Since this meeting the Troop has learned that Fr. Supple has been transferred to Nahant and wish him success and happiness. Present for the Committeemen were the Messrs. Washburn, Casey, Grant and Erhard.

ST. MARY'S H. N. S. HELD FIRST MEETING

Hear Fr. Harney S. J.

On Sunday, October 10th St. Mary's Holy Name Society attended the 8:00 a. m. Mass, received Holy Communion and lifted their voices in hymns with Dana Kelley and his fine baritone leading the men. After Mass the men gathered at Lyceum Hall where coffee and doughnuts were to be had. However, for the rest of the meetings each month, Mr. Michael Connolly has been appointed "Supervisor" and assisted by the young men of the Society, will take charge of serving the men while all are seated which will prove more efficient than before. Ralph Ambrose, Program Director, outlined an interesting and varied program for the year. Other Officers and Committeemen gave brief reports. Fr. Sennott, Spiritual Director, unfortunately was not able to be present at this, the first meeting. Fr. Martin P. Harney S. J. of Boston College was the invited Speaker and favored his listeners with a most inspiring address. His topic, "Catholic Traditions of New England" took us back to Lief Erickson's day to the Puritan to the Revolutionary to the Civil War period to our present day. Fr. Harney lauded the courage of the early Missionaries who gave such good example and were concerned with helping their fellow creatures. He mentioned at some length "Bishop Cheverus" the first Bishop of Boston who built the first Cathedral in Boston on Franklin street. Cheverus on Sundays would have services in Boston and then would row over to Chelsea and thence walk to Salem to conduct services there as Salem was the only other Catholic community outside of Boston. It was interesting to hear Fr. Harney say that John Adams was a contributor to Bishop Cheverus' Cathedral fund, so well liked the Bishop was. Other facts unfolded were that Ethan Allen's daughter became a nun; that "witchcraft" was charged to many early Catholics who suffered death; that many immigrants were shipwrecked enroute to this Country one notable example being the ship, "St. John" out of Galway its passengers seeking relief from famine and persecution. This ship was lost and all on board near Minot's Light just short of their destination, the new land of hope. Many of the children of the early Puritans who were stolen by the Indians were recovered by the missionaries and brought up by them. That Fr. Harney was enjoyed is to put it midlly.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

Twenty-eight adult volunteers and two Senior Scouts attended the three day Regional Girl Scout Conference at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, last week.

Three from the Winchester Council Advisory Committee also attended the banquet on Thursday evening to hear Dr. E. Wendell Yeo speak on "Youth United by Ideals." The men attending were Mr. Richard Johnson, Mr. William Beggs, and Mr. Vincent Ambrose. Ginny Dyer made an excellent impression with her discussion on the panel before 1500 volunteer workers. Our display,s made by Doreen Stowe, Miriam Parker, Mary Anne Damon and Sue Ordway, were greatly admired.

Storrow Troop No. 1

Tuesday evening, Sept. 21, Storrow Troop 1 held their first meeting of the year. To eliminate absentees, evening meetings were decided upon by the troop, and leader, Mrs. W. B. Hersey. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Vice Chairmen - Virginia Bullard, Joan Bodman
Chairman - Ruth Halm
Treasurers - Bette Fitzgerald, Linda Bartlett
Secretary - Alice Hodge, Sandra Hall
Typists - Barbara Macaulay, Mildred True, Martha Bailey
Senior Planning Board - Betty Ann Parker, Anne Farquhar
Artists - Miriam Parker, Doreen Stowe

Other business discussed was the plans for the production of a minstrel show, the first showing to be given at the First Congregational Church's Annual Fair. Under the direction of Dr. Pollard and Dr. Blanchard, the girls hope to be as successful as they were last year with their well-known puppet shows.

Saving the best until the last, the girls closed their meeting with a discusion of a week-end camping trip.

Seven members, accompanied by their leader, Mrs. W. B. Hersey, left for a week-end of camping on Mrs. Hersey's farm at New Boston, N. H., on Friday afternoon, Oct. 1. In the center of a pine grove they set up their camp site, which included the girls sleeping bags, a main tent, and an open fireplace where all cooking was done.

After camp chores were done the girls took turns riding horseback and driving the piano box buggy through country lane.

Saturday evening everyone attended an old-fashioned square dance held at Francestown, N. H. While these dances are weekly affairs to the country people, they were a novelty to the girls, and one they enjoyed very much. An early morning hike was on the agenda for Sunday, after which the girls broke camp.

STONEHAM HERE TOMORROW

Winchester plays its annual football game with Stoneham High tomorrow afternoon at Manchester Field with the kickoff at 2 o'clock.

Stoneham has beaten Ipswich and played a scoreless tie with Lexington. Winchester should win tomorrow but if the game runs true to form the locals will have their troubles, for Stoneham always plays a stubborn offensive game against Winchester, and generally is hard to beat.

A year ago Sammy Bellino eked out a 6-0 victory at Stoneham with a pass to Vern Slack who got close enough to enable Bellino to wriggle over for the game's only touchdown. The "Mighty Mite" isn't around this year to pull the locals out of their offensive holes, but for all that Winchester ought to get by Stoneham without too much trouble.

WINNING FROM WINTHROP by Gerry

WINCHESTER 19, WINTHROP 6

Pass Interception for Score Aroused Locals

After fiddling around during most of the first half, with neither team able to move the ball, Winchester finally got going and beat a fading Winthrop High eleven, 19-6, before a slim crowd on Manchester Field last Saturday afternoon.

The size of the crowd was a bit surprising since Winchester and Winthrop have staged some closely contested interesting ballgames. Announcements in some of the Boston papers to the effect that the game was to be played Columbus Day didn't help of course and there were undoubtedly many also who couldn't be lured away from the radio with the Braves trying to even the World Series in Cleveland.

Winchester lacked fire through most of the first half, but the locals galvanized into action in a hurry when Winthrop scored first in the second quarter.

The quarter was more than half over and Winchester had the ball on its own 47, third and nine. On the next play Amico faded and quickly shot of a pass out into the left flat intended for Pete Dillingham.

The leather never reached the waiting Peter, being plucked dexterously from the air by the defensive Winthrop halfback, Shiner, who came up fast and intercepted the pass to scoot straight down the field 60 yards for a touchdown that came like a bolt from the blue. The visitors tried to pass for the point after and missed, Myers handed off the kickoff to Dillingham and Pete got out to his 37. Myers reversed for eight, and Carroll shoved his way to a first down at midfield.

Dillingham on a pitchout got only two, and Sevey knifed through to drop Myers for a yard deficit. Amico faked a buck and passed ahead to Slack who made a swell falling catch of the ball and stumbled along to the Winthrop 27.

The next play was it, a buck lateral with Amico handing off the ball to Carroll, "Skitchie", lateralling out to Dillingham, and "Pete" rifling an across the field pass deep to Slack. Vern grabbed the ball inside the five and galloped over. Dillingham kicked in the extra point from placement with Carroll holding.

Rutherford kicked short to Carroll to start the new half and "Skitchie" drove straight down the sidelines 25 yards to the Winthrop 41. Dillingham picked up a couple and Myers on a reverse and cutback drove to the Winthrop 26. Myers again carried to a first down at the 15, and Dillingham added two off tackle. Amico then jump-passed over center to Slack who grabbed the ball about the eight and ambled over. Dillingham's try for the extra point was wide.

Shortly before the end of the third quarter Winthrop elected to pass on 4th down and grounded the heave, Winchester taking over at its 39.

Amico and Carroll made it first down at midfield, and Dillingham on a pitch-out reached the Winthrop 24, with Finamore making a last-ditch tackle to save a score.

The teams changed goals for the final quarter, and a fumble forced Winchester back to the 31. Myers reversed for seven, but a jump-pass fell incomplete, and it was fourth down.

Once again Dillingham faded and rifled a pass to Amico who was dropped on the 11. Dillingham hit off tackle to the five, but then Winthrop stopped Myers and Dillingham for no gain. On 4th down Amico drilled over inside his own right tackle for the score. Once more Dillingham's kick was plenty high but wide.

That ended the scoring, though with a reserve team on the field the visitors nearly tallied after recovering a Winchester fumble at the locals' 26. With the ball inside the five the varsity rushed back into the game. Charm bucked to the two, but a quarterback sneak was piled up and a five yarder against Winthrop for back in motion put the ball back on the seven. A pass was grounded and Charm was stopped well short of pay dirt on the visitors final try. The summary:

BELLINO THREW SCORING PASS FOR WENTWORTH

Scampering "Sammy" Bellino, former Winchester high school football flash and captain of last year's eleven, threw the pass that led to Wentworth Institute's lone touchdown against the Boston University freshman team last Friday. B. U. won 20-7, with the former Lynn Classical ace, Harry Agganis starring for the collegians

"Sammy" was one of the big cogs in the Wentworth offense, stealing the ball from the great Agganis near the Wentworth goal line and raced out to the B. U. 40. From that Point Bellino faded and rifled a pass to end Jack Shields who tallied, Bellino adding the extra point at placement. He's evidently the same old Sammy, even if the competition is a trifle more keen.

Who's ahead in the Political race? Throughout the country voters and those seeking political office follow the returns in the famous "Gallup Poll". The only paper in Boston which prints the Gallup Poll is The Boston Globe.

McLAUGHLIN AGAIN!

"Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset, was a bit miffed over what he seemed to think was a scurrilous report in last week's STAR, referring to his failure to win the horseshoe competition at the recent K. of C. outing. Mr. McLaughlin wanted it jolly well understood that he did not participate in the horseshoe competition at the outing, for the very good reason that he had to leave before the boys started to throw around the shoes. And he had to leave the outing because he had to drive away down to Plymouth to get the family, or something, and he wasn't beaten, because he didn't play, and would Mr. Teele please get things straight!

Mr. McLaughin was on hand for the regular week-end matches of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association at the beach courts at an early hour, and it might be said that he is nursing a grudge! It looked for a time like there would be no quorum, for Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham was in drydock with the grippe, and Herbert "Garrulous" Gardner, the Dix Street Magnate, was kept at home by important business, the nature of which was not divulged.

Royal "Paper Trade" Teele, ebullient president of the Association, reported for action with a new white fisherman's cap, and the Secretary also put in an appearance. Mr. Teele and Mr. McLaughlin were engaged in a dogged game of singles with the Pride of Stow well in the van, when Mr. "Wimpy" Burtnett of the port authority at Palmer street, strolled around the bathhouse to see if the sand was still on the beach and was pressed into service, pairing with Mr. McLaughlin.

"Willie" and "Wimpy" carried the President and Secretary to an odd game match before yielding. Mr. McLaughlin's opinion of the Teele form being withheld to avoid trouble with the censors. In the next match Mr. Teele and Mr. McLaughlin grudgingly joined forces to beat Mr. Burtnett and the Scribe, and in the final match "Wild Willie" carried the Scribe to victory.

None of the pitching was exceptional unless it was Mr. Burtnett's clutch ringer in the second game of the first series that enabled his side to gain the verdict and blame near broke Mr. Teele's heart.

FITCHBURG EVENS HOCKEY SERIES, 5-4

Fitchburg won its return game from the Winchester Hockey Club last Sunday afternoon, 5-4, at the Skating Club with the locals apparently still in the recent slump. Winchester didn't faintly resemble the club that trounced Fitchburg three weeks ago.

Next Sunday afternoon, Oct. 17, at 3 o'clock at the Skating Club, Winchester meets the Winthrop Indians in a return match. Winthrop won two weeks ago by a one goal margin. The locals vow they are out to even things up: The group of loyal Winchester rooters has been steadily increasing week by week. Fans who would like to be treated to some fast clever hockey are cordially invited to come over and see their team in action. Following is the Fitchburg summary:

The Winchester ballot for the coming National and State elections will have upon it the question of the 48 hour week for the town's Fire Department. The Star understands that this question is on the ballot because of a misunderstanding, and that none of the interested parties, Firemen, Selectmen or Finance Committee is too happy about its being there. Individuals we have talked with seem to feel that basis for an amicable adjustment of the hours question for Firemen will present itself as the result of further study and conferences between the interested parties. Meanwhile statements from both sides of the question may be expected in advance of election day.

HOME AND SCHOOL FIRES

The big magazines certainly know how to scare people. It if isn't the silver nitrate drops put into the eyes of newborn babies that sometimes causes blindness, it's the sewage that contaminates our drinking water To read these warnings enough is to wonder how the American people survive as well as they seem to

But, within reason, a little scaring for a good cause is wholesome democratic tonic. The current Collier's has a piece which is calculated to give some very uneasy moments to mothers and fathers of school children. Called "Death in the Classroom" it makes death in the classroom seem almost likely.

There isn't much factual detail that you can call incorrect. Maybe national fire authorities wouldn't be surprised if several hundred school children died tomorrow in a school fire. Maybe we do have seven school fires daily. But the article puts it together in a way that makes the danger of school fires look much worse than it is. A similarly alarming and similarly factual article could be written about traffic accidents, wooden lollypop sticks that children fall on and lead crib paint.

The Collier's article mentions a National Fire Protection Association engineer, residing in Winchester, who carries a piece of the green burlap wainscoting from the corridor walls of Atlanta's Winecoff Hotel. It seems that a Winchester school has the same kind of burlap. The inference is that the school is potentially another Winecoff hotel, in which 119 persons died. It naturally has disturbed Winchester a lot, and the engineer has had to assure the parents that it isn't quite that bad.

But the fact that school fire tragedies do happen is proof enough that people aren't sufficiently scared about them, or at least intelligently scared. Maybe it is necessary to exaggerate danger to arouse public opinion, because public opinion doesn't arouse over ordinary perils. The unfortunate result of such exaggeration, however, may be to focus attention on one danger, like school fires, and lift it from other and equally serious perils. As, for instance, fires in the home, about which the Boston Board of Fire Underwriters is planning to warn parents of school children during fire prevention week next week.—[Editorial in the Boston Herald, Sept. 27, 1948.

WHAT HAS TRUMAN DONE WRONG?

To the Editor:

An Associated Press dispatch from Brunswick, Maine, reporting a speech by Dr. Adrian H. Scolten, Democratic nominee for the Senate in the recent election, quoted him as saying at a partisan rally, "What has President Truman done that is positively and palpably wrong." If the doctor does not know, it is a sad reflection on his amazing lack of knowledge of his candidate's record.

To begin with, let us consider the man who made the undignified statement in his opening speech for reelection, "We will give them hell," certainly language unbecoming the President of the United States. Mr. Truman is a Pendergast trained politician. He was obligated to him and never repudiated him although Mr. Pendergast was dishonest, corrupt and a notorious crook who was sent to prison for his misdeeds. It was he who started the President on his political career that took him to the United States Senate. According to press reports Mr. Truman went by airplane to pay his respects at his friend's funeral.

James M. Curley, mayor of Boston and ex-governor of Massachusetts, is another Pendergast type politician. He was tried for fraudelent use of the mails, convicted and committed to a federal prison after a higher court ruled that his trial was fair and the sentence just. It was not his first time in jail. He was liberated by President Truman before he had served his full prison term. Wasn't that a "palpable wrong", Dr. Scolten? Pendergast, Truman, Curley.

"Counterattack" founded by ex F. B. I. members to broadcast "Facts to Combat Communism" has shown that Communism in this country is an organized group, a member of a "World Communist Party," taking orders from Moscow and working day and night to overthrow the United States government. President Truman, notwithstanding, told the American people that the exposure of Communism in our own country is "a red herring." When a Congressional committee asked him for papers which he held that contained important information relating to its investigation, reports that would help in detecting our country's enemies, he refused to let it have them. Wasn't that a "palpable wrong?"

Senator Byrd of Virginia, a patriotic Democrat, has urged the President to reform the administration by doing away with useless and unnecessary overlapping bureaus. He has shown that the people can be saved millions of dollars by this reform alone. Mr. Truman has refused to do it and is today padding the federal payroll with more hundreds of unnecessary employees while he continues preaching economy. Isn't that a "palpable wrong?"

What about the last Congressional election in President Truman's home district? The winner was publicly endorsed by the President and was victor over a good man in what was reputed to have been a typical Pendergast type election --- "crooked as a ram's horn," said one man. An investigation was demanded and was about to be instituted when the ballots, supposed to be in safe keeping, were stolen one night, blocking the investigation which was hushed up. Wasn't Mr. Truman's failure to have his attorney general probe the matter to get the facts and reveal the culprits a "palpable wrong?"

The President seems to think that the millenium may be achieved by legislation. If prices are too high, just legislate low ones. Instead of going to the roots of the social problems, afflicting the people today and correcting them, he gives the whole matter superficial examination or none at all, treats the symptoms instead of the disease with temporary, palliative methods and lightheartedly lets it go at that. His predecessor made organized labor a dictatorial oligarchy exempt from the laws that govern the nation's unorganized masses. Mr. Truman approves, another "palpable wrong."

Contrast the opening addresses of the candidate of the two leading parties now campaigning for the presidency. Governor Dewey, speaking at Des Moines, Iowa, September 20, said, "I pledge you that as president, every act of mine will be determined by one principle above all others: "Is this good for our country?" Concluding his dignified, reassuring address, he said, "Let us go forward into the future as courageous, united Americans bound together by an invincible faith that liberty with justice under God is the most precious thing on earth."

President Truman opened his campaign with the threat, "We will give them hell."

Governor Dewey advocates methods of government chosen after sound, judicial, scientific study, policies to benefit all the people equally. President Truman who has never risen above the level of Ward politics, and is not over tinctured with the elixir of statesmanship, resorts to the politician's favorite method of vain but plausible promises to win selected groups that are capable of polling a considerable vote for him if approached adroitly with the bait of higher wages for labor, higher prices to farmers, lower prices to consumers and whatever is dear to the particular group addressed, regardless of whether the rank and file is benefitted or not. Nevertheless, it seems to the writer that the President by resorting to these timeworn tactics, has not made a favorable impression upon wise and thoughtful people whose opinion is most to be desired. He is unworthy of the leadership of the American people. In this critical period of our country's history, wisdom, patriotism and statesmanship of the highest order are urgently needed.

"DEVILS FROM THE SKY"

To the Editor:

Answering a question about the Airborne: - You can train in any phase of the Regular Army and then transfer into Airborne (provided there is an opening). Airborne - or "Devils from the Sky" as the Germans called the men of the Airborne - means everything found on the ground suddenly transposed into the air. No service calls for more; no service offers more. Every man will be a highly trained specialist; his training is rugged and thorough; his physical condition perfect; he will be taught everything from the firing of the 77 m m and the use of high-explosive demolition charges to the operation and maintenance of sewing machines, heavy trucks, bulldozers, field telephones and radar.

The Airborne is the Army's "ace in the hole". These gladiators, heavily armed, skilled in the art of self-preservation, ready for instant action, are a guarantee that American might will drop from the sky whenever and wherever it is needed.

To C. P.: If your son is "completely wrapped up in aviation" he will also be completely frustrated if you continue to stand in his way. If he enlists in the U. S. Air Force it does not necessarily mean that he is going to fly. Here are some of the fields open to young men through U. S. Air Force schools: -

Aircraft Maintenance—Airplane and Engine Mechanics, Instrument Mechanics and Repairmen, Aircraft Welders, Airplane Sheet Metal Workers.

Aviation Engineering — Construction Technicians, Electricians, Surveyors, Draftsmen, Crane Operators, Bulldozer Operators.

Radar and Radio Maintenance—Radar Mechanics and Repairmen, Radio Mechanics and Repairmen, Radio Teletype Mechanics, Instrument Landing Equipment Mechanics.

Wire Communications—Linemen, Teletype Operators, Telephone Switchboard Operators, Cryptographic Technicians.

Administration — Classification Specialists, Administrative Specialists, Air Transportation Specialists, Message Center Clerks, Clerk-Typists.

Automotive Maintenance—Diesel Mechanics, Automotive Mechanics and Repairmen, Machinists.

Or he may prefer to work toward a commission as a U.S.A.F. nonflying officer, specializing in such fields as engineering, communications, administration, armament or operations, by qualifying for U.S.A.F. Officer Candidate School.

Answering the question "What is the Army attitude toward draftees?", here is a recent quote from General Omar Bradley: - "There is no longer any place in the American Army for a "treat 'em rough, tell 'em nothing" school of officers or noncoms. If we are to make good use of these valuable years from the lives of new draftees, then we must offer them a healthy moral, intellectual and social climate in which they will serve willingly - not resentfully because of force or compulsion. I believe that if the Army is to be a democratic instrument of this nation, then it must respect and value the basic human rights of its soldiers. It must guard their dignity, defend their integrity, and not permit these men to be pushed around unnecessarily because of the inconsiderate assumption of privileges that come with rank. The Army has made mistakes before - many of them. We may, unfortunately, make many more. But I do want you to know that the Army is out to prove that not only the nation but these young men as well may profit by their service.

The peacetime draft has put the Army on trial before a bar of critical public opinion. We will stand on the record."

Vary truly yours,
Gladys N. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE POLICY DEFINED

October 8, 1948

In order to prevent any misunderstandings, and to assure our patrons of our desire to do the best thing for individual pupils and the school system as a whole, the School Committee desires to state publicly its policy concerning school attendance.

1. The School Committee is, of course, primarily interested in the safety and health of the children; however, it is to be remembered that we have a school year of 180 teaching days, and it is highly desirable that the school term does not end too late in June.

2. It is our aim to keep the schools open every day possible. In case of unusually severe weather or travel conditions, the Superintendent may, at his discretion, close the schools.

3. There are many competent observers who believe that the safety of our children is greater when they are in school than when they are not. If, however, upon any day on which the schools are in session, parents feel that because of weather or street conditions their children should remain at home, their children will not be penalized because of such absence.

4. When a large percentage of pupils are absent, the teachers will not take up any new work. In any case, every effort will be made to help pupils make up the work that has been missed.

5. Whenever absent from school for any reason, the pupil must present a note from the parent on his return to school explaining such absence.

The School Committee

No School Signals: 2-2 repeated four times.

At 7:40 a. m.—No school for any of the public schools in town.

At 12:40 p. m.—No afternoon session for the elementary schools.

No school announcements will also be broadcast over the following radio stations between 7 and 7:30 a. m.: WEEI, WBZ, WNAC, WCOP, and WLAW.

FRANK WILSON WELL KNOWN IN WINCHESTER

October 11, 1948

I've heard that Price Wilson is not in charge of the Star so am writing to an unknown person.

[Don't believe all you hear. T. Price Wilson still runs the Star.]

In your tributes to the different famous sons of Winchester, you've included Francis Cushman Wilson (Frank Wilson). He has a younger brother, Earl B. Wilson, who is also in "Who's Who in America." He was sugar administrator in Washington during the last war (World War II) and it was due to his wise management that we didn't have to pay 30 and 40 cents a pound for sugar as we did during the first World War and also that there were no big fortunes made from the rise and fall of sugar prices on Wall street. He is now president of the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation with his office in the Matson Building on Market street in San Franciso. They now control also the Spreckels interests in sugar refining. He lives at 1855 Willow avenue, Burlingame, Calif. He has a son, Earl, Jr., who is in Harvard, and was a paratrooper in the last war, fighting all through the Bulge and was one of the four in his detachment who came through. He came through without a scratch under seemingly miraculous protection. The older daughter, Pleasantine, is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke, is married and lives with her husband and three children at Tarrytown, N. Y. The youngest daughter, Margaret, is in her first year at Scripps' College, California.

Frank Wilson came on to Boston with his wife last June to his 50th Harvard reunion. He gave a dinner to his family (sisters and daughter) at the Copley Plaza.

Yours truly,
(Miss) Jane Wilson

COUNTRY CLUB NOTES

Mrs. A. Allen Kimball and Tom Howe, the Cabot street team, won the Maurice F. Brown Memorial Trophy at the Winchester Country Club by defeating Art and Mrs. Conlon, 4 and 3, in the first flight final of the tournament last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeves beat Mr. and Mrs. George Farrar, 1 up in 19 holes to head the second flight group.

R. Durant and Phyllis Wilde won the first flight consolations by beating Clarence McDavitt and Dorothy Farnsworth, 1 up. Second flight consolation winners were Mr. and Mrs. John Page, who won from Mr. and Mrs. Roger McTighe, 2 and 1.

At the conclusion of the tournament a buffet supper was held at which the trophies were presented by Mrs. Maurice F. Brown.

Finals in the Club Championship were played on the holiday with State Champion Ed Martin adding the club title to his list by defeating Jack Harvey, 5 and 4, Horace Ford beat Jim Wilson, 4 and 3, to win the Fall Cup in the Club Championship competition.

Two holes-in-one were reported at the club within a week when Norma Mueller, wife of Dr. Harry L. Mueller, shot an ace at the 14th hole on Oct. 3, and Arthur Connell of Yale street duplicated her feat on Oct. 8 at the 11th hole.

Mrs. Mueller was playing with the Doctor and Mary Jane Buffum, while Mr. Connell, if you can stand it, was playing with Mrs Buffum's husband, "Al," and R. D. Watterman The moral would seem to be clear. Play with the Buffums. You can't miss!

OPENED HOME FOR COLLEGE DRIVE

On the evening of October 12, Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, initiated a $3,000,000 campaign as part of its centennial celebration which will culminate in 1953. Simultaneous dinner gatherings in nearly two-score communities from coast to coast marked the start of the campaign in which the alumnae will raise $750,000 to raise instructor's salaries and increase scholarship funds.

The local dinner, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hammel, 40 Westland avenue, brought together twenty-five alumnae, former students and friends of the college. Mrs. Hammel, president of the Boston Chapter, presided. The speaker of the occasion was Miss Elizabeth Butcher, librarian of the Brookline Public Library, who is the regional chairman of the Centennial Fund Committee. Also several alumnae recalled the customs and highlights of their periods. They were: Mrs. Osmond Billings, '15 of Georgetown; Mrs. Alice Givens, '22 of Boston; Mrs. Clifton Hoffman, '34 of Marblehead; and Miss Jean Streicher, '47 of Brookline. Their anecdotes were enjoyed immensely by everyone.

TRY-OUTS FOR "PIRATES OF PENZANCE" ARE ANNOUNCED BY STAFF & KEY

The Winchester Staff & Key Society announces that try-outs for the "Pirates of Penzance" are to be held Thursday, October 21st at 7:30 p. m. in Waterfield Hall.

Everyone musically inclined is invited to attend these try-outs for both male and female solo parts. Newcomers are requested to come and sign up for chorus work or to tryout.

To date there have been many who aspire to be one of General Stanley's beautiful daughters, but ferocious Pirates and swaggering (though "timidly inclined") Policemen are very much needed. All basses and tenors are therefore especially invited.

"Pirates of Penzance", Gilbert and Sullivan's popular satire on an overwhelming sense of duty, is scheduled for production in early December and is under the competent direction of L. Hassler Einzig of Arlington.

DAMAGE AT WEDGEMERE

Last week Thursday night Caretaker Walter G. Parkin discovered that considerable damage had been done the interior of Wedgemere Station apparently by youngsters on their way home from school. A gum machine had been ripped off and thrown on the floor, the front smashed with a rock, arms had been ripped from the seats of the waiting-room, and a light fixture smashed. To add to the mess, papers had been ripped up and thrown about the room. The police were notified and are investigating.

SHIFTS IN EARTH LEVELS FORESHADOW MAP CHANGES

A five-foot drop in level at the east end of Terminal Island, sharpest of numerous falls and rises of land recorded since 1931 in the Los Angeles area, is a reminder that, like political maps, physical maps are far from static, says the National Geographic Society.

Six-mile-long Terminal Island, center of the region's big fishing and canning industry, lies two-thirds in Los Angeles and one-third in Long Beach. It is a largely man-made unit in the great, artificial Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor with its shipbuilding plants, Navy Pacific Fleet Base, and piers used by 200 steamship lines.

Shift Causes Vary

Subsidence of as much as half a foot a year is currently recorded at points on the harbor shores. Newer wharves have been built two or more feet above what would be their normal level to allow for this sinking of the land.

Elsewhere in the spreading Los Angeles area, slow subsidence is noted near Venice and San Pedro on the coast, and inland at Watts, Signal Hill, Santa Ana, and West Hollywood. Near Inglewood and on the outskirts of Long Beach, areas of slight upthrust of the land level are recorded.

Subsidence in some cases, as at Signal Hill and south of Venice, is due to land compression following removal of oil, gas, or water from underground. On every continent, similar instances of downsinking, due to removal of underlying material by Nature or by man, are common. Coal-mine cave-ins are examples.

Other changes at Los Angeles are due to shifts in the earth's crust that might be called slow-motion earthquakes. These usually occur along such rifts as the St. Andreas Fault, which extends southward from San Francisco past Los Angeles to Mexico. This fault was the line of shock in 1906, when violent temblors plunged San Francisco into a disaster which took more than 600 lives.

East Has Its Shifts

Just 50 years ago, a violent quake in Alaska lifted some coast stretches 50 feet, caused other sections to drop in level. No casualties occurred in the wild region.

East of the Rockies, two severe earthquakes are part of American history. A shift in sedimentary layer caused 30 deaths near Charleston, S. C., in 1886. Three jolts in the winter of 1811-12 altered the landscape of the lower Mississippi Valley, creating Reelfoot Lake in Tennessee and smaller lakes along the St. Francis River in Missouri. Consequences in each case would be far more serious at today's levels of population.

Niagara May Run Dry

A slow but certain change in the tilt of land all around the Great Lakes has been in progress for millenniums, geologists note. Eastern Canada rises a foot or so each century, while the lakes press harder on their southern and western shores.

Time was when Lake Huron drained out Georgian Bay and north to the Ottawa River, and the Ohio River's ancient counterpart flowed from the Appalachians northwestward to Lake Michigan.

A mere 5,000 years hence -- about the time Niagara Falls has worn its crest back up the river to Lake Erie -- the tilt may close Lake Erie's mouth into the Niagara River. Then the four Great Lakes (excepting Ontario) will probably find an outlet via Lake Michigan past Chicago, southwest to the Mississippi Valley.

SHIPS AND FLOWERS IN LOCAL ART SHOW

Ships and flowers wouldn't at first thought seem to be too closely akin for grouping in an art exhibition, yet the Winchester Art Association's opening show of the current season at the library art gallery combines flower studies by Grace Collier and marines by Frank Vining Smith without any detriment to either. As a matter of fact all Mr. Smith's pictures are not marines, and Miss Smith shows one altogether charming study, "From My Doorway" that combines flowers with a very sensitively done view from an open door. A wheelbarrow lends homely interest to this interesting picture while fine depth and lighting testify to the artist's knowledge of her craft.

Among Miss Collier's pictures of flowers are two fine large studies, one of dogwood in a green pottery vase and another of laurel in a roundish bowl of deep purple. There is also a delicately painted study of an orchid in a complimenting antique silver container.

Mr. Vining has long been known for his mastery of ship painting, and his many views of sturdy old square riggers at sea are alive with the thrill of deep water, taut sails, screaming gulls and wind-swept skies. To the uninitiated a square-rigged ship is a square-rigged ship. To the lover of these romantic old craft, like Mr. Smith, each has its own individuality, which the artist brings out in masterly fashion. Look at his canvases at the library. Eash tells its own story. "Yankee Whaler" has an unusual sky-treatment and the men in the crows-nests add interest. "Bound for the Horn" is beautifully lighted and shows its ship low in green water.

"Sailors Aloft" recalls iron men in wooden ships as it depicts the crew aloft on the foremast bending a top-sail. "Hurrying Wind" shows a square rigger from an unusual angle as she is driven through dark blue water whipped to foamy whitecaps. "Memory of the Past" shows a big square rigger with all sails set and a bone in her teeth as she rips through cobalt water against a sky that shades from gold to a stormy gray. As fine a canvas as there is in the show is "Early Start" with its crew getting sail on a small two master as a rising sun touches sky and flat water with pink. Twinkling lights on masts and shore tell of the night just past.

Mr. Vining shows one large marine entitled "Surf," with big green rollers heaving in to dash themselves to creamy spume on low lying ledges of orange and darker brown. Besides his marines Mr. Smith shows "Flight of Canada Geese", the beautiful birds being silhouetted against a fine sky above a late fall marsh. Another canvas, "Startled", shows geese rising from a marshy pool into a darkening sky.

There is also at the gallery a small exhibition of hand-wrought jewelry, by William Mason and Leonard Field, whose establishment, Macefield, is at 6 Winchester place.

Now available in the paper line: Dustex dusting tissue, paper napkins, coffee cups, at Wilson the Stationer, Star Building.

WYMAN SCHOOL MOTHERS MEET

The Fall Meeting of the Wyman School Mothers' Association was held on Wednesday afternoon, October 6th. Mrs. Philip Wadsworth, the new president, opened the meeting with a greeting to all the mothers, and an explanation of the purpose of the Association for the benefit of the new mothers present. A brief business meeting followed during which the secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved and the members of the board were introduced. Mrs. Edward Peabody, ways and means chairman, asked for suggestions for an extra money-making event. Mrs. Allen Eaton, chairman of room mothers, introduced the room mothers for each grade. This year there will be two mothers for each room; one mother to act as chairman of tickets, the other as social chairman.

Mrs. Wadsworth next introduced the school supervisors Miss French, Miss Goodwin, Miss Niedringhaus and Mr. Meurling, who told in a most interesting way their plans and ambitions for the children in the fields of art, music and physical education.

The principal, Miss Mabel Lowry, gave another of her brief but inspiring talks. She then introduced the teachers, who were wearing colorful corsages given, as in several years previous, by one of the school fathers, Mr. Lester G. Whittaker.

The meeting was adjourned to the kindergarden room where coffee and an attractive array of sandwiches were served by Mrs. Clarence Luitwieler and her committee.

RED CROSS SUMMER SERVICE

The summer of 1948 was specially trying in the hospital world, and Winchester Hospital was no exception. Not only was everyone conscious of a low point in the eagerness to give service - an eagerness which ebbed with the close of the war - but positive situations, such as unusually long vacations (the first since 1941) took many people away from Winchester for long periods. Also, there were times of extremely hot weather when anything more than a minimum of effort seemed completely lacking in attraction. In spite of these problems, however, a large debt of gratitude is owed by the Winchester Hospital to the local chapter of the American Red Cross. The Motor Corps never failed to answer all demands made upon it, and Winchester Hospital patients benefitted by the trips of the Corps to the Blood Bank laboratory at Forest Hills. Fifty-six trips to this laboratory were made during 1947-48, and during the months of January and February the corps cut off all other calls, in order that blood supplies might always be secured without delay. The Corps includes the following members:

Mrs. Everett P. Stone
Mrs. Harold Bates
Mrs. Harold P. Bostwick
Mrs. Francis G. Chase

Mrs. Clifford H. Williams
Mrs. Whitelaw Wright

Another service which has been carried by the Red Cross for the Hospital without interruption is the mending. Under the leadership of Mrs. George F. Nardin, Production Chairman, the following seventeen women continued this most important work throughout the summer.

Mrs. Rosina T. Bradford
Mrs. Louise G. Bradley
Mrs. Stephen C. Burgoyne
Mrs. Mary E. Horne
Mrs. Daniel V. Kelley
Mrs. Everett F. Kidder
Mrs. Charles Lilley
Mrs. William M. Lunan
Mrs. R. Irving Mayer
Mrs. Blanch P. Moody
Mrs. Nathaniel Nichols
Mrs. Walter L. Rice
Mrs. Marion C. Sawyer
Mrs. Josephine K. Snell
Miss Lillian P. Stacy
Mrs. Donald W. True
Mrs. Grace A. Whitten

Lastly, and specially appreciated, is the response made by the Red Cross Nurses' Aides to a nursing shortage at the Hospital during August and September. At real inconvenience to themselves and their families, and at the sacrifice of personal plans, the following Aides made their services available and helped to bridge over a time of special need.

Mrs. Irving C. Austin
Mrs. James M. Beale
Mrs. Charles W. Butler
Mrs. John H. Collins
Miss Margaret Copland
Mrs. Lester C. Gustin
Mrs. Charles E. Higbee
Mrs. Arthur L. Johns
Mrs. Thomas S. Knight
Mrs. George A. Marks
Mrs. Harrie Y. Nutter
Miss Frances Sornberger

A part of this service came from neighboring towns, since Mrs. Irving C. Austin is from Reading, and Mrs. Charles E. Higbee from Stoneham.

Mrs. George Budd has given volunteer service continuously since her graduation from the wartime training course.

Another En Ka Gift

One of the most appreciated gifts to the Hospital from the En Ka Society, a new Bovie Electrosurgical Unit, is now in use in the Operating Suite.

Lynch's Market now has the new colored ready-to-serve oleomargarine.

WINCHESTER TO HEAR THE REV. EARL W. DOUGLAS

The Jr. Mrs. Club of the First Congregational Church is proud to present the Rev. Earl W. Douglas at a meeting open to the public Tuesday evening, October 19th, at 7:45, in the Church hall.

Mr. Douglas is one of the ablest young men in the ministry; being Secretary of the Congregational Missionary Society, director of a score of young peoples camps, and Supervisor of the Farrington Memorial Estate in Lincoln which provides Vacations and Medical attention to needy mothers and their families, regardless of Race or Religion.

An outstanding figure in planning co-operation between Protestants, Catholics and Jews, he has laid the foundation for the solving of common problems, by common interest and co-operation resulting in a feeling of unity and harmony between these great denominations never attained before.

Mrs. Harrison Simpson, Social Chairman, will have as her chairman of the evening, Mrs. Michael Kaknes, who with her committee, will serve refreshments following the talk. A cordial invitation to this meeting is extended to all younger women of the parish and their guests.

"VACATION TABLE" AT FAIR NOV. 17

A visitor to the Country Fair, First Congregational Church, on Wednesday, Nov. 17 may buy a "souvenir" from various vacation spots in the country—even though she didn't actually visit that place—at the novel "vacation table" at the Fair this year. It is the idea of Mrs. Erskine N. White, the chairman of the table, and under her leadership, women of the Church who vacationed at pleasant spots this summer and who brought back gift items for this table, will be sharing their vacation pleasures with others.

Each Vacation Gift will be tagged with the place purchased and price, and already a varied number of gifts have been received for this Table. Mrs. White is assisted by Mesdames Rex T. Crandall, Donald Davis, Leon Sargent, Henry Miley, and Robert F. Lybeck.

WINCHESTER PROFESSOR HAS SONS IN CLASS

Dr. Charles T. Bumer of Winchester, new chairman of the Department of Mathematics and professor of mathematics at Clark University of Worcester, has assumed his new duties at Clark and finds himself in the unusual position of teaching mathematics to his two sons.

The like-father, like-son theory does not seem to apply to Dr. Bumer and his two sons, John Q. Bumer and Richard F. Bumer, both members of the Freshman Class at Clark. Dr. Bumer has both sons in his Freshman mathematics class. Obviously Dr. Bumer thrives on the subject. He taught it at Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Cambridge, and at Kenyon College in Ohio, before coming East.

But the sons, Jack and Dick, as they are known to parents and fellow students alike, have never seemed to warm up to the subject. They certainly are not sharks, the father admits with a smile. Both sons are preparatory school graduates, Jack, 20 years of age, from Deerfield Academy in 1946 and Dick, 18 from Tabor Academy at Marion, this year.

Jack did a two year hitch in the United States Marine Corps following his graduation from Deerfield where he was a swimmer. Dick was on the Tabor Academy crew and rifle team.

According to Dr. Bumer, his two sons decided to seek their bachelor degrees at Clark after he had been named chairman of the Department of Mathematics.

And, with a smile, he admits that "I suppose now that as their professor, I will have to be more efficient than ever. But, then, they will work harder, too."

Unable to find a home in Worcester, Dr. Bumer and his two sons are living temporarily in the home of Dr. Howard B. Jefferson, president of Clark, at 160 Woodland street, while Mrs. Bumer is still maintaining their home in Winchester. Dr. Bumer finds rentals excessive in Worcester, and notes that "nobody needs to be a mathematics professor to know that, either."

At Clark, Dr. Bumer fills the vacancy caused by the retirement September 1 of Carey E. Melville who holds the all time record at Clark of having been on the faculty for 42 years as assistant, instructor, assistant professor, associate professor and professor, and also registrar from 1914 to 1932.

Dr. Bumer received his Bachelor of Science degree from Denison University in 1919, his Master of Arts degree from Harvard in 1922, and his Doctor of Philosophy degree from Ohio State University in 1931. He majored in mathematics in both his undergraduate and graduate work, and also did graduate work in statistics and mathematics at the University of Michigan.

He was assistant professor of mathematics at Ohio State University from 1922 to 1931, chairman of the Department of Mathematics at Kenyon College from 1931 to 1945, director of Mathematics and Physics at the Air-Forces Premeteorology Unit in 1943 and 1944, on the staff of the Radiation Laboratory at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1945 anl 1946, and head mathematician for the Bureau or Ordnance, United States Navy, Bureau of Ordnance Evaluation, in 1946 and 1947.

Dr. Bumer has also been staff consultant at the Instrumentation Laboratory, Division of Industrial Corporation, at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, American Mathematical Society, Mathematical Association of America, American Academy for the Advancement of Science, and former chairman of the Ohio Section of the Mathematical Association.

OTHER OCCUPATIONS, TRAVEL, AND STUDY TEACHERS' SUMMER INTERESTS

When school bells cease to ring and the boys and girls disappear from the center morning, noon, and afternoon, their teachers also leave the school houses for varied summer activity.

In answer to an inquiry from their principals, teachers have returned some interesting items about their summer pursuits.

Because several interpreted the inquiry about summer activity as something pertaining to summer schools and special training, they considered their summer activity of interest only to themselves. Those reporting specific undertakings are grouped as workers, travellers, and students.

In the first classification are the carpenters and engineers. Miss Pauline Goodrich, Art teacher, who recently purchased a home in Winchester reports carpentry, painting, digging, and brush cutting for herself and sketching and drafting for a contractor.

Mr. Otis Leary reports serving as paving engineer on Maine's Route One; Mr. William Branley was a carpenter; Mr. Henry Fitts was a carpenter on the Sunapee Mountain Ski Development and off duty he was a farmer and Regatta specialist; Mr. Paul Goodwin was employed in furniture refinishing; Mr. Gardner Handy worked in the laboratory of Stewart Associates, Mr. Leary's employers; and Mr. Alfred Meurling worked his Tuftonboro, New Hampshire, farm. Mrs. Shiela Young remodeled her home, Mrs. Lenna Peabody Travis settled her new home after an early summer wedding. Mrs. Hazel Gangi, also married during the summer, settled her home in Winchester. Mr. Roland Nault bought a house on Washington street and, no doubt, spent most of his summer settling in.

Mrs. Mildred Abrahamson toiled in the Diet Kitchen of the Winchester Hospital. Miss Constance Savard worked in Vermont, not specifying the details, but one can work in Vermont. Miss Patricia Doherty worked in the Harvard Summer School office.

Miss Marjorie Butterfield worked at the Lookout Ogunquit Club at Ogunquit, Maine. Mrs. Mary Butler and Mrs. Mary S. Mead report having been at home, and that can be a vacation.

Principal Leonor Rich served with Opinion Research Corporation of Princeton, New Jersey, as an interviewer for a short time, specifically reporting labor-management relations at General Electric in Lynn.

Miss Mary Regan served as an interviewer for the Elmo Roper Market Research Foundation of New York City. She collected material on the election year political situation which her employers turn over to "Fortune" magazine and to the column "What People are Thinking" in the New York Herald-Tribune.

Mr. Joseph Forte was on active duty with the organized Reserve Corps as a Military Intelligence officer at the Army Base and at Fort Banks.

Mrs. Lenna Travis also reported serving as substitute manager for two hundred apartments in a real estate office.

While their colleagues sought relief by engaging in non-teaching pursuits sixteen teachers were instructing young people in one way or another during the summer.

Miss Charlotte D. LeClair taught ballroom dancing in Maine, Mr. George F. Snyder was Playground Supervisor in Andover, Mrs. Margaret Matson and Miss Margaret Harkins tutored, Miss Anne Gallagher taught at the Camp Allen Camp for the Blind, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Boston for children from Perkins Institute, Connecticut School for the Blind, and The New York School for the Blind.

Miss Lydia Whittemore was Assistant director at Se-Sa-Ma-Ca private camp for girls at Raymond, New Hampshire. Mr. Edward A. Bartlett was Supervisor of Winchester's Playgrounds, Director of the Winchester Soft Ball League, and Coach of the American Legion Junior Baseball Team.

Mr. Otis Jason served as program manager for the South Shore Players at Cohasset and tutored in Latin and English. Miss Marion Bailey tutored in English. Mr. Ray Hayward tutored in English. Mrs. Ella Stacy tutored in history. Miss Mary Mackedon tutored in French, and Dr. Otis Alley taught at the Fisher School and at the Arlington Veterans' Center.

Miss Helen Carroll was Swimming and Water Safety instructor at The National Red Cross Aquatic School at South Hanson and later served as water safety instructor at Cohasset.

Coach Henry Knowlton returned to Camp Wyanoke for his eighteenth season there, this year as water front supervisor.

Mr. George H. Curtis continued the operation of his camp for children five to eight years old in Maine.

Travelling teachers were Miss Helen Niedinghaus, who visited the west coast and the southwest, Canada, and Maine; and Mrs. Ruth Smith, who motored to Arkansas, making numerous side trips en route.

Mrs. Evelyn Brown summered at Danforth, Quebec, while Mrs. Janet Greene toured Canada. Mrs. Myrtle Dodge travelled in California and the Southwest. Miss Anne Dolan toured the West and the Canadian Rockies.

Principal Marguerite Asher spent some time in West Virginia before completing her summer vacation at Kennebunk, Maine. Miss Irene Mitchell travelled to the west Coast. Mrs. Marianne Quirk spent three weeks in Michigan.

Miss Frances Doherty spent a few weeks in Canada. Mrs. Esther Laughner spent a few weeks in California and returned for stopovers in Toledo and at her home in Pennsylvania. Miss Sybil Daniels took a motor trip to Maryland. Mr. John Stevens spent several weeks at Stanhope, Prince Edward Island.

Miss Eleanor Anifantis was the only teacher travelling in Europe, having landed in Genoa, Italy, and continued via Rome to Athens, Greece, where she spent several weeks before going on to Geneva, Switzerland, and Paris. A more detailed account of Miss Anifantis's experiences will appear subsequently.

Summer schools claimed seven teachers for several weeks. Mr. Carl Reed, having completed his thesis, was awarded the degree Master of Education by Boston University on August 21. From then on Mr. Reed became Captain Reed and served as Weather Officer at Hanscom Airport, Bedford, until the day before schools reopened.

Miss Edna Hatch studied painting and sculpture at Alfred Univeristy in Alfred, New York.

VOLUNTEER WORKERS FOR COMMUNITY FUND STILL ARE NEEDED

Enrollment of volunteer workers for Winchester's success in the great common effort for the public good - the Community Fund - is proceeding steadily. All that it requires is active interest and participation on the part of every townsman and townswoman who is community-minded enough not to wait for hard pressed division heads and precinct captains to seek them out and secure their cooperation. Willingness to serve in this great cause is best evidenced at this period of organization by voluntary action. You have only to let it be known that you are able and willing to help and your support will be doubly welcomed because of its timelines.

This campaign's need is great—the over-all goal for Greater Boston has been set at $6,950,000, an amount greater than last year because of the inclusion of the U.S.O. and because the "eight great needs" of this single campaign cannot be met with less. These eight needs cover hospitals, nursing services, family services, aid to the handicapped, neighborhood houses and services for children, youth and the aged.

The need for volunteer workers is critical only in the big residential canvass group. Those wishing to volunteer for this neighborly service are urged to communicate with Herbert T. Wadsworth, the Division Chairman, or with the Captain of their precinct organization - Donald E. Dalrymple, Precinct 1; Stephen Hill, Precinct 2; Rolland Patrick, Precinct 3; Charles Butler, Precinct 4; Kern Folkers, Precinct 5; and William Murray, Precinct 6.

Enrollment this week has barely passed the halfway mark. Mobilization of a full quota of volunteer workers is imperative if the essential needs of our own community as well as the entire Boston area are to be met. Don't wait for someone to sign you up. Sign up on your own hook and do it now. Your community spirit can be demonstrated in no more convincing way.

Eighteen thousand volunteers are the goal of the metropolitan communities. Here in Winchester in true campaign spirit volunteers are accepting the philosophy of Chairman Earl G. Carver that "it's fun." They are also finding that it's fun to learn the ropes of soliciting through a series of worker information meetings under the direction of Gerald B. Tallman. Many are visiting some of the Red Feather agencies to get the feel of things.

Enrollment of workers for other key divisions has met with gratifying success. The advance solicitation group under the able direction of Walcott B. Thompson is 100 per cent organized. The same is true of the Industrial and Banking Division under Leslie J. Scott. As reported in last week's STAR the Administration Office organization has likewise attained the peak of enrollment and efficiency. The office in the basement of the Town Hall is furnished and furnished to the queen's taste, due to the zeal and initiative of Vice Chairman Sherman B. Russell .

Just as evidence that the cooperation of all of us - workers and givers alike - is desperately needed this year, here is one of many true stories that could be told about the practical, down-to-earth value of Red Feather services.

The Scoutmaster in a neighboring community knew that Joe was worried. When the most enthusiastic young scout in his troop gazed into space during discussion of a Saturday hike something was wrong.

After the meeting, he stopped Joe at the door. At first, the usually talkative youngster was silent, except to insist that everything was "okay". Finally, warmed by his leader's concern, the words poured out.

Things WERE wrong, just about as wrong as they could be, at Joe's house. His mother needed an operation and would have to go to the hospital in July for two weeks. Joe, at 13, was the oldest. His twin sisters were only 10, but already "a handful", to quote his weary mother. The other children were eight and six. With Dad away most of the week driving a truck Joe just didn't see how they could manage.

"Oh, I guess we'll get along somehow," he muttered, "but the baby's so little and she runs into the street the minute you turn your back. S'pose something happened to her? It'd be my fault!"

It was plain that the situation was too much for even as responsible a thirteen-year-old as Joe to handle.

The next day, knowing that Joe's twin sisters belonged to the Goodwill Neighborhood House, a Red Feather Service, the Scoutmaster paid his friend, the headworker there a visit.

"We can send Joe to the Boy Scout Camp," he said. "We have a fund for the purpose you know. But what about the younger children?"

The Neighbohood House head went to work, with the following results. The twins would be welcome at one of the Morgan Memorial Camps, where their excess energies would be expended in wholesome athletics and group games. Relatives had been persuaded to take the two youngest children. Camp clothes, which Joe's father would be unable to buy with most of his salary already pledged to hospital and doctor's bills, would be provided by the Catholic Charitable Bureau.

When July rolled around, Joe's mother, recuperating in her hospital bed, and Joe's father, driving long night hours over lonesome roads, knew peace of mind because their children were safe and cared-for. And they blessed the four Red Feather Services -- The Boy Scouts, Goodwill Neighborhood House, Morgan Memorial, and Catholic Charitable Bureau -- that had made it so.

WEST SIDE SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPTEMBER, 1949

At their regular meeting on Monday, October 4, the Winchester School Committee decided that September, 1949, would be the most desirable time to open the West Side School. Inability to have the site properly graded and seeded so that the lawn or playground area would be suitable before the pupils use it was a primary factor in the committee's decision.

Other important new business was the consideration of personnel matters.

Miss Charlotte Foley was elected assistant kindergarten teacher at the Noonan School.

Miss Elizabeth's Livingstone's request to resume her position as high school librarian was allowed. Miss Livingstone will return to duty on Monday, October 11.

Mr. Norton Demsey, Jr., high school Guidance Director, was appointed Attendance Officer.

Mr. John Gorczynski was appointed assistant football coach.

Glamour Girl Tells Beauty Secret

No doubt about it — with her sparkling bright eyes, pink cheeks and perfect teeth Joan is a real beauty. It's the beauty that comes from good sound health—and Joan's secret is: "I drink lots and lots of milk. I love it, and it's good for me. My mother says so."

Joan's mother, like all wise mothers, knows that Hood's Milk supplies body-building calcium, and many other foods that are essential to her children's growth and development. She knows that milk is good for grown-ups, too.

The Hood route salesman gave Joan's mother a booklet suggesting twenty delicious low-cost dishes that use milk. Now she uses more Hood's Milk — keeps her family happy and healthy — and saves on the family budget. For she knows that milk gives her more for her money than any other food. And for quality she always buys Hood's.

PARISH PLAYERS TO DO "PYGMALION"

"Pygmalion", the ever-popular play by G. B. Shaw, will open the 23rd season of the Parish Players in the Little Theatre Beneath a Spire on November 4, 5 and 6 in the Parish Hall, First Congregational Church, with Harlan Grant directing.

The Shaw play will be the first in a series of three five-star plays for Parish Players' audiences this year, to be followed by a mystery, "The Thirteenth Chair", and in the spring the stirring Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Gondoliers". The players have been planning for some time now to present "The Gondoliers" this year, for it is the operetta first given by the Players in 1927, as their first production, and it holds many sentiments for the Parish Players.

When the curtain rises on "Pygmalion", Mrs. Marian T. Blake will be seen in the exacting role of Eliza Doolittle, the Cockney flower girl; Dr. Eugene M. Pollard as Higgins, who teaches her to be a lady; Dr. F. Milne Blanchard as the character who is Eliza's father; Mrs. Louise Bryant, Mrs. Higgins; Mrs. Lenore Gamage, Mrs. Hill; James Coon, Jr., as Freddie; Mrs. Paulette Taggart, Clara; Commander Hall, Col. Pickering; Shirley Salyer, John William Smith, John MacLellan.

Mrs. Harold F. French is in charge of tickets for "Pygmalion" and for season subscriptions to all three plays this year.

TWO ACCIDENTS SUNDAY

The first of two automobile accidents in town last Sunday was reported to the police by Edmund J. Doherty of 4 Belmont street, Woburn, who stated that the front of his Ford sedan was badly damaged at 4:45 as the result of a collision with the rear of a Ford pickup truck driven east on Cross street by Ernest Luongo of 16 Fitzgerald avenue.

Doherty said that the truck swung left and then right into a driveway at 242 Cross street, he continuing to drive straight ahead thinking the truck was going left. The tailboard of the truck was slightly damaged, but no injuries were reported, though Doherty was not sure about a passenger in the truck.

At 5:45 Sunday afternoon a radio message sent Officer John Elliott to investigate an accident on Cambridge street opposite Robinson Park.

He found that an Olds sedan, driven by John P. Dowd of 69 Conwell avenue, Somerville, had left the road and was disabled to the west of the roadway.

Dowd said he was driving toward Church street when he came upon a car stopped so as to block the right side of the road. He swung left to avoid a collision and ran off the road, disabling his machine. No one was injured. The identity of the other car wasn't learned.

STONEHAM P. O. BOWS TO WINCHESTER

After taking the league leaders into camp last week, Winchester pushed ahead and took Stoneham a 4 to 0 win. Cambridge lost to Arlington which now puts Arlington in indisputed top position. Malden, which is the nearest contender could do no better than tie Reading. Melrose surprised everyone by tying Chelsea, while West Somerville was again taken over the hurdles, this time by Wakefield. Winchester's victory pushes Winchester into a tie with Somerville and Chelsea for third place.

CLARE TREE MAJOR PLAYS

The Clare Tree Major Plays being presented by the Mystic School are proving very popular, Mrs. W. Campbell Ross stated yesterday. There are, however, a few good seats yet available and those who have not procured any for their children (or themselves, as many mothers intend to go) may still have a chance by calling Mrs. Sears Walker at WInchester 6-1649-W and reserving them.

Because of other Scholarship projects getting under way, the mothers at Mystic School have worked hard to make their selling campaign successful and brief. Those working with Mrs. Ross are: Mrs. Sears Walker and Mrs. Ernest Wright, tickets; Mrs. Charles Hart, ushers; Mrs. Stephen Nichols, co-chairman with Mrs. Ross; and Mrs. James K. McElroy, publicity.

We feel very happy to be able to bring the Clare Tree Major productions to Winchester . . . especially the two we are presenting this year: "Toby Tyler, or Ten Weeks with a Circus" and "Pinocchio", and know that all children will love these plays as they do the stories. What with the Radcliffe Alumnae presenting "Robin Hood", the town is indeed fortunate!

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

Examinations for patrolman in the police department are in the offing and a date will soon be set by the civil service division.

The position of a fourth captain was created in the fire department and Edward D. Fitzgerald was appointed to fill it, effective October 11.

All indications point to a very heavy vote on November 2nd. The polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. and people are urged not to wait until the last minute to vote, thereby causing the tellers much confusion and unnecessarily delaying the counting of ballots until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER D. A. R.

The first regular meeting of the Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R. will be held at the home of Miss Emma Louise Boardman, 2 Curtis street, on October 18th at two o'clock. The play promises to be one of the best ever undertaken by the Parish Players and is sure to be a sellout. Members are urged to make reservations early.

FILM "HUMAN GROWTH"

On October 8th, the Winchester Junior Florence Crittenton League presented the sex education film "Human Growth" at the High School Auditorium. Five hundred townspeople responded to the invitations sent to them previously and attended. Well represented were the educational, medical, religious, and civic leaders of Winchester among many interested parents.

Dr. George Gilbert Smith, President of the Massachusetts Society for Social Hygiene, under whose direction the film was being shown, was present to introduce the film and give background information concerning the film.

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman introduced Dr. Smith and afterwards lead an interesting discussion period with the audience.

This was a first step to show how well a scientifically approached effort on sex education can be accomplished. It was a satisfactory revelation to the majority there, and began to stir an interest in making available such education in the Winchester schools.

OCEANS GET SALTIER, RIVERS ARE BLAMED

Is the ocean getting saltier? America's bathing beauties, busy helping to prolong another waning season at various resorts this September, won't tell. But --

Yes, it is, say oceanographers, whose business is to study such things as how salty is salt water, and why.

The open Atlantic Ocean anywhere a few miles off the United States coast beyond range of dilution by the many rivers, averages about 3.6 per cent salt — a shade more than the average for all oceans. So uniform are ocean waters over most of the globe that only in few places does their salt drop below 3.3 per cent or rise above 3.8 per cent, says the National Geographic Society.

Atlantic High in Salt

Millions of years ago, as scientists reckon, ocean and river water were probably much the same. Even purest river water, however, carries a tiny per cent of salts acquired in draining the earth's crust. Salts also reach the oceans by way of underseas springs.

Once in the ocean, the salts stay behind while the sun carries on its work of evaporation which lifts pure water back onto the continents. Thus the oceans grow imperceptibly saltier due largely to the sweet rivers which dilute ocean saltiness along the continent shores! And one method by which the age of the earth has been estimated is by figuring how long it has taken the ocean to get as salty as it is.

Taking oceans as a whole, the Atlantic is slightly saltier than the Indian Ocean or the Pacific. Its salts are highest in the sun-drenched Sargasso Sea, eastward from Florida, and lowest in the sub-polar reaches of heavy rain and snow.

Saltiest of all ocean areas is the Red Sea. There are no rivers to produce even inshore dilution and the hot sun speeds evaporation so that salt content surpasses four per cent. With opposite conditions, inner reaches of Europe's Baltic Sea carry less than one per cent of salt.

Seas Hold Precious Metals

Slight as is the variation in the proportion of salts to ocean water, even slighter is the variation in the proportion of the principal salts to each other. Common, or table, salt (sodium chloride) is not quite four-fifths of the oceans' salt seasoning. Next in rank are the chloride and sulphate of magnesium, source of strong, featherweight metal, one-seventh of the salt in the sea's makeup.

Phosphates, nitrates, and bromides are present in important traces. Most of the elements in the chemical scale have been identified in sea water. The total gold and silver in some 300 million cubic miles of ocean are infinitely more than man has ever found on land. But no commercial method has yet been perfected whereby these precious metals can be extracted from the deep on a profitable basis.

Among landlocked salt lakes, most notable by far are the Dead Sea of the Holy Land and Utah's Great Salt Lake. Both were very much larger lakes in ages long past, and their present extremes of saltiness result from concentration caused by centuries of rapid evaporation. In each, salts constitute more than one-fifth of the brine.

SPORT CENTER HAD FINE OPENING

The Winchester Sport Center in the completely remodelled and renovated Central Garage building on Winchester place had an auspicious opening Monday afternoon, and has been attracting throngs of bowling enthusiasts ever since. Manager John Navarro had the spacious lounges and the entrance to the center gay with beautiful gladiolas for the opening and nothing that would contribute to the comfort and convenience of patrons was overlooked.

Mr. Navarro, in a statement to the STAR, stressed the management's desire to conduct the new sport center on a strictly high plane. It is to be a place where youngsters and women may go with complete safety, as nothing at all objectionable will be tolerated by the management. A policeman is to be in attendance at all times, and on the opening day several persons objectionable to the management were asked to leave.

Persons who have visited bowling alleys all over the country state that those of Winchester's new sport center compare favorably with any they have seen anywhere. So many were on hand for the opening Monday afternoon that Mr. Navarro opened the doors ahead of schedule, at 3:30 o'clock.

The first official string was rolled by Chairman P. T. Foley of the Board of Assessors and his colleague, "Al" Elliott, whose assistance and services as contractor proved invaluable to the management in making the date chosen for the opening of the alleys possible.

No score was kept in the Elliott-Foley match, but following it "Al" set up the pins for Police Chief Charles J. Harrold, who dropped in for a look-see at the plant and was persuaded to try his luck. After six balls down the gutter on the right former Chairman of Selectmen Ralph Bonnell became so openly critical of the Harrold form that he was given an opportunity to demonstrate bowling as it should be bowled. Ralph did succeed in getting the balls into the left gutter, instead of the right, but according to the pin-setting Mr. Elliott, neither he nor the chief are going to get into the high bowling brackets without a bit of practice.

The Teachers' Bowling League had the distinction of being the first group to roll matches on the new alleys with the Country Club Mixed Bowling Group following. Drop in. See these new alleys. Winchester is fortunate to have such a sports center. You will admire the lounge, the waiting-room, the soda bar, and the luxurious appointments. They are your alleys. Enjoy them!

VISITOR FROM WINCHESTER, ENGLAND

Last week a lady went into the Winchester Library, asking about buying a Town History, having been sent to the library by Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson, from whom she had secured maps of the town and other data.

The library clerk called Librarian Corinne Mead and in chatting with the visitor Miss Mead learned that she came from Winchester, England, and had come to Winchester, Mass., to learn something of our new-world town, its topography, history and present condition.

The visitor identified herself as Mrs. T. T. Behrens of Carrick, Andover road, Winchester, vice chairman of the Women's Advisory Committee of the Winchester Division of the Conservation Association. While at the library Mrs. Behrens met Mrs. William E. Spaulding, head of Winchester Council of Women's Clubs, chatting with her about matters of common interest. Then with Miss Mead she went on a tour of the town, showing the greatest interest in its homes, industries and general layout.

Mrs. Behrens is visiting with friends in Milton and plans to remain in this country into December. She expressed herself as pleased with our Winchester, and those who met and talked with her found her a charming guest.

ON WAY TO GRENFELL MISSION

Miss Anne Carolyn Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Thompson of 25 Swan road, left yesterday to spend a year at the Grenfell International Mission at Forteau, Labrador, where she is to be a member of the staff in charge of community activities.

A graduate of Winchester High School in 1944, Miss Thompson graduated from Wellesley with the class of 1948. She goes by train to North Sydney, N. S., and then on the S. S. Nellie Cluett to St. Anthony and Forteau. She will be literally frozen in from December to May, but she should at least have warm feet, the Converse Rubber Company having presented her with every conceivable kind of protective rubber boot for the sort of climate she will encounter.

ANDERSEN — MacDONALD

Miss Mary Therese MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald D. MacDonald of Allen circle, Milton, was married to Louis Chamberland Andersen, son of Mrs. Charles P. McKenna of Eaton street at St. Mary of the Hills Church in Milton on the morning of Columbus Day, October 12. Rev. Father Walsh officiated at the 10 o'clock ceremony and was also celebrant of the nuptial mass which followed.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Andersen wore a gown of heavy white satin with a lace yoke and a court train. Her full length three-tiered veil was held in place with a coronet of lace to match that of her gown, and she carried a white prayer book with orchids and streamers of stephanotis.

Miss Margaret A. MacDonald of Milton was her sister's honor maid and Miss Mary Gerturde Kirby of South Boston, small cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Bridesmaids were Miss Harriet Gannon and Miss Marie Lyons of Milton, Miss Rebecca Shea and Miss Patricia Shea of Roslindale and Mrs. Nils C. Andersen of Winchester, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

The honor maid wore a dress of wine satin with a sweetheart neckline and hat and gloves to match. Her cascade bouquet of wine snapdragons was centered with a wine-dyed gardenia. The flower girl's frock was wine satin, matching the honor maid's and she wore a hat and mitts of the same shade. Her cascade bouquet was of wine snapdragons.

The bridesmaids were all gowned alike in gold satin, wearing hats and gloves to match. Their cascade bouquets combined bronze chrysanthemums and snapdragons.

Charles L. Andersen of Winchester was best man for his brother, and another brother, Nils C. Andersen of this town was a member of the usher corps, the others being Paul Cameron of Dorchester, cousin of the bride; William O'Donnell of Dorchester, Martin Mulhern of Roxbury and Stearns Wyman of Winchester.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Neighborhood Club of Quincy, the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving. Among the guests were Mrs. Margaret MacDonald of Milton, grandmother of the bride; and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Chamberland of Winchester.

After a wedding journey through the White Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Andersen will live at 1 Eaton street in Winchester.

The bride attended the Milton schools and Jeanne d'Arc Academy. Mr. Andersen graduated from Somerville High School and served for nine years in the United States Navy.

WINCHESTER WOMEN VISIT DEVENS

Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye of Mystic Valley Parkway, pioneer in the formation of the first military manpower commission in Greater Boston, is taking a group of 30 Winchester women to Fort Devens today to enable them to see at first hand the benefits of the Army training program.

Chosen from the more than 30 women's organizations in Winchester, the local party is arriving at Fort Devens late this morning, making the trip in an Army truck. Meeting the group is Col. Kenneth C. Strother, commander of the 1st and 7th Infantry combat team. The women, many of whom have boys of draft age, will be shown around camp by sergeants, one to each three women, and have the commanding officer's permission to speak to any boy, asking him any question they may wish.

Instead of eating at the Officers' Club, the women will eat with the boys, two women to a table, getting the regular Army "chow." After dinner they will visit the kitchen and any part of the fort they wish. As a special feature, the boys will march in review.

This trip to Devens, like so many Toye projects, is something brand new. It has never been done before and probably won't again, since a large number of boys are expected at Devens soon, and with their arrival, the fort will be closed.

Among those making the trip from Winchester with Mrs. Toye are Mrs. Gleason Ryerson, representing the Grange; Mrs. William Spaulding, Women's Council; Mrs. Dunbar Shanklin, Women's Republican Club; Mrs. Philip Woodward, Jr., En Ka; Mrs. Allan Wilde, Military Manpower Committee wife; Mrs. Charles Lewis, Lincoln School Mothers' Association; Mrs. James Violante, Ladies' Lodge, Sons of Italy; Mrs. Harold A. Hall, League of Women Voters; Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., Winton Club and Military Manpower Committee wife; Mrs. George Dutting, Red Cross; Mrs. Marshall Pihl, past president of Women's Council; Mrs. Milton Galucia, Women's League, Crawford Memorial Methodist Church; Mrs. Rose Marchant, Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Joseph Whatmough, College Club; Mrs. Andrew Geddis, Eastern Star; Mrs. Hoyt Hottel, M. I. T. Women; Mrs. Edward McElhinney, Guild of the Infant Saviour and Central Mothers' Association; Mrs. Earl Doub, International Affairs Group; Mrs. R. K. Miller, Fortnightly; and Mrs. Walter Winship, First Congregational Church; Miss Clara Russell, D. A. R.; and Mrs. Edward D. Fitzgerald, V. F. W. Auxiliary.

For the benefit of the many who have wondered about the fine large doll house on display in the Edison show-window at the corner of Mt. Vernon street and Shore road the STAR has learned that the house was made by Alfred D. "Al" Elliott and will be awarded to some fortunate person at the monster Penny Sale which the Winchester Rotary is sponsoring for the benefit of the Winchester Hospital on November 12. The complete furnishings of the house were donated by Mary Giggy of Hart Place, Woburn. Both house and furniture are well worth a trip to see.

As he left the National Bank with some change on Monday "Eddie" Cullen of the Winchester News Company had the misfortune to have one of his bags of change come undone and eight dollars in nickels go down the surface drain in front of the bank. Parker Holbrook, superintendent of streets, was appealed to and detailed "Jack" Richardson, veteran Highways employee to salvage the missing change. "Jack" brought up enough mulct to make the average gardener's mouth water and with it $7.65 in nickels. "Charlie" Gleason, chairman of the Board of Cemetery Commissioners, was heading a select group of supervisors as your reporter passed the excavation job.

REPUBLICAN CLUB EVENT

Outstanding in Club History

A memorable occasion which took place at the High School Auditorium recently, was the annual money-raising project of the Women's Republican Club of Winchester. This was a fashion presentation of Bonwit Teller clothes of unusual fabrics and styles.

From the moment when the Club's gracious president, Mrs. William C. Cusack, opened the meeting with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" until the conclusion when the audience was invited to meet Governor Robert F. Bradford and the First Lady, as well as other Republican notables in the reception line, one realized that this event would long be well-remembered.

Mrs. Cusack introduced United States Senator Leverett Saltonstall as the main speaker who spoke about the Republican ticket and stressed the fact that "Women voters will be the keynote to the coming election".

Mrs. Clarence A. Roberts was then commended by Mrs. Cusack for her excellent planning of this affair and Mrs. Roberts in turn praised her able committee which included: Mrs. Robert Armstrong, Jr., Mrs. Charles W. Blanchard, Mrs. Theodore Elliott, Mrs. Allan S. Farquhar, Mrs. Georges Houle, Mrs. Robert W. MacArthur, Mrs. Lois D. Meacham, Mrs. H. Parker Melanson, Mrs. Harry Mueller, Mrs. E. George Pierce, Mrs. Herbert P. Preble and Mrs. Jacob Van Vloten.

Special acknowledgements were made by Mrs. Roberts to the Winchester Conservatories for the corsages which the models wore. The rugs used on the stage were by courtesy of the Mouradian Rug Company. Ken Reeves and his orchestra played most effectively.

Mrs. Roberts announced her pleasure in presenting Mrs. Rosalyn DeHart, vice-president of Bonwit Tellers' and in charge of the Boston store, who did the commentary on the exquisite clothes featured by professional models.

Mrs. Robert F. Bradford honored the Club by making the drawings for the four door prizes. Mrs. Richard M. Rush was the lucky lady who won the lovely hat which was the first prize. Mrs. Arthur Haines then heard her number called for the merchandise certificate with Mrs. Barrington and Mrs. James Harlow each receiving a gorgeous floral display of gladioli.

The Club's president then called on Attorney-General Clarence Barnes to speak on the Taft-Hartley bill until the Governor's appearance.

At four o'clock, the Governor's arrival was heralded by the playing of "Hail to the Chief". He addressed the audience in his sincere and friendly manner.

Members and guests were then invited to meet the Governor and the First Lady. Those joining Mrs. Cusack in the reception line were:

Governor Robert F. Bradford.

Mrs. Joseph L. Roberts, State Committeewoman of the 6th Middlesex District.

Mrs. Howard P. Claussen, President of the Massachusetts Republican Club.

District Attorney George E. Thompson.

Mrs. George E. Thompson, President of the Melrose Republican Club.

The Women's Republican Club of Winchester may well be proud of this auspicious event which will be recorded as one of the most successful in club history.

These friendly teas held in the homes of the room mothers provide an excellent opportunity for the teachers to meet the mothers of their pupils and for the mothers to become better acquainted with each other.

STRONGLY SUPPORTED PETITION FOR TRAFFIC LIGHT PRESENTED TO SELECTMEN

The 242 signees and the many sympathizers who did not have an opportunity to sign the petition for a traffic light at the "Swanton street, Park avenue, Washington street" intersection will be glad to know that the problem has been presented to the Selectmen and awaits their action.

The petition, which had 100% support from all who were asked to sign it, reads as follows:

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, petition the Winchester Safety Authorities for the immediate installation of a green, red and yellow traffic light to be erected at the intersection of Washington street, Swanton street and Park avenue.

The steady increase of heavy traffic (particularly large trailer trucks turning in and out of Swanton street, and brick-laden trucks speeding along Washington street) have made this crossing hazardous for adults as well as children.

In addition, the Park avenue-Swanton street route is used as a short-cut from Woburn to Boston by many out-of-town workers who speed up and down these streets with little regard for the many children who live in the area.

The above safety hazards are further increased by the presence of a widely-used shopping center at this intersection with the consequent parking and pulling away of cars cutting off the view of pedestrians who wish to cross the street.

A traffic light including the red-and-yellow pedestrian signal is particularly requested for the sake of the children who are taught in school to cross only on the red-and-yellow.

A comment was made by a town authority that the traffic in this particular section did not warrant the installation of a traffic light. May we point out that there is a traffic signal at the Church street-Bacon street intersection which has no where near the hazards of our intersection and we see no reason why the children of the Lincoln School area should not be entitled to as much protection as the children of the Wyman School area.

TAXES NEARLY DUE

The last date for payment of this year's taxes is the end of October - Monday, November 1, to be exact, since the last day of the month falls on a Sunday. Many tax payers wait until the last of the month to pay their bill, and naturally there is much congestion and possible waiting at the Collector's office. The wise taxpayer will either send his check or visit the office early and not wait until the last minute with its usual delay. Undoubtedly this procedure will meet with the approval of the Collector too.

This coming Sunday, Rev. John Snook, Jr., pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will preach the last of a series of three sermons on "How to Stop Worrying and Start Living," based partially on the book of Dale Carnegie by the same name.

WHEN SOMEBODY WRONGS US

(For The Winchester Star)

There is altogether too much of the "get even" spirit in the world. The law of retaliation is LOVE. -- love when somebody insults us, love when we are forced to undergo all kinds of vexations. The way to make human injustices a blessing is to manifest a spirit of meekness and longsuffering, and trust to God's justice for our recompense.

The story is told of how some years ago a Turkish soldier chased an American girl and her brother, finally cornering them in an alley and killing the man before her eyes. But she managed to effect her escape by climbing over a wall and fleeing to the country. Later she became a nurse. One day a wounded soldier was brought to her hospital, and she recognized him as the man who had slain her brother. Now it was within her power to be lax in her nursing and let him die, but she carefully nursed him back to health. On the road to recovery the soldier recognized the nurse as the sister whose brother he had killed, and he asked her why she was so kind to him. She replied that she was a Christian, and that enabled her to forgive her enemies.

This is the kind of Christians Winchester as well as the rest of the world needs today. We need them in the commercial world, in the nations -- and certainly in our churches. The "get even" spirit produces hatred, envy and everything that is evil, while LOVE enables one to be goodly under even the severest of provocations!

IF YOU WERE A PRISONER OF WAR

"If you were a prisoner of war and did not receive payment for labor performed, were mistreated, or had property seized while a prisoner, you can file a claim with the government under the War Claims Act of 1948, recently signed by President Truman," Miss Natalie Jewett, home service chairman of the Winchester Red Cross Chapter, said today.

"When the claim is filed, Miss Jewett said, you should forward affidavits, accompanied by any corroborative evidence available, to the appropriate office." If the claimant was in the Army, he should address his claim to "Office of the Adjutant General, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Chief, Operation Branch". If the claimant was in Navy, he should address his claim to "Claims Section (POW Claims), Office of the Judge Advocate General, Department of the Navy, Washington 25, D. C."

The new law also states that if the enemy government did not feed a prisoner properly, under the terms of the Geneva Convention, he may also file a claim.

All claims, including those now on file, will be turned over to the War Claims Commission when it is established. The commission will study the claims and make a report to the President, who in turn will submit it to Congress on or before March 31, 1949.

"Any local resident who needs help in filing his claim may ask the Red Cross for assistance," Your local Red Cross chapter is at "Town Hall, Winchester."

THE FORTNIGHTLY - NOTES

"Hawaiian Horizons" is the subject of the illustrated lecture to be given at the regular meeting of The Fortnightly, on Monday, October 25. The lecturer, Patty Atwood, is a skilled photographer and an able lecturer, who has the art of making her audience relive her experiences. At one o'clock, preceding the meeting, there will be a food sale for the benefit of the philanthropy fund. Mrs. C. M. Jenkins is the chairman, assisted by Mrs. Frank H. Knight. As announced at the last meeting, a collection will be taken up for the benefit of the children in a hospital-orphanage in Norway. The city in which it is situated was completely destroyed by German bombs. There will be a discussion of the referenda to appear on the ballot November 2.

At the autumn meeting of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs held in Springfield on Oct. 14, Mrs. Marshall Symmes, Mrs. William Priest and Mrs. George Budd were state delegates, and Mrs. Adele Emery, Mrs. Nellie Hultgren and Mrs. Lora Bond Rhodes were appointed as The Fortnightly delegates.

Mrs. A Chesley York the new president of the Federation presided most graciously, and introduced the speakers who presented a program most stimulating and inspiring. Mrs. Lucius Paul Loeffler of Salem, state chairman of Youth Guidance asserted the harmful effects of many comic magazines is a subject receiving nationwide attention. She made the terse statement "Crime does not pay, but crime comics do," and warned that this matter should be the concern of all club women.

Mrs. David M. Small of Allston, state chairman of Education, stressed the need for state and federal aid to education and urged club women to work towards this end. She reported that according to recent figures 10,000,000 adults in our country are unable to read and write sufficiently to be intelligent citizens, and that 3,000,000 children have not attended any kind of school within the last few years.

Mrs. Norman Alden Downs of Lexington, lawyer and lecturer, posed the question of why there are not more women in politics in Massachusetts, and stated that our state is practically negligent in this respect, compared with our sister state of Connecticut. She pointed out that only one-third of the population of Massachusetts voted in the recent primaries, and she stressed the fact that only by such indifference and neglect can we be subjected to undemocratic forces. She gave an illuminating resume of each of the referendum articles upon which we shall be obliged to vote on Nov. 2.

The address of the afternoon was given by Hon. Orlo M. Brees, lecturer, author, and member of the New York State Legislature. The subject of his lecture was "What is America?" and he defined it in glowing terms.

He asserted that America is not built on the philosophy of getting something for nothing; that money being a symbol of services and goods must be distributed according to value received. He insisted that America is not a melting pot, a "hodge-podge," but America, he explained, is a nation of individuals all of whom have identity and something to give. America stands for Unity, yes; Uniformity, No. Mr. Brees reiterated in many ways throughout his address that our government is not a separate entity above the people. It is the people. With his dynamic personality, captivating delivery, and constructive material Mr. Brees gave such an outstanding address that it will vibrate and live in our hearts for many days.

Mr. Stephen Burgoyne of Norwood street was removed Tuesday to the Winchester Hospital for X-rays and observation.

WINCHESTER HARRIERS BEAT CONCORD

Winchester High's cross country team beat Concord, 18-31, over the local course last Friday afternoon, making it three wins in four starts for the Red and Black.

Jerry Underwood led home the pack in 13m 12s, with another Winchester boy, Ken Blake, in second place, followed by Bowen of Concord. Wolfe and McGowan in that order gave Winchester four of the first five places.

The local second team also beat the Concord seconds, 19-43, for their third straight victory. Following are the first 20 finishers:

1. Underwood, J. (W); 2. Blake, (W); 3. Bowen, (C); 4. Wolfe, (W); 5. McGowan, (W); 6. Rocray, (W); 7. Moszka, (C); 8. Underwood, A. (W); 9. Daly, (C); 10. Finan, (Con); 11. Riga, (W); 12. Foley, (W); 13. Murphy, (W); 14. Olsen, (C); 15. Antippas, (W); 16. Ives, (W); 17. Rush, (W); 18. Griffiths, (W); 19. Sullivan, (W); 20. Alexander, (C).

Reports from Harvard's football games this fall indicate that Winchester's Charles David Roche, Jr., is playing fine ball in the Crimson backfield. Especially has "Chucker" been doing some really fine kicking which last Saturday particulary stood the Harvards in great stead against the vaunted Army team. Roche's defensive play has also been outstanding as it used to be when he was one of the important cogs in "Charlie" Walsh's great team of 1944.

STONEHAM SHOTS by Gerry

WINCHESTER 27—STONEHAM 0

Seconds Play Much of Time Against Outclassed Visitors

With the varsity playing only 13 minutes of the game, Winchester High beat Stoneham, 27-0, last Saturday afternoon on Manchester Field. The seconds played most of the time against the outclassed visitors with the All Americas taking over toward the end of the final quarter.

The tipoff on what was going to happen occurred on the second running play of the game. Stoneham kicked off across the goal line and play began at the Winchester 20. A fumble occurred on the first attempt to rush the ball, but on second down Pete Dillingham skirted the Stoneham left flank, and aided by some good blocking streaked down the sidelines 80 yards for a touchdown. Dillingham's attempt to kick in the extra point at placement was blocked.

Stoneham ran out Slack's kick-off to its 16, a screen pass picked up six, but the visitors were penalized for clipping on the play, the ball going back to the 12. Smith punted to Carroll who was downed on the Stoneham 37, and on Winchester's first running play of the sequence, "Lally" Myers reversed off his own right end and went all the way, convoyed effectively by big Mario Mascioli. Dillingham converted this time with Carroll holding, and the seconds went in. From then until the half there was no scoring, with Stoneham, because of its passing game, having an edge in ground-gaining.

With the resumption of play, Stoneham, aided by successive fumbles of kicks, moved from its 18 to the Winchester 30 where the locals held for downs. The varsity was in at this point, and after Stoneham drew a five yard penalty Dillingham went 13 yards around his own right end to the Winchester 48.

Once again the ball was fed to Myers on a reverse, and again "Lally" legged it to pay dirt, a partial block by Mascioli at the Stoneham 35 getting him into the clear and his own drive getting him the last two or three yards. Dillingham again converted, and after the varsity had stopped the Stoneham attack at the locals 44 the seconds went in,

Dillingham stayed in long enough to gallop 25 yards to the Stoneham 30 on the final play of the third quarter, and from there the seconds, with Tony Cirurso doing the bulk of the gaining, pushed along to the visitors 12.

Migliacci whirled off end to the two and with Stoneham braced to stop Cirurso through the middle, Migliacci again sliced off right tackle for the touchdown. Migliacci converted, and the All Americas went in with neither team threatening thereafter.

Winchester made five first downs and 271 yards by rushing, completed one of three passes for seven yards, lost 55 yards in penalties and fumbled six times.

Stoneham made 10 first downs and 96 yards by rushing, completed seven of 23 passes for 77 yards with three intercepted. The visitors lost 25 yards in penalties and fumbled three times. The summary:

WINCHESTER DROPS FINAL TO WINTHROP INDIANS, 9-6

The Winchester Hockey Club lost its final game in the fall division of the Mayflower League to the Winthrop Indians last Sunday afternoon at the Skating Club.

The first period ended all even with one goal apiece, Rousseau counting first for the Indians, followed by Wimpy Burtnett's dazzling solo dash down the ice to tie it up.

The Indians went on a scoring spree in the second stanza. Farley, MacDonald and Cluck tallying in quick succession on assists by Colpuck, Lane and Rousseau respectively. Cleery then fired in Winthrop's fifth unassisted. Don Ellis matched this last one with Winchester's second, also unassisted. Colpuck added Winthrop's sixth assisted by Cleery. Jim Fuller tore down the ice unassisted to ring up the locals' third tally. R. DeGregorio closed this period with Winthrop's seventh assisted by Farley and P. DeGregorio.

In the third period the locals staged a brilliant but vain rally, scoring three times to Winthrop's two. Jim Fuller converted Burtnett's pass for a marker. R. DeGregorio followed this with a Winthrop score on Rousseau's assist. Then with Winthrop shorthanded from penalties Frank Livingstone caged the Puck on Roy Monson's passout from the backboards and Dave Merrow flashed the red light on a nice solo effort to bring the locals within two of their opponents. Here the rally ended and the Indians added their ninth just before the buzzer on MacDonald's solo effort.

The Winchester boys fought hard all the way. It was a heartbreaker for them to lose. It all seemed to shape up as too many Intercollegiate stars against an almost purely local group. Rousseau, Farley, MacDonald, Colpuck, Cleery and the DeGregorio brothers starred for Winthrop. For the locals Wimpy Burtnett, Don Ellis and Jim Fuller excelled on offense, with Dave Merrow playing his best game of the fall season. Ellis, Doub and Dingwell played well defensively. Of the net minders Gilbert of the Indians had the edge over Scott Connor.

WINCHESTER AT FRAMINGHAM SATURDAY

Winchester runs smack into another football tartar tomorrow afternoon when the local boys journey to Framingham for a game with Framingham High at Bowditch Field, commencing at 2 o'clock.

Framingham is undefeated and untied to date, having beaten among others, Wellesley, Belmont and last Saturday, Dedham. This last victory was considered quite a feat since Dedham always has one of the good teams in its class and was favored to beat the wealthy towners.

Framingham won only 6-0, but will be favored to beat Winchester, despite the fact that the locals didn't have too much trouble beating Framingham last year, 19-7. Sammy Bellino scored all three local touchdowns last year, and of course Sammy isn't around this year. In Pete Dillingham and Lally Myers, however, the locals have a couple of breakaway runners that can go all the way if given half a chance.

Winchester is in much the better mental spot for the game, having nothing much to lose, while Framingham has an unbeaten record to worry over. The locals have the stuff to bother any team, and it could be Framingham won't have quite the cinch everyone seems to think.

WINCHESTER'S OPPONENTS SATURDAY

Belmont 0, Cambridge Latin 0.

"WILD WILLIE" IN THE VAN

That questioning the ability of "Wild Willie" McLaughlin has apparently aroused the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset. At least for the past two weeks he has been unbeatable in the regular matches of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association on the beach courts. Last week-end he even carried the Secretary to victory, not once but twice, and you blame well have to be going good to get the Scribe in the win column more than once.

It was quite a week-end, with Herbert "Garrulous" Gardner, the Dix street Magnate, and Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham back in the fold after extended absences. Mr. Pridham paired with Mr. McLaughlin in the early matches, and as usual the famed "Lake Street Lancers" were invincible, taking Royal "Paper Trade" Teele and Mr. Gardner two straight and winning an odd game match from Mr. Gardner and the Secretary.

This was a sizzling match. The Lancers started like a jet p'ane, running up a 20-4 count before the scribe and Mr. Gardner got going at all. Then with the Scribe having one of his rare streaks and Mr. Gardner's submarine shoe working a bit better, the underdogs battled up to a 24-24 standing.

The Secretary, unnerved by Mr. Teele's shrill whoops of encouragement, was wild with his first shoe, but was on with his second. Mr. Pridham's first shoe was close and his second also on. That was it.

Mr. Gardner and the Scribe won the second game, 25-19, and led in the odd game 21-13, by virtue of a double-header by the Secretary of all people.

So surprised were both Mr. Gardner and the Scribe by such an unexpected performance that they blew completely and lost 25-23, to Mr. Teele's deep disgust.

The next two matches saw Mr. McLaughlin and the Secretary winning in straight games from Mr. Pridham and Mr. Teele, and then from Mr. Teele and Mr. TROMBLY Gardner. This last was a three-game match to a finish, catch-as-catch-can, no holds barred. Mr. McLaughlin was on most of the time and Mr. Teele at one point threw five consecutive ringers, his whoops of glee ringing out with a will. Mr. Gardner's long absence from the arena told against him and despite Mr. Teele's exhortations to throw "nice easy ones" was quite often for him wide of the stake. Mr. Teele was again the loser and went home to sour soup, muttering to himself about McLaughlin's "Sportsmanship".

RAYMOND STRAWBRIDGE RE-ELECTED COMMODORE OF WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB

It was 'ray for Ray at the annual business meeting of the Winchester Boat Club last Friday evening, when the membership showed just how much they appreciated the splendid job he did in 1948, by re-electing Ray Strawbridge commodore for the '49 season.

Unrer Ray's capable guidance the '48 season was successful in every way. Social activities increased, many improvements were made to the club house and grounds, and everything functioned smoothly and precisely.

Sidney Burr was re-elected vice-commodore; William Davies given a second term as secretary; and Norman Duehring will hold the purse strings as treasurer for another year.

The new and capable board of directors includes: John E. Allen, T. Dawson Blamire, Parker N. Blanchard, Theodore E. Burleigh, Jr., Theodore Elliott, Carl K. Freyer, Kenneth B. Hiscoe, George T. Jones, Everett D. Littlefield, Edward H. Morse, Merton E. Ober, Jr., John J. Powers, Walter A. Redding, Bart V. Sullivan and Martin S. Swanson.

The business meeting followed the chowder party, and the way bowl after bowl of the steaming chowder disappeared left little doubt of its excellence. Following the business meeting several excellent movies were shown, and these were followed by "Old Man Music" who kept the membership hysterical for more than an hour.

Perhaps one of the finest moments of the evening came when Steward and Mrs. Ed Kent were presented a beautiful easy chair by the membership, in appreciation of the splendid job they have done the past few years. Ed is resigning this year because of ill health. He and Mrs. Kent have done such a magnificent job in such a friendly and gracious manner, that we're sure that the well wishes of every club member for many years of the best of everything, go right along with the chair.

Dawson Blamire Elected Snipe Fleet Captain

T. Dawson Blamire ("Blossom" to his friends) will guide the destinies of the Winchester Boat Club Snipe Fleet during 1949. Daw was elected at the annual snipe fleet dinner at the club last Sunday evening. His first mate will be Jack Streeton and Ned Morse will hold down the purser's job.

Jack Streeton is the champion of the Winchester Snipe Fleet for 1948. As a reward for his splendid sailing he was awarded the George Jones Trophy, the DON-JAN Trophy, both of which he holds for a year, plus a trophy he can keep.

Second prize in the point score standing went to Ralph and Roger Swanson and the third prize went to that wily sailor Jim Newman.

Jack Streeton also won first prize in the First Division handicap series and the Swanson brothers were second in this group.

Bob Morris won first prize in the Directors Trophies' competition and Daw Blamire got second place cup.

Pete Redding wound up as champion of the junior snipe sailors, with Dick Simonds second and Rodney Long third. All three of these standout sailors were presented with slick trophies.

Daw Blamire won the Alden Sherman Memorial for the second straight year, nosing out Pete Redding by a mere 5 points.

Prize presentations were made by Ted Burleigh, Sr., following an amusing skit capably acted out by Jack Streeton, John Powers and Bart Sullivan. These lads put on such a smooth performance it's a shame that there wasn't a talent scout in the audience. All in all it was a swell evening with plenty of food, loads of laughs and lots of prizes . . . a fitting ending to another outstanding Snipe Fleet season.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB, FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Wednesday Night Club's Friday meeting on Oct. 29 promises to be a very different and interesting one with a Smorgasbord being served at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Mann will cover the experiences of those Estonian and Latvian patriots who escaped their persecuted country and sailed to America in a boat smaller than the Mayflower. All Wednesday Nighters, past, present and future are invited to make reservations early.

THE VOICES OF TRUTH

(For The Winchester Star)

Goodly men seek the vision
Of a life fraught with mighty meaning,
Caught from mountain peaks of rapture
And consecration, clothing us with power
Of faith that is an all-conquering one.
Goodly men are possessed by the spirit
That seeks deliverance from terror of wrong
To loveliness and from tragedy to peace.
With God's help we will turn away
From the easy paths of the lowlands
And take the difficult and at times forbidding
Way which leads to the heights above
The storm clouds, nearer the stars
Of wondrous light and great promise.

LOWER ELECTRIC RATES FOR 356,000 HOMES

An Important Message from Boston Edison Company

The following paragraphs are from a formal communication to the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities by James V. Toner, President, Boston Edison Company, under date of Oct. 14, 1948.

"The Boston Edison Company will file a new Residence Rate B, applicable to residential customers on or about October 29, 1948, to become effective December 1, 1948. This new rate schedule will grant reductions to 356,000 residential customers, varying from a minimum of 8 cents a customer per month, to a maximum of 24 cents a customer per month. These reductions will not apply to the other 11,000 residential customers whose average use is fewer than 12 kilowatt hours a month. This reduction will amount on an annual basis to $612,000.00.

"A reduction in rates such as that proposed for our residential customers is, of course, at variance with the general upward trend of all prices and costs. However, the management of the Company believes that considering the improvement of its electric load, the possibilities of added revenue from other schedules, the economies resulting from installation of new high-efficiency facilities, and the observance of the highest degree of operating efficiency, this reduction now appears to be within the Company's capacity to absorb, unless costs of all kinds should advance substantially above present levels, or unless there should be a drastic and precipitate shrinkage in gross revenues. If either of these events occurs, relief will have to be requested from the Department of Public Utilities in order to keep the Company on a sound financial basis; but this would be true whether or not the Company should make the proposed reduction.

"However, it is the sincere hope of the management of the Boston Edison Company that the downward trend of the price for electricity in the home will continue, and that electricity will continue to be the shining exception to the rule of high prices."

Full details of this second post-war rate reduction will be published when the new schedule is filed next week.

A short original play was presented by the pupils, the theme of which was showing kindness to each other. The parts were taken by the following pupils:

Mother	Gloria Shields
Father	Fred Skerry
Two Sons	David Dauphinais
	Neal Dowe
Daughter	Irene Mullen
Friend	Carlene Johnson

Announcer for the program was Barbara Clark, who carried out every detail to perfection.

Stillman Patterson Hilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll S. Hilton, 19 Park avenue, was made a James Bowdoin scholar Wednesday at Bowdoin College's annual James Bowdoin Day ceremonies.

Residents in the vicinity of Grove street and Fenwick road noticed two youngsters at that corner, apparently lost. The police were notified and Officers Edward Bowler and John Murray went to investigate. They found, not without some difficulty that the youngsters, three year old girls, were lost and lived in Medford. They were turned over to the Medford police who took them home.

Mr. P. L. Anderson of Dunster lane entered Massachusetts General Hospital last week for observation previous to undergoing a serious operation.

RED FEATHERS WILL BE ADDED

Red feathers will be adding numerous touches to the autumn foliage as our town swings into the opening of the Red Feather campaign, Community Fund, next week.

A meeting of precinct captains presided over by Division Chairman Herbert T. Wadsworth and addressed by Campaign Chairman Earl Carrier was held at the Fund's Town Hall Office last Sunday evening. Successful completion of volunteer worker enrollment was announced. Richard Frazier's appointment as Precinct 2 Captain was confirmed.

An important innovation in the solicitation of town employees was stressed. This year town employees will be solicited in their homes, like other residents of the town - not at the town offices. The cooperation of all town employees in common with their fellow citizens likewise to be contacted in their homes is earnestly requested.

To all important gatherings of workers for briefing and the providing of necessary information about the Fund and its objectives will be held next Tuesday, the 26th for workers in Precincts 1, 2 and 3 and Wednesday the 27th for workers in Precincts 4, 5 and 6. The meetings will take place in the exhibition room of the Winchester Library at 8:00 p. m. sharp and will end at 8:40. Gerald B. Tallman, Division Chairman in charge of these meetings promises an interesting and worth while session to all regardless of the extent of their previous experience in Community Fund solicitation.

Thousands Of Winchesterites Benefit From Red Feather Services This Year

An actual study has been made of the direct use of local and Greater Boston Red Feather Services over a twelve month period and the magnitude of this contribution to our community's health.

Hospital services as represented by admissions of Winchester residents not only to our own Winchester Hospital but to others supported by the Fund totalled nearly 1,600 or close to ten per cent of our town population. Think of it - in one year!

Our District Nursing Association and other health services rendered timely and valued aid to residents of our town - a great service made possible only by the Community Fund contributions.

Family and relief services such as those provided by the Winchester Society of St. Vincent de Paul and other organizations participating in the financial support of the Fund were made available at the time of greatest need to well over a hundred of our townspeople.

Institutions such as Winchester's Home for Aged People, the Boston Guild for the Hard of Hearing, the Community Workshops and others lent timely aid and assistance to scores of Winchester residents.

Youth Agencies and Children's Services provided countless opportunities for health, recreation, guidance and character building to the young people of our own community. The Winchester District, Fellsland Council, Boy Scouts of America and the Winchester Council Girl Scouts were but two of the Red Feather Agencies that together provided happy, useful hours for well over a thousand of our budding citizens.

It is a fact established beyond dispute that more people are using Red Feather services than ever before. The demand continues to grow for preventive work in health, in services for the young and even to fight the rising divorce rate by providing sympathetic aid and counsel. Hospital deficits are mounting and many agencies have had to curtail services because of lack of funds.

So when you are called upon within the next few days to make your pledge, give generously in order that these great needs may be met. Give your fair share to bring hope and health and happiness to your own neighbors — to help build a stronger, better community. Remember, when everybody gives, everybody benefits.

Mr. Frank A. Cummings of Freedom, Me., formerly of this town, is visiting with friends at San Diego, Calif.

Engineers of trains going through Winchester have complained of children and some adults crossing the tracks at the rear of the Winchester Theatre after the afternoon show, specifically between 4:45 and 5 o'clock. This is a busy time on the railroad with a good many commuter trains going through town, making doubly dangerous a practice that would be bad any time. The theatre is doing its best to stop its patrons from crossing the tracks after shows by calling attention on the screen to the danger involved. The police have been appealed to and will cooperate in every way possible. If local measures do not suffice, the railroad will step in, and prosecution for trespass may be expected. The point is that crossing the tracks in large numbers at a place like the rear of the theatre is too dangerous to risk becoming a habit. Everyone should cooperate to stop it.

ARMY PAY DAY IS A "MUST"

Editor of the Star:

Answering a comment "My boy is studying business administration so what good would he be carrying a gun," the writer thought the following information about the Finance Dept. of the USA might be of interest.

It was in the early days of the Normandy invasion, at a time when replacements were being rushed across the channel from camps around Southampton. In a tent by candle light, a finance officer was making the customary pre-invasion payments of 200 French francs each to a group of 500 enlisted men preparatory to their leaving early next morning. Upon balancing his cash later, the finance officer discovered that he was the equivalent of $9,000 short having mistaken, in the dark and confusion, 500-franc notes for fifties. Being personally responsible for his loss, he grabbed his helmet, stuffed his brief case with fifty-franc notes and the payroll, and dashed to the docks, rushing up the gangplank as it was being raised. It took all the hours of the crossing to make the necessary payments, but when he finally landed on the shores of Normandy his accounts were balanced —his only remaining problems were to get back to his duties in England and to convince his commanding officer that he had not been AWOL.

The Finance Dept. has made axiomatic the principle that prompt payment to the soldier is a military "MUST." The American soldier must always be paid on time and must have available the currency of the country in which he is serving. But making payments to military personnel is only one of the many duties of the Finance Dept. During the war years, the Army spent an overall total of 176 billion dollars which entailed the use of 4140 officers, 593 warrant officers, and 17,140 enlisted men. During the war, disbursing officers often operated close to the front lines and were necessarily subjected to all the hazards of combat; disbursing sections have been housed in native mud huts, Normandy stables, elaborate Riviera chateaus, old railroad cars and tents.

Near Tunisia, one young disbursing officer operated from the rear 40-and-8 car of an old French train, carrying with him over a million dollars in currency. He was enjoying the beautiful mountain scenery when suddenly the car broke loose and started rolling backward around the curves of the canyon. Fortunately he was able to reach a hand brake which stopped the car just as it was about to plunge into a bridge. Tons of currency and coin were secretly transported all over the world by finance officers. Packages were so well disguised that laborers doing the unloading seldom suspected that they were actually handling millions of dollars.

On one occasion, in Africa, the disguise was so effective that it almost proved a finance officer's undoing. In the unloading, a case of money was mistaken for medical supplies and was temporarily used by a soldier as a seat at the mess table. When the box was opened, it was discovered that he had been sitting on $640,000 in invasion currency. Finance personnel had to be prepared to cope with any emergency.

At Merkers, Germany, 5 enlisted men were told to "go count some captured German money." As they approached the mine, they thought it strange that several tanks should be placed on both sides of the road, ready for action with machine guns set up in between—it was the German Gold Reserve practically intact, valued, according to newspaper reports, at approximately three billion dollars.

The task of disbursing Army money is not always so hectic and any man "studying business administration" could probably fit well into this picture.

The Chief of Finance has been given the responsibility of working out an overall cost accounting system which will provide a basis for comparison of costs between activities within the military establishment as well as between the Army and comparable private business. By constant study and analysis of existing pay procedures, the Army Finance Dept. is keeping abreast of new developments designed to increase efficiency and reduce operating costs.

Very truly yours,
Gladys N. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

NAVY DAY, OCTOBER 27

Editor of the Star:

For some years, one day has been selected annually as a special occasion for encouraging the people of our Country to become better acquainted with their Navy and its activities. October 27 was designated initially as "Navy Day" because it is the date on which the original Bill to create a Fleet was introduced into Congress in 1775. It is also the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, often referred to as "Father of the Modern Navy".

This year the Boston Naval Shipyard will present an extensive program of exhibits — the products of its shops and the operations of certain manufacturing processes. In addition, it is expected that certain ships berthed at the Shipyard will be available for inspection. The people of Boston and vicinity are being invited to visit the Shipyard and acquaint themselves with its functions.

The Boston Naval Shipyard, employing upwards of 10,000 people, and with an annual payroll in excess of $30,000,000, is the biggest single industry in the City of Boston. It has occurred to me that you may be interested in some particular feature and purpose of this establishment. If so, you are cordially invited to visit the Shipyard at any time between the hours of 9:00 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. on October 27, when each trade will be functioning.

Sincerely yours,
W. McL. Hague

HYDERABAD, ALOOF FROM DOMINIONS, HOLDS INDIA'S FAMED CAVE TEMPLES

Hyderabad State, which has yielded to the Indian Union after five days of military action, was virtually the last of 562 princely Indian states to hold out against accession by either of the year-old dominions — India and Pakistan.

In area, population, material wealth, historical and religious importance, this landlocked state that spreads almost completely across the Deccan plateau in south central India is outstanding. Glories of earlier civilizations, centered in the cave cathedrals of Ajanta and Ellora, make it one of the world's rich regions archeologically, notes the National Geographic Society.

Nizam Is Billionaire

Ruled for 37 years by its present Nizam, Hyderabad compares roughly in area and population to Pennsylvania and Ohio combined. Six-sevenths of the 17-million population is Hindu, but the Nizam and his nobles are of the Moslem one-seventh. Almost two-fifths of the land is owned by the small ruling group.

Despite this arrangement, which finds the ruler adding cash, bullion, jewels and other property to coffers that make him a billionaire, the lot of Hyderabad's masses has been improved through the Nizam's reign. Irrigation dams have advanced farming, cottage workers in textiles have benefited from special training, new industries have been introduced. Osmania University and an expanding school system are working to lift the literacy level, an undertaking of some difficulty since Hyderabad's Hindus are split into three language groups.

Capital of the state is Hyderabad city, fourth largest in India, comparing with Pittsburg in size. Together with near-by Secunderabad, seat of the state's military forces, it was the goal of the invading drive.

Surrounded by gleaming goverment buildings and pretentious establishments of his nobles, the Nizam lives in a comparatively small home, rides in a prewar automobile. Two of his sons have married Turkish royalty, strengthening ties within the Moslem world. "Faithful Ally of the British Government" is a title used by the Nizam, in which he takes pride.

Forgotten Art Attracts Tourists

The richly sculptured cave-cathedrals of Ajanta and Ellora are part of the rock hills 200 miles northeast of Bombay. This northwest corner of Hyderabad, which includes the state's second city, Aurangabad, fell to Indian troops in the first two days of recent operations.

Carved throughout one millennium, then forgotten for the next, the rock-hewn temples were rediscovered by British soldiers a century ago. At Ajanta, five cathedrals and 24 monasteries follow in line in a sweeping semi-circle of rock cliff 250 feet high. Large sculptures represent Buddha, and delicate frescoes portray legendary experiences of his reincarnations. At least 16 of the caves contain scenic paintings.

At Ellora, the massive Kailas temple built for Shiva stands out among carved rock-walls wrought by Buddhists, Jains, and Hindus. Close to Hyderabad city are the ruins of the fortress of Golconda, once a city of a million people. The name is romantically associated with some of the largest Indian diamonds, including the Kohinoor of the British Crown. Golconda was a center for cutting and polishing the stones.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN HONORED BY STAMP LOOK BACK ON TWO-CENTURY EVOLUTION

For any big-city denizens who imagine that volunteer fire departments went out with the horse and buggy, a new commemorative stamp, released October 4, is a reminder that the volunteers still overwhelmingly outnumber paid fire fighters throughout the country.

It is estimated that there are around 750,000 American volunteer firemen, notes the National Geographic Society. Compared with perhaps 100,000 full-time professionals, the volunteers largely serve the rural districts, smaller towns and communities. They respond in many metropolitan suburbs, however, including some of New York's.

Dover, capital of Delaware, where the present stamp is being issued, has such a fire department. So have all other Delaware communities, except Wilmington. In fact, the bill authorizing the stamp was introduced by a Delaware congressman whose own home had recently been saved by volunteer fire-fighters.

Franklin Fought Fire

A pioneer leader in American fire-fighting was Benjamin Franklin, following in the steps of Peter Stuyvesant, who is pictured on the commemorative stamp as "organizer of the first volunteer firemen in America." In 1736, Franklin helped set up Philadelphia's volunteer brigade known as the Union Fire Company. It served more than 80 years.

It was not until around the middle 1700's — long after England had organized fire insurance companies as a result of London's devastating fire in 1666 — that similar firms began to spread in the United States. As in England, the American companies used identifying fire marks, a sort of coat-of-arms plaque, placed on protected properties.

Although the American insurance concerns were less directly linked with the volunteer firefighters than was the case in England, where insurance companies set up their own fire brigades, the American firms offered considerable financial support to volunteer groups.

This early system developed some favoritism toward insured property, and caused rivalry between different brigades that often led to fisticuffs, when the fire call sounded.

Eventually, most volunteer groups agreed to lend assistance regardless of special interest; so that, for many decades, full cooperation has been the rule.

Some Fabulous "Enjines"

As city populations grew, Philadelphia's volunteer firemen were replaced by a full-time department in 1870. In New York proper, volunteers served until 1865, a year after Washington, D. C., had turned to a paid department.

Between the primitive hand bucket of the early Republic, and the fast trucks, pressure hose, chemicals, and hydraulic ladders of today, fire-fighting equipment underwent a colorful evolution, with the horse long an important part of the picture.

In museums and private collections of devoted fire followers are gathered fascinating assortments of old fire marks and helmets, of Currier and Ives prints, and retired fire engines, both hand-and steam-pumped.

Like the fighter planes of World War II, the old "enjines" were fabulously named and flamboyantly decorated. Some bore designs of Venus and cherubs, and tigers' heads, and were called such names as Bambazoola, Black Joke, Mankiller, White Ghost, and Old Wreath of Roses.

The high school football team has finally got its goal posts up on the practice gridiron. TO THE VOTERS OF WINCHESTER

Through a clerical error, a petition for acceptance of Section 58B, Acts of 1945 (the firemen's 48 hour work week bill) will appear on the November 2nd election ballot in Winchester.

Since the circulation of petitions to have this article appear on the ballot, new information has come to light which makes it seem advisable not to accept this proposal at this time.

We, the members of the Winchester Fire Department request you to vote NO on Question No. 10.

SOUTH SEA BEACHCOMBING OUTDATED IN SAMOA AND OTHER LUSH ISLANDS

Unless you were born in American Samoa, or have compelling reasons to go there, a one-way ticket to that Pacific-island paradise is hard to get. The official damper put on the small rush of applications that followed recent glowing reports of Samoa's lotus life is a reminder that South Sea beachcombing is becoming a lost art.

Some of the other coral and coconut islands were devastated in the war. The high cost of living has caught up with many that escaped. Most island authorities now impose restrictions, and require minimum financial backing from would-be settlers. And Samoa just isn't encouraging newcomers.

Administered by the U. S. Navy, only the eastern portion of the Samoan group comes under American rule, notes the National Geographic Society. Western Samoa, with the larger islands of Savaii, and Upolu where Robert Louis Stevenson once lived and was buried, is governed by New Zealand under United States trusteeship.

Beauty and Violence

More than 4,000 miles from San Francisco on direct sea and air lanes to Australia, American Samoa unrolls a photogenic scene of palm-decked beaches, framed by green jungles and forested volcanic mountains. Tutuila's Island's deep blue bay, which was ceded to the Unted States for a naval station in 1872, has been called the best and most beautiful harbor in the South Seas.

For all its handsome scenery, however, and the fertility that offers native Polynesians a living almost literally picked from trees, Samoa also sees a harsher side of nature. Occasional hurricanes have brought devastation and famine.

One of the worst "blows" came in 1889, wrecking the rival warships of Great Britain, Germany, and the United States, facing one another in the Apia harbor of Western Samoa. After the storm, the three powers agreed on neutral control of the islands, which lasted uneasily until 1899, when Great Britain withdrew, in favor of the United States and Germany. After World War I, German's western share came under New Zealand mandate.

Abundance for Taking

Samoa's climate normally is mild, with little temperature variation. The surrounding seas supply abundant fish, plus hordes of wormlike creatures that annually appear off the shore and are gathered as a delicacy for the Pololo ceremony. The soil yields tropical subsistence crops of the starchy taro root, bananas, breadfruit, yams and coconuts. From the dried meat of the coconut comes the islands' chief commercial product, copra.

Despite the presence of military installations, life remains simple and relaxed in Samoa. Robert Louis Stevenson called the inhabitants "the gayest of the Polynesians." Numbering about 13,000 in the American island, they wear a scant and comfortable "lava-lava" skirt, and live in grass and palm-leaf huts with pebble floors and woven-mat furniture.

Under American rule the population of Samoa has greatly increased, thanks to improved sanitation and medical facilities. World War II, while bringing economic problems with temporarily lowered copra production, had its compensations, producing miles of new roads for the islands, and a new hospital.

KAY WHITCOMB HAS ENAMELING BUSINESS HERE

Former Marine Aided by G. I. Loan

Kay Whitcomb, a former Marine, is conducting a successful enameling business in the Hevey Block, having been aided in establishing herself in this unusual line by a G. I. Loan. She is getting along all right, too, having already had two of New York's famous gift shops take on her line and selling a number of pieces she sent recently to a ceramics show in Los Angeles on the west coast. She is sending an exhibit to the National Ceramics Show in Syracuse, N. Y., and is planning to show her work here in one of the local shops for the benefit of her fellow townspeople.

Miss Whitcomb lives on Ledyard road with her mother, Mrs. Mildred Whitcomb. The family formerly lived in Arlington, Miss Whitcomb having been born and graduated from high school in that town. For a couple of years commencing in 1939 the family lived in Winchester on Glen road, and then returned to Arlington, Miss Whitcomb's mother coming back to Winchester while her daughter was serving as apprentice to Doris Hall, an enameler, in Cleveland. Kay herself came to Winchester last November and aided by a G. I. Loan, established her business in the Hevey Building.

If you visit the place, you will be surprised at what Miss Whitcomb has crowded into so small a space. There is a kiln for baking the ceramics, there are all sorts of intriguing tools of the craft, colors, clays, pieces of copper, some cut in designs, a tall cabinet, full of all sorts of things, and topped with several cans of assorted foods, a small radio, painting and drafting equipment and at the rear of the studio several landscapes in oils done down around Rockport. You get the notion that Miss Whitcomb really works in the place, and the finished enamel pieces she has on low shelves would indicate that she labors to good purpose.

Miss Whitcomb studied jewelry design at the Rhode Island School of Design before the war, and acquired an interest in enameling while watching a professional at work there. Then came the war and Miss Whitcomb took a drafting course which led to a job in a Providence factory and then to the Harvard Underwater Sound Laboratory where she was employed as a draftsman.

She enlisted in the Marines in 1944 and was sent to California, being assigned to duty as a draftsman there. After two years in the service, she was discharged in May, 1946.

Coming east, she studied painting for a summer at the Hibbard School of Painting in Rockport where she had the advantage of criticism by the veteran and nationally known artist, Aldro Hibbard. Incidentally she plans to keep right on painting, feeling that it is a great relaxer and very rewarding.

From Rockport she went to Doris Hall in Cleveland where she worked and studied, firing a furnace and doing other odd jobs to make ends meet. After completing her apprenticeship, she took a job in a Cleveland construction office where as she says she got valuable training in business management.

Finally last November she came to Winchester and opened her little shop, which she calls the Aquillarium Studio, which means "studio of the eagles", a name suggested by the three eagles on her family coat of arms. You will see the eagle motif on some of the pieces on display in the shop.

Miss Whitcomb gets ideas for designing her pieces from store windows, magazines, from wall paper or anything that has something that appeals to her. She's looking forward to the time when expanding business will permit her to have an assistant or two, for stepping up production is something of a problem when all designing, manufacturing, promoting and selling have to be done by a one-woman staff!

WOMEN'S COUNCIL MEMBERS HEAR INTERESTING SPEAKERS

The Fall meeting of the Winchester Women's Council was held Friday morning, October 15, at the Public Library. Representatives of twenty-one women's organizations were present.

After the reading of committee reports and announcements the President, Mrs. William E. Spaulding, introduced Mrs. Wayne B. Thompson, Chairman of Public Relations of the Board of Directors of the Winchester Hospital. Mrs. Thompson told how and when the Winchester Hospital training was started and how the hospital is prepared to meet emergency. She presented Mr. Harlan Payne, Jr., Winchester Hospital Administrator. His talk was of the humanitarian service offered by the Hospital which is ready at all times to answer any call whether for service or in case of accident. The normal bed capacity of the Hospital is seventy-two but under present pressure it maintains eighty-three beds and twenty-five bassinets.

The Administrator has daily conferences with most of the nine chief executives as well as members of the Professional Staff touching every part of the living organism of the Hospital. One of the newest services offered is the Blood Bank recently established to insure prompt availability of blood for any patient who needs it.

The goal of an enlarged Winchester Hospital is to provide a health center for its area. It will be a leader in promoting health education and will be more and more a place where preventive as well as curative medicine is practiced.

Mrs. Spaulding next introduced Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye, Chairman of the Military Manpower Committee. Mrs. Toye spoke of Winchester once again being used as a "guinea pig" in the setting up of these committees in the State of Massachusetts. She introduced S/Sgt. William Knee, U.S.A.F., who is now stationed in Winchester but has been ordered to the Far East soon as a lieutenant. Sgt. Knee explained the advantages of enlistment to our college boys as they may be enrolled in qualified colleges and men between the ages of 17 and 35 who measure up to high Regular Army standards can enter on a professional career that has few equals in civilian life. It is of interest to know that 750,000 college diplomas have been awarded to men and women formerly in service. Officer Candidate School, leading to a Reserve commission is open to High School graduates, 19 to 28, who can qualify and distinguished OCS graduates are commissioned in the Regular Army.

Sgt. Knee introduced S/Sgt. Gardner White who will replace him in Winchester. The Army and Air Corps recruiting office is in the basement of the Winchester Police Station.

Mrs. Toye extended an invitation to all officers of organizations comprising the Winchester Women's Council to visit Fort Devens on Friday morning October 22. A report of this trip will appear in next week's STAR.

The regular meeting of the Council will be held in March. Organization Secretaries are urged to post dates and time of meetings and activities on the Club Calendar in the Mary Spaulding Book Shop.

Miss Janet McIntyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McIntyre of 7 Sheffield West, has entered the freshman class at Pembroke College in Brown University. She is a graduate of Winchester High School.

TROOP 12 NEWS

Hiked to Camp Lane — Saw Circus in Boston

On October 12th the following Scouts met in front of St. Mary's School at 8:30 a. m. and hiked to Camp Lane in Burlington returning at 3:30 p. m. Thorne, Barstow, L. Erhard, D. Doucette, Doherty E. Reardon, McFeeley, J. Pearson, Coughlin, O'Connor, Scoutmaster N. Doucette, Committeeman Casey with his son Billy Jr., who is a Cub Scout in Pack 12. From the report which John Pearson gave to the Troop at our regular Thursday meeting on October 14th, all had a fine time, what with the hike itself, tramping in the woods, cooking over the open fire, games of stalking, climbing trees to get one's bearing etc. On Saturday, October 16th, Mr. Casey took a group of the Scouts to the Circus in Boston Garden with about twelve making the trip and having a wonderful time. Mrs. Casey accompanied the Scouts too with their two youngsters included in the party. The Scouts were very grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Casey for their thoughtfulness. Absentees of the Troop meeting were Notemyer, Russo and Callahan. Four new boys applied for admittance to the Troop. Our meeting room is quite crowded now. Community singing was indulged in with some Camp Fellsland songs. Scouts Thorne, Cullen and Coughlin led the Troop, they having been at Camp this past summer and learned the songs. Bobby Thorne wrote out the words and the Committee had them mimeographed. Bob, Leo and Don also sang a solo number for the Troop. Mr. Casey has taken over Mr. Grant's Finance duties in addition to his "Outdoor" duties since Mr. Grant will be unable to carry on as Finance Man this year. Mr. Sam Kinton is also unable to help on Advancement and Mr. Washburn will work on this task alone and be the Troop Representative at The Winchester Board of Review each Month. Mr. Goodrow is awaiting an operation and of course will be unobtainable. This leaves the Messrs. Washburn, Casey and Erhard quite busy so if there are any men who would life to assist in this advisory capacity, with the Scoutmaster in Charge of the Troop, please give their names to the Committeemen. Parents are particularly requested to join. It is fun. Scouts L. Erhard, E. Reardon and D. Doucette passed their Tenderfoot tests by S. M. Doucette. Plans were furthered on the Overnight trip to Camp Rankin Medford, and the Combination Halloween party and Investiture of new members ceremony for October 28th. Best quip at Troop Meeting was the answer to the first aid question as to what to do for a black eye by a Scout offering that one should apply a small piece of steak — if you can afford it these days!!!

RED CROSS FIRST AID CLASSES START OCT. 22

APRONS, BABY THINGS STAR FAIR NOVEMBER 17

Two booths at the Country Fair of the Women's Association, First Congregational Church, to be held in the Parish House the entire day of November 17, always draw rapt attention from women of all ages — the Household Table and the Baby Table. This year the Country Fair, in its corn-husk and pumpkin-pie mood, is calling these tables the "Bib 'n Tucker" and "The Cradle".

The "Bib 'n Tucker" or household table, with its rafters hanging with wonderfully gay percale aprons, smocks, household items and needs, has had the ladies of the Mission Union sewing industriously for months, and their aprons this year are lovely and modestly priced — for Christmas giving, and for one's own self! Mrs. George Nardin is chairman, Mrs. Charles Lilley, co-chairman, with these workers: Mrs. Walter Rice, Miss Margaret Sands, Miss Grace Pound, Mrs. Irving Mayer, Mrs. Richard L. Fossett, Mrs. Edith Moore, Mrs. Frank H. Enman, Miss Gertrude Kimball, Miss Emma Boardman, Mrs. Holbrook Lowell.

Across the way from the Household Booth will be the "Cradle" — quaint and attractive, with as many practical and unusual baby items as the ingenious Jr. Mrs. Guild can make with their capable hands. These young women have been knitting and sewing all summer for "The Cradle", and the young mother, doting aunt, or very practical grandmother will find just about everything here for a baby and small child. In a day when handmade garments are costly, "The Cradle" will surprise its visitors with its modest prices. And the sweaters at this table will make one wish one had a baby gift to buy!

Mrs. Charles E. Clark heads this table, with Mrs. Ashley Lewis in charge of knitting, Mrs. Donald Poinier and Mrs. Richard S. Kirkpatrick in charge of sewing. Their active committee includes all members of the Jr. Mrs., for the "Cradle" is the result of each member working hard for this year's Country Fair on November 17.

NOONAN SCHOOL NEWS

The pupils of Miss Sarah McGowan's fifth grade class presented a Columbus Day assembly on October 11, based on the period of history about which they are studying.

The Noonan School dancing class held its first meeting October 18 in the school auditorium. The class was directed by Mr. Harry Raymond. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Amorino Rizzo and Mrs. Adelbert Bartlett. Mrs. Clarence Donaghey organized the group with Mrs. George Chabot as treasurer.

Miss Anne Gallagher's fourth grade class will present an assembly on October 28 about Halloween safety.

Audio-visual aids are being utilized quite frequently in the Noonan School. Grade six in their study of New England has seen several films that will help them in their study. They have already seen the film "New England Fisheries". A great deal of information has been gathered as a result of letters sent by sixth graders to several Chambers of Commerce throughout New England.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The annual Harvest Home Supper at 6:30 o'clock, this Friday evening, October 22nd, will be one of the highlights of the Anniversary celebration at the First Baptist Church. The supper is to be roast turkey with all the fixings, home cooked by the Philathea group of the Church under the able direction of Mrs. Paul E. Ward and her committee. Mrs. Ward is renowned for the delicious and sumptious suppers she has put on, and this one will be no exception. Following the meal, Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, Pastor of the Church, will speak, and the Choir will present a delightful program of old-time melodies, rendered in solo, duet and chorus.

Sunday, October 24th, is designated as Anniversary Sunday, which once a year is celebrated as a stepping stone to the 100th Anniversary of the Church in 1952. Dr. Harold W. Tribble, President of Andover-Newton Theological School, will occupy the pulpit as guest preacher at the Morning Sanctuary Service, speaking on the very appropriate subject "My Church". Dr. Tribble, a native of Virginia, received his B. A. degree from the University of Richmond, his Th.M. and Th.D. degress from Southern Baptist Seminary, his M.A. degree from the University of Louisville, and his Ph.D. from Edinburgh. He is the author of a number of books, including "Our Doctrines", "From Adam to Moses" and "Salvation". He is a forceful speaker and will bring a stirring message. The three robed choirs of the Church, Senior, Youth and Junior, will furnish the musical part of the worship service.

Preceding the Morning Sanctuary service and the Church School the Men's Brotherhood of the Church will enjoy its monthly Breakfast, prepared and served entirely by the men of the Church.

Breakfast is served at 8:45 o'clock, followed by the Brotherhood Bible Class, led by Rev. Bailey. All men are invited to the breakfast and Bible Class following.

In the evening at 7 o'clock an old-fashioned "Hymn-Sing", directed by Dr. Cecil W. Pride, and illustrated with hymn slides, will be enjoyed. Everyone loves to sing and everyone is invited.

OLIVE HANNA, GRAPHOLOGIST AT GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL

On Tuesday, Oct. 26, the Ways and Means Committee of the Washington School Mothers' Association is presenting its first project of the year, when at 3 p. m. Miss Olive Hanna, noted graphologist and artist, will talk on "You and Your Handwriting."

Miss Hanna's lecture includes an explanation of graphology, blackboard demonstrations, autographs of famous people and individual analyses of some of the audience's handwriting. Tea will be served after the lecture by the members of the Ways and Means Committee.

UNUSUAL PLANTS AT COUNTRY FAIR ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Unusual potted plants, bittersweet, woodland treasures, miniature gardens, and little decorative arrangements for tables or shelves — all these, along with many decorations for Thanksgiving and Christmas, will be found at the Plant "Garden Corner" of the Country Fair, First Congregational Church, on Wednesday, November 17. Mrs. Warren Whitman and Mrs. J. Waldo Bond are co-chairmen of this table — which is really not a "table", but a very charming and gay entrance at the Fair in the Parish House! Whether one is seeking a small ivy in a little old mug, a bowl of gourds and Indian corn, huge pine cones for Christmas cheer, or a new plant for the coffee table, this portion of the Country Fair will offer every visitor a treat.

Those working on the "Garden Corner" with great enthusiasm, and assisting Mrs. Whitman and Mrs. Bond will be Mesdames Hazen Ayer, Theodore Elliott, Harold Twombly, Robert Whitten, Philip Johnson, John B. Wills, Robert Singer, Lester Gustin, William A. Kugler, Jacob Van Vloten, Theodore Atkinson, Herbert West, Henry Spencer, Waldo Lyon, Sidney Burr, R. H. B. Smith, S. Frederick Calhoun, and Rowland V. Patrick.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

An old time auction will be sponsored by the Winchester Chapter, Guild of the Infant Saviour, at Lyceum Hall, Tuesday, Oct. 26 from 2 to 4 p. m. Many pieces of furniture (new and used) have been donated as well as several pieces of bric-a-brac, linens and china. It is hoped that all members will attend. The public is also invited.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The League of Women Voters of Winchester opened its Fall season with a meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Reginal Bradlee.

The President, Mrs. Harold Hall, welcomed members and guests and presented members of the Board who made their reports. After the business meeting the program was turned over to the Voters' Service Committee. The Chairman, Mrs. W. E. Underwood, introduced the speakers, Mesdames Warren Witham, Philip Woodward and William Spaulding who read and explained the nine Referendum questions which will appear on the ballot November second. They presented arguments in favor of and in opposition to each question and a lively discussion followed which showed that the members are as keenly interested in the referenda as in the candidates to be elected.

A delicious tea was served by Mrs. Theodore Atkinson and her committee.

The League of Women Voters of Massachusetts has made a careful study of the Referendum questions and has obtained material, pro and con from all groups in the Commonwealth most vitally affected by the adoption or rejection of these items. If any Winchester organization is interested in obtaining a speaker on the subject, the Winchester League will be happy to provide one. Simply call the President, Mrs. Harold Hall, WInchester 6-0739-J, or any member of the Voters' Service Committee.

The next important date on the League calendar is November 11 when the annual evening meeting will be held at Wyman School Auditorium. The speaker will be Dr. Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr., who will give a report on the Marshall plan.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

The combined first and second grades at the Washington school have illustrated their study of the American Indians by constructing a display of Indian relics and souvenirs.

The third grade pupils are continuing their study of "The Neighborhood in Which We Live", by learning about the near-by stores. They have designed posters showing the items to be found in each shop.

In connection with their studies of European explorers of the period leading up to the discovery of the New World, the fifth grade is planning an assembly program which will feature an original play by Linda Nanry, Linda Thompson, and Alfred Gulliksen.

All the scenery for this play will be designed and painted by other members of the class. In addition, certain students are making a mural illustrating one of its expeditions they have studied.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Amasa Maynard Holcombe, Patent Attorney, Born October 27, 1882 at Winchester

Amasa Maynard Holcombe's career is noted for the broad and diversified scope of his activities. The son of Frank Gibbons and Inez Norman (Maynard) Holcombe, he attended Winchester High School, graduating in 1900, and thereupon enrolled at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering in 1904.

With the exception of the years 1904-07, during which he was successively computer and designer at the Waterbury Farrell Foundry and Machine Co., Waterbury, Conn., and assistant to the treasurer of the Pope Manufacturing Co., Hartford, Mr. Holcombe's interests have been confined almost entirely to the field of patent law. Starting as assistant examiner at the U. S. Patent Office, he subsequently served as patent lawyer with Carr and Carr from 1910 to 1917 and thereafter, until 1942, with various Washington patent law firms. From 1942 to 1946, he was patent attorney for the Alien Property Custodian, and since the latter year, he has been a member of Emery, Holcombe and Blair.

Highlights of Mr. Holcombe's life include admission to the District of Columbia bar in 1910, the Missouri bar in 1914, and in 1923, to practice before the U. S. Supreme Court. During the First World War, he was captain and major, Ordnance Department, U. S. Army; and in the latter capacity, was a member of the Munitions Patent Board. As evidence of his versatility, he is the inventor of, and was awarded a patent for, a method of supplying molten glass to forming machines.

Mr. Holcombe was married twice — to Eleanor Pearl Marshall in 1909 and to Violet Strong Gillett in 1934—is the father of one daughter, and makes his home in Washington, D. C.

Bishop John Wesley Lord will be the speaker of the evening and Mr. Gerald F. Frazee of Wellesley will be the organist. An informal reception to Bishop and Mrs. Lord will follow the dedication service. The public is cordially invited. Bishop Lord is Bishop of the Boston Area of the Methodist Church.

Edmund M. Wright, Jr., son of Mr. Edmund M. Wright of 79 Wildwood street, has entered his sophomore year in Tufts College School of Engineering on the Dean's List.

ROTARY NEWS

If no other committee in Rotary is functioning at one hundred percent it is not because the new make-up committee is failing. In fact if the ultimate purpose of getting our members to come to the meetings is not reached soon there will be no room to print the names of makeups and we shall have to resort to printing the names of the men present. This week there were twelve in all: Larry Dallin, Chub Howe and Phil Gallagher went to Woburn; Don Heath to Reading; Malcolm Bennett to Malden; Sam McNeilly, Pat Foley, Nick Fitzgerald, Harry Bigelow, Jimmy Cullen, Jim Scott, and Ralph Bonnell all went to Arlington. It might be well to state here that members need not attend more than two or three meetings in one week and, as stated above, the real purpose is to get our own attendance up on Thursdays.

Because of the confusion of the world series and the annual visit of the District Governor the Soap-for-England drive was completed last week. It was gratifying to see that we collected over 175 cakes of soap to be sent to that country where that commodity is so very rare. It is the belief of the Board of Governors that such acts, though small, contribute much more to the world's peace than the billions of dollars that are lent by the government as a whole.

Next week we are to have the official visitation by the District Governor since he gave no talk to the club as a whole at all when he was here two weeks ago. He did increase his popularity and show his true Rotary spirit by abrogating his time so that we might see and hear the series game on television.

The principal speaker for the meeting this week was Earl P. Haney whose fame became world wide when he refused to lie down and die as advocated by his doctors. He gave an excellent talk on the art and science of relaxation and the use of worry as a force for good and not as a menace to one's health. His illustrations were apt and to the point and it is certain that he caused every Rotarian to revalue his own worries in the light of his own experiences. Talks of this kind are needful every now and then to every man in today's struggle for peace and a living and it is indeed fortunate that we could listen to such an able speaker, part of whose power comes from his own experience.

HOW TO MAKE NEW FRIENDS

(For The Winchester Star)

There are three things we can do if anyone wrongs us. We can wrong him a little more than he has wronged us, we can give him exactly the same amount of ill treatment, or we can do as we should do -- heap coals of fire upon his head. Many times such an attitude makes of the man a better man and thus add to our repertoire of friends.

Mrs. Russell Symmes and Mrs. Paul Dunn served at the tea table. Guests included Miss Asher, Miss Dogherty and Mrs. Leary. During the winter more time is allowed for getting the child ready for home and asked that mothers help by seeing that their child can properly dress themselves for outdoors and have all their belongings properly marked with their names. In this year they hope to build many desirable habits in play and living, with the help of the parents. The language arts program is started, simple arithmetic, reading readiness and art in its simple form.

The mothers of fifth grade were entertained for tea on October 14, at the home of Mrs. Harold Bodin, Hillside avenue. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Harry Nutter and her committee. 1½ Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employes.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work —in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25c an hour for every employe!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employes an annual raise which would average $1500 per employe!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1½ billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employes have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48c an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10c an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody—Not Employes Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

CONCERT FOR BENEFIT OF HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

The musical occasion on Thursday evening, Oct. 14 in the Music Hall, under the auspices of the Children's Music Group Committee accomplished it's two-fold purpose of giving an intimate concert by a rising artist, and, with the proceeds, making possible an additional instrument in the high school orchestra.

This year Adele Addison was the artist, a young lyric soprano of great promise and already considerable reputation. Her program ranged from early English and Italian, then Mozart, German lieder, an American group and finally to negro spirituals. The beauty of her voice, the warmth of interpretation and the versatility shown in the different types of song, charmed the sizeable audience.

They should be pleased to know that besides enjoying the concert, their interest is sending $100 to Mr. Felmet, director of the high school orchestra, for musical investment.

GIRL SCOUT SUNDAY

Next Sunday our Girl Scouts will publicly demonstrate their love for God in attending church in a body. The Protestant girls are all invited to the church of the Epiphany for their 10:45 a. m. Service, and the Catholic girls will meet at St. Mary's for the 9:00 a. m. Mass. Girl Scouts promise "On my honor, I will try, to love God and my country, to help other people at all times and to obey the Girl Scout laws."

Exciting plans are now being formulated by Mrs. E. G. Peirce and her committee for a gala Mother-Daughter Tea at the Country Club, to take place on November 3rd at 3:30 p. m. When girls become Scouts they find an extra bond and kinship with their mothers because they are trying to put into practice the fundamentals of homemaking which they notice Mother employing with such skill daily.

Six Senior Girl Scouts are now regularly entertaining the Nursery units at the Mothers' Association meetings and having fun doing it while busy mothers relax and enjoy the meeting.

One of our Senior Girl Scouts - Barbara Macaulay - has been invited by the Boston Council of Girl Scouts to speak at their association meeting next Thursday on the out-door program. Other councils - even those as large as Boston - look to Winchester for information because of the outstanding work done by our girls.

WINCHESTER HARRIERS ROUT REVERE

Although the regular season is over, there are still three big meets to come. The divisional, league, and state championships.

Winchester's second team won their fifth straight from Revere, 16-45. Freshman Charlie Murphy won individual honors for the second straight week.

PULITZER WINNER TO SPEAK NOVEMBER 11

Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr., Harvard's brilliant young historian, Pulitzer Prize winner and special assistant to W. Averill Harriman, America's ambassador-at-large for the E. R. P., will speak at the Wyman School auditorium on the evening of Thursday, November 11, at 8:15. Recently returned from Europe where he spent the summer on a special mission for E. R. P., Mr. Schlesinger will give a "Report on the Marshall Plan." He is speaking in Winchester for the first time, under the auspices of the League of Women Voters of Winchester.

The lecture is attracting great interest. Mr. Schlesinger at thirty-one has already had a notable career. His book, "The Age of Jackson," written in 1942, received the Pulitzer award in 1945. It has been described as "an exhaustive inquiry and a brilliant one" in which he has reinterpreted Jacksonian Democracy as a period of class conflict. During the war he served first as a writer for O. W. I. and later went overseas as a corporal. In England he edited a weekly news-magazine which reviewed political developments in Europe. Last year Mr. Schlesinger began his teaching at Harvard as one of the youngest men ever to have been made an associate professor. He is already known to many of his audience as a writer for the Herald-Tribune and Time magazine. Articles of his have appeared in the Atlantic Monthly, Fortune and Life Magazines and a series on the major political parties is currently running in the Woman's Home Companion.

A staunch advocate of the Marshall Plan since its inception, Mr. Schlesinger was a particularly fortunate choice as assistant to Mr. Harriman. No one is better qualified to interpret American aims to the people of Europe. In bringing him to Winchester the League is pleased to provide this excellent opportunity to hear a first-hand account of the Marshall Plan in operation. What has been done so far and what effect our aid is having on relations between the United States and the sixteen European nations receiving aid under the Marshall Plan. Arrangements for the lecture are being made by Mrs. Robert M. Keeney and the members of her committee, Mrs. John Chipman, Mrs. Waldo Lyon and Mrs. Carle Zimmerman. Tickets at $1.20 may be obtained from any member of the League, or by calling Mrs. Lyon at WInchester 6-2246.

FINANCE COMMITTEE OPPOSES 48-HOUR WEEK FOR FIREMEN

Committee Urges Residents to .. Vote "No" on Question 10 .. Next Tuesday

Winchester voters are being asked by the Finance Committee to vote "no" on the 48-hour work week proposal for firemen appearing on the November 2 election ballot according to information received by the STAR from Thomas M. Hennessey, Chairman of the Finance Committee. Mr. Hennessey stated that not only the Finance Committee and the Board of Selectmen but also the firemen themselves are now unanimously urging the defeat of this article.

Although a petition had been circulated among Winchester voters by the firemen to obtain the necessary number of signatures to have this question placed on the ballot, the firemen have stated in public announcement that they "now feel it inadvisable to accept the proposal at this time," Mr. Hennessey said. While joint meetings were being held by the firemen, the Board of Selectmen, and the Chairman of the Finance Committee to discuss the matter of reducing the firemen's work week, the petition, according to representatives of the Fire Department, was left at the State House and, through an error, was prematurely included in the printed ballots for the Town of Winchester, Mr. Hennessey further stated.

Representatives of the town firemen have said from the very start that they preferred and still prefer to have the matter of their working hours explored by the appropriate town departments before asking the voters to decide. The inadvertent appearance of the question on the ballot, however, now postpones until after the election the consideration which the Selectmen and Finance Committee will give to the working hours of the town firemen, Mr. Hennessey said.

It is the Finance Committee's contention that the Town of Winchester is not now ready to accept a 48-hour work week for firemen, although the Committee is not prepared to say that the present 70-hour week should be continued indefinitely. While it is planning to study the matter of shorter hours for firemen, it urges everyone to vote "no" on Question 10 next Tuesday for the following reasons:

1. The firemen themselves are unanimously urging a "no" vote on this question.
2. The Board of Selectmen is likewise requesting a "no" vote on the article.
3. It would cost the Town of Winchester about $30,000 a year to make the plan effective without any corresponding increase in fire service.
4. It would provide a 30 per cent reduction in work time for the firemen.
5. Such substantial reductions in work time should not be considered at a time when taxpayers are already burdened with sharply increased costs of maintaining town services at their present level.

Because the loyalty and efficiency of the Winchester firemen are well recognized by the Finance Committee, and even though the Committee is now opposed to the adoption of a 48-hour week through the referendum procedure, it would like to emphasize its willingness to explore thoroughly the matter of working hours for the town firemen.

A "no" vote on Question 10 would permit a more normal, more thorough and more satisfactory approach to the whole problem.

Cemetery Department Loses Tools And Equipment

It was found on Tuesday morning that during the violent rain storm of Monday night thieves had broken into the office and shop at Wildwood Cemetery and taken tools and equipment valued at about $700. Included in the loot was a power lawn mower, a shredder, box of files, hack saw, chain and other equipment.

The thieves had evidently backed their truck or car up to the gate at the back of the office, and after smashing the padlock on the office had carried the stolen articles through the gate to the truck.

It is reported that the City of Woburn experienced a similar theft with the larceny of similar equipment a short time ago.

WINCHESTER AT READING

Winchester High plays away again this week-end, going to Reading for a game with Reading High on the junior high school field.

On the basis of what the two teams have shown in their last four games at least Winchester should be favored. Reading lost to Swampscott 6-0, was beaten by Punchard 20-0, tied Lexington, 7-7, and won from Woburn, 20-7.

That last score alone should prevent the locals from holding the Scarlet lightly if they have any tendency to do so. The Readings must have something to score three times against that big Woburn line.

Winchester played its best ball of the season to beat Framingham, 19-7, and the same sort of game all season would see the locals undefeated at this point.

Back of Framingham Winchester beat Stoneham, 27-0, Winthrop, 19-6; and lost to Watertown, 6-0, in its last four games. In its other two games Winchester lost to Swampscott, 15-6, and beat Lexington, 20-7. The locals were bad against Swampscott, a team they should have beaten, and it is quite likely that Reading was "down" against Lexington after beating Woburn the Saturday before.

At all events tomorrow's game is sure to provide fireworks. Any Winchester-Reading game is sure to do that while local fans recall that upset victory Reading scored, with the assistance of the officials, over Charlie Walsh's great club in 1944. They are still talking about that one.

Tomorrow's game will start at 2 o'clock. Accommodations are good at the field, but there won't be too many seats for late comers.

HALLOWE'EN NOTICE

Police Chief Charles J. Harrold is asking the town's young people and residents generally to observe Hallowe'en Saturday, Oct. 30, instead of on the real date, Sunday, Oct. 31. He is particularly asking the cooperation of parents in his request for the Saturday date, and would remind them that his department has orders to tolerate no Hallowe'en pranks on either Friday or Sunday nights, and to stand for no malicious mischief or destruction of property on Saturday. The town's youth have generally conducted themselves well on Hallowe'en, and it is not anticipated this year will be any exception.

HERBAL OBJECT LESSON

Mrs. Stillman P. Williams has arranged an exhibit of Herbs for seasoning now on display in the glass case in the Children's Room at the Winchester Public Library. This is an Herbal Object Lesson with 18 different herbs shown. In many instances, besides each herb, is placed an appropriate object with which that Herb is used, as a figure of a lamb beside a bunch of spearmint, and a figure of a pig beside a piece of sage. The object catches the eye. An accompanying card lists ways to use that herb.

Several kinds of candy are in the large glass case, and the origin of their flavors is explained. Licorice root is placed with licorice sticks and wintergreen leaves are with the pink wintergreen creams.

The little bunches of herbs on display are real plants, dried to show the leaves in three dimensions, not pressed flat nor dried in crumpled fashion. The bunches of leaves were dried by being carefully covered with powered borax and left undisturbed for three weeks, when they were then removed from the borax.

Seeds used for seasonings are spread on cards, often with some object beside them. Anise, caraway, coriander, dill and fennel seeds are shown.

The herbs in the display are: Anis, Basil, Caraway, Chocolate, Coriander, Dill, Fennel, Horehound, Licorice, Majoram, Peppermint, Rosemary, Sage, Savory, Spearmint, Tarragon, Thyme and Wintergreen.

"An Herbal Object Lesson" will be on view until the middle of November. The hours: 10 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 p. m. to 6 p. m. The place: Children's Room - Winchester Public Library.

MOTHER - DAUGHTER TEA

The Winchester Council of Girl Scouts takes pleasure in presenting a tea and fashion show for the mothers. It is to be held at the Baptist Church on Thursday, November 4th from 3:30 to 4:30. Mrs. E. G. Pierce chairman of the Program Committee announces. Mrs. Hazen Ayer and Mrs. Maurice Freeman will assist her. The Girl Scouts, however, will be hostess, models and the ones to tidy up later.

The clothes have been selected by Filene's and will be of great interest to the girls and their guests. Every Girl Scout and her mother are cordially invited, and urged to be "among those present" . . . See you there!

Also of great interest to all of us is the fact that Alice Hodge of Storrow Troop No. 1 is to speak on Friday in New York when she will be the only girl on the panel discussion of the Eastern Ski Association at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

There will be a Leaders meeting on Wednesday, November third.

Troop No. 10 (sixth grade) at Mystic [illegible] is joining with the sixth grade troop at Wyman to take the cooking and nutrition course offered at the Arlington Gas Light Co., offices on Thursdays!

C. D. OF A. DINED

Court Santa Maria, 150 Catholic Daughters of America, held their annual Harvest Supper last evening in Lyceum Hall in a large attendance of members and guests.

A catered supper was served by John Ahearn of the Town Line Cafe under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Betty O'Donnell and Mrs. Peggy Quill.

ART ASSOCIATION CONNAWAY SHOW

Rugged, breath-taking marine paintings by Jay Connaway, loaned through the courtesy of the Robert C. Vose Galleries, will feature the November meeting of the Winchester Art Association Tuesday evening, November 2, at 7:45 p. m. in the Gallery, Winchester Public Library. The paintings will be on exhibit to the public during library hours throughout November.

Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes will preside at the meeting, with Matthew William Boyhan, gifted young Boston painter, now a teacher at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, as the speaker. Mr. Boyhan has studied at the Museum school, won the coveted Prix de Rome, served as an officer in the U. S. Navy and was present at the signing of the Japanese Occupation terms. Of this meeting he has made the only existing documentary pictures from actual observation.

Jay Connaway, was born in Indiana in 1893, studied at the Art Student's League in New York and in Paris at the Lulian Academy with Laurens, and at the Ecole de Beaux Arts. For years he has conducted a school of painting on Monhegan Island in Maine, with a winter studio in Doreset, Vermont. His sea paintings have startled most observers, for he catches the true mood of the tumultous seas as he knows them in Maine, and the brilliancy of winter landscapes as he lives with them in his Vermont area.

BAPTIST WOMAN'S LEAGUE

The November meeting of the Women's League of the First Baptist Church on November 4th is to have an outstanding guest speaker on its afternoon program, Mrs. Thomas E. West. Mrs. West was a neighbor of Mrs. Forbes H. Norris, President of the League, in Richmond, Virginia. She will speak on the intriguing subject "As Goes China" having been born there herself. From first hand knowledge Mrs. West will bring enlightening information on this great problem.

Luncheon will be enjoyed at 12 o'clock noon, prepared by the Executive Board. Devotions with a love gift offering will be conducted by Mrs. H. Stanley Kinsley.

All women are cordially invited.

Vote November 2nd, Election Day.

EN KA MEETING

The weather on Tuesday cleared just in time for the members of the En Ka Society to gather for their first meeting of the autumn season which began with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harold B. Richmond on Swan road. After a gay social time with everyone greeting each other after the summer the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, president. She made a moving appeal for the support of the Winchester Community Chest by members of the Society. Reports were read by the secretary Mrs. Philip Woodward and the treasurer Mrs. Chandler Symmes.

A full and interesting report of the Women's Council was given by Mrs. Dunbar Shanklin, the En Ka delegate to the Council. Mrs. Shanklin also gave a most fascinating report on her visit to Camp Devens.

Mrs. Langley Keyes, chairman of the Civic Committee gave a report which included the work of the En Ka on the book truck at the hospital; various projects at the Winchester Home for the Aged; surgical dressings; Red Cross Knitting; and Community Fund work.

Mrs. Dana Sawyer membership chairman gave a report for her committee, and announced the date of the Provisional Tea as December 10th at the home of Mrs. Harold Meyer.

Mrs. Thomas Righter, read the report of Mrs. Clarke Staples Finance Chairman. A letter from Mr. Harlan Paine thanked the En Ka on behalf of the hospital for the recent gift of the Electro-Surgical Unit. Funds have been allocated by the chairman to the Winchester Community Chest, the Salvation Army, the District Nurse Association and the Winchester Home for the Aged which will total more than $1,000.

The hostess committee which provided the fine luncheon was headed by Mrs. Vera McKenzie, assisted by Mrs. Donald Conners, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Clarence Russell, Mrs. Francis Chase, Mrs. Allan Lindblad, Mrs. Leslie Tucker and Mrs. Florence Salyer.

Mrs. James Doty gave the report on the charts and announced that several members have already made the sixty points, equivalent to sixty hours of civic work, necessary for active membership in En Ka.

The Street Fair Chairman Mrs. Richard Harlow gave a preliminary report on her work to date for the fair. She announced the names of the chairmen of her various committees. It was voted to hold the annual fair on May 21st 1949.

A change in policy in the operation of the What-Not Shop was suggested by the chairman, Mrs. Harold Richmond and a large sale was announced for November.

METHODIST CHURCH FAIR

The Women's Society of the Methodist Church will greet old friends and new at the Annual Fair to be held Wednesday, November 10 -- 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. There will be a luncheon at 12 and dinner from 5:30 to 7:00. The children will have their own fair with movies and entertainment. Candy, tonic and grabs for sale.

The apron and gift table, always popular, will be better than ever. Unusual costume jewelry and hand made things for the little ones. Long burning novelty candles and plants will be among the many things to be found at the friendly Church at the fork of the road. Don't forget the day. We will be waiting for you. Come, enjoy it with us.

THE W. W. G. FOOD SALE

If you like home-made specialties (and who doesn't say, for instance . . . cakes, pies, jellies, piccalilli?) you'll make it a point to get down to the Thrift Shop on Saturday morning, October 30th.

The Food Sale, organized by the World Wide Guild Girls of the First Baptist Church, will open at 10:30 a. m. Thanks go to the ladies of the church who are the generous contributors. And, having no doubt that they'll live up to past performances, you'd better come early!

You'll probably be in the center shopping Saturday morning anyway, so drop in if you want something a little extra special for the weekend.

THE HOSPITAL'S COMMUNITY CHEST COMMITTEE

To ensure more complete participation in the 1948 Community Chest, Winchester Hospital employees will this year have their own committee for the soliciting of subscriptions. Since 1939-40 the Hospital has been cooperating as an agency of the Greater Boston Community Fund. The decision to appoint a committee at the Hospital to assist local leaders of the current drive has been taken in recognition of the fact that the Fund represents a two-way project which can continue to succeed only if the Hospital and the Fund support each other in every possible way. The 1948 Greater Boston Community Fund has a heavy task with a goal higher than last year, and every agency - including the Winchester Hospital - is faced with rising costs and increasing demands for its service. The service can be rendered only through greater resources in funds, personnel and equipment. The goal will be reached and agencies will receive the support they need if the Fund and public have a keener appreciation of both obligation and opportunity.

150 YEAR OLD MARIONETTES TO BE SHOWN IN WINCHESTER

A unique Marionette show is in preparation in Winchester. The American premiere of a group of Italian marionettes, dating in the late 17th century, is now in rehearsal at the home of Mrs. Hoyt C. Hottel, 27, Cambridge street.

The production is under the direction of Miss Priscilla Barclay who has had many years experience as director and producer of marionette shows in England.

Miss Barclay is visiting America by invitation of the MacJannet Committee for aid to French children to study American methods of musical therapy. She is a teacher of Dalcroze Eurythmics and Director of Therapeutic Activities at the Cassel Hospital for nervous functional disorders in England, a hospital comparable to the Halloren Hospital in New York. This summer she was Head of Arts and Crafts, Dalcroze Eurythmics and Dramatic Art at the MacJannet Camps in France. In England she ran a Marionette Theatre at the Cassel Hospital as a community activity and before the war took a Marionette Theatre on tour at Christmas time.

The marionettes are extraordinary little works of art recently sent from Italy to Mrs. Bruno Rossi, wife of the well-known scientist of 7 Edgehill road. Mrs. Rossi has written a clever story suggested by the marionettes themselves. Their delicate hand carving and attention to detail makes them a collector's item.

This performance will be given in Winchester soon. Watch for the time and place in next week's star.

Driving Locals Gave Home Team Season's First Defeat

Winchester dropped Framingham from the undefeated ranks last Saturday by overpowering a good looking Blue and White team, 19-7, at Bowditch Field, Framingham. For the first time this year the locals looked like a ball team with plenty of drive and the spirit to hold that drive through four periods of rugged play. For once the boys gave the impression of wanting to play ball, and the harder the going, the better they seemed to react. Certainly no one would describe the Framingham team as anything but formidable opposition or the ball they played anything short of rugged. At times it seemed just a bit more than that, but penalties for roughness were not called, and on the whole the game was a good one.

Framingham looked very impressive as Leonardi ran Slack's kickoff back to his 43. The burly fullback's knee appeared to hit the ground as he gathered in the ball back around the 25, but the play was not called back and Framingham proceeded to drive right down the field and score in nine plays, a 23 yard dash by Haertl getting the ball down close, from where Leonardi and Haertl drove to the one yard line, first down.

Big Leonardi bulled into the line once and picked up practically nothing. On second down he circled Winchester's left end and ripped out of the grasp of both Abrahamson and Dillingham to go over. Captain Cronin converted perfectly at placement and the Framingham stands were delirious.

The Blue and White clad warriors were full of pep as Cronin kicked off, but Winchester was far from ready for the morticians. Dillingham got back only to his 24, but on first down that same Dillingham took the ball on what looked like a sweep, around his own right end. The line opened a perfect corridor over center and Pete cut back beautifully, shooting through the opening and past the secondary like a bat out of hell.

For 15 yards it looked like a Framingham boy might catch him, but once Dillingham straightened out he walked away from his persuer and sprinted across the goal line, 76 long yards for as quick a breaking play as we can recall in years.

Tony Cirurso went in to kick as the stunned Framingham stands stood in silence. His kick was right on the button but was squarely blocked by Fourniaciari and that lost point loomed rather big.

From then until the half the teams were locked in a slambang tussle that ended with Winchester driving from its own 31 to the Framingham 27 at the gun.

With the resumption of play Winchester couldn't get going after receiving and Amico kicked to the Framingham 35. A clipping penalty nullified two six yard runs by Haertl and Framingham kicked to Myers who got back to his own 46.

Dillingham hit off tackle for six, and it was on this play that Framingham's Captain Cronin, a good center, was carried off the field on a stretcher.

The loss of their captain may have caused the home team to sag a bit, but Winchester was on fire, and Amico knifed through to the Framingham 39. With Dillingham carrying twice and Amico three times the locals drove to the 12, from where "Lally" Myers was shaken loose on a reverse to go all the way, great blocks by Mascioli and Mottolo helping at just the right time.

Dillingham tried to pass for the extra point, but grounded the ball, and the locals still were not out of the woods with only a 12-7 lead.

Framingham had a great chance early in the final quarter when Myers bobbled around a punt at his own 14 and just barely beat a Framingham boy to the ball.

Starting from the 14 the locals smashed and knifed along to the Framingham 23, where Dillingham slid off tackle and cut out sharply behind great blocking to outsprint the Framingham secondary to the goal line. This time Dillingham converted at placement, and the game was virtually over with both coaches sending in substitute lineups for the final minutes remaining.

On that last 86 yard scoring drive Dillingham and Amico alternated in carrying except for one nine yard reverse by Myers. Amico really hit hard on inside plays, once going 13 yards and again going 18 yards with half the Framingham team on his back.

The locals made 10 first downs and rolled up 323 yards by rushing. None of their three passes was good, they fumbled once, losing the ball, and lost 30 yards to the officials. Framingham made six first downs and 101 yards by rushing. One of Framingham's eight passes was completed for 17 yards and two were intercepted. The home team lost 15 yards in penalties and fumbled once, like Winchester losing the ball. An indication of Winchester's superiority is the fact that after half time Framingham made no first down and only 15 yards on the ground.

For Winchester Dillingham and Amico were great with "Gunner" Abrahamson standing out on the rushline. Mascioli also played well as did "Pete" Hutchins, a greatly improved tackle. "Skitchy" Carroll made a great tackle of Leonardi in the second half.

Leonardi was a tower of strength, offensively and defensively for Framingham with Haertle doing some effective running and Cronin and Haughey playing well on defense. The summary:

Mother-In-Law Saves the Day

Polly feared her marriage was headed for the rocks — financially.

"I just can't keep asking Jack for more food money every week," she wailed, "but if we're to keep from starving I'll have to. Oh, what can I do?"

"I'll tell you what to do," said Jack's practical mother. "Serve more milk. Ask the Hood route salesman for Hood's booklet of twenty delicious dishes made with milk. Ask him to explain what makes milk such a nourishing and important food. Then ask him to leave you more milk — regularly. Use it in soups, main dishes and desserts. Serve it at every meal. Jack will be delighted — and you'll save money, because milk gives you more for your money than any other food! And for quality, be sure it's Hood's."

FRAMES FROM FRAMINGHAM

Easily Winchester's best game of the year. Not because the boys won, either, but because of the spirit and drive of both teams and their lack of errors. It wasn't until Winchester scored its third touchdown that the game was really on ice, and suspense always adds interest.

The National Anthem played by the massed bands of both schools was a real inspiration. The two teams lined up on the 40 yard lines and the entire stadium of fans stood facing the flag.

When mentioning quick changes of the ages don't forget the look of consternation that erased the exultant glee from the faces of the Framingham rooters as Pete Dillingham belted through their team for 76 yards on a single play after the Framingham score.

As usual the Boston press depricated the Winchester victory. "Big Class B team" and all that! Of course Winchester has only been Class B for about three weeks, is a smaller school than Framingham and pound for pound about the same size team.

It's getting to be a habit for tall Mario Mascioli to block "Lally" Myers to a touchdown, and local fans hope that this particular habit won't be broken.

"Paulie" Amico surely played a great all around game for Winchester the second half, really driving on those inside plays and taking a man-size battering from the hard-hitting Framingham boys. Another who took a real beating was "Gunner" Abrahamson who played a bang-up center in the Winchester line.

"Nutsy" Amico, great center and captain on "Hennie" Knowlton's championship team of 1927, was at the game and high in his praise of the all around game of Leonardi, Framingham's heavy-duty back.

It was good to see big "Skitchy" Carroll really hit hard for a change. His tackle of Leonardi as the big boy ran back a kick-off in the second half was a real bone bruising belt and the best of the game. "Skitchy" also contributed some good blocks after the half time mark.

Don't blame Pete Dill too much for failing to stop Leonardi on that Framingham touchdown play. The big Blue and White fullback ran very hard and was seldom stopped by any one man, that Carroll tackle aside.

The Winchester cheer-leaders appeared in new black blazers, piped with red and with red emblems on the back. They made a very natty appearance, looking much better than the cheering they tried so hard to coax from the big Winchester crowd.

That is surely a great layout at Framingham, and when you think that Winchester might have had something like it for much less than we are reported to have spent for our two fields, it is doubly hard to take.

Stay-at-homes report that the broadcast of the game was very good until along at the end of things when another station evidently interfered. The announcer's enthusiasm waned as Winchester waxed it seems, but then it was a Framingham station.

Coach Knowlton was a magnet for all the band-wagon adicts after the game. It's great to be a coach. When you win you're all right. When you lose you're a bum!

The band made a belated appearance, arriving just at starting time. The Framingham band certainly gave the Winchester musicians the "eye" as they swung down the field to line up for the Star Spangled Banner.

If you want to get a line on a real bandsman, take a squint at Fred Walsh as he struts along at the first position in the trombone section. Fred is all class on parade.

For real enthusiasts we give you the Warsky family, "Lew", Ethel and daughter Barbara, rooters par excellence! And "Doc" Hindes and Harold Nazro were pretty happy too, along with the members of Ken Hall's Transportation Committee. It's great to win a GOOD game.

WINCHESTER BOYS PLAYING COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Several former Winchester High football stars are playing the game in college this fall with Charles D. "Chucker" Roche, great tailback on "Charlie" Walsh's 1944 team, getting regularly into the limelight with his great kicking and all around play for Harvard.

"Chucker" has developed into quite a passer at Cambridge, in addition to his kicking, running and defensive play. Last Saturday as Harvard lost to Dartmouth, 14-7 at the Stadium, Roche was one of the outstanding backs for the Crimson in its losing battle against the Indian of the North.

Up at Middlebury, Vt., Bill Whittemore, center on "Johnny" West's State Championship team of 1946, played in the backfield for Middlebury as the Panthers beat previously unbeaten Trinity, 24-13. "Dick" Murphy, an end on Pete Provinzano's 1941 team, played quarterback for Tufts as the Jumbos lost by a single point to Williams at Williamstown, 14-13.

Down at Brunswick, Me., Charlie Lovejoy, a guard on the Winchester eleven of 1944, is out of Bowdoin football for the rest of the season, which is hard luck, for big "Charlie" is captain of the Polar Bears this season. A knee injury sustained in the Amherst game has written "finis" to Lovejoy's football for this season he is a junior at Bowdoin and has another year of college ball. Incidentally Bowdoin walloped Maine, 28-0, last Saturday. Lovejoy's loss is a sad one for Bowdoin for he was an All Maine guard last season and one of the Bears' best linemen.

Although his name did not appear in the lineup last Saturday, Don Armstrong, one of the ends on the 1944 team at high school, is playing on the Wesleyan football team. Wesleyan beat Amherst, 27-0, last Saturday and seems headed for Little Three honors.

Miss Virginia Lovejoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lovejoy of Foxcroft road, has transferred from Connecticut College to Duke University at Durham, N. C., where she is a member of the junior class majoring in psychology.

Mr. Earl G. Carrier, Chairman
Winchester Red Feather Campaign
Greater Boston Community Fund

Dear Mr. Carrier:

Recognizing the scope and importance of the many Red Feather services to the citizens of Winchester, and being aware of the fact that thousands of the men, women and children of our town have benefitted both directly and indirectly from these services, we, the Selectmen of the Town of Winchester wish to go on record as heartily endorsing the campaign for funds which is now getting under way.

The need has been clearly established and is, we understand, even more acute this year on account of the increase in number as well as in cost of services.

With justifiable pride in our town and its past accomplishments, we predict a successful conclusion for the Winchester campaign. We urge each and every one of our citizens to contribute generously and with the same keen sense of public obligation and good will that has always distinguished the members of this community.

Sincerely,

Board of Selectmen

EPIPHANY CHURCH FAIR

The Chinese theme will be dominant in the all day Bazaar, "A Little Bit of China" which is being planned by the women of the Parish of the Epiphany for Friday, November the 5th. Gay and colorful oriental ideas will be carried out by the clever fingers of Mrs. Harrison Rainie and Mrs. Frederick Aseltine who are in charge of decorations. Mrs. William Holdich, who is general chairman of the affair has as her co-chairman Mrs. Albert Buffum, and they repeat that every member of their large committee is working industriously for a successful day.

Always attractive to bargain lovers is the Antiques and What-Not Table headed by Mrs. Eward Boyd, assisted by Mrs. Edwin P. Hall, and even the dealers come to browse at the ever popular Book Table where the newest of the new books and the oldest of the old are arranged to interest every reader. Mrs. Paul Rocray and Mrs. Wilbert E. Kinsley will take orders here for any book at all, even pre-publication orders for Christmas delivery.

A feature of the Candy Table this year in the capable hands of Mrs. Rodney Lory and Mrs. Philip J. Woodward is the addition of home-made salted nuts, crisp and crunchy and oven-fresh. And the walnut fudge and brown sugar penuche will be sold almost before the boxes can be displayed on the table.

Many ohs and ahs of admiration have already greeted the beautiful hand-made garments and knitted articles for the Children's Table wrought by the clever fingers of Mrs. Gerald Y. Hills, Mrs. E. Philip Walker and their busy committee who have been sewing and knitting all summer.

And nearby will be the Gift Table presided over by Mrs. Hollis A. Dyer and Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffee and the beautiful Variety Table once more sponsored by Mrs. Howard Richardson and Mrs. Clarence A. Perkins.

One must come early to see Mrs. Evan Kibbe's and Mrs. O. W. Merrow's home-cooked Food Table at its best for the popular cakes, rolls and pies will not be on display for long. The good home-made Preserves gathered in from many cooks by Mrs. Burton Miller are also fast-movers, so come early for a wide choice.

A separate table this year is "Knitting" in the hands of Mrs. Philip Bartlett, and also new this year is the table presided over by Mrs. Francis Chase and Mrs. Donald Conners called the "New's Table".

Mrs. R. Ronald Wyman and Mrs. Paul Lamarche have the ever-appealing Toy Table, and Mrs. Maxwell McCreery and Mrs. Donald Wright will make colorful corsages.

For the younger set there are the fascinating "Grabs" headed by Mrs. Paul Forrester. Ice-Cream Table in the hands of Mrs. Charles Hart and Mrs. Thomas R. Aldrich, Jr., Pony Rides run off by Mrs. John W. Page; Children's Entertainment planned by Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux and Mrs. Everett A. Tisdale and the Tea from 3-5, which although headed by Mrs. Warren Shoemaker and Mrs. H. William Buracker will be planned and served by the members of the Young Peoples Fellowship.

The Plant Table is under the direction of Mrs. Henry E. Moffette and Mrs. Paul Lamb. Luncheon is to be served at noon by Mrs. Ray E. Manger, Mrs. Frank Madge and their committee and a Turkey Supper at 6:30 will be cooked by a committee headed by Mrs. Thomas H. Howe and Mrs. Donald B. Bowman. Tickets for the supper may be reserved by telephoning Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter.

A new feature this year will be the booth which sells phonograph records. Orders will be taken for your favorite albums, and you may even make a recording of your own voice. Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth has announced that all the necessary equpiment for making records of yourself and family will be on hand. And its cheaper to make your own record than to buy a standard one! Mrs. Frederick Aseltine is providing the original booth where a Handwriting Expert will read your character from your signature. The well known Virginia Drew is the "expert."

Others helping to make the Fair a success are the "Epiphany Melodeers" who will provide an evening entertainment. This visiting string quartette will play light captivating airs as the workers relax from their arduous day.

Also on the large active committee are Mrs. Harold H. Blanchard, Mrs. Elbridge Wyman, Mrs. F. E. Booth and Mrs. Kern Folkers.

John A. Volpe, president of the Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts, presided over the annual meeting of the New England Construction Industry conference at the Hotel Kenmore, last week. Mr. Volpe is head of the construction firm bearing his name, with headquarters in Malden. He resides in Winchester on Grove street.

BUSINESS WOMEN WILL MEET WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3

On Wednesday evening, November 3 at 7:45 p. m. in the Ladies' Parlor, First Congregational Church, the members of the Business and Professional Women's Guild will hear a talk on "Flannelgraph" by Mrs. Edith E. MacKay of Belmont. After the meeting, a social hour will follow, with hot mulled cider and doughnuts served by Miss Helen Monroe and her committee. All business women and their friends are invited.

Mrs. MacKay has been teaching her unusual art of flannelgraph for the past ten years, with classes at Gordon College and at evening school in Boston. She has served as Art Director for New England Child Evangelism Fellowship, and has been active in conference work in Cuba, Yucatan, Mexico, and in every state in the country. Mrs. MacKay has selected the topic "The Story of the Tabernacle", to be illustrated as she talks by flannelgraphs. To most business women, this art is a novel and perhaps new idea, and members will find Mrs. MacKay's illustrations of great interest. School teachers are extended a special invitation to this meeting.

Mrs. George E. Connor will preside, with the devotions read by Miss Cassie Sands. The program on "Flannelgraph" was arranged by Miss Margaret Hodgson of the program committee.

School supplies at the Star Office.

TALK ON NAMES AT HISTORICAL MEETING THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4

"What's In A Name?" the challenging and informal talk on family names, their meaning and how they came to us, will be presented on Thursday evening, November 4, at 7:45 p. m. at the first meeting of the Winchester Historical Society in the Art Gallery, Winchester Public Library. The speaker is Mr. A. H. Wilson of Somerville, proprietor of Wilder's Geneological Bookshop, member of the New England Geneological Society, who will give his audience an outline of the origin of their family names, sources from which they were drawn, the changes many of them have undergone, and what some names mean. At the end of his talk, Mr. Wilson will answer questions on names or ancestry for his audience.

Far from being a dry recitation on mere geneology, Mr. Wilson presents his subject in a witty and entertaining fashion, with good sound information offered in an interesting manner to please both men and women. In many instances, he will use the names of those in his audience to illustrate his points. His historical information, abetted by humorous anecdotes, will make this a novel meeting, to which the public is cordially invited.

At the close of the meeting, members and guests are invited to a social hour in the Historical Room of the Library, where cider and doughnuts will be served, and visitors given an opportunity to see the items assembled in the museum.

COMMUNITY FUND CAMPAIGN

Red Feather dollars - 6,950,000 of them - are desperately needed in the Community Fund campaign - now at its peak in Winchester - to enable Red Feather services to continue their all-important work for the people of our own community and Greater Boston.

Here in Winchester a full complement of volunteer workers are joining with Chairman Earl G. Carrier in an all-out effort over this week end. Every one of these hundreds of willing and public spirited workers is invited to attend the first Dutch treat report luncheon next Monday (November 1) at 12:30 at the Boston City Club. Winchester's progress in comparison with that of other communities will be announced at this meeting.

Approval of the campaign goal as "the minimum amount necessary to meet the eight great human needs of Greater Boston, as well as the recreational needs of those in the armed forces, through the USO" has been given by leaders in public life, business, industry and labor. They recommend that wage earners give at least one day's pay as their fair share.

"What good will my Red Feather dollars do?" is a question frequently asked. A few figures tell a very convincing story of the tremendous amount of good every single dollar contributed to the Community Fund will do to help youngsters and grown-ups alike.

Your $5.00, for example, will provide a day's nursing care for Teddy in a convalescent foster home. It will pay for three visits by the visiting nurse to old Aunt Annie. It will give little Susie three days in a summer camp and it will keep Mr. Pneumonia Patient alive in an oxygen tent for about nine hours.

Budgeting that $5.00 for two or more payments during the year, however, will do ever so much more good. Ten dollars covering the cost of 10 shots of penicillin may save young Tom's life. It will pay for five visits to a Red Feather out-patient clinic. Better yet, $25.00 will provide a brace for the back of little Mary Jane injured in a coasting accident, while $50.00 to $75.00 will pay for leg braces.

The inclusion of the national USO drive in this year's Red Feather campaign is of special interest. Greater Boston's share is $125,000. Reactivated at the request of Secretary of Defense Forrestal, the USO appeal has been taken on by the Community Fund to give our young men being drafted into service the right kind of "home away from home".

Why is this year's fund goal set at $6,950,000. This is eight per cent more than was asked for last year and the figure has been carefully estimated to be the minimum amount needed so that Red Feather services can operate on the same budgets as they have this past year. Cost of living increases form part of the reason. It costs more to feed a child in a foster home; to buy gasoline for the visiting nurse's car; to heat a hospital room. A second major reason for this year's goal can be understood by observing how demands for services have increased in the 13 years of the Fund's existence. In 1935, for example, approximately 57,000 patients received 745,000 days of hospital care in Red Feather hospitals; in 1947 nearly three times as many patients received 1,683,000 days care, this during a period when the trend has been toward shortened hospital stays.

Another increase is in the demands on family services since the end of the war. In 1945, 21,000 families sought help; in 1947 the number had increased to 24,000. In the fields of service to youth and neighborhood services, 245,000 made use of such services last year - more than double the number in 1935.

The fact is that the services to the community have been increasingly in demand and have outstripped the financial support needed for their maintenance. Community fund raising makes sense to the people of this community and that is why this year's goal calls for "plus working" and "plus giving". As long as there are people who need the help of the Red Feather services - and can't get that help because of lack of funds - we must meet the responsibility.

Winchester's Community Fund spirit evidenced on all sides by the successful efforts of the Educational Committee headed by Chairman Mrs. J. Girard Chandler. The posters and window displays you see everywhere around our shopping center are the result of the excellent cooperation obtained from Winchester merchants and business organizations by Mrs. Chandler, Vice Chairman Mrs. Marshall Pihl and Mrs. Theodore Atkinson. This hard working committee has done equally effective work in Winchester churches, under the direction of Mrs. Wayne Davis, Winchester schools at the behest of Mrs. Frederick Ives, Jr., and Winchester Clubs, supervised by Mrs. Herbert Ross.

Remember, "Red Feather Services Benefit Everyone. Be Proud of Your Community - Support the Red Feather Campaign Everybody Benefits - Everybody Gives!"

POLITICAL NOTES

People do not easily give up reserved seats on a gravy train.

Petrillo is supporting Mr. Truman for President "because he is a piano player."

I propose to bring to Washington men and women . . . whose aim is not to help themselves but to help America. -- Governor Dewey.

Some have even suggested that the government go out onto the farms . . . and seize the cattle for slaughter . . . we have given it long and serious consideration . . . " President Truman, October 14, 1946.

The American people have been carooning along and hanging on for dear life, behind a team of runaway horses -- Spending and Debt. -- Rep. Miller (Md.)

Henry Wallace is developing hens that will lay two eggs a day. That fellow is a glutton for punishment. -- Fort Myers News-Press.

Some current brochures, printed at Government expense, include "Recipes for Cooking Muskrat", and "Directions for poisoning Thirteen-Stripped Ground Squirrels."

Expenditures for Federal printing and publications have risen until they now exceed a cost estimated at 55 million dollars annually.

COUNTRY FAIR NOVEMBER 17

"The Country Fair," to be held Wednesday, November 17, in the Parish House, First Congregational Church, is an event not to be missed this year — if one enjoys an old-fashioned fair, topped by a real country baked bean supper! The Fair will take place from 10 a.m. until evening, and on Tuesday, November 16, from 10:30 to 4:30 there will be a "pre-sale" of clothing in the Fair's "Opportunity Shop," Parish Hall, with Mrs Edwin R. Rooney in charge.

Decorations for the Fair, with sun bonnets and aprons, horn-of-plenty and crepe paper novelties, scare-crows and old costumes, have been carefully planned by Mrs. Charles E. Crede, decorations chairman, and her committee, including Mrs. Raymond J. Carter, Mrs. F. Meredith Cooper, Mrs. Albert Dietz, Mrs. H. Kimball Archibald, Mrs. Paul Nason, Mrs. David F. Choate, Jr., and Mrs. Charles E. Clark.

Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson is chairman of "The Country Fair," with Mrs. Harry M. Easton, treasurer; Mrs. John C. Weidman, assistant treasurer; Mrs. George E. Connor, publicity.

One of the interesting booths this year will be the lively and novel "Paper Table," of which Mrs. Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., is chairman, Mrs. Richard J. Johnson, co-chairman, assisted by Mrs. James McGovern, Mrs. Gilbert H. Tapley, Mrs. James P. White, Mrs. Edward V French, Mrs. Albert K. Huckins, Miss Margaret Copland. This table offers buyers a wonderful selection of Christmas wrapping papers by the yard, ribbons, cards, plus a discriminating selection of paper napkins and novelties.

"The divine method of paying sin's wages involves unwinding one's snarls, and learning from experience how to divide between sense and Soul. 'Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.' He who knows God's will or the demands of divine Science and obeys them, incurs the hostility of envy; and he who refuses obedience to God, is chastened by Love" (p. 240).

WASHINGTON SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION NEWS

The mothers of the first-grade pupils at the George Washington School met with the grade teachers on Thursday, October 21, at the home of Mrs. Raymond Carter. Miss Rich introduced the two teachers, Miss McManamy and Mrs. Gangi, who each spoke on problems of human relations common to children of this age level. An active discussion and question period followed the talks. Tea arrangements were made by the two room mothers, Mrs. Raymond Bass and Mrs. E. H. Kelley, Jr. Assisting them in preparing and serving the delicious refreshments were Mrs. Ernest L. Bennett and Mrs. Robert Turpin. Mrs. Donald Abbott and Mrs. Arthur Cochran poured.

On Tuesday, October 26, the George Washington School Mothers' Association heard Olive Hanna lecture on "You and Your Handwriting." Her demonstration of graphology and particularly her analyses of the handwriting of some of the members of the audience were enthusiastically received. The members of the Ways and Means Committee who sponsored the lecture as their first project of the year and who served a delightful Hallowe'en tea afterward were Mrs. Thomas Morison, chairman; Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Frank Carver, Mrs. James Chaffe, Mrs. Joseph Cussens, Mrs. Herbert Dayton, Mrs. John Gleason, Mrs. Robert Holland, Mrs. John Kennedy, Mrs. Russell Leafe, Mrs. Carl Morton, Mrs. George Nettleton, Mrs. Paul Rimbach, and Mrs. George Schiraga.

SYLVESTER PETITION DENIED

Appeal Board Ruled Against House on Small Lot

The Board of Appeal has denied the petition of Ralph Sylvester, in the name of his daughter, Constance, for permission to build a house at 3 Mystic avenue on a lot containing less than the 10,000 sq. ft. specified by the Zoning By Laws.

Three previous Board of Appeal had denied the same petition, and a Superior Court Judge has sustained the Board's decision in one instance. It is now rumored that residents in the vicinity of 3 Mystic avenue will petition the Board of Appeal in Mr. Sylvester's behalf, since he proposes and has the permit which will enable him to build a three-car garage at this address.

The Board of Appeal did not have to rule on the petition of Ralph Marchesi for permission to extend the building which will house his bowling alleys at 259 Swanton street, ten feet in the direction of White street. Mr. Marchesi, after a hearing held on October 13, asked for and received permission to withdraw his petition. He will now proceed with the building as originally planned, having the necessary building permit and license to operate the alleys.

In another decision, made after the hearing of October 13, the Board of Appeal denied the petition of Lillian Campbell, who sought to change a two family house at 14-16 Fletcher street into a three-family dwelling. Considerable opposition to the proposed change was voiced by residents of the district. It is reported that Mrs. Campbell will appeal to the Emergency Housing Commission.

WINCHESTER B. P. O. E.

The Winchester Lodge of Elks got off to a poor start in the Inter-Lodge Tournament by dropping the first two matches to Winthrop and Wakefield respectively. The Winchester hopefuls journeyed to Winthrop on Thursday, October 21 to receive their first set-back by a score of 9.5 to 5.5. The Winthrop brothers had much too much on the ball for the visiting brothers. They had a perfect night at bowling, pool, and billiards and made a good share of their points in the card games. Winchester's bridge team, under the guidance of Sam Kinton and Charlie Meek Jr., proved to be the only hopeful ray of the night when they white-washed the Winthrop bridge team 3 to 0. The Winchester bowlers, sparked by Gene Lane and "Iron Mike" McCormack, were unable to gather a single point. They alibied their way out of this by claiming the new Winchester alleys were much faster than the Winthrop alleys but the truth of the matter was that their vision was slightly blurred by too many side attractions at Winthrop.

On Tuesday night of this week, the Wakefield Lodge visited Winchester and took home the prize to the tune of 10.5 to 4.5. The Winchester brothers were overmatched in everything but the bridge; where, once again, our team came through on top 3 to 0. The Wakefield bowling team, which has been together for the past eight years, rolled a total pinfall of 1571 to 1468 for Winchester.

The next tournament will be at Medford on Tuesday, November 9.

LINCOLN-MYSTIC CHILDREN HEAR WORLD TRAVELER

Mrs. Sarah Fletcher of Kennebunk, Maine, was the speaker at a joint assembly of the Lincoln, Washington, and Mystic Schools at the Lincoln Auditorium last Thursday.

Pupils of third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grades of Mystic and Lincoln schools, and the sixth grade of Washington school listened with awe as Mrs. Fletcher told of her round-the-world adventures. Especially interesting were Mrs. Fletcher's movies of a lion hunt, the wedding procession of the King of Persia, a Trip Down the Nile, and Into the Land of Pygmies and Giants.

Mrs. Fletcher, who is the proprietress of the Blue Way Gift Shop in Kennebunk, while in Winchester was the guest of Miss Marguerite Asher, principal of the Lincoln and Mystic schools.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS HAD FALL SPORTS DANCE

Pepped by their football team's fine victory over previously undefeated Framingham during the afternoon, Winchester High School students gathered at the school gymnasium last Saturday evening for their annual Fall Sports Dance.

The gym was attractively decorated with multi-colored streamers extending from all sides of the hall to the central rings, from which were suspended lights giving off a reddish glow. Basketball goals were decorated with streamers and colored leaves, and there was also a decorated coke bar that was very popular.

The "Harmonizers," high school tooters, including Fred Walsh, Ted Cole, Don Ducharme, Butch Anderson, Dave Hutchins, Johnny Hammond, John Erhard and Gus Baldacci, played for the dancing, and the patrons and patronesses, headed by Athletic Director and Mrs. Henry T. Knowlton and Miss Helen Jay Carroll, Physical Director and Coach of Girls, included Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quine, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fitts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morse, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hartley Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. John Gorczynski.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Lynn Aitkens, Nancy O'Bourke, Ted Cole, Fred Walsh, Fay Zamanakos, Dottie Buracker, Marge Carroll, Dini and Jan Meacham, Pete Dillingham and Bob Morris.

DAVID BARNETT, PIANIST, IN WINCHESTER

At the second of the Winchester Mornings of Diversion the Winchester Wellesley Club presented David Bartnett, pianist, who gave a concert with comments. Mrs. Arthur T. Rodge, president of the club, introduced Mr. Bartnett with particular pleasure since he is a member of the faculty at Wellesley College. He is a musician of note who has appeared as soloist with the Paris, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Manhattan, and Newark symphony orchestras and in his own recitals in Town Hall and Carnegie Hall. Mr. Bartnett played delightfully and his Winchester concert had as its theme music in everyday life. He made the point that appreciation of music grows with understanding of its context, background, style, and meaning.

Wellesley Club members again greeted their friends at coffee before the concert, and pourers were Mrs. Frederic E. Abbe and Mrs. Parker Heath. This coffee hour has come to be a pleasant part of the Winchester Mornings of Diversion.

The third and last of the mornings will be on Friday, November 12, when Dr. Jerome Seymour Bruner of Harvard will speak. His subject is "Public Opinion, Private Experience, and the Fresh Eye". Dr. Bruner has done important work in the field of propaganda and studies of public opinion.

Don't forget to Vote, November 2, Tuesday. Polls open 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. Vote Early.

HANDICRAFTS AT FAIR NOVEMBER 17

At "The Country Fair," November 17, the Handicraft and Gift Nook will hold special appeal to shoppers, with hand-made articles, hand-loomed linens, bags of all kinds, and fine crafts. The Stewarts of Rockport, formerly of this town, will bring their small loom to the Fair to weave placements and linens, all of which will be on sale to swell the Fair's fund.

The Handicrafts and Gift Table is always an interesting one, with gifts from small mittens to fine linen table settings, painted match boxes to imported bags. Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge is chairman of the table, with Mrs. Frank H. Knight, co-chairman, assisted by Mesdames Charles H. Tozier, George Budd, Clinton W. Bennett, Harold F. French, Harry S. Parsons, George B. Hayward, Henry W. Isaman, William L. Martin, Denton W. Randall, Harold Bates, J. Harper Blaisdell, George S. Hebb, J. H. O'Connor, Paul Nason, Maude Wolloff, Carolyn Gilpatrick, Joseph W. Butler, Cutler B. Downer, T. Parker Clarke, Benjamin T. Morgan, Edith Moore, Theodore Messer, James Newman, William Goodhue and Miss Emma Boardman.

"ROBIN HOOD FOR THANKSGIVING TIME"

With Halloween passing by and Thanksgiving coming into view, thoughts of the younger group are turning to Thanksgiving recess time and a highlight for that weekend, the visit of the Tributary Children's Theatre group on Saturday, November 27, when they are bringing to the Winchester High School Auditorium their highly successful and colorful production of "Robin Hood." Radcliffe alumnae are presenting this opportunity as a benefit for their 70th Anniversary Fund, and there is a large group of them at work on the project. Chairman of the group is Miss Alice Main of Herrick street. Mrs. William F. Morton of Arlington street is in charge of tickets, assisted by Mrs. Theodore C. Browne, Calumet road, and Mrs. A. Allen Kimball, Cabot street. Mrs. G. Barnum Redding of Cranston road is in charge of ticket sales in nearby towns and she is assisted by Mrs. Lynwood Bryant of Lawson road. Mrs. Arthur Hills of Ledyard road is planning the program, and Miss Natalie Jewett of Calumet road and Mrs. William G. Morse of Cottage avenue have been in charge of patronesses.

NEW "HOBBY HORSES" FOR GROWN-UPS TO RIDE

On Tuesday morning, October 26, a group of ladies approached the Hobby Center laden with standards, frames and boxes of unknown contents. They had come to learn the art of rug-hooking under the very capable guidance of Mrs. John W. Johnson who certainly needs no introduction to Winchester. Among those rug-hookers with an eager look in their eyes were Mrs. R. Darrell Harvey, Mrs. R. J. Fagan, Mrs. Robert Cummins, Mrs. Howard Hughes, Mrs. Samuel Ginsberg, Mrs. Harry W. Murdock and Mrs. Bernard L. Chapin.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, a second group of hobbyists met at the Center to discuss their furniture decorating interests with Mr. George McLean, another talented Winchester craftsman. Mr. McLean maintains a summer studio and shop at Essex, Mass., where he also instructs in decorating furniture and painting trays. This group will meet each Wednesday evening for ten weeks at the Hobby Center. Scheduled for next Tuesday evening, November 2 is a tray painting class also under the direction of Mr. McLean.

The Hobby Center plans to have a fairly extensive adult schedule during the fall and winter. Those in prospect are photography, fingerpainting, wood-carving, sketching, pottery and sculpture. Make your interests known to Mrs. Moulding, WInchester 6-2231-M as we can only judge potential popularity of a course by your response.

CLARE TREE MAJOR PLAYERS TO PRESENT "TOBY TYLER"

Next Monday, the children will be most excited to see the first play sponsored by the Mystic School and presented by the Clare Tree Major players . . . "Toby Tyler, or Ten Weeks with a Circus". We are excited too, for we want to see the live monkey and re-live the book we loved as children ourselves. Mrs. W. Campbell Ross wishes, at this time, to thank her entire Ways and Means Committee for their efforts in putting this series of plays over the top: Co-chairman, Mrs. Stephen Nichols; tickets, Mrs. Sears Walker and her committee of . . . Mrs. Ernest Wright, Mrs. Eugene Newell, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Clifton Keane, Mrs. John S. Morgan, Mrs. Warren Eldridge, Mrs. Millet, and Mrs. Robert Lowe; Ushers, Mrs. Charles Hart and her helpers Mrs. Robert Tonon, Mrs. Everett Tisdale, Mrs. Burton Miller, Mrs. Henry Dellicker, Mrs. William Davies; and Publicity, Mrs. James K. McElroy and Mrs. William Davies.

CULLEN CAMPAIGN

James A. Cullen of Winchester has a good chance to be elected county commissioner of Middlesex county, with the aid of some of the top Republican leaders in spite of the fact that he is enrolled as a Democrat. An honor student of Winchester High School and a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Mr. Cullen was elected to the Winchester Board of Selectmen for four years and served as its chairman. Married and the father of six children, he is one of the largest taxpayers in the Republican town. - Wilton Vaughn in Boston Port.

JUNIOR HIGH OPEN HOUSE MOST SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Despite the rain and wind of Monday night more than 200 parents of Junior High School pupils attended Open House and enjoyed a typical school day. Mr. Raymond Dickman, Principal of the school, arranged the fine program. Each parent had a definite schedule to follow giving the time of class, subject, and room number. The classes were arranged for ten-minute periods starting at 7:30 and ending at 9. Each teacher gave an informal talk outlining the program of study and teaching methods. Many questions were asked and the teachers willing answered them.

Mrs. Robert Johnston, chairman of Ways and Means, and Mrs. Edward Simpson, treasurer, of the Association ably handled the dues and voluntary contributions to the Scholarship Fund.

Under the able direction of Vice President Mrs. Ralph Jope, the school representatives acted as ushers and quickly righted and "lost" parent. They really knew all the answers. This committee consisted of:

Mrs. Ralph Meigs, Lincoln
Mrs. Harry Whiton, Mystic
Mrs. Stanley Lewis, Noonan
Mrs. Kenneth Marshall, Washinton
Mrs. Harold Brown, Wyman

Let's not forget the refreshment committee who served delicious cider and doughnuts in the gymnasium where, after school, the teachers and parents gathered for an informal chat. This committee consisted of Mrs. Vincent Scanlon, Chairman, Mrs. Joseph Beck, Mrs. Joseph Donnell, Mrs. William Kelly, Mrs. Carl Morse, Mrs. Ralph Swan and Mrs. Charles Wilson.

Mrs. Victor Moses, President of the Winchester Junior High School Associates, wishes to take this opportunity to thank the parents for their generous contributions to the Scholarship Fund.

WATER DEPARTMENT EMPLOYEES MET

Last week the employees of the Water and Sewer Department held a get-together meeting with the new superintendent of the department, James D. Halwartz, at the shop on Lake street.

In addition to their congratulations and best wishes, the employees presented to Mr. Halwartz as a token of loyalty and good will a Philco radio for his den in his new residence on Reservoir street.

THE PAST

Thirty years ago, Massachusetts adopted the People's Law—the Initiative and Referendum—to give voice and power to the will of the people. It was opposed by banks and utilities as a threat to their rights.

THE PRESENT

Today, virtually the same wealthy interests who once battled the People's Law are using it to sponsor three Anti-Labor Referenda urging State control of a minority.

REFERENDUM 5 would banish all forms of union security, including the closed shop which began in England 1200 years ago. This referendum would deprive workers of union shop and maintenance of membership and impose jail penalties.

REFERENDUM 6 requires annual election of union officers and imposes restrictions on nominations . . . deprives unions of a right—now held by political, veteran and fraternal groups— to authorize delegates to elect officers of State-wide organizations . . . imposes jail penalties.

REFERENDUM 7 requires that a strike may be called only by vote of majority of eligible workers—not majority of those voting—contrary to our democratic local, State and national elections . . . practical effect of law would be for unions to arm representatives with strike vote before negotiations . . . imposes jail penalties.

THE FUTURE

Tomorrow, what church, bank, business association, grange, fraternal organization or white collar group will be the target of powerful interests?

DON'T ALLOW THE PEOPLE'S LAW TO BE USED AGAINST ANY MINORITY
WE ALL BELONG TO MINORITIES!

PATENT GRANTED EDWARD WEBER

On October 5, 1948, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,450,773 on "Dyeing of Wool with Indigo Dyestuffs" to Edward Weber, Winchester, Mass.

The dyeing of animal fibers, such as wool, with indigo, presents a number of difficulties which ordinarily are not encountered in the dyeing of cotton or other vegetable fibers. For example, because of the chemical nature of the animal fibers, it is necessary to avoid the use of strongly alkaline dye liquors.

Accordingly it has been the practice to dye woolen stock, yarns, piece goods and the like in a weekly alkaline vat containing a "leuco compound" of the dyeing liquor, a water solution of sodium hydrosulphite, and a weak alkali, such as sodium carbonate. A "leuco compound" is a reduced form of the dyestuff, which has a marked affinity for fibers and is readily converted into the dye again by the action of an exhausting agent such as acetic or hydrochloric acid.

According to Mr. Weber, while the possibility of exhausting the dye by means of such cheap and readily available salts as sodium sulphate (glauber's salt) or sodium chloride (common salt) has been considered, it heretofore has been rejected as unsuitable in view of the fact that these materials are neutral salts. In other words, prior to this invention, it was considered necessary to use acidic substances for this purpose.

Thus, Mr. Weber has discovered a means for using the above-mentioned inexpensive salts, and it is claimed that his process, as compared to the prior methods, results in dyeings which are of equal or greater color strength without the sacrifice of such important qualities as uniformity, degree of penetration, and ability to withstand rubbing.

This patent has been assigned to the Allied Chemical and Dye Corporation, New York, N. Y.

THE FORTNIGHTLY - NOTES

Literature Group

Miss Eva M. Sherman, chairman of the Literature Committee of The Fortnightly, announces the topic for the coming season as "Representative British Writers of the First Quarter of the Twentieth Century." The Literature Group meets on the first Monday of each month at the Winchester Public Library, at 2 o'clock, beginning November 1, 1948, through April 4, 1949. At the opening meeting on Monday, November 1, Miss Gertrude M. Hall will present a paper on the subject, "Intellectual and Social Ideas of the Early Twentieth Century." It has been said that in order to appreciate and enjoy more fully the present mode of living, one must have knowledge of the past. The topic, covering such authors as the poet, Rudyard Kipling, prose writers, John Galsworthy, George Bernard Shaw and others equally well known, promises a varied and interesting program. Open discussion follows the presentation of each paper. All members of The Fortnightly are welcome.

"Hawaiian Horizons"

The Monday afternoon meeting was well attended and those present forgot the driving storm outside as they enjoyed beautiful pictures of Hawaiia, shown by Patty Atwood. Mrs. Atwood's enthusiastic comments made her experience very real to her audience.

Miss Louise Bancroft announced the American Home and Preservation of Antiques Conference at Milton, on November 1, at 10:00 a. m. Members are also reminded of the Club Institute on November 4, at the Y. W. C. A. in Boston. Mrs. Warren C. Whitman discussed the referenda on the November ballot. Mrs. Frank H. Knight and Mrs. C. M. Jenkins conducted a very successful food sale for the benefit of the philanthropy fund. They were assisted by Mrs. H. E. Moore, Mrs. H. G. Bigelow, Mrs. G. W. French, Miss Louise Bancroft, Mrs. T. P. Clarke, Mrs. S. D. Howe, Mrs. T. T. Greenwood, Mrs. Amasa Harrington, Mrs. L. P. Leathers, Mrs. K. W. Lamprey, Mrs. J. B. Wills. The committee is most appreciative of the generous contributions of members of The Fortnightly.

ROTARY NEWS

This week the Rotary Club was again privileged to hear a stirring speech by Wade Grindle to the two new members who were welcomed into the club. It seems that no matter how often this ritual comes up Wade finds something of value to say not only to the new members but also to the club as a whole. The newest members this week were Chandler Symmes and Abbott Bradlee, who were so heartily welcomed into membership by Wade and the entire club. Oddly enough it developed later that both Wade and Chandler had birthdays last week and under the guidance of John Wallace appropriate celebration of this awe-inspiring event was held.

Makeups this week were fewer because, as this column noted last week there is a satisfactory increase in our town attendance. Credit must be given, however, to Gordon Bird and Harry Bigelow for making up in Arlington and Forbes Norris got on the wrong train and had to makeup in Richmond, Indiana instead of Virginia where he was headed. A rather cryptic card was received from Poland Springs House in Maine signed by Don Simonds and Charlie Murphy in which it was inferred that there were many things to write about were this a Walter Winchell Column

After the usual business announcements by the President Don and several short reports by committee members Forbes Norris, head of the International Com., gave a fine talk on United Nations. This being United Nations week he urged all to observe not only this week but all weeks to come by encouragement of this great ideal rather than our usual disparagement. Seeking to present a formula that would aid us in our thoughts and deeds to this end Forbes very sincerely and clearly stated the principals that have motivated all peoples when seeking freedom from oppression. He reminded us that this is not the first nor the last attempt to gain this Utopia and that it was up to us as individuals to see that this United Nations organization received our active support and encouragement.

The program this week was very ably presented by Gordon Bird by means of an illustrated lecture on what the great oil companies are doing to ease the oil shortages. By way of explanation it was pointed out that we are now using much more oil for all purposes than we did in the peak year of the war. That the oil companies combined research and efforts are all bent towards easing this shortage was shown clearly in this lecture. Our thanks to Gordon for his able and instructive presentation of this problem that has worried us all in one way or another.

THE EIGHT O'CLOCK CLUB

The Eight O'clock Club of the First Baptist Church, Winchester, will hold a home cooked Covered Dish Supper and Dance for members and their husbands, in the Social Hall, Friday, November 5th at 7:00 p. m. Mrs. Donald MacArthur is chairman of the supper committee.

TROOP 12 NEWS

Greet New Chaplain—To Hold Halloween Party

At the regular weekly meeting on Thursday, October 21st, Troop 12 welcomed Rev. Fr. Francis O'Neil, formerly of Sacred Heart Parish, Medford, who has succeeded Rev. Fr. Robert Supple, now stationed at St. Thomas, Nahant. Fr. O'Neil chose as his introductory talk to the Troop the fifth scout law: "A Scout is Courteous", stressing that the Troop should always show courtesy and especially to their Scoutmasters, Committeemen and to their Chaplain who are trying hard to help the boys get perhaps the first leaning towards a vocation in life and leadership qualities. Fr. O'Neil was warmly received and was accompanied to the Scouting room by Rev. Fr. Thomas Sennott Spiritual Director of the Holy Name Society who are the Sponsors of the Youth of the Parish. Final plans were made for the Halloween party scheduled for our next meeting. It is the boys' own party, they having arraigned to bring their own victuals and contributing financially in good Scouting manner. Scouts are taught to be resourceful and Troop 12 is aiming towards this. An Investiture Ceremony of new scouts is scheduled for the same evening with the starting time at 7:00 p. m. and proceedings coming to a halt at 10:00 p. m. the latest. Walter Barstow has been appointed Patrol Leader of the Panther Patrol with Joseph Weiss appointed Asst. Patrol Leader. Scoutmaster Norm Doucette has prepared a new Patrol Monthly Point Contest Layout for the Troop with the added incentive of an Individual one also. This will keep the Scouts on the "go" to gain points both for their patrol and for themselves. Prizes will be awarded like last year. The Committee will mimeograph the conditions of the contest and distribute a copy to each scout. A brief meeting of Patrol Leaders was held after the meeting with the Scoutmaster and Committee on tap. The troop is very grateful to their Pastor, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan for having the Scouting Room painted this past summer. Present for the Committee were Scoutmaster Doucette, Fr. O'Neil, Mr. Washburn and Mr. Erhard.

"A WORKING FAITH"

Mr. Chapman's Sermon

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister of the Winchester Unitarian Church, will preach the final sermon in the series "Living in Today's World," on Sunday, morning, October 31, at the 11:00 a. m. service on the subject, "A Working Faith." The full choir will sing under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham, Organist and Music Director of the Church.

ON COMMITTEE FOR HAYES CONCERT

Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson of Chesterford road is a member of the committee in charge of the concert to be given by Roland Hayes, world-renowned tenor, at Symphony Hall on Sunday evening, November 14, under the auspices of the Protestant Guild for the Blind. Mr. Hayes will sing for the first time in Boston his own sequence, "The Life of Christ", told in Aframerican religious folksong, and also a classical group, including Handel's "Total Eclipse" from "Samson".

The Commonwealth's First Lady, Mrs. Robert Bradford, is honorary chairman of the concert committee, and a long list of distinguished sponsors includes many prominent members of the protestant clergy and others well known in Greater Boston civic and social circles.

The Protestant Guild for the Blind is headed by the Rev. Frederic C. Lawrence, son of the late Bishop Lawrence, and was founded to meet the spiritual needs of some 3,000 protestant blind in Massachusetts. It cooperates with and supplements the work of the State organizations; provides religious education at Perkins Institute; and provides volunteer readers, guides and friendly service. It also conducts for the adult blind a rapidly growing number of chapters to encourage Christian fellowship, hope and strength.

STUDIO GUILD INVITATION

This year the members of the Studio Guild plan to have a succession of informal exhibits of members' work, which will hang on the walls of the Studio for several weeks each.

The current exhibit is by Dorothy Dey Howard and includes most of the pictures shown by her this summer in New London, N. H.

On Saturday, October 30 (tomorrow), the Studio will open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and Mrs. Howard will be glad to welcome any friends who care to drop in very informally to see the pictures.

Notice of the November exhibit will appear later.

SCHOOLS' AMERICANIZATION PROGRAM, NOVEMBER 1

For several years, our public school system has sponsored an Americanization center. This program will start again on November 1 and will meet on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights of each week from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Miss Ethel Quinn is the well qualified teacher and has had charge of this program for several years.

All people who are interested in attending these classes, should plan to enroll as early as possible at the Lincoln School.

ST. MARY'S H. N. S. HELD MEMBERSHIP MEETING

On Wednesday evening, October 20th the Officers and Committeemen and Spiritual Director of St. Mary's Holy Name Society held an important meeting. The Committeemen who were invited were the "Membership Committeemen" not the entire roster of the Society's leaders. Present were the following: Spiritual Director Fr. Sennot and officers Erhard, Croughwell, Johnson, Kinton with Gen. Chairman Murphy and the various Precinct chairmen: Precinct 1, Bennett; Prect. 2, Farrar; Prect. 3, Finn; Prect. 4, Cox; Prect. 5, McManus (unable to be present) Prect. 6, Connolly. Program Director Ralph Ambrose was present and outlined a fine "Speaking" program for the year. For October we had Rev. Fr. Harney of Boston College who gave a fine historical address to the Society; For November's meeting we will have a lay speaker namely: Mr. Edward Powers who is Manager of Boston Garden; For December we will have Monsignor Minnehan, State Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus. This meeting will be the Annual Fathers'-Daughters' Communion Breakfast but includes all the members of the H. N. S. of course. Our January meeting will have a Sports Figure for its highlight perhaps Denny Myers of Boston College the well known Coach of Football. In February the speaker will be Fr. Charles McInnis, headmaster of St. Sebastian's Country Day School in Newton. This meeting will also be the Fathers'-Sons' Communion Breakfast Sunday with all members expected to come as in the Fathers'-Daughters' case. March has another lay speaker in the person of Mr. Thomas McGowan of Woburn, Lawyer, Librarian and very interesting speaker. Fr. Monahan of the Archconfraternity of Christian Doctrine will speak at the April Meeting, with Fr. Robert Sennott the speaker in May. This program will be supplemented by the expected extra visit of Rev. Fr. Joseph Robinson, who is a gifted orator and is currently State Prison Chaplain at Charlestown. The Precinct Chairmen will enlist the aid of several members in their precincts to contact all inactive members to urge them to become active in the Society. Personal Contact will be emphasized over the next few weeks so that our "members booklet" will be complete.

William A. Kugler, '51, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kugler, 26 Winslow road, has been placed on the Honor Roll at Wesleyan University. Kugler was graduated from The Loomis School, Windsor, Conn.

What makes a telephone building work?

First and most important, people make it work. But, by the time a new building—or addition—is completed, we've gone less than half way in providing what it takes (exclusive of people) to bring good service to an area.

For it's typical of the telephone business that the equipment going into a building calls for more planning, more work—and costs more—than the building itself.

In Greater Boston we have installed new manual or dial equipment in practically all of the 39 central office buildings, and have built additions at 16 of them. Over all, it's by far the biggest expansion job we've undertaken. And such construction is not financed by money paid to us by customers for telephone service. The money must come from investors who buy our securities.

★ ★ ★

IN WINCHESTER there are now 1400 more telephones than before the war, and 3200 more calls being made daily. To provide for this increased telephone usage we have installed additional equipment in our Winchester Central Office. This, plus whatever additions that may be necessary in the future, will result in telephone service that will serve WINCHESTER'S increased demands better than at any previous time. But, since the new equipment will be used primarily to provide service for those who do not now have it, it may still be some time before we can provide for changes in types of service.

"SPOOKS AT WINCHESTER DAY SCHOOL

Goblins will be a-hobblin' around the Winchester Country Day School this Saturday afternoon when three large black cats will be hostesses to a strange assemblage of small sized Halloween creatures and spirits abroad for their seasonal spree. The cats are Mrs. Walter Ennis, Jr., director, and Mrs. Lewis Hennigar and Miss Marjory Hill, teachers at the school; and the diminutive ghosts, bats, witches, owls, and pumpkins come to life and guests for that day are the three and four-year-old pupils at the school, along with their small brothers and sisters invited for the party. Mothers and fathers will be present in more recognizable form.

The feline hostesses will hold their celebration against a background transformed for the day by numerous black and orange paper Halloween characters, many made by the pupils themselves, and by some remarkable jack-o-lanterns whose awesome expressions are also the handiwork of the guests.

A costume parade will acquaint the little merrymakers with each other's masquerade, after which all the spirits will join in a treasure hunt, in bobbing for apples on a string, and in pinning the mouth on a large and agreeable paper jack-o-lantern. Then after an appropriate repast of sandwich cats, bats, owls, and some cocoa, ice cream, cake, and cookies, the small but wicked spooks will disperse into the night and Winchester householders had best bar their doors tight!

TROOP 6 NEWS

On Saturday night, October 16, Troop 6 of the Unitarian Church had a very successful Parent's night, with 50 parents enjoying a delicious dinner in Metcalf Hall put on by the Mrs. Hawkins, Zimmerman, Muncaster, Hooper and Phippen, to whom all thanks are due. The tables were most attractively decorated by Mrs. Davies with an autumn motif in keeping with the season.

Following the dinner, Mr. Davies, chairman of the Troop Committee, introduced Dr. Wolfe, the Scoutmaster and Mr. Hooper, the Assistant Scoutmaster, who gave the parents present an idea of the program to be followed by Troop 6.

Movies of Scouting and camping were enjoyed by those present and a large number of advancement awards were presented by Dr. Wolfe. Due to a shortage of badges at headquarters, Jimmie Daschbach's Quartermaster's emblem did not come through in time for awarding at Parents' Night, but Troop 6 has every confidence that Jimmie will make a swell Quartermaster.

Several of the patrols put on skits which were very well done and enjoyed by all. Signalling, fire with flint and steel and first aid were demonstrated and the scouts also explained fire fighting methods, rescue methods and other very useful skills which go with scouting.

The various patrol exhibits shouldn't go unmentioned because they showed the parents how the boys occupy their time in useful pursuits instead of on less constructive projects. They were very well done and represented a lot of time and work.

Troop 6 launched its 1948-1949 camping season with a three-day trip to Camp Lane in Burlington last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. This trip was led by Mr. Hooper and Fred Burtt. The whole time was spent in tents, as the large shelter with its fine fireplace lost its roof by snow last winter. Even Sunday's rain couldn't dampen the ardor of the boys enough to make them leave before afternoon.

All the patrols participated. They were the Flaming Arrow with Henry Hooper, Sandy McElroy, Pete Sharon, Earl Carrier and Doug Hawkins; the Rattlesnake with Nea. Muncaster, Ricky Phippen, John Becker and Ethan Moore; the Lion with Bill Davies, John Mooers and Stephen Dunn and the Pioneer with Stanley Godsoe and John Swazey. It might be said in passing that this last Patrol, the Pioneer, was the only one to make the trip under their own power — on bicycles with all their equipment, in an hour and a half.

It was a well-rounded camping trip and everyone returned with the feeling that he had furthered his camping training.

Shortly after nine o'clock, Saturday morning, a pleased lady came in to the STAR office to report that previous to that time she had twelve replies to an ad she ran in the STAR last Friday. We have always claimed Star advertising pays and this lady agreed. We won't guarantee to get you a four-room apartment near schools and churches for $40 a month, but try a STAR ad. We think you'll be pleased, too!

SUBJECT OF MOMENTOUS INTEREST!

The coming lecture by Arthur Schlesinger Jr., "A Report on the Marshall Plan", is attracting an enthusiastic response. His subject is of momentous interest, and Mr. Schlesinger is eminently qualified to give an eye-witness account of the European Recovery program in operation, having recently returned from a special mission to Europe as assistant to W. Averell Harriman.

It is interesting to those who are familiar with the work of Mr. Schlesinger's father, Arthur Schlesinger, Sr., that Harvard's history department boasts two Schlesingers. Both are making a contribution to better understanding between the United States and the European Democracies. Arthur Schlesinger, Sr., is in Holland this year teaching American history at the University of Leyden. It is the first course in American history ever to be presented at a European University, except in Great Britain. Readers of Life Magazine may have seen his picture and an article on "The U. S. Presidents" in the issue of November 1st. Arthur M. Jr., is also a frequent contributor to national magazines; however he is best known for his "Age of Jackson", which has established him as a provocative and original thinker and scholar.

Among the early subscribers to the lecture are Mrs. Mabel Barrows, Mrs. Daniel R. Beggs, Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, Mrs. Reginald Bradlee, Mrs. Theodore Browne, Mrs. Howard Chidley, Mrs. John Chipman, Mrs. Daniel Dennett, Mrs. Robert Drake, Mrs. Lawrence Hawkins, Mrs. Gerald Hills, Mrs. William Kugler, Mrs. Guy Livingstone, Mrs. Harrison Lyman, Miss Corinne Mead, Mrs. George Nardin, Mrs. Shepard Pond, Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. Ben Schneider, Miss Helen Smiley, Mrs. William Spaulding, Mrs. Henry K. Spencer, Mrs. Bowen Tufts, Mrs. James B. Willing and Mrs. Joseph Worthen.

Others are Mrs. James Allen, Mrs. Edward Cusack, Mrs. John Graves, Mrs. Charles Greene, Mrs. J. G. Jiminez, Mrs. E. C. Jolly, Mrs. Murray Moore, Mrs. Rowland Patrick, Mrs. Wilbert Underwood, Mrs. John W. White, Mrs. Henry Worcester and Mrs. Richard Wyman.

Mr. Schlesinger is to speak at Wyman School Auditorium on November 11th at 8:15. For tickets call Mrs. Waldo Lyon, WInchester 6-2246 or contact any members of the League of Women Voters.

Wickwire, became the bride of Allan Campbell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Campbell of West Roxbury. Dr. Howard J. Chidley, pastor of the church, read the 8 o'clock ceremony in a setting of ferns with white carnations and chrysanthemums. J. Albert Wilson, church organist and choirmaster, played the bridal music.

The bride wore a hoopskirted gown of ivory brocade with a lace-trimmed neckline caught by an heirloom cameo brooch and an ivory lace cap wreathed with orange blossoms. Matching lace mitts completed her costume and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, shattered carnations and babies' breath tied with ivory ribbons.

JAMES A. CULLEN

ELECTED COUNTY COMMISSIONER

"Jimmy" Cullen, who consistently has been unable to get himself elected a precinct member of the limited town meeting in his own home town, went into the highways and byways of Middlesex County this year and won election to the Board of County Commissioners by the flattering advantage of 20,000 votes over the former Mayor Childs of Newton. The only Democrat in the three cornered fight for two vacancies on the Board, he wasn't given even an outside chance of election as late as last week by most of the "experts", but his persistence and hard work plus the magic "Democratic" designation paid off and "Jimmy" is indulging in a long last laugh!

Mr. Cullen, who makes his home in the old Fernald House at 82 Bacon street, is a contractor, a graduate of Winchester High School and of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has served the town as Selectman and chairman of the Board, and in 1946 was an unsuccessful candidate for the State Senate, opposing the Winchester incumbent Harris S. Richardson. His new job pays about $5,000 a year.

WILLIAM FREDERIC EDELFSON

William Frederic Edelfson, of 36 Cabot street, retired Boston banker and long time resident of Winchester, died Wednesday morning, November 3, at the Winchester Hospital after a short illness. He was the son of Henry and Helen Frances (Glines) Edlefson, his father, an officer in the Union Army, having lost his life during the Civil War.

Mr. Edelfson was born in 1864 in Charlestown, but spent his boyhood in Somerville, attending the Somerville schools and graduating from Somerville High School. His first position was with the old Blackstone Bank in Boston as a messenger boy, and he went from there to the Elliott National Bank, where he became cashier.

When the Elliott Bank consolidated with the First National Bank of Boston, Mr. Edlefson was one of the Elliott staff to join the First National, which he served for fifty years until his retirement as assistant cashier.

He was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of Soley Lodge of Somerville and of the Knights Templar in Boston. In Winchester he was one of the early members of the Winchester Country Club and was also a member of the old Calumet Club. He had made the town his home for half a century.

Mr. Edlefson leaves a daughter, Helen Edelfson Barr of Oklahoma City; a grandson, Robert Cooper Barr of Constantine, Mich.; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

WINCHESTER FOR DEWEY AND BRADFORD

Town Casts Record Vote, Against Liquor and Repeal of Closed Shop. For Birth Control.

Winchester at least, made the pollsters look good by casting a better than two to one vote for the Republican Presidential nominees, Governor Dewey of New York and Governor Warren of California on Tuesday and showing a preference only slightlly smaller for Republican Governor Robert A. Bradford of Massachusetts over the successful Democratic nominee, Paul A. Dever. The town cast a record vote of 8,383 ballots, largest in its history, and the preference all the way through was preponderantly Republican. Even its former chairman of Selectmen, James A. Cullen, candidate for County Commissioner, ran slightly more than one thousand votes behind the lower of his two Republic an opponents.

Winchester's vote represented better than 91 percent of the town's voting list of 9,185 registered voters. At 9:30 in the morning 1,930 votes had been cast, a big vote for such an early hour, and at 2 in the afternoon the 4,510 total was well ahead of previous figures for that time. Between 3:15 and 6 o'clock a total of 2,796 votes was cast, bringing the number at that time to 7,854. The town received 383 of its 426 Absent Voter ballots in time to count in the election.

First precinct to report was Precinct 5 under the veteran Fred H. Scholl. Its vote came in at 10:09 p. m. Last Precinct in, Precinct 6, came in at 1:50 Wednesday morning, and the town's totals were proved and available at 2:55. Town Clerk Mabel W. Stimson and Assistant Town Clerk Helen Stinson called it a day at 3:30 and stumbled off home for a few hours sleep.

Aside from the heavy vote there was nothing especially unusual about the election, except for the fact that the time-honored custom of men removing their hats in the town hall during the voting seemed to be slipping slightly. The Winchester Mt. Holyoke Club had a booth for hot coffee and sandwiches outside the entrance of the town hall, staying on the job until 8 o'clock in the evening.

Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers polled the highest vote in Winchester, running unopposed for re-election in the Fifth Congressional District. Mrs. Rogers, always a favorite here, polled 7,225 votes with Winchester's own unopposed Representative Harrison Chadwick receiving 6,797 for second place. Senator Leverett Saltonstall and State Senator Harris Richardson each polled 6,022 votes, some five hundred votes less than the total polled by the unopposed Charles P. Howard, candidate for County Treasurer.

Dewey and Warren polled 5,621 to 2,521 for President Truman and Barkley. Governor Bradford led Dever, 5,370 to 2,850.

Winchester voted "yes" on all the referenda with the exception of the proposal to ban the "closed" union shop. This question was rejected by the rather close vote of 3,438 in favor and 3,854 opposed. The vote on the controversial "birth control" referendum was 4,593 in favor and 3,290 opposed. The town was all for limiting the time a President may serve the nation, 5,327 favoring a limit of two elections with 1,617 opposed.

Of special interest to all Emerson College alumni is the meeting of the Emerson College Club of Boston on Wednesday evening, November 10, at 8 p. m., in the Emerson College Theatre at which Mr. D. William Quint, well-known Boston florist, will give a lecture-demonstration on "Art in Flower Arrangement".

LUNCHEON, TEA AT FAIR NOVEMBER 17

A chicken-dish luncheon for adults at noon time, and a tempting macaroni-cheese casserole luncheon especially for the children, plus afternoon tea and a morning coffee bar, will provide ample "eatin' pleasure" at The Country Fair, First Congregational Church, Wednesday, November 17. The Fair opens at 10 a. m. and will extend through the supper, entertainment, and "late shopping".

Speaking of lunches, those dining in the large Parish Hall at noon on the 17th, will receive the biggest food value for .75c that is possible anywhere today - for Mrs. Vera McKenzie and her able committee have put great skill and planning into the menu. A chicken dish, delicious salad, coffee, dessert, will afford ample servings of home-cooked food.

Assisting Mrs. McKenzie are Mesdames Marion Clarke, Dana Sawyer, Allan R. Cunningham, William Lovejoy, E. Ober Pride, Percy Bugbee, Harry Tolman and Mrs. Phippen.

The Children's luncheon, macaroni-cheese casserole, sliced tomatoes, bread and butter, chocolate milk, ice cream sandwiches, will be served at noon in the kindergarten room by Mrs. Charles Lewis and her committee, and will give healthy youngsters plenty to eat for .35c. Mothers wishing to attend the Fair, or mothers working at the Fair that day, as well as those who just want their children to have the fun of "lunching out", will find this food program helpful.

Mrs. Lewis is assisted by Mesdames James Robertson, Ralph Smith, Ralph Meigs, K. Foster Cleaves, Albert Razee, Kenneth Goss, George DeCamp, George Saltmarsh, E. E. McKay, Ralph Swan, Charles Vanner, George Gowdy, Reginald Wentworth.

Tea, served with dainty sandwiches and cookies, at .35c, will be served at 3:00 to 5:00 p. m. in the kindergarten room, with Mrs. Wellington Caldwell and Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes, co-chairmen. They are assisted by Mrs. Louis K. Snyder, Mrs. Robert N. Oxford, Miss Maude Mahl, Mrs. Allen O. Eaton, Mrs. George Traut, Mrs. Forrest F. Bursley. Make a "tea date" with a friend - come and have tea at the Country Fair!

During the morning, Mrs. Harrison O. Simpson, chairman, will officiate at the Coffee Bar in the busy Fair midway, assisted by Mesdames Charles F. Brown, A. Aldrich Forward, Gilman Wallace, Benjamin Coe. Coffee, cinnamon toast or doughnuts will be served.

ALLAN WOOD JR., AT GARDEN MEETING

Allan Wood, Jr., noted authority on plants and gardening, and a former resident on Mystic Valley Parkway of Winchester, will speak before the Winchester Home and Garden Club, Wednesday afternoon, November 17, at 2 o'clock in the Art Gallery, Winchester Public Library. Mr. Wood is known to a great many residents here who knew his family and still others know him through his helpful and informal radio broadcasts on the Marjorie Mills program each week. His topic will be "Unusual House Plants and Garden Clinic". A cordial invitation to all who are interested to attend this meeting, and a special invitation to friends of Mr. Wood here, is extended by the Club, through its president, Mrs. Harold Twombly.

FORMER WINCHESTER BOY HERO OF UPSET VICTORY

Henry "Hank" Fry, who a couple of years ago was a reserve back on the Winchester High eleven, was the individual star of Ridgewood, N. J., High School's upset victory over favored Pompton Lakes High, 7-0, on October 23.

Fry, playing fullback for Ridgewood, made the only score of the game when he drove across the Pompton goal line from seven yards out on a savage off tackle slant. "Hank" also kicked in the extra point-after from placement, accounting for all the points of the game. There was some talk of Fry returning to Winchester High this season, but nothing came of it. On the form he showed for Ridgewood against Pompton Lakes he would make a welcome addition to the Red and Black backfield.

Mrs. Florence Nolan who passed away in Cambridge last week was the sister of Mrs. Elizabeth McCaffrey who is employed at the Whitney Laundry on Mt. Vernon street.

WINCHESTER AT BELMONT SATURDAY

Winchester High plays its third in a row away from home Saturday when the Red and Black journeys to Belmont to meet a rugged Belmont team at 2 o'clock. This will probably be the locals' toughest game to date, despite the fact that Framingham beat Belmont, 9-0, and Winchester holds a 19-7 victory over Framingham. Local scouts who saw Belmont lose to Class B Brookline last Saturday, 13-7, brought back the information the Red and Blue is a big powerful, hard-hitting ball team, that really deserved to beat the wealthy towners and well can beat Winchester tomorrow if the locals play as they did last Saturday against Reading.

Winchester probably won't play that sort of ball at Belmont. The locals have never found Belmont any soft touch as of course they should not for Belmont is a much bigger school than "Big Class B" Winchester, the Boston writers' "Powerhouse" team.

A year ago Winchester beat Belmont 18-6 in spite of the visitors' brilliant Vern Whynott, currently playing for Columbia frosh. It would seem that the locals ought to have about as much back as Belmont, and ought not to be worse than an even choice tomorrow.

On the published weights, which probably don't mean too much as far as Belmont is concerned, Winchester has a two pound weight advantage on the line, 181 to 179, and a nine pound advantage in the backfield, if Carroll plays, 161 to 152. With the injured "Skitchy" out of there, Winchester's backfield advantage will drop for Dan Devlin is not as heavy as Carroll. Whether or not the latter will be ready won't be decided much in advance of game time.

Belmont hasn't had such a successful season from the won and lost standpoint. The Red and Blue lost its opener to Weymouth, 7-0, and has yet to win a game, tieing Norwood, 13-13, losing to Framingham, 9-0, playing a scoreless tie with Cambridge Latin, tieing Taunton, 6-6, and losing to Brookline, 13-7.

However, Brookline is a Class A Club, and Weymouth has recently been shoved up into Class A for the same reason Winchester has been upped to B, because its coaching staff has done well with average material.

By and large Belmont plays a tougher schedule than Winchester and as a consequence its record doesn't mean too much as a means of comparing the teams.

The local coaches are expecting a hard game tomorrow, but are by no means selling Winchester short. Winchester beat a pretty fair Belmont team last year and can tomorrow if the boys play ball.

Alert, Hard-Tackling Scarlet Gave Locals Tough Game

Winchester High beat an alert, aggressive, hard-tackling Reading High team at the Parker Junior High field in Reading last Saturday afternoon, 13-0. It wasn't until midway through the final quarter that Winchester's second touchdown made safe a 6-0 lead on which the locals had been riding precariously since the closing minutes of the first half.

Reading was dangerous every minute of the way up to that second score. The Scarlet backs ran well and although the losers completed only two passes their passers, Ahearn, Morris and Reebenacker, were dangerous any time they faded back with their throwing arms cocked. Right up to Winchester's final touchdown march you felt that Reading could throw to, or rush over a touchdown and perhaps win the ballgame, 7-6. Winchester was well below its Framingham edge for Reading, as most close followers of the team expected.

The game was just under way when Ahearn rifled a long pass from the Winchester 38 to left end, Don Murray, on the Winchester 6. Peter Cook tried a sweep around Winchester's left side and was dropped by Dillingham for a ten yard loss. A pass was grounded, Ahearn fumbled and recovered for no gain and a final pass went incomplete in the end zone with Winchester taking over.

The locals couldn't go and following Amico's punt Reading started at its 28 and finally lost on the ball on the final play of the first quarter. "Lally" Myers intercepted an Ahearn aerial at the Winchester 4, the ball being thrown from the 32.

Amico kicked out to his 31 and Reading tried again. Ahearn was spilled for a four yard loss on a running play, a pass from Cook to Murray was knocked down and Dillingham beat a Reading receiver to another pass in the left defensive zone. On fourth down Cook dropped a pretty pass from Ahearn out in the left flank and again Winchester took over.

This time the locals went all the way. With Amico hitting inside and Dillingham outside the tackles Winchester drove from its 35 to the Reading nine, a jump pass from Amico to Captain Slack, good for 12 yards, helping plenty. The key play of the advance was a Winchester gamble on a fourth down rush with Amico making a first down at the locals' 46.

With the ball at the nine Dillingham hit off tackle for three and Amico added two on an inside buck. On third down Dillingham broke over off tackle for the touchdown, but failed to convert at placement.

The locals lost a touchdown at the start of the third quarter when they worked the ball from the kickoff at their 20 to the Reading 20. Here Dillingham on 4th down arched a long pass to Amico all alone at the goal line with "Paulie" squarely muffing the leather.

Reading took over and in two rushes George Morris reached the Winchester 46. Cook in two sweeps reached the 30, but here Amico intercepted a pass and barged his way back to the Reading 46. The locals were called for clipping on the play and the ball went back to the 39. Amico finally had to kick to Reading to start the final quarter, after Myers failed to hold a long Dillingham aerial.

Reading started at its 34. "Skitch" Carroll murdered Reebenacker back on the 30 with a spine-jarring tackle, but on second down Cook got away around Winchester's left flank for 20 yards, reaching midfield. There he was hit hard by Vern Slack and "Lally" Myers, losing the ball with old "Box-car" Galucia Johnny-on-the-sport to recover for Winchester at the Reading 48.

This was the turning point of the game. Dillingham, behind nice blocking whirled to the Reading 31 and from there, with Amico doing the bulk of the carrying the locals drove through the sagging Reading line to the five, a five yard jump-pass from Amico to Myers holding the drive together.

From the Reading five Dillingham drove over off tackle, and this time "Pete" converted by passing to Amico for the extra point. Reading couldn't go after the kickoff, a pretty Reebenacker touchdown pass being dropped by the receiver in the clear. Winchester had driven from its 34 to the Reading 25 when Coach Knowlton sent in the seconds. With Peluso making two pretty carries, one of 14 yards, the seconds got to the 11, but were stalled on the 14 as time ran out. Winchester made 17 first downs and 228 yards by rushing, adding 31 yards on three of six passes completed. The locals lost 25 yards in penalties and fumbled once. Reading made 9 first downs and 108 yards by rushing, completing two of 13 passes for 56 yards. Reading fumbled twice and lost only one five yarder. The summary:

Winchester has every reason to be proud of its young people's conduct on Hallowe'en. Conditions generally in town were very good, and by comparison with many other communities excellent indeed. Parents, school and church authorities share in the credit for this fine record which saw only two street lights broken all over town, and one or two inconsequential fires, no false alarms and no flagrant examples of malicious mischief or hoodlumism reported to the police. Chief Harrold was delighted with the local youngsters' conduct and wishes through the Star to express his own appreciation to Winchester parents for their cooperation in getting home to the youth of the town the desirability of respecting personal property and the rights of others even on Hallowe'en. The Star has from time to time raised its voice at what has seemed to be a growing anti-social tendency on the part of our young people. It is much more pleasant to note indications that the youngsters are headed again toward law and order. This most recent Hallowe'en is all to the young folks' credit. Keep up the good work!

PRAISE FOR WINCHESTER LIBRARY SERVICE

Editor of the Star:

May a native returned to the town of her birth after an absence of years pay tribute to the very remarkable service one finds in our town Library.

I've been a grateful borrower from the Boston Public Library and the Boston athenaeum in years past but never have I had my wants anticipated and my interest met as I am having here in the Winchester Library under the direction of Miss Corinne Mead. This was vividly illustrated Past Saturday Evening.

Entering the library I met Mrs. Erskine and asked her a sixty-four dollar question about some music. Not only was I instantly answered but my research was well directed and books brought which adequately gave me needed information. As I waited to have a book checked off I noticed on the desk a new book on Group Work Techniques that I hadn't seen. In questioning Mrs. Erskine about it she said "Oh yes we have your name down for it - perhaps you are next on the list."

This seemed to me remarkable because not only can one get the books of one's choice but the Librarians are so acquainted with their clientele that they constantly look out for their special interest. We certainly are to be congratulated in having such up to-date service.

Yours truly,
Grace F. Wills,
5 Agawam road.

WINCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL CONTINUES ON THE ACCREDITED LIST OF M. I. T.

Principal Wade L. Grindle recently announced proudly that Winchester High School continues to be an accredited school in the eyes of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

A marked decrease in the number of accredited schools was the result of a recent M. I. T. study of students admitted during the last five years.

Continuance as an accredited school reflects very favorably the excellent record of W. H. S. graduates who have attended M. I. T. during the last five years, as well as the all-time records of W. H. S. graduates at the famous college.

MOTHERS TO ENTERTAIN LINCOLN TEACHERS

Next Wednesday, November 10, the Lincoln School teachers will be entertained by the Lincoln School Mothers' Association at the home of Mrs. Stanley Mullen on Park road. The board members will be there and hope that all will enjoy the luncheon, which is an annual event.

LINCOLN SCHOOL KINDERGARTEN VISITED FARM

The members of the Lincoln School kindergarten were thrilled to visit the home of Miss Winifred Richardson, their teacher, in North Wilmington for a Hallowe'en celebration Wednesday, October 27.

The children were accompanied on the special bus by Miss Richardson and her assistant, Miss Muriel Howard. On arrival at the farm, they were shown the traditional farm subjects. The feature of the visit was the pumpkin which each child received as a present. This interesting trip was thoroughly enjoyed.

MEN'S CLUB

First Congregational Church

The Men's Club of the First Congregational Church will open its series of three meetings on Human Relations Wednesday evening, November 10th, in the Parish House. There will be a panel of speakers who will discuss life under the Soviet and what we can do to help sustain hope and faith in the oppressed peoples of Europe. Mr. R. H. Markham, foreign staff correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor, will introduce the speakers who will be Nicholas Georgescu of Rumania, Gunther Debelius of Germany and George Georgiades of Greece. All of these men have lived under the shadow of Communism and have witnessed the paralyzing destruction of the social and economic structures of their countries and the ruthless suppression of freedom and liberty.

"TEACHERS ON PARADE"

The teachers of all the schools are putting on a show "Teachers on Parade", November 15th at 8:15 p. m. at the High School Auditorium. This title was chosen as a compliment to "Parents on Parade" of three years ago. All proceeds from the show benefit the scholarship fund. Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Alexander Clark at WInchester 6-0989.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris is excellently cast as the master of ceremonies of the evening. Mrs. Ray Hayward is coaching and directing all the skits from all the schools. Mrs. Edward Simpson, formerly of the Washington School is in charge of the costumes and properties of that school.

The orchestra is to be composed of such talented teachers as Miss Helen Goodwin, Miss Eleanor Annafantis, Miss Leonor Rich, Mr. Roland Nault, and Mr. Fred Felmet, Jr.

In India she talked with Mahatma Gandi and in Turkey she was present when the red fez and veiled women began to disappear. She is a member of the governing boards of the Missionary Medical College for Women at Vellore, the Women's Christian College at Madras, and St. Christopher's Training College at Madras. In August 1948, she was a representative of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America at the Assembly of the World Council of Churches held at Amsterdam. NEW HARVARD POST FOR COTTON

Provost Paul H. Buck today announced that Dana M. Cotton, of 5 Oneida road, Director of Placement at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, has been named assistant to the Chairman of the Committee on Admissions in Harvard College.

In this new position, which he will hold in addition to his post as Director of Placement, Mr. Cotton will assist Dr. Richard M. Gunmere in the selection of students for Harvard College.

A graduate of the University of New Hampshire in 1928, Mr. Cotton studied at Columbia and Oxford and received the Ed. M. degree from the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

Since starting his work in education as Head of the Department of Social Studies and Submaster of the Brunswick, Maine, High School, Mr. Cotton has been Director of Guidance at the Winchester, Massachusetts, High School and State Director of Guidance for the Maine State Department of Education. Since 1944 he has been at Harvard.

He is secretary-treasurer of both the N. E. Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the Harvard Teachers Association, and recording secretary of the N. E. School Development Council. Among the educational groups to which he belongs are the National Education Association, American Association of School Administrators, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, American Education Fellowship, Massachusetts Schoolmasters' Club and the Massachusetts Superintendents Round Table.

WINCHESTER COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION

The first concert to be presented by the Community Concert Association for the coming season has just been announced for Sunday evening, November 14th, at 8:30, when the 'cello-piano duo of the Graudans will be heard in the High School auditorium. Though born in the same town in Russia, Joanna and Nikolai Graudan did not meet until each had gone his own way for several years, Joanna as a piano soloist, Nikolai as a cellist of note. Oddly enough the two never met until one summer when both returned to their native town to spend their vacations. During the following season they started giving concerts together and soon were married, touring Europe for several years as a 'cello-piano duo.

In 1938 they came to America, where, after a 'round-the-world trip and a tour of the Dutch East Indies, they continued to appear together as a team with growing success.

The other dates subscribers to the concert series will wish to save are December 15th and March 7 when Mona Paulee and then Whittemore and Lowe will appear.

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:
"Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?" (Isaiah 2:22). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:
"The harmony and immortality of man are intact. We should look away from the opposite supposition that man is created materially, and turn our gaze to the spiritual record of creation, to that which should be engraved on the understanding and heart with the point of a diamond and pen of an angel" (p. 521).

W. H. S. STUDENTS EXPLAINED ELECTORAL COLLEGE

Presenting convincing arguments for and against the electoral college as a means of electing the president of the United States, Richard Cleary and Robert Singer climaxed a meeting of the entire Winchester High School last Friday morning.

Chairman Blair Currie was presented by Principal Wade L. Grindle, who spoke of Blair's excellent record as a leader in the Junior Red Cross, the Thrift Association, and a A student of United States history.

Outlining the points of controversy over the electoral college, Blair then introduced Joan Morgan, Ruth Morse, Richard Cleary, and Robert Singer who told of the history of United States' elections and finally the pros and cons of the electoral college.

Interesting maps and charts clearly indicated the location of the electoral votes and also compared the popular vote, with the electoral votes in such states as New York and Nevada.

NOONAN SCHOOL GUESTS

Mr. Robert Metcalf and Miss Marion Phipps were guests of the sixth grade pupils of the Noonan School on October 28 to see a film entitled "New England Calling". This film was shown in connection with social studies. Mr. Metcalf's father established a fund that provides yearly for the purchase of good literature for our schools. The late Mr. Metcalf's interest in the educational progress of Winchester's children, particularly in literature, is being carried on by his son.

Noonan School boys and girls were very happy to receive a letter from Dr. Forbes H. Norris, commending them on their good record of very few tardy marks. The Noonan School again has first place for punctuality.

Many boys and girls enjoyed the moving picture shown in the auditorium on Friday when schools were not in session. A large attendance was on hand to see the movie, which was sponsored by the Mothers' Association.

SECOND-GRADE TEA GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL

Continuing the series of grade teas, the mothers of the second-grade pupils at the George Washington School met with the teachers at the home of Mrs. Ralph Bonnell on Thursday, October 28. The two room mothers, Mrs. Bonnell and Mrs. Ronald King, were co-hostesses. The mothers had an opportunity to hear short talks by the teachers and Miss Rich and to discuss problems with them. Miss Haley spoke on problems of school behavior; Mrs. Gangi, teacher of the combined first and second grade room, explained the organization of the double-grade classroom; while Miss Rich discussed points to consider in behavior analysis.

The refreshment committee responsible for the delicious tea was composed of Mrs. Gerald Fallows, Mrs. George Hendricks, Mrs. Gunnar Janson, Mrs. Reinhardt Schuhmann, and Mrs. Roderick Thomson. Mrs. Marshall and Mrs Thomson poured at the attractively decorated tea table.

Because of the holiday on November 11, the next grade tea will not be held until November 19.

ALICE DIXON BOND BOOK TALK

At the November book talk sponsored by the Mt. Holyoke Club, Mrs. Bond reviewed three outstanding autobiographical books: "Family Circle", by Cornelia Otis Skinner; "Smile Please", by Topp; and "The Plague and I", by Betty MacDonald. In the field of humorous books she recommended Helen Hokinson's "When Were You Built?" and "Dear Mr. Congressman"; as a gift book, the beautiful "Great Paintings in America". Robert Sherwood's "Roosevelt and Hopkins" presents a great deal of new information on our late president and his "ears, eyes and legs", Harry Hopkins.

Mrs. Bond described the exotic party for Trader Vic, and the interview with the Sitwells of England which she attended in New York.

The Christmas book talk will be at the Library on December seventh.

POLICE AND FIREMEN ASSISTED AT PLANE ACCIDENT

Winchester Police and Firemen assisted at the tragic plane crash which resulted in the death of a young civilian pilot in the woods at the rear of Menchin's Farm off Ridge street over the line in Woburn.

The pilot, Richard P. Rogers, 19 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers of Locust street, Burlington, was thought to have been stunting when the plane, hired from the Air Holiday Inc. Airport, a private field in Bedford, got out of control and crashed, bursting into flames. Rogers was burned beyond recognition.

Charles H. Coulter of 208 Ridge street notified the police of the accident. The police in turn notified the Fire Department, Box 145 being put on from the Station and Engines 2 and 4 and Ladder 1 going to the scene of the accident with Chief James E. Callahan in his car.

Meanwhile Chief Charles J. Harrold of the police department responded in Patrol 53, Patrolman John J. Dolan driving the department's ambulance to the scene, and Sergeant Thomas F. Cassidy responding with Officer James E. Flaherty in Patrol 51. Apparatus and police from Arlington and Woburn also responded, and since the accident was in the latter city, the final handling of the affair was by the Woburn authorities.

DR. PAYSON S. WILD AT COLLEGE CLUB

"Combatting Communism thru Education" is the title of Dr. Payson S. Wild's talk at the annual Fall meeting of the Winchester College Club, Tuesday evening, November 9, at the Church of the Epiphany. He will discuss particularly the report of the President's Commission on Higher Education for Democracy and its implications for educational programs in schools and colleges. This is an important study which is not as widely known as it deserves to be, and a subject of concern to all in these days of critical relations with communism.

Dr. Wild has lectured in Winchester before and will be remembered with interest and enthusiasm. He is Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and Professor of International Relations at Harvard University; a member of the National Board of Counsellors for Foreign Students and Trustee of the World Peace Foundation.

Guests are invited to this meeting and anyone interested in membership may leave at this time the general outline of activities for the year. Membership is based on two years in an accredited senior college. Coffee will be served at 7:30 by a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. George K. Makechnie.

Parents who wish to attend Open House at Wyman and Mystic Schools are urged to do so early in order to be in time for the College Club program.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS HELD RALLY-BARN DANCE

The Rally and Barn Dance held last Friday evening under the auspices of the Winchester Republican "21" Club was a tremendous success.

Preceeding the dance a torchlight parade attracted much attention as the marchers in line with horns and torches moved through the streets of the town accompanied by noise and red fire. Don Drew and Bill Wilde were marshalls of the parade, and the posters carried by the marchers were made by the latter.

Following the parade the rally and dance were held at the high school gymnasium. William J. Speers, Jr., chairman of the Republican Town Committee, introduced Winchester's Representative, Harrison Chadwick, and the other speakers, introduced by Charles Blanchard, president of the "21" Club, were Prof. Langdon Powers of Boston University, Senator Harris S. Richardson, G. Sherman Blair, Jr., president of the Massachusetts Republican "21" Club; and Kingman P. Cass, long prominent in Republican local and State circles.

At the conclusion of the speaking program square dancing was enjoyed, with Al Smith and his orchestra leading the fun and cider and do-nuts by way of refreshments between numbers.

Door prizes were donated by Myron Berlow, Loralane, Inc., Converse Fruit Market, and the Winchester Appliance Co. Mrs. William C. Cusack, president of the Winchester Women's Republican Club, donated a huge Dewey Button.

Because he believes in Peace

Regardless of which uniform he chooses, the young man in the U. S. Armed Forces —Army, Navy or Air Force, Marines or Coast Guard — is the greatest fighting man on earth.

To be a good fighter, a man needs a good reason to fight. The American's reason is that he believes in Peace. He resents thoughts of aggression, oppression, and cruelty to weak and helpless people.

He believes that his country can be a powerful force for Peace—if the country itself is powerful.

That's why you find him learning war to prevent war . . . doing his share to make America strong—and doing it of his own free will.

On this Armistice Day we can pay a heartfelt tribute to the Armed Forces of the United States. Every man in uniform is a living symbol of the ideals for which so many thousands of Americans have laid down their lives.

He is a shining hope for the world that Peace can and will be made to last.

For Distinguished Service

In pausing to salute those who served so valiantly in World War I and II, we cannot forget the role of women in uniform. Because of their superb devotion and efficiency during wartime, they have won a permanent place in the Regular Services. Thanks to people like you, women now have the recognition they so long deserved for a job well done. Now, whenever you see a woman in a uniform, you know that she is working hard in an important new career —that of lending her continuing support in keeping the peace. And it is only through co-operative efforts of both women and men that we can keep our nation secure. With a solemn tribute to the past services of military men and women, let us make Armistice Day 1948 a day of promise for the future:

REPORT ON FORT DEVENS VISIT

Editor of the Star:

At Fort Devens, on Friday, a group representing the women's organizations in Winchester, were given an opportunty to observe a typical day in the life of a recruit. No attempt was made to impress or mislead the visitors; in the words of Col. Kenneth C. Strother, there was "no window dressing".

After being greeted by Col. Strother the group first watched routine target practice, and then visited the main recreation building.

This building was comfortable, modern and attractive; a much more adequate recreational spot than is found in most towns and cities. Here there was plenty of reading material, large comfortable chairs, desks, radio, piano - in fact, all the comforts of home but on a much larger scale.

At 1200 hours, 12 o'clock noon to you, the visiting ladies lunched with the boys in the mess hall, cafeteria style. Since there was no prearranged seating plan, it was possible really to visit with the recruits and learn some of their reactions to army life.

A number of these boys were already aware of the really extensive educational and vocational opportunities available to them. They realized that economically these opportunities, outside of the army, would have been beyond their reach. They were enthusiastically telling about the courses for which they had enrolled and the special skills for which they hoped to train. When they were asked if there was anything were asked if there was anything to which they particular objected, their answer was that although they did not enjoy all their chores, they could find absolutely no fault with the way the orders were given. This is a long way from the general public's opinion of life in the army.

With regard to dances and dates, the boys at one of the tables explained that groups were invited from girl's schools and clubs and that they were very properly chaperoned and supervised and ended at a definite time. They seemed to be very proud of these facts. They also explained that when they were on leave their passes were clearly marked MINORS so that they could not buy liquor if they wanted to.

The next stop was at the barracks - sleeping quarters. This, needless to say, was critically inspected by the visiting ladies, but they looked in vain for a lumpy mattress. Except for lack of privacy, the need for which is debatable at this age, the quarters were completely adequate.

Next in the day's routing was a lecture entitled "Serving your Country" by Sgt. E. Clouthier who, at the end of his term at Fort Devens, will become a member of the faculty of New York University. Certainly a long way from the crude sergeant in the comic strip.

Then the group spent a short but inspiring period in the chapel. After listening to Chaplain Temple it was the feeling of those members of the group with whom your reporter spoke that here was a man with a real understanding of this age group, and unquestionably competent to give them spiritual and moral leadership. Here was a man to whom a boy could take him problems with the assurance that he would find an understanding heart as well as the necessary interest and intelligence.

From here the group visited the educational office. It had almost everything.

The only change in routine, for the benefit for the visitors, was the dress parade at the end of the day. Only a cooperative, well disciplined group of young men could have performed so well with only three weeks' training.

A short speech by Col. Strother convinced us that old-fashioned hazing, roughness and crude officers is a thing of the past and that there is never any robbing or lessening of a boy's personal dignity.

Nellie R. Hottel,
27 Cambridge street.

ALBREE RECEIVES PATENT

On October 19, 1948, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,451,527 on a "Rearwardly Striking Firing Mechanism" to George Norman Albree, Winchester, Mass.

This invention pertains to improvements in firearms that are designed for use with rim fire ammunition, the latter being the type in which the explosive powder is carried in a rim or flange around its base. Under conventional practice, the detonating impact of the firing pin is made against the rear face of the rim.

However, in Mr. Albree's construction, the detonating impact is made against the front face of the cartridge rim; and, in his patent specifications, he describes two methods of accomplishing this end. In one of them, the firing pin assembly is fixed and comprises a number of rearwardly extending projections or pins mounted on a bushing located at the end of the barrel adjacent the breech. As successive cartridges are delivered from the magazine into the chamber, a breech-bolt, actuated by the trigger, forces the front face of each cartridge rim against the firing pins with sufficient impact to cause detonation of the priming material. Actually, under these conditions, the cartridge is fired by its own movement.

In the second of his arrangements, the firing pin is movable and is located so that it is in front of the front face of the cartridge rim. When the trigger is squeezed, the resulting impact of these two units is large enough to cause detonation.

According to Mr. Albree, his invention is applicable to "single shot", semi-automatic or fully automatic rifles, and it reduces substantially the chances of misfire as compared to ordinary weapons. In the latter mechanisms with a single firing pin, it may happen that, when the trigger is pressed, the firing pin will strike a portion of the cartridge rim that has an insufficient amount of detonating material, thereby causing misfire. Obviously, with two or more firing elements, this chance is practically nullified.

Furthermore, by using removable and interchangeable firing pin bushings, the contact faces of the pins may be varied in accordance with the particular ammunition being used, to thus afford a degree of controlled ignition with its consequent effect of increased accuracy. The application for this patent was filed on August 22, 1944 and consists of seventeen claims of originality.

WINCHESTER MAN RECEIVED GIANT COLLIER

Mr. W. H. Dermot Townley-Tilson of Foxcroft road had the distinction of officially receiving the SS Oakley L. Alexander, when the giant collier was delivered by the Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock Company to its new owner the Pocahontas Steamship Company of New York at Newport News, Va., on October 26. Mr. Townley-Tilson is manager of the company, his office being located at the Statler Building in Boston. He went to Newport News for the christening and trial run of the ship and for the pre-christening banquet the night before, at which officials of the Pocahontas Company and a long list of distinguished guests were present.

On the morning of October 26 the big collier was christened for the president of the Pocahontas Company, Oakley L. Alexander, by his wife. Afterward the ship went on an eight-hour trial run, Mr. Townley-Tilson being among the guests aboard.

The SS Alexander is the former Laconia Victory which during the war time brought troops home from European and Pacific theatres. She has been for the past eight months being reconverted into a collier at Newport News at a cost of over a million and a half dollars, including changing her boilers for coal burning with automatic stokers.

The only coal-burning vessel of her type afloat, the SS Alexander exceeds 10,000 tons, has an overall length of 463 feet and a speed rated in excess of 17 knots loaded. She left on her maiden voyage last Friday from Hampton roads to Boston, loaded with 11,000 tons of bituminous coal which were discharged at Mystic Coal Dock, Inc., in Charlestown, commencing Tuesday afternoon.

The SS Alexander is said to be the largest coastwise collier afloat. Her owners plan to use her to freight coal from Hampton roads to New England receivers. One whole deck of the big boat is to be given over to passenger quarters.

MARYCLIFF GUILD

The monthly meeting of the Maryclif Guild will be held Tuesday evening, November 9th at the Arlington Academy at 8:00 p. m.

You'll be proud to stand beside them

They stand for what is right and just. Their stand is firm — and America is safer for it.

To men in uniform — our safeguard in peace — all respect and honor from a grateful nation.

And to the thousands of young men and women entering the Services, a special tribute: We're as proud of you as you will be when you take your place beside them.

FOOD AND CANDY AT FAIR NOVEMBER 17

"The Butt'ry", food table, at "The Country Fair", First Congregational Church, Wednesday, November 17, will be one table the Fair visitor will have trouble getting past - fragrance of home-cooked bread, cakes and pies and cookies - and the artistry of home-baked goodies will entice even the buyer on a diet to plurge a bit. This is one table where the best cooks in the Church turn out their best work, and let it grace the "Butt'ry".

Mrs. Alice S. Jenkins and Mrs. Paul N. Shiverick are co-chairmen, assisted by Mesdames Frederick Allison, Harold Fifield, Donald Powers, Winthrop Palmer, John Allen, Loring Nichols, Donald True, Earl Daub, Carle Zimmerman, Carl Morse, Clarence Kriner, A. H. Cameron and Margaret Brown.

Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Shiverick will be glad to call for baked goods on Wednesday morning, to transport it to the Fair for those women who are glad to bake, but who cannot get their donation to the Fair early.

Another wonderfully gay and tempting table at the Fair November 17, will be the "Taffy Pull", candy table, with Miss Alfreda M. Kearney and Miss Cassie Sands, chairmen. Their committee includes Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard, Mrs. Alfred J. Higgins, Mrs. George Goddard, Miss Helen M. Monroe, Mrs. Edith Parker, Mrs. H. Harold Dover, Miss Constance Lane, Miss Helen Crawford.

Those who saw the candy table last year will remember the wonderful fairy-tale candy canes, the real old-fashioned hard candies. This year the chairmen have secured more canes and hard candies, and will make pounds and pounds of delicious caramels and fudge. The candy table is staffed and planned by the Business and Professional Women's Guild, and all members will make candy for their special table.

Children's movies and entertainment. Tickets 25c. Tonic, candy, grabs for sale. Wednesday, November 10 — 3 to 5. *

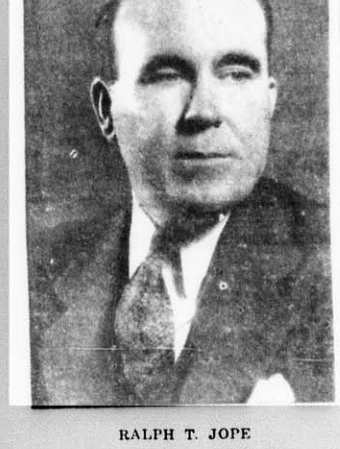
LESLIE J. SCOTT

In Charge of Industrial Division Red Feather Campaign

Winchester's Community Fund workers, headed by Herbert T. Wadsworth in charge of the Residential group, Walcott B. Thompson in charge of the Advance Solicitation of special donors and Leslie J. Scott in charge of the Industries and Banks Division are bending every effort to bring our town up to its quota because the seriousness of the need is keenly appreciated by all of those who are so unselfishly contributing time and effort as well as money to this great community enterprise.

Those closest to the Red Feather organization and all of its three hundred and more services have so often expressed it in this way - "Givers in every category would not fail to exceed the amount of their gifts of previous years by the modest margin needed to meet current necessities and cost if they too had an opportunity to see these needs at first hand and appreciate how carefully and effectively their dollars are put to work."



RALPH T. JOPE

Red Feather Advisory Comm. Member

For example, this year not only the veterans in hospitals, but the very young men now being called by the peacetime draft, are looking to our community fund to support the USO as one of the Red Feather services. They count on us to give a little extra generously to help provide some of the "home away from home" comforts to lessen the long routine of days both in hospital and camp. Armistice Day emphasizes the need of giving a lift to these young men under the experienced direction of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. National Catholic Community Service, National Welfare Board, Salvation Army and Travelers Aid.

A little arithmetic shows why the current goal is more than last year. $125,000 is Greater Boston's share in the reactivated USO. $225,000 had to be drawn from dwindling reserves to see Red Feather services through this year. The 1949 goal takes these two factors into account but no more. The Red Feather services, even in the face of rising costs, will be asked to operate next year on the same budgets as they have this year.

Only a few days remain before Winchester's hard working Chairman Earle G. Carrier will be expected to report 100 per cent of quota for the residential division. The hundreds of Fund workers in our community will be making their final effort in order that Winchester may be counted among those meeting this essential obligation. Every reader of the STAR is earnestly requested to cooperate to the utmost of their generous spirit in order that the fine record of our public spirited community may be maintained and demonstrated to all the people of Greater Boston.

SWYMER — MULRENAN

At St. Joseph's Church in East Woburn on Sunday afternoon, October 31, Miss Mary Mulrenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Mulrenan of Central street, Woburn, became the bride of Robert Swymer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Swymer of Watson place. Rev. Fr. Edward Walsh, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock in an attractive setting of white gladiolas. Miss Marion Mulrenan of Woburn, cousin of the bride, played the organ music for the marriage and the soloist was Miss Dorothy Hickey of Winchester.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin and lace with long pointed sleeves and a full court train. Her fingertip-length veil was caught to a headpiece of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marie Powers of Roxbury was the bride's honor attendant and the bridesmaids were Miss Margie McGowan and Miss Helen Garrity, both of Woburn. Miss Judy Swymer of Winchester, niece of the bridegroom, was junior flower girl.

The honor maid wore a hoop-skirted dress of fuschia taffeta with a matching wide-brimmed hat and carried an old fashioned bouquet. The bridesmaids wore dresses like that of the honor maid in peacock-blue taffeta. They also wore wide-brimmed hats to match their gowns and carried old fashioned bouquets.

The junior bridesmaid, wearing peacock blue taffeta, had a matching flower headpiece and carried a sweetheart bouquet.

Fred Swymer of Winchester was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Ralph Colliander, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Richard Whitney, both of Winchester.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting in receiving were the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Mulrenan was gowned in black and wore a corsage of Ames beauty roses. Mrs. Swymer wore orchids with her gown of blue.

Upon their return from a wedding trip through the White Mountains to Montreal Mr. and Mrs. Swymer will make their home at 12 Central street, Woburn.

The bride is a graduate of Woburn High School and has been in the employ of the Employers Liability Company of Boston. Mr. Swymer, who is a member of the staff at the Winchester Postoffice, graduated from Winchester High School and served for two years in the Navy during the war.

LYNCH — BUCCI

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place at St. Charles Rectory in Woburn on Saturday evening, November 6, when Miss Phyllis Marie Bucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Bucci of Dow's Lane, Woburn, became the bride of James Edmund Lynch, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lynch of Scott street, Woburn. Rev. Fr. John J. Lane, performed the marriage ceremony at 6:30 o'clock and a reception for members of the immediate families was held at Suntaug Inn in Lynnfield.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Bucci wore a maroon brocaded taffeta two-piece street length dress with matching headpiece of feathers and a white orchid. Her accessories were black and those of her only attendant, her sister, Miss Barbara Bucci of Woburn, were also black. The honor maid wore a two piece street-length dress of forest green brocaded taffeta with an orchid and a headpiece of green feathers. Robert Lynch, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

After a honeymoon spent on a motor trip to Niagara Falls, Lake Placid and New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will make their home in Hyannis.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School and for the past two years had been in the employ of the New England Trust Co. Mr. Lynch graduated from Woburn High School and spent two years during the war in the Army Air Forces. After his discharge he graduated from the Chester School of Dental Technology and is now a dental technician in Hyannis.

Wyman of Holland street. Rev. Fr. Hurley officiated at the 3 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception for the immediate families at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Winchester.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, styled with a sweetheart neckline edged with seed pearls, long sleeves and a long train trimmed with small buttons down the back. Her short veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white prayer-book with white roses and sweet peas.

The honor maid wore a blue satin dress with short sleeves and full hoop-skirt. Her headpiece was of matching blue satin and she carried American Beauty roses and sweet peas. Stearns Wyman of Winchester was best man for his brother.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in New York Mr. and Mrs. Wyman will make their home at 50 Middlesex street in Winchester.

The bride attended the Lexington and Burlington schools. Mr. Wyman is a graduate of Winchester High School aand a member of the permanent force of the Winchester Fire Department.

VETS OBSERVED ARMISTICE DAY

Members of Winchester's veterans organizations, Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion, and Aberjona Post, 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars, observed Armistice Day on Thursday with the usual exercises at the War Memorial on the high school grounds at the corner of Main street and the Parkway.

Forming at their respective headquarters, the Legion on Vine street and the Vets in Waterfield Building, the two detachments with their colors and color-guards met at the junction of Vine and Church streets, marching to the War Memorial.

There at the tradition hour of 11 Legion Commander Robert S. Murphy and the Veterans Commander Francis J. Murray placed wreaths at the base of the statue. Then as the Legionnaires and Veterans came to salute two trumpeters of the Winchester High School Band, David Shiverick and Elliott Hersey played echo taps, Shiverick standing on Main street with the marchers and Hersey being stationed out of sight in the shrubbery behind the Memorial. Both boys played the measured phrases of the impressive "taps" well, Shiverick getting a particularly fine thin tone.

WINCHESTER SOUVENIR

This past week a visitor from Winchester, England, Mrs. T. J. Behrens, was a guest in town, visiting the public Library and securing local information from the Librarian, Miss Corinne Mead, visiting some of the local clubs and meetings to see how American women do club work, and securing many local pictures and souvenirs of the town to take back to England with her. Among the gifts of local flavor given to her was a copy of the Winchester Calendar for 1949, with its photographs of local beauty spots, presented by the women of The First Congregational Church, through the Calendar Chairman, Mrs. Harold Smith of Highland avenue.

ON CENTENARY COMMITTEE

STATE AUTHORITIES COMMEND LOCAL WELFARE DEPARTMENT

The State Department of Public Welfare has recently reported the results of an administrative case review of the Winchester Department of Public Welfare.

Aside from certain technical findings, nearly all of which were lauditory, the survey found that the Winchester Board is especially to be commended in having set up Rules of Goverment and General Policies in its operations.

The reviewers found the agent-administrator of the Board has been active in the general social welfare picture aside from his specific local duties and has displayed "skill in decision and administration efficiency". They also found the Social Worker possessed of skill "adequate in every sense," and having a high "feeling tone" in her approach to clients. It was found that records indicate the Winchester Public Welfare Department is not only meeting basic needs in its field but also is rendering additional services where they are indicated and can not be performed by a correlating agency.

The reviewers found the operation of the Winchester Department to indicate "thoroughness of investigations in many aspects, resourcefulness, good "feeling tone" in approach to the field of client resourses, thoughtful referral to social services and ampleness of such services in the community and integrity in client-worker relationship."

The following conclusion of the review seems well worth quoting in full:

"It is the conclusion of the Reviewers, as a result of detailed analysis, that this community, for the period of the review, gave every indication of progressive thinking with continued effort to improve it's administration and it's services to all its clients. Both the Agent and the Social Worker have indicated well-balanced thinking towards the advancement of the organizational structure of their Board. This is indicated not only for the Review Period, but for years prior to it. The Reviewers are convinced that the standards of function of this group can be used as a pattren by other Welfare Boards."

BOARD OF TRADE ANNOUNCES FRIDAY EVENING OPENING

The Winchester Board of Trade, made up of leading stores of the town, is announcing this week that member stores will be open for business each Friday night.

The Board believes this innovation will meet with the approval of Winchester residents, generally, affording as it will an opportunity for those out of town all day to do their shopping in their home town, conveniently and in more leisurely fashion than in big city stores. It will also make it possible for husbands and wives to shop together in Winchester.

The Board is asking readers of the STAR to express their approval of Friday evening opening by a sufficient show of patronage to warrant continuation of the new shopping hours. Nearby cities and towns have enthusiastically endorsed Friday evening shopping.

The STAR calls attention to the Board of Trade's ad on another page of this issue.

WINCHESTER TRUST COMPANY

Offers New "ThriftiCheck" Service

Beginning Friday, November 12, 1948, the Winchester Trust Company will offer a great improvement in its special checking department. This is in addition to its regular checking facilities. "ThriftiCheck" as the new service is called, is a simplified, low-cost, no-minimum-balance checking account plan. In announcing the new service Mr. Davenport F. Davis, Treasurer of the bank, stated: "ThriftiCheck places the convenience of a checking account within easy reach of everyone. There are no complicated charges per item of deposit, no fixed balance requirements and a person may open an account with a small amount: Even as little as one dollar is sufficient to start."

10 Cents a Check, Only Charge

The entire cost of the service is covered by a charge of 10 cents per check. There is no monthly service charge and no charge for deposits. The checks are issued to depositors in a handsome Duratex cover containing regulation book of 20 checks.

Customer's Name Printed on Checks

A novel and pleasing feature of this service is the fact that the customer's name is printed on all checks and delivered immediately with the opening of an account. This is part of the service and is rendered by the bank without additional charge.

Mr. Davis stated "ThriftiCheck is quite simple in principle and operation - there is no red tape to opening an account - this is usually accomplished within five minutes and includes presentation to the customer of his or her personalized check book."

A turkey dinner was followed by open house with recordings made for the Tofuris to take with them as reminders of their friends in Winchester. They were given some beautiful gifts and the best wishes of all present. Centering the refreshment table was a huge cake decorated in the colors of California.

Mr. Tofuri, formerly one of the towners of the Swanton Street Garage, and his wife will observe their third wedding anniversary in New York en route to the West Coast. They are going by automobile and plan to visit the Marchesis when they arrive in California.

Commander Robert "Sam" Murphy presided at the after-dinner program, for which the guest speaker was Judge William Henchey of District Court in Woburn. Judge Henchey proved an interesting and witty speaker, his principal message to the Legionnaires being to be true to the high ideals of their organization and to keep their ranks free of communists while combatting the communistic influence everywhere in the country. Past Commander P. T. Foley introduced the speaker.

BROTHERS MET AFTER OVER HALF A CENTURY

Vincenzo Barbaro of Salem street and his brother, Giaccomo Barbaro, now of Ottawa, Canada, but formerly of Marseilles, France, met recently in Winchester for the first time in 55 years.

Vincenzo, or James as he is known to his many friends in Winchester, where he has made his home for many years, is 84. His brother is 78.

The latter, generally known as Jacques, left Italy during the days of World War I, settling in France at Marseilles. George Barbaro, son of Vincenzo and a member of the Board of Registrars of Voters, went to see his uncle while serving in France with the United States Army during World War I. At that time Jacques Barbaro had a son in the French Army and two young sons, mere boys.

It was during the second World War in 1944 that George Barbaro received a letter from one of the younger boys, Elei, then in the service of the French Government with the rank of Brigadier General.

The general was at that time inquiring if any of the Winchester Barbaro family were in or near France so that he could entertain them. Unfortunately no meeting could be arranged, the Barbaros from Winchester for the most part being in the Pacific theatre.

However, Elei kept in touch with his cousin, George, and finally notified him that he was coming by plane to America to enter the import and export business. He came and finally settled in Ottawa, where he is legal advisor to the French Purchasing Commissioner.

His family followed him to America and last summer he brought his parents to this country. Recently Elei brought his parents to Winchester, reuniting his father, Giaccomo, or Jacques, with his brother Vincenzo after more than half a century.

The two brothers had a great time and much to talk over. It was a bit difficult at first since Giaccomo talked with a French twist while many English words had found their way in Vincenzo's vocabulary. The first day, George was kept busy acting as interpreter, his knowledge of French and Italian standing him in excellent stead. After that the brothers lapsed into their old Italian and got along beautifully.

TO ENFORCE PARKING REGULATION

Chief Charles J. Harrold announced this week that his department will crack down hard hard upon motorists who are failing to observe the parking regulations which forbid parking on the left side of Sheridan circle north from 7 a. m. to 2 p. m. on Sundays, and on the westerly side of Watson place during the same hours.

Both streets are properly posted with directional signs. Failure, however, to observe regulations has caused a parking condition which defeats the purpose for which they are intended.

Miss Ellen Hight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hight of 21 Ledyard road, has been elected secretary of the sophomore co-ed class at Middlebury College in Vermont. Miss Hight graduated from Winchester High School where she was active in athletics, music and the school paper.

WAKEFIELD HERE TOMORROW

After three weeks on the road Winchester returns to Manchester Field tomorrow for its annual game with Wakefield High, commencing at 2 o'clock.

You'll have to get down early for this one! Wakefield and Winchester always stage a dog-fight out there on the gridiron and this year looms as no exception. Both clubs were held to disappointing ties last Saturday, Winchester by Belmont and Wakefield by Reading. Both teams should be up for tomorrow's engagement.

Wakefield has lost to Beverly, which is no disgrace, and to Greenfield, by the score of 20-6. Not to much is known of Greenfield hereabouts, but they are reputed to be good. Melrose beat Wakefield, 7-6!

On the win side Wakefield has a 12-6 decision over Watertown (whew!) and has beaten Woburn, 13-0. Last Saturday the Scarlet and Gray was held to a 7-7 tie by Reading, but local fans should remember this game followed the Melrose contest, for which Wakefield was hepped to the skies.

Tomorrow's game here looms as a tossup. Wakefield always gives Winchester a tough battle, and despite a big local advantage in the published weights, the teams are evenly matched. Wakefield's starting team average is 163, (wait till you see them), and Winchester's, 172.

At Belmont last Saturday, Winchester was lifeless the first half, the fact that Belmont hadn't won a single game having a poor psychological affect on the local players. Wakefield's win over Watertown and its single point defeat at the hands of Class A Melrose ought to send the locals into tomorrow's game keyed up from the strat. They will need to play their best ball all the way against Wakefield!

DAVID H. BREMER TO SPEAK AT THE SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

David Henry Bremer of the Psychology of Religion Department at Boston University School of Theology will be the speaker at the Second Congregational Church Adult Group next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Bremer is an ordained minister of the Lutheran Church and while completing his doctoral thesis is teaching the psychology of Religion at Boston University. For three years he has served as Assistant Minister at Park Avenue Congregational Church, Arlington where he is known as a fine preacher and able counsellor.

The Adult Group meets at the church and will welcome all who wish to hear Mr. Bremer's address and to share in the social hour which follows.

BOSTON GARDEN MANAGER HOLY NAME SPEAKER

On next Sunday, November 14th, St. Mary's Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8:00 a. m. Mass with all of the men joining in the singing of hymns which the Society inaugurated in edifying manner last month.

Promptly at the end of Mass, the men will adjourn to Lyceum Hall where Mr. Michael Connolly as Supervisor of Refreshments and his younger crowd as Aides will serve Coffee and Doughnuts. Brief reports will be made. Guest speaker will be Mr. Edward "Eddie" Powers, Vice President and General Manager of the Boston Garden, who has served as a veritable "right arm" to Walter Brown, Head of the Garden. Mr. Powers is in his 21st year at the Garden and has addressed other Holy Name Societies, Rotary Clubs etc.

He has prepared a very excellent address dealing with the Sports and Business-Social angle of the Boston Garden. Mr. Powers has seen them "come and go" so to speak, the champion Bruins hockey teams, the Circus, Rodeos, Ice Shows, Basketball, Boxing; etc. He has seen the stars of the particular fields, the idols of the people, Eddie Shore, Sonja Henie, Jack Sharkey, Gene Autry and many others. A staunch supporter of the C. Y. O. since its start several years ago, Mr. Powers no doubt will have many interesting highlights on it. He has aided Rev. Fr. Dowd, C. Y. O. Head on many occasions.

It is to be expected that the entire Holy Name Society will turn out for this monthly service and talk. Members may bring along their young sons also.

The Membership Committee has been very active these past few weeks soliciting new members and contacting regular and inactive members to insure an accurate and complete roster of members. Mr. Eric Johnson, treasurer, reports that the annual dues are not 100% complete as yet.

Early Sunday morning David Muncaster of 37 Myrtle terrace notified police headquarters that his Ford sedan had been stolen from where it was parked in front of his home. Later that morning Patrolman Clarence Dunbury found the missing machine abandoned on Greeley road.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL

The Massachusetts Hospital Service (Blue Cross and Blue Shield) has begun the repayment of amounts withheld during the period of the reorganization of the service last year. Two payments have already been made to the Winchester Hospital, materially reducing the $14,315.04 withheld during 1947-48 and giving assurance that the entire amount will be restored within a shorter period than the two years predicted. This action by the Blue Cross strengthens the evidence that the Service is now in good hands and on a sound basis. Its officials have expressed a hope that the benefits under the Blue Cross and Blue Shield policies can be increased in the near future.

Five members of the Nursing Staff attended sessions of the 45th annual meeting of the Massachusetts State Nurses Association in the Hotel Statler on November 1st and 2nd. Those representing the Hospital at these important meetings were the Acting Superintendent of Nurses, Mrs. Angeline O'Leary; Assistant Superintendent of Nurses, Miss Esther Lynch; Obstetrical Supervisor, Miss Mildred Bagley; Out-Patient and Pharmacy Supervisor, Miss Ella Dailey; and Head Nurse in the Obstetrical Ward, Miss Dorothy Smith. Topics of special interest discussed by the Association included: "The Attendant Nurse in Nursing Service", "The Use of Atomic Energy in Medicine", "Recent Advances in Our Knowledge of Communicable Diseases", and Principles and Practices of Supervision". This column at an early date will carry a fuller report on these subjects and other of primary importance to our nursing service.

CHILDREN'S OWN FAIR ON WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Children will have their own very special "Country Fair" on Wednesday afternoon, November 17, at the Country Fair. First Congregational Church, with a wonderful minstrel show presented by the Storrow Troopers, a country store, grabs, balloons and plants, hot dogs, ice cream and tonic and popcorn. There will be two performances of the minstrel show -- one at 3:30 p. m. and the second at 4:15 p. m. Tickets are .25c. for children, and .35c. for adults (when accompanying a child).

Mrs. Edward Hodge is chairman of the children's Fair, with Mrs. Harvey L. Macauley, co-chairman. Mrs. Colver Dyer has charge of grabs, with Mrs. Campbell Ross staffing a unique grab table in the main part of the Fair in the morning for the very small children. Mrs. Clarence Blake is assisting her. Mrs. Alfred Nelson has charge of hot dogs, Mrs. Alexander Clark and Mrs. Harrison Simpson, ice cream, Mrs. A. Holbrook, tonics. The committee has planned the entire "children's Country Fair" for the youngsters themselves, where they can eat to their heart's delight, make noise, have fun, and see a really splendid show. Mrs. W. B. Hersey's Girl Scouts have worked hard to make their minstrel show an appealing one, and the young audience has a treat ahead. Mothers are urged to bring or send their youngsters to the Fair Wednesday afternoon, where the committee in charge will see that every youngster present has a good and safe time.

BRITISH BOY AND CZECH GIRL "ADOPTED" BY WINCHESTER WOMAN.

Through the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children Mrs. Daniel R. Beggs of 2 Everett avenue has "adopted" John Grunald, 8 year old British boy in England, and Libuse Nemeckova, 7 year old Czech girl in Czechoslovakia. A number of Winchester residents already have "adopted" needy foreign children through the Foster Parents Plan which has its American Headquarters at 55 West 42nd street, New York 18. "Adoption" is financial and carries no legal obligation. The foster parent merely promises to contribute $15 monthly toward the child's support for at least a year.

John Grunwald's father is an invalid as the result of war injuries and his mother is unable to work steadily because of heart disease. John is one of twin boys among five children. Previous to being accepted by the Foster Parents' Plan an older brother was trying to support him, his parents and his brothers and sisters on the small salary he receives as a laboratory worker.

Libuse's father and mother had been married four months when the father was arrested by the Gestapo for underground activity and ultimately executed. The little girl and her mother were living with friends when their home was destroyed by bombing and they were compelled to live where they could as they could. As a consequence Libuse' health has been impaired and her mother has been unable to give her the nutritious foods and regular medical attention necessary to win her back to normal health. For the first time in her life the little Czech girl, because of the Foster Parents' Plan and her "mother" in America, will not fear the approach of winter and the suffering that has previously been her lot.

CLOTHING

The clothing exchange, at the Winchester Unitarian Church, where there are bargains galore, will be open to the public, from 10 to 4, on Wednesday, November 17th, Thursday, November 17th, and on the day of the Fair, Friday, November 19th.

There is an unusual group of coats that is being sold at a fraction of the cost. There are men's suits, evening dresses, afternoon and sport dresses. For the children there are snowsuits, boy's suits and overcoats, and, of course girl's dresses.

TROOP 12 NEWS

(Agents for Cushing Vets Xmas Wreaths)

Troop 12 met Thursday, November 4th at St. Mary's School where they were addressed by a Vet from Devens who enlisted the Troop in selling Xmas wreaths made by vets at Cushing General Hospital. The troop will share in the revenue from selling the wreaths and will be able to purchase much needed equipment besides putting something into the much abused treasury of the Troop. This plan has the backing of Scout Headquarters so if a uniformed scout comes to your door taking orders you will know the story and will help the veterans and the troop if you would be so kind. Prizes will be awarded to scouts selling the most wreaths. We understand that there will be 15 or so knife and hatchet sets offered to them and the troop selling the most will receive some fine camping equipment. Delivery will be 10 days before Christmas and you pay the scout at that time.

Cub scouts Billy and Timmy Sullivan were present at the Troop Meeting to meet the Scoutmaster and the Scouts a requirement of their attaining the "Webelo" award of the Cubs, the highest Cub award. They are due in the troop shortly. Mr. Angus McFeeley has joined the Troop Committee.

Last week's attendance (the halloween party) was not duplicated since there were 11 absentees. We ask the parents to check up on this and help their boys to budget their time and obligations. Three patrol leaders in fact were missing with only reliable Neil McFeeley the only P. L. present.

Scoutmaster Norm Doucette really laid down the law about the scouts "getting on the ball" and passing some of the requirements. Some patrols are lax in having patrol meetings. These are necessary and give the boys in the patrols a chance to examine one another and advance their whole patrol.

There is time for Scouting! It requires the aid of parents to help direct their boy's time, however. Boys who do not show ambition from now on will be dropped from the Troop. We have many fine Cub Scouts coming into the Troop periodically and the boys who are still tenderfoot scouts from a year ago had better get going. So look sharp now, boys. These Cubs are fast workers!

There will be a day hike through the Middlesex Fells, to the "Sheepfold" over Stoneham way on November 11th, the holiday, with Asst. Bob Fiore in charge. Scoutmaster Doucette will be parading in Boston with the Marines. These boys have signed up for the hike and outdoor cooking: Scouts: Weiss, L. Erhard, McFeeley, Connolly, J. Pearson, R. Pearson, O'Connor, Thorne, D. Doucette, Doherty, Morrissey, B. Sullivan, T. Sullivan, P. Murphy and L. Farrell; the latter boys are newest of the troop.

THE SECRETARY WINS!

History was really made at the regular matches of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association last week-end beside the turgid waters of Wedge Pond. The Democratic upset of all advance dope in the National election paled into oblivion by comparison with the unprecedented result of the horseshoe competition, which saw the lowly and often hornswoggled Secretary raised to the pinacle of championship stature.

Few who have followed this column will find it easy to credit the statement that the Scribe was really the winner, but such is the case. The matches were short, due to a late starting hour, but the Secretary was a winner in both of those played, being fortunate in having two partners able to carry him on their backs to victory.

The Scribe paired first with Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham to win over the Association's President, Royal "Paper Trade" Teele and "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset. Not only did they win, but they won in straight games, with Mr. Teele withholding all comment upon the play of Mr. McLaughlin, except for the brief statement that it was "not very good". Mr. McLaughlin's opinion of the Teele form will not be herewith set down. After all Royal is a subscriber and as such entitled to certain decencies of debate in these columns.

Suffice it state that the McLaughlin-Teele combination lost two out of exactly that number of games and Mr. Teele for his part was very happy to change partners and go to the post with Mr. Pridham against the Secretary and "Wild Willie".

He had unfortunately no better fortune, though the Secretary was even worse in the second match than he was in the first, with the McLaughlin back creaking badly at the additional load in the second game.

Just, however, as the Pride of Stow was about to go under the Secretary unexpectedly threw a double-header, so confounding Mr. Teele that he "blew" completely, enabling "Willie" and the Scribe to win going away.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Parish, Jr., of Winthrop street are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, October 13 at the Winchester Hospital.

NEW HAMPSHIRE UNIVERSITY AWARDS CONTRACT TO WINCHESTER MAN

The Volpe Construction Company of Malden, of which John A. Volpe of Winchester is the head, has been awarded a contract for the construction of the new technology building at the University of New Hampshire, in Durham, N. H., according to an announcement by the university president, Dr. Arthur S. Adams.

The new technology building, designed by Arland A. Dirlam, Boston architect, will be the largest on the picturesque Durham campus, and will contain approximately one million cubic feet.

Mr. Volpe revealed that his firm's bid of $874,339 was the lowest among the 15 bids submitted by all competing contractors. President Adams stated publicly that the winning bid was at a lower rate per cubic foot than any other new biulding of similar character on other campus with which University of New Hampshire authorities are familiar.

Preliminary work on the new technology building will be started by the Volpe company within a few days. The university will have a formal ground breaking ceremony on November 12.

At present the Volpe Construction Company is completing the construction of the new wing to the Beth Israel Hospital in Boston, a project entailing close to five million dollars. The firm recently observed its 15th anniversary.

MORNING OF DIVERSION

The successful Mornings of Diversion which Winchester alumnae of Wellesley College has sponsored this fall to raise money for Wellesley's 75th Anniversary Fund campaign will be continued another year according to plans made at the fall meeting of the Wellesley Club, held at the home of Mrs. Albert D. Swazey on November 8. Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard, Mornings of Diversion chairman, gave a report on the series of three morning events which have taken place at the Music Hall, and thanked her committee for their splendid assistance.

It was also announced at the meeting that after a year of intensive work, Winchester alumnae, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Thomas M. Downes, have raised $9,809 toward a goal of $15,000 set for June, 1950. The national goal is $100,000 for each year of Wellesley's history or $7,500,000 by June, 1950. Wellesley vitally needs $7,500,000 for the faculty salaries, scholarships, a fireproof dormitory to replace 12 old frame houses scattered over a mile of territory and uneconomical to operate, and for a functional new library. Winchester is proud of its record to date and grateful to the alumnae, parents, and others interested in education who have contributed to the drive.

Mrs. Margaret Brown of Canterbury road has returned from Long Island, New York after visiting her mother Mrs. G. P. Miller.

HALLOWEEN FROLIC AT THE LINCOLN SCHOOL

On October 29th at 1:15 a festive Halloween party was given under the direction of Mrs. Ralph P. Webster, Jr., Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Lincoln School Mother's Association. The Room Mothers of each grade planned and carried out a profitable as well as entertaining afternoon for the children and the mothers.

With the auditorium as our focal point, the children enjoyed fishing for grabs under the efficient direction of Mrs. John Heaton. A wash tub was decorated as the fish pond and it was a busy spot. Mrs. Frank Dattilo, Mrs. Clifford Bergere, Mrs. Michael Bellino, Mrs. Lawrence Palmer and Miss Richardson assisted. The Fourth grade had Pin the Tail on the Cat, with Mrs. Olcott Hooper in charge, Mrs. Albert Lynch, Mrs. William Sweet, and Miss MacPartlin assisted.

On the stage were rows of apples and doughnuts tied to strings. The First Grade had charge of this headed by Mrs. Henry Fulton and Mrs. Randolph Kazazian, Mrs. John DiMinico, Mrs. George Gavostes, Mrs. Anthony Gilotte, and Miss Cochran assisted. An added attraction was a jar of acorns, four children guessed 800, there were 789 in the jar. In front of the stage, the organ grinder, Marguerite Johnson, played her victrola while the monkey, Carleen Johnson, did tricks. Mrs. George Johnson was in charge. Miss Salice's class had charge of the Bean bag toss under the able direction of Mrs. J. Stanley Fudge assisted by Mrs. John Reynolds, Mrs. Benjamin Gowing and Miss Salice.

Near the center of the auditorium was our Fortune Teller, Madame Oakite. "And she even knows my Daddy's name" exclaimed one boy. Mrs. John Flaherty was the knowing and clever teller. The food corner was most popular. Mrs. Hiram L. Smith, Jr., was the capable chairman, Mrs. G. Hartley Curtiss assisted with the cokes and Hoodsies. Mrs. Neal Dowe had charge of food for the Fifth grade. Miss Mitchell did a fine job giving out popcorn, cookies, and candy.

Down the corridor we had Picture Taking . . . the studio was run by the Second grade. Mr. Arthur Rich was the photographer and Mrs. Rich did the planning. Of course it was fun as one did not know one looked like a giraffe or an elephant, but a lolly-pop was given to compensate for what one lacked in looks. Miss Harkins assisted. In the playroom the other Fourth grade had charge of games, The Spider game being the most popular. - Mrs. Vito Scaturro and Mrs. Archangelo Amico had charge, assisted by Mrs. Francis Amico and Miss Mulryan. The younger children were cared for in the kindergarten by Mrs. Kenneth Cullen. Miss Barbara Colucci, a Senior Girl Scout, assisted by singing songs and telling stories. Mrs. Frank Robinson had charge of the House of Horrors for the Sixth grade. Mrs. Louis Gorrasi, Mrs. George Saltmarsh and Mrs. Dyer ably assisted. This was a popular place with a dead dummy, a skeleton, and other gory ventures.

Outdoors, Mrs. Eugene Pollard and Mrs. Fish had charge of Relay races for the Third grade. Mrs. George Erickson, Mrs. Arthur Hewis, Mrs. Charles Russo, Mrs. Harold Rainey and Miss Cullen assisted.

Mrs. Alexander M. Clark and Mrs. Henry Hansen had charge of change and collecting our profits. Mrs. Stanley Mullen and Mrs. Paul White had charge of the corridor.

Miss French instructed the children of the Fifth and Sixth grades in making pre-frolic posters. Miss Marguerite Asher, Miss Dover all of the teachers, and the Board co-operated fully to make this new venture a tremendous success. We also thank Mr. Peter Benson for bringing the school back to normal by Monday morning.

The mothers of the Lincoln School gave generously of the prizes, food, money and their time. The children had a wonderful afternoon and the corridors will ring with laughter for some time to come.

ELECTRICITY
THE SHINING EXCEPTION TO THE RULE OF HIGH PRICES

*This is an increase of more than 30 per cent over the electrical generating capacity available Nov. 1, 1948.

Just six months ago we announced with pride that the electric light and power companies of New England were building a record-breaking total of 834,000 Kilowatts of new generating capacity to be at your service by 1952.

Since that announcement last spring you have steadily increased your use of electricity and in quick response we have enlarged our plans for staying ahead of your needs.

Today we announce that 206,000 MORE Kilowatts have been added to the program. Now, instead of 834,000 Kilowatts, your electric light and power companies of New England are building ONE MILLION AND FORTY THOUSAND Kilowatts* of new electrical energy, all of it scheduled for service by the original date of 1952.

And already plans are being projected even further into the future for the continued safeguarding of New England's electrical welfare.

NOTES OF TRAIL BLAZERS TROOP 2

During our first two meetings which have both been rather long, we elected our officers and three committees. Nearly every girl is one of these committees. The committee which is making plans for various outings, and the committee which is trying to find the means of giving financial support to these plans both had sessions between our regular meetings. The results reported to us seem to promise a year of high profits and great fun.

We decided to send a box of food as a Christmas gift to some English Girl Scouts with whom we have been corresponding.

On Tuesday, October twenty-seventh, several members of our troop took care of children at the Mystic and Washington schools.

We are very grateful to Mrs. Titilah for assuming the task of conducting our meetings, and we wish to welcome her to our troop as our new indoor leader. We are sure to have a grand year if we all pitch in and work with her.

Elaborate preparations have been completed for the gala affair. Numerous tables have been planned, at which may be obtained many valuable and useful gifts. Among these are hand made articles, hand knitted goods, aprons, candy, baby table, white elephant, dolls, miscellaneous, dish gardens, religious, novelties, Christmas cards and wrappings, cakes, electrical appliances, men's and children's tables.

During the day luncheon will be served under the direction of Mrs. W. John Stevenson.

Many beautiful donations have been made to the chance table.

THE SUNRISE SCHUSSERS

The Sunrise Schussers, prominent local ski club, had their first meeting of the year Thursday, October 28th 1948 to elect new officers for the coming year. The following officers were elected:

Bertram Gurley, president.
Thomas Preston, vice president.
Theodore Hultgren, treasurer.
June Preston, secretary.

Bud Cary was elected captain of the racing team that will compete in the Eastern Intra Club Ski League. In this league there are ten of the top ski clubs in New Englanl that compete throughout the winter for top honors in downhill and slalom racing. Last year two of our club members received trophies for their racing. Bunny Cary, who placed second in the women's and Norman Barrett who won the class B championship title. This was a fine record for our clubs first year in league competition.

This year promises to be a very successful one and all those interested in week-end skiing trips, racing competition and free skiing instruction are invited to join.

The next meeting will be held November 18, 1948.

WYMAN SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The pupils of Mrs. Myrtle Dodge's third grade at the Wyman school gave a Hallowe'en Assembly on Friday, October 29. All children wore costumes and masks throughout the program. Stressing safety, fun for all, and a safe and sane Hallowe'en, the program consisted of poems, stories and songs.

A play entitled The Indians and The Jack-o-Lantern in two acts completed the performance. Each child had a part and at the end stepped out, unmasked, and announced his name.

The Red Cross Assembly presented by the sixth grade pupils of Mr. Joseph Forte consisted of a skit based on the activities of the Junior Red Cross. The main theme was the organizing of a Junior Red Cross chapter at the school. One of the scenes showed the work that the sixth grade has done, making hassock, toys, and toothbrush holders for various needy organizations.

A photographer and a reporter from the Junior Red Cross News came to the school to interview the children and to take pictures of their work.

MR CRAUGHWELL TELLS OF MIDDLESEX CANAL

Editor of the Star:

Some folks have recently requested me to write an article in the Winchester Star in regard to the Middlesex Canal. I shall cheerfully comply with the request. It would require several articles to write the entire history of the canal; hence I shall be as brief as possible.

The year 1798 was a momentous one for our town, that was then called South Woburn, for it was then that it was invaded by a small army of men bearing picks and shovels and a numerous fleet of tip-carts. The Middlesex Canal was in process of construction.

This canal was one of those ambitious commercial projects that came in response to the improved financial condition and the spirit of National expansion that followed the adoption of the Constitution. James Sullivan, son of the distinguished Revolutionary soldier, General John Sullivan; himself, Judge, attorney general and, finally, Governor of Massachusetts, was the original projector.

James Sullivan was influential and plausible. He found no great difficulty in interesting such other prominent and wealthy men in the enterprise as Colonel Loami Baldwin, the leading citizen of Woburn, General John Brooks of Medford, later himself governor of the State; Christopher Gove, James Winthrop and Thomas Russell of Boston, Andrew Craigie of Cambridge, Samuel and Caleb Swan of Charlestown and the Hall Family of Medford. The necessary money to begin the work was subscribed and the canal company was incorporated by the Legislature June 22, 1793.

Not to delay too long over the details of the construction, it may simply be said that with the assistance of an experienced English canal engineer, Mr. Samuel Weston, a practicable route was surveyed from the Mill Pond at Charlestown through Medford, South Woburn, Woburn, Wilmington and Billerica to Chelmsford on the Merrimac. The water wherewith to fill the canal-bed was to be taken from the Concord River. A little below Chelmsford the river was crossed there at grade and a floating bridge, or causeway, was built to be used as a tow-path.

The Canal was finished and ready for business in 1803. Its construction was directed by Colonel Loami Baldwin. It's cost up to 1819 when the project at last began to show a profit was $1,-164,200, mainly for the purchase of land and the original construction of the canal-bed, locks and aquaducts.

The sum of $1,164,200 was a terrific amount of money to expend in the year 1819. Compare what was called South Woburn in 1819 with what is called Winchester since 1850, the Athens of America, a beautiful residential suburb eight miles from the gilded dome, consisting of beautiful homes, magnificent public parks and play grounds, three wonderful reservoirs; namely, North, South and Middle, that marvelous institution of learning, the public library; excellent streets, an up-to-date sewer system, modern police and fire departments, excellent schools and teachers. Of course our teachers do not compare with the two greatest teachers who ever lived; namely, teacher and pupil, Aristole and Plato. Great Scholars were Aristole, Plato and the Irish monks who wrote the Book of Kells, the greatest manuscript next to the Holy Bible that ever was written by woman or man! If you have a desire to witness the Book of Kells, the opportunity is yours by simply entering Trinity College in Ireland or Eire, or what have you.

Perhaps some reader of the STAR will take issue with the assertions that I have asserted. I certainly shall welcome a correction. The people of Winchester, to my mind, are a homogenous group of people. Pat greets Percy with a smile and a "good morning." Alphonso greets Mike with a smile and a "good morning!"

Very truly yours,
Patrick H. Craughwell.

RECRUITS GET THEIR "PATCHES"

Editor of the Star:

1100, October 6 was a proud hour for the men of Co. "A", 7th Infantry, Fort Devens, when they finished their basic training, were given their insignia and became full-fledged members of the 3rd Division. No Division has a better record - Africa, Italy, France and through Germany. The 7th Regiment took part in the entire campaign. You men have established a good reputation during basic training; you are good soldiers. Major General Frank Keating, First Service Command represented General Hodges. On congratulating the men he said "I know the men of the 3rd Division well. Before the last war, General Eisenhower commanded the 1st Battalion, General Mark Clark commanded the 3rd Battalion, and I commanded the 2nd Battalion. It is a magnificent Division with a proud history."

Make no mistake about it, along with the new Army programs, which are excellent, the principle mission of the Army is the defense of the United States and to that end the training of men to fight as individuals and as a team should any nation, or combination of nations dare to attack us. From watching and talking to these men on several occasions, the writer is convinced that though just commencing their Army careers, the recruits know, this time, why they are serving, are proud to serve, are content with the way they are being handled and are anxious to have the civilian public know about what is going on. They even went to the extent of buying copies of Jack Hanlon's recent story in the Boston Globe to send home to their parents. They wanted to see the pictures recently shown in Winchester of the Devens trip, and I believe Colonel Strother is having a set put up in the Service Club.

To further disprove the idea that when a man enters the armed services his interest in civilian affairs ended, a careful study of service publications shows an increasing insistence on citizen responsibility. For example, the October issue of "On Course", a personnel publication of the 223th Air Force Reserve Training Center, Bedford, Mass., carries on the front page a story entitled "Red Feather Drive Begins" with Lt.-Col. James H. Starbuck CO making a special appeal to all personnel to follow through with 100% contributions. Capt. Louis C. Renaud PIO has arranged a number of tours so that the personnel may see at first hand the needs of Red Feather services. This is pretty constructive campaigning, the writer hopes we do as well. The editorial is entitled "Why vote?" and, among other things "It is your duty to go to the polls. An Airman failing to do so is sleeping on guard duty . . ."

It is important that civilians know what is going on in the Armed Services. In the United States the personnel of these forces are the servants of the people, not the masters, and a comparison of our service literature with that of the present totalitarian regimes, as well as that of our former enemies, shows that we are fundamentally the same kind of people - they were not, hence their downfall.

Very truly yours,
Chairman
Military Manpower Committee.

GIVE - GIVE ENOUGH!

Editor of the Star:

This is the challenging slogan of the Red Feather campaign now in full swing. This is the slogan that summarizes what is needed to make the campaign successful.

Enough what? Enough time, energy, understanding, and enthusiasm on the part of the hundreds of volunteers working for the Community Chest drive. Enough active co-operation from the Red Feather agencies, such as expressed in the message of the Winchester Hospital in last week's "Winchester Star". Enough generous sharing of facilities as you are doing by publicizing the Red Feather drive in your paper. Ultimately, enough financial support from every home, from every business organization, from every employee, from every club and organized group.

To preserve these fine working examples of our democratic system - the Red Feather agencies meeting the eight great needs for hospital, family services, aid to the handicapped, services for children, nursing services, neighborhood houses, services for youth, and services for the aged - I fervently urge Winchester to give - GIVE ENOUGH!

Sincerely yours,
Ralph T. Jope,
President.

WINCHESTER WILL BE PROUD OF WEST SIDE SCHOOL

Editor of the Star:

Last Monday afternoon, November 1, 1948, I paid a visit to the new school that is under construction on Indian Hill adjacent to Andrews Hill on the west side of the town. I was delighted at the progress that has been accomplished.

The school is erected on a rock on a mountain. It is cruciformed! That suggests that like the church the schools will never crumble as long as the sun rises in the east and sets in the west.

Perhaps I had no right to enter the structure. I did, however, scrutinize the interior of the school and I firmly believe the inhabitants of Winchester will be justly proud of their new unit of learning. The class rooms are laid out beautifully. There is a magnificent auditorium on the first floor. Everything is apparently fireproof.

There is so much to be said in favor of the school and the site that I shall bet some other individual man or woman write his or her views in the Winchester Star on the merits of the site and the school.

Very truly yours,
Patrick H. Craughwell.

MUST FILE BY DECEMBER 1, 1948

Editor of the Star:

Last year the General Court tried the experiment of advancing the date for filling proposed legislation from late January to early December. The object was to provide time for printing the bills before the General Court convened in January and thereby enable the various committees to commence their public hearings without the usual delay at the start of the session.

This year the same plan has been adopted and the latest time for filing petitions for legislation is 5:00 p. m., December first. As this is considerably earlier than has been customary through the years, I think it might be helpful to citizens planning to file legislation if you would be willing to give the above date some publicity in the STAR.

Yours very truly,
Harrison Chadwick,
Representative
29th Middlesex District.

SUPERINTENDENT NORRIS THANKS WORKERS

Editor of the Star:

I would like to use the column of your paper to thank publicly the workers, and all of the contributors in the recent Salvation Army Campaign.

It should be a matter of pride to all of us to be associated in such a worthy undertaking. I would like to express publicly my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to those who aided us in the undertaking.

Sincerely yours,
Forbes H. Norris,
Superintendent of Schools.

"RIGHT-O!"

Editor of the Star:

As Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols was listening to an early morning broadcast on W.E.E.I. She heard "Buff" ask Does a house burn up or burn down? He wanted to know "at once". Mrs. Nichols wrote the following letter to him.

"Does a house burn up or burn down?

Well! It depends on the Fire Department. In Winchester it would do neither!"

FEWER AT W. H. S. OPEN HOUSE

College courses classes were quite well filled by parents at Winchester High School's annual Open House last Thursday evening, November 4.

Following their children's daily programs, parents visited each class, where the teacher explained or demonstrated the objectives he has outlined for the year's development.

Parents also visited the art studio, gymnasium, shop, mechanical drawing and printing shops, laboratories, the library, and cafeteria.

Guidance Director, Norton Demsey was visited by many of those present, and of course old friends and new dropped in to see Mr. Grindle.

Although happy to welcome parents who attended Open House at Winchester High School, Principal Wade L. Grindle expressed his disappointment that many parents who don't visit teachers on Tuesday afternoons did not avail themselves of the opportunity to learn the teachers' aims for the schooling of their children, specifically, nearly half of the members of each class at the high school are enrolled in courses other than a college preparatory. A large majority of those youngsters are not represented at open house. Neither do the parents respond to the invitations from teachers to visit on Tuesday afternoons.

Closer relations with the school during the year are usually more satisfactory than last-minute efforts to encourage the school to graduate Johnnie or Susie.

The teacher, the parents, and the child mutually respectful and working together, represent the highest ideal of American education.

BOWLING NOTES

The new town bowling league competition at the Sport Center is resulting in the keenest sort of interest and some red hot battling for points. Each team has its followers and interest becomes more intense with every set of matches.

The high school bowling league started Wednesday afternoon and the Junior High League gets under way next week.

Another league that is arousing much interest, both among its members and those interested in the teams, is the Women's League of the Winchester Country Club. The gals get together Tuesday afternoons and really give it the old college try. The Teachers' League meets Mondays and like the other groups, is resulting in red hot competition.

THE FORTNIGHTLY - NOTES

ART DAY

Art Day was observed on Monday, November 8, when The Fortnightly held its regular meeting in Masonic Hall. A collection was taken to benefit the Penny Art Fund for the State Art Committee. Mrs. Walter H. Woods of the State Department of War Veterans Committee was a guest speaker. In outlining the needs of veterans in our local hospitals, she urged the filling of Christmas bags.

Two recommendations from the Board were voted on favorably—

1. That the sum of $25 be contributed to the Greater Boston Community Fund.

2. That an honorary membership in The Fortnightly be offered to each lady who has been a member for a period of fifty years.

At the present time Mrs. Fred N. Kerr and Mrs. Walter L. Rice would so qualify.

The Art Committee, Mrs. George E. Connor, chairman, Mrs. Frederick W. Cole and Miss Gladys M. Folts were in charge of the program. In a pleasing, informal way Miss Katharine L. Alden presented "The Story of Pottery" - tracing its development briefly from earliest times - 5000 B. C. and their various characteristics. In 1936 Miss Alden, a potter and teacher of handicrafts, organized her famous Plymouth Pottery in her own home, the charming old Richard Sparrow House in Plymouth (1636). Her clay comes from a local pit first made use of by Stephen Bradford of Pilgrim days, and is still prepared and worked by hand as formerly.

Her talk was illustrated with examples of old and new types of pottery, some of which were passed through the audience. Two pieces of local interest were made by Miss Alden for Mrs. Connor. One was a tile picturing the latter's home, the other was a figure of Mrs. Connor's twenty year old dog. Also exhibited were books on Pottery and Porcelain, and pictures of early pottery.

Tea was served by Mrs. George Budd and her committee. Mrs. Fred N. Kerr and Miss Gertrude A. Kimball poured. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Arthur Haines and Mrs. Amasa Harrington.

Eighth Districe Presidents' Club

The fall meeting of the Eighth District Presidents' Club was held at the Congregational Church in North Reading on Friday, October 29. Luncheon, to be in keeping with the afternoon program was a Smorgasbord, prepared and served by a committee of club members.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Harold Given, president of The Fortnightly, Winchester, gave a fine talk on "Norway, My Native Land, Its People and Its Customs," stressing in particular the customs of the Christmas season. Mrs. Given wore a native Norwegian costume, the material of which was spun and woven by hand and embroidered most artistically. Mrs. Ernest Brown, president of the Greenwood Women's Club, sang delightfully a group of songs of Sweden, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Louis F. Andrews of the same club.

Past presidents attending from The Fortnightly were Mrs. Edward R. Grosvenor, Mrs. Clifton S. Hall, Mrs. Nathaniel M. Nichols, Mrs. Thomas H. Rhodes and Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes.

Literature Meeting

Members of The Fortnightly spent a very interesting and profitable afternoon at the meeting of the Literature Group held at the Winchester Public Library on Monday, November 1.

Miss Eva M. Sherman, chairman, introduced Miss Gertrude M. Hall who spoke on the subject, "Intellectual and Social Ideas of the First Quarter of the Twentieth Century."

"The first quarter of the twentieth century was a period of social unrest," stated Miss Hall, and beginning with the Boer War — 1899 - 1902, she expounded facts which resulted in social reforms throughout the Commonwealth. She explained the action of the House of Lords on matters of reform, and touched briefly on the Home Rule question for Ireland and its effect on the British Commonwealth. She spoke of the industrial difficulties of the period, of woman sufferage and the benefits resulting from this emancipation. She explained in detail the great improvement brought about by Balfour's Education Act of 1902. Progress of invention was also dewlt upon, and significant dates given of various inventions of the early twentieth century.

The afternoon's program was concluded with a dissertation on printed matter of the period, with mention of several well known authors and their accomplishment in the literary field.

Miss Hall presented her subject so effectively that the Literature Group is looking forward to the continuation of the season's topic, "Representative British Writers of the First Quarter of the Twentieth Century."

TEACHERS ON PARADE

On Monday evening, November 15, brings the teachers' show "Teachers on Parade". This promises to be an entertaining evening for teachers and parents alike. The Central Mothers' Association is most grateful to the teachers from all the schools participating in this show, now a definite "sell-out", which will benefit the Scholarship Fund tremendously.

Mrs. Philip Wadsworth, General Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux as vice-chairman have been most helpful in arranging for requested costumes and innumerable other details.

Mrs. Alexander Clark and her efficient committee are responsible for the "selling-out" of the tickets.

Mrs. Charles Wilson and her committee have filled the advertising spaces in the programs.

Mrs. John Swift, Mrs. Henry Dellicker, Mrs. Lyndon Burnham, and Mrs. John McLean have also been active on various duties.

Miss Martha Feinberg, a scholarship winner last year, has helped by making appropriate posters.

The program for the show is, in brief, as follows:

Dr. Forbes H. Norris - Master of Ceremonies.
Orchestral Overture.
Lighthouse Skit - Wyman Teachers.
American Country Dance - Noonan Teachers.
Hearts and Flowers, or Curses, The Villian is Foiled - Washington Teachers.
Contractors' Holiday - Wyman Teachers.
Darktown Minstrels - Mystic and Lincoln Teachers.
Barbershop Quartet - Junior High Teachers.

"Teachers on Parade" has been arranged and directed by Mr. Ray V. Hayward, popular director of many a successful show.

NOONAN SCHOOL NEWS

In observance of American Education Week, November 7-13, the Mothers' Association of the Noonan School planned the annual Dad's Night for Tuesday evening, November 9.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris, Superintendent of Schools, was the leader of a round table discussion, assisted by Mr. Fred Felmet, Miss Helen Goodwin, Mr. Alfred Meurling and Miss Virginia French. In order that parents could know more about the anticipated outcomes of instruction in music, physical education and art, those specialists told of their work with the pupils.

Classrooms were opened at seven and teachers and parents met each other an discussed items of mutual interest until eight-fifteen.

Refreshments were served following the program and a social hour was enjoyed.

FIELD HOCKEY

Winchester High girls' field hockey team outclassed Lexington High on Ginn Field Monday afternoon, the varsity winning, 4-0, and the seconds edging the Lexington scrubs, 2-1.

The local girls dominated play throughout and only some good saves by the Lexington goaler kept the score down. Winchester threw a stout defense against the visitors and seldom after the first minute or so did Lexington get past the fullbacks for a close-up shot.

Coulson did make one good stop half way up her pads early in the game, but wasn't too busy afterward. Debby Symmes, Dotty Kelley, Lynn Aitkens and Dee Barrett scored for Winchester in the varsity game with Marilyn Chase and Bette Kneeland racking up the second team goals. Winchester plays Melrose today and Monday plays a postponed game with Belmont.

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:
"Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not" (I John 3:1). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:
"In Science man is the offspring of Spirit. The beautiful, good, and pure constitute his ancestry. His origin is not, like that of mortals, in brute instinct, nor does he pass through material conditions prior to reaching intelligence. Spirit is his primitive and ultimate source of being; God is his Father, and Life is the law of his being" (p. 63).

HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN HIT BY INJURIES

Winchester's chances of winning from Wakefield Saturday weren't helped any when tall Mario Mascioli, regular right end, came out of Wednesday's scrimmage session with an ankle sprain and Bob McElhinney, rugged right guard, pulled up with a bad "charley horse", one of the worst Trainer Lou Goddu has seen for some time. To add to Winchester's gloom Captain Vern Slack, injured at Belmont, has been sick this week with grippe. Whether these boys will be ready for Wakefield probably won't de determined until the starting whistle, but without them Winchester will be considerably handicapped against one of the toughest opponents of the season.

B. P. O. E.

The Medford Elks played host to the Winchester Elks Tournament Team on Tuesday night, November 9 at their new home in Washington Square, Medford. Once again the Winchester team was unable to crash the win column and came home on the short end of a 9-6 score. This heretofore unbeaten bridge team were helpless at the hands of a crack Medford quartet, losing all three points.

Winchester excelled in 45, however, and evened the score by taking all 3 points. The credit for this goes to Joel Donaghey, Neil McCarthy, Chuck Klein, and Constable Tansey, all of whom have been practising way into the night for the past week. The cribbage team, under the expert guidance of Joe Peel, came out on top with a 2 to 1 score, Billy Murray threw his weight into this victory also. Carl Getchell and Frank Pooler were stubborn opponents in the billiards and pool respectively, but were unable to contribute any points to the Winchester Team's score.

The bowling team scored a single point against Medfords 3.

On next Wednesday, November 17, the Revere Tournament Team will visit Winchester.

Competition of the keenest sort and red hot interest has marked the inception of the Town Bowling League at the Sport Center this past week with all signs pointing toward increased interest and even keener competition as the teams improve with regular rolling.

Four teams won their first round matches with the Sons of Italy having the highest pinfall, 1539. Only a few pins separated winners from losers in the first matches aand the defeated teams left the alleys promising to reverse results at the first opportunity.

RECOMMENDS THAT NUTRITION SERVICE BE DISCONTINUED

The following letter is reproduced as of interest to residents of Winchester.

To the Board of Directors,
Winchester Chapter, Am. R. C.
Winchester, Mass.

At a meeting in June 1947 of lay and professional people interested in health and social welfare, the subject of having a nutrition program in Winchester was discussed. The interest and enthusiasm was so high that the Winchester Red Cross decided to sponsor such a program for at least one year as an experiment.

A nutritionist was engaged the following September and a general nutrition program was inaugurated. This program gave some promise, particularly in the lower schools and in the Public Health clinics. The cooperation of the Superintendent of Schools, the principals of the lower schools and of the Public Health nurse was much appreciated.

There were many discouragements as the committee continued plans for nutrition classes and other development work. It seemed apparent that the need for the service from many of the local agencies, whose initial interest was one of the moving factors in the undertaking, was, for the large part, lacking.

The National Red Cross informed the local chapter in early October that, as a budget necessity, they were discontinuing their Nutrition Program as a direct chapter service as of July 1949.

At the end of the first year the Committee has seriously evaluated the service.

The Committee feels the 1947-1948 Nutrition program, as used, was beneficial to Winchester, and wishes especially that it might continue in the lower schools and in the clinic but with everything considered, desires with this report, to recommend the ending of the program as of September 1948.

Respectfully submitted,
THE NUTRITION COMMITTEE.
Mrs. Alexander P. Aiken,
Mrs. Wayne E. Davis,
Mrs. Wayne E. Thompson,
Miss A. Natalie Jewett,
Mrs. Andrew P. Cornwall,
Mrs. Ben R. Schneider, Chairman.

BROKE WINDOW IN WATER DEPARTMENT CABIN

Last Monday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock Officer John Flaherty of the Water & Sewer Board brought to Headquarters two 11 year-old Charlestown boys whom he found breaking a window in the Water Department's cabin at the Middle Reservoir. The boys said they came to the Sheep Fold with a party of Boy Scouts and had broken the window to enable them to get into the cabin to look around.

Their parents were notified and the father of one of the boy's a Boston fireman came to Winchester for the youngsters, paying for the broken window and taking the boys home.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION NEWS

On November 4, Mrs. John Coakley was hostess at a tea for the mothers and teachers of the third grade at the George Washington School. Despite the rain, a large number of the mothers were present to hear Mrs. Judy Brown, the grade teacher, speak on developing a sense of responsibility to society. A lively discussion and question period followed her talk. Miss Rich distributed some mimeographed material, behavior analysis sheets used in evaluation work; and she also spoke briefly on how to try to handle behavior democratically. Tea arrangements were made by the room mothers, Mrs. Frederick Parks and Mrs. Daniel Chane. Mrs. Edward Snell, chairman of the refreshment committee, was assisted by Mrs. Daniel Chane, Mrs. Joseph Donovan, Mrs. Bion Francis, Mrs. Stuart Harris, and Mrs. J. Leslie Nadeau. Mrs. Frank Carver and Mrs. James Wakefield poured.

On Monday evening, November 8, the Mothers' Association observed National Education Week by having open house. Classrooms were open from 7:00 to 8:15, and a large number of parents and guests availed themselves of this opportunity to see what the children were doing and to talk with the grade teachers about class work. The guest speaker for Dad's Night was Professor Roland Bradford Greeley of M. I. T. whose subject "Surging Cities and Sedate Suburbs" covered the improvement of environ through education in democracy. Refreshments were served after the lecture by Mrs. Thomas Purtle and members of the social committee.

Michael J. Foley, for many years in Winchester who failed of re-election last March, has been appointed by the Selectmen to fill the vacancy caused by the sudden death of Constable Fred Larson. Constable Foley, who has filed his bond, will serve until the next election in March.

"PYGMALION"

A play by George Bernard Shaw, produced November 4, 5 and 6 in the Little Theatre Beneath a Spire by the Parish Players of the First Congregational Church under the direction of Harlan Grant. Production Chairmen were Mrs. John McGillivray and Mrs. George Connor. Following is the cast:

Clara Hill ..... Paulett Taggart
Mrs. Hill ..... Lenore T. Gamage
Bystander ... John W. Smith, Jr.
Freddie Hill .. James H. Coon, Jr.
Eliza Doolittle .. Marian T. Blake
Col. Pickering .... Harold A. Hall
Bystander ..... Janet Dalrymple
Bystander ..... Robert P. Blake
Henry Higgins .....
Eugene M. Pollard
Mrs. Pearce ..... Ruth W. Tarr
Mr. Doolittle . F. Milne Blanchard
Mrs. Higgins .. Louise G. Bryant
Maid ..... Virginia Olivier

Large and pleased audiences greeted the Players as they opened their 23rd consecutive season with another of their thoroughly satisfying performances, this time of the Shavian comedy-drama that depicts the transformation of a cockney flower girl into a duchess through the coaching of a phonetics specialist, aided and abetted by a linguist friend who chances to be a colonel.

There is little plot to bother with and no happy ending with the language coach and his pupil in fond embrace. In fact no one seems very settled or happy at the final curtain though the phonetics wizard does give vent to a cackle of forced laughter at the thought that his hand-made duchess is going to marry a young man for whom he has no slightest bit of admiration.

The play leaves you up in the air and wondering just how Higgins and Eliza really feel about each other. Has she really fallen for her re-creator or is she merely furious with him for persisting to ignore the charm he has labored so hard to build up in her. By the same token is it Eliza or the comforts she has brought him that Higgins finds himself wondering about as she proposes to leave him.

The playwright may suggest the answer but he does not give it directly, and the Players' leads, Mrs. Blake and Dr. Pollard, were very successful in portraying the transformed flower girl and the cold calculating phonetics expert so as to leave you still in doubt. Each gave glimpses of hidden emotions, but neither the made-over Cockney nor the vowel fancier would, or perhaps could, permit you to get behind on the one hand, hurt resentment, and on the other, scientific detachment, sufficiently to permit their true feelings to be understood.

That's really about all there is to the play, wondering how it all finally turned out and enjoying the clash of two well drawn characters.

Eliza and Higgins carry the show. Mrs. Blake as the former had the more difficult part to play and was very successful in making the metamorphosis of the cockney into the duchess almost credible. The little occasional lapses in speech and deportment, the blazes of resentment against the indifference of her coach, the appreciation of Pickering's kindness, and above all the sense of proportion that kept her emotional opportunities from running away with her, all combined to make her performance well rounded and satisfying. And if you couldn't understand what she was saying half the time what of it? Her expressions, voice inflection and pantomime gave you the real picture. You didn't need to know what she said!

Dr. Pollard's Higgins was also a mighty well drawn and thoroughly consistent characterization, of the type which this Little Theatre favorite does so well. Only on the rare occasions when he has been miscast do you have the feeling the doctor is playing a part, and as Higgins he was very much in character all the way, scoring heavily in the drawing-room scene and proving the perfect foil for Eliza's emotional outburst in the closing scene of Act 2.

Little is asked of the remaining characters. Mr. Hall was a pleasant Col. Pickering and Mrs. Tarr made much of the harassed housekeeper. Dr. Blanchard was funny as Eliza's unscrupulous cockney father, and good bits were done by Mrs. Taggart and as usual, Mrs. Dalrymple. Your reviewer would commend Mrs. Taggart's diction to some of the other members of the cast. Mrs. Gamage, Mr. Coon and Mrs. Bryant were the more important of the lesser characters and were very satisfactory, though the latter's pleasing voice was at times much too well modulated. Messrs. Smith and Blake and Miss Olivier rounded the cast out nicely.

The sets for the show were excellent, that for the stormy night outdoors in Covent Garden being especially well done, while the splendid setting for Mrs. Higgins drawing-room was deservedly applauded.

THE WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

The Winchester Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. James O'Connor of 6 Lantern lane on Thursday, October 28. The program was both entertaining and educational as Mrs. Virgil Ghirardini reviewed her recent trip to California.

Moving pictures in color transported members through snow to the land of sunshine and beautiful flowers. All the scenes showed an artists' appreciation for the beautiful and unusual and the Club was united in expressions of appreciation for this delightful afternoon.

ROTARY NEWS

After the open meeting of last week the Rotary had a full meeting this week on the programme. For the first time in a number of years the club has taken on two Junior Rotarians. These boys will be associate members of the club for a number of months and were chosen for being outstanding in their class at high school. In a fine talk of welcome and introduction Forbes Norris pointed out that these boys were so chosen that they might some day, some where become full fledged members of Rotary International. Richard Carroll and Dominic Marabella, both of whom are playing outstanding football on this years team, were the boys so chosen. They received their badges and are expected to be at every meeting of the club until February.

President Don announced that the Board of Directors had voted to have one 'Soap Day' each month and so designated the first Thursday of each month as such. This soap is to be sent to England where such articles are still very scares and expensive. Make-up this week were four in number: Phil Gallagher, Curtis Ware, Sam McNeilly, and Francis MacFeeley. Harry Chefalo stated that the bowling league was off to a good start. In spite of the absence of player Manager Gene Pollard his as yet to be named team is showing the class that made most critics pick them as the winners during the early part of the season in the grapefruit league. Even with 'Ringer' Forbes Norris subbing for Milne Blanchard and bowling a fabulous 133 his team were nosed out by the champs.

The club was indeed fortunate to have for a speaker at this meeting Lt. Arthur O'Leary. A local boy who got his start by trailing along with Charlie Harrold when he made his first patrol. Lt. O'Leary is now Public Relations Officer for the State Police and spoke as a direct representative of the Commissioner of Public Safety. He gave an excellent talk about the training and chosing of the recruits for the State Police. Both of which are rigorous. To illustrate Lt. O'Leary said that last year out of applications of six thousand only fifty men were picked to take the training course at the Framingham barracks. There are physical, mental and written exams to go through before each candidate reaches the school. Incidently the barracks are now permanent barracks that can be used the entire year so schools will be conducted there almost continuously. Since all men must resign and retire at fifty years of age or at the end of twenty years service, the force needs constant replentishments. The recruits day at the barracks sounded like army life only harder. Arising at six they continue all day long until five thirty when supper is served after which they have until seven to themselves. Study then is the pragramme until nine with lights out at nine thirty. The men are allowed no communication with the outside world for the twelve weeks they are at the barracks when they have their graduation. After this they are assigned to one of the four companies throughout the state and further sent to one of the sub stations for duty. After a probation period of six months they cannot be asked to resign except after a court of inquiry hearing.

We have every reason to be proud of these hard working men of the police force for our state and if Lt. O'Leary is an example of all of these men Winchester should, indeed, be proud of her own representative. A fine talk from one of the state's finest . . .

John Francis Fairfield, World War II veteran, and his bride, Betty Smith Fairfield, sailed November 8 on the S. S. Borgholt from New York bound for Foochow, China, as lay missionaries under the American Board of Foreign Missions, Boston. Mr. Fairfield is the brother of Mrs. R. C. Ashenden, Jr., of Pond street, Winchester.

As time ran out at Belmont by Gerty

WINCHESTER, 6: BELMONT, 6

Penalities Hurt Local's Chances. Fans Puzzled at Ending.

"Itty bitty" Class C Belmont held Class B Winchester, the "big powerhouse" of the Boston sports-writers, to a 6-6 tie last Saturday afternoon at Belmont, aided and abetted by a couple of opportune penalties that stalled the locals each time inside the Belmont five yard line.

Winchester had a terrible time of it the first half, being totally lacking in fire and making about every mistake possible.

Even so, Belmont wasn't much better, though the red-clad boys had the ball most of the time and outrushed Winchester 6 first downs and 78 yards to a single first down and 25 yards. Sounds bad, but Belmont for all its advantage never got inside the Winchester 19 yard line and twice with a first down at the local's 20 lost the ball on downs five yards further out.

So when the Belmont's had the ball at Winchester's 26 starting the second quarter, fourth down with 16 yards to go it should have been apparent that they weren't going to run with the leather. Coach Knowlton didn't even make his boys think about it. He sent in Charlie Capone with instructions to defend against a pass, but evidently the boys thought he was fooling or something, because no one knocked Ed Boyle, the pass-catching Belmont end, in, and when "Skippy" Viglioro started off toward his left as if on a sweep the Winchester deep-field right zone defender came up and started toward the center of the field.

That was just dandy for Mr. Viglioro and Mr. Boyle, the former arching a long cross-over pass to the big end, who clutched the ball inside the five and fell across the goal line for a touchdown. Big "Skitch" Carroll, who had been fooled on the play, might still have knocked the ball down, had he watched the leather instead of the sprinting Belmont end.

Capt. Janoni failed to kick the extra point very fortunately indeed, the ball striking the upright and bouncing out instead of in.

The local boys snapped out of their lethargy after the score, and coming out for the new half ripped and tore through the Belmont line from their own 29 to the Belmont 6 where it was first and goal to go.

Amico bucked for four and Dillingham was just short of the goal when Umpire Flanders called a back-in-motion penalty against Winchester, placing the ball back on the seven.

Dillingham got back two and Amico three, but on 4th down Dillingham was stopped a foot from pay dirt and Belmont took over.

Bellissimi was stopped just outside the goal line and Belmot kicked outside at its 35. Amico immediately busted through to the 24 and after Dillingham had added seven, again hit the line for a first down at the 12. Dillingham picked up two, then failed to gain. A jump pass out to the left from Amico to Dillingham went to the five, Dillingham added a long yard and then Amico powered over off right tackle. Dillingham's try for the point after from placement was wide.

The third quarter ended with the ensuing kickoff and Winchester murdered Belmont's attempt to get the ball away from their 19. Gogan kicked outside at Winchester's 40 and the aroused locals set sail again for the Belmont goal-line.

With Amico ripping and tearing inside the tackles, aided by an 11 yard reverse by "Lally" Myers Winchester made it first down at the Belmont 24, where Dillingham broke off tackle for a first down at the 10.

Amico hit inside for three and Dillingham reached the five. Once again Amico bucked on a wedge play to the one, but on this down Umpire Flanders called an illegal use of hands penalty, which was changed to holding, and the ball went back to the 20, third and goal to go.

Amico hit Dillingham with a pitchout, but Peter was knocked outside at the 10 on a run that went inside the five, and on fourth down Amico, on a pass play, froze with "Skitchie" Carroll all alone in the end zone and was dumped back on the 20.

Belmont rushed out to a first down, but then two rushes lost three yards and a pass was grounded. On 4th down Belmont lost five yards for stalling, and when one of the boys vehemently questioned the referee's refusal to tell him the remaining time, Referee Rhinehalter paced off 15 more yards, placing the ball back in the shadow of the Belmont goal.

Before the ball could be put in play time ran out, with both teams milling around out there and many thinking Belmont had forfeited because of the 15 yard penalty.

Thirty seconds remained to be played before the last play and if the clock was stopped as it should have been while the penalties were stepped off there should have been time for that last play or two which could have meant the ball-game either way.

It is too bad it had to be Flanders who twice penalized Winchester inside the Belmont five. The taste in Winchester's mouth would have been much sweeter if it hadn't been a former Belmont football star who called the only two penalties Winchester got all afternoon when they hurt the most.

MALDEN P. O. BOWLERS TAKEN BY WINCHESTER

While Arlington, the present league leaders by virtue of one point battled with Somerville and finally succeeded in eeking out a 3 to 1 win, Winchester took the strong Malden P. O. over by the same tune and only lost the one point by one pin.

D. Coss of Winchester was the outstanding bowler of the match when he came up with 125 in the second string, finishing with 320 for the three string total.

Next week Winchester has to battle Chelsea P. O. which means another grim battle for the survival of the fittest while Arlington P. O. will come to grips with the unpredictable Reading P. O. aggregation and anything can happen.

The present standing:

BROCHURE BY
E. De La FLOOCHE
"JINGLES DE LA HABITANT"
UNIQUE PUBLICATION

From time to time STAR readers have seen in our columns communications in the French Canadian idiom, signed by one E. De La Flooche, and covering a wide range of subjects in a unique style.

Those who have read these articles, poems, etc., have liked them, the editor included, and so it was that we were delighted this week to receive from Mons. Flooche, a compilation of his writings, under heading "Jingles De La Habitant".

They are good reading, once you get the hang of the French "Canuck" lingo, and there is a lot of homely wit and real philosophy lurking between the quaintly turned lines.

E. De La Flooche is to you Elmer D. Fletcher, a well known Winchester resident from away back, something of an authority on the old days on the west side and devoted to the cause of trees and forestry, having rendered professional service in the latter field.

Thanks for the little brochure, Elmer. We enjoyed the "jingles" no end, just as he have always enjoyed and profited from your communications to the STAR. Keep them coming, whenever anything of a public nature seems to warrant Mons. Flooche's attention.

GIRLS SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts' Mother-Daughter Tea and Fashion Show at the First Baptist Church last Thursday was a huge success despite the rainy day. Mrs. E. G. Pierce and her committee are to be congratulated for their excellently smooth job . . . Mrs. Maurice Freeman, Mrs. Hazen Ayer, Mrs. Gerald Curtis, Mrs. George Connors, Mrs. Edward James, Mrs. W. Bradford Hersey, and Mrs. Joseph Donnell, were her committee.

The fashions, as selected by Filene's, were just what the mothers liked and also their daughters . . . as judged by the Ohs and Ahs and applause. The commentators, Beth McCall, Joan McKinley kept the talk running easily which added to the feeling of a smoothly run function. The cold hard facts of dollars and cents cost of the costumes left this mother with the impression that Filene's chose the clothes for their suitability but also for their reasonableness, an item sometimes overlooked by fashion shows!

Those who modelled are: Janice Lynch, Jill Sibley, Elizabeth Curtis, Victoria Dudley; leaders, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. McClintock, Mrs. Ditmars; Adele Mitchell, N. Switzer, Virginia Dowe, Dierdre Donovan, Mary Ann Damon, Linda Nanry and Judy Snelling wearing the new and old Intermediate Scout uniforms, Marguerite Ducharme, Dabeny Pierce, Mary Laird, Marion Mereweather, Stehie Hersey, C. Eaton, Carol Cleaves, Althea Hersey, Janet Lynch, Carolyn Padelford, Andre Litchfield, Constance Post and Ann Farquhar in Senior Scout uniforms, Marcia Lynch and Barbara Clarke, Kathleen Doherty, Martha Bailey, L. Keefe and Joan Sweetser.

On Monday evening, the entire Association met in the Art Gallery of the Library. The Commissioner, Mrs. George Cary greeted those present and after the usual reports of chairmen of the various committees, minutes, etc., several announcements of note were made . . . Mrs. Cullen announced the sectional training meeting to be held in Concord on November 16th and all leaders were urged to attend . . . bring a box lunch, coffee and donuts being furnished by the Concord Council. Mrs. William McClintock told of the operetta being presented by the 7th and 8th grade Scouts in January . . . much more about that later. The new 1949 budget was read and discussed. Mrs. Metcalfe announced a new project of service to be instituted with the aid of Miss Mead . . . It will be for shut-ins.

Two of the three Senior Scouts which have represented Winchester at various meetings this fall were present and talked on their experiences. Ann Farquhar spoke on her thrill at Cooperstown, N. Y., when she was one of ten girls representing Massachusetts at the work camp prior to the International conference. And Alice Hodge told of her experience at the conference of the Eastern Amateur Ski Association, meeting at the Hotel Pennsylvania, in New York. I hear that Alice made a very good impression there, to the extent of securing aid and advice for the Storrow Troops winter plans. Ginny Dyer was also at the regional meeting at Swampscott.

Then followed the showing of of the new Kodachromes of the Hostel trip to Montreal and return, Day Camp shots, and training pictures, and the ski pictures and mountain trips of Mrs. Parsons' troop. It is easy to see why Winchester has such an active Senior program . . . with active leaders.

The meeting closed after Mrs. Miller's report on the progress of the building committee and "Dreams can come true!"

MYSTIC SCHOOL LIBRARY

The very successful "branch library" at the Mystic School begins its 3rd year this year. As in the past, Miss Corinne Mead, librarian at the public library, has sent 300 books for circulation among the boys and girls of grades 4, 5, and 6. Mrs. Chester Smith, mother in charge, assisted by two sixth graders: Constance Snelling and Richard Borggaard as librarians, will have the first period Friday afternoon. Books are charged and distributed as in any library. Every month the workers change so that by the end of the year all sixth grade pupils will have had experience and understanding of Library work and the pleasure of making it possible for many more school mates to read more good books.

WINCHESTER COLLEGE CLUB

On Tuesday evening, November 9, at the Church of the Epiphany the Winchester College Club and their guests had the rare privilege of hearing Dr. John S. Bodeau, President of the American University of Cairo, Egypt.

It was expected that the speaker would be Payson S. Wild, Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of Harvard University. But owing to illness he was obliged to cancel his engagement for the previous evening.

So it was our great good fortune that Dr. Badeau was in Boston and kindly consented to speak. His subject was "Changing Patterns in the Middle East". Dr. Badeau is graduate of Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., with a B. S. degree.

Graduate of Union Theological School he served as missionary in Mesapotania, Mosul and Iraq. Travelled throughout the Middle East. Appointed Professor of Philosophy at the American University at Cairo, Egypt in 1936 - made Dean of the Faculty in 1938 - and in 1945 elected President of the University.

During the war Dr. Badeau was made chief of the Middle Eastern Division of the U. S. Office of War Information in Washington. He is an engineer turned philosopher, a missionary became a great Christian Educator in the heart of the Moslem lands, a counsellor of statesmen, friend of the people of the vital Middle East, a wise interpreter of the East to the West and the West to the East.

His talk was very informative and thoroughly enjoyed by the large group which attended the meeting.

COST ACCOUNTANTS TO MEET

On Tuesday evening, November 16th, members of Boston Chapter of The National Association of Cost Accountants, will meet at the Boston City Club, to hear an address by Mr. Thomas A. Budd, Vice Dean of Wharton School of Finance and Commerce of the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Budd has chosen as his subject "The Selection and Training of Cost Accountants". Local members actively engaged in the promotion of this event are: Thomas L. Morison, 4 Highland Terrace, (Past President of Boston Chapter), Kenneth W. Lamprey, 116 Wildwood street, Charles Craven, 8 Wyman court, (Chairman of the Hospitality Committee of Boston Chapter, and the outstanding member of the organization in this field).

NEEDLE-WORK GUILD WINCHESTER BRANCH

Thirty-nine years ago a group of interested women founded our Town-Branch of this Nation-wide Guild, to help build a bridge from "those who have to those who have not."

We are one of the 500 Branches throughout the United States, which means that there are nearly 1,000,000 members. In the autumn every year there is the one and only meeting. There is no red-tape, and the only requisite for membership is the annual gift of two new articles of clothing or household-linens. The ingathering and distribution of all these much-needed articles is in charge of the directors.

Here in Winchester, as the towns-people know, all the Church Welfare-Workers and representatives from the nursing organizations personally give out the articles with kindly extended hands. Many needs have been supplied through this avenue.

The date of meeting this year is Thursday, November 18 - the time 2:30 p. m. - the place, Epiphany Parish House. The speaker: Mrs. Jane Lord, Director of Winchester Nurses. There will be a social hour with tea, and anyone interested will be cordially welcomed. For further information call Mrs. Herbert Kelley, President, 3 Willow street. Tel. 6-1002-J.

MACEFIELD IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE

Macefield -- jewels and silversmithing -- located at 6 Winchester place, Winchester, announces advancement to full time schedule.

Since opening in April, 1948, Macefield has grown until now the full time and attention of both partners, William Mason and Leonard Field, are required.

Mr. Field has resigned his position as commercial artist in Boston in order to arrive at the plan of operation originally determined upon. This result has been accomplished at an earlier date than heretofore was thought possible.

Mr. Field, an artist of some renown, will devote his time and efforts to designing jewelry and original articles of silver to meet the desires of clients. He will supervise the salesroom and discuss with, and advise patrons as to the style and form of jewelry and silver most suitable and appropriate to their requirements.

Mr. Mason, a graduate of the Boston School of the Museum of Fine Arts, is an accomplished artist whose entire time will be devoted to the intricate task of interpreting their designs in gold and silver.

The ambition of Macefield, as stated in its opening announcement, is to work on the highest level of the fine art of hand wrought metals. These young artists are gratified to have been able to live up to such a high standard through public demand for fine, artistic, and original work -- truly a new step in an old art.

All designs are original, emphasis being directed to style suitable to the individual, embodying modern yet classic expression. All work is done in sterling or 14K gold. Genuine stones are used from the Macefield collection, or Macefield will redesign the setting of the patron's jewelry.

The hours are 9 to 5 Monday through Saturday, and any evening by appointment (WInchester 6-2989).

WINCHESTER LODGE, NO. 1580 NEWS

The Winchester Lodge's Bowling league bowled Tuesday night at the Sports Center for the fourth week of its 21 week schedule. Two records were broken; the single 3-string and the team single.

Harry Chefalo broke the 3 string single record of 334, which was held by his brother Anthony, with a 106-117 and 120 for a total of 343. The team single string record of 533 was broken by Holy Cross with a 536.

The evening's highs were: High individual single: F. Procopio, 130; High individual 3 string total: H. Chefalo, 343; High team single: Holy Cross, 536; High team 3 string: Holy Cross, 1461. Holy Cross is still in the lead.

Twenty-one bowlers had at least one string of 100 or over. Those who bowled 300 or over were: F. Procopio, 315; H. Chefalo, 343; W. Fiore, 318; J. Russo, 323; A. Chefalo, 305.

After the matches of the Lodge League were over, the team representing the Winchester Lodge bowled the V. F. W. Team in the Winchester Bowling League. They set the pace for the rest of the league by taking 4 points from the Vets. The team 3 string total of 1539 and the team single of 534 are pretty good marks for the other teams of the league to shoot for.

ALBERT BENJAMIN SELLER

Albert Benjamin Seller, proprietor of Seller's Market and a provision dealer in Winchester for half a century, died suddenly Thursday evening, November 11, of an acute heart attack, at his home, 34 Glen road. He had been at his market the day previous and out during the afternoon of Armistice day, his sudden passing coming as a severe shock to his family and many friends in the community. He had lived in Winchester since 1910.

Mr. Seller was the son of John and Susan (Balderston) Seller. He was born January 16, 1876, at North River, P. E. I., but came with his parents to Woburn as a boy of five and attended the Woburn schools graduating from Woburn High School. His father had a market in Woburn and as a young man Mr. Seller became associated with him in business there.

Nearly fifty years ago when his father opened his Winchester market Mr. Seller came with him to work in the store on Washington street and after the death of his father he became proprietor, continuing the business for the past 40 years. During much of this time he had with him at the local market his brother, the late Herbert B. Seller, who died in April of 1945. The market is among the oldest uninterrupted businesses conducted by one family in Winchester.

Aside from business Mr. Seller was widely known and his genial personality made him many friends among persons of all walks in life. He was a member of William Parkman Lodge of Masons and of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, singing for many years in the church choir.

Especially interested in vocal music, Mr. Seller had a pleasant baritone voice of good size, often appearing as soloist on the programs of the Winchester Music Garden, of which he was for many years a member. He was a member of the Winchester Choral Society and often sang at musicales for the family at the Home for Aged People. He leaves one sister, Miss Edith Jane Seller of this town.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the Tripp Funeral Home in Woburn with Rev. George A. Butters of the Waltham Methodist Church, formerly pastor of the Crawford Memorial Church, officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Woodbrook Cemetery, Woburn.

WINCHESTER BOYS AMONG SOLDIER DEAD BACK FROM EUROPE

The bodies of two Winchester boys, those of Pfc. Michael S. Gillotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Gillotte of 12 Cedar street, and Pvt. Robert C. Nyquist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. E. Nyquist of 29 Grayson road, are among the 7,572 bodies that arrived in New York this week on the Army Transport Carroll Victory. The transport left Antwerp, November 6. Of the dead aboard 341 are from New England and 221 from Massachusetts.

The Star offers congratulations and best wishes to Mrs. Caroline Robbins of the Winchester Chambers who observed her 94th birthday on Wednesday, Nov. 17.

STAFF SGT. HAROLD WILBERT CALLANAN

BODY OF WINCHESTER GUNNER ARRIVES TODAY

The repatriated body of Staff Sergeant Harold Wilbert "Bert" Callanan, USAAF., son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Callanan of 18 Englewood road, formerly of 77 Church street, arrives in Winchester this afternoon on the 4:36 train from Boston. It will be met at the station by Malcolm D. Bennett of Kelley & Hawes Funeral Service and by uniformed representatives of Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion, and Aberjona Post, 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The body of the young soldier will be taken to the Kelley & Hawes Chapel where it will lie in state until Sunday afternoon when funeral services will be held at 2:30 at the First Congregational Church. The pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, will officiate and military honors will be accorded by Winchester veterans' organizations. Interment will be in Wildwood Cemetery. Visiting hours at the chapel will be Friday evening from 7-9, and Saturday, from 2 to 5 and 7-9.

Sgt. Callanan was shot in the head during an engagement June 9, 1943, in the Middle Eastern area while serving as gunner on a big Army bomber over Pantelleria in Italian territory. His pilot flew to the nearest friendly base, Malta, where "Bert" was admitted to the British Naval Hospital. He died during the evening of June 9, exactly a year after his graduation from Winchester High School, his death occuring at the same hour. He was the first real Winchester boy actually reported killed in action.

Sgt. Callanan was born January 24, 1924, in Dorchester, the son of John W., and Helen (Sawdy) Callanan. He came with his parents to Winchester at the age of two years and grew up in town, attending the Winchester schools and graduating from Winchester High School with the class of 1942. He was president of his class as a junior and in his senior year was president of the Athletic Association, playing on both the football and basketball teams and being a member of the track team.

Football fans will recall his great tackle of Woburn's Bobby Roche just before the final whistle of the 1941 Winchester-Woburn game which ensured Winchester a 7-0 victory.

Sgt. Callanan was one of the original members of the SSS Tarquin, Winchester's first Sea Scout Ship. He enlisted in the Army June 19, 1942, choosing aviation, and training at a number of flying fields in the United States before going overseas to Dutch Guinea and Egypt. His parents last heard from him at Cairo, Egypt, May 16, 1943.

Besides his parents, Sgt. Callanan leaves two half-brothers, Gerald Howard of Winchester and Joseph William Howard of Rox.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Protestant Churches of Winchester will observe Thanksgiving Sunday evening, November 21, with a Union Service to be held in the Church of the Epiphany commencing at 7:45.

Rev. Howard J. Chidley, D.D., of the First Congregational Church will preach on "Forgotten Favors". The offering at the service will be used to defray the expenses of a religious census to be taken of the newer sections of Winchester.

The public is cordially invited to participate in this service of Thanksgiving.

CABOT — RANDALL

Miss Frances Elaine Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denton W. Randall of Everell road, and Philip Dwight Cabot of Stetson Hall, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. Dwight Cabot, formerly of this town, were married on Saturday afternoon, November 13, at the First Congregational Church by the pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley. J. Albert Wilson, organist and choirmaster, played the bridal music for the four o'clock candlelight service.

Miss Randall was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin, trimmed with Chantilly lace and a matching fingertip-length veil. Her bouquet combined Eucharis lilies and fleurs de l'amour.

Mrs. Thomas H. Hoover, of Roslyn, N. Y., was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Susan Taylor of Winchester, small niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Bridesmaids were Miss Leila Jane Smith and Mrs. Richard Yardley of Winchester, Miss Eunice M. Saunders of New York City and Mrs. Willard S. Durham of Arlington.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids were gowned in faille taffeta, the honor attendant wearing peacock blue and the bridesmaids, American Beauty. All carried buoquets of Rubrum lilies. The flower girl wore a white frock and carried pink rosebuds with bouvardia.

John H. Downs of St. Johnsbury, Vt., was Mr. Cabot's best man and the usher corps comprised Charles E. Stickney of Portland, Me., William E. Mann of Roselle, N. J., Richard Yardley of Winchester and Willard S. Durham of Arlington.

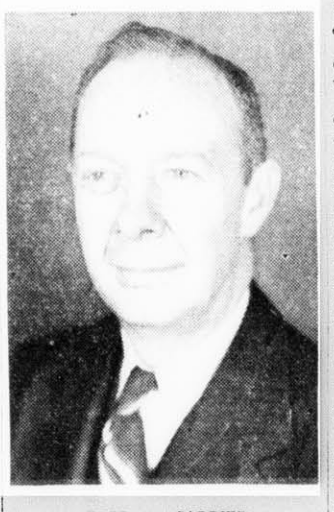
FINAL EFFORT NEEDED TO END COMMUNITY DRIVE

Winchester's greatest community activity, the Red Feather Community Fund campaign, needs one big, final effort to carry it across the goal line to success.

Powell M. Cabot, Chairman of the Greater Boston campaign and Earl G. Carrier, Chairman of the Winchester campaign have expressed grave concern over the meeting of the Fund's absolute minimum needs on the eve of the campaign's final wind-up.

"To all those good people of Winchester who in their own hearts can say they have given all they can to see the Red Feather campaign, may I express deepest thanks," says Mr. Cabot. "You have contributed to the well-being of your home community and proved your own faith in our democratic system. It is simply unthinkable that 32 Red Feather hospitals, serving 160,000 people including many from this community, will face deficits and have to curtail their services. We cannot permit thousands of Greater Boston children to be deprived of special care, protection or guidance next year. We must not and cannot allow our boys in uniform to know that we have failed to raise our share for the USO."



EARL G. CARRIER
Chairman Winchester Community Fund Campaign

If you who are reading the STAR have not yet been solicited or wish to increase your gift, won't you please get in touch at once with campaign headquarters at the Winchester Town Hall, by phone, call or mail. Your timely assistance at this critical juncture will be more than appreciated.

Campaign headquarters is also asking all of the Red Feather volunteer workers to check over their cards and clean up any or all stray prospects now while there is yet time for Winchester to maintain its proud record of previous years and to stand favorable comparison with other neighboring communities, some of which have already announced attainment of 100% or more of their quotas.

If everyone in our community understands the need for more generous giving our workers will have done their part.

If every one in our community has searched his or her heart and decided they have given all they can, Winchester will not fail. Ours is a great town in which to live. Here is one way we can demonstrate that fact.

INTERNATIONAL HOSPITALITY

A meeting was called last week at the home of Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff of Highland avenue to hear about the very useful activities of the International Student Association of Greater Boston as described by Mrs. Katherine Johnson, the hospitality chairman for the Association. Mrs. Johnson hoped that as many Winchester people as possible would become interested in sharing their homes for Thanksgiving dinner or for any following Sunday dinner or supper with one or more of the many foreign students attending colleges in and around Boston.

Already ather communities have shown their interest in these students from abroad and their townspeople have been greatly stimulated by meeting these students from so many different foreign countries not only by hearing about their fascinating experiences but also by feeling the deep gratitude these young foreign scholars have for being brought into American homes for a few hours. Furthermore, Mrs. Johnson pointed out that as a plain matter of improving international understanding, it is a magnificent opportunity for the people of Winchester to put in their bit toward correcting some of the illusions so many outsiders have toward the United States by letting them see what we really do and say in everyday life. Naturally, any chance for these foreign students to get a truly American viewpoint can be of great satisfaction to both host and guest, since many lasting friendships already have been made from Student - Host relationships.

Although many others are interested, those attending the meeting were the Reverend Dwight Hadley, Mrs. Guy Livingstone, Mrs. Lester Armstrong, Mrs. Langley Keyes, Mrs. Norman Padelford Miss Virginia Burr, Dr. Harry Benson and Mr. Kilbrith J. Barrows. These feel that Winchester has a great opportunity of meeting and knowing students from almost every country in the world since there are 1,600 students of 70 different nationalities represented in greater Boston colleges alone.

Already planning to entertain foreign students for Thanksgiving are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drake who will have two boys and two girls; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hand who will have two French students. Mrs. and Mrs. Clarence Nickerson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Caldwell who will each have two students.

Miss Virginia Burr and Mrs. Carlene Samoiloff are acting temporarily as hostess contacts for Winchester. If local families would like to share their Thanksgiving dinners or any other meal or week-ends throughout the year, they may get further information from Miss Burr at WInchester 6-2415 or from Mrs. Samoiloff at WInchester 6-2033.

DR. BRUNER AT FINAL MORNING OF DIVERSION

Dr. Jerome Seymour Bruner of Harvard gave his audience at the final Morning of Diversion program, November 12 a new insight into the question of how and why people form opinions. Drawing for illustration on the peoples of New Guinea, he mentioned three principal types of public opinion. First is the ritualistic one or doing the "proper" thing without thinking any more about it, second the affiliative type or doing what ones group would do, and third the spontaneous type in which the individual makes up his own mind.

Dr. Bruner also said that our opinions serve some function for us or we wouldn't hold them. He suggested that in order to maintain what he called the fresh eye in approaching problems, it is helpful to travel or work with an entirely different group, have an inner security which enables us to look outside ourselves when forming opinions, be able to distinguish real from fake crisis in the news, and finally to have a creative interest in the new and unknown. Dr. Bruner prefaced his talk with some revealing comments on why the public opinion experts were so wrong in their election predictions.

This was the third and last in a series of three Mornings of Diversion sponsored by the Winchester Wellesley Club to benefit the 75th Anniversary Fund of the college. Others who spoke at previous mornings were Mrs. Eleanor Manning O'Connor, architect, and David Barnett who gave a piano concert with comments. Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard has been chairman of the series and her committee has included Mrs. Paul B. Leverette, tickets; Mrs. Wayne E. Davis, publicity; Mrs. Lindsay H. Caldwell, coffee; Mrs. Samuel B. Kirkwood, decorations; Mrs. William B. Lunsford and Mrs. Thomas M. Downes.

Mrs. Edward R. Grosvenor and Mrs. Richard W. Wyman poured at the coffee hour preceding the lecture. In response to many requests another series of Mornings of Diversion will be given next fall.

Miss Dorothy Clarke, a freshman at Mount Holyoke college, toured the Westover Air Force Base weather station last week as a member of the geography classes studying meteorology. Miss Clarke is the daughter of Mrs. John Clarke of 149 Highland avenue.

POLICEMEN HELD ANNUAL BALL

The Winchester Police Relief Association held its annual Concert and Ball Tuesday evening at the Town Hall with the usual capacity attendance.

Milton George and his Orchestra played for dancing and for the six acts of vaudeville which were put on by Hamid, Inc., Amusements, of Boston under the personal direction of Jacy Collier.

"Jake" Dornan of Dornan Brothers, one of the acts on the bill, served as master of ceremonies and the show opened with a novel acrobatic and balancing act by the brother-sister team of Marion and Vic Miller, Miss Miller singing while being balanced about by her powerful brother.

"Salvy" Caviccio, "wizard of the Xylophone", followed the Millers and added interest to his masterly performance by calling upon the audience to join in singing some of the more popular numbers. His playing of such masterpieces as "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" by Rimsky-Korsakoff demonstrated his remarkable technique to advantage.

Featuring Manny Williams' comedy act was his taking what looked to be a live skunk from a hat and passing it to his stooge, Louis Farrell. The latter promptly threw the wood-pussy away toward the audience, the first few rows in the house emptying rapidly. Williams saved the day by shooting the supposed skunk in mid-air.

The Dornan Brothers offered close harmony and ventriloquism, assisted by a group of stooges from the audience, whose antics were much enjoyed. Ending the bill in rapid-fire fashion were Dot and Dash, colored boy and girl dancers, who trod the boards well and fast.

Following the show the hall was cleared and dancing enjoyed until one, with elbow room very much at a premium during the earlier hours.

Patrolman Daniel I. Reardon headed the ball committee as chairman with Patrolman Robert A. Elliott as treasurer and Lt. Edward W. O'Connell as floor marshall. Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy was assistant floor marshall and the floor directors were Sergeants Joseph J. Derro and James E. Farrell. Patrolmen Henry P. Dempsey and Archie T. O'Connell were chief aides.

Chief Charles J. Harrold was in charge of invitations with Patrolman Joseph L. Quigley handling correspondence, Patrolman James E. Flaherty, refreshments, and Patrolman Edward F. Bowler, programme. Entertainment and music were in charge of Patrolmen John H. Boyle, William J. Callahan, John H. Elliott, William T. Haggerty, John J. Murray, James F. Noonan and John F. Reardon. Patrolmen William E. Cassidy and John F. Hogan acted as reception committee, and tickets and contributions were in charge of Patrolmen John J. Dolan, Clarence E. Dunbury, Thomas F. Hannon, Winthrop A. Palmer, Thomas C. Parsons and Alfred W. Poole.

MANN AMONG EXHIBITORS

G. Russell Mann of Fenwick road is one of "The Men Who Paint for Fun" whose work is to be exhibited throughout the year by the Home Savings Bank of Boston at 69 Tremont street.

A new picture by one of the hobbyist painters will be shown each week in one of the bank windows. Mr. Mann's study, "Cape Breton, N. S.," will go on display March 7.

CHELSEA P. O. TAKES WINCHESTER

Evidently all the leading teams in the league were on edge as they passed the half-way mark in the Suburban P. O. Bowling League as the first three all lost 3 to 1, fourth place lost 4 to 0 and fifth place was only able to tie.

This means that Arlington has still a one point margin over Winchester for first place and Wakefield, Chelsea and Belmont are tied for third, followed by one point margin over Malden and one point puts W. Somerville in seventh place.

WINCHESTER GIRLS WON AND TIED

Winchester High School girls' field hockey team beat Melrose, 3-0, last Friday and played a scoreless tie with Belmont Monday to close their 1948 season undefeated. Both games were played on Ginn Field, the Belmont game having been twice postponed.

The local girls didn't have too much trouble with Melrose, though they were held scoreless after half time. Joan Morgan, Debbie Symmes and Dee Barrett tallied for Winchester.

In the 1-1 second team tie Bette Kneeland scored Winchester's only goal. The summary:

Winchester		Melrose
Aitkens, lw		lw, Behrle

Winchester, 3; Melrose, 0. Goals, Morgan, Symmes, Barrett. Umpires, Page and LaMaire. 15 minute halves.

Neither Winchester nor Belmont could break a scoreless deadlock in Monday's game. Both teams entered the game undefeated and neither would permit the other to tally.

Winchester carried the game to the visitors during much of the first half, having the ball in Belmont territory most of the time. The second half saw Belmont pressing and threatening to score. Play was around the Winchester striking circle toward the end of the game, and Goaler Coulson had to make several stops.

In the preliminary game the Winchester seconds outclassed the Belmont Jay Vees, 6-0, with Bette Kneeland tallying 3 goals and Jane Chiswell, Sylvia Gagen and June Ryan, one each. The summary:

WILMINGTON HAD GREAT SEASON UNDER DeTESO

Wilmington High closed a great football season under Tony DeTeso on Armistice Day by outclassing Tewksbury High 54-0 to finish unbeaten and untied. If memory serves Wilmington was only scored on once all season and ought to be right up there for the Class D title despite the fact that several Class D clubs played last Saturday and will play again Thanksgiving.

Armistice Day marked Wilmington's first victory over Tewksbury in 10 years, and DeTeso's team surely made up for lost time. The former Winchester High and Tufts football star, tried not to rub it in, but Tewksbury was so weak that practically every time Wilmington got the ball it meant a touchdown.

A big crowd from Winchester went up to see the game, and had the pleasure of seeing DeTeso carried off the field by his enthusiastic players at the final whistle. He has a good sized club and his boys handle the ball very well.

Robert E. Cowan of Winchester recently visited the Purina Research Farm at Gray Summit, Mo., where he saw many practical operations to increase the nation's supply of meat, milk and eggs.

GARDNER CHAMP

Lancers Upset at Palmer Street

History was once more made at the regular matches of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association last week-end. At the previous meeting the Secretary won championship honors, an unheard of event, and this past week-end saw the famous "Lake Street Lancers", comprising Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham and "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnassett (but not of Tyngsboro) go down in defeat, two straight at that, before Herbert "Garrulous" Gardner and President Royal "Paper Trade" Teele. The Lancers not only were swonked, but dam well swonked, averaging only 5 and one-half points per game.

It goes without saying that Mr. Teele went home to some very sweet soup after giving Mr. McLaughlin "the works". Any time he can hand "Wild Willie" the business it is a signal for a half-holiday at the R. P. Teele Paper Company with double grog for all hands. It is only fair to say that none of his employees is likely to become an alcoholic celebrating their boss's victories over the "Pride of Stow", if not of Tyngsboro. Mr. McLaughlin loses but seldom.

As a matter of record he carried Mr. Teele to victory over Mr. Gardner and Mr. Pridham in the match preceeding the "deflocuation" of the "Lancers". Mr. Gardner, with three wins out of four starts was "Champ" for the session.

Mr. Teele's last words as he gleefully left the court were to the effect that when he got back from Wells River he would be in to see the boys. From the way the "Lancers" at least were feeling after their unexepected defeat it is a very moot question whether they will be glad to see him!

HARVEST FAIR

The Women's Society of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church held a very successful Harvest Fair under the capable direction of Mrs. Richard Smith. In spite of damp weather their friends came from far and near and were well rewarded for their interest. The tables were covered with lovely hand made gifts, plain and fancy aprons, beautiful flowers and plants, novelty candles, food, candy and jewelry.

The attic was a popular place with a lot of interesting things for young and old.

A delicious corn chowder with plenty of taste appeal was served at noon by Mrs. Milton Galucia and her committee. The high light of the occasion being the visit of Mrs. John Westley Lord the wife of the newly appointed Bishop of The New England Conference as the Guest of Mrs. Richard Smith.

The childrens fair in the afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Mortimer Ward 3rd with the help of the young people of the Youth Fellowship was a lot of fun with movies, entertainment, grabs and ice cream.

The supper of Baked Ham with all the fixings was attended by over 300 friends who voted it up to its usual standard which is always Tops. Mrs. Donald Wilkins and her staff deserve much credit for the excellent service given.

Every one reported good selling at all the tables and a feeling of WELL DONE is shared by one and all.

A Woburn man picked a good place to have a fire in his automobile Monday noontime, Fireman Harold Fitzgerald noticing that his car was afire as he pulled in at the curbing in front of the Savings Bank, next to the Central Fire Station. The Firemen had the fire out in short order.

CONNAWAY SHOW AT LIBRARY

The Winchester Art Association is sponsoring an exhibition of oil and water color paintings by Jay Connaway at the Library Art Gallery during November, the show being open to the public.

Many marines are included in Mr. Connaway's show, two of them, "Sea Power" and "Storm and Fog" being particularly striking. Difficult to describe, the first suggests white water pouring into either a sea cave or nitch in the rocks and is cleverly painted. The second shows a great white curler looming ghostly through mist with brown beach grass and a storm-gnarled tree in the foreground.

Among the water colors "Red Farm", with patches of snow and prosaic farm buildings, is interesting. Mr. Connaway apparently likes the effect of snow for practically all of his canvases are snow scenes.

"Dorset in Winter" is a study in grays and whites with snow-topped haystacks nestling under a towering snow-patched highland. The artist has been very successful in painting a feeling of cold loneliness into "Bleak Winter Mountain" with its slab-sided weather-beaten buildings in the foreground.

"Autumn Foliage" is full of color and is a nice composition. Charming landscapes are "Snow on the Mountains" and "Early Snow, Vermont", the homely detail of the latter canvas adding to its effectiveness. "Miltone Falls, Vermont," and "Clear Blue Day" are splendid snow pictures.

Getting back to the sea motif, "Crows Point" is strongly painted with the water played down and the emphasis placed on the rugged orangy-brown rocks. "Green Breakers" shows a bit of brown beach grass and wind-swept trees with huge creaming curlers beyond.

"Winter Sea" is a fine study in aqua, gray and white, a muffled figure contemplating the surging water from a rock in the foreground. A stormy, slate colored sky and rugged dark rocks give a sullen threatening look to the marine, "Monhegan Maine".

WINCHESTER AND WOBURN AWAIT HOLIDAY WHISTLE

Winchester and Woburn High Schools play their annual Thanksgiving football game this year next Thursday morning at the Woburn High School Stadium at the rear of the high school on Montvale avenue, commencing at 10:15.

The game will be the 43rd of a series that goes back to 1891 and is one of the oldest rivalries in Greater Boston schoolboy football. Winchester has won 19 and Woburn 16 games, with seven ties, indicating the closeness of the competition through the years. Woburn has an edge in the competition since the close of World War I, with 13 wins to 11 for Winchester and 11 ties. During the eight years Coach Henry Knowlton has been directing Winchester the locals have won five, and Woburn, three games.

A year ago Winchester was slightly favored, having won seven and lost two, rolling up 102 points to 57 for the opposition. Woburn, against about the same sort of competition, had a six-and-three record with 70 points for and 69 against.

The Tanners, however, completely dominated last year's meeting, though their 13-0 win resulted from bad defensive lapses on the part of Winchester, rather than any great class displayed by the spirited Orange.

Going into this year's game Winchester has by far the better record. The locals have won six and tied one, while losing two. Woburn has won only one, tied two and lost six, against teams averaging about the same as those Winchester has faced.

Against the same teams Winchester has definitely the better record. The locals beat Wakefield, 12-7, Reading, 13-0, and Stoneham, 27-0, losing to Watertown, 6-0. Woburn won from Stoneham, 7-0, its only victory of the season, lost to Wakefield, 13-0; to Reading, 20-7, and Watertown, 19-6. There surely is nothing in that record on which to install the Tanners as favorites the holiday. Any team that can score only once against Stoneham can not have too potent an offense.

As a matter of fact Woburn hasn't shown too much offensively this year, scoring only 39 points all season while yielding 94. Winchester has tallied 122 points while yielding 54.

For all this, we expect Woburn will give Winchester a helluva ballgame on Turkey Day, and it is by no means beyond the bounds of possibility for the Tanners, playing inspired ball, as they generally do against the locals, to eke out their second victory. They shouldn't, but they doggoned well may. Last year's thing is too fresh in our minds to make any out-and-out predictions.

It the published weights are correct Winchester will have a big weight advantage, at least in the starting teams. Of course if the big McKee boys happen to be in for Woburn, that advantage will shrink materially, and if Capone and Burtnett start instead of Galucia and Mascioli Winchester will average less anyhow.

Somehow or other, Woburn always looks pretty big out there against Winchester, and they will be big enough the holiday. Our advice to those who like to back their judgement with coin of the realm is to remember 1947 and go easy. Anything can happen in a Woburn-Winchester game, and a bad field, and the breaks of the game can well prevent either team from realizing its possibilities. Winchester ought to win on the form sheet, but we dunno! We dunno, a-tall!

Here are the season's records of both teams. Read 'em and see what you think!

WINCHESTER LODGE NO. 1580 NEWS

The Winchester Lodge's Bowling League played its fifth match Tuesday night at the Winchester Sportscenter.

Richard Fiore took the High Single with a 133 to beat out Dom Jacobellis' 132. Harry Chefalo's 3-string high of 343 was threatened by A. P. Tofuri who bowled 128 and 117 for the first 2 strings for a total of 245, but his 90 on the third string wasn't quite enough.

A "Deadhorse" Chefalo with the high average of 104.8 bowled a 319 to increase his high average to 105.1 for 15 strings. Richard Fiore's last box of 2 strikes and a 5 did the trick to beat out the 132 high held by D. Jacobellis.

Those who bowled 300 or over were: D. Jacobellis, 302; A. P. Tofuri, 335; Richard Fiore, 319; C. Simonetta, 319; A. Jacobellis, 305; C. Frongello, 300; F. Procopio, 303; S. Lazzaro, 314; A. Chefalo, 313.

Tuesday night's highs were: High Individual single, R. Fiore, 133; Individual 3 string total A. P. Tofuri, 335; High team single Georgetown, 519; High 3-string team total, Notre Dame, 1434.

Plans for the Children's Christmas Party are progressing rapidly and efficiently under the leadership of its chairman Joe Russo. The committee is hard at work to make this party the best one yet. The cooperation of the members, by making their donations as soon as possible is urgently requested.

WINCHESTER LEGIONNAIRES TOURNEY WOBURN

Winchester and Woburn Legionnaires will engage in an inter-post tournament at the Winchester Legion House tonight, November 19, competition including bowling, pool and billiards and cards. Matches at the house will start at 8 o'clock with the bowling teams meeting at the Winchester Sport Center at 7:30.

The tourney grew out of a challenge issued by Commander Robert F. "Sam" Murphy of Winchester Post to Commander "Charlie" Curran of Campbell Post, 101, of Woburn. "Sam" used some pretty strong language in issuing his defy, promising to give the Campbell boys the worst shellacking any team has ever taken in the Mystic Valley.

If anything was needed to get the Woburn Legionnaires hepped up, this promise did the business, and they have been marking time all week until zero hour tonight. Some red-hot competition should be in the making!

WAKING UP WAKEFIELD by GERRY

WINCHESTER, 12; WAKEFIELD, 7

Penalties Hurt Visitors in Typically Hard-Fought Game

Winchester beat Wakefield, 12-7, on the slippery turf of Manchester Field last Saturday afternoon, 12-7, with the result in doubt up to the final whistle. Winchester's failure to convert after both its touchdowns left the locals vulnerable and the way they threw the ball around with 6-0 and 12-7 leads must have given the local coaches a bad time. Losing the ball on downs at the Wakefield 41 in the last quarter with a 12-7 advantage wasn't the smartest thing the locals did all afternoon either.

The visitors rushed the ball to the 47 and then on 4th down a very pardonable roughing-the-kicker penalty gave the Scarlet a first down at the Winchester 32. After Encarnacao was dropped by Dillingham back on the 34 Lefavour grabbed a Rich pass inside the 20. Wakefield lost five for back in motion on the play and the ball went back to the 39. Once again Rich hit Lefavour with a pass close to the local ten, but this time the visitors were offside and the ball went back to the 44.

With the fans on both sides of the field on their feet another pass was incomplete and still another intercepted by the hard-working "Gunner" Abrahamson, who bulled his way to the Wakefield 47 and nearly got into the clear.

A fumble forced the locals to kick and Amico's long spiral missed the coffin-corner and went into the end zone. Fotino and Encarnacao made it first down at the 32 and a Rich-to-Glynn pass reached the 42. A buck added three, but on second down Abrahamson hauled down Rich, on a pass attempt back on the 40 as the game ended.

Winchester was first to score. Early in the first quarter after an exchange of kicks the locals started at their 15. A pretty reverse threw "Lally" Myers into the clear and the little wingback scampered to the Wakefield 44 before being hauled down. Dillingham and Amico got only three, but Myers again made first down at the 31 and Dillingham broke off tackle to the 20.

A pass was grounded and Amico bucked for only three. On third down Myers on a reverse picked up a couple of yards or so and also got the business from a Wakefield tackler who applied his hands liberally to "Lally's" face.

The infraction was right in front of an official and Wakefield lost 15 yards, placing the ball on their one yard line.

A bad pass was fumbled and recovered by Dillingham back on the 5 and a pitch-out pass to Dillingham was no good. On third down Paul Amico hit Captain Vern Slack with a jump pass down the middle for the touchdown. Dillingham failed to convert at placement.

It was right after this that things happened. Wakefield couldn't advance after Lefavour got the kickoff back to his 33 and on the last play of the quarter Glynn kicked to Myers at Winchester's 30.

A pitchout to Dillingham forced Peter back to the 24 and a long pass out in the flat to Slack was too far. All this with a 6-0 lead, too! On third down Glynn intercepted a pass and ran back just inside the Winchester 20, from where Rich passed down the alley to Glynn, who easily scored.

Wakefield was called for back in motion and the ball went back to the 25. Rich got up to the 20, but was stopped dead on another try and two pass plays went incomplete, with Winchester taking over.

The locals kicked out to Wakefield's 45 and Wakefield, failing to gain, booted back to Myers at the Winchester 26. Myers was snowed back on the 21, and Dillingham got only three back off tackle.

A long cross-the-field pass from Amico to Dillingham saw Peter drive to the Wakefield 36, after which Amico powered in two rushes to the Wakefield 20. A pass out to Dillingham was fortunately knocked down instead of intercepted for a touchdown and another pass to Slack went too far. Dillingham couldn't make an inch at tackle, and it was fourth and 10.

At this point Danny Devlin replaced Carroll and tossed off a high wobbly pass down into the right zone, which Myers grabbed just outside the goal line, but couldn't quite get across. The referee placed the ball on the one yard line and Paul Amico drove over off right tackle. A pass from Dillingham to Amico was complete for the extra point, but Paul was spilled at the goal line and though the ball was over his knees were not and the point didn't count.

The half ended on the kickoff, and the second half was all Wakefield, though the visitors scored but once. Their touchdown came about midway through the third quarter after an Amico kick to their 24.

On first down Sardella started as if to sweep right end. Instead he cut back sharply, found a big hole over center and broke into the clear. Winchester's right zone defenders were sucked in badly on the play and couldn't recover in time to head off the tall fullback who galloped 76 long yards for the score. Encarnacao for all he got a bad pass back from center, kicked the goal, the ball just making it through the middle. Winchester made 8 first downs and 139 yards by rushing, completing 5 of 14 passes for 80 yards. Wakefield made 5 first downs and 143 yards by rushing, completed none of their 14 passes, legally! Winchester loss 45 yards in penalties and Wakefield, 35 yards.

RECRUITS GET THEIR "PATCHES"

Editor of the Star:

1100, October 6, was a proud hour for the men of Co. "A", 7th Infantry, Fort Devens, when they finished their basic training, were given their insignia and became full-fledged members of the 3rd Division. These are the men some of you recently lunched with, talked with and reported on.

When presenting the insignia, Major General Robert Grow said, in substance, "You realize now that you have become full-fledged members of one of the greatest fighting units America has ever known - the 3rd Division. No Division has a better record - Africa, Italy, France and through Germany. The 7th Regiment took part in the entire campaign. You men have established a good reputation during basic training; you are good soldiers." Maj. Gen'l Frank Keating, First Service Command represented General Hodges. On congratulating the men he said "I know the men of the 3rd Division well. Before the last war, General Eisenhower commanded the 1st Battalion, General Mark Clark commanded the 3rd Battalion, and I commanded the 2nd Battalion. It is a magnificent Division with a proud history."

Make no mistake about it, along with the new Army programs which are excellent, the principle mission of the Army is the defense of the United States and to that end the training of men to fight as individuals and as a team should any nation, or combination of nations, dare to attack us. From watching and talking to these men on several occasions, the writer is convinced that though just commencing their Army careers, the recruits know, this time, why they are serving, are proud to serve, are content with the way they are being handled and are anxious to have the civilian public know about what is going on. They even went to the extent of buying copies of Jack Hanlon's recent story in the Boston Globe to send home to their parents. They wanted to see the pictures recently shown in Winchester of the Devens trip, and I believe Colonel Strother is having a set put up in the Service Club.

To further disprove the idea that when a man enters the armed services his interest in civilian affairs ended, a careful study of service publications shows an increasing insistence on citizen responsibility. For example, the October issue of "On Course", a personnel publication of the 2234th Air Force Reserve Training Center, Bedford, Mass., carries on the front page a story entitled "Red Feather Drive Begins" with Lt. Col. James H. Starbuck CO making a special appeal to all personnel to follow through with 100% contributions. Capt. Louis C. Renaud PIO has arranged a number of tours so that the personnel may see at first hand the needs of Red Feather services. This is pretty constructive campaigning, the writer hopes we do as well. The editorial is entitled "Why vote?" and, among other things says "It is your duty to go to the polls. An Airman failing to do so is sleeping on guard duty . . ."

It is important that civilians know what is going on in the Armed Services. In the United States the personnel of these forces are the servants of the people, not the masters, and a comparison of our service literature with that of the present totalitarian regimes, as well as that of our former enemies, shows that we are fundamentally the same kind of people - they were not, hence their downfall.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye,
Chairman
Military Manpower Committee.

A REPORT FROM THE WATER AND SEWER BOARD ON THE FUTURE WATER SUPPLY OF WINCHESTER

Editor of the Star:

The Metropolitan District Commission has petitioned the legislature for an increase in the price for water from $40.00 to $55.00 per million gallons. In 1946 the old rate, varying from $75.00 to $130.00 per million gallons to the different cities and towns, was reduced to $40.00 for all customers. It was expected that Cambridge, Brookline, and some other communities would come into the District. The increased consumption by these communities would have produced revenue enough so that $40.00 would be a fair price. Unfortunately up to this time these communities have not seen fit to take advantage of the low rate. It appears that an increase in this price is necessary for the Commssion to balance its accounts.

The Winchester Water and Sewer Board, through the Chairman, Edmund C. Sanderson, took a leading part in getting the reduction and when it was made the Water and Sewer Board decided it was to the advantage of the Town to shut down its West High Service pumps and take water for the territory west of Cambridge street from the Metropolitan Supply as it would cost no more than operating the pumps. The Metropolitan and the Town made an agreement which is binding on the Metropolitan Commission to furnish water at a rate of $40.00 per million gallons and they will not increase this rate to Winchester. The cost of connecting to the Metropolitan was a very small item as the Town had a large water main near the Arlington line. In making this arrangement the Town saved a great deal of money. A new West High Service tank would have had to be purchased at a cost of about $30,000. It has enabled the Water and Sewer Board to shut down the Well Supply thus saving over $5,000 per year. It will be necessary to use the Well Supply only in case of emergency.

This hook-up with the Metropolitan System for the West High Service solves the water supply problem for Winchester for a great many years. We do not see any reason why the balance of the Town should have to go into the Metropolitan System in the future unless it so desires. We are sitting pretty in regard to our future water supply.

Edmund C. Sanderson,
Chairman
Water and Sewer Board.

NEW SCHOOL NOT FIREPROOF!

Editor of the Star:

From time to time I have enjoyed reading letters to the STAR by Mr. Patrick H. Craughwell on many subjects and the expression of his ideas very much.

However, in his letter which appeared in the STAR, November 12, 1948, there is a statement that should not be passed unchallenged. In referring to the new West Side school Mr. Craughwell states, "Everything is apparently fireproof."

It is perfectly possible that Mr. Craughwell made this statement in the hope that it would cause somebody to make a comment such as I am writing now as to the construction of the West Side school.

The word "fire-proof" when related to a type of building construction conveys a conventional meaning to architects and builders that the building is built throughout of noncombustible materials such as brick, tile, concrete, steel, cinder or concrete blocks, gypsum plaster, etc., which of themselves will not support combustion or add fuel to any fire originating in the structure.

If you have visited the West Side school during its construction to see the magnificent view of Winchester, you will notice (if you go inside) that the walls are brick, the floors and roof are wood, the partitions are wood stud with metal lath installed preparatory to the application of plaster finish. The boiler room area and the floor in a portion of the rooms on the lower level are concrete. The wood floor of the assembly room, and certain areas of the lower level are built over unexcavated concealed space.

The unfinished attic space above the ceiling of the upper level class rooms is wide-open from one end of the building to the other. Numerous concealed spaces, enclosures for ducts,, etc., open into the attic. It is my opinion that fire originating behind the plaster finish could spread throughout the entire building.

The new West Side School is, therefore, far from "fire-proof" construction. In fact, only one other type of building would have a higher fire insurance rate (based on construction only) and that would be a building similarly constructed in the interior of it, but with exterior walls of woods, such as are found in the usual dwelling.

Similar construction to that in the new West Side School was used in the Weston School building which recently burned. In the re-construction of the Weston School automatic sprinklers are being installed to off-set the combustible nature of that building. The Winchester High School building and the basement of the Wadleigh School are protected with automatic sprinklers for the same reason. So far as I know, there is no plan to provide automatic sprinkler protection for the new West Side school.

Sincerely yours,
Stanley D. Howe,
24 Symmes road.

DON'T BE DOWNHEARTED

Editor of the Star:

In the recent presidential election more people voted against President Truman than for him. While he received a majority of the electoral votes he did not receive a majority of the popular votes. Governor Dewey received 20,738,000, Wallace 1,060,000 and Thurmond 910,000 a total of 22,708,000 against 22,590,000 for President Truman. If President Truman had remained in Washington to attend to the affairs of state after he was nominated and had not made a single campaign speech; if Governor Dewey had remained in Albany without making a political speechmaking tour, the election results would have been the same. The people had made up their minds; the farm vote, not the labor vote elected him.

In this troubled world, a great social movement has been taking place in the political world during the last thirty years, one nation after another moving to the left: Japan, Italy, Germany, France, England, and now, the last of the great nations, the United States, instigated by organized labor, is facing that way, moving slowly but hastened in the last twelve years by the New Deal. The question is, How far shall we go? At the end of the trail to the left lies the land of poverty and want, governed by dictators. The result is the same whether the people are ruled by a despotic oligarchy or an autocratic dictator — the farther to the left the harder the lot of the proletarians. All the leftist elements in the impoverished nations rail at capitalism, abuse and denounce us and at the same time all are extending their hands to us in beggary, asking for loans they never intend to repay. It never has occurred to them, although our great nation is a living proof of it that the capitalistic state does more for the poor than any other form of government on earth at the present time. Shall we overtake England that moved rapidly to the left and is now in the throes of a labor goverment? The answer to that may be made when the accomplishments of the Truman administration are revealed at the end of its term. If the land is blessed by peace, the chances are there will be no radical change. There are encouraging signs, too many for us to be downhearted at the present time. We shall see.

Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.

ST. MARY'S H. N. S. HELD MEETING—MR. "EDDIE" POWERS REAL HIT!

Dear Mr. Editor:

Thank you very much for rushing the tickets through for our Communion breakfast next month. We had a fine meeting yesterday and I wonder if you would care to print it. I am pointing out to our members every chance I get, the swell job, the STAR is doing for us in Publicity. You may be sure the Officers and Committeemen are truly grateful. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Vincent F. Erhard,

One of the best attendances to date at Mass, Holy Communion, Benediction and the Meeting at Lyceum Hall afterwards, was shown on Sunday, November 14th when the members of St. Mary's Holy Name Society attended in a body. At the Mass several hymns were rendered by the men with Mr. Dana Kelley directing and Miss Kay Roache as organist for the Society. After Mass, the men adjourned to Lyceum Hall, where Mr. "Mike" Connolly assisted by Mr. John Kinton, Society, Marshall, and Mr. Connolly's younger Aides; Len Hurley, Johnny Erchard, Bob Barstow, Bob Duckworth, Bob Curry, Bill O'Leary and the ever willing Marshals Aide, Sam Vangel served coffee and do-nuts while Mr. Herbert Cleary favored with several old time selections on the piano.

Reports were then given by the various officers and committeemen, with Fr. Sennott complimenting the men on their fine showing. The guest speaker was Mr. Edward Powers, Vice President and Gen. Mgr. of the Boston Garden.

THE "NEW LOOK" AT TROOP 7

Everyone's using the phrase "New Look" these days; but when it comes to being up-to-date and such a "hot outfit" that you'd hardly know'em, there's no bunch with more real "new look" than Winchester Troop 7.

*

After a period of comparative stability, Troop 7 has recently gone into a planning session—and come up with big plans for expansion, both in membership and in scouting activity.

*

As for new members well, the troop has better than tripled in less than a month! At the last nose count, we found scouts Carlisle, Cleaves, Dresser, Ekstrom, Govostes, McGowan, Mullen, Leverette, Ripley, Robertson, Simpson, Lawton, and Tallman on deck, and all working hard on test-passing and advancement as scouts. This list might not be a full one, however, as you read this account —the way Troop 7 is growing!

*

The keynote to increased activity is a close tying-in with the monthly "themes". For example, with December First Aid month, national program of various Troop 7 plans on talks by a doctor, real practical first-aid demonstrations by a policeman or fireman, a first aid movie, trip through a fire station, first aid projects on actual hikes. The same follow-through will come along in January with Handicraft, February's Communications (to feature a "ham" radio station visit, newspaper plant tour, etc. among other things) Camping in March, Cooking in April, Nature in May, Wilderness Engineering in June. June will also see a big Scout-Father "cookout" where dads will have a chance to get together with their sons and see them show off their "stuff" as scouts.

*

That's just a thumbnail sketch of the future. Troop 7 will pack plenty of surprises in the activity line, as time goes on. For the present, one of the major activities is a Christmas Fund money-raiser, built around the sale of unique Christmas Cards — Cartooned by Troop-committee chairman Paul Butterworth especially for his troop, and featuring a sparkling pen-and-ink tour of Winchester Center. Last Saturday, the boys gathered at the First Baptist Church to fold and collate the colored cards in sets of one dozen cards each—to sell for $1. They are going on sale at Hevey's, McCormack's, Winslow Press, Butterworth the Jewelr's, and at the Star Office. Each scout is also selling cards, competing for one of two prizes of camping equiment to the top "salesmen." Watch for these cards!

*

This Saturday, the 22nd, will see Troop 7 on a camping trip—with Compass Hike. This is the first of many outdoor activities planned. For scouting is basically an "outdoor" adventure. As much time as possible will be given to it, and indoor meetings will be instructive "build-ups" to success in outdoor work.

*

This coming Monday, Troop 7 boys—and new members that may come!—will enjoy basic star instruction, and a new type of map-game obstacle race that's supposed to be really good for developing endurance. More news of Troop 7 next week—if I last out that game!

NOONAN SCHOOL NOTES

The pupils of the Noonan School have been using audio-visual aids to help them in their various studies. The pupils of the fourth grade saw the film GROWTH OF FLOWERS in their rooms last week, while the sixth grade saw NEW ENGLAND FISHERIES in connection with their study of New England. The third grade found the film FOOD STORES interesting and enjoyable.

The whole school saw a film on Junior Red Cross work in connection with their membership drive. This film is being shown in all of the Winchester schools.

The third meeting of the dancing class was held Monday afternoon in the school auditorium. Mr. Harry Raymond is the dancing instructor and many pupils of the fifth and sixth grades are attending classes.

The children of the school have been bringing many clothes for Bundle Day in response to the present drive for clothing. As their next project, the children will bring gifts to fill Christmas gift boxes to be sent to needy children.

WINCHESTER SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

The Winchester School Committee held its regular meeting in the Administration Building on November 16 at seven-thirty. All routine matters were acted upon and the following item was approved:

The Committee considered the matter of Elementary school enrollments and the probable affects on future building needs. Supplementing and extending the parents' committee report for Mystic School, the Superintendent added a report which included the probable future needs of the Lincoln, Washington and Noonan Schools.

After considerable discussion, the School Committee agreed to hold a series of precinct meetings in the very near future in the Elementary schools, and in conjunction with Mothers' Clubs to have public discussions of the general building problems facing the school system.

The Committee also agreed that representatives from the Junior High School Building Committee should be invited to be present at those meetings to discuss their findings for the completion of the Junior High School and the plans being studied to carry that into effect.

Mr. Howard Bartlett and Mr. William Speers, Jr., were appointed to a Sub-Committee to assist the Superintendent in planning these meetings.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris outlined plans being taken to improve the curriculum in the schools. Then the Committee examined forms used by the Medical Department and approved a policy of close cooperation between that department and the local medical association. An application by the Winchester Lodge, Sons of Italy, for the use of the Lincoln School Auditorium for children's Christmas party to be given, December 19.

A letter from the Chief of the Winchester Fire Department in regard to the installation of fire alarm boxes and stations in all the schools was read by the Superintendent, who was asked to keep this matter in mind when formulating the budget.

Due to the pressure of the building program, the Committee decided to have a special meeting on November 30.

CHARLESTOWN UPSETS WINCHESTER P. O.

In the biggest upset of the season so far, Charlestown which was at the bottom in the league standing took over Winchester which was only one point behind the league leaders. This upset puts Arlington in undisputed control over first place, having a five point margin over the nearest contender.

The standing:

	W	L
Arlington	30	10
Winchester	25	15
Belmont	25	15
Chelsea	25	15
Wakefield	23	17
Somerville	23	17
Malden	22	18
Cambridge	19	21
Reading	17	23
Melrose	13	27
Charlestown	11	29
Stoneham	7	23

With only six matches to go to the end of the first half, should Arlington fall at the next match, it will be a battle royal between the next seven teams for the championship of the first half. However, if Arlington takes four points at the next match, it probably means curtains for all the other teams. So the big point is: Can Arlington take it?

BREAK ON WEST SIDE

A break at the home of Mr. Martin S. Swanson, 47 Cambridge street, was discovered Tuesday afternoon by Mathew Andrews of Washington street, a Whiting's milkman. The police found access had been gained by breaking a pane of glass in the kitchen door and releasing the catch. The house had been rather carefully combed by the thieves, especially the bed-rooms. The family was away from home at the time of the break.

A complete list of effects stolen was not immediatly available, but three watches, several rings and valuable clock were known to be missing.

Autograph Albums, 25c, 69c and $1 at Wilson the Stationer. Star Building, 3 Church street.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

A large and interested audience filled Wyman School auditorium on Armistice Day evening to hear Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr., give a most clear-cut and thoughful appraisal of the political results of the Marshall Plan already taking shape in Europe.

In introducing his subject Mr. Schlesinger said that Armistice Day was a particularly appropriate time to weigh the effects of the Marshall Plan because it is the most hopeful plan so far ever put forward for curing the basic economic ills of Europe. It is an effort to bring about a co-ordinated European economy which we hope will create conditions favorable to peace.

He explained that for a quarter of a century the U. S. has been underwriting Europe - by government loans after the first World War, by purchases of gold and investments of private capital during the twenties and by Lend-lease during the last war. In maintaining Europe as a market for our exports we have had to give them the dollars with which to buy from us - an unsound arrangement all around. Essential in the carving out of the Marshall Plan is a co-ordinated system of production.

Actually E. R. P. has been in operation only a few months. There is an inevitable time-lag between a legislative "Act" and the actual functioning of the agency set up to carry it out. So it is too soon to make pronouncements as to economic results. However the political aspects are already apparent. The violent Soviet objection to E. R. P. has made it plain to Europeans that the U. S. S. R. is interested in chaos not recovery. It is evident too that America desires to help them. The plan makes sense to them because they see a way out of the economic morass that has' engulfed them. And so it has given the democratic nations of Europe a new "will to resist" Communist encroachments. Mr. Schlesinger says that the Socialists and Trade Unionists are wholeheartedly opposed to communism. Only in France and Italy are there strong Communist parties, because there the Socialists made the fatal blunder of trying to cooperate with the Communists.

Mr. Schlesinger feels that integral to a successful working out of economic co-operation, is a Federation of Western Europe. He feels also that if we in the U. S. wish to see such a federation we will have to do two things, supply them with military armaments on a lend-lease basis, and pledge ourselves to go to their assistance if they are attacked. Otherwise the Western nations are fearful of provoking Russia to attack by joining in such a federation.

Mr. Schlesinger was introduced by League President Mrs. Harold A. Hall, who welcomed the audience on behalf of the League of Women Voters of Winchester, under whose auspices the lecture was arrange. This annual evening meeting is the only money-raising event of the League year, the proceeds from which enables the League to carry on its civic work.

Among those who attended the lecture were Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Abbe, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Abbott, Mrs. Theodore Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baylies, Mrs. George Brayley, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Claflin, Mrs. Guild Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. James Cullen, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Downey, Jr., Mrs. David Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Kern Folkers, Mrs. Percy Gleason, Mrs. H. Natalie Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keeney, Mrs. Daniel Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingstone, Mrs. R. W. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lybeck and Mrs. Waldo Lyon.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mathewson, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McCarthy, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Mezzacappa and their guests, Prof. and Mrs. Donald C. CADDIES DINED AT COUNTRY CLUB

The Winchester Country Club held its annual Caddy Banquet Tuesday evening in the main lounge of the clubhouse with 160 boys attacking 265 pounds of turkey 'n fixin's and 15 gallons of ice cream. There were seconds, thirds and even fourths, if the boys so desired, and most of them did!

Members of the club, headed by Ed Garrity, chairman of the golf committee, served as waiters, Prexy Ralph Bonnell donning an apron along with Ted Harrigan of the golf committee, Dave and "Tike" Wilcox, Maurice Freeman, Dave White, the club pro., and Horace Ford, the latter imparting the deft touch of the professional restauranteur.

President Bonnell made a brief address of welcome to the caddies, and introduced Chairman Garrity who acted as toastmaster, introducing in turn the guest speaker, Henry Lamar, former light heavyweight boxer and currently coach of the Harvard freshman football team.

Mr. Lamar spoke in interesting fashion to the caddies, injecting some excellent advice into his address. He also showed the official Harvard-Brown football pictures, explaining the various plays, formations and highlights of the game.

Caddy Master Bill Donovan was presented with a handsome watch by the caddies, who "pitched in" from their earnings to make this much appreciated gift to one whom they all consider their friend. Freddie Cameron, caddy from Arlington, made the presentation.

Winchester Country Club has been doing a lot for its caddies and has a definite caddy program, conceived by President Ralph Bonnell and so successful that the Massachusetts Golf Association has asked the Winchester Ford dealer to set up a similar program for its organization.

The best possible caddy master is secured by the local club and the boys are assisted and encouraged in every way to help themselves and improve the little imperfections that most boys possess. The boys are encouraged to save their money, and many of the youngsters have been able to buy clothes and other necessaries for school from their earnings.

The boys have reacted splendidly to the program, and the club has benefitted by securing a high type of caddy service. Each month during the season thirty caddies are guests of the club at a night big league baseball game in Boston, occupying the best available seats.

Mr. Bonnell hopes that his State wide caddy program may have as one of its provisions the establishment of college scholarships for caddies as well as the other features that have proven so successful here.

NIKOLAI AND JOANNA GRAUDAN

The Community Concert Association under the auspices of the Winchester Smith College Club opened its season Sunday evening, November 14, in the High School Auditorium with Nikolai and Joanna Graudan appearing as a cello and piano ensemble. It was a brilliant performance, with exceptional feeling on the part of each musician. Each was a master in his own field; as a duo, they were exceptional.

At the beginning of the concert the Graudans played together. Their Sonata in A major - opus 69 by Beethoven was particularly well executed. In the second part of the programme, Mrs. Graudan played the piano. Her selections were most pleasing to the audience and as an encore she rendered a Chopin Waltz.

In the last part of the programme the compositions served well to show Mr. Graudan's versatility as a cellist, especially, his last number "At the Fountain" by Davidoff.

In response to many curtain calls, Mr. and Mrs. Graudan gave as encores two Spanish Folk Songs and much to the audience's delight, Schubert's "Ave Maria".

This first concert of the current series appeared to meet with high approval of subscribers. Following is the program.

NEWS OF THE JUNIOR STAMP GROUPS

Last Friday, November 12th, a group of young stamp collectors had its second meeting this fall at the Hobby Center under Mrs. Forrest W. Orr's understanding guidance. Virge Babcock and Clair Swanger gave over the reins of office (president and treasurer respectively) to Tommy Wilder and Bion Francis, Jr., as this year's leaders. Tommy, incidentally, is helping the 6-12 year old stamp collectors at the Center on alternate Saturday mornings. Tomorrow morning is this group's third meeting this fall, and the next meeting of the Friday afternoon group will be December 3rd immediately after school.

As a simple gesture of good-will and friendliness, a bed-ridden stamp collector in the middle west is going to receive some welcome stamps from the young Winchester "stampers" as a Christmas present. This sort of thing really puts the worthwhile stamp on hobbies.

"BOUQUETS FOR 'ROBIN HOOD'"

If the young people in Winchester needed added reason to be enthusiastic about the coming visit of the Tributary Theatre's "Robin Hood" to the Winchester High School stage November 27, they have it in the whole-hearted acclaim given by Boston dramatic critics to this production, which played in Boston last Saturday. Elinor Hughes, writing in the "Boston Herald" has said, "The Tributary Children's Theatre was off to an uproarious and happy start Saturday afternoon when a juvenile audience of capacity proportions . . . cheered itself hoarse with pleasure over "Robin Hood". As anyone can tell who attends these plays for the younger generation with any regularity, what the spectators want is plenty of slapstick comedy - hence their outspoken pleasure over the antics of the rotund Friar Tuck - the overcoming of the wicked old villians (not too terrifying, mind you) by the dashing hero, and the generous dealing out of justice and good fortune at the end." And to quote Cyrus Durgin of the "Globe", "The fascinating company - Robin, Alan, Friar Tuck, Will and the rest all are there in the brave adventures of their Sherwood Forest life. Robin himself was ably acted by Paul Clarke, with Robert Milam as the dastardly Sheriff of Nottingham, and Robin Ladd the fair Maid Marian. It was a spirited performance and well done against the background of Matt Horner's simple but atmospheric settings.

This is the very same production, cast, costumes, set and all, which is coming to our doorsteps Thanksgiving weekend, brought by the local Radcliffe alumnae to benefit their college's Anniversary Fund. Two new names have been added to those helping the committee with the project, they are: Mrs. Richard Johnson of Glen road, and Mrs. Arthur Schmidt of Sachem road.

WOBURN MAN CAR WINNER AT ROTARY PENNY SALE

David I. Kimball, Woburn youth, son of the proprietor of Dean's Lunch, well known restaurant on Montvale avenue, won the new Ford sedan at the Monster Penny Sale held at the town hall last Friday evening under the auspices of the Winchester Rotary Club for the benefit of the Winchester Hospital.

It was reported that Kimball bought his lucky ticket at the door, but according to "Nick" Fitzgerald, one of the big factotums of the Penny Sale committee, such is not the case. "Not so at all", says "Nicky". Kimball bought his ticket from L. Francis Garvey, local barrister and former chairman of the School Committee, who it is reported told the Woburn boy he was buying a hot ducket! Moral, get your tickets from Leo!

There was a whacking big crowd at the sale and the Rotary did well financially. That is, the hospital should benefit quite a bit from their efforts. It was a case of standing room only, and apparently every one had a good time.

Don Simonds, president of Winchester Rotary, acted as master of ceremonies, and introduced Edward H. "Ned" Kenerson, president of the Hospital trustees, who expressed his board's appreciation of Rotary's efforts in behalf of the hospital.

The speaking was at an absolute minimum, which pleased the crowd. P. T. Foley, W. Allan Wilde and John McIntyre acted as auctioneers and things moved fast and funny, once they got started.

There were a lot of interesting awards. Among them was the fine doll house and furnishings which have attracted so much attention at the local Edison Shop while on display. These were won by Mrs. Charles A. Murphy of Alben street.

Highlight of the evening was undoubtedly the winning of the live pig by J. C. Wakefield of Forest street, and Fire Captain Ray Hanscom's winning a live turkey. Edward P. "Mack" McKenzie of the Woburn Times won a Stetson Hat and a flock of theatre passes, which he doesn't need, and Bonney Hakanson drew a 600-16 tire and a big bag of potatoes. A woman won a pair of man's slacks and another gal won a boy's bicycle. "Chub" Howe of the Winslow Press won the $100, which was very nice going indeed, even if he did have to give it to his wife, the last being strictly scuttlebutt.

Fred Mitchell, the Thompson street tonsorial artist won 15 haircuts, donated by Arthur Adractas of the Winchester Barber Shop on Main street, and Dot Lord, with all the stationery she can use at the STAR, won herself several additional boxes. Eva Christiensen of the National Bank won a nice batch of wine-glasses but nothing to put in them. Mrs. Frank Lane won the Kyanize paint donated by her husband, and "Bill" Sipp of Sherwin Williams went her even one better by winning himself the paint he donated.

It all made for a lot of fun, and it helped the Rotary help the Hospital, which was after all, the general idea!

ENTERTAINMENT — WITH STRINGS ATTACHED

Pinocchio, as far as we know, was the only puppet who ever learned to walk without any strings attached. However, his cousins, the Little Theatre Marionettes (with strings) are amazingly lifelike, and you'll have a chance to see them in action on this coming January 15th -- a Saturday afternoon -- at 2:00 p. m. in the Winchester High School auditorium.

This presentation is under the auspices of the Tuesday Luncheon Group-Church of the Epiphany, and has been carefully chosen to appeal to parents as well as Winchester's younger set. The proceeds from this afternoon of fun will be used for the benefit of needy children.

Dorothy Rankin, the impresario of this Little Theatre, lived for years in the Movieland of California where she studied creative art. She personally designs and costumes all her marionettes and will present for you her most engaging carnival show, complete with full stage equipment, music and footlights.

The show is a fun-packed hour of variety and is the perfect answer to your first-of-the-year problems of entertainment for yourself and your children. It's conveniently scheduled too -- no worries about the youngsters coming home after the early dark.

Tickets, at .60c. each, will go on sale in about a month -- but we couldn't wait to tell you about this unusual treat. Be sure to watch the STAR for further announcements.

MRS. BARNES ASSISTED

Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes assisted in arrangements for the State meeting of the Massachusetts Association of Insurance Women which was held Saturday, November 13, 1948 at the Hotel Statler.

Mrs. Barnes is assistant Director of the Suffolk-Middlesex County Group and in charge of programs for 1948-49.

Mr. Harry J. Landen, State Secretary of the Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance Co., was the guest speaker, his subject being "Women in the Insurance Business Today".

WINCHESTER HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A very interesting well-attended meeting of the Winchester Historical Society was held in the Art Room of the Winchester Library on the evening of November 4th, with Mrs. George E. Connor, the new President, presiding.

The Curator, Miss Clara Russell, read a list of the many fine gifts received by the Society during the summer and fall from the following: Miss Elise Belcher, Miss Ella M. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Eustis, and Mrs. Nathaniel Nichols all of Winchester, and from Mrs. C. E. Smith of Newton, who gave articles from the Wellington Estate of Winchester.

Mr. A. H. Wilson of Somerville and the New England Geneological Society held the close attention of his audience as he spoke informally on "What's in a Name?", as he traced many of the New England names back to the Normans, Celts, etc., in an informative and witty manner. Many questions were answered.

Cider and doughnuts were served in the Historical Room, where the group had a chance to study the exhibits.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE

Under the able direction of L. Hassler Einzig, the Winchester Staff and Key Society is working earnestly on its fall production, Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance". Those who remember the Staff and Key's first production "Trial by Jury" are awaiting eagerly the new venture of this enthusiastic young group on December 2 and 3. Many old friends of Winchester audiences are included in the cast.

Mrs. Hall Gamage is Production Manager, Mrs. Lucy Wilcox Cushman, Accompanist, and Mrs. Robbert Drake is in charge of the Orchestra. Miss Frances Pierce is Ticket Chairman (WInchester 6-0955). Tickets may also be obtained at Hevey's, McCormack's, and Purtle's Drug Stores and Mary Spaulding's Book Store.

Guest Night

The members of the Fortnightly are eagerly anticipating its annual Guest Night to be held at the Masonic Hall on Monday evening, November 22, at eight o'clock.

Max K. Gilstrap will be heard in his lecture on current affairs, "Your World and You", under the auspices of the International Relations Committee, Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes, chairman, Mrs. Ragnar T. Brandt, Mrs. Frank J. Ebens, Mrs. Frank D. Madge and Mrs. Carle C. Zimmerman.

As an extensive traveler and now a staff member of The Christian Science Monitor, Mr. Gilstrap keeps abreast of current events, bringing valuable information regarding momentous world affairs and how they affect us.

DO YOU KNOW:

That The Fortnightly was one of the first organizations in Winchester to take active part in Civic improvements for the welfare of children.

That in 1882 as a result of constructive work accomplished by the Education Committee of The Fortnightly the first Superintendent of Winchester Public Schools was appointed.

That in 1893 The Fortnightly established a Scholarship fund for the use of Winchester students and still maintains a fund for that purpose.

That in 1897 The Fortnightly, still active in the interests of children, established what was known as "the Vacation Playroom" and for many years following, up to 100 children attended this form of Kindergarten. This project was soon extended to outdoor activities such as barge rides, picnics and other summertime sports. Later on -- 1907 -- a nursery school was added, accommodating 60 babies. Fortnightly members took active part in all this work as well as raising funds for its maintenance.

That in 1922, The Fortnightly established a fund to provide milk for undernourished children in the Winchester Public Schools. Also in 1922, The Fortnightly contributed funds to aid the Children's Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts.

That in 1889, the Hospital Committee of The Fortnightly became active in establishing an interest in a training school for nurses. This Committee worked assiduously, holding to the vision of a hospital building for Winchester and after the building was established the Fortnightly provided funds for the furnishing of one hospital room and still contributes to the support of the Winchester Hospital.

That in 1898, The Fortnightly was again found active in arousing public interest in District Nursing for Winchester which was later established.

That The Fortnightly from its inception has continued as an organized force for the welfare of the Town of Winchester.

That no personal invitation is necessary to become a member of The Fortnightly. Women residents of Winchester are eligible and may obtain application blanks by contacting the Fortnightly Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Robert Perkins, 11 Symmes road, or any other Club member.

And that any non-member eligible to membership may, by paying a regular small fee attend as a guest of a member, two regular Club meetings during the season or any committee activity open to guests.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Walter E. Hebberd, who died on November 12th at the age of 77, was in the nineteenth year of her service as night admitting officer of the Winchester Hospital. She carried the exacting duties of this position without interruption from May 1930, until an illness in July, from which she made only a partial recovery.

Mrs. Hebberd (Bertha Swift) was graduated from the Milton High School and until her marriage in 1908 was a book-keeper with several firms in the market district of Boston. Mr. Hebberd, an executive of the Boston-Worcester Street Railway, died in 1922 and the following year Mrs. Hebberd was elected Tax Collector of the Town of Wellesley, which was then the family home. She served in this office for six years and was also prominent in the work of the Wellesley Hills Congregational Church and the Parent Teacher Association. She was one of those who helped in the founding of the Cedar Street Branch Library.

The nature of Mrs. Hebberd's hospital schedule inevitably narrowed her outside activities, but she was known to all who came in contact with her as a woman of unusual breadth of interest, alert mind, keen human sympathy and high ideals in the performance of her duties. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Winfield N. Moulds, a son, John Swift Hebberd of Lunenburg, Massachusetts, and a grandson, John Riley Hebberd. The funeral service was held on November 15, in Story Chapel of Mt. Auburn Cemetery and the burial was in the family lot in the Milton Cemetery.

"ONWARD CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS"

To the Editor:

The words of the old familiar hymn rang through the writer's mind as Ch. Major Samuel L. Hiebert met Wednesday p. m. with members of the Winchester Clergy and MMC to explain the new programs of the Army Chaplains. Present at the meeting were the Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, Rev. Edmund C. Sliney, Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, Mr. Frank J. Rogers representing the Rev. John P. O'Riordan and Mr. Allan Wilde of the MMC. Because of illness or previous committments, the Rev. Donald J. Maccallum, Rev. John Snook, Jr and Rev. Virgess Hill were unable to be present but asked that an account of the proceedings be given to them. Major Douglas H. McKillop CO Boston Main Recruiting Station spoke on the type of men being accepted in the "New Army", praised the work of the Chaplains, assured the clergy that Sgt. Gardner White (Recruiter assigned to Winchester) would be glad to cooperate in all their activities if they but would notify him.

Major Hiebert spoke informally but earnestly and I hope he will not mind if the writer paints a small picture of him as garnered from the "Bulletin". Major Hiebert recently returned from two years of service in Korea and has been announced as the new Chaplain of HQs First Service Command at the Boston Army Base. A former resident of Salen, N. Y., commissioned in the Chaplain's Corps of the Army after attending the Chaplain's School at Harvard University in June 1943, he saw combat service in Europe with the 30th Infantry Division. Chaplain Hiebert has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal, the Purple Heart and several campaign and service ribbons. He is a graduate of Sterlingen College, Sterling, Kansas, and has been awarded the bachelor of theology degree from Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa., and the Doctor of theology degree from Pikes Peak Seminary, Manitou Springs, Colorado.

Everyone present agreed that the new programs were an "onward" step toward greater morality, better citzenship and the assurance of producing "Christian soldiers". Take, for example, the character Guidance Council as explained by Major Hiebert:

The Chaplains and Army personnel in general are particularly gratified with the success that has been attained currently in stressing moral and spiritual values in the fight against promiscuity and moral deliquency. This success can be measured in part by the steady decline in the incidence of delinquency. Of much more significance is the fact that through continuing, positive measures to encourage morality, a new realization has been born—that the Army has an obligation, especially to the parent of the youthful soldier, to continue in so far as possible under the conditions of military service, the wholesome influences of the home, the family, and the community. The reward is rich: better citizens and better soldiers.

1. In order to point the way toward even greater emphasis on the ceasless battle against promiscuity and delinquency, a new term, "Character Guidance" has been devised to encompass all acts which trend to encourage the development of moral responsibility, spiritual values, and self-discipline. A new and vigorous attempt is being made to instill in officers and non-commissioned officers an appreciation on their part in Character Guidance, an understanding of its purposes, and to carry it out in the following manner:

To: Emphasize and take a personal interest in athletics and all forms of supervised recreation to insure the existence of a well-rounded program readily available and attractive to all members of commands.

To: Cooperate with local health, and law enforcement agencies and the integration of law enforcement and civil health programs.

To: Restrict passes of irresponsible individuals who conduct themselves habitually in a manner calculated to bring discredit upon the service and prejudicial to the aims of the Character Guidance program. A pass is a privilege, not a right, and will not be issued to those individuals who have abused the privilege.

To: Give consideration to the elimination of officers and non-commissioned officers who by the example of their private lives undermine discipline and respect for command.

2. The Chaplain bears a very special responsibility for the moral and spiritual welfare of troops. He, by virtue of his mission, his wealth of background and experience, and his ministerial relationship with the individual soldier, is logically the advisor upon whom the Commanders rely most heavily.

Regular training periods are scheduled for instruction by the Chaplains in Citizenship and Morality. Attendance by all military personnel is required. Thirty Four (34) hours of non-sectarian instructions, emphasizing the moral and spiritual aspects of citizenship are given by the Chaplain.

Instruction in Sex Morality is furnished by the Chaplain whenever the need is indicated.

3. The Special Service Officer provides maximum facilities for wholesome recreation and entertainment, including voluntary athletics, library service, musical programs, handicraft and manual arts, soldier sight-seeing tours, service clubs, and professional and amateur theatrical productions. Furthermore, he schedules intramural contests and sponsers representative teams in all sports; he distributes equitably availabie materials, and equipment to insure availability of recreational equipment even to the lowest echelon, endeavoring, with all means at his disposal, to provide an attractive and interesting environment for the troops of the commands.

WINCHESTER TO BE HOST FOR SPRING SCOUTING EXPOSITION

After a lapse of nine years, Winchester is to be host this year for the Fellsland Council Scout Exposition (Boy and Cub). Last year Medford was host. It is a big undertaking and I have been appointed Chairman of Publicity. There are six troops in Winchester, I think that will be involved besides many Cub Packs. Do you think you could squeeze this in? Thank you.

At the first meeting in a series of monthly meetings of the Planning Committee, held at Scout Headquarters, Winchester definitely has been selected to be the host of the Exposition, it was announced. It was some nine or ten years ago that Winchester was so favored and last year Medford was host. The affair probably will take place in May. If early planning is any criterion, Winchester ought to duplicate if not exceed Medford's fine results last year.

The Exposition which everyone must know of by now is a demonstration of Scouting skills, shown in gaily decorated and informative booths, and also in competitive fashion, such as in signalling, fire building, knot tieing, compass, bugling etc. with all of the Troops of Fellsland Council (Medford, Stoneham, Woburn, Burlington, Winchester) competing with one another for the many prizes. Competition is expected to be very keen.

To put on an affair of this nature is a herculean task, and requires a maximum of cooperation from all. Several appointments have been made with more to follow. The following were present at the first meeting mentioned above: Mr. Ed Nelson, Scout Executive; the Messrs. Fred Parks, Winchester District Chairman; George Thompson, Winchester District Commissioner; John Casler, Winchester Neighborhood Commissioner who will serve as Chairman of the Exposition Committee; Ben Gowing, Winchester District Secretary; Vin Erhard who has been currently serving as Chairman of the Troop Committee of Troop 12, Winchester, and Publicity man who will be Chairman of the Exposition Publicity;

A tidal wave rolled into town on Wednesday night in the form of the Revere Elk's Tournament Team and engulfed the Winchester Elk team by the overwhelming score of 14 to 1. It was a dark and dismal night on all fronts for Winchester, the Beach City aggregation were in top form and sprayed the Winchesterites from all angles. Even the super bridge team that Winchester boasts about were unable to contribute a single point to swell the Winchester score. The bowling team, which has been playing in tough luck all season, lost the total pinfall by seven points. They did, however, manage to win one string out of three to give Winchester its only points of the evening. Charlie Dolan took top honors with the high single string of the evening, 134. Other honors go to Charlie Meek, Sr., who served a most tasty clam chowder for all present.

LINCOLN - CONRAD

At Ripley Memorial Chapel of the First Congregational Church on Saturday evening, Nov. 20, Miss Doris Sydney Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phair Edmund Conrad of 216 Highland Ave., became the bride of Elmer Bertrand Lincoln, Jr., son of Mrs. Edmund Bertrand Lincoln of 26 Echo Ave., Reading. Dr. Howard J. Chidley performed the 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony in an attractive setting of white chrysanthemums, roses and ferns. J. Albert Wilson, church organist and choirmaster, played the bridal music.

Miss Conrad was given in marriage by her father. She had for her honor attendant her stepsister, Miss Phyllis E. Berry, of Winchester and Portland, Me., and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank A. Oxnard of Medford, sister of the bride; and Miss Bettie Vallance, also of Medford.

The bride wore a gown of white faille with a beaded net yoke. Her veil of tulle was caught to a lacé coronet and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

The honor maid wore a dress of American Beauty faille with gold mesh mitts and a headdress of Nassau roses and yellow chrysanthemumms, matching the flowers of her bouquet. The bridesmaids wore aqua faille dresses with gold mesh mitts. Their headdresses and bouquets were of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

George True of Reading was best man for Mr. Lincoln and the usher corps comprised Richard True of Reading, Richard Dill of Boston, Richard E. Conrad of Winchester, brother of the bride; and Richard N. Carr of Winchester, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, who assisted in receiving with the mother of the bridegroom, the maid-of-honor, best man and bridesmaids. Decorations were chrysanthemums, roses and gladiolas with candelabra.

After a wedding journey to New York and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln will live in Reading.

The bride is a graduate of Somerville High School. Mr. Lincoln, a draftsman associated with Stone & Webster, is a graduate of Reading High School and is attending Northeastern University.

Penalty Nullified Another Touchdown

Dillingham Runs Kickoff For Score

On a heavy gridiron before a typical holiday crowd Winchester High won its climax game from Woburn High Thanksgiving forenoon at Woburn, 20-0. Another Winchester touchdown was nullified by a pushing penalty, and twice "Lally" Myers missed long touchdown runs for the lack of a single decisive block on the only man who could stop the play. Woburn had the ball on Winchester's five when time ran out the first half and aided by 15 yard penalties against the locals twice threatened to score toward the end of the last long Marathon quarter. The watch must have stopped for a while during that final period.

A slight drizzle fell during about half the game, but apparently no one stayed at home. Every available vantage spot about the field was filled with the rooters of both teams. In view of conditions, both teams played remarkably well, there being but a single fumble by each club, while the backs kept their feet in fine fashion. This was particularly true of Winchester's Dillingham, Amico and Myers, the former doing some great climax running once he started to drive. Amico's inside running was truly fine and when he went out with a bad rib injury early in the second half the local attack slowed down to a walk.

BREEN — CAGNINA

A marriage of Winchester interest took place at St. Charles Church in Woburn on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 14, when Miss Jeanette Cagnina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Cagnina of 5 McCade Court, Woburn, became the bride of Richard Breen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Breen of 88 Wendell street. American Beauty and pink roses decorated the altar of the church for the mid-afternoon ceremony which was performed by Rev. Fr. George P. McColgan. Miss Ester Doherty played the bridal music and the soloist was Frank Flahive who sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother at thy feet is Kneeling."

Miss Cagnina had for her honor maid her sister, Miss Constance Cagnina. Another sister, Miss Eleanor Cagnina, was one of the four bridesmaids, the other being Miss Alice Breen, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Bruna Negri and Miss Lucy Russo.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, styled with a short cape and long pointed sleeves. Her matching veil was arranged with a self-crown and she carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis backed with white satin leaves.

The honor maid wore a blue-gray satin and faille dress with cap sleeves and a capelet. Her maroon satin hat was trimmed with an ostrich plume and streamers and she carried a horseshoe-shaped bouquet of American Beauty roses and babies' breath backed with maroon satin leaves.

The bridesmaids wore dresses of dusty pink, like that of the honor maid. Their hats and horseshoe-shaped bouquets were also maroon.

Thomas Breen of Jersey City, N. J., was his brother's best man, and the ushers were John Cagnina, brother of the bride; Joseph Massotta, John Donavan and Clifford Maillet.

A reception was held after the ceremony in Lyceum Hall, the parents of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving. Mrs. Cagnina, was gowned in royal blue with hat to match and wore red Pinnoschio roses. Mrs. Breen wore the same roses with her flowered dress and black hat.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to New York Mr. Breen and his bride will make their home in West Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Woburn High School, class of 1944. Mr. Breen attended the Winchester schools and Malden Businsess School. He is now employed at Beggs and Cobb after spending three years in the United States Navy.

LUTHER R. FOWLE

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Sunday 10:45 A. M.

Mr. Luther R. Fowle was born in Turkey, and is a layman and business man who speaks Turkish like a Turk, an American who has lived in Turkey forty-five years, and is now Treasurer and Business Agent of the American Board Near East Mission. He will speak on: "The World as I saw it from Istanbul, Turkey", at the usual hour of service Sunday morning. Dr. Chidley will conduct the worship.

Mr. Fowle has worked in Turkey under three regimes; the Ottoman Empire, under Sultan Abdul Hamid; the Young Turk Government; and the present Turkish Republic. As a business man and layman, Mr. Fowle's contacts with Turkish business and professional men, educators and leaders in the government have been wide and varied. He has been brought to America as a part of a team of interdenominational speakers who are now touring the United States in the interests of a united missionary program.

There are few Americans who know the heart and soul of Turkey better than Mr. Fowle, or can interpret from a richer background the currents sweeping through the Near East in these critical days, especially as they affect Russia and Palestine.

The public is invited to hear him.

GORMAN - MURPHY

Miss Elinor Louise Murphy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. Russell Murphy of 409 Main St., and Richard Steele Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Gorman of Belmont, were married Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20, at St. Mary's rectory by Rev. Fr. Joseph T. O'Callahan, S. J., of Holy Cross College, cousin of the bride and holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor for heroic service as a chaplain during the war.

White bridal roses and snapdragons with candelabra made an attractive setting for the candlelight ceremony which took place at 4.30 o'clock. St. Mary's organist, Miss Mary Callahan, played the bridal music.

Given in marriage by her brother, E. Russell Murphy, Jr., Miss Murphy wore a gown of ivory slipper satin, appliqued with Venetian lace. Her fingertip length veil of tulle and Venetian lace was caught to a cap of the same lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of bride's roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Ann F. Harrington of Flushing, N. Y., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Shirley C. Salyer of Winchester, cousin of the bride and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Priscilla Gorman of Belmont.

All the bridal attendants wore bustle-back dresses of seafoam green faille with matching mitts. The honor maid wore a bandeau of shaggy yellow chrysanthemums and carried a cascade bouquet of the same flowers. The bridesmaids' bandeaux and bouquets were of tawny shaded chrysanthemums.

BODY OF PVT. GUY ARRIVED HOME TUESDAY

Funeral Held for Boy Killed in Italy in 1945

The body of Pvt. Arthur Lee Guy, first Colored boy to reach Winchester since the repatriating of World War II dead began, arrived Tuesday afternoon on the 4:36 train from Boston, finally completing the long trek from an American Military Cemetery in Northern Italy where it had rested since the death of the young hero on February 11, 1945.

At Winchester Station the body was met by Undertaker Malcom D. Bennett and by uniformed members of Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, and Aberjona Post, 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars. It was escorted to the Kelley and Hawes Chapel where it lay in state Tuesday evening and until the funeral services Wednesday afternoon. Colors of the service organizations were posted at the chapel during the time the young soldier was there and flags on the common and town buildings were displayed at half-staff in his honor.

Private funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Kelley & Hawes Chapel with Rev. Vergiss Hill, pastor of the New Hope Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by the pastor emeritus, Rev. William H. Smith. Burial was in Wildwood Cemetery.

Pvt. Guy was first reported as missing in action February 11, 1945. Subsequently he was found to have been killed in action on that date under circumstances that won him the posthumous award of the Silver Star for gallantry.

While serving in Italy with the 371st Infantry of the 92nd Division Pvt. Guy advanced with his company to its objective. When the company was ordered to take up new positions Pvt. Guy volunteered to cover their movement. Noting an enemy machine gun on the crest of a nearby hill, Pvt. Guy advanced upon it, and under heavy fire killed all five of the men operating the gun.

When another machine gun opened up on the left Pvt. Guy advanced upon it, but this time was fatally hit by hostile fire. He was awarded the Purple Heart and the Silver Star Medal posthumously.

Writing to Pvt. Guy's mother, Captain William C. Grau, Army Chaplain, said of the young soldier. "You have in the death of your son an example of valor, courage and self sacrifice. In attempting to save the lives of his comrades he lost his own life."

Pvt. Guy was born in Winchester, November 10, 1918, the son of Mrs. Anne L. (Cromwell) and the late William Lee Guy. His father was for several years janitor of the First Congregational Church.

The young soldier grew up in Winchester, attended the Winchester schools and Winchester High School. Before World War II he had joined the National Guard in Boston and he was one of the first Winchester boys inducted into the service. He went overseas in the fall of 1944, not many months before his untimely death February 11, 1945.

Pvt. Guy leaves his mother, living at 48 Spruce street, three sisters, Mrs. Hilda Nunnally of Boston and Mrs. Helen Clifton and Mrs. Geraldine Fields, botn of Winchester; also four brothers. Reginald, of Roxbury; Charles, of Washington, D. C.; Warren, of West Medford, and Alden Guy of New York City.

ARTHUR W. HUGULEY

Word has been received in Winchester of the death of Arthur W. Huguley, a former resident, at West Palm Beach, Florida, on November 21.

Older residents of the town will remember Mr. Huguley during his local residence in the early nineteen hundreds. He made his home in Glengarry, and was active at the old Calumet Club, playing leading male roles in the musical shows put on by the club at that time. Possessed of a pleasing tenor voice, his duets with Ruth Sleeper and Gladys Burtt were features of "The Isle of Bamboo" and "Rose of India".

Member of a Boston family, Mr. Huguley was a graduate of Harvard, his son, Arthur, Jr., having been a well known football player at Harvard in the days of Barry Wood. Mr. Huguley left Winchester to take up residence at Phillips Beach in Swampscott, and recently had been living at West Palm Beach where he was in the automobile business. He was 66 years old.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Grazia P. Huguley; a son, Arthur W. Huguley, Jr., of Mount Kiscoe, N. Y.; three grandchildren, Arthur W., 3rd; Margaret and Hester; and a sister, Mrs. Ernest G. Howes of Boston and Palm Beach.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at West Palm Beach.

Mr. Dill prepared for college at the Taft School and is a graduate of Williams where he was a member of the Zeta Psi fraternity.

IN THE WINCHESTER HOSPITAL LOBBY THE WINTON CLUB COMMITTEE OPENS ITS GIFT SHOP

Busy with knitting needles and delicately colored yarn since spring, many members of Winton Club and their families and friends have made scores of tiny knitted garments for the Club's shop at the Winchester Hospital. These include a tempting array of sweaters, one-piece knitted suits, bonnets, bootees, bottle bags and wash-cloth-and-soap sets. The shop's stock also includes Toddler dolls, carved wooden animals and hand-decorated plates for the Mary Janes and Jimmys. The needs of the ill and the convalescent are also generously included in the articles for sale: stationery, perfume, cosmetics, toiletries and candy.

Coffee is served during the shop's business hours: 2.30 to 4.30 each afternoon, and these hours may be increased if the Hospital's public desires it. The proceeds of sales are to build a backlog of funds for the greater linen supply needed in the enlarged Winchester Hospital for which the current Building Fund is being raised.

Work for the Hospital has been Winton Club's sole object since its founding in 1911 when the cottage hospital on Washington Street was opened. Purchases of linen in recent years have reached an annual total of approximately three thousand dollars, supplied by the proceeds of the Winton Club cabaret. Increasing needs have also resulted in a doubled schedule for sewing groups making articles from yard goods instead of buying them ready-made.

The Gift Shop Committee under the Chairmanship of the project's originator, Mrs. Grush, is pictured above. Mrs. McDavitt is carrying on in overall charge of the Shop. Since May, Mrs. Joseph W. Bulter has directed the production of the hand-knitted garments. Mrs. Marjorie C. Mason is chairman of the volunteer workers who act as sales force. Mrs. Carl L. Eaton is in charge of the coffee service, and Mrs. Daniel Morse serves as treasurer in charge of accounts.

The portrait looking down from the wall on Winton Club's new project is that of Mrs. Joshua Coit, first President of the Hospital, and a member of its Board for fifteen years.

JOHN H. McMANUS

John H. McManus, whose 90 years made him one of Winchester's oldest residents, died at his home, 161 Cross street, Thursday, evening, November 19.

A native of Boston, Mr. McManus had lived in Winchester for the past 42 years. Previous to his retirement 20 years ago he was for many years an employee of the Puffer Manufacturing Company in the old plant on Swanton street.

Mr. McManus leaves a son, Joseph C. McManus of Winchester; two daughters, Mrs. Edward O'Gara of Woburn and Mrs. Francis Murphy of Chevy Chase, Md., six grand-children and two great-grandchildren. His wife the former Margaret Horan, died some years ago.

The funeral was held Monday morning from the Lane Funeral Home with requiem high mass celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Protestant churches of Winchester held their annual community Thanksgiving service last Sunday evening at the Church of the Epiphany, with the rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, conducting the service of worship.

Rev. Vergiss Hill of the New Hope Baptist Church read the lesson, and Rev. Walter Lee Bailey of the First Baptist Church led the congregation in responsive reading of psalms. Rev. Donald J. Maccallum of the Second Congregational Church read the Governor's Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The Thanksgiving sermon, "Forgotten Favors" was preached by Rev. Howard J. Chidley, D. D., pastor of the First Congregational Church.

The vested choir of the church, under the direction of Organist and Choir master Enos Held, sang Gounod's "Sanctus" at the offertory and led the large congregation in singing "America." "God of Our Fathers" and the old English hymn, "We Plow the Fields and, Scatter." Proceeds from the offering will be devoted to taking a religious census in newly developing parts of the town.

DR. LYMAN SMITH RETURNS FROM SOUTH AMERICA

Dr. Lyman B. Smith, former resident of Winchester, has returned to Washington after a five weeks tour in South America. Leaving Washington on October 8th, he attended the Second South American Botanical Congress in Tucuman, Argentina, as a guest of the Instituto Miguel Lillo. Members of the congress included delegates from Canada, the United States, Cuba, France, and Sweden, as well as from most South American countries.

Following the week of congressional sessions, in which all phases of botany were included, the Instituto Lillo conducted a nine-day field excursion in northwestern Argentina in the provinces of Tucuman, Catamarca, Salta, and Jujuy. The sixty-odd botanists travelled in five busses while a special detail of army technicians provided by the Argentine government prepared meals and pitched camp each night. The excursion covered a wide variety of habitats from the subtropical rainforest and sugar cane fields near the city of Tucuman to the arid flats and mountains of Salta and the high Andes at San Antonio de los Cobres.

A day after the return to Tucuman, the party of botanists was flown to Buenos Aires for an audience with President Peron. Dr. Smith remained several days more to visit the principle museums and herbaria in the interest of the Smithsonian Institution, then flew on to Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro for more conferences. Just before leaving, he enjoyed a trip with the local botanists to see the wealth of beautiful begonias that grow wild in the rainforest within the city limits of Rio.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR STAFF SGT. CALLANAN

Funeral services for Staff Sgt. Harold Wilbert Callanan, repatriated World War II hero, were held on Sunday afternon at the First Congregational Church with a large attendance of local veteran's organizations and friends of the young aerial gunner who was fatally wounded June 9, 1943, while in action on a big Army bomber in the Middle Eastern area. His body arrived in Winchester on Friday, Nov. 19. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Callanan of 18 Englewood Road.

Dr. Howard J. Chidley, pastor of the First Congregational Church, conducted the funeral services. Colors of Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, and Aberjona Post, 3179, were posted during the services and representatives of the American Veterans and Gold Star Mothers, Woburn Chapter No. 17, were in attendance.

Bearers were Richard and Donald Drew, Robert Nichols, Robert Horn, Joseph Duran and William Gibbons, Jr., all in uniform.

After the services a police escort led the long cortege to Wildwood Cemetery where the committal service was conducted by Rev. Donald B. Tarr, assistant at the First Congregational Church. Just before the interment the flag from Sgt. Callanan's casket was presented to the young hero's mother by Sgt. Paul Rowe of the United States Army Escort Service who accompanied the body to Winchester.

RED CROSS SURGICAL DRESSING GROUP REOPENS AT TOWN HALL

The great need for surgical dressings at Bedford Veterans Hospital has brought about the reopening of the General Committee Room at the Winchester Town Hall on Tuesdays between 1 and 4 so that all possible volunteers may gather to do this important work. The loyal women who worked so faithfuly to make surgical dressings during the war know how many mav be made in an hour. Every minute you can spare will be appreciated.

Equally important to the welfare of the veterans is the volunteer mending group which visits Bedford each Friday. The boost in morale given the hospitalized men, who because of the women's sewing group are provided with clean mended clothing, is immensureable. If you can join the Friday group, the Red Cross beach wagon will call for you at your home shortly after 9 A. M. and return you to your home at approximately 3:30 P.M. Call Red Cross Headquarters, WI 6-2300 for further information.

PLAYING GENERAL STANLEY IN "PIRATES" FOR THIRD TIME HERE

When the curtain goes up next Thursday and Friday evenings on the Staff and Key's production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance" in the high school auditorium, Alden Symmes will be playing the role of Major General Stanley for the third time in Winchester. A span of nearly thirty years is covered by the three productions.

Back in the early twenties J. Albert Wilson, then choirmaster at the Church of the Epiphany, put on the "Pirates" in the town hall for the parish, and Mr. Symmes was a big hit as the "model major general", you know the "vegetable, animal or mineral" chappie. Twenty years later Mr. Symmes again trod the boards and sang his patter song in the presentation put on by the Mothers' Association at the high school. Next week he will grace the Staff and Key production, and with him will be Dr. F. Milne Blanchard and Aram T. Mouradian, both of whom appeared in the Mothers' Association production, Dr. Blanchard as the Sergeant of Police and Mr. Mouradian as the Pirate lieutenant, Samuel.

Others in next week's cast are Anne G. Hall, who was such a hit in the Staff and Key's "Trial by Jury" last spring, and James Perrin, a Harvard student. Mr. Perrin will sing Frederick, the male lead, and Miss Hall will sing the leading feminine role, Mabel.

Susan Hight, former Colby Junior College music student, will sing Ruth, the Pirate wench, and Staniford Sorrentino will play the Pirate King. It is as you remember "a wonderful thing to be a Pirate King'." The roles of Edith, Kate and Isabel, will be sung respectively by Suzanne B. Armstrong, E. Holly James and June S. Moffette. A chorus of forty voices will support the principals with a "symphonic" orchestra comprising Mrs. Fred Felmet, Mrs. Charles Livingstone, Mrs. Robert Drake and Mrs. Everett Kinsey, violins; Mrs. Helen Goodwin, viola; Mrs. Mabel Rich and Mrs. Ernest Sachs, cellos; Fred Felmet, clarinet; Elizabeth Barrett, flute; Elliott Hersey, trumpet; John Davis, drums; and Lucy Wilcox Cushman, piano.

L. Hassler Einzig is directing the production and proceeds will benefit the Hobby Center. A dress rehearsal, open to school children, will be held Wednesday evening, October 1.

BAILEY — ARMSTRONG

Mrs. Madeline J. Armstrong of 5 Alben street and Chester F. Bailey of 17 Oxford avenue, Belmont, were married Wednesday evening, November 24, at St. Mary's Rectory by the pastor of St. Mary's, Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan. Mrs. Armstrong, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogers of Medway, has been living in Winchester her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Murphy, who was her bridal attendant. Frederick Bailey was best man for his brother. A reception for the immediate families was held after the ceremony at the Murphy home.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in New York Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will live at 51 Slade street in Belmont. The bridegroom is associated with the John Sliney Construction Company in that town.

"RELIGION OF DISBELIEVERS"

Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, minister, will preach at the Unitarian Church here on Sunday at 11 o'clock on the subject "Religion of Disbelievers." This sermon is in response to a request and grows out of the concern of many churchmen over the number of disbelievers who seem to have lost their faith. Special music will be presented by the Unitarian Choir under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham.

Next Sunday morning, December 6, at the 11:00 a. m. service, Mr. Chapman will exchange pulpits with Rev. Richard Huff, minister of the Unitarian Church in Stoneham, who was formerly a chaplain in the United States Navy.

MRS. RICHMOND MET DP'S

Winchester Woman Member of Greeting Committee

Mrs. Harold B. Richmond of Swan road was one of a group of Red Cross workers at the docks last Friday to meet the Ship arriving with 808 displaced persons aboard.

Mrs. Richmond is Canteen Chairman of the Boston Red Cross and it was her job to see that the displaced persons were fed through the day. She and her team of five canteen workers prepared food enough for the displaced persons but when they arrived at Commonwealth Pier they found that all the people who were there with the social agencies, plus all the relatives meeting the immigrants were also in need of coffee. They managed to serve everybody at the dock from 8:00 a. m. until 8:00 p. m.

There was much drama and much happiness, all in the same spot. The greetings between the relatives and the DP's was something never seen before. The relatives were behind a picket fence waiting and the DP's were so eager to embrace them that the first aid room was very busy with minor casualties.

The children looked very well and happy. The older people showed great strain and eyes had a wistful look. One very attractive young girl showed us tattooes of 5 different concentration camps.

One of the most interesting things was the parent's attitude toward their children. While there were chocolate bars for all, the parents would graciously refuse and say, "one for my baby only". They could not realize that they too could have one. People without children would look longingly at our chocolate bars and say "I have no children". When they were told they too could have some their faces lighted up and some broke them in half and would throw them up to other relatives on the decks - they wanted to share their joy with those not off the ship.

UNITED NATIONS WORKSHOP

The second meeting of the United Nations Workshop (study group) will be held in the Library at 10:00 a. m. on Thursday, December 2nd. The subject will be "The Palestine Question"; however, for the benefit of those who missed the first meeting there will be a short review of the organization of the U. N.

These Workshops, set up by the League of Women Voters of Winchester, with Mrs. Henry K. Spencer as leader, are the beginning of the League's "Know Your United Nations" year. They are part of a nation-wide movement by the League to acquaint people with the United Nations and how it can be strengthened.

Reports of a lively and enthusiastic discussion during the first Workshop meeting on the "Charter of the United Nations" indicate that even this basic, technical subject matter was anything but dull in the hands of Mrs. Spencer and her committee which includes Mrs. Charles Greene, Mrs. Alan Howard, Mrs. James B. Willing and Mrs. Richard Wyman.

The discussion groups are open to anyone interested.

L. Freeman; Sandra Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall; Barbara Michelsen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Michelsen; and Betsey and Susan Morton, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Morton.

Fifty-two dogs were innoculated by Dr. William Buckley and his assistants at the final dog clinic of the year held at the town hall November 10.

DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION NOTES

For the past few years it has been customary for the Winchester District Nursing Association to have one evening meeting to which members of the Advisory Committee and the Trustees are invited. On Tuesday evening, November 16th, this meeting was held in the home of Miss Margaret Copland.

Following her statement that October was a busy month for the nurses, the Executive Director, Mrs. Jane Lord, said that there were 35 new patients, making a total of 158 patients to whom 294 visits were made during the month. In addition to this figure, there were eleven office visits.

It was announced that Mrs. Lord will speak at the Needlework Guild, a nationally known group which is thoughtfully generous with its gifts to the WDNA.

During the month, an organization meeting of the 50th Anniversary committee was held at which time Mrs. Ben Schneider was elected chairman. The committee members are Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. Harlow Russell, Mrs. Ralph Jope, Mrs. Howard Morrison, Miss Adelaide Homer, Mrs. George Connor, Mrs. Donald Powers, Mrs. Wayne Thompson, Mrs. Jane Lord, and Mrs. William Kugeler, ex-officio. Plans were made to have a luncheon meeting which will be the main event of the celebration to be held in March.

After a detailed report from the Trustees, the delegates who attended sessions of the American Public Health Association and the State Nurses Association reported interestingly on dental health, paraplegics, health councils and group plans for medical care.

Before adjournment at 9:30 p.m. the President expressed sincere appreciation to the hostess and the members of the Hospitality Committee.

GARDEN CLUB

The Winchester Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Harold Twombly on Thursday, November 18, with Mrs. Arthur Pitman as hostess.

A "Trading Post" offered much amusement and a substantial sum was added to the treasury of the club.

The auctioneers of the afternoon were Mrs. Herbert West and Mrs. William Gilpatric and the cries of "going-going-gone" brought satisfaction as many fascinating articles were offered for sale. A ten-cent "grab-bag" and chances on a cake added to the exchecquer. The Year Book for 48-49 has brought many expressions of approval and delight.

The cover, in color, depicts a charming Chinese lady and was executed by Mrs. John Mills

ROCHE PLAYED GREAT GAME FOR HARVARD

Scored One Touchdown, Set Up Another Against Yale

Charles David "Chucker" Roche, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Roche of Westley street, was one of Harvard's outstanding backfield performers in the Crimson's 20-7 victory over its traditional rival, Eli Yale, at the Stadium last Saturday afternoon.

"Chucker", a three sport star at Winchester High and left halfback on Sarto Walsh's great eleven of 1944, played a fine all around game for Johnny Harvard, at Cambridge, kicking, running and right shoulder, from his left halfback slot.

It was Roche who set up Harvard's second touchdown in the final quarter, the all-important six points that brought the Crimson from a 6-7 deficit into a 12-7 lead. "Chucker", on an outside play went 30 yards on that one, his foot just hitting the side line a couple of feet or so from pay dirt. Captain Kenny O'Donnell easily went over on the next play.

Roche's second touchdown that closed the doors definitely against the Yalensians, was a thirty yard dash and this time Charles David went all the way himself. If memory serves, he is the first Winchester boy to score for Harvard since the days of Art French.

Roche also got off several fine kicks for Harvard, aside from that short boot that started Yale on its lone touchdown march. Standing in his end zone after a Yale drive had petered out on the Harvard two, "Chucker" zoomed a beautiful kick well to the Yale side of midfield, a kick that must have gone some 60 yards or so.

Through the courtesy of Park Radio, "Chucker's" mother, who is confined to her bed at present, even passing, despite an injured was able to see her son in action at the Stadium on a fine Philco television set. Firemen Joey Connolly and Johnny Nash were instrumental in getting the set for Mrs. Roche.

READING P. O. EDGES WINCHESTER 3-1

A strong Reading team proved a little too much for the Winchester P. O. aggregation at the Malden alleys. It was not a question of one man doing all the damage but the Reading men were good and were consistant.

Although Tofuri bowled 112, Coss 103 and Gilgun at different times, Winchester had to bow out.

This is the eleventh match of the season according to Manager Davey, manager of the Suburban P. O. Bowling League and leaves but five matches before the half. The winner of the first half will bowl the winner of the second half for the championship. The following week will see the several post office leagues meet on one alleys and bowl for the Greater Boston Championship.

HELEN CARROLL MADE ALL NORTHEAST TEAM

Helen Jay Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Carroll of Lincoln street, is playing this week with the All Northeast Team in the National Field Hockey tournament at Winnetka, Illinois.

Miss Carroll, who is director of Physical Education and Coach of Girls at Winchester High School, made the Northeast team as the result of her fine play at left inner for the All Boston Team in the Northeast Tournament at Hunter College in New York last weekend.

All Boston beat the Mohawks, a team of upstate New York girls, 8-2, and won, 4-1, from Long Island, losing, 2-1, to the crack Stuyvesant team with the deciding goal scored in the last second of play.

After the All Northeast team and its reserve eleven were picked a game was staged between the two, with the "All" team winning 3-1. Miss Carroll, who was the scoring star of the entire tournament, made one of the three goals.

Two other Winchester girls, Ginny Wallace, left inner, and Anne Richardson, center half, made the All Boston third team, but did not make the trip to New York, Miss Wallace being unable to play because of an injured knee.

Despite her failure to go to New York, Miss Richardson was chosen to go on to Winnetka as a fullback on the Northeast Reserve Team, her known ability causing her to be chosen to bolster this important position. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Richardson of Everett avenue and assistant athletic coach at the Cambridge School in Weston.

FOOTBALL TEAM DINED

Winchester High School's varsity football players were guests of their star center, "Bob" Abrahamson, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Abrahamson of Holton street, at a dinner last Thursday evening in Masonic Apartments. A delicious baked ham dinner was served with plenty for every one, even such stout trenchermen as the members of the coaching staff, Head Coach Henry Knowlton, Ted Bartlett, John Gorczynski and Carl Reed. The coaches were accompanied by their wives and other invited guests were Edward P. "Mack" McKenzie of the Woburn Daily Times and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Penaligan of the Winchester Star. Mrs. Abrahamson's cooking was toasted on all sides with Mr. Bartlett paying particular tribute to her coffee. Mr. McKenzie, a real veteran of the sports banquet loop, went on record with the statement that the dinner was among the best he ever attended.

Following the dinner official Harvard football pictures of the Columbia game were shown by Coach Knowlton with big John Gorczynski, former Harvard tackle explaining the various Crimson formations and pointing out playing stars of both teams.

NEW FIRM IN WINCHESTER

Winchester's shopping center has been recently enhanced by the opening of a new yarn shop, Friendship House, at 40 Church street.

Mr. Robert Armstrong, Jr., a Winchester resident and a veteran of World War II, has been conducting a flourishing mail order business in yarns and accessories since his leaving the service. This summer he moved his mail order headquarters to the former Emery House on Church street. Here he has the entire floor with four or five assistants helping fill orders. This fall the front rooms were opened for the retail selling of yarns under the management of Mrs. P. Stewart Newton and Mrs. Whitelaw Wright.

These rooms are very tastefully furnished with oriental rugs, oil paintings and comfortable chairs for the convenience of customers who wish to have help on their knitting problems or just rest for a moment. The goods are displayed in glass cases, the colors of the yarns adding a very decorative touch.

Not only does Friendship House sell the finest grade domestic yarns of virgin wool, but they are also now importing Jaeger yarns from London in a host of colors and soft cashmeres from the borderlands of Scotland.

Sweater packs, sock packs, tie packs, and needle packs have been packaged and are displayed to tempt the Christmas shopper. Other accessories for the busy knitter are also available.

Friendship House extends a cordial invitation to drop in and browse around among its offerings, or just for a rest on one's way to or from shopping.

FORUM DANCE

The young people's forum of the First Congregational Church are holding a Harvest Dance on Friday evening, December 3, in the parish hall from 8 until 12 o'clock. The Harmonizers are playing. Leon Fernandez is chairman of the committee, other members of which are Linda Bartlett and Peter Coon.

FOOTALL

The game was a hard bruising affair, both teams losing good players through the injury route. Woburn's Lisaki was able to play only a few minutes because of a bad leg, and both Courtney and Scire, good running boys were forced out during the game with injuries. Winchester lost Captain Slack early in the game with a painful ankle injury and Amico's side injury really hurt in the second half. Other players on both teams were bruised and battered but kept in there.

Winchester cashed in on the first break of the game when the Tanners were penalized 15 yards for holding after Courtney had kicked to Myers on Winchester's 31. His second punt went outside at Woburn's 43 and Winchester was off.

Dillingham picked up 5 and Amico 3, Amico then bulling through for a first down at the Woburn 15. Dillingham got only two, but Amico bucked through to within a foot of first lown at the five, and on the next buck slanted off right tackle for the score. Cirurso kicked in the extra point at placement with Peluso holding.

Starting at the end of the first quarter with a 25 yard Myers reverse Winchester drove from its 33 to the Woburn two where the Tanners took the ball on downs.

Sweeney kicked out to his 32. A five yarder against Winchester for fast starting put the ball back on the 37, but there Dillingham swept out to his right and cut back over center to go all the way, aided by some good blocking.

A Winchester man was called for "pushing" on the play and the 15 yards against Winchester put the ball back on the 44. Aided by a short Carroll-to-Myers pass and a Myers reverse Winchester made a first down at the Woburn 25. Here two running plays were piled up and on third down Carroll tossed off a sloppy pass into the right flat. Veno, Woburn fullback, intercepted easily and started up the field ahead of the pack.

Big "Skitchie" Carroll brought him down from behind at Winchester's 24, and on 4th down from the 19 a Sweeney-to-Bevilacqua-to-Bavaro forward-lateral made first down at the 12. Scire slanted through to the five, but Bavaro was stopped there on the next play and time ran out.

To start the third quarter Myers took Woburn's kickoff in the end zone and started toward the right sideline, handing off the ball to Dillingham who was crossing toward his left. "Dill" took the ball about the 5 and was apparently stopped about the 25. Twisting and driving Pete ripped through the Orange shirts into the clear and legged it 95 yards along the far sideline for the score. Cirurso failed to convert.

Running the kickoff back to its 36, Woburn threatened when Sweeney passed to Bevilacqua in a huddle of black shirts on Winchester's 24, a 40 yard advance.

Winchester took the ball at its 15 and twice rushed well into Woburn territory, being forced however to kick each time, the loss of Amico taking much of the zip out of the attack.

Cirurso's second kick went to the Woburn 13, and after two rushes got only three yards Sweeney again passed to Bevilacqua at Winchester's 42. Another pass play just at the start of the final quarter resulted in a fumble with Mario Mascioli recovering for Winchester right at midfield.

Myers reversed for four, and then Dillingham broke off right tackle, drove and whirled into the clear and sprinted 46 yards along the far sidelines for the final touchdown. Cirurso converted right through the middle.

Woburn was still full of fight and Gorton made a swell runback of the kickoff to the Winchester 44, a last-ditch tackle by Abrahamson saving a possible touchdown.

Aided by a 15 yard penalty against Winchester for pushing the Tanners soon had a first down at the Winchester 15, from where O'Doherty and Scire made it first down at the 5.

Marciano on a reverse ran wide, but was spilled on a great tackle by Carroll back on the 10. O'Doherty was dropped a yard further back and two pass plays fell incomplete as Winchester took over. A penalty forced Cirurso to kick from his 10.

O'Doherty made a nice runback to the Winchester 35 and another 15 yarder against Winchester for holding put the ball on the 15. A pass to Hill reached the 10, but here Woburn lost five for fast starting and Dillingham intercepted a pass at the Winchester five to run out to the 44. Time finally ran out as Myers grabbed a Cirurso pass for a first down at the Woburn 17.

Winchester made 9 first downs and 250 yards rushing, completing three of six passes for 31 yards. The locals fumbled once, recovering and lost 70 yards in penalties. Woburn made six first downs and 60 yards by rushing, completing 5 of 17 passes for 96 yards. The Tanners lost 20 yards in penalties and lost the ball the only time it fumbled. The summary:

Cadillac.

PRESENTS ITS CREATIVE MASTERPIECE...

No Cadillac announcement has ever been more significant than the one which appears on this page. For, this year, Cadillac presents its creative masterpiece—a wholly new V-type eight-cylinder engine—which is, beyond all doubt, the highest development yet attained in automotive power plants. ★ This great power plant has been twelve years in the building—for basic development work started in 1936. It has many unusual qualities which set it apart from all other creations of its kind. It is far more alert, powerful and responsive to the throttle—yet it affords an increase in gasoline economy of approximately twenty per cent. And the manner of its performance actually challenges the imagination. It is liquid smooth; it is quick and eager beyond all experience; yet the power application is so effortless that the driver is scarcely aware of the engine's existence. The car seems almost to move by automatic propulsion. ★ Even experienced Cadillac owners must put aside all previous conceptions of performance when they drive the 1949 Cadillac. It is a revelation—from silken start to silken stop. ★ There are, of course, many other advancements in addition to the history-making engine. There is new beauty in the front ensemble; there is a newly-designed, more attractive instrument panel, with all driving controls at your finger tips; and throughout the chassis and body will be found those characteristic refinements which result from Cadillac's unceasing search for perfection. ★ But the big Cadillac story, for 1949, is performance. It is not only the world's new standard—it is beyond the world's current conception.

THE NEW 1949 CADILLAC IS NOW ON DISPLAY

GIRL SCOUTS

All Girl Scouts and their friends will be interested in the letter just received by our Commissioner, Mrs. Cary, from the National Headquarters of the Girl Scouts. It reads:

November 18, 1948.

"Dear Mrs. Cary:

On behalf of the National Organization of Girl Scouts, I want to extend our sincere appreciation to you and your council for making it possible for Mrs. Barbara Metcalf, Executive Director, and Miss Alice Hodge to attend the convention of the United States Eastern Amateur Skiing Association. You have no idea what a valuable contribution Alice made as a member of the panel. As a matter of fact she did such a stunning job that she literally stole the show.

As you probably know, this if the first time, to my knowledge, that the youth has been asked to participate at this convention and we all were of the opinion that the panel was a grand success. Many members of the group were made aware of the fact that the youth should be brought into the program planning and that in this way there will be a better all-round program for all enthusiastic skiers.

As you know, there were four organizations represented on the panel and it was very enlightening working together for the promotion of a program which is not only fun but has a definite service to perform in every community.

Alice was most cooperative throughout and our representative from the "American Girl Magazine", Miss Ruth Baker, was very thrilled with her interview in connection with an article on skiing for some future publication.

Mr. Robert Fuller of the "Ski Magazine" got a grand story also on the skiing program of the Winchester Troop which will be published in the December 15 issue.

Thank you again for your wholehearted cooperation and I want you to know that whenever I can be of service to you I shall be thrilled to comply with your request.

Sincerely yours,
Anne Bronkhorst."
Health and Safety Adviser
Program Development Division

Yes, girls, something new is being added. As a result of the afore mentioned meeting in New York, our girls will receive much help and support from the neighboring member-clubs of the Eastern Amateur Ski Association, Mr. Harry Pollard and some of his fellow Black and Blue Trail Smashers; and also the Winchester Ski Club will help, says Bob Lowe. There will be instructors from the Trail Smashers and the club has invited the girls to make use of their lodge at Waterville Valley, N. H., on a couple of week-ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Parsons are in charge of the entire outdoor program for the three Senior outdoor troops and there are plans for quite a few week-ends this winter. Added to these plans are those for a Dry Ski School. On Saturday at 10:30 we plan to start this new venture on the pine needles in the Fells. Non-skiers or beginners will be taught the first elements of skiing now, in preparation for the first snow fall!

GRIFFIN DOES DARTMOUTH CARNIVAL PICTURES

The December issue of the magazine, "Holiday", is of especial interest to the Winchester friends of Arthur Griffin of Euclid avenue, widely known photographer, whose work has appeared in Saturday Evening Post and other leading publications and whose photographs of Boston and New England commons in book form created so much favorable comment.

Mr. Griffin has ranged far afield to pick up his beautiful pictures and in "Holiday" for December he is illustrating an article on the famous Dartmouth Winter Carnival with shots in color and black and white, including interesting ice and snow sculpture, ski-jump carnival crowds, arrival of the boys' dates, skating lineup, finish of the ski running and informal shots of boys and girls in the various frat houses.

Winchester is a great Dartmouth town and undoubtedly Mr. Griffin's pictures and their accompanying story will excite the youngsters and bring a nostalgic pang to the older Indians of the North. Any one will get a kick out of them, and perhaps see some of their friends among the enthusiasts portrayed.

GOOD HUNTING!

A party of local nimrods is back in town after a successful hunting trip at Petitcodiac, N. B. Al and Syd Elliott, Charlie Murphy, Dannie Hogan, Hoyt Steeves, Harold "Junie" Elliott, Fred Giggie and John Navarro of the Winchester Sport Center made up the party, though John wants it distinctly understood he went along for the trip and a rest, not to hunt deer!

Anyhow the boys brought back five big bucks, all of which are in deep freezes, awaiting distribution. We have John's word for it that "Charlie" Murphy got one of the deer, so "Al" didn't bag all five of them!

FOWLE WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Winchester track fans were happy to see Richard "Ree" Fowle of Woburn win the New England Cross Country Championship last Saturday at Franklin Field, with his twin brother, Robert, "Raw" Fowle, hampered by a bad ankle, in 7th place. Winchester fans have always admired the cocky Fowle twins, especially Trainer "Lou" Goddu who thinks the little Woburn boys are great competitors.

PHENOMINAL YOUNG PIANIST GUEST ARTIST AT MYSTIC GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The Mystic Glee Club will present G. Johnston Geikie, Jr., a promising young prodigy of local musical circles, as its guest artist at its Christmas Concert on December 11th.

Although only a boy of thirteen and still a student in Junior High School, Master Geikie, the Phenominal Boy Pianist of South Hamilton, has already played his way to a noteworthy list of successes in his short career. He covered himself with honors twice as guest artist at two meetings of the New England Federation of Men's Glee Clubs, Inc. Besides numerous concerts played in Essex County to the delight of his listeners, he was the winner of the top honors in the instrumental division of the North Shore Musical Festival held at Manning Bowl in Lynn last June.

Master Geikie inherits his wonderful talent from a muscial father who is an accomplished pianist himself. His father commenced to instruct him when he was but five years old, but for the past three and one-half years he has been a pupil of Prof. Fondacaro of Boston University School of Music. A very modest and unassuming young man, he seems to be inspired, as he takes his place at the piano bench, to play some of the most difficult piano selections entirely from memory.

He displays a precision of touch together with a degree of expression and sense of interpretation of his selections which is most creditable and marks him as a promising pianist of the future.

In Master Geikie, the Mystic Glee Club has chosen an assisting artist who will surely thrill his audience.

GALA MINSTREL SHOW

Tonight (Friday) the Youth Fellowship of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will sponsor an old-fashioned minstrel show at 8:00 p. m. Over thirty people in the cast will be on hand to add a delightful evening to your memories. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS SERVICE CLUB

The November meeting of the P. N. G.'s Service Club was held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Donaghey on last Thursday evening, November 18th.

Plans were made for the annual Club Christmas Party, which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Ripley, 14 Wedge Pond road on Wednesday evening, December 29th. Members are asked to bring a Christmas gift for the tree. It was also voted to remember our shut-ins and older members at this time with gifts.

After the meeting a "Swap Party" was enjoyed by the members present. The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the meeting, assisted by Mrs. Mabel Larson and Mrs. Arthur Cameron.

MT. HOLYOKE ALUMNAE

The Winchester Mount Holyoke Alumnae are hard at work preparing for their table at the Christmas Trade Fair to be held at the Boston Y. W. C. A. from 10 to 8 o'clock Wednesday, December 1, to benefit the Two Million for Mount Holyoke Campaign. Besides Apple Syrup and Felt Bags, the Winchester Club is featuring winter boutonieres. Mrs. William Campbell Ross and Mrs. James B. Willing have charge of making the everlasting boutonieres of dried fern fronds, pine cones, heather and evergreens tied with red ribbon.

The mothers of students at Mount Holyoke are acting as patronesses for the lecture and demonstration on "Decorating the House for Christmas" by Mrs. Anson Howe Smith. Among the Winchester patronesses are Mrs. Theodore H. Elliott, Mrs. Robert J. Holmes, Mrs. Thayer F. Hersey, Mrs. Daniel E. Beggs, Jr., Mrs. Merin Norian and Mrs. Edward W. Butler.

The Fire Department had two grass fires last Friday afternoon, the first at 2:31 near 239 Forest street, and the second at 4:56 at the rear of the Eastern Felt Company on Canal street.

HYMN-SING

Another opportunity to join in an old-fashioned hymn sing will be given at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, November 28th, in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church. Slides of many of the grand old church hymns - dear to the heart of everyone - will be shown, and Dr. Cecil W. Pride will conduct the audience singing. Rev. Walter Lee Bailey will give a brief talk and the devotional part of the service will be in charge of a member of the Youth Fellowship.

Everyone is cordially invited to join in this inspirational service of music.

All members are expected to attend this affair the purpose of which is to pay signal honor to the Father-Daughter just as is paid to the Father-Son in our February Breakfast. Last Sunday evening Sgt. James E. Farrell discovered a beer keg dangling from an Edison Light pole on Swanton street opposite Holland street. The keg was cut down and taken to headquarters. Yes, Wilburforce, it was empty!

SCHOOL BUILDING COMMITTEE DISCUSSED SPRINKLER SYSTEM

At the last meeting of the Indian Hill School Building Committee, held November 18, the matter of a sprinkler system for the new building was discussed.

The prevailing opinion was that inasmuch as no original provision was made for a sprinkler system at the school, and the installation of one would entail a large appropriation, the matter is one when the town should decide.

It is the committee's opinion that no fire hazard is involved since every room in the building opens at grade, making it possible to empty the school in a very short time. There is very little difference in insurance rates resulting from the installation of sprinklers.

Cusack of Lakeview road and Mrs. Theodore Elliott of Herrick street are members of the committee operating "The Carriage House Shop" a new and unique shop being conducted by the Women's Republican Club of Massachusetts in the old carriage house of Eben Jordan at the rear of the club house, at 46 Beacon street.

CHANDLER OPENING
In Belmont Announced

NEW CHANDLER STORE

Fine New Merchandising Building in Belmont

The building which will house the Belmont branch of the Chandler Store will be of first class construction throughout and of absolutely fireproof construction.

With an overall size of 90 by 50 feet, the building will have the latest in air conditioning, the latest type of elevators and an illumination system comparable with that of any merchandising plant in the United States.

A two story building with a modern interpretation of antique colonial. The first story will be entirely glass with aluminum finish and decorations. The base course under the glass windows will be imported Italian marble. The entrances are to be Herculite glass doors. The top portion of the marquee will contain a 90 foot long continuous flower box.

The exterior will be finished in coloninal white brick, the brick being Pennsylvania shale brick with white veneer and the building will feature a colonial cornice with medallions.

The basement floor is to be done in the latest asphalt tile. The first floor, plainly visible from the street because of the all glass construction, will be done entirely in terrazzo. This is a composition containing Tennessee marble which gives a pinkish glow effect. The terrazzo will be divided by brass strips in two foot square panels over all the floor.

The second floor is to be completely carpeted by a pink colored floor covering.

Another feature of the new building will be a complete sprinkler system, an additional fire safety measure, and the roof will have two inch cork insulation.

The Chandler branch store in Belmont promises to be an outstandingly beautiful building, adding much to Cushing Square and the Community.

Air Conditioning System

One of the delightful features of the new Chandler store is its modern Air Conditioning system which provides all departments including the basement and fitting rooms with a steady flow of healthful, freshly-conditioned air.

This new Chandler system combines all the functions of modern Air Conditioning. First, it moves air. By keeping air in constant motion, it eliminates stale air and keeps the room provided with a constant healthful atmosphere.

Second, it cools or heats the air, depending upon outdoor conditions, so that the interior of the store is always at the ideal temperature for shopping comfort.

Third, it humidifies or dehumidifies the air so that the shoppers can never complain of a dry atmosphere in winter, or complain that it is "not the heat, it is the humidity" in summer. That sticky feeling is eliminated with properly dehumidified air.

Fourth, it washes and cleans the air so that air throughout the store is always fresh and invigorating.

The feature of having all fitting rooms air conditioned, in addition to the shopping areas, means that try-on's are a pleasure regardless of outdoor conditions.

The Air Conditioning equipment is mounted in a penthouse on the roof to provide the maximum of shopping space within the store, and to remove all operating equipment from the store area. The compressor is a 40-ton hermetically-sealed unit, capable of cooling 16,000 cu. ft. of air per minute. The compressor is connected to cooling coils which are mounted inside an air mixing chamber where valves and air shutters operate automatically to mix the required amount of fresh, outside air with the proper amount of recirculated air. Heating coils from a steam boiler are located in the same mixing chamber to warm the air in winter.

Each floor of the store has its own regulating thermostat to keep it at the ideal temperature, and to avoid any possibility of the top floor being too hot, or the basement being too cool, when the street floor is at the proper temperature.

The heated or cooled air is carried to each floor by means of ducts and attractively concealed grills. These grills are scientifically located to prevent annoying drafts and to provide the most effective distribution of the fresh, healthful and invigorating air.

Lighting

The electric installation has been carefully studied and planned to embody the latest scientific design of lighting to provide maximum illumination for proper display of merchandise without glare, and with particular regard to maintaining the color values.

The combination of concealed incandescent lighting and a new fluorescent tube which has been developed to provide the nearest approach to true color, has resulted in buying conditions in the store which will be the same as inspection of the goods in the home.

The usual store which is lighted with the standard type of fluorescent tubing presents the sale of goods under a light which does not agree with that in the usual home, so that goods upon inspection at the house will look at some times radically different than when purchased at the store.

The show windows are completely modern, with a Louverall ceiling to conceal the new type of fluorescent tube mentioned above, and to create the same identical effect as is provided by outdoor sky illumination on a summer's day. This will display merchandise in the windows in the same character as may be experienced from people walking in the street.

The combination of the interior lighting with its soft, concealed, flush incandescent fixtures, its shadow box lighting with the new fluorescent tubes, and its showcase lighting in each instance provided with the new fluorescent tube for the inspection of articles, will be a most pleasant and decorative installation.

We have the feeling that this installation will curb the modern trend to obvious glaring and unpleasant visible light, and will create a new era in the lighting of the modern department store.

Selling Fixtures

One of the main features of the case work is the new type of wood used (Korina). We went to considerable trouble in picking up this lumber in New York, and believe it is the only complete installation of its size using both the Korina plywood and the Korina solid lumber, in the country.

"A new and important light-colored wood—Korina—has just been added to the Weldwood assortment of fine cabinet hardwoods. It is another Weldwood exclusive specialty and we predict that it will quickly become one of the most popular species.

Korina has a beautiful light color, an attractive grain and a definite individuality. While it closely resembles Prima Vera, it is a cleaner, sounder wood and runs to wider flitches; it finishes equally as well as this popular cabinet wood."

Elevators

"The Elevator is of the automatic finger-tip control type which has usually been installed only in the larger metropolitan store units. The car may be operated by an Attendant or, at the turn of a Key Switch changed to fully automatic self-service. Push Buttons in the car and at the landings sure of a finger to control the operation of the car.

::An advanced type of selfleveling device is incorporated to eliminate any tripping hazard by bringing the elevator to a substantially accurate level with the landing floor regardless of load, speed or direction of travel.

"Automatic hollow steel fire doors guard the hatchway at each floor and the doorway of the car itself. These doors are automatically opened when the car has stopped at a floor and close automatically when an operating button is pressed. Electric interlocking devices which bear the approval of the United States Bureau of Standards insure that the landing doors must be both closed and securely locked before the elevator can move away from the floor. As the doors close a soft rubber Leading Edge slightly precedes them and this is so arranged that the lightest pressure of hand or foot will cause the doors automatically to reverse and re-open.

"Every modern safety device has been incorporated in this installation and the overspeed safety grips are the type used on the fastest elevators in the Country's highest buildings."

As to the decor it is quite simple and modest and of the simple functional type dictated by modern design with soft colors and a richly carpeted floor which harmonizes with the general decorative scheme.

Carpets

The carpeting which is known as Beverly is an exclusive fabric with Karagheusian, and is the most contemporary of the many Gulistan carpetings. It is definitely the choice of many of America's top-flight architects and decorators for store use when they are looking for a carpet in a solid color that is distinctive and luxurious.

The richness of the Beverly carpet lies in its texture. It is woven by a patented process, the pile being made up of heavy looped yarns woven on four different levels and it actually looks almost like a hand weave.

The windows will have as a background for the display a heavy pebbly twist floor covering in a Beige color, with just a tint of rose.

This is a change from the usual plus pile effect, and in keeping with the new trend in carpetings.

Combined with the other all modern features in window display, it will do its part in making the new Chandler's attractive and inviting to the passerby and shopper.

The extra heavy under padding to be used for this work will give the soft luxurious effect so much desired.

ROTARY NEWS

Among the guests at the Rotary Meeting this week was our good friend and neighbor Judge Henchey of Woburn and since he was with Charlie Harrold we must assume that he was trying to fix a parking tag. Pat Foley, still hoarse from the penny sale, brought Roy Horn as his guest and Gordon Bird had a Mr. Clifford Swenson. Since nobody is talking to Charlie Koch because of the songs he picks, he brought Johnnie Sweeney to listen to him. Forbes Norris went to Boston, and Chelsea to make up and we suspect to speak on how to get over a hundred at bowling. Ernie Dade and Joe Moffett attended at Woburn among strangers.

Incidently speaking of make-ups our perennial makeer-upper from Woburn, Jim McGrath, is sailing to France to visit some hot spots and promised by card to the club that he will bring back home some French songs for us to sing. If he does there is no one who can lead them except Church Hindes who speaks French fluently with both hands.

The programme this week was an excellent movie on Greater Boston as it relates to Boston proper for marketing. This movie was produced and sent out by the Boston Globe and proved to be not only interesting but instructive which is the aim of all our programmes. Thus far Charlie Murphy, who is currently shooting the bull in Maine, has done a good job as programme chairman.

It has been brought to the attention of this reporter that there are mumblings about 'professionalism' in our bowling league. Rumor has it that one team has been paid quite a bit of hard cash to stay on top and the charges brought are now being aired by a special committee. Another 'Black Sox Scandal' seems to be in the making. However when we interviewed Captain Pollard of the team in question he denied all charges and said that the whole trouble lies in the inferiority of the opposition. He said 'our team burned up the grape-fruit league and are determined to stay in there 'til the pennant is won.'

WYMAN SCHOOL TEA

The last of the series of teas being held for the teachers and mothers of Wyman School was given Thursday, November 18. Mrs. Leon F. Sargent entertained for Mr. Forte and the mothers of his sixth grade class. Mrs. Paul Forester, Mrs. Burton Gove, Mrs. Edwin Hall, Mrs. Langley Keyes, Mrs. George Marks, Mrs. John McLean and Mrs. William Mitchell were on the committee assisting Mrs. Sargent. Mrs. Langley Keyes and Mrs. George Makechnie served at the tea table.

Seventeen Wyman School room teas have been held since October 21. At each of the teas the teacher has given an outline of the work done in the classroom and the programme for the school year. The mothers have also had an opportunity to discuss problems with the teacher. As a result, it is felt, the teas have been most valuable in bringing about cooperation and better understanding between the teachers and parents.

A Chevrolet sedan, being driven on Cambridge street by Richard C. Tourtellot of 25 Calumet road was badly damaged about the front end shortly after 1 o'clock last Sunday morning when it hit an Edison Light pole on the left side of the road near the Woburn line. Tourtellot told the police a car in front of him stopped suddenly and he had to swerve his car sharply to avoid a collision. Neither Tourtellot nor Albert Goodwin of 59 Middlesex street, riding with him, claimed injuries.

JUDGE CLARE GERALD FENERTY TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH

The Winchester Chapter Guild of the Infant Saviour presents Judge Fenerty in a lecture to be given at the Winchester High School Auditorium Sunday afternoon, November 28 at 3 o'clock.

Judge Fenerty is one of the most outstanding orators in this country. His subject, "The New Challenge and the Old Faith", deals with communism as the Christian world knows it. This talk should be most interesting to every christian for at this moment countries all over the world feel the dreadful effect of this foreign ideology which is being imposed on defenseless people.

THE FORTNIGHTLY — NOTES

Attention is called to the monthly meeting of the Club Institute Forum to be held at the Boston Y.W.C.A., on December 2 at 10:30 a. m.

Guest Night

On Monday evening, November 22, The Fortnightly observed its annual Guest Night at the Masonic Hall. The president, Mrs. Harold H. Given, graciously welcomed club members and guests, concluding with a timely Thanksgiving message. The program was in charge of the International Relations Committee, Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes, chairman, Mrs. Ragnar T. Brandt, Mrs. Frank J. Ebens, Mrs. Frank D. Madge and Mrs. Carle C. Zimmerman.

In her usual efficient manner, Mr. Barnes introduced the speaker of the evening, Max K. Gilstrap, staff member of The Christian Science Monitor, who spoke on the subject "Your World and You".

While in Moscow the belief is that war is inevitable, opinions differing only as to its time, Mr. Gilstrap feels that among the representatives of the democracies there is a justifiable hope that differences can be broken down, and the world live in peace.

At the close of the program ice-cream, cake and coffee were served by club officers, the Social, Hospitality and International Relations Committees, with Mrs. Forrest F. Bursley, Mrs. Ernest D. Chase and Mrs. William Martens as hostesses. The pourers were Mrs. John H. Gilbody and Mrs. Benjamin T. Morgan.

Mr. John R. Salt of Syracuse, N. Y., is spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Winchester with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Salt of 135 Cambridge street.

NEW METHOD OF RECEIVING CHECKING DEPOSITS

To Be Installed By Winchester National Bank

The Winchester National Bank will soon introduce a new method of receiving checking account deposits which is the latest development in mechanized banking to save depositors' time at tellers windows.

As described by President Leslie J. Scott, the new system soon to go into operation involves the installation at each teller's window of a machine which looks like a very fancy adding machine but which works more like a cash register.

"There's nothing new for the depositor to do," said President Scott, "but now for the first time the commercial account customer has receipts for his deposits that are as complete and as accurate in every respect as his cancelled checks are for his withdrawals. The pass-book system serves well for savings accounts because it records both payments and withdrawals. Expect for accrued interest, the savings pass-book gives the customer an up-to-the minute statement of his account. But the checking account pass-book is never balanced, it is simply an outmoded way of issuing receipts, inconvenient for the customer, and it has remained in use only because the more modern method involves considerable expense to the bank in order to change over."

"With our new system, which is the first to be installed by a Winchester bank, the checking account depositor gets a printed receipt, shaped like a check, which is a duplicate of the bank's record of the deposit, as to amount, date and transaction number. The machine really validates the depositor's own ship and thus gives his an exact duplicate of it for his own accounting. It does away with the need for carrying and presenting any pass book and speeds up the work at tellers windows so that customers will save time, especially at rush periods when some standing in line may be unavoidable. It also means less work for the tellers at the end of the day."

NEEDLE-WORK-GUILD THANKSGIVING

Winchester Welfare - Workers will be able to bring joy and comfort to families in their care because the Guild this year is distributing for Thanksgiving many warm garments.

The 20 directors, with members and friends, held an unusually successful meeting on November 18 in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church.

A high record of 670 articles had been contributed, and the distribution is carried out personally through the Church and Nursing organizations. Warm blankets, new shoes,, underwear, mittens sweaters and many many articles for infants will all find their way into the homes of our neighbors. They will be doubly appreciated in these difficult times, and because the Needle-Work Guild does its share of helping others generously, quietly, and with a personal touch.

Mrs. Jane Lord's talk about the nursing service in Winchester was of great interest, and the tea in care of Mrs. Ellsworth Snow and Mrs. Charles Butler created a genial friendly spirit.

DR. NORRIS SPEAKER AT BROTHERHOOD BREAKFAST

Dr. Forbes Norris will be the guest speaker of the Baptist Men's Brotherhood at their regular monthly breakfast on Sunday, November 28th. These breakfasts, held at 8:45 on the last Sunday morning of each month, are a delightful fellowship prelude to the Bible Class held at 9:30, and every man will want to be present to enjoy the good breakfast and hear Dr. Norris in one of his forceful and sincere talks. All men are welcome.

FUND FOR ART CENTER

Benefitting the Fund for an Art Center in Lexington the 12th annual auction of the Arts & Crafts Society will be held in Masonic Hall on December 4th at 8:00 p. m. At that time paintings, jewelry, ceramics, woven goods, painted metalware, woodcarving, and needlework, all made by members of the Society, will be sold to the highest bidder.

Grand prize of the evening is an antique chest filled by the Needle-workers Guild with handmade articles such as a hooked rug and chair seat, woven rug, stencilled textiles, embroidered towels, and pillow slips, aprons, etc. There will be door prizes and refreshments.

Mrs. W. Holbrook Lowell of Stetson Hall has been spending the Thanksgiving holiday week in Weatherfield, Conn., with her son, W. Holbrook Lowell, and his family.

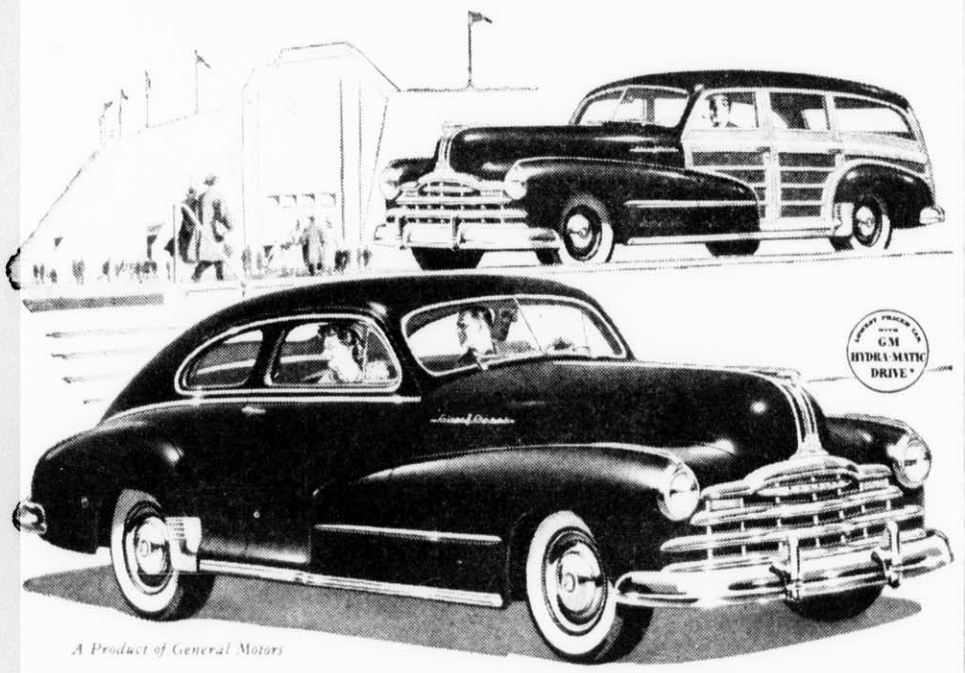
PONTIAC



A Product of General Motors

Above everything else . . a good car!

Pontiac has one manufacturing principle which takes precedence over all others:

Pontiac must always be a good car!

There is no other motor car quality which people value so much as goodness. That's why Pontiac engineers and production specialists spend so much time and energy and money to insure Pontiac quality. Pontiac cars must last long—and they must last well—and they must function through the years with a minimum of upkeep cost.

Owners have been quick to appreciate this. Some of the testimonials they send to the factory, and to Pontiac dealers, tell of performance feats that seem almost impossible of attainment.

Pontiac has many other outstanding virtues, of course. It is a wonderful performer. It is delightfully comfortable and easy to handle. It is a great beauty, and unusually distinctive in appearance.

But its greatest virtue is goodness. This year, or any year, you just can't beat it for faithful performance.

ASSERTION WAS INCORRECT!

Editor of the Star:

I desire to most heartily thank your correspondent Mr. Stanley D. Houvre for pointing out in the columns of the STAR that the new west side school is not fire proof. I asserted after a casual observation everything is apparently fireproof. My assertion was incorrect. Thank you Mr. Howe!

You assert the Winchester High School building and the basement of the Wadleigh School are protected with automatic sprinklers. Does that suggest that the Lincoln, Mystic, Wyman, Noonan, George Washington, the new school on the mountain and the Junior High Schools are not equipped with sprinklers?

Now then, listen carefully. In my opinion education is the foundation stone of America. The school teachers and pupils are the successors of the predecessors who founded this Great Nation namely, the United States of America. Hence they are entitled to every protection the taxpayer is able to furnish.

The taxpayers of the United States spend less money on schooling their children than they spend on liquor, tobacco, cosmetics or tickets to the movies. Consider the money that the women spend decorating their lips, fingernails and toenails with that red stuff.

The children are under the supervision of the teachers several hours a day. If I had my say every teacher in the United States of America would receive a large increase in his or her salary. Several garbage men in this country receive more money in a year than the school teachers receive. Look around and observe the money that is wasted in the various municipalities that could be utilized in enlarging the salaries of our school teachers.

Very truly yours,
Patrick H. Craughwell.

ARMY AND HOUSEWIFE HAVE A LOT IN COMMON

Editor of the Star:

Ladies, are you suffering from the high cost of living? So is the Army. In the Army, as in the grocery, a dollar today will buy less than fifty cents' worth of goods. This is especially true in the cost of equipment. In 1939 it cost forty-one cents to feed each man each day; today that bill is up to $1.06. In 1939, shoes for a recruit cost $3.05; today those same shoes are priced at $5.50. In 1939, when a soldier was issued a pair of pants, they cost $3.68; now they cost $9.62. Whereas in 1939 the outer clothes of a soldier cost $84.90, the starting wardrobe today costs three times as much!

A tip to girls of the marrying age - you had better enroll at once in a cooking class for you may not only have to compete with "the biscuits mother made" but also with "the biscuits I can make"! With the announcement of the establishment of career fields in the Service, it is interesting to note that the first field to come under the New Army Career Plan is the Food Service Field. The field includes food service apprentices, pastry bakers, bakers, meat cutters, cooks, master bakers, master meat cutters, mess stewards, and food service technicians. Food service schools have been set up at Ft. George G. Meade, Md.; Ft. Knox, Ky.; Ft. Benning, Ga.; Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.; Ft. Sheridan, Ill.; Camp Lee, Va; and the Presidio of San Francisco, Calif. Operated under the over-all direction of the Army's Quartermaster General, qualifications for attendance at the schools are rigid.

Answering a question on the occupation forces: - Quoting from General Omar N. Bradley in "Army Information Digest"; "More than 119,000,000 former enemy peoples live today under the guidance and protection of American troops. Elsewhere throughout the world, hundreds of millions more look to the United States both for security and for aid in rebuilding their shattered lives. Just as there is no precedent for this staggering world-wide task, so is there no precedent for the Armed Forces we must have to support these obligations. Until the United Nations has proved beyond all reasonable doubt that it can provide for our safekeeping through joint and cooperative action, and until we are relieved of our occupation tasks, the United States shall have no choice but to keep more than a million men under arms. If we upset this vital balance between commitments and our force, we shall gamble in reckless fashion the security and peace of the world . . . Even though one-third of our expenditures last year was devoted to overseas occupation, the Army and Air Force expenditures for 1948 amounted to only two cents for every dollar of national income in that year . . . The ceiling on what we can safely spend for national defense cannot be wholly fixed by economic equations. Because IT IS ALWAYS FAR CHEAPER TO PREVENT A WAR THAN TO FIGHT ONE, our military needs, must be measured in terms of home security requirements, overseas obligations, and in the likelihood of conflict, either through incident or another's intent."

Very truly yours,
Gladys N. Toye, Chairman,
Winchester Military Manpower Committee

FARBEN EXPLOSION REPEATS IDENTICAL 1921 DISASTER

History, which is known for repeating itself, did so with devastating fury when the erstwhile I.G. Farbenindustrie works in Ludwigshafen exploded and killed hundreds of workers.

Once before, after World War I while defeated Germany was under occupation, an annex of this same plant blew up, killing 565 persons. Still ranking as one of the greatest industrial explosions in history, that 1921 disaster made the world realize for the first time the terrific chemical forces with which Germany's aniline dye makers and nitrogen producers were working.

The 1921 explosion occurred in buildings of a branch plant at Oppau, three miles northwest of Ludwigshafen.

Allied Air Target

The main works, called the Badische Anilin und Sodafabrik, stretches for three miles along the Rhine riverfront in Ludwigshafen proper. One of the key production units of the octopuslike Farben cartel, it has often been rated as the largest chemical plant in the world. It was founded in 1865. French occupation authorities were operating it at the time of the recent disaster. The Farben combine has been broken up by the Allies.

The plant's sprawling riverfront location made it an easy target for repeated RAF bombing attacks during World War 11. RAF bombing predominated in this upper Rhine section of Germany, while United States airmen were busy elsewhere. However, Ludwigshafen's "coup de grace" was administered on January 7, 1944, by an American force of Flying Fortresses.

Rail and Port Center

Not far from the French border and only 45 miles from Frankfurt, Ludwigshafen was important as a prewar rail center and river port. It was, in fact, the largest port on the Rhine's west bank. Its name, meaning Ludwig's port, derives from Ludwig I, King of Bavaria, who developed it during the 19th century.

Across the river, Ludwigshafen's "twin" city of Mannheim ranked as the second-largest inland port in all Germany, handling more tonnage than many seaports. During the war its 30 miles of docks were often clogged with Ruhr coal being transshipped from river to rails.

One third of Ludwigshafen's prewar population of 144,000 worked in the city's chemical and synthetic plants. Electrical engineering concerns employed about the same proportion of Mannheim's 285,000 inhabitants.

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY ALUMNI DINNER DANCE

Several Winchester men are prominent in the committee of arrangements for the annual dinner dance of the Alumni of Northeastern University's School of Business which is to be held at the University Club on Saturday evening, December 4th. Ed McDevitt '18 of Madison avenue west, as President of the Business School Alumni, is general chairman and Ken Lamprey '44 of Wildwood street is Treasurer. Howard Mann '14 of Myopia road and Austin Bunker '34 of Worthen road are members of the Council which is directing the affair and Ranny Weeks who is well known to all Winchesterites will provide the music.

At the annual fall sports banquet held at New Hampton Douglas Hamilton was awarded a reserve football letter. He is the son of Commander and Mrs. Donald G. Hamilton of 52 Oxford street.

BOSTON AUTOMOBILE CLUB

Postwar "dream" cars with their high repair costs and unsafe driving features are becoming a nightmare to the American automobile owner, according to Robert S. Kretschmar, secretary of the Boston Automobile Club.

"Longer and wider fenders, built into the car in one piece, make every parking operation a bad dream," Kretschmar says, "because a slight dent now means a major body repair job. And, of course, wider and wider cars are making our already crowded city streets narrower and narrower. As for changing a tire, a man has to be a combination of Houdini and Blackstone the Magician to get behind the new enclosed fenders and apron guards over the wheels.

"Many drivers, especially women, find the hoods so long and the seats so low that they can't see enough of the road in front of them for safe driving," the Club secretary continues. "Such restricted vision is actually dangerous in the city here children may run in front of the cars."

Changeovers in body styling and design, Kretschmar add, have slowed up delivery of new cars to impatient motorists but have had no effect on the economy of operation — number one wish of the car owners. "Car buyers are justified in wondering why the time, money and engineering talent devoted to restyling wouldn't have made for more pleasant driving if they had been concentrated on producing a car that provides safety with maintenance economy features and runs more miles to the gallon."

Miss Mary MacIsaac of Salem street, who recently left her position as secretary at the Winchester National Bank to accept a similar position with the Carl Reimers Company, Inc., a fashion advertising agency, at the Empire State Building in New York, is spending Thanksgiving week-end in Winchester.

THE WINCHESTER STAR

Christmas Issue 1948

VOL. LXVIII NO. 16 THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1948 PRICE SEVEN CENTS

OUR 24TH YEAR IN WINCHESTER

In April, 1925, we opened for business as authorized dealer of Ford Motor Co. in Winchester. During these years the people of Winchester have supported our agency very well and we are grateful for your business. We have endeavored to merit this patronage and to give you full value for your dollars.

In looking back through the years we remember many periods of stress such as the depression days, bank holiday, model changes (in which we received no new cars in several months), the war years when production stopped in February, 1942 and was not resumed until July, 1945. We have seen both extremes on new car production, both a surplus and shortage of new cars. Certainly the last years have been the most difficult. It has been impossible to fill the orders of our customers, we have lost some deliveries to customers who have been on our books for years and those are the ones that really hurt.

We have delivered our cars as equitably as we could, we have not forced the sale of unwanted accessories and we have not insisted on a used car trade-in and we have not made unfair profits on the used car trade-in. We believe that this was the best policy and we want your continued good will.

Your good will and patronage in the past and our faith in the future, plus our confidence in the Ford Motor Company and its products, have prompted us to add a very substantial addition to our building this year. We hope to have this addition ready for business very soon and when ready will make available a complete service station with full equipment to meet every requirement of your car. (More about this later).

NEW CAMPSITE FOR TROOP 7

Troop 7 can count itself again one of the luckiest troops around, for it now has its own troop Campsite - right here in Winchester. Permission was secured from Mr. Thompson, of Ridge street, for the use of part of his property for the troop. It's the highest spot in Winchester, has a commanding view of not only the town but - on clear days - Mt. Monadnock, in New Hampshire. And there's excellent pine groves for camping, open areas for games, cooking areas, etc. Only three miles from the center of town, the camp is convenient for scout hikes, too.

To insure proper care of the property so generously made available, and to protect boys from outdoor accidents, a set of rules has been established as to how and when the campsite is to be used. This is, of course, important to parents of present troop members, and parents of boys who may be considering joining a troop in the future. Intelligent conduct in out-of-doors activities - as well as good fun - is a cornerstone of scouting activity.

It's typical of the "new" Troop 7 to have gone out and gotten itself a campsite, this way - to make the all-important outdoor activities as instructive as possible. The troop in this case owes thanks to the combined efforts of Scoutmaster "Doc" Millican, and Troop Committeemen Hugh Erskine and Rich Swanson, for their work in locating, and securing permission for the area.

Even the best of scoutmasters - and that's just what the boys call "Doc" Millican - still can't do the whole job alone. That's why recent planning sessions at this troop have resulted in giving "Doc" a new and active Troop Committee to back him up, and attend to matters that only a group can accomplish. Without going into details, it's significant to observe that out of the eight new committee members, four are Eagle scouts, one man is a former scoutmaster ,and three are graduates" of Troop 7 in former days. At least, the "scouts-eye view" will be well represented; along with plenty of experience in committee work which other members have soundly to their credit. If enthusiasm counts for anything - it will see Troop 7 really go to town!

Incidentally, if you've planned to buy those flashy Troop 7 Christmas cards, with the clever cartoon treatment of Winchester center, you'd better hurry - right down to Hevey's, McCormack's Purtle's drug store, the Winslow Press, Star Office, or Butterworth, the jeweler's. They're selling like hot cakes (in boxes of one dozen for one dollar) and more may have to be printed. You owe it to yourself to look them over before you buy any other!

Last Monday's meeting was a howling success, featuring star studies and a rip-roaring map obstacle race. New point scores (awarded for attendance, uniform, activity, participation, attitude) stand thus: Mullen and Leverette 44, Carlisle and Ripley 39, Govostes 36, McGowan 32, Dresser 21, Simpson 17, Lawton 14, Ekstrom and Tallman 12, Robertson 11, and Cleaves 5. There will be camping equipment awarded for prizes in June. Special point adjustment will be camping equipment awarded for prizes in June. Special point adjustments will be made for new boys coming in from time to time. A new visitor to our troop meeting Monday was Lee Staff. Welcome, Lee - and come again!

For a look into the crystal ball, this Saturday should feature a hike and cook-out to christen the new campsite - providing there's no rain! Monday will feature an explorations film and a movie instructing the proper use of the axe for scouts. Sounds good to me. See you there! (The First Baptist Church meeting hall, downstairs - that is.) Miss Marion Horwood of 29 Westland avenue is taking part in the two night performance of "Iolanthe" by the Boston University Light Opera Association December 7 and 8 at New England Mutual Hall, Boston. A cast of 60 students and an orchestra of 35 will participate.

CENSUS FIGURES INDICATE SHARP RISE IN SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

School administrators the nation over are alarmed by the apparent disregard by the citizenry of the rising tide of young citizens who, by 1955 will have raised the school population to unprecedented levels.

By 1949 the number of six-year-old children will have increased twenty-four per cent over 1945. In 1950 and 1951 the number of six-year-olds will drop somewhat, reflecting the decline in birth rate in the years 1944 and 1945, but the period of somewhat reduced six-year-old population, 1950 and 1951, will be followed by a sharp rise, to twenty-eight per cent increase in 1952, and to the all-time high of forty per cent, over 1945 figures, in 1953. According to statistical studies published by "Parents Magazine" and the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company the number of children now eligible to begin their formal education in the United States is approximately two and one-half million. In 1953, only five years hence, the total enrollment of the six-year-olds will exceed present enrollment by over eight-hundred thousand.

The effect on other elementary grades will be increasingly apparent. By 1956 the total elementary school enrollment will have been raised by more than five million boys and girls, causing some of the statisticians to venture the opinion that the child and his parents will look back on 1948 as an educational utopia.

Whereas the elementary school problem rapidly approaches the acute stage, the rather misleading high school picture shows in 1948 a decrease of six per cent over the 1945 figures. An increase of eight per cent in 1949, of one per cent in 1950, and two per cent in 1951 merely points the way. In 1955 high school enrollment will exceed the 1945 figure by thirteen per cent and in 1961 there will be a forty-nine per cent increase in high school enrollment. In terms of Winchester schools that would mean a high school enrollment of 1107 as opposed to the September, 1948, membership.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

After the lapse over Armistice Day, grade teams were resumed at the George Washington School when Mrs. John Ferrera entertained Mrs. Louise Mathews and the mothers of her fourth-grade pupils at tea on Thursday, November 18. Mrs. Mathews' talk on group relationships and Miss Rich's talk on personality traits and social development were followed by an active discussion period concerning problems of the children of this age.

Mrs. Paul Eaton and Mrs. Joseph Cussen were the room mothers responsible for the tea arrangements. Mrs. Robert Burr, chairman of the refreshment committee, had as her assistants Mrs. Gordon Lorentzen, Mrs. Francis Quine, and Mrs. Pasquale Tofuri. Miss Rich and Mrs. Eaton poured.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Mothers' Association has also been active in the past few weeks. On Tuesday, November 16, the members of the committee sponsored a program of moving pictures for the school pupils at 3:30. Now the committee is making plans to circulate traveling food baskets to the mothers in each grade between November 19 and the Christmas vacation.

A MESSAGE FROM WOBURN, ENGLAND

The children of the second grade in the Wyman School, Woburn, Massachusetts, United States of America collected and sent a gayly painted and decorated chest of sixty odd books to the school children of Woburn, England. Some of the books were donated by local Brownie and Girl Scout Troops.

One attractive one about our own Boston called "Make Way for the Ducklings" was donated by Girl Scout No. 149, Winchester.

Books came from friends, relatives and parents of children, some unused sample copies from the School Department etc. Not a few, however, came from the children's own book shelves. The list included either Children's Classics or books of recognized literary excellence and were all either brand new or in excellent condition.

They were sent under the auspices of an organization known as "The Treasure Chest" which greatly facilitated the procedure of sending books over-seas.

Two letters have now been received from Woburn, England. One is from the Clerk of the Parish Council to whom the box was addressed to and the other from the only school in Woburn where it has been sent. Both letters expressed great gratitude and pleasure for the gift. The letter from the school promises that further correspondence and pictures may be expected. When these arrive the children in the Wyman School will reply in kind. In this way a direct contact between children of the two Woburns will be made, which should prove a satisfying and enriching experience for all concerned.

FRANKLIN J. LANE

NEW ALUMNI TRUSTEE OF TUFTS

Franklin J. Lane of Drexel avenue, former Selectman and long prominent in local affairs, has been elected a trustee of Tufts College, from which he was graduated with the war-time class of 1917.

Mr. Lane is president of the Boston Varnish Company and a member of the executive committee of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, which he formerly served as vice president. A commissioned officer in the United States Navy during World War I, he served during the last war on the advisory committee of the War Production Board in the paint section and was also a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary. Prominent in the affairs of the Class of 1917 since graduation, he has been an active member, and is now an associate member of the Tufts Alumni Council. As chairman of the Tufts Yacht Club committee of the council he was largely responsible for the erection of the yacht club's new boathouse on Mystic Lake.

In Winchester Mr. Lane has been active politically since his term as Selectman as a member of important committees and as a town meeting member. Among his other activities he is a director of the Winchester National Bank.

Besides Mr. Lane, a former resident of Winchester, Elmore I. MacPhie of West Newton, was elected to the Tufts Board of Trustees as a life member, having served as an alumni trustee since 1931. Mr. MacPhie, president of the Atlas Plywood Company of Boston, lived as a boy in Winchester on Fells road, attending Winchester High School and playing on the high school baseball team. He graduated from Tufts in 1911, has served on the finance committee of the college Board of Trustees and has been a visitor of the Tufts School of Engineering since 1936.

In addition to his college and business duties he is a director of the National Rockland Bank of Boston and of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, and treasurer of the Mount Pleasant Home of Boston.

A. A. MEMBER TO SPEAK TO UNITARIANS

Monday evening, December 6, a member of Alcoholics Anonymous is speaking at the Evening Alliance of the Unitarian Church, at eight o'clock in the Metcalf Union Room. Alcoholics Anonymous, an organization started about 14 years ago to help alcoholics, has been built around the idea of "banding together great numbers of alcoholics for mutual aid through a common spiritual denominator." "Clergymen of all faiths," writes one of the members, "have united in generous approval of our activities."

Since few people interested in this work have had the opportunity to hear about it first hand, the Alliance feels especially privileged to have this speaker Monday evening, and extends a cordial invitation to all to share this privilege.

HISTORY AGAIN AT PALMER STREET

This fall has witnessed many unheard of happenings at the sessions of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association, with none more remarkable than that which took place at the most recent session last week-end.

At that time, if you can stand it, in addition to Royal "Paper Trade" Teele doing well in the final standing, contrary to custom and usage, Mr. Teele and Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham handed out "the works" to none other than "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset (but not of Tyngsboro) and his partner, the redoubtable Herbert "Garrulous" Gardner. The combination of Mr. McLaughlin and Mr. Gardner is a tough one, generally speaking, and seldom if ever in the years since Mr. Gardner became a leading exponent of the royal and select game, has any one given these boys the business. Consequently their defeat at the hands of Messrs. Teele and Pridham, while not exactly what Mr. Luke P. Glendon would call a "deflocuation", was still a bit on the sour side for the champs. Mr. Teele is so seldom a winner that the defeat at his hands was particularly hard for Mr. McLaughlin to swallow.

And to make it all the worse Mr. McLaughlin and Mr. Gardner won the first game of the series, 25-3.

Mr. Teele had been having his usual hard time with his shoe, and he got little help from the usually reliable Mr. Pridham, whose skyscraper was finding the stratosphere a bit on the rare side or something.

In the second game, however, the champion of both the Boston and New England Paper Trades commenced to get the range, and to throw ringers with a reckless abandon that enabled him and the thoroughly astounded Mr. Pridham to win through from "Willie" and "Garrulous", 25-17.

The last game was epochal! Mr. McLaughlin, a bit on the grim side, after Mr. Teele's continued reference to his failure to report at the starting line at Tyngsboro, cast ringer after ringer, and although Mr. Teele was pretty hot himself, the McLaughlin-Gardner team pulled out to an 18-12 count.

Mr. Teele and Mr. Pridham strove mightily, and succeeded in tieing the score at 18, only to have "Willie" and "Garrulous" take points on ringers and close ones to lead, 20-18. Mr. Pridham took the odd point from Mr. McLaughlin and the score was 20-19, against the President and "Thin Finger".

It was then that Mr. Pridham reminded Mr. Teele that a "double header would do it!" Mr. Teele replied that he would do his best, and proceeded to hang two perfect ringers on the pin. Mr. McLaughlin's sigh sounded like the busted bellows of a country pipe-organ while Mr. Gardner's classic features were by no means wreathed in smiles.

Taking plenty of time and exhorted by Mr. McLaughlin to "Come on now", Mr. Gardner delivered his shoes. The first was exactly two inches short of a ringer, and the second, a perfect opener, skimmed the stake, and that is all. Mr. Teele's shrill yelps of glee caused the fishermen around the pond to scowl darkly.

The match was over, game-set-match-and-tournament, but there was plenty of conversation remaining, chiefly supplied by Mr. Teele, who told the boys, among other things, that when he got back from Wells River he would be in to see them! His opinion that Mr. McLaughlin's soup would be sour was probably pretty close to the truth!

John H. Holdsworth of 43 Lawson road, a freshman at Amherst College, has been appointed to the college band. Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Holdsworth, John is a clarinetist, playing in the Winchester High School band and orchestra under Fred Felmet before his graduation in June.

REV. RICHARD HUFF GUEST PREACHER

Rev. Richard H. Huff of the Stoneham Unitarian Church will exchange with the Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman of our local Unitarian Church when he will occupy the pulpit at the 11:00 a. m. Service on Sunday, December 5.

Mr. Huff became a Baptist minister in 1933 and served parishes in the South. From 1942 to 1948 he was a chaplain in the U. S. Navy, serving on the USS Bataan with Task Forces 38 and 58 off the coast of Japan. He spent two winters in Alaska and served as chaplain aboard the USS Huntington in the Atlantic and made frequent trips to the Mediterranean. Most of his service was with the Air Force. He was chaplain of an Air Training Division and spent many months as chaplain to Naval Fliers at the Naval Academy.

Rev. Richard Huff is an able preacher and has a vital and important message. The Unitarian Church is very happy to welcome him to its pulpit and to extend a cordial invitation to all who are interested in hearing him.

The Unitarian Choir under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham has prepared a special musical program for this service.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON LEAGUE, WINCHESTER CIRCLE

At Welcome Home, as in every home where joy of the child is the interest of supreme importance in the minds of the "Oldsters", Christmas highlights the calendar. However, the day has a close second in the observance of Thnaksgiving Day, according to Miss Gertrude Green, superintendent of the guidance and study home in Jamaica Plain for teenage girls.

The girls at Welcome House range in ages from 13-18 and their enjoyment of this year's Thanksgiving festivities was something to be remembered.

Referred as they are from various social agencies and from Juvenile Courts, many of them have become maladjusted in the community because of a feeing of insecurity due to poor home conditions or a broken home.

Each year, a bountiful meal is provided by one of the Circles and each year, Miss Treen adapts it to the wishes of the girls. For instance they vote on their preference of ways of serving potatoes and the fixings, and whether they should have one kind of pie at noon, and save the other for supper. Coffee is a must on this day, for the girls do love it when it is served as a treat!

Welcome House is situated in an old established family neighborhood, accommodates a dozen girls. The educational program is varied to meet the individual needs of each girl with emphasis placed upon instruction in home management, dressmaking and handicrafts.

The aim of the staff is to give a girl, who generally stays a full year, a well rounded spiritual background designed to enable her to maintain herself respectably in the Community to which she returns.

It is to further the work of Welcome House and other activities of the Florence Crittenton League that the local Circle, one of 24 active groups in this area, will play an active part in the League's annual bazaar at the Copley Plaza, Boston, December 8-9.

The work of this Red Feather agency is particularly familiar to residents of this town through the activities of the Winchester Circle, Florence Crittenton League whose president is Mrs. Frank H. Knight.

Heading the Senior Circle's committee for the bazaar this year will be Mrs. Kenneth B. Hiscoe, chairman, Mrs. Franklin J. Lane, treasurer, Mrs. F. E. Ritchie, Fashion Show tickets and Mrs. Sydney A. Burr, Donations chairman. They will be assisted by Mrs. Marshall Pihl, Mrs. Kingman P. Cass, Mrs. Vincent P. Clarke, Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes, Mrs. Herbert Preble, Mrs. Frederick W. Aseltine, Mrs. C. W. Lovejoy, Mrs. Harold F. Meyer, Mrs. Gerald Y. Hills, and Mrs. Richard A. Harlow.

The next regular meeting of the Winchester Circle, Florence Crittenton League will be held on December 17th at the home of Mrs. Albert K. Comins, 407 Highland avenue.

Speakers of the afternoon will be Miss Gertrude Treen, Director of Welcome House and Miss Helen Fowler, Superintendent, Maternity House and Hospital.

A special Christmas musical program has been arranged by the music chairman, Mary Ranton Witham.

Winchester Chapter 175 Order of Eastern Star will hold its regular meeting Monday, December 6th at the Masonic Hall.

CAR AND BIKE IN COLLISION

Two boys, one riding the other on the handlebars of a bicycle, came to grief early Sunday afternoon when the cycle collided with a Plymouth on Mt. Vernon street.

The operator of the car, Edward G. Hughes of 17 Clark street, told the police he was headed west on Mt. Vernon street and pulled in to the side of the road to pick up a passenger when the two boys on the bike ran into the machine.

Hughes got out to assist the boys, but they refused assistance and said they did not need medical aid. They went away under their own power carrying their smashed bike.

CHRISTMAS MAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Cooperation of Public Asked In Preparing Mail for Holidays

The handling of Christmas mail will be greatly facilitated by careful preparation of the mail by the senders and postmasters are urged to secure their cooperation for this purpose. The following information for the guidance of the mailers should be given as much publicity as possible.

Postage. - Prepay postage fully on all mail matter.

Addresses. - Address all matter plainly and completely in ink, giving street address or box or rural number whenever possible. The delivery zone number should be shown when applicable. Place sender's return card in upper left corner of address side. Tags should not be used unless necessary, in which case a copy of the address and return card should be placed inside the parcel for identification if tag is lost.

Packing and wrapping. - Pack articles carefully in strong durable containers. Wrap parcels securely, but do not seal them except when bearing a printed endorsement, reading: "Contents, merchandise — Postmaster: This parcel may be opened for postal inspection if necessary," together with name and address of sender, as sealed parcels not so labeled or endorsed are subject to postage at the letter rate. The name and address of the sender may be handwritten or typewritten on the labels.

Perishable matter. - Parcels containing perishable articles should be prominently endorsed with the word "perishable" by postmasters or other postal employees. Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation should not be accepted for mailing.

Limit of size. - Parcels may not exceed 100 inches in length and girth combined.

Limit of weight. - The limit of weights of fourth-class or parcel-post matter is 70 pounds for all zones. The same limit applies to first-class matter and air parcel post.

Permissible additions and enclosures. - Parcels may be marked "Do not open until Christmas," this being permitted in order to encourage early mailing.

Written greetings, such as "Merry Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With Best Wishes," and names, numbers, or symbols, for the purpose of description, may be enclosed with third or fourth-class (parcel post) mail. Books may bear simple dedicatory inscriptions not of a personal nature. Other written additions subject parcels to letter postage.

Do not enclose letters in parcels, as doing so would subject entire parcel to letter postage. Communications prepaid at the first-class rate may be sent with parcels prepaid at the third- or fourth-class rate by securely attaching the envelopes containing the letters or other written matter to the outside of parcels. (See art. 13, ch. VII, p. 49, July 1947 Postal Guide.)

Seals. - Christmas seals or stickers should not be placed on the address side of mail.

Stamps. - Mailers may save time by buying postage stamps in advance.

Special handling - Fourth-class matter only. - Parcels of fourth-class matter, endorsed "special handling" will be given the most expeditious handling and transportation practicable (but not special delivery) upon payment, in addition to the regular postage of the following charge: Up to 2 pounds, 10 cents; over 2 pounds, up to 10 pounds, 15 cents; over 10 pounds, 20 cents.

Special delivery. - The prepayment of the following fee on first-, second-, third-, fourth-class mail entitles it to the most expeditious handling and transportation practicable, and also entitles it to special delivery at the office of address.

Insured. - Parcels should be insured. The fees are: For parcel valued not over $5, 3 cents; over $5 but not over $25, 10 cents; over $25 but not over $50, 15 cents; over $50 but not over $20, 25 cents. Return receipt 4 cents extra. All in addition to regular postage.

Greeting cards decorated with so-called glitter substances. - Attention is called to the fact that Christmas and other greeting cards bearing particles of glass, metal, mica, tinsel, and other similar substances for decorative purposes which are likely to rub off and injure postal employees and cancelling machine must be enclosed in envelopes tightly sealed to the corners with postage prepaid at the first-class rate in order that such cards may be accepted for mailing.

The foregoing features should be given widespread publicity, and it is suggested that postmasters especially request department stores and like establishments, to embody in their Christmas advertising appropriate text bearing thereon. Valuable assistance may also be secured through schools, motion-picture theater, and radio.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

Grade one at the Washington School has begun a unit about its environment designed to increase the pupils understanding of the town in which he lives.

Mr. Roland Nault, science instructor for the fifth and sixth grades, has shown to his classes a series of slides on the subject of Health. These were concerned mainly with teeth and posture.

In honor of Book Week the sixth grade presented an assembly, Thursday, November 18, for the lower school. The feature was a play based upon familiar characters of children's literature.

This week the pupils of the entire school started filling Red Cross gift boxes to go overseas.

On Wednesday, November 24, the entire school took part in a Thanksgiving assembly. The following paragraphs contain a partial resume of the program.

The combined first and second grades presented a playet as their part in the program. Chris King, a second grader, made all the illustrations for the play.

Grade two acted two Thanksgiving poems "The Landing of the Pilgrims", and "Thanksgiving Day Has Come".

The third grade recited a Thanksgiving poem and sang a Hymn of Thanksgiving.

The fifth grade wrote and produced a play concerning a modern Thanksgiving.

Grade six presented a radio skit about the replica of the original colony which is now being bulit in Plymouth, Massachusetts.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER D. A. R.

D. A. R. Scholarship For Girl Home Makers

Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution approve the study of Home Economics in the Senior High Schools of the State. To encourage more students to select such subjects as electives, they offer a Scholarship of one hundred dollars to the girl, who best meets the following requirements. She must be a member of the graduating class of a Senior High School. She must have shown special interest in Home Economics. She must have had at least one year's work in Senior High School and preferably in her senior year, in Household Arts. She must be able to meet the entrance requirements of State Teachers' College, Framingham, Massachusetts State College, Amherst; or Simmons College, Boston. One of these institutions she must be planning to attend. She must show that she has good character, definite aims and real need of assistance.

Plan For Contest

Each principal is requested to choose a candidate, who will satisfy the above conditions. "Real need of assistance" means that without this help the girl could not enter college.

Each candidate must apply in her own hand writing to the State Chairman. She must give her reasons for desiring Scholarship. She must state her educational aims and vocational plans; her choice of college and what led her to select it. At the same time she must send a letter from the principal, in which he should give the record of her scholastic standing, his opinion of her character and her qualifications and his estimate of the financial status of her family. She must send a second letter of recommendation, preferably from a D. A. R. sponsor. The application and letters of recommendation, must be sent on or before April 1, 1949, to the State Chairman. All credentials will be considered prior to a personal interview with each candidate, after which the winner will be chosen by the State Chairman and a committee.

Mrs. Marshall Pihl the Chapter Chairman, Mrs. Earle E. Andrews is the Regent, Mrs. George O. Adams, State Chairman, 105 Milk street, North Andover, Mass.

NEW DRAIN COMPLETED

Highway crews last week finished laying new drain pipe from Mystic avenue through Cutting street connecting with a master drain in the new section of Manchester road. The new drain will take care of large quantities of surface water that always collected at the junction of Mystic avenue and Maxwell road after heavy rains or winter thaws.

PALMER BEACH NOTES

(Week-End of November 20-21)

Teele and McLaughlin lost 2 straight to Pridham and Gardner. Teele and Gardner won 2 straight from McLaughlin and Pridham, one victory being 25 to 5.

Gardner and McLaughlin won 2 out of 3 from Teele and Pridham G. and M. -- one victory being 25 to 7.

McLaughlin and Teele won 2 straight from Gardner and Pridham.

Teele and McLaughlin complained on the distance between stakes, as much over 40 feet. Their competitors stated the only reason for the complaint being the two were losing.

On the third set Teele began to get the range, and with Gardner's help shellacked the opponents. He therefore stopped complaining.

McLaughlin continued and wasn't satisfied until Pridham's foot measured off 40 more feet, this time cutting down the distance, stake to stake, 6 inches.

With this help McLaughlin squared away and began to hang ringers on the stake, and with the help of Gardner, won 2 out of 3 from Pridham and Teele, the third and deciding game reaching a score of 24 to 22 before McLaughlin settled it with a ringer against two very elementary shoes by the President.

At the conclusion of the games, McLaughlin in order to prove his point on the extra stretch from stake to stake, which he claimed was responsible for his amateurish playing, went home for a measure, and returned to check off the distance.

With the help of Pridham they measured off 40 feet, and brought the stake right back to its original hole, which proved very embarrasing for the Champ of Nahnassett. He still refused to acknowledge defeat and claim Pridham stretched the steel rule, and jumped the marks with a "thick" finger, and he is now looking for an unconscious arbiter to back him up.

Charlie Haggerty was mentioned, the winner of the Tyngsboro championship, and also it was suggested he and McLaughlin have a match to see if there was any error in the decision at Tyngsboro, where McLaughlin was entered for play, but apparently fearing the result, disappeared just before the games were called and couldn't be found.

All games were protested because of the shifting of the distance between stakes, and will have to be ruled on by an arbiter with a smattering of knowledge as to how the game should be played.

This should be placed in the lap of Brother McKenzie of the Woburn Times a well-known neutral reporter. His decision would be final!

NEW STOP SIGNS

The Board of Selectmen has had installed new traffic "Stop" signs north and south on Highland avenue at the intersection of Mt. Vernon street and Mystic Valley Parkway. The overhead flasher beacon has also been changed to red.

This intersection is one of the worst in town, particularly because of the grades involved and the lack of visibility. It is the Board's hope that the new traffic warnings will aid in promoting traffic safety.

CO-OPERATIVE BANK SERVICE

The Co-operative Banks of Massachusetts are performing a service to the home owners of the state that until within a few years would not have been considered possible! They accept from their 140,000 borrowers monthly, payments for taxes on their homes, which, when tax-time comes, amounts to enough to pay the assessment.

This innovation has met with complete and unanimous approval, by home-owner borrowers and by Tax Collectors and town and city Treasurers alike. No longer does the taxpayer wonder where in the world money is coming from to pay the tax on his home; no longer does the Tax Collector stand at his counter and meet, greet and argue with hundreds of co-operative bank borrowers.

Now the home owner takes his tax-bill into his bank, which has the money and pays it, perhaps with hundreds of others. Now the Tax Collector gets one check from the bank, with a statement of the tax-bills included; and they all like it.

This year the total thus paid to cities and towns was rising $13,000,000, and it increases from year to year as the banks grow in size and their borrowers increase in number.

Locally the Winchester co-operative bank paid $76,000 on 328 properties in 10 communities.

He learned the barber's trade and was manager of the Royal Hotel Barber Shop in St. John, later becoming manager of the barber shop at the Dufferin Hotel, now the Admiral Beatty Hotel.

Massachusetts people visiting St. John persuaded him to come to Boston to take over the management of the barber shop at the Hotel Touraine and during his years there he lived for a time in Winchester and was a frequent visitor to this town.

He left Boston several years ago to establish his own barbering business in Butler, Pa., continuing there until his death.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

First of all, let this Scribe make an apology for having omitted, in last week's notes, the names of two other people who have contributed much to the furthering of our senior scout program . . . Lois and Brad Hersey! . . .

This week is a busy one what with all registrations being due and such mechanics of scouting. . .

On Monday afternoon the mothers of Troop No. 3 met at the home of Mrs. Howard Macaulay on Main street. There was a great deal to talk over as this is one of the out of door troops and great plans are developing.

Tuesday, the mothers of the fifth grade girls at Washington School met to formulate plans for the new troop there.

Wednesday, the monthly leaders meeting takes place in Lyceum Hall. Time was when we only filled the office, but we have had to move into larger meeting space.

This scribe takes pleasure in announcing that two new members have been added to her committee . . . Mrs. George Connors who has written some of our special articles recently (and who helped so much at the fashion show), and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth . . . a newcomer to Scouting, and very welcome!

While tossing bouquets, we should like to toss one to the Winchester Star, the editor and staff, for the fine cooperation given to the Winchester Council of Girl Scouts and this scribe in particular!

MYSTIC SCHOOL — JUNIOR RED CROSS

THE EIGHT O'CLOCK CLUB

The December meeting of the Eight O'Clock Club will be held at the home of Mrs. David Thoms, 20 Maxwell road, Tuesday evening, December 7th at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Martin Swanson will present an illustrated lecture on her travels through Sweden.

All members are urgently requested to attend this meeting and bring Food Gifts for the Christmas baskets.

ART ASSOCIATION

A special program and exhibit in honor of the famed Winchester artist, the late William H. Warren Bicknell will be held Tuesday evening, December 7, at 8 o'clock in the Art Gallery, Winchester Public Library, at the meeting of the Art Association. Mr. Otis Philbrick, one of the charter members of the Association, and warm personal friend of Mr. Bicknell, will be the speaker, and Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes will preside. During the month of December, the Bicknell exhibit will be open to the public during library hours. The exquisite etchings exhibited are on sale to the public, with a ten per cent discount offered to Winchester residents.

At the close of the meeting, a social hour will be enjoyed with Mrs. William E. Schrafft pouring from her beautiful silver urn. The Association had hoped to have Mrs. Bicknell present on Tuesday, but an accident confined her to her home. Assisting Mrs. Schrafft will be Mrs. John Abbott, Mrs. James Russell, Jr., Mrs. Louise Wood, Miss Natalie Jewett, Miss Harriet Houghton, Mrs. Fulton Brown and Mrs. Alexander Samoiloff.

William H. Warren Bicknell, whose home was on Myopia Hill, died November 21 of last year, at the age of 87. He had been born and educated in Boston, and was a graduate of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Authorities in his day regarded Bicknell as the best portrait painter in his class. But always a strong individualist, he preferred to express himself through the medium of etching and dry point. And in that field, too, he won renown for himself and his work was shown in the important galleries of this country. He also did charcoal drawing, and book plates, and in the last years of his life, Mr. Bicknell painted a splendid portrait of Jere Downs. Some of his best works today are in the William H. Schrafft collection, and he is well represented in the Rochester Memorial Art Gallery, Library of Congress, Boston Museum of Fine Arts, New York Public Library, and the Chicago Art Institute.

There are many residents here who remember Bicknell the splendid artist, and there are others who remember Bicknell as the talented and human person he was, who loved to sing and who loved to play his 'cello, and who was equally at home among the Beachcombers of Provincetown or the greatest social gathering in the town. This memorial exhibit and sale of his etchings is a distinct highlight in the town's Christmas season.

Mr. Otis A. Philbrick, a former resident of Winchester, and one of the Association's founders, is the only one left of the artist-group that included Dudley Murphy, William Bicknell and a few others. An artist of note in his own right, Mr. Philbrick is also an instructor at the Massachusetts School of Art, and has taken part in many exhibitions, being known for his fine water colors.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. Philbrick will tell of Bicknell, the man and the artist, as he knew him personally, and the talk will be of keen interest to all who knew Mr. and Mrs. Bicknell, as well as to those who appreciate the work of this fine American etcher.

MRS. MARY H. McNIFF GUEST SPEAKER

A meeting of all managers interested in entering teams in the Town Basketball League will be held at the American Legion Home next Monday evening, December 6. As it is planned to begin playing the following Monday, December 13, it is imperative that all teams be represented so that final organization plans can be perfected and a League schedule prepared.

League Director, Edward A. Bartlett, has received applications for admission to the League from two new teams, the Winchester Appliance Co., and the American Legion, which should add further strength and interest to the League Teams that were members of the League last year that are planning to operate again are the Rotary Club, Bonnell Motors, Mercurio Insurance, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Sons of Italy. Thus, it looks like a banner season for this popular activity supervised by the Town Recreation Committee.

Woburn Memories by GERRY

WOBURN ECHOES

What but a Winchester-Woburn football game could have gotten between five and ten thousand to sit and stand around for more than two hours in the mud and drizzle on a day like Thanksgiving morning. Schoolboy football grips. There's no mistake about it.

Out on the playing field both Winchester and Woburn hit with everything they had. The game was hard and bruising, but clean, the injuries resulting from hard contact rather than design. Both teams lost key players, but on the whole Woburn suffered most from its battering, the local boys appearing in much better condition than the Tanners.

That Orange line was really big when the McKees and Morgan were in there, looking as big or bigger than any Winchester faced all year. The Tanners' backs were on the small side with no Bobby Garvey around to bust through and go places.

The Woburn crowd seemed dissatisfied with the officiating, but from our seat it looked like the Tanners had little kick coming. Their loudest squawk came on that fumbled lateral by Amico which Woburn recovered.

There was no question that Paul's knees hit the ground well before he foolishly got rid of the ball, which of course was dead the moment his knees hit. Referee McCarthy told Coach Knowlton that had the ball been recovered by Winchester and run for a long gain or touchdown, he would have brought it back. The play was right in front of your reporter and the referee called it correctly.

Only one thing was missing from a great spectacle and that was the fine Winchester High School Band. How you miss Fred Felmet's tooters and thumpers when they aren't there! Nowhere this year have we encountered a band the equal of ours and their playing of the National Anthem continues to be "tops".

The band didn't go to Woburn because of what happened there two years ago. At that time adequate space had not been saved for the band and some of the equipment was stolen while the youngsters were pushed around a bit as they were trying to file off the field. The local school authorities felt discretion the better part of valor and kept the band at home. Everyone missed the musicians.

There was a persistent rumor around Winchester the day after the game that "Jay" Courtney, speedy little Woburn back who was carried off the field with injuries, had been fatally hurt. All the local players, coaches and fans were delighted to learn by mid-afternoon Friday that he was out of danger.

"Mack", Winchester representative of the Woburn Daily Times, picked Winchester to win in his "night before" edition. He got a great going over from Woburn enthusiasts when he arrived at the field, but could find few Orange supporters after the game, or next morning. It wasn't because he didn't look for them either!

Both "Mack" and your STAR reporter appreciated Joe Halloran's interest and courtesy which he extended the newspaper boys as usual. Those foot-boards were a real help in the mud, Joe!

"Dogger" Brennan, Woburn's A. D. is a good sportsman. He gave the game football to Asst. Coach Bartlett after the game to give to Winchester's Captain Vern Slack.

Incidentally Slack was a badly disappointed boy when a recurrance of his ankle injury forced him out of the game early in the first half. Vern has had a tough year of it with injuries.

"Pete" Dillingham certainly closed his Winchester career in a blaze of glory, with those two long touchdown dashes the second half. "Dill" was really driving the second half and Woburn won't forget him in a hurry.

"Lally" Myers missed equalling Dillingham's touchdown runs by a couple of blocks. Myers can't pull away from tacklers as Pete can, lacking his weight and drive. He can really scamper though.

Dillingham won the McCormack trophy as the best Winchester back on the field and the Hevey trophy for the best local lineman went to Bob "Gunnar" Abrahamson who has been a tower of strength at center all year. Two similar Woburn trophies went to Bob Scire, back, and "Al" Bevilacqua, end.

Good as Abrahamson was, he had only a shade on Paul Mottolo, right guard, whose play in the local line was very effective, if less spectacular than Abrahamson's. That last ditch tackle of O'Doherty by Abrahamson late in the game, saving a touchdown, just about turned the scales.

Had Paul Amico stayed in there, it might have been hard to pick the best Winchester back. At the half he was the leading candidate, his line plunging being Winchester's best offensive threat.

Woburn played its backs wide to stop Dillingham and Myers, which of course helped Amico and left the Tanners vulnerable to passes down the middle. The fact that Winchester threw no such passes wasn't Woburn's fault of course.

It wasn't quite as bad for the scribes as Gerry's cartoon would indicate, though the Messrs. Knowlton, Bartlett and Gorczynski are surely no observation window when they line up in front. They were out there on Veno's interception, but we didn't want to see that one anyhow.

Well, we'll see you next year, we hope, and let's have better weather for it. Woburn lost this one, but surely fought to the very end. Their supporters can be proud of their spirit all the way!

WINCHESTER GIRLS UNBEATEN IN HOCKEY

Winchester High School girls field hockey team ended their 1948 season on November 15, playing a scoreless tie with Belmont to complete their schedule unbeaten, with three victories and five ties. The second team won four, lost one, and tied three.

Coach Helen Jay Carroll did a lot of experimenting with her lineup this year and as a result it wasn't until late in the season that the girls commenced to develop the combination play which enabled their offense to function. The locals were hard to score on, holding five to their opponents scoreless, including such strong teams as Arlington, Melrose and Belmont. By the same token Winchester wasn't able to do much tallying either until late in the season when the same girls were playing together for longer periods. The fact that the locals won three of their last four games is significant. In position play and stick handling Winchester generally appeared to advantage.

The local girls scored 11 goals to three scored against them. Joan Morgan, left inner, and Debbie Symmes, center forward, tied with three goals each for top scoring honors; Lynn Aitkens, star left wing, and Dee Barrett, capable center half, scoring two goals each. Captain Dottie Kelley scored the other goal.

FATHER-DAUGHTER COMMUNION BREAKFAST

The Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church is sponsoring a Father - Daughters Communion Breakfast on Sunday, December 12th following the 8:00 a. m. Mass. All of the members are urged to be present at the Mass, receive Holy Communion in a body and then convene at Lyceum Hall for the Breakfast which will be catered by Mr. John Ahearn of the Town Line Inc. All members who have Daughters are urged to bring them to this annual affair and they are invited to join en-masse in the singing of the hymns along with the men.

The Society is extremely fortunate in being able to secure at this time Lt. James Stapleton U.S.N., Chaplain of the U.S.S. Sebonny, an Aircraft Carrier. Father Stapleton has been a Naval Chaplain for some years now and has had many interesting experiences. Currently he is in Boston having recently returned from the Mediterranean area. During this last period at sea he visited Pope Pius. The Officers and Committee know that both the men and especially the Daughters will thoroughly enjoy Father Stapleton.

The following members are in charge of arrangements; Chairman Michael Connolly; assisted by Precinct Chairman, Harry Bennet, 2; Charles Farrar, 3; Robert Finn, 4; Warren Cox, 5; John McManus and Philip Gange, John Kinton, Sam Vangel. These men will contact each member in the precincts but it would help if the members called them or any of the officers to let it be known just how many tickets they want for the Breakfast. We have to inform the Caterer shortly. The Committee reports great advance activity on the tickets indicating that there will be an enthusiastic gather present. Tickets may be procured at Hevey's and McCormack's Drug Stores, also.

Eric Johnson Treasurer reports that the Annual Dues are better but still not 100% as yet.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB

The Wednesday Night Club of the First Congregational Church will hold its annual Evergreen Dance on Friday evening, December 10th at the Parish Hall. Music for the dancing will be furnished by Ken Reeves' orchestra.

This event is always the gala one of the year and enjoys tremendous popularity. A very pleasant custom in the past, which will be repeated this year is that of the dessert and coffee parties preceding the dance. These parties are arranged by a number of hostesses, who open their homes to small groups of members so that all may meet in informal fellowship before proceeding to the Parish Hall and continuing festivities.

AMERICAN AIRLINES INC.

American Airlines 300-mile-an-hour jet-exhaust assist Convair Flagship, the most modern and most-tested transport in the air today, will be available for inspection during Open House at Logan International Airport on Sunday, December 5, it was announced today.

Regional Vice-President, W. Nelson Bump, also announced that air tours over Greater Boston would be held on the same day. Flights, at $2.50 per person, will be made every hour, starting at 11:00 a. m, and continuing until dark.

Regularly scheduled Convair flights between Boston and New York were inaugurated on December 1. By Christmas, all Boston-New York non-stop flights will be operated with the new two-engine plane, which accommodates 40 passengers, Bump said.

In aviation circles, the Convair Flagship is known as the "most-tested" aircraft to enter airline service. Although the Convair is the newest transport in commercial service, it has already chalked up a remarkable record of millions of miles of speedy, dependable service on American's routes in other sections of the U. S. Even before being assigned to scheduled passenger service, it was flown more than 352,000 miles by American Airlines alone, after the many miles of factory test flying. In addition to familiarization and training flights, American conducted a scheduled "cargo-only" operation for 100,000 miles, while technicians studied the Convair's capabilities. It was the first time an airline had tested a new aircraft in this manner, according to Bump.

Among the Convair's distinctive features are cabin pressurization, which keeps "passenger altitude" at low levels inside the cabin even when the plane flies high; air-conditioning; jet-exhaust assist which harnesses engine exhaust gases to provide higher speeds; reversible pitch-propellers and therman anti-icing system, which are additional safety improvements; built-in passenger loading steps; optional self-service baggage racks and other innovations.

The seventy-five American Airlines Convairs, making short and medium length flights, will give AA passengers the same speed and degree of comfort now experienced by long-distance passengers who use the DC-6. Together with the DC-6 Flagships, the Convair will form the world's first five-mile-a-minute fleet of post-war airplanes.

NEW CADILLAC HERE

Moody Motor Sales Shows Latest Model

Cadillac is the first General Motors Division to display its 1949 models which feature a high speed, high compression, high economy engine which Cadillac engineers have had under experiment and test for more than 100 years.

As the 1949 Cadillacs were announced here Moody Motor Sales described the new Cadillac power plant thus:

It is an entirely original conception of valve-in-head V-type 8, developing 160 horsepower. The new Cadillac engine has a proven 15 to 20 percent increase in fuel economy under most driving conditions.

"Cadillac's new compression ratio is the highest of any full-size, stock car in the world today. This compression ratio can be increased when commonly obtained fuels are available in higher octane numbers.

"This new engine, is the finest, most efficient automobile engine in the world. Offers a 15 to 20 percent increase in fuel economy under all driving conditions the average motorist may expect to meet.

In appearance the 1949 Cadillac continues to approach the ultimate in streamlined, low-slung suavity. A longer hood line with ornament moved forward increases the apparent length and svelte surge of the 1949 Cadillac, while a new grille treatment extends across the front fenders to the wheel openings. The lowered grille communicates a rakish depth to the 1949 approach-pattern.

Interiors are completely new, featuring a newly designed instrument panel, new door mouldings and trim. Seat trim design is unique among American motorcars with horizontal tailoring and a wide selection of fine upholsteries.

All series and models are offered for 1949: Series 61, Series 62, Series 60 Special and Series 75.

The popular Cadillac convertible which in 1948 accounted for more than 10 percent of all sales, remains in Series 62. This year it is completely furnished in leather except for the deep pile carpeting. Hydraulic controls activate top, all windows and front seat.

Besides the new Cadillac engine, Cadillac engineers have been busy with what most automotive authorities considered to be one of the world's nearest perfect motorcars. The new overhead valve mechanism is lighter and more compact. New Cadillac-designed hydraulic valve lifters assure quiet, efficient operation. These advantages have been obtained without increasing the number of parts in the valve mechanism assembly.

A new, integral casting, comprising water pump housing and inlet and outlet water manifolds, eliminates all hose connections except those running to lower and upper radiator tanks. Hydraulic valve silencers designed and first introduced by Cadillac maintain a zero clearance between tappet and valve stem. Re-designed for the new engine they assure quite operation equal to or better than in previous Cadillac engines.

For 1949 Cadillac has created a completely new all-weather ventilating system. It consists of two underseat recirculating hot water heaters for lower area heating and a heater-defroster for upper area heating.

Hydramatic drive is continued as optional equipment on all models and was ordered in 1948 by 98 percent of all Cadillac purchasers.

Moody Motor Sales is proud to display the fine new Cadillac models.

WINCHESTER HAD GOOD GRID SEASON

Woburn Victory Gave Locals Seven Wins and Tie in Ten Games

The victory over traditional rival Woburn on the holiday concluded a very successful football season for Winchester High School, the local boys having a record of seven wins, two losses and a tie. The season, good as it was, could well have been better. There was no need of losing the Swampscott game, and better officiating could well have given the locals a scoreless tie at Watertown and a win at Belmont.

Starting the season with a 20-7 win over Lexington, the locals bumped into Swampscott in their second game of the season and lost, 15-6, a game that even the Swampscott coach admitted Winchester could have won.

The Sculpins are always further along than Winchester, due to spring practice and an early start in August. This counted heavily in Swampscott's favor, but even so, had Winchester played to the visitors' inability to stop outside plays and run the ends, it could have won anyhow.

At Watertown a battered Winchester team held the highly favored Scarlet for all but about two minutes when two mighty questionable decisions put the ball inside the locals' ten and enabled Watertown to win by six points.

Thereafter Winchester beat Winthrop, Stoneham, Framingham and Reading, reaching its real peak against Framingham, a team unbeaten and untied going into its game with Winchester. Despite an expected letdown after the Framingham game, the locals blanked Reading, 13-0, in a stubbornly contested engagement.

At Belmont the local boys played sluggish football the first half, Belmont's touchdown coming as the result of a glaring defensive lapse. The second half was all Winchester, but once again officials' decisions, coming twice when Winchester was inside the Belmont five, prevented two touchdowns.

Wakefield, the team that knocked Gloucester out of the Class B championship with a stunning upset tie on Thanksgiving, gave the local boys a helluva ballgame, but finally yielded 12-7, penalties nullifying one touchdown and slowing up the visitors as they seemed on the way to another. For once Lady Luck was riding with the locals that dampish day.

Finally at Woburn, Winchester got sweet revenge for the trimming it took from the Tanners last year, completely dominating play during nearly all of a game that was well contested despite poor weather conditions

Coach Henry Knowlton started the season with five letter players, Captain Vern Slack, end; Bob McElhinney, guard; Bob Abrahamson, center; and Peter Dillingham and Paul Amico, backs. These boys proved the backbone of the local team, though Slack was handicapped much of the season with ankle injuries, and Amico also was out of the lineup a lot. Abrahamson was the key player on the line and Dillingham the real spearhead of the attack, though his outside plays needed Amico's faking and bucking inside to make them truly effective.

The local team gained greatly in effectiveness with the signing of John Gorczynski, former Harvard and University of Pittsburg tackle, as line coach to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Al Seferian.

Big John did a whale of a job with the local linemen, molding big Milt Galucia and Pete Hutchins into a pair of effective tackles and generally polishing the play of the entire line. Paul Mottolo, unsung at right guard, was next to Abrahamson the steadiest boy in the line and tall Mario Mascioli, junior end, paired with Captain Slack effectively, running interference well.

On the rushline with these first stringers were "Wimp" Burtnett, as good an end as Winchester had at the end of the season, Pete Kirwan and Bucky Roberto, ends, Tony Cirurso, center; Jim Quine and big Charlie Capone, tackles; and Dom Marabella and Johnny Dattilo, guards.

In the backfield with Dillingham, left half; and Amico, fullback; were regularly "Lally" Myers, wingback; and big "Skitchy" Carroll, quarterback. This quartet had little relief when the going was tough. Cirurso and Tony Peluso subbed for Amico, Danny Devlin for Carroll and Dick Richmond for Dillingham.

Assisting Coach Knowlton again were the capable Ted Bartlett and Carl Reed. Gorczynski we have already mentioned. Frank Johnson managed the team. It didn't seem quite natural not to have "Raymie" Hayward faculty manageirn' this fall, after all these years, but G. Hartley "Curt" Curtis, replacing him, carried on nobly.

Following is the season's record:

Winchester	20	Lexington	7
Winchester	6	Swampscott	15
Winchester	0	Watertown	6
Winchester	19	Winthrop	6
Winchester	27	Stoneham	0
Winchester	19	Framingham	7

Winchester	6	Belmont	6
Winchester	12	Wakefield	7
Winchester	20	Woburn	0

Libe a high school winning it's first game of the season, the Winchester Lodge of Elks Tournament Team were happy on Wednesday night of this week as it came home a victor over the Newton Lodge Tournament Team, 8-7; Winchester went to Newton as the underdog to a highly touted Newton Team which boasted of several decisive victories of teams that had already trounced Winchester. The Winchester boys stood out like a lighthouse in all the card games, pool and billiards. These teams were represented by Sam Kinton, the Meeks, father and son, Carl Getchell, Hector Cyr, Neil McCarthy, Gus Massi and Joe Peel. These boys have been doing all right in their respective departments all year but have been handicapped by a bowling team which to date has been able to score only 1 point. Now that the boys have tasted victory for the first time, they feel matches will come easy. On Wednesday of next week Winchester entertains the Everett Elks Team.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NOTES

Dad's Night will be held at the Lincoln School on December 17, at 7:30. A Christmas pageant entitled "A Little Child" will be presented by the children. Miss Helen Goodwin, music supervisor, will play a violin solo, "Gesu Bambino." She will be accompanied by Miss Leonore Rich on the 'cello and Miss Lydia Whittemore at the piano.

Because of the limited size of the auditorium, tickets will be sent to the parents.

The Lincoln Mothers' Association assisted the school in purchasing an electric record player, which was much appreciated.

HERBERT L. BALDWIN APPOINTED ASSISTANT VICE-PRESIDENT

Herbert L. Baldwin of 5 Ardley place, Winchester, has been appointed Assistant Vice President of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, it was announced this week. Mr. Baldwin, who resigned as Publicity Manager of the Boston and Maine Railroad and the Maine Central Railroad on October 14 after 19 years of railroad service, accepted the New Haven appointment yesterday after considering several affiliations. He will assume his new duties tomorrow, the road's announcement stated.

In his new post Mr. Baldwin will have charge of the New Haven's publicity and advertising efforts in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, with headquarters in Boston. Samuel A. Boyer, Assistant Vice President will continue to handle similar duties in the Connecticut and New York areas, with headquarters in New Haven, the road's statement said.

Mr. Baldwin's appointment brings to the New Haven a former newspaperman of wide experience, who has spent the last 19 years in railroad publicity and advertising fields. A district reporter for the old Boston Journal, Mr. Baldwin later was attached to the Boston office of the Associated Press. He then became a staff reporter for the Boston Post and was for many years star reporter for that newspaper, covering major assignments all over the country. He resigned as Night City Editor of the Post to become Assistant Publicity Manager of the Boston and Maine in 1927. He was appointed Publicity Manager of that road in 1929 and of the Maine Central in 1933. When those two railroads first established Boston-Maine Airways (now Northeast Airlines) he directed the publicity and advertising programs of the airline until it was sold to Northeasts management.

His new appointment again associates him with the New Haven's new president, Laurence F. Whittemore. For 15 of his 19 years with the Boston and Maine, Mr. Baldwin was first assistant to Whittemore, when the latter was Assistant to the President of the Boston & Maine and Maine Central. Under their direction the Boston and Maine was given several national and local awards for excellence of its public relations and advertising efforts.

HARVARD CLUB DINNER MEETING

An unusually gifted and interesting speaker will address the dinner meeting of the Harvard Club of Eastern Middlesex next Monday evening at the Bear Hill Country Club, it has been announced by John I. Donovan of Winchester, president of the organization.

Dr. Bart J. Bok, professor of astronomy and associate director of the Harvard Observatory, who will address the gathering, is a lecturer and author whose services are in wide demand at Harvard Clubs, high schools, and public meetings from coast to coast. Not only is he an astronomer of international fame, but few men are in closer touch with modern educational developments at the university.

On this occasion, Dr. Bok plans to give highlights of today's educational program at Harvard, and to discuss plans for concerted research into the Milky Way. He will show an extraordinary collection of stellar photographs, and his talk will be followed by a question period.

Born in the Netherlands, Dr. Bok holds degree from Leiden, Groningen, and Harvard. He has been a member of the Harvard faculty since 1929, a visiting lecturer at the Yerkes Observatory, and a delegate from Harvard at the opening of the National Observatory in Mexico.

A large gathering of Harvard men from this area is expected to attend, to hear a talk which has recently been termed an essential part of a liberal education.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARD ADDRESS, "COMMUNISM VS. CHRISTIANITY"

The Honorable Clare Gerald Fenerty of Philadelphia, a brilliant scholar and noted jurist, spoke before a large and interested audience Sunday, November 29, at the high school auditorium. The orator of national repute spoke under the auspices of the Winchester Chapter Guild of the Infant Saviour. He painted colorful pictures of the struggle of "Atheism against God." He called Stalin the monster capitalist, who believed in Communism for the world and not for himself and whose dream of world conquest surpassed all such thoughts of the Brown Fascist Adolph Hitler. Stalin the capitalistic executioner was responsible for the murder of 200,000 Jews and 20 million war losses.

Judge Fenerty stated "God has no place in the United Nations Assembly or even a mention of His name was permitted at Versailles.

He said Molotov is screaming for disarmament while Russia is preparing for war. He assailed the subsidized writers and radio slanderers who landed Stalin, the worst murderer in the world, and attacked Franco who restored Spain after a murderous minority by violence, that seized the government, called itself a republic, demolished 20,000 churches murdered 11 bishops 11,000 priests and nuns and a million of the laity. Hitler and Stalin plotted the launching of the second World War, that eventually caused your sons to die.

The Soviet leaders realize that Communism is accepted only by men who have their souls crushed out of them. It cannot live in a country where men are men and who can stand up and say I am an American, I am free; I am the captain of my soul!

Communism means the death of all Christianity, Catholic, Protestants and Jews.

Judge Fenerty concluded his able address with the challenge: Morality is not to be bartered for Communistic bestiality, nor American Liberty exchanged for Soviet Thraldom. Americanism is still a holier creed than Moscowism. The Bible and the Ten Commandments teaching decency of life-and-love, not hate of our Communistic neighbors. For Moses is a better prophet than Stalin and for time and eternity, the Lover of the Poor, the Prince of Peace is infinitely more powerful than all the tyrants of mankind.

Mrs. Chester J. Powers extended the greetings of the Chapter to Rt. Rev. Monsignor J. F. Minihan, Clergy, guests and friends, she was followed by the Rev. John D. O'Riordan, pastor of St. Mary's Church who presented the speaker. Mrs. John R. Ghirardini [illegible] led the audience in the National Anthem at the opening.

Mrs. Virgil Ghirardini was chairman of the arrangements committee which included:

The local police have been besieged with queries from residents of the town who have been solicited by persons purporting to represent certain veterans organizations and raising money in aid of disabled veterans. It is always safe to ask any one soliciting funds for any sort of charitable organization to show a permit issued by the Winchester Police Department, describing in full the solicitor and the organization he or she represents. Insofar as soliciting funds for veterans is concerned both the local veterans' organizations, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars recommend this precaution. There really is no law against soliciting in town by charitable organizations whether they be local or from out-of-town. It is wise however to know to whom and for what you are contributing, to beware of generalities such as merely "disabled veterans", "destitute children" and "veterans' relief", and to refuse funds to any who can not properly identify himself. The STAR has no desire to make more difficult the solicitation of funds by legitimate organizations for worthy charities. By the same token we do not wish to see the people of the the town taken in by glib solicitors whose story is generally only half told.

EUROPE-ASIA-AFRICA COMES TO WINCHESTER FOR THANKSGIVING

Over 25 foreign students attending colleges and universities around greater Boston were entertained in Winchester homes Thanksgiving Day. For a great many of these young scholars from abroad, it was their first taste of roast turkey and "fixin's" done in the best New England way. Mince pie, cranberry sauce and cider seemed to be something novel for them, too. All were highly enthusiastic about their pleasant day and their newly-made American friends. Some noted with envy the shiny new automobiles, the well stocked stores and the well dressed people. The hostesses felt that it was good to be reminded of our wonderful country and how really lucky we were compared to some of the other nations on this globe. Many students entertainingly described their lives in such countries as China, India, Burma, France, Great Britain, South Africa, Canada, Holland, Armenia, Greece and Egypt. There was some apprehension about the coming winter climate and, indeed, a few were homesick for their native Alps or fjords, but they are vitally interested in their work and all the knowledge and understanding of our great country they can absorb—and in applying it on their return home.

A fine start has been made by our citizens in Winchester toward admitting into our family life these foreign students. They were greatly impressed with the generous and genuine hospitality we showed Thanksgiving day. It is hoped that throughout the school year many more of these stimulating people will visit in our homes for an afternoon or evening, particularly during their Christmas vacation. They are very eager to meet us, share our ideas and enlarge their own viewpoints on American life.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION FATHER-SON NIGHT

A large number of men and boys attended the Father-Son Night sponsored by the Holy Name Society of the Immaculate Conception Parish and held Tuesday evening in Lyceum Hall.

Dr. James Higgins of Woburn acted as master of ceremonies, introducing a number of sports celebrities, all of whom spoke interestingly. Included were Eddie Waitkus, Chicago Cugs first baseman-outfielder; Len Merullo of the Coast League, former Cubs shortstop; Bill McConnell, top-flight football official with such games as Army Navy and Notre Dame - Northwestern; Mark Crehan, former Dartmouth grid star and college official; Neil Mahoney, Red Sox scout; and Tony Gentile of Winchester, professional basketball official.

Henry Knowlton, high school athletic director and coach, showed motion pictures of the Stoneham and Framingham games this past season, and also spoke briefly. The party was concluded with the showing of the picture, Sport Highlights of 1947.

SCHOOL BUILDING PROJECT DISCUSSED AT JOINT COMMITTEE MEETING

A joint meeting of the Winchester School Committee and the Junior High School Building Committee, held last Tuesday evening, was finally adjourned at midnight. Besides the entire School Committee, Mr. Charles Main and Mr. Nicholas Fitzgerald of the Junior High School Building Committee attended.

The purpose of the special meeting was to discuss plans for the contemplated building project and the coordination of that project with the elementary schools.

Also in attendance, by special invitation, was Mr. Allen Finley of the Waylan School Committee, who outlined the procedures and activities employed in Wayland to inform the community of the school needs and to keep the general public aware of the steps being taken to satisfy those needs.

It was agreed that a Special Meeting be held on Saturday, December 4, at 1:30 p. m. to which representatives of the Planning Board, The Finance Committee, and the Board of Selectmen would be invited to discuss the school building situation with the School Committee.

Plans for holding precinct meetings over the Town as a means of acquainting the public with the building situation faced by the schools were also discussed.

NEW McCORMACKS

Mr. and Mrs. George McCormack of Billerica are the parents of a daughter, Kathleen, born November 26, two days before the birth of a daughter, Maureen, to George's brother, Henry J., and his wife, who also live in Billerica. Both George and Henry are former well known Winchester boys with Henry conducting McCormack's Apothecary before taking over a similar business in Billerica. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCormack of Winchester place.

Mr. Vincent Carroll of 207 Highland avenue is reported as very ill in the Baker Memorial Hospital, Boston. He was removed to the hospital on Monday.

TELEPHONE COMPANY SEEKS NEW RATE

As a result of further wage increases granted last September and in order to obtain earnings considered necessary on its Massachusetts investment, the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company today (December 2) sought an additional seven per cent in increased annual revenues from its intrastate operations in Massachusetts. The new amount, the Company said, is urgently needed to meet requirements for telephone service in the Commonwealth.

In its filing of last April the Company sought the Department's authorization of rates to increase revenues by 15 per cent, including five per cent temporarily allowed by the Department in July, 1947, on an emergency basis. The amount sought today would bring revenues from increased rates to a total of 22 per cent above prewar levels, it was stated. The Company pointed out that such an increase was considerably less than many other price increases in Massachusetts, such as 95 per cent for food, 94 per cent for fuel, 90 per cent for clothing and 63 per cent for the overall cost of living.

"The telephone business like many other business has been affected seriously by rising costs that marked the postwar period of inflation.

The total wages of $70 million paid in 1948 to telephone men and women in Massachusetts is only a part of the contribution that the telephone business makes to the prosperity of the state. The Company employs 27,000 people in Massachusetts, pays taxes of $9 million on its Massachusetts operations and one of its suppliers, the Western Electric Company, alone purchased $16 million worth of materials and supplies from businesses located in Massachusetts These things spell additional benefits to many thousands of people and businesses throughout the state.

"It will take a lot of capital to build the telephone plant required for this new construction and that capital must come from the savings of men and women all over America. They will invest their savings in the telephone business only if they are convinced that earnings on the money they invest in the business are at a reasonable level.

Good telephone service in Massachusetts depends on these people continuing to put their money into the business, so we can go ahead with the big job of building the plant needed to expand and improve telephone service.

These increases in telephone revenues are necessary so that we will be able to go forward with our program to give Massachusetts the good service it needs - and in doing this, to increase steadily the usefulness and value of telephone service throughout the Commonwealth.

Selected members of the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades at the Winchester Mystic and Lincoln schools will take part in a radio Quizdown program tomorrow morning in the high school auditorium at ten. The program will be transcribed at that time and broadcast over Station WCOP at seven tomorrow evening.

HIGH SCHOOL HOOP MEN START

With the approach of the winter season the Winchester High School courtmen are busily practicing for their opening game against Danvers High School at Danvers on December 17. Coach Ted Bartlett has high hopes that this year's quintet can approach the great record compiled by last year's team that won fourteen games while losing only four. Gone from that excellent outfit are Captain Al Switzer, high scorer for the season, second high scorer, Harry Easton, dependable guard, Joe Amico, and reserve guard, Dick Smith.

Returning as a nucleus around which this year's team will be built are Captain Ken Donaghey, guard Paul Roche, and forward Pete Dillingham. Donaghey and Roche were regulars on last year's outfit, with Donaghey rating as third highest scorer for the season and Roche being favored with a selection as second team guard on the All-Middlesex League Team. Dillingham was the sixth man on last year's team, seeing considerable service, and is expected to nail down a starting berth this season.

Others from whom the first team will be selected are Tom McGowan, Bob Zirkel, Bill Zirkel, Dave Coon, Dick Mathews and Dennis Sanford. Mathews and Sanford are newcomers to Winchester High who are expected to be of considerable assistance this year while the others have all had two years of experience under Coach Bartlett and are ready for varsity service. Junior classmen who may develop into varsity men are Dan Devlin, Jack Costello, George Tansey, Bob Morris, Paul Amico, John Power, Walter Murphy, Mike Patterson, and Bob Walsh.

While it is too early to predict great things of this group, they do show considerable promise. Captain Ken Donaghey is one of the key men in the success of this team and seems to be set for a good year. The other key man, Paul Roche, has the speed and ability to become the best guard in the Middlesex League this year and seems determined to reach that goal. With Donaghey and Roche in the leading roles, the others should develop into a supporting cast of sufficient strength to become strong contenders for the League title. Certainly this team will be well drilled and well coached and if hard work is any criterion, this team may past the best record of any Red and Black quintet in years.

It pays to advertise in the Star.

"God The Only Cause and Creator" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, December 5.

Golden Text: "Thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else" (Isaiah 45:18).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure" (Isaiah 46:9,10). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

"Infinite Mind creates and governs all, from the mental molecule to infinity. This divine Principle of all expresses Science and art throughout his creation, and the immortality of man and the universe. Creation is ever appearing, and must ever continue to appear from the nature of its inexhaustible source" (p. 507).

WINCHESTER HOCKEY CLUB LOSES TWO TO MELROSE REDS

The Melrose Reds, runner-up team in the Boston Amateur Hockey League last winter, pinned two defeats on the Winchester Hockey Club, winning the first game last Saturday morning at the Boston Arena by the close score of 8 to 7 and cleaning up the series going away Tuesday evening on the same ice 10 to 4.

Don Armstrong and Whip Saltmarsh, both home for the Thanksgiving recess, were with the locals for the first time in many months for the Saturday game. Had not Jim Fuller been called upon to give a pint of blood for a transfusion that day, the locals would have been at full strength. As it was, that game was very even all the way. Scott Doub collected a pair of goals for the locals, as did Dave Merrow, Wimpy Burtnett got two and an assist, with Roy Monson having one goal and two assists. Whip Saltmarsh and Don Armstrong each had an assist but seemed to be having their troubles in converting their athletic skill from football to hockey. Scott Doub in addition to his two goals played a strong defensive game, as did Don Ellis and Billy Dingwell. Scotty Connor handled himself well in the net.

For the Reds Charlie Holt, former Dartmouth College captain and star, was outstanding with three goals and an assist, followed by Connelly with two and an assist, Hunter with two and R. Lloyd with one and one assist. Connelly also starred on defense, as did Gil Priestly. Bradley did well in goal.

Winchester spares: Merrow, Armstrong, Saltmarsh, Jr., Tolman, R. Collins, D. Collins, Dingwell.
Referee: Saltmarsh, Sr.

Melrose Reds really piled it on in the Tuesday evening game. The locals minus Don Ellis, Don Armstrong and Whip Saltmarsh were apparently unable to put up for the three, although he played a whale of a game.

Russ Priestly and Charles Holt with four goals each practically accounted for the locals' demise, with E. Lloyd adding two more for good measure. For Winchester, Dave Merrow, Roy Monson, Wimpy Burtnett and Frank Livingstone scored one each.

WEEK-END FIRES

The first of two runs for the Fire Department over the week-end was a short and early one, coming in at 2:15 Saturday morning.

At that time an excited motorist burst into the police station, reporting that his automobile was on fire and stopped in front of the Central Fire Station.

Sgt. James E. Farrell, on desk duty, notified the fire department and the firemen responded promptly. They found the trouble was caused by hot grease around the rear axle near the gas tank. The machine was owned by a Stoneham man and was not much damaged.

The second alarm came in Sunday at noon for a grass fire near 167 Forest street.

NOONAN SCHOOL NOTES

The Noonan School pupils have been busy for the past week collecting gifts which will be sent to needy children in Europe. Altogether the students have contributed enough articles to fill fourteen gift boxes.

The third dancing class was held in the school auditorium on Monday, November 29. The director, Mr. Harry Raymond, is receiving an eager response from the pupils of fifth and sixth grades, who enjoy the classes immensely.

Four and one-half bundles of clothing, brought in by the pupils for Save The Children Federation, were collected on Monday, November 28.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard J. Clark of Sheffield West announce the birth of a daughter, Anne Nowell, on November 21 at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparents are Mrs. Joseph T. Clark of Cambridge street, and Mr. and Mrs. James Nowell of Stratford road.

WINCHESTER LODGE NEWS

The Winchester Lodge's Bowling League rolled its 7th match of the 21 match series at the Sports Center on Tuesday night.

There was plenty of excitement during the rolling, especially between the Holy Cross and Fordham teams. I think it will be the closest match rolled off in this League. Fordham nosed out Holy Cross with a pinfall of 479 - 490 - 465 for a total of 1434 for Fordham, and the best that Holy Cross could do was a pinfall of 479 - 496 - 458 for a total of 1433.

Richard Fiore's High Single of 133 was threatened twice during the evening. Chick Vespucci came close with a 132 and Frank (Boss) Dattilo was right behind him with a 131.

At the end of the first third of the series, things line up as follows:

High Singles: Richard Fiore 133, Holy Cross 536; High 3 string: Harry Chefalo, 343, Notre Dame 1470. In the points Won-Lost column Holy Cross leads with 21-7, Georgetown is second with 16-12 and Fordham is third with 14-14. The team average lead at present is held by Holy Cross with 95.0, St. Mary's in second place with a 92.1 and Boston College in third with a 92.0. Deadhorse Chefalo has held the high individual average for the last 6 weeks, his present average being 102.0. A. Jacobellis with 100.7 and Harry Chefalo with 100.5 are in second and third place.

There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Lodge on Monday, December 6, at the Lodge Hall at 22 Swanton street.

CUB PACK NO. 7

The Cub Scouts of Pack 7 and some parents enjoyed a very interesting trip on Thursday, November 11, to the Charlestown Navy Yard. They were taken on a tour of the Cruiser Rochester, Destroyer Cone and The Constitution.

On Friday evening, November 19th the regular meeting of the Pack was held at The First Baptist Church with a very good attendance of Cubs and parents.

Cub Master Bingham gave an interesting and detailed history of the life of "The Indians in this vicinity" which the boys enjoyed. The dens are cooperating in the assembling of an Indian project for the Exposition to be held in Winchester in May.

The following Cubs were awarded advancement:

Den 2 - Donald Murray, Winchester strip - Den 2 - Pack 7.

Den 4 - Robert Ripley, Wolf Silver Arrow.

Den 6 - Paul Berman, Bobcat, Winchester Strip - Den 6 - Pack 7.

Erskine Kelley, Bobcat, Winchester Strip - Den 6 - Pack 7.

James Urmson, Bobcat, Winchester Strip - Den 6 - Pack 7.

George Straton, Service Star.

The next regular meeting will be held Friday, December 17th when a Christmas Party will be held.

Come with your parents and make a perfect attendance.

POINSETTA DANCE UNITARIAN COUPLE'S CLUB

To start the Christmas social season on its festive way the Couples' Club of the Unitarian Church will hold a Poinsetta Dance. This will be held on December 11th at Metcalf Hall in the Unitarian Parish House.

This promises to be a gala affair with the original Bobcats Orchestra furnishing the music. Dancing will be from 8 to 12.

Decorations will be under the direction of the Robert Lows, and will certainly be worth coming to see. The Stark Mills and the Alfred Osgoods promise that refreshments will be extra special.

During the evening there will be special features for the entertainment of all. Tables will be placed around the hall in cabaret style, and any party wanting a special size table may have one by contacting any one of the committee.

Committee members not mentioned above include the Roger Stillmans and the Fred Parsons.

So everyone, young and old, near and far, mark down the evening of December 11th and come to the Poinsetta Dance. d3-2t

CHILDREN OVERCOME BY FUMES

At 10:17 Tuesday morning Fire Headquarters was notified that the two young children of Everett W. Kimball, Jr., 33 Clark street, had been overcome, apparently by fumes of some sort at their home.

The Fire Department responded at once and notified police headquarters in the event the inhalator was needed. Fresh air revived the youngsters who were apparently suffering from a lack of oxygen in the room, caused by a defective heater pipe. While they were being revived their grandfather, Fireman Everett W. Kimball, was at work on the Fire Alarm whistle on the roof of Beggs & Cobb not far from the children's home.

DIABETES DETECTION DRIVE

Through the Administrator, Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Winchester Hospital is cooperating in the National Diabetes Detection Drive which is being initiated by Diabetes Week, December 6th to 12th. This cooperation means that during next week a urinalysis will be done without charge by the Hospital Laboratory for anyone requesting it.

The same service of a urine examination without charge will be given next week in the office of any doctor who is a member of the Winchester Hospital Staff or of the Middlesex East District Medical Society. This unanimous cooperation with the American Diabetes Association is the outcome of serious consideration of the Association's program by the Hospital Staff and by the Middlesex East District Medical Society and is proof of their conviction that the detection and registration of all cases of diabetes is important to the persons themselves and to society at large.

Reliable observation indicates that there are probably two million persons in the United States who have diabetes although only one million have been identified and most of them placed under treatment. Because early discovery of diabetes pays enormous dividends in lessening the threat to life and the risk of crippling complications, there is the best of reasons for using fully the facilities for examination of urine which are available from December 6th through 12th.

Attention should be called to the fact that urinalysis is only one of the diagnostic means used in determining whether or not a person is suffering from diabetes, but it is the first step to be taken. When sugar is found in a specimen of urine, the patient will be advised to place himself under medical care for a further study of his case and the institution of proper treatment. One of many favorable facts bearing upon this disease is that a means of control is available in insulin, and that no other major disease has yet a comparable specific treatment. The seriousness of diabetes to the nation's health is probably not sufficiently appreciated. It ranks eighth among causes of death, and in the numbers affected it is outranked only by heart disease with its related blood vessel and kidney disorder and by cancer and rheumatism.

It is hoped that all readers of this column will give the fullest and most immediate attention to this information about the facilities available next week without charge to all who have any reason to believe that they should have a urine examination. Specimens may be brought to the Winchester Hospital or to the office of any doctor who is a member of the Hospital staff or of the Middlesex East District Medical Society. On behalf of the Hospital laboratory, Mrs. Sherman, Chief Technician, requests that specimens be from the morning voiding and that they be brought to the laboratory as soon as possible.

Notes From The Nursing Staff

Miss Esther Lynch, Assistant Superintendent of Nurses, has returned from a brief vacation in New York City. During the current semester, in addition to her regular duties at the Hospital, Miss Lynch is carrying an advanced course in Methods of Nursing at Boston University.

A four-months' course in Management in the Head Nurse Unit is being taken at Boston College under the Faculty of Nursing Education by Miss Mildred Bagley, Obstetrical Supervisor, and Miss Ella Dailey, Out-Patient and Pharmacy Supervisor.

Six rooms in the Nurses' Home have been recently outfitted with new furniture, replacing very inadequate and unattractive furnishings. The assignment was made on the basis of seniority of service of the nurses occupying the rooms and the condition of the furniture needing replacement.

Mrs. O'Leary, Acting Superintendent of Nurses, was hostess recently to the biology students from Maryclif Academy in Arlington, who spent part of an afternoon going through the Hospital under her guidance. These girls showed keen interest in the glimpse of the hospital's services, including those in pathology and roentgenology, as well as in visiting the wards and looking through the windows of the nursery. The Academy bulletin reports the visit in full detail, and comments that the "girls found the trip so interesting that they were at least temporarily attracted to nursing as a profession"!

Mrs. Mary McGarry Savage, who passed away at her home on Central street, Woburn, Friday morning, November 26, was the sister of Mrs. T. T. Greenwood of Mystic Valley Parkway.

THE FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

Literature Group

The Literature Committee will hold its second meeting of the season at the Winchester Public Library on Monday, December 6, at 2 o'clock.

Continuing the chosen topic, "Representative British Writers of the first quarter at the 20th Century" Mrs. Theo Dissel and Miss Caroline Everett will present papers on the subject, "Introduction to the Enjoyment of Essays."

Members of The Fortnightly interested in the literature program are eagerly anticipating these monthly meetings arranged by Miss Eva W. Sherman, chairman of the Literature Committee.

Do You Know:

That The Fortnightly maintains a Conservation Committee interested in all civic enterprises.

That in 1904 the Conservation Committee campaigned against the gypsy browntail moth which had become a serious menace. A circular telling of this danger and the best way to overcome it, was left at every home in Winchester, as well as mailed to non-resident owners of unoccupied land. Results were most gratifying.

That in 1915, The Fortnightly on the recommendation of the Conservation Committee contributed funds to the State Forestry Association.

That during the years 1924-26 the Conservation Committee was again found active in a civic enterprise. Girl Scouts were employed to distribute circulars asking the townspeople to clean up their premises to aid in the reduction of the mosquito nuisance. A petition was circulated requesting the Metropolitan Board to act upon this matter of civic welfare. As a result an article was printed in the Town Warrant asking that a committee be appointed to look into this matter and money to be appropriated for a survey. It was favorably acted upon at the Town Meeting. And again results were satisfying.

That in 1925 The Fortnightly presented to the Town of Winchester its first Community Christmas tree. The presentation took place on the Common in the presence of several hundred people who had gathered to sing Christmas Carols before the brightly illuminated tree. The President of the Club - Mrs. Helen B. Emerson - presented the gift to the Town which was accepted by the Chairman of the Park Board. A tablet was placed at the foot of the tree, dedicating it to the memory of Mrs. Ann B. Winsor, founder and first President of The Fortnightly.

That in 1926-28 with Dr. Mary T. Maynard as President of The Fortnightly, the Conservation Committee designed a tree planting project. One hundred Oregon Spruce trees were planted in Middlesex Fells near a log cabin in that vicinity and an attractive sign placed, designating it as "The Fortnightly Grove".

That in 1933, The Fortnightly, again through the Conservation Committee's work planted a large rock garden in the Highlands district.

That down through the years 1881-1948 The Fortnightly has contributed greatly to the enviable position which Winchester holds to-day as one of the most beautiful Towns in New England.

Donald Warren of 2 Greeley road is among the nearly 400 students enrolled at the School of Practical Art on Newbury street in Boston. He is preparing for a career in commercial art.

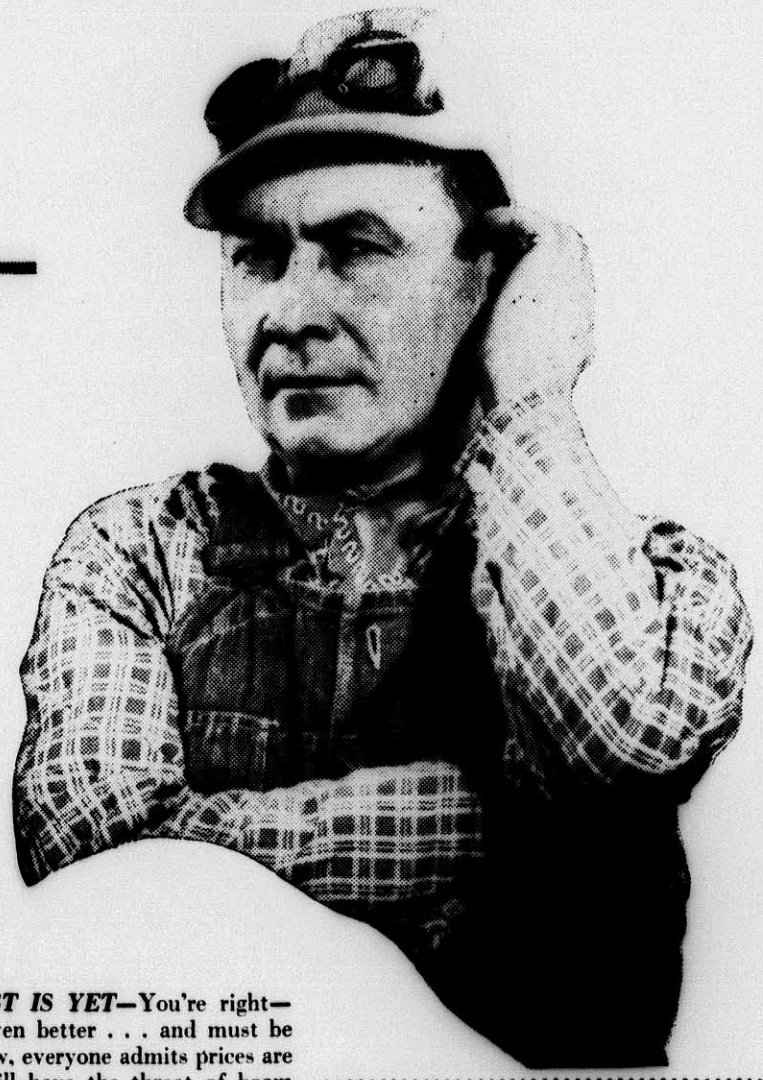
OKAY— but what's in it for me?



"So America's the richest country in the world. So what?

"So Americans produce more than any people on earth. Okay—but what's in it for me?"

At all times, in all ages, nations have had to answer that question—or go out of business.

The average man—the worker, the farmer, the small businessman—is human enough to ask: "What will it do for me—for me and my wife and my kids?"

Let's look at the record—

Here in America we have the best answer in the world to that question.

Machine Power: Since 1910 we have increased our supply of machine power 4½ times.

Production: Since 1910 we have more than doubled the output each of us produces for every hour we work.

Income: Since 1910 we have increased our annual income from less than $2400 per household to about $4000 (in dollars of the same purchasing power), yet

Work Hours: Since 1910 we have cut 18 hours from our average work week—equivalent to two present average workdays.

BUT THE BEST IS YET—You're right—things can be even better . . . and must be better. Right now, everyone admits prices are too high. We still have the threat of boom and bust. Our system has faults, yet it has brought more benefits to more people than any other system ever devised.

We can beat the boom and bust cycle. We can have even better food, better clothing, better wages, better homes, more leisure, more educational and medical facilities.

We can have all this IF we all continue to work together and share together . . . IF we continue to realize that each American's personal standard of living will rise in proportion to how much all Americans produce through better machines, better methods, better teamwork.

And that's about it. What's in it for you depends on what's in it for America.

I want to help

I know that higher wages, lower prices, shorter hours and larger earnings can all result from producing more goods for every hour all of us work.

Therefore, I will ask myself how I can work more effectively every hour I am on the job, whether I am an employee, an employer, a professional man or a farmer.

I will encourage those things which help us produce more and add to everyone's prosperity—things like greater use of mechanical power, better machines, better distribution and better collective bargaining.

I will boost the good things in our set-up, and help to get rid of the bad.

I will try to learn all I can about why it is that Americans have more of the good things of life.

Please send me your free booklet, "The Miracle of America" which explains clearly and simply, how a still better living can be had for all, if we all work together.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

After the lapse over Armistice Day, grade teas were resumed at the George Washington School when Mrs. John Ferrera entertained Mrs. Louise Mathews and the mothers of her fourth-grade pupils at tea on Thursday, November 18. Mrs. Mathews' talk on group relationships and Miss Rich's talk on personality traits and social development were followed by an active discussion period concerning problems of the children of this age level. Mrs. Paul Eaton and Mrs. Joseph Cussen were the room mothers responsible for the tea arrangements, assistants Mrs. Gordon Lorentzen, Mrs. Robert Burr, chairman of the refreshment committee, had as her Mrs. Francis Quine, and Mrs. Pasquale Tofuri. Miss Rich and Mrs. Eaton poured.

On Tuesday, November 30, Mrs. James Robertson, room mother for grade 6 of the George Washington School, entertained Miss Roberts and the grade mothers at tea. Mrs. Herbert Dayton was chairman of the refreshment committee and she was assisted by Mrs. Salvatore Cantella, Mrs. Borje Carlson, and Mrs. Charles Peter. Mrs. Dayton and Mrs. George Gowdy presided at the tea table. Miss Roberts gave a talk on group living which was followed by an active discussion of problems of group relationships to be met by sixth graders and also by a discussion of the adjustments ahead as the class enters Junior High School.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Mothers' Association has also been active in the past few weeks. On Tuesday, November 16, the members of the committee sponsored a program of moving pictures for the school pupils at 3:30. Now the committee is making plans to circulate traveling food baskets to the mothers in each grade between now and the Christmas vacation.

Mr. Gilgun expects the machine to help materially during the Christmas rush and hopes the public will take advantage of it which will help both themselves and lesses the load on the clerical force.

HOME FOR THANKSGIVING

Carl Pihl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall R. Pihl of the Parkway, came home for the Thanksgiving recess from Kenyon College in Gambier Ohio, where he is a first-year pre-medical student. As a half-back on the Freshman football team, Carl reports a successful freshman football season, particularly with a 24-0 victory over the Oberlin freshmen. His younger brother, Marshall, Jr., a sophomore at the Browne & Nichols School won praises as an efficient water-boy on this year's undefeated football team. At Browne & Nichols, Marshall is a member of the Assembly Committee, the Glee Club, with a part in the Iolanthe production, and is a news staff editor on the school magazine, The Spectator. The Spectator staff held a Father and Son's banquet at the school this week when Marshall was in charge of the table arrangements.

TROOP 6 NEWS

Last Friday at 10:00 a. m. two cars full of members of Troop 6 started off for a week-end camping trip at Mt. Monadnock. The Chairman of the Troop Committee, Mr. William Davies, drove a beach wagon and trailer carrying most of the gear while Mr. James McElroy drove his car.

The equipment for each Scout has been listed and his pack checked before leaving, as it is quite important to have the right equipment on trips at this time of year. None of the boys were found unprepared, which is in keeping with the Scout motto "Be Prepared." Veterans of Troop 6 have found that they can be very comfortable in the open even at 10 below zero, if they have the proper equipment.

Bad weather, with which Troop 6 is quite familiar, dogged them again on this trip and instead of following through as in the past and which most of the boys would have preferred, it was decided to come home Saturday. Better luck next time, fellows.

COUPLES CLUB

At the Pot Luck Supper of the Couples Club next Tuesday at 6:45 p. m. in the Methodist Church, Professor Charles Mc. McConnell will be the speaker. His humor and wit have labeled him a second Will Rogers. An excellent evening is in store.

WINCHESTER SKI CLUB

Member Club of U. S. E. A. S. A. since 1937

Last Friday night, the Winchester Ski Club held an open meeting at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Nault at 203 Washington street. The meeting was well attended by many W. S. C. members, a few members of the Sunrise Schussers and other local skiers.

Al Breed, Chairman of the Program Committee, outlined plans for the year which were endorsed by all. In the absence of Bill Davies, President of the Club (see Troop 6 News), Vice-President Harry Bean conducted the meeting, and introduced a plan for merging the Winchester Ski Club and Sunrise Schussers into one, larger and better rounded unit. This is something which has been discussed for some time and thanks are due Harry and the members of the Schussers who brought it to a head. The merger details are to be worked out and will be presented to the membership of both clubs for ratification.

The W. S. C. always has had an active junior and adult membership, including a fine instructional program for new, unskilled members, but without a racing group. The Schussers, representing competition, would fill this gap and the combined clubs would then make one strong, well-rounded ski club of well over 125 members.

It has been suggested that in order to retain the identities of both groups, the competing portion be known as the Sunrise Schussers of the Winchester Ski Club.

During the meeting and for inspection and comment, a sample of the new BOOT-LOC was on display. This was the first public showing of this new product, made in Winchester which "screws your boot to your skis."

Following the business meeting, Henry Paris, of the Innitou Ski Runners of Woburn and winner of the National Ski Patrol Safety Award, spoke on the activities of the Ski Patrol and urged the W. S. C. to organize it's own patrol or enlist some of its members in patrols in the ski region.

Then he showed his large collection of colored slides taken on various mountain trips in New England over the past several years. Henry does a superb job with a camera as demonstrated by these shots taken in both summer and winter. They simply were glorious.

Fred Whitney, pre-war president of the club, showed his films taken of club skiing on Horn Pond Mountain last winter, including shots of the ski school he directed throughout the long snow season. He also had shots of club members skiing the Headwall and various other regions.

During the show, refreshments were served by genial Rolly Nault and his corps of helpers and after the usual bull session, everyone left with memories of one swell evening.

DORIS M. WATSON

The Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church will hold its Christmas meeting on Tuesday, December 14th. Sewing will begin at 10:00 a. m., there will be a Board Meeting at noon, and at 1:00 p. m. luncheon will be served in the Social Hall by Mrs. Philip H. Johnson, Mrs. Edward A. Bartlett and their committee. Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, Director of the Guild, will preside at the business meeting which follows the luncheon.

Guests are invited to the program which will be presented in Ripley Chapel at 2 o'clock, when Miss Doris M. Watson of Medford will read "The Little Shepherd", a mono-drama in three scenes. Presented in costume, this original adaptation from the Scriptures is a service of color, beauty and inspiration. Miss Watson has met with great success in her readings, and holds the attention of her audience well as she vividly portrays the characters she represents.

Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson will read the Scriptural prelude to "The Little Shepherd" and Miss Sylvia Smith, organist, will play "Cantique Noel" and the beautiful carols which are a part of the service. Mrs. Rupert F. Jones has arranged the program.

The doors of the auditorium will be open at 2:30 p. m. and seats in the front will be available for those who require special consideration or who are hearing a Christian Science lecture for the first time.

This lecture, sponsored by First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Winchester, is free, and all are cordially invited to attend.

ELDERLY MAN IN CAR ACCIDENT

William Sweeney, 86, of 644 Main street escaped injury last Saturday forenoon, after it seemed that he would be struck by an automobile on Mt. Vernon street near Hevey's Pharmacy.

According to the police Angelo Laruso of 503 Washington street was driving a station wagon east on Mt. Vernon street when Mr. Sweeney came onto the street at the alley to the rear of the Hevey Block. Mr. Laruso said his car was practically at a stop when the elderly man fell against the right front mudguard.

Mr. Sweeney said he had missed his footing and had fallen. He said that he was not hurt and did not need medical assistance. He was driven to his home by Mr. Laruso, apparently none the worse for his experience.

Fred R. Edington, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Edington of 15 Vine street, was one of thirty-one lettermen to play on the first undefeated, untied football team in the 42 year history of Berkshire School in Sheffield, Fred played halfback while earning his second varsity football letter, and scored several vital touchdowns. His break away running was one of the features of Berkshire's season.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB SINGS TONIGHT IN STONEHAM

Under the very capable baton of its popular new conductor, Keith Snyder of Reading, the Mystic Glee Club will make its first public appearance of the new season under the sponsorship of the Glasgow Men's Club of Stoneham. This concert to be participated in by the full membership of 62 men will be held at the Stoneham Town Hall tonight, December 3rd.

The Mystic Glee Club of Winchester in its ninth year, is one of the finest of such civic organizations in New England. Winners of the grand award in competition for the first time in New Haven in 1947, in the New England Federation of Men's Glee Clubs contest, the Mystic Glee Club also won first place in their class in a similar contest in Jordan Hall last Spring.

A delightful evening of musical entertainment is in store for the Stoneham audience. Christmas music will make up a part of the program. An added attraction this year will be a smooth pianologue by the talented pianist of the Glee Club, Jack Gilbert.

Meanwhile the Mystic Glee Club is putting final touches on its big Christmas concert to be held on Saturday, December 11th at the Winchester High School Auditorium. A varied well-balanced program is planned. The Winchester audience will be happy to know that the program will include Christmas numbers. Master G. Johnson Geikie, Jr., the phenomenal 13 year old boy pianist will be the guest artist. A few tickets are still available for the Winchester concert and may be obtained at Friendship House, 40 Church street, Winchester.

ROTARY NEWS

President Don called a very large meeting to order this week - There were 61 members present, the two Junior Rotarians and nine visitors. And speaking of attendance Secretary Ralph Purrington reported with no little pride that the club's standing had risen from a low of seventeenth in September to a possible third or fourth in November. Much credit is due to Prexey Don and his successfully persistant efforts to bring the attendance up.

The business part of the meeting consisted of a reminder that the first meeting of every month is our soap-for England meeting. A letter of appreciation was read from Winchester Rotary Club in England for the first batch of soap they had received already. Also a most important event took place when a check for four thousand dollars was presented to Ralph Bonnell for the Winchester Hospital Building Fund. This being the last of the five thousand dollars promised by the club in a period of three years. Since this is but the end of two years it is all the more notable. Thanks and congratulations go to all the members of the committees that have served during these two years to make this gift possible and also to the good people of Winchester who contributed so generously at the recent penny sale and car raffle. There were some who detected a peculiar glint in Ralph Bonnell's eyes that probably foretold of further requests for donations by this hard working club.

Make-ups this week ranged from the near to the far. Don Heath went to Woburn again and it looks as if he might be going to run for some office over there soon if he can be released from his membership in the Republican Club of Winchester. Harry Bigelow also went to Woburn for reasons best known to himself. Then there were three lost sheep who appeared at Moncton, New Brunswick, Al Elliott, John 'Center Alley' Navarro, and Charles Murphy who were all up there buying meat for the winter. They claimed they shot something but we suspect it was either the bull or crap or both . . .

The speaker and guest of honor for the meeting was our own Representative to the General Court, Harrison Chadwick. He began his remarks by saying that he felt akin to the club since Rotary is for service and he, in his own individual way, was for service to his people here also. His talk was on the subject of social problems for the day. The subject was presented under four general headings as follows: 1. The present day impersonality of jobs. As contrasted with fifty years ago there are many workers who never see or know their bosses and it is a well known fact that most people today do not like the jobs that they are holding. This of itself presents a social and economic problem. 2. The interdependency of society as a whole both economic and social. 3. The complexity of life both economic, social and even more increasingly governmental. And 4. the factor that is now arising of the increased span of life. There are more old people today than young if one takes twenty as the base age. This is due to medical advance, old age assistance and dependents care, longer educational background and governmental aid to all labor. These all present problems which make for harder work on the part of our legislative bodies to keep up with increasing changes. Mr. Chadwick pointed out in conclusion that if all people would have more consideration for others and would attempt to see more of the other fellow's point of view we should have far less trouble both domestic and international. He stated that many of the problems presented by the various group representatives at the State House could more easily be worked out among themselves without recorse to law. As an example he said that of the two groups that should be working the closest together-labor and management-are, in point of fact, the furtherest apart and are always seeking new laws to curb the other's power.

Our thanks go to Mr. Chadwick for a fine talk and we in Winchester should be proud of our Representative in the General Court who is doing his best to really serve his people . . .

PIRATES OF PENZANCE

Enthusiastic audiences filled the High School Auditorium on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week, when the tuneful Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "Pirates of Penzance" was presented by the local Staff and Key Society.

The play began on the scheduled time, with the orchestra playing the familiar overture under the direction of L. Hassler Einzig. His beat was clear and the musicians followed his conducting very satisfactorily throughout the entire performance. It was unfortunate that the orchestra lighting was such that there were annoying shadows of the conductor's motions cast constantly on the side walls of the hall.

The orchestra deserves credit for playing in tune and responding to the conductor's desire for subdued volume whenever there was danger of covering the singers, all of whom showed fidelity of tonal pitch.

The absence of the conventional style of program arrangement made it difficult to see at a glance who was singing what at any particular time.

Mr. James Perrin, as the pirate apprentice, Frederick, has a fine tenor voice which he used very pleasingly, and he appeared to enjoy playing the leading male part as much as the audience did listening to him. His enunciation, in both speaking and singing parts, was clearly and distinctly understood by your STAR reporter who sat in a rear wall seat.

The Pirate King and Samuel were less effective in volume and clarity of singing, but were satisfactorily audible (in the rear regions of the hall) in their spoken acting. They knew their parts and were well received by the audience.

Alden Symmes made the same fine Major General that he has achieved in several appearances in that part in past years, and the audience marvelled at the speed of his performance. We didn't miss a single word of it.

All of the young ladies displayed beauty and excellence of tone quality in their solos, but only Miss Hight, as Ruth was successful in overcoming the acoustical handicaps which that stage imposes on most young singers who are also hampered by the absorption of vocal tones by a crowded auditorium. Their spoken parts seemed more powerful than some of their singing at times. In spite of those hindrances, their obligatos with the chorus were audible above it, and their high notes blended perfectly with the violins and woodwinds. Miss Hall and the flute were perfect in performance together, and her tones were always very pleasing in quality.

A more beautiful girls' chorus has never been seen by your scribe at any show in Winchester. Pretty faces were framed by gorgeous costumes and the ensemble work was so well done that the audience showed its appreciation by generous applause.

The men's costumes and make-up were likewise of high quality, being so good that it took a long searching look to find County Commissioner Cullen in it.

Even the entire chorus sang well and in tune, but their words were like those of all choruses - "hard to get."

The policemen were so funny in appearance and behavior that the audience reacted strongly enough to cover up Police Sergeant Dr. Blanchard during much of his comedy singing; so we had to join in laughing at his acting and guess at the words he sang.

The entire show moved smoothly, without any visible indication that prompting was needed; and it was obvious that much time and effort had been expended in producing the play. Thus the Staff and Key Society is to be congratulated upon this achievement thus early in its career, and the hope expressed that it will continue to strive for perfection in musical stage productions which have been all too few in Winchester for many years past.

We wish to offer our congratulations also to the Orchestra for a fine piece of work which made a pleasant evening's entertainment possible. We think they merited more appreciation than they appeared to receive.

MONA PAULEE

MEZZO OF THE "MET" COMMUNITY CONCERT SOLOIST

Next Wednesday evening, December 15th, at 8:30 in the High School auditorium, Winchester Community Concert Association members will be privileged to hear Mona Paulee, vivacious mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera. Miss Paulee started her real career with the San Francisco Opera Company in 1936, in minor parts, after earning her voice lessons first by working in a bakery, later by entertaining in a night club. Though under contract to the Metropolitan, she has filled engagements from coast to coast with such orchestras as the New York Philharmonic under both Mitroupoulos and Walter, the Boston Symphony, the Toronto Promenade concerts, San Diego, Minneapolis, the Tacoma and Waco Symphony Orchestras, and the National Symphony at Washington's Water Gate. (She is able thus to give concerts so widely because of her husband, who not only plays her piano accompaniment but, recently a captain in the Air Transport Command, pilots her in their plane from city to city.)

Mona is heard over the radio as a guest star over such programs as "The Firestone Hour," "Let's Go to the Opera," "Invitation to Music," "CBS Symphony," "Ford Hour," "Coca-cola Hour," "Music America Loves Best", and "World of Song." The New York Herald Tribune called her voice the "most voluptuous mezzo-soprano to be heard this side of the ocean" and the Indianapolis News declared that she "sang the kind of music critics are always hoping singers will place on their programs, and sang her music as critics are always hoping to hear it sung." This latter statement refers, no doubt, to the fact that she has proved herself able to sing, with equally infectious enthusiasm, Wagner and Brahms or popular songs sung to the accompaniment of a Kostelanetz or Tommy Dorsey orchestra. All in all, it appears that subscribers to the concert series can look forward to a delightful evening.

THE BUILDING FUND AND REVISED ARCHITECTS' PLANS

At their meeting of November 23rd, the Board of Directors of the Winchester Hospital gave their approval to revised plans for the modernization and enlargement of the Hospital. This action was the final step in a series of conferences through which the Architects, the Chiefs of the Hospital Staff and the Directors' Building Committee have agreed on the most effective solution of the Hospital's need of enlarged capacity. The plans have the unanimous and enthusiastic support of the doctors of the Staff. A total of 104 adult beds, increased from the present 72, is provided. The division of the beds between services is 40% for maternity, 50% for medical and surgical (with adjustability between these two services to meet varying needs) and 10% for pediatrics. We are assured that an addition of this size can be built and the present hospital can receive the necessary modernization within the $600,000 Fund we are now seeking to complete.

Among the many details of the revised plans which commend themselves especially to those who have contended for years with the problems of the present overburdened hospital is a new kitchen and dining room unit with servicing wholly from a Valley Road entrance. The laboratories and office space in the existing hospital will be reconstructed with greatly improved results.

The new wing has the features of the best of modern hospital design with centrally located service facilities, elevators, dumbwaiters, diet kitchens, workrooms and nurses' station. The general plan provides, therefore, ease of administration with maximum convenience to all who serve the patients or visits them, together with reservation of all possible sunlight for the rooms occupied by patients.

Besides the obvious gain of increased bed capacity to answer the constant pressure for admissions, enlargement has a relation to operation costs. Increase from seventy-two to over one hundred adult beds is in the direction of the most economical unit which experience in the hospital world has shown to lie in the 150 to 200 bed range. Moreover, increased space and finer facilities may well make possible the care of more patients with less propotionate increase in nurses and other employees.

As of December first, $400,000 of the needed $600,000 has been raised. A part of the architects' fees and certain other expenses have already been paid. In hand, in cash and pledges, is $385,570 plus certain blocks of stock held at interest. The task for December and January is the securing of a substantial amount of additional special gifts in the capital range.

The membership of the Men's Committee under my chairmanship is now being enlarged, and the Women's Unit of ten with Mrs. George A. Marks as Chairman is also interviewing special gift donors. The General Community appeal in the spring will be under the Chairmanship of Mr. Howard R. Bartlett.

An additional $8,000 from the residents of Reading will complete their voluntary allotment of $25,000. Subscriptions are now coming in through a committee in Wakefield.

We believe there is universal understanding of the need of enlarging our Hospital which has been seriously overcrowded since 1939. We are now asking every friend of the Hospital to constitute himself a helper in the completion of the Fund, first, in receiving with all possible generosity those who are appealing for special gifts, and, second, in helping actively to secure subscriptions from others whenever such a request is made by any one of the Chairmen. On Hospital Day, May 12, 1949, we hope to celebrate the completion of the Fund with its assurance that the present stringency in our hospital facilities will then have speedy relief.

WEEK-END FIRES

The Fire Department had only two calls over the past week-end, the first at 12:03 Saturday afternoon. At that time an excited youth burst into the Central Station, announcing that his brother's car was afire on Shore road. The firemen found the trouble was caused by a short circuit in the wiring. Only slight damage was done the machine, a Plymouth sedan, owned by Frank Griswold of 166 Swanton street.

Sunday afternoon at 5:48 the department was called to the home of Mr. William H. Burtt, 40 Eaton street, where a fire was reported in an oil burning range. A flooded burner was found to be the cause of the trouble and quickly reported.

"I DIDN'T SEE THE SIGN!"

Police report that some of the parking around the high school during last Friday evening's show was among the wierdest they have seen. The peak performance was that of a visitor from a military school who parked his car on the lawn of a house on Francis Circuit. The police put in a busy time of it tagging offenders and quite a select little group brought their tickets to Headquarters after the show. Some of the more flagrant violators had the doubtful pleasure of telling it to the judge at Woburn.

SURPRISE, SURPRISE!

Mr. Ellis Locke of 132 Ridge street had an unpleasant surprise last Sunday forenoon when a rifle bullet struck and broke a window in the dining room of his home. He reported the matter to the police, and Officer Alfred Poole, who was sent to investigate, found the damage had been done by a .22 calibre slug, evidently fired from some distance.

Officer Poole scoured the woods in the vicinity of the Locke home but was unable to find any one.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLean with Mr. McLean's father, Mr. John McLean, left Tuesday to spend the winter in Clearwater, Florida.

ENCORE HISTORY!

It just seems that History can not help being made these brisk autumn days on the wind-swept shores of Wedge Pond where are played those spine-tingling matches of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association.

You take the last two weeks, no three weeks! First the Secretary is returned a winner, without losa match! You'd surely think THAT would be enough for ONE season. The Secretary a winner under any circumstances is enough to warrant issuing an EXTRA, but that isn't all. The week-end after the Scribe's unprecedented triumph, Mr. Teele ascended the title-holder's throne. The way the champion of the Boston and New England Paper Trade has been going this fall no one would ever expect him to be returned a winner, and especially with "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset among the opposition. Mr. Teele has long been trying to give Mr. McLaughlin "the works", but without much of any success, so when the week following the Scribe's elevation the President and Mr. Gardner won two straight from Mr. McLaughlin and Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham, the famous Lake Street Lancers, that seemed surely to be it! History wouldn't repeat itself like that again!

And yet, it did! For two weeks ago Mr. Teele again gave Mr. McLaughlin "the business", to such an extent that the Pride of Stow and Champion of all Nabnasset, (but not of Tyngsboro) didn't show up at all last week-end. Nor could we find it in our heart to blame him too much. Losing twice in a row to Mr. Teele was for a pitcher of Mr. McLaughlin's stature a bitter pill to swallow. "Deflocuation" just about sums it all up, if we may borrow a phrase from the Gaelic, originally supplied by the erudite Mr. Luke Glendon.

When Mr. McLaughlin failed to show up for last week-end's regular matches, it was felt that History was at last surfeited and wanted no more epochal events to record.

If you can stand it, however, and even if you can't, more history was actually made last week-end, and what history!

It has long been a trueism at Palmer Street that the President and the Secretary could not win together the reason being that each needed a pair of partner's shoulders on which to ride to victory.

That is where the history-making comes in! For be it known, last week-end Mr. Teele and the lowly Scribe, not only won together, but actually handed out "the works" TWO STRAIGHT to no less potent a combination than Mr. Pridham and Herbert "Garrulous" Gardner, one of Palmer Street's top-flight men, if not conversationalists.

The first of the two-game victories was won by the Association's officers by the staggering score of 25-5, Mr. Teele kicking in with successive double-headers late in the game to so confound Mr. Gardner and Mr. Pridham that they blew wide open.

The second game was a horse of another color. Mr. Gardner and the Secretary battled on even terms to a 17-17 counting, without either Mr. Teele or Mr. Pridham contributing a point to either total.

Pressed for an opinion, Mr. Teele admitted that his own showing was "dreadful", and then proceede to come nobly to the aid of his party, to the end that his side won out 25-19.

The President was very happy. He assured the boys that his soup would NOT be sour and that when he got back from Wells River he would be in to see them. His best pitching of the morning was when split an all but perfect bridge with his only ringer of the series to give himself and Mr. Gardner the deciding game of their match with the Scribe and Mr. Pridham. The Secretary and Mr. Gardner won the other match in odd games.

CHRISTMAS CHORAL CONCERT

The combined choirs of the First Baptist Church of Medford will present on Sunday evening, December 12th at 7:00 p. m. the beautiful "Christmas Oratorio" by Camille Saint-Saens. Mrs. Helen Bedford, harpist will assist in the presentation of this great work, which will be under the direction of Dr. Arthur J. Watzinger, the organist and Minister of Music in this church. Soloists will include Mrs. Elaine Wynne, soprano; Miss Charlotte Furbish, mezzo-soprano; Miss B. Jean Wyse, contralto; Mr. Audraye Jackson, tenor; and Mr. John Hardy, baritone. One and all are invited to participate in this musical treat.

VISITED WINCHESTER FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving Plitt of Westport, Conn., former well known residents, were in Winchester over the week-end. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Kuypers of Fletcher street. During their visit Mr. and Mrs. Plitt were entertained at the Country Club and by several groups of Winchester friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hevey left yesterday for Hollywood, Florida, where they will remain until next May.

KIRWAN LEADS PENN CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Winchester's Tom Kirwan, former Massachusetts State half-mile and cross country champion, was recently elected captain of the University of Pennsylvania cross country team for next year.

Kirwan, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Kirwan of Glen road, completed this past season with the Red and Blue hill and dale squad with an excellent record, placing first in all of Penn's dual meets and finishing fifth in the big Ivy College Meet. In the Ivy meet he beat Penn's ace cross country star and Nonagenal indoor two-mile champ.

Tom's best individual performance was against Westchester Teachers, a team unbeaten for the past three years. In this meet Kirwan not only led the pack home but broke the course record, running the four miles in 20 minutes and 40 seconds.

Kirwan, and architect major, has more years at Penn, that being a five year course. Next year, however, will be his last atheltically, and if his studies do not unduly interfere he is expected to have a great season.

Winchester people leaving next week for Florida include Mr. and Mrs. John F. Fitzgerald of Canal street. They plan to spend the winter in Miami.

ALL SPORTS BANQUET

Amico New Football Captain, Mansfield, Wheeler Cups to Dillingham and Aitkens

Over two hundred members of Winchester High School Athletic Teams with their coaches, guests and members of the band, attended the annual All Sports Banquet last Saturday evening at the high school gymnasium. A chicken pie supper was catered by Emil Beauchamp. Guests included Chairman Hazen Ayer of the School Committee and Mrs. Ayer, Superintendent of Schools, Forbes Norris and Mrs. Norris, High School Principal and Mrs. Wade L. Grindle, Faculty Manager G. Hartley Curtis and Mrs. Curtis, former Faculty Manager and Mrs. Ray V. Hayward, members of the football transportation committee, a group of men who drive the football team to out-of-town games; the wives of the coaches, Trainer Lou Goddu, local newspaper men and Sammy Bellino, last year's football captain and Mansfield Cup winner.

President Jim Quine of the School Athletic Association acted as toastmaster for the after-dinner program, and those who responded to toasts were Dr. Norris and Mr. Ayer. Letters and certificates were awarded their squads by the various coaches, including Tom Morse, cross country; Helen Jay Carroll, field hockey; Carl Reed, freshman football; Ted Bartlett, junior varsity football and Henry Knowlton, varsity football.

Capt. Tom McGowan presented the cross country squad's gift to Coach Morse and announced co-captains for next season, Fisher Wolfe and Kenny Blake. Captain Dottie Kelley presented Coach Carroll with the hockey squad's gift, but no field hockey captain has been elected for next year as yet. "Dicky" Errico, freshman captain, presented the freshmen's gift to Coach Reed, and Varsity Captain Vern Slack presented Coach Knowlton with the varsity squad's gift.

Slack also made the eagerly-awaited announcement that Paul Amico, regular fullback for the past two seasons, will captain next year's football team.

Coach Carroll presented emblems to the varsity cheer-leaders, and Nancy O'Rourke head cheer-leader this year, announced next year's head cheer-leader as Joan Wolsey. Joan's kid sister, Sandra, tiny mascotte of the cheer-leading squad this year, got a laugh when she gave a solo "Yea Joan" cheer for the new leader.

Coach Knowlton expressed his personal thanks to the members of the transportation committee, to his assistants, to Team Doctor William D. Barone, M. D., and to Trainer Lou Goddu. All were warmly applauded, but the ovation given the popular and very capable trainer, Lou Goddu, literally raised the roof, as football and track men stood and yelled their appreciation of one whose devotion to their welfare has meant so much to high school athletics, in recent years.

Coach Knowlton announced that "Eddie" Connolly, prevented from playing football this year and from winning his letter last year because of a bad knee injury, had been awarded his letter for his interest and assistance in coaching this year's freshman squad.

Principal Grindle awarded the coveted Mansfield and Wheeler Sportsmanship Cups, presented by a former Winchester High School Athletic Director, Wendell Mansfield and his wife, the then, Priscilla Wheeler, director of Physical Education and Coach of Girls at Winchester High. This year's winners are Peter Dillingham and Lynn Aitkens, worthy choices in every way.

Mr. Grindle paid tribute to former Faculty Manager Ray Hayward, for his pioneering and many years of faithful service in this exacting position and called on Mr. Hayward to take a bow. He also introduced "Sammy" Bellino as one of Winchester's greatest football players.

After the speaking Coach Knowlton showed movies of the Winchester-Woburn football game and "Football Highlights of 1947."

Coaches Knowlton and Carroll and Faculty Manager Curtis were assisted with arrangements for the banquet by Jim Quine, Bob Abrahamson, Fred Walsh, Ted Cole, Pete Dillingham, Marjorie Carroll, Lynn Aitkens, Nancy O'Rourke and Dorothy Buracker.

CUSACK WINS VARSITY LETTER

William C. Cusack of Lakeview road, a sophomore at Hobart, has been awarded his varsity letter for football. Cusack, a bulwark in the Statesmen line during the past season, played during his prep school days at Choate School. Cusack cracked into the starting line up for the second game of the Statesmen's 8 game schedule this year, and he stayed on as a virtual iron man. He played in all but three of the 32 quarters played this year. On three occasions he played longer than 58 minutes. Cusack the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cusack of 2 Lakeview road, is regarded as one of the brighter prospects for the 1949 grid campaign.

Miss Marion O'Donnell of 316 Washington street is a member of the Bowling League, recently organized among the students in the Burdett College Evening School of Accounting, Boston.

OUR 24TH YEAR IN WINCHESTER

In April, 1925, we opened for business as authorized dealer of Ford Motor Co. in Winchester. During these years the people of Winchester have supported our agency very well and we are grateful for your business. We have endeavored to merit this patronage and to give you full value for your dollars.

In looking back through the years we remember many periods of stress such as the depression days, bank holiday, model changes (in which we received no new cars in several months), the war years when production stopped in February, 1942 and was not resumed until July, 1945. We have seen both extremes on new car production, both a surplus and shortage of new cars. Certainly the last years have been the most difficult. It has been impossible to fill the orders of our customers, we have lost some deliveries to customers who have been on our books for years and those are the ones that really hurt.

We have delivered our cars as equitably as we could, we have not forced the sale of unwanted accessories and we have not insisted on a used car trade-in and we have not made unfair profits on the used car trade-in. We believe that this was the best policy and we want your continued good will.

Your good will and patronage in the past and our faith in the future, plus our confidence in the Ford Motor Company and its products, have prompted us to add a very substantial addition to our building this year. We hope to have this addition ready for business very soon and when ready will make available a complete service station with full equipment to meet every requirement of your car. (More about this later).

OPEN HOUSE

Hostess in Auto Crash Preceeding Event

Miss Roberta Veitch, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Veitch of 55 Wedgemere avenue, and a sophomore at Larson College, held open house for a party of classmates and friends on the night before the Harvard-Yale football game.

Miss Veitch's guests included Miss Jeanne Thorsley of Washington, Miss Mary Lou Perri, former suitemate at Virginia Park, Va., Miss Ann Walfield of New Jersey, Miss Marion Drummond of Long Island, N. Y., and six Yale students.

For a time it appeared that Miss Veitch would miss her own party. Riding up to Boston on the Connecticut Highway at the peak of the storm, a speeding car ran into the rear end of the machine in which she and friends were riding, badly damaging the car and putting out all the lights. Fortunately the car in which Miss Veitch was riding was a big heavy machine and its occupants, though thrown about by the force of the collision received only bumps and a shaking-up.

Virginia Lovejoy of 40 Foxcroft road, is one of thirty-one Duke University women who have been accepted for the Nurse's Aide program at Duke Hospital. Miss Lovejoy expects to graduate from Duke University in 1950 with a major in psychology.

PFC. MICHAEL S. GILLOTTE

BODY OF WINCHESTER SOLDIER ARRIVED TUESDAY

The body of Pfc. Michael S. Gillotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Gillotte of 12 Cedar street, another of Winchester's hero dead arrived in Winchester Tuesday, December 7, after completing its long journey from Germany where it was buried at the time of the young soldier's untimely death June 11, 1945.

The flag-draped casket was taken from the 4:36 p. m. train at Winchester Station by Undertaker John Lane of Lane's Funeral Service. Uniformed representatives of Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, and Aberjona Post, 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met the body and escorted it to the home of the young soldier's parents, where it lay in state until the funeral Thursday morning. Flags on the common and public buildings were displayed at half-staff, and the Colors of the two veterans' organizations were posted at the Gillotte home while the young soldier rested there.

Full military honors were accorded at the funeral which took place from the Gillotte home with solemn requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church.

Rev. Fr. Francis O'Neil was celebrant with Rev. Fr. John O'Neil, deacon; and Rev. Fr. Thomas Sennott, subdeacon. The Colors of the town veterans' organizations were posted at the church and a uniformed escort accompanied the casket. Bearers, all uniformed friends of the young soldier, were Cosimo D. Siminetta, Gerald Palumbo, Michael J. Saraco, Dominick Jacobellis, Joseph Tofuri and Benjamin Todesca, all of Winchester.

Interment was in Calvary Cemetery where the committal prayers were read by St. Mary's pastor, Rev. John P. O'Riordan. Three volleys were fired by a firing squad from Fort Banks and echo taps were blown by Elliott Hersey and David Shiverick, trumpeters in the Winchester High School band. The flag from the casket was removed and presented to Pfc. Gillotte's mother by Pfc. Edward J. Myers of Niagara Falls, N. Y., a member of the United States Army Escort Service, who accompanied the young soldier's body to Winchester.

Pfc. Gillotte was accidentally shot and killed by a buddy with whom he was talking at Headquarters of the 168th Chemical Smoke Generator Company in Reutti, Germany. The Winchester boy was on duty as a switchboard operator, and his pal, who was an armed guard, was removing the clip from his carbine when the gun was accidentally discharged, a bullet penetrating Pfc. Gillotte's body and causing almost instantaneous death.

Funeral services were held in Reutti and interment was in the temporary United States Military Cemetery there. A pro-burial mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Church July 25, 1945.

Pfc. Gillotte was born in Winchester April 14, 1922, son of Dominick and Josephine (Gotazi) Gillotte. He attended the Winter schools and Winchester High School, and before enlisting was employed as a delivery man by Russo's, Cleansers & Dyers, of Washington street.

He entered service in January, 1942, and went overseas in March of 1944, taking part in the invasion of France on D-Day and being wounded in action in July, 1944. He was awarded the Purple Heart Medal and Citation at that time.

Besides his parents, Pfc. Gillotte leaves three sisters, Mrs. Anthony Manie of Woburn, Mrs. Salvatore Puma and Mrs. Frank Ehrgott, both of Winchester; and a brother, Anthony G. Gillotte of this town.

Andrew Ellis Heneberger, retired Boston newspaperman and former resident of Winchester, died Tuesday, Dec. 7, of a heart attack, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Francis S. Miller, in Harrisonburg, Va. He had been living in Harrisonburg for the past year, but previously had made his home for many years in Winchester on Myrtle terrace, being widely known here.

A native of Harrisonburg, Mr. Heneberger was educated at Locust Dale Academy, Hampden-Sydney College and at the University of Virginia. He commenced his newspaper career on the Baltimore Sun where he and H. L. Mencken were young reporters together. Later he was with Boston newspapers for 30 years, working on the Boston Advertiser, the Boston Herald, and at the time of his retirement in October, 1947, on the copy desk of the Boston Traveler.

Mr. Heneberger was twice married. His first wife, Miss Emma Bailey of Baltimore, died in 1914. His second wife, Miss Polly Stockbridge of Winchester, died in 1945.

He leaves a son and two daughters, by his first marriage, Capt. Harry Bailey Heneberger, U.S.N., of Newport, R. I., Mrs. Lucy B. Hiers of Great Neck, L. I., and Mrs. Miller. WINCHESTER ASSESSOR BADLY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Alfred D. Elliott of 5 Chesterford road, widely known building contractor and member of the Board of Assessors, was badly injured Tuesday afternoon shortly after 2:30 when the Plymouth sedan he was driving north on upper Main street crashed head-on into a White truck, owned by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company and in charge of Joseph F. McConnell of 69 Oxford street, Somerville.

According to the police the White truck was stopped facing south on the left side of the road near the old Hutchinson plant at 1021 Main street, pulling cables between manholes.

Both machines were damaged, that of Mr. Elliott being badly smashed about the front end, the bumper bent into a V, the radiator, fan and motor being pushed back and the steering-gear broken. It was towed to the Winchester Garage.

Sgt. Thomas F. Cassidy and Patrolman John Reardon went to the scene of the accident in the police ambulance, being joined there by Chief Charles J. Harrold. Mr. Elliott seemed badly injured, bleeding from multiple cuts and abrasions about the face and having a badly injured right ankle.

With the assistance of by-standers the police succeeded in removing him from his wrecked machine, it being necessary to remove the seat of the car to do so.

This done, Officer Reardon and Superintendent Herbert S. Mullen of the Park Department drove Mr. Elliott to the Winchester Hospital where he was attended by Dr. Phillip J. McManus and other doctors. Chief Harrold followed the ambulance to the hospital in his car.

Meanwhile police were trying to determine the cause of the accident. Mr. Elliott is both a careful and experienced driver as well as a man of exemplary habits. It is believed that some suddenly experienced ill turn caused him to lose control of his machine.

FIRE AT FORMER TUTEIN HOUSE

Two Alarms Brought Arlington and Woburn Apparatus

Sparks from a chimney are blamed for the two-alarm fire which did relatively little damage to the former Tutein house at 53 Wildwood street Tuesday evening. The house is now occupied by Dr. Clark Staples.

The Central Fire Station was notified by phone shortly after 7 o'clock that the roof of the house was on fire. An alarm from Box-541 was put on at the Station, and about 10 minutes later Captain Ray Hanscom, who arrived with the first apparatus, ordered a second alarm.

A small area about six by three feet was burned through the roof into a blind attic, but the firemen made an excellent stop, confining the fire to that spot. There was also very little water and smoke damage done.

The firemen had two lines of hose on the fire, laying more than 900 feet from the hydrant in front of the house and from Woodside road. Three hundred feet of booster hose were used, as well as the department's new lighting system, which proved a big help in fighting the fire.

Apparatus from both Woburn and Arlington responded on the mutual aid system at the second alarm, and there was a big crowd on hand watching the firemen. Officers Archie O'Connell, James Noonan, John Elliott and John Murray handled traffic at the fire.

The ladder truck was held up for several minutes on the way to the fire by a train passing on the grade crossing in the center.

ART ASSOCIATION IN BICKNELL TRIBUTE

A warmly appreciative audience of Art Association members, artists, and friends who had known William H. Warren Bicknell gathered in the Gallery of the Winchester Public Library Tuesday evening at the association's special December meeting in tribute to Mr. Bicknell, one of the Association's founders. Mr. Otis Philbrick was the speaker of the evening, and the gallery was hung with over 64 exquisite etchings and dry-points in Mr. Bicknell. A coffee table, with its centerpiece of crimson roses in a copper bowl, at which Mrs. William E. Schrafft presided, added to the pleasure of the social hour following th meeting, at which time members and guests had an opportunity to study the etchings on the walls, all of which are for sale.

Mr. Philbrick was a distinguished, informative, and witty speaker, the last of the Association's founders, and a warm friend of the late Mrs. Bicknell. If the audience had looked forward to hearing mundane stories of I knew him when"—and "I remember the time"—they heard quite different stories from Mr. Philbrick. Rather than touching on the foibles of the great etcher, he told of the man's work. In every sentence, it was evident that Mr. Philbrick had great reverence for the work of Bicknell, the artist, and a great understanding and affection for Bicknell, the man who enjoyed playing his huge 'cello and who was noted in his life time for his unconventional acts.

To help those in the audience who were seeing the Bicknell etchings for perhaps the first time, Mr. Philbrick explained the difference between etching and dry-point, the former being a process of drawing the lines on wax on the copper plate, and letting acid eat out the design. Dry point is the process of scratching by hand the lines (in reverse on the copper plate—a higher form of the copper plate art, and one which takes highest precision in drawing. In both fields, Bicknell was a successful artist and teacher.

"Mr. Bicknell started etching when it was still a secret process," the speaker stated. "That was at the turn of the century—Bicknell was then 45. Then, anyone who wanted to study etching tried to study with him. His early work had to do with large reproductions of oil paintings, and he reproduced them with the etching needle. He made many etchings of famous men—his etchings were used as frontespieces in books. Many a school child has grown up with a Bicknell plate a familiar sight in his living room wall and in his school books!"

In Peterson's book press in Cambridge, Mr. Philbrick found a huge etching which Bicknell made for the Elks, and which is still being printed today. He brought a copy to the meeting. Old Harper's magazines carry his plates.

Bicknell the Artist

"There is a great discrepance between Bicknell's art and his character," the speaker went on, explaining that as an esthetic and sensctive artist. Bicknell often put on a facade of hilarity and gusto to hide his real thoughts. "The work on these walls shows a fine sense of order—even as Bicknells's own life showed a disregard of order. Bicknell, the man, was the last of the real Bohemians, a most unconventional person."

In trying to answer the question "how good an artist was Bicknell," Mr. Philbrick ordered the audience to find its own method of comparison, and make its own study. He told of going back into old Boston Transcript files for art reviews on Bicknell's work by the famed Mr. Downs. In Nov. 1917, he (Bicknell) was 47 years old, and had exhibited at Doll and Richards. Downs, a learned and not often lenient critic, called "Bicknell's collection of 22 dry points and etchings a most comprehensive skill....notable plates....remarkable winter landscapes....inciseive and personal touch....never over-elaborates....real craftsmanship."

Small wonder, Philbrick adds, that Mr. Bicknell was so pleased at this tribute. And as the kindly speaker concluded his talk of the evening, each person in the audience took another good look at the etchings around him, and agreed with the still important words of the late Mr. Downs!

WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

As an illustration of its study of its own neighborhood, the first grade of the Washington School is making a mural which will include the house of each child in the class.

The combined first and second grades are designing a Christmas mural. As a part of its English work the class is writing letters to Santa Claus.

A Red Cross assembly program planned by the second grade has been postponed due to an outbreak of chicken pox among the pupils. The remaining students are painting a mural for Christmas, which will be used in the program.

The third grade is assembling a table model of a village in the snow as a Yuletide decoration for their class room.

For its holiday contribution grade six is making a mural depicting the Nativity Scene.

To mention a few - "Ski with Sverre; Deep Snow and Packed Slope Ski Technique"; "Swing Into Skiing", which includes fine illustrations; "The Complete Ski Manual"; "Skiing the Americas"; and "Sun, Snow, and Skis. While nothing will take the place of actual experience on skis, it will certainly repay you to read some books on one of the most popular of American sports.

FOOTBALL MOVIE NIGHT MONDAY

Athletic Director Henry T. Knowlton will hold his annual football movie night in the Winchester High School Auditorium Monday evening, Dec. 13, at 8 o'clock. Motion pictures of this year's W. H. S. football game, including the final game with Woburn, will be shown.

A year ago these fooball movies proved very popular, and many fans who saw the re-caps of the games had to revise opinions made of various plays and players at the original contests. It is surprising how much you don't see at a football game.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend next Monday's movies. Children under high school age must be accompanied by adults. No admission.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

The Winchester School Committee held its regular meeting in the Administration Building last Monday evening. Action was taken on routine matters.

As a result of considerable discussion during recent meetings, a revised copy of the Rules and Regulations was given each member of the Committee for examination.

Mr. Paul L. Hanlon was elected Hockey Coach for this season, Mr. Hanlon, a former Boston University player, has met the hockey squad and outlined training procedures.

Reports from Dr. William Barone and Dr. Fredrika Moore were read. Dr. Moore testified to the fine physical condition of Junior and Senior High School girls. In her report Dr. Moore indicated the improvement in physical condition in 1948 over that in 1939 and 1925, the per cent of those with minor and major defects having been reduced by one-half.

Dr. Moore also points out that minor defects, consisting only of trifling deviations from normal, have not been corrected so faithfully as have the major defects and concludes that the fewer the defects the harder to bring about interest in correcting them.

Dr. Barone reported on the procedures governing the treatment of athletes and stressed the careful check by trainer, coach, and medical director before an injured athlete is allowed to practice or to take part in games.

A subsequent report from Dr. Barone told of physical examinations in the Lincoln School, where 42 parents were present at examinations of their children. Sixty-one children were treated at the Dental Clinic in October.

Dr. Moore also reported that practically all children who have come up through the public schools are having dental care, the exceptions being forced to postpone dental care because of the financial problem involved.

Copies of a tentative budget for 1949 were given to the Committee for further study.

It was decided to have a special meeting on December 14, at which time consideration might be given pending items and further consideration might be given the 1949 Budget.

YOUR CHRISTMAS STOCKING PROBLEM SOLVED

Looking for small gifts to fill the children's stockings? Here's a novel suggestion that should be a real surprise on Christmas morning — a ticket to "Carnival", the professional marionette show being presented Saturday, January 15, 1949 at 2:00 p. m. in the High School auditorium.

Dorothy Rankin's delighthful Little Theatre Marionettes are being brought to Winchester by the Tuesday Luncheon Group of the Epiphany Church. Mrs. John I. Lynch and Mrs. Thomas H. Howe, assisted by Mrs. Albert C. Buffum, Mrs. Hollis A. Dyer, Mrs. Maxwell Fish, Mrs. Paul Lamb, and Mrs. Alan A. Smith, have chosen a program which should appeal to parents and children alike. The proceeds from the performance will be used for the benefit of needy children. For information and tickets call Mrs. Lynch (WInchester 6-2675) or Mrs. Smith (WInchester 6-2243-J).

Members of the Harvard Club of Eastern Middlesex gathered for dinner last Monday evening at the Bear Hill Country Club, Stoneham, and enjoyed what was conceded to be the best meeting in recent years. John I. Donovan of Winchester, president of the club, served as chairman during the evening.

PAUL AMICO

FULLBACK TO LEAD HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM

At a recent meeting of the football letter players Paul Amico, regular fullback for the past two seasons, was elected to captain next year's eleven. He and end Mario Mascioli are the only regulars returning from this year's starting lineup.

Two years ago a squat, sturdy freshman with curly hair and stout legs reported for football at high school with the other first year men. He showed promise, particularly as a kicker, and occasionally found his way into the varsity lineup as a plebe, though his chances were few because a burly 200 pounder named John West chanced to be fullbacking and captaining the club which incidentally was shooting for a State Championship in its class. West was strictly a four period performer and the key player in the local offense, perhaps the best fullback the high school ever had. It's not surprising that a freshman, even a promising freshman, didn't get to play too much behind big Jawn!

So Amico had to wait until his sophomore year before he got his chance as a regular, but he has been one since early fall of his second year, running inside two years ago while the great Sammy Bellino ran outside and about everywhere else.

This past year "Paulie", like West before him, has been the key back in Winchester's offense. This was rather clearly demonstrated when he left the Woburn game with a side injury early in the second half. With his departure the local offense slowed down to a walk, despite the efforts of Dillingham and Myers, both good outside runners. It has been the threat of Amico's running up the middle and his faking that enabled "Dill" and "Lally" to gain a lot of their yardage.

Amico hit his peak in the Framingham game, when he really played great ball. He did some effective bucking at Belmont and was Winchester's best back at Woburn during the first half. On defense he backs up the line and is generally a dependable performer. He doesn't always block as well as he might, and he has been prone to injury. As a spinner and faker and a kicker he ranks high in the high school ranks. Big John Gorczynski, Winchester's new line coach this season, rates him as good a spinner as he has seen as a schoolboy.

Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Amico of 336 Cross street. He is a good student, and generally popular with his classmates and the student body. His older brother, Angelo, "Scratch", was a back and a good pitcher while in high school.

HANLON HOCKEY COACH

Paul Hanlon, a former Winchester boy and ex-Boston University player, has been secured to coach the Winchester High School hockey team this coming season.

Hanlon, whose father, Dan Hanlon of Cambridge, is an old Winchester boy, was born in Winchester, living for a time on Garfield avenue. He is a cousin of John "Steamer" Hanlon, former Winchester High and New Hampshire University football star.

The new coach was introduced to 50 candidates for the team by Athletic Director Henry Knowlton on Monday. He comes to his new job highly recommended by Coach Harry Cleverly of B. U. Before going to B. U., he played for Cambridge Latin. He is a G.I., is married and lives in Boston.

"Wimpy" Burtnett is captain of this year's high school team and there are some ten or eleven letter players available as a nucleus. With the new rink on Manchester Field available hockey should really go this year!

Miss Elizabeth Moses, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Sanford H. Moses, 8 Prospect street, is in charge of the decoration arrangements for the annual Christmas Supper to be given Tuesday evening, December 14, at Agassiz House, Radcliffe. A festive holiday dinner will be followed with carol singing and special Yuletide entertainment. Miss Moses, in her sophomore year at Radcliffe College, attended the Winchester High School.

ARE WE REMEMBERING PEARL HARBOR?

Editor of the Star:

On December 5th, the writer again had the pleasure of being on a panel presented by WBZ in one of the "Open for Discussion" programs. The subject was "Are We Remembering Pearl Harbor" and the speakers were Major General Frank A. Keating, Commanding General First Service Command; rear Admiral Morton L. Deyo, Commandant First Naval District; Col. Milton H. Ashkins Director of Air Defense, First Air Force, Ft. Slocum, N. Y.; Corp. Jos. L. Mitchell, Station Commander of the Medford Recruiting Station; and the writer, Moderator Dr. Wentworth Williams, Vice President of the University of Massachusetts at Fort Devens.

These speakers brought important messages to the civilian public and Chick Morris, Director of Special Events at WBZ is certainly contributing to National Defense by putting on a yearly "Pearl Harbor" program. Judging from reports to the participants, there is a large audience to these programs.

General Keating raised the important point of "interpretation of adequacy" in relation to a defensive force and said "We have fought in seven major wars during our national existence and on an average of one every 24 years, and not once were we adequately prepared." The General then explained that today adequacy means our strength in comparison to the strength of other nations which plan to enforce their will upon us. During the broadcast, time did not permit General Keating to answer a second question the writer wished to ask about present opportunities of the Army to put into practice theories developed at the War College. His answer is as follows: - "A constant stream of studies on innumerable subjects, directly in indirectly associated with preparedness, have emanated from the College over a period of years. Some have been put to good use, others are so highly controversial that they shall probably remain in that catagory forever. The theory of greatest importance, and the one least understood by our people is that of Universal Military Training. After having struggled with the enigma of voluntary recruitment and the attending results for over 30 years, I emphatically say that it is not the solution to our national security. Something comparable to Universal Military Training is mandatory. That which impresses me more than anything else is the waste in precious lives due to inadequate time to properly train drafted men after the declaration of war. A careful study of history almost impells me to say that war is inevitable. The facts speak for themselves. We should, therefore, include the best features of military life in periodic sessions of our civilian life."

Admiral Deyo pointed out that the Naval Reserve has now passed the 1,000,000 mark; that while we have fewer combat ships today than at the time of Pearl Harbor, greater efficiency has been obtained by developing special types to do special jobs; furthermore, we have over 2,000 ships in our Reserve Fleet. Referring to the recent Economic Mobilization course held for service personnel and leading industrialists at Harvard University, Admiral Deyo said "At this course, more than 100 leading civilian business men from New England joined with 100 reserve officers of the three armed services to study a working plan for filling the economic requirements of the armed forces in the event of hostilities. At that course the statement was made that in the last war American industry was never mobilized more than 75%. And industrial manpower mobilization did not exceed more than 60%. I believe that both industry and the armed services are aware of many mistakes in the past . . . This 2-week course, which is being duplicated in other leading cities throughout the country, illustrates our joint determination to avoid such mistakes in the future."

We were glad to welcome the Air Force to the panel. Speaking on Air Defense, Col. Ashkins said "Military planners are committed generally to the realistic assumption that the next war will probably be prefaced with another Pearl Harbor attempt at surprise. Air Defense planning is necessarily based on this realistic assumption, in spite of the hope that our Central Intelligence Agency may be able to furnish a definite long range warning of enemy intentions. Any such warning must always be supported by early warning electronics which in turn is a part of an integrated air defense system equipped with the best available devices for actual defense operations. No amount of long range intelligence - whatever its quality - can justify not having an adequate integrated air defense system . . . When we remember Pearl Harbor, and we of all the Armed Services can never forget, and couple with that remembrance our knowledge of the awful capabilities represented in newer aircraft and weapons, we cannot take lightly the trust and responsibility we have, and we cannot fail to insure that we use efficiently every air defense weapon available to us in the prevention of another Pearl Harbor."

Our Pearl Harbor veteran, Corp. Mitchell, spoke on "how we are remembering Pearl Harbor" - the various Army and Air Force programs all aimed at keeping America strong, and demonstrating the spirit of the veterans in the services said "There's no time for relaxation or back sliding, our aim is to be always for any job we're called upon to do. An interesting survey was recently conducted among the Air Force enlisted men and women. Out of more than 200,000 people questioned, more than half of them said that they would probably reenlist. 20% were undecided, and the rest, about one out of every four, were doubtful. The men and women who have chosen to stay in the Air Force have conclusively shown that they believe Air Power is Peace Power."

The writer spoke on the work of the Military Manpower Committees, not forgetting to publicly thank the Winchester Star for its valuable contribution of which all present were very much aware.

This broadcast was another example of democracy in action. In how many countries would you find a broadcasting station allowed to make it's facilities free for this sort of panel? And in how many countries would you find a corporal and a civilian sitting in free discussion with a General, an Admiral and a Colonel? Only in America, my friends, only in America. Be sure we keep it this way.

Very truly yours,
Gladys N. Toye, Chairman,
Winchester Military Manpower Committee.

GRADE CROSSING POPS UP

Editor of the Star:

As you are in touch with all conditions in Winchester I wish you could ascertain how the elimination of the grade crossing is progressing.

On Tuesday night in answering a fire alarm the department was held up about three minutes while a train went over the crossing. These three minutes might have meant the difference between life and death if anyone had been trapped in the upper part of the house. We should all get behind this very serious matter as it affects all our townspeople.

Following are a few facts that were gathered in 1946 when it seemed that we might have some relief from the very bad condition then existing. From a count made about 18,000 vehicles went through the square every 24 hours. There were over 100 regular scheduled trains going through the square every 24 hours. The gates were down 3 hours in each 24. Conditions have grown worse since that count was made. There are now at least 20,000 vehicles passing through the square every 24 hours. More trains are constantly passing which, of course, keeps the gates down longer periods.

In 1946 we were told that money was available for the crossing elimination but politics beat us to it. There was a change made in the Director of the State Public Works Department. A new man was appointed who at that time was a newcomer to Winchester. I understand that he felt very bashful in pushing Winchester's case, and the whole matter was held up on that account. At present there is some very severe criticism of the State Public Works Department being made by one of the daily papers. I understand that the Public Works Department of Massachusetts is considered one of the poorest operated departments in the United States. I hope I am wrong in regard to this statement.

Any information regarding the abolition of the grade crossing that you can dig up and give the citizens of the town certainy will be appreciated. Thank you.

Ed Sanderson.

MEN'S JEWELRY FAVORED CHRISTMAS ITEM, SAYS BILLAUER'S

Did you know that the wearing of jewelry was for many centuries, the perogative of the male? The wearing of diamonds, in fact, we hear from Billauer's, was actually restricted to men, and the first woman who dared to wear a diamond, Agnes Sorel, did so at the risk if not of her life, at least of her social position. Pioneer Agnes had a necklace made of a diamond collection belonging to the men of her family; her appearance at the court of Charles VII wearing her new possession was the scandal of the era and is recorded as the first instance of female ownership of this most precious jewelry. Billauer's is not advocating a return to the fifteenth Century for since that time jewelry has rightly become the most cherished of feminine adornments. They do feel nostalgic however, over indications that this Christmas' giving will bring men's jewelry nearer to its place of prominence in the past.

Most important manifestation of the trend toward more jewelry for men. Mr. Billauer says, is the popularity of men's wedding rings, even the diamond set variety. Another interesting development is the increased demand for emblem jewelry. Men in service during the war enjoyed outward identification with a special group and this interest has been transferred to the pins and rings of civilian organizations.

CHRISTMAS FILM AT BAPTIST CHURCH

A special Christmas sound film, entitled "The Child of Bethlehem," presenting selected incidents from the story of the birth of Jesus and of his boyhood, as recorded in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, will be shown in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church, Sunday evening, December 12th, at 7 o'clock. The showing of this unusual film is sponsored by the Youth Fellowship of the Church, and a cordial invitation is extended to the townspeople to share in this rare privilege.

MYSTIC SCHOOL WINS QUIZDOWN

By a score of 775 - 700, Mystic School won a Quizdown sponsored by the Boston Globe and Station WCOP last Saturday morning, at the high school defeating the Lincoln school entries.

To signify their winning, the Mystic school will receive a 19-volume set of World Book Encyclopedia. Lincoln school will receive a large, framed Rand-McNally Map of the United States as a consolation prize. Each contestant was presented with a fountain pen.

During a brief intermission, Winchester's Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Forbes H. Norris told the contestants and the youthful audience, "You are all winners. Everybody participating in this program is gaining worthwhile experience and taking advantage of an interesting opportunity to learn by doing."

Representing Mystic school were Walter Abbott, Cynthia Dennett, Myra Coon, Charlotte Nutter, John Nichols, and Charles Stevens. Lincoln school contestants were Howard Ambrose, Albert Lynch, Lawrence Post, David Lindsey, Ruth Flaherty, and David Bartlett.

Judges were Miss Phyllis Roberts and Mr. Roland Nault from the Washington school and Dr. Norris.

The broadcast of the transcribed program over WCOP at seven Saturday evening was clearly heard in Winchester, and even brief interruption caused by "transmitting difficulties" didn't allow interested citizens to drift away from their radios. Probably the response to the question, "Who wrote the 'Star Spangled Banner'?" caused a moisture in the eye as one of the contestants countered with, "Do you mean the words or the music? Francis Scott Key wrote the words."

THE FORTNIGHTLY

The Christmas Meeting of The Fortnightly will be held at 2 o'clock next Monday, December 13th, at Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Theodore P. Messer, Chairman of Music, will present Edith Marshall Clark in a fine musical treat of English Hand Bells, Xylophone and French Lyre. Miss Clark presents her unique and entrancing program with rare artistry. Following the musical there will be a Christmas Tea with Mrs. C. M. Jenkins, Mrs. Frank H. Knight and Mrs. Alvin O. Diggs serving as hostess. A large attendance is expected.

Remembering that the first Community Christmas Tree on Winchester Common was presented to the town by The Fortnightly in 1925, and that since that time Christmas Eve Community Carol Singing has become a joyous holiday tradition, we are looking forward once again to our Christmas Carols this year. Many beautiful selections will be conducted by our talented Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham.

Let's all remember to go down to the Common and sing.

Literature Group

At the Literature meeting held on Monday, Dec. 3, members of The Fortnightly gathered at the Winchester Library to enjoy an afternoon of literary art on the subject of "Essays."

Miss Eva Sherman, Chairman, introduced Mrs. Theo Dissel and Miss Caroline Everett as the speakers for the afternoon.

Miss Everett opened the program by reading a paper on "Introduction to the Enjoyment of Essays," prepared by Mrs. Gilbert Paul, a former member of the Literature Committee now residsiding in Milford, Connecticut. In her "Introduction," Mrs. Paul set the stage for the program which followed. She defined the two types of recognized essays, the didactic or formal, the familiar or informal. She mentioned several British Essayists of the early 20th Century, two of whom were chosen as subjects for the completion of the program.

Mrs. Dissel then introduced as her subject the English Journalist and Author, Gilbert Keith Chesterton whom, she stated, "became a clever essayist with a brilliant style and a penchant for paradox In a most delightful manner and with sprightly flashes of humor Mrs. Dissel read her paper, giving a brief biography of Mrs. Chesterton, mentioning several of his more important works and concluded with the reading of one of his Christmas poems called "Nativity."

Miss Everett concluded the afternoon's program by reading a short essay, "Oxford As I See It," by Stephen Butler Leacock. "Mr. Leacock" stated Miss Everett, "is English by temperment." He became widely Known as Professor of Political Economy at McGill University, Montreal, but achieved wider fame by numerous satirical works in which he developed a style and humor peculiarly his own. In "Oxford As I See It," Leacock proves himself a genuine humorist, satirically intent, but withal courage to speak the truth as he sees it.

FATHERS' AND SONS' NIGHT FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Annual Fathers' and Sons' Night of the Men's Club of the First Congregational Church will be held Friday, December 17, at 7:30 p. m. in the Parish Hall. There will be a program of sports events consisting of a talk by one of the Harvard Football Coaches, moving pictures of the Winchester High 1948 football games, swimming at the Olympics by "Ted" Norris and an exhibition by members of Tufts College wrestling team. The meeting is open to all men of the Church and their friends. There will be an admission charge of one cake of soap per person which will be sent to the National Boarding House for Boys, of Crevena, Kozianis, Greece.

WINCHESTER P. O. WALLOPS LEAGUE LEADERS

In the Suburban Post Office Bowling League, the league leaders, Arlington took it on the chin from Winchester, losing 4 to 0. Winchester had three bowlers who bowled over 00, Gilgun 105, Dan Coss 102 and 103 and Ross 103.

This defeat upsets Arlington's applecart as she, by taking four from Winchester would have been so far in front that no one could catch her. But now it's all changed, and both Wakefield and Belmont are but one point behind, and as only three matches remain in this half any one of the three could win. What makes Arlington's chances so bad is that she clashes with second place Wakefield this coming Monday, and a loss for either team means that the chances of becoming champion of the first half is nil.

SCOUTING EXPOSITION AT WINCHESTER IN SPRING

At the second in a series of monthly meetings of the Planning Committee of Fellsland Council, held at Scout Headquarters at Border road, Winchester on Wednesday evening, December 1st, it was announced by John Casler, Chairman of the Exposition that permission had been granted to the boy Scouts of America to use the High School facilities, for the Scouting Exposition to be held in May. The exact date is being decided upon at present with an attempt to avoid clashing with any other event.

The messrs. Fred Parks, Winchester District Chairman of Scouting, and John Casler, Neighborhood Commissioner, armed with slide rules, yardsticks and measurring tape, came away from the High School with glowing reports of its possibilities. Mr. Parks had nicely drawn plans of the gym wherein decorated and informative booths will show the results of much planning and research of the Scouts. It didn't take long for Ed Nelson, Scout Executive of Fellsland and Tom Robinson, Medford Committeeman who has had great experience on these affairs to lay out on paper the maximum number of booths that will be available. So, Scoutmasters, Committeemen, boys, start your planning early to come away with some of the wonderful prizes for your efforts.

The following Scouts in full uniform were selected to represent their respective troops in being present at the December 1st meeting for a short time to have a group picture taken for future publicity purposes. The picture taking was done by ever willing Staff Rogers, Head of Winchester's Explorer Unit, Senior Scouting. Present were Thomas Queen, Troop 1, American Legion; Henry Hooper, Troop 6, Unitarian Church; Laurence Erhard, Troop 12, St. Mary's Catholic Church, Sam Rocray, Troop 3, Congregational Church, and Philip Dresser, Troop 7, Baptist Church. Later on we will endeavor to have some Cub Scouts do the same and also will try to obtain group lectures of the individual Troops in action.

Present for the Planning Committee were Ed Nelson, Scout Executive, Fred Parks, Winchester District Commissioner, John Casler, Chairman of the Exposition, Ben Gowing, Winchester District Secretary, Tom Robinson, Medford Committeeman, Earle Moore, Woburn District Commissioner and Vin Erhard Publicity Chairman.

May we remind the Troops to "dig in" now, "Be Prepared!" Master your requirements of Scouting.

ST. MARY'S OFFICERS ATTENDED HOLY NAME CONVENTION

On Sunday afternoon, December 5th at 3:00 p. m. at the Bradford Hotel in Boston, the following Officers attended the Annual Convention of 1,600 Officers of the Archdiocesan Union of Holy Name Societies. Rev. Fr. Thomas F. Sennott, Spiritual Director, Vincent F. Erhard, President; William J. Croughwell, Vice-President; John A. Volpe and Frank Rogers, Delegates and Ralph Ambrose, Program Director.

Among resolutions passed at the business session was the promise of cooperation in the Housing situation also that the causes of Industrial Strife be minimized, that Public Office Holders be reminded of their responsibility before God, that the Imprisonment of Archbishop Stepinac be of concern in U. S. dealings with Jugoslavia. Assistance for Displaced persons and condemnation of comic books featuring crime, brutality and indecency were subjects of other resolutions.

Archbishop Richard J. Cushing in the main address, commended the Holy Name Society for its fine example under Lay leadership with the Clergy advising. His message to all Holy Name men emphasized Good Will, Tolerance, Magnaminity while urging all to count their blessings and not to dwell too much on the evil side of things but instead look on the good side. "We should begin talking Hope, thinking Peace, and expecting a Break!" were the tenure of his remarks. "I am confident that in these virtues lies the hope of America and the World," he said.

The Archbishop termed it tragic that "the forces of good will are disunited while anti-moral forces of destruction and malice are united. "One group will protest against the persecution of their people and keep silent about the persecution of others."

The Holy Name men were further commended by the Prelate for their contribution to the spiritual life of the Archdiocese and of the welfare of the community. "We have a duty of creating an atmosphere or Cordiality and of integrity — if our Labor and Management relations develop in this moral climate which would result from the fullfillment of these duties, I know no limits to the Social Progress that America can make."

Note: Father - Daughters Communion Breakfast Sunday, December 12th, 8:00 a. m. Mass and then, Lyceum Hall.

One afternoon recently some one placed the Armistice Day wreaths on the War Memorial on the the heads of the two bronze figures. Whoever did it must have had either a good climb or the aid of a ladder.

COMPASS HIKE CHRISTENS TROOP 7 CAMPSITE

That brand new campsite on Ridge street is big news to the fellows in Winchester's Troop 7; and Saturday they got their first chance to use it. Committeeman Rich Swanson laid out a course for a compass hike through the woods to the camps, for the ten enthusiastic scouts present.

While Committeemen Butterworth and Weld nobly declined the chance to struggle along through the wilderness, Rich Swanson agreed to go along with the boys "just in case." It was lucky he did!

Everything was going fine until Stu Carlisle, Dave Ripley, Stan Mullen, "Gorgeous George" Govostes, Terry Tallman and Phil Dresser found that compass course 270 degrees led them to the edge of a swamp! Since then, they've learned what should be done in such cases. But Saturday found them full oof extra ambition, and the proceeded to follow course 270 across the swamp - using small islands for footholds.

Result: 1 - several wet feet. 2 - sadder but wiser scouts. Meanwhile, hats off to scouts Andy Robertson, Ken Cleaves, Lee Staff, and Ray Simpson, who proved that you don't always have to find out the hard way: they walked arount the swamp and arrived in camp with two dry feet apiece.

However all's well that ends well, and everyone reached camp safe and sound, built fireplaces and cooked their meals. After eating, there was a pick-up session around camp followed by a game of "Capture the Flag", while the men worked at erecting a flagpole. On the way home four boys wangled rides from Committee members and scoutmaster "Doc" Millican. The rest hiked three miles back to the Baptist Church to pass Second Class requirements. A swell time was had by all.

A note to the great and wise buying public of Winchester: SEE THOSE TROOP 7 "WINCHESTER" CHRISTMAS CARDS Before you buy! They're new - different - colorful - clever! And only a dollar for a full dozen. Visit Hevey's, McCormack's, Purtle's drug stores; Butterworth the jeweler; The STAR Office or the Winslow Press. BUY YOURS TODAY!

There's always something new and different at Troop 7. Past activities have found them going through a newspaper plant, seeing movies on important scout activities, having lectures by a doctor - as well as troop leaders - on first aid subjects. There have even been interesting "side" talks like the time the boys watched a jeweler dismantle and assemble a watch (with no pieces left over!) Tomorrow a trip is scheduled to the Medford Fire Station, featuring an unusual fire truck built by that department itself, and the only one of its kind in the world! Sounds like fun? See you there! And don't forget Monday night's meeting at the Baptist Church.

HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

A novel "Christmas workshop", with members making greens and decorations for the Public Library, Home for the Aged, and Bedford Hospital, will take place Wednesday afternoon, December 15, at the meeting of the Winchester Home and Garden Club in the vestry, First Baptist Church, from 10 o'clock through the afternoon. In the morning there will be a business meeting, a delicious home cooked luncheon served at noon, followed by a workshop program and sale of Christmas greens and materials.

Members and guests of the Home and Garden Club are asked to make their luncheon reservations BEFORE December 13, with Mrs. Locke, WInchester 6-2474-M; Mrs. Gove, WInchester 6-1262-W; or Mrs. Twombly, WInchester 6-0484. Members are also asked to bring gloves, scissors and clippers to the workshop.

Mrs. Burton Gove is chairman of the luncheon, which will include a hot dish, salad, desserts and coffee. Mrs. John B. Wills and Mrs. Theodore Elliott have charge of the sale of greens. This is one of the important meetings of the club during the year, and at this time members provide Christmas service to others through their decorations for the Home, the Library, and Bedford Hospital. Guests will be welcome at the meeting and at the luncheon, as well as to the afternoon work session.

OFFICIALS TO STUDY PUBLIC SCHOOL HEALTH

Members of the Winchester public school science, physical education, and Medical departments, and the elementary school principals will meet in joint session at three o'clock next Tuesday afternoon with Dr. Forbes H. Norris at the high school.

Subject for the meeting is the health program for Winchester's public schools. Called in as special consultant is Dr. Leslie Irwin, Director of Health Education at Boston University.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Inspirational To Republican Club Audience

A large gathering of Republican Club members met at The Music Hall Wednesday afternoon to enjoy a special Christmas program.

Mrs. Charles P. Howard, Republican National Committeewoman, who is secretary of the Republican National Committee, was the guest speaker and gave an inspiring talk titled "The Way Ahead". Among the many important points this charming Republican leader brought out was that housewives are one of the great factors in voting as women control eighty per cent of the money in the country. She urged members to show interest and familiarize themselves with the party issues and said "The simple Christmas story was the beginning of Christianity and that Christianity is the basis of our form of government."

The entertainment of the afternoon was the program of beautiful music presented by The Mary Witham Singers with Lucy Wilcox Cushman at the piano. Gowned in their choir robes and ever watchful of their director, Mrs. Witham, the singers blended voices most effectively in this wide range of carols.

Sing We Noel, Processional	French
Adoramus te Christe	Palestrina
When the Saviour Christ Was Born	Polish
I Wonder as I Wander	Early American
Carol of the Bells	Ukranian
Carol of the Wind	Silesian
The Coventry Carol	Early English
Carol of the Sheep Bells	Slovakian
Gesu Bambino	Yon
He Is Sleeping	Polish
The Christ of the Snow	Hungarian
Still Grows the Evening	Bohemian
Stars Led Us Ever On	Sioux Indian
Prayer from "Haensel and Gretel"	Humperdinck
The Little Jesu of Braga	Portuguese
Through the Dark the Dreamers Came	Daniels

The Club's president, Mrs. William C. Cusack, on behalf of the Club, expressed warm appreciation to Mrs. Witham for presenting this musicale reflecting the Yuletide spirit, and congratulated the group on their splendid performance.

The Meeting was then adjourned and members were served refreshments by Mrs. Fred Aseltine and her committee.

Special credit should be given to Mrs. Theodore Elliott for her charming display of table and hall decorations which were so appropriate for the season.

Once again the Women's Republican Club of Winchester may be commended for giving its members an excellent program which will be well-remembered.

Finger paints, construction paper, crayons, art books are in stock at Wilson the Stationer, Star Building.

LINCOLN SCHOOL NOTES

A meeting of the elementary and Junior High School teachers and most of the High School teachers was held in the auditorium of the Lincoln School, Wednesday afternoon, December 8. This meeting, directed by Dr. Forbes Norris, was called for a purpose of discussing the recently revised school curricula. All elementary schools were dismissed for the afternoon, and the high school and junior high school closed after the fifth period.

The board of the Lincoln School Mothers' Association met this week at the home of Mrs. George Saltmarsh on Mystic Valley Parkway.

The executive board of the Teachers' Club met at the Lincoln School Tuesday afternoon, December 7.

Dad's night will be held in the auditorium of the Lincoln School, December 17. An interesting program has been planned.

WYMAN SCHOOL NOTES

The Wyman school is as gaily decorated as a Christmas tree. The room decorations are many and varied, and include the Nativity scene, Santa Clauses, Christmas trees, and the like. Even the outside of the school joins in the festivity, with a beautiful green wreath, contributed by Mrs. Poirier, hanging on the front window. Each room is busy making a Christmas mural. These will be about four feet wide and ten feet long. Last year one large mural was made by the whole school, but this year each room will make its own.

The Christmas Assembly, a cooperative one, will be held on December 22. It will be presented in the morning for the school, and in the evening for Fathers' Night.

The Junior Red Cross is also very busy making all sorts of things for people less fortunate than themselves.

MARYCLIFF GUILD

The next meeting of the Marycliff Guild will be held Tuesday evening, December 14th at 8 p. m. at the Arlington Academy.

A fun filled program has been arranged by Mrs. J. E. Guyant who is chairman for the evening.

Refreshments will be served by the following hostesses:

Miss Ann Connor, Mrs. Gilbert Gruber, Mrs. Michael Kaknes and Mrs. Salvatore Randazzo.

Harry Locke of High street, who recently underwent a serious operation at the Winchester Hospital is able to be out again.

HOOP SQUAD PREPS FOR OPENER

The Winchester High School hoopmen are gradually rounding into shape for their opening game at Danvers next Friday night. Coach Bartlett has expressed himself as satisfied with the progress the courtmen have made in learning their changed offense. Winchester has the necessary speed this year to use a fast break offense and Coach Bartlett has been drilling his charges hard on this type of offense, hoping thereby to increase their scoring punch.

In a scrimmage held with Medford High School last week the locals looked very good and more than held their own against their larger opponents. The Red and Black controlled the ball well on the offense and were able to set up their plays to break a scorer loose for an easy lay-up shot. Captain Ken Donaghey and Paul Roche, in particular, frequently broke clear to wind up a scoring play with a pretty basket. Another scrimmage will be held this week with an outside school to further sharpen the locals' offense and defense.

Although no starting lineup has been selected, it looks as though Captain Ken Donaghey and Pete Dillingham will start at forward, Tom McGowan at center, and Paul Roche and Dennis Sanford at guard. Others in the first ten on the squad who are under consideration for a starting berth are Bob Zirkel, Dick Mathews, Dan Devlin, Dave Coon, and George Tansey. The squad has now been reduced in size and on the squad, in addition to the above named ten, are Jack Costello, Walter Murphy, Joe Migliacci, Bob Walsh, Bernard Crowley, Bob Morris, Tony Cirurso and Sandy Burbank. It looks like a promising squad and if they continue to show the expected development, they may well improve their third place position of last year in the Middlesex League standing.

TOWN BASKETBALL LEAGUE ORGANIZES

At a meeting held on Monday evening the Town Basketball League was organized for the 1948-49 season. As has been the case in the past two years, the League will operate Monday and Wednesday evenings at the High School gym with three games each evening starting at seven o'clock. As this activity is part of the winter program of the Town Recreation Committee, no admission is charged for these games and the public is invited to attend.

The League is composed of six teams at the present time with four of these members of the League last year, including the championship Rotary Club, the Bonnell Motors, the Mercurio Insurance, and the Sons of Italy. The new teams are the Winchester Appliance Co., and the American Legion, the latter back after winning the League two years ago and not being represented last year. The Veterans of Foreign Wars have been a member of the League the past two years and hope to be represented again this year and a decision will be made at their meeting this week.

With six, and possibly seven, teams in the League this year, the League appears to be much better balanced than in the past two years. There will be no weak teams in this set up and the competition promises to be close in every game. On Monday nights' schedule the Winchester Appliance Co., will open the activities against the Bonnell Motors. The Rotary Club will meet the American Legion in the second game while the arch rivals of last year, the Sons of Italy and the Mercurio Insurance, will clash in the final game of the evening.

The Park Department has had the water lowered in the Mill Pond this week while replacing and renewing the rip-rap around the island at the rear of the town hall. Since the advent of the ducks this island is much frequented and gets a lot of wear and tear.

CAPUTO — TRANFAGLIA

A marriage of Winchester interest took place at the Church of Our Lady of Pity, in the Bronx, N. Y., on Sunday afternoon, December 5, when Miss Susan Tranfaglia of 562 Morris avenue, the Bronx, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tranfaglia, became the bride of Joseph A. Caputo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Caputo of Swanton street.

Miss Tranfaglia was given in marriage by her brother, Hugo Tranfaglia, who also served as best man for the bridegroom. Miss Antoinette Del Vecchio of the Bronx attended the bride.

The bride wore a gown of heavy white satin, styled with a beaded neckline and peplum and a court train. Her matching chapel-length veil was caught to a crown of orange blossoms, and she carried a white satin muff with white orchids and streamers of babies' breath. Miss Del Vecchio wore a duty rose satin dress with matching headpiece and carried a blue satin muff with streamers of babies' breath and red roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Assisting in receiving were the uncle and aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Tranfaglia, and the parents of the bridegroom.

After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Caputo will make their home in Hammond, Ind., where the bridegroom is associated with Lever Brothers as a chemical engineer.

The bride is a graduate of the New York Schools. Mr. Caputo is a graduate of Winchester High School, and of Northeastern University School of Chemical Engineering in the class of 1946. He is a member of the American Chemical Society, and during the war served in the United States Army Air Forces.

ALFRED ROTUNDI

Alfred Rotundi of 25 Irving street, a veteran of the Italian Army in World War I, died Friday, December 3, at the Winchester Hospital, following a brief illness. Flags on the common and town buildings were displayed at half-staff in his honor.

Born in Italy 60 years ago, Mr. Rotundi came to this country as a young man, and for the past 40 years had lived in Winchester, working for more than 25 years for the J. O. Whitten gelatine manufacturing company on Cross street.

He was a member of Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion; of the Christopher Columbus Club and of the Torriese Society in Boston.

Mr. Rotondi leaves his wife, the former Josephine Bevilacqua, two sons, John and Dominick Rotondi; and a daughter, Camilla Rotondi, all of this town. A sister, Mrs. Adeline Del Grosso of Winchester, also survives.

The funeral was held Monday morning from the late residence where the Colors of Winchester Post, 97, American Legion, and Aberjona Post, 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars had been posted. The Colors and color guards accompanied the body to St. Mary's Church where a solemn requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Thomas F. Sennott with Rev. Fr. Francis O'Neil, deacon; and Rev. Fr. John O'Neil, subdeacon. Interment was in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Stoneham.

The police were notified early Friday morning that some time during the afternoon or night previous some one had driven an automobile all over the soft playing surface of Ginn Field. It goes very much without saying that the authorities would be glad to locate the party responsible.

TRUCK IN COLLISION WITH CAR AND TRUCK

A Chevrolet suburban sedan, owned by James H. E. Stevenson of 99 Hemingway street, and driven by Frederick C. Stevenson of the same address, figured in a double accident shortly before 4 o'clock Monday afternoon.

According to the police the suburban sedan, or beach-wagon, was headed east on Cross street when it was in collision with a Pontiac sedan, owned and being driven east on Cross street by Martin G. Doherty of 5 Clark street, Woburn.

The collision took place near the driveway of the Tydol Filling Station, owned by Myrtle Goodhue of 160 Cross street, and managed by Warren Saunders of 49 Brookside avenue. After the collision with the sedan, the Chevrolet turned into the yard of the filling station, striking and tipping over a gasoline pump.

Stevenson told the police that something apparently went wrong with the Chevrolet, causing him to lose control of the machine. No one was injured, but the Pontiac and pump were damaged.

It pays to advertise in the Star.

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CHRISTMAS PROGRAM DECEMBER 16

One of the most beautiful Christmas programs of the season will be given on Thursday evening, December 16, at 8 o'clock in Ripley Chapel, First Congregational Church, when the Business and Professional Women's Guild presents its guest speaker Mrs. James Kingman Romeyn of Melrose, with special decorations, candles, and Christmas music. The program committee extends a sincere invitation to all women, especially to business women and teachers, to attend this evening meeting, and to enjoy the social hour which will follow.

Mrs. Romeyn will speak on "The Tree That Grows Indoors", an inspirational theme for Christmas. Those who heard Mrs. Romeyn last Christmas, and the year before, when the Guild had her as its Christmas guest, know of her fine lectures, her moving and reverent feeling for this beautiful season, and the inspiration and hope which she gives to all who hear her.

Mrs. Robert M. Keeney will give a Christmas devotional reading, with Mrs. George E. Connor, director, presiding. Christmas music will be given by Mrs. Ruth E. Smith of Woburn, who will sing "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" and "Night of Nights". Miss Sylvia Smith, her daughter, will be at the organ to accompany her and to play for carol singing. The audience will be asked to join in the well-loved Christmas carols.

At the close of the chapel program, coffee and holiday fruit cake will be served upstairs in the Ladies' Parlor, under the chairmanship of Miss Helen Monroe.

Winchester fans will find the Football Highlights of 1948, released this week of especial interest, for a local boy Charles David "Chucker" Roche, Jr., former Winchester High School three-sport star, figures prominently in the final sequence of the film.

The pictures are very clear and show big "Chucker" running out to the right and making clever use of his blockers to get into the clear. Every local fan is sure to get a thrill out of the Winchester boy's fine running.

OUR 24TH YEAR IN WINCHESTER

In April, 1925, we opened for business as authorized dealer of Ford Motor Co. in Winchester. During these years the people of Winchester have supported our agency very well and we are grateful for your business. We have endeavored to merit this patronage and to give you full value for your dollars.

In looking back through the years we remember many periods of stress such as the depression days, bank holiday, model changes (in which we received no new cars in several months), the war years when production stopped in February, 1942 and was not resumed until July, 1945. We have seen both extremes on new car production, both a surplus and shortage of new cars. Certainly the last years have been the most difficult. It has been impossible to fill the orders of our customers, we have lost some deliveries to customers who have been on our books for years and those are the ones that really hurt.

We have delivered our cars as equitably as we could, we have not forced the sale of unwanted accessories and we have not insisted on a used car trade-in and we have not made unfair profits on the used car trade-in. We believe that this was the best policy and we want your continued good will.

Your good will and patronage in the past and our faith in the future, plus our confidence in the Ford Motor Company and its products, have prompted us to add a very substantial addition to our building this year. We hope to have this addition ready for business very soon and when ready will make available a complete service station with full equipment to meet every requirement of your car. (More about this later).

CARRIED TO VICTORY

Herbert "Garrulous" Gardner, the Dix street magnate, emerged as the potential winner at last week-end's Horseshoe matches at Palmer Beach, but observation showed it took more than his own efforts to arrive there.

The first match found him and Royal "Paper Trade" Teele lined up against "Wild Willie" McLaughlin, the defeatist of the Tyngsboro Country Club, and Roland "Thin Finger" Pridham.

This was a short match, Gardner and Teele being unable to find the stake, and losing two straight games.

The second match brought Pridham and Teele together but once again the games were short, and Gardner and McLaughlin chalked up two straight, easily.

McLaughlin and Teele started the third set and the fireworks commenced.

McLaughlin scored one point immediately and that was all for his side, while the opposition kept building up their score.

The paper trade was making some pretty caustic remarks to his partner to do something for a change, which so enraged Mr. McLaughlin, he retorted that at least he had scored one point, which was one more than someone else he knew about. This so confounded Mr. Teele he proceeded to get himself five points at once, which was his limit, the game ending 25 to 6.

The second game was different. Mr. McLaughlin got the range and waded through the opposition easily.

The third game was a reversal, Pridham and Gardner getting ringers with regularity while the others were fading.

The fourth match brought Gardner and Teele against Pridham and McLaughlin.

The latter pair forged ahead and it looked bad for the Paper Trade, who hadn't won a match. Gardner was handing out remarks of anything but a pleasing nature, which apparently began to bear fruit, as Mr. Teele was getting the range through accident or otherwise.

Gardner threw two shoes, one a ringer and the other one an inch from the stake, which Pridham couldn't equal, and that added four points to the score making nineteen to twenty-two.

That put the pressure on Messrs. Teele and McLaughlin which is no spot for a man with a weak heart.

Teele threw first, and not only confounded himself but the opposition, by throwing two ringers.

McLaughlin gave it the old college try, but he just didn't have what it takes. The game was over.

Then up spoke Mr. Pridham, accusing Mr. Teele of adding an an extra point to Mr. Gardner's previous play.

Fireworks: Gardner and Teele blew up and what they said was plenty, and this so startled Mr. McLaughlin he declined to support his partner, although he probably would if he thought he could get away with it.

Pridham was outvoiced and the second game started. He and McLaughlin forged ahead only to fall behind 18 to 24. Teele threw away a chance to win and McLaughlin came through with a double header making the score 24 to 24.

Gardner then threw, his best shoe being one inch from the stake. It looked bad for a finish, but Mr. Pridham found the pressure too great, and lost his game.

Apparently the losers who are supposed to be gentlemen at all times, forgot their early teaching, and not only refused to congratulate the modest winners, but Mr. Pridham brought back his charge of padding the score, and went home in a huff to a dinner we hope, of not only sour but curdled soup.

The Fire Department was called Monday forenoon by a resident of Canterbury road who became alarmed when she saw smoke issuing from a nearby dweling. The firemen found upon arrival that a man was drawing off steam from the boiler of the heater at the house in question. Far from being disgruntled, the firemen commended the person who had summoned them. It is better to be safe than sorry.

CROSSING ELIMINATION, B. & M. HISTORY AND MERRY CHRISTMAS

Editor of the Star:

In scrutinizing the last issue of the STAR I was delighted when I observed Mr. Sanderson's article in regard to the elimination of the grade crossing. He asserted on Tuesday night, in answering a fire alarm, the department was held about three minutes while a train went over the crossing.

These three minutes might have meant the difference between life and death if anyone had been trapped in the upper part of the house. We should all get behind this very serious matter as it affects all our townspeople.

Listen brother, the abolition of the Winchester grade crossing was officially ordered 114 years ago, or in other words, the County Commissioner met at Abel Richardson's house on November 21, 1834, viewed the location of the railway and directed the highways, Church and Main streets. The present Mt. Vernon street was not then in existence to be altered and elevated so as to pass over the tracks.

The Middlesex Canal was a failure as it was closed by ice four months in the year and transportation over the roads was slow and expensive.

The Boston and Lowell Railroad that is now called the Boston and Maine was projected in 1831. It is therefore one of the very earliest steam railways in the country.

It was undertaken through the enterprise of Patrick T. Jackson who with Francis C. Lowell, Kirk Boot, Paul Moody and others had established the first great cotton mills at the falls of the Merrimac River, around which grew up the city of Lowell, Mass.

Mr. Jackson found the existing means of transportation inadequate for bringing to the mills the great quantities of raw cotton required and for returning to Boston the cotton goods he manufactured. As I asserted, the Middlesex Canal was closed by ice four month in the year.

Mrs. Jackson knew of the promising experiments made in England with the steam locomotive. He believed the railroad to be the answer to all his difficulties and succeeded in persuading his associates at Lowell and a number of Boston capitalists besides to furnish the money for the new railroad.

The first railway train carrying passengers ran through our village on its way to Lowell. It was May 27, 1835. Every house, not only in South Woburn but for miles around, was deserted that morning. Thousands of folks lined the tracks to see the puffing little locomotive draw its train of cars.

From 1835 to 1948 there has been no accidents at the west side of the town on account of the railway gates. However, from 1852 to 1914, 40 persons lost their lives between Winchester Highlands and Wedgemere Stations; 25 of them between 1882 and 1905.

I believe if it were not for the foresight of ex-Selectman James J. Fitzgerald, Sr., the father of the street across the pond, who was instrumental in calling the dangerous conditions to the attention of ex-State Senator Lewis Parkhurst, the late Preston Pond, Edgar Rich, the late publisher of the Winchester Star, Theodore P. Wilson; Dr. Allen, William L. Parsons, chairman of the Planning Board; ex-chairman of the Park Board, George T. Davidson; and the chairman of the Water and Sewer Board, Edmund C. Sanderson; the fatalities would have increased.

I extend to you the season's greetings, Mr. Sanderson!

Very truly yours,
Patrick H. Craughwell.

President of the Harvard Crimson while at college, Mr. Vaugh has been with the Post since his student days. Later he attended University of Paris and served as foreign correspondent in Europe. He was one of the few political writers to foresee the Democratic sweep this fall and even predicted the election of James A. Dr. Jost J. Michelsen of Fairview terrace was in New York last week attending a medical conference. He was accompanied by Mrs. Michelsen and their son, Chris.

JOHN M. KINGMAN SPEAKER AT WOMEN'S LEAGUE

At a meeting on December 1st held at the home of Mrs. Henry E. Worcester 111 Church street the League of Women Voters of Winchester welcomed Mr. John M. Kingman, eminent social worker and one-time resident of Winchester, who spoke on the new Youth Service Board of Massachusetts. The reputation of Mr. Kingman not only as an authority in his field but as a speaker of wit and candor, brought an unusually large attendance of League members and friends.

Mr. Kingman's discussion of the coming-into-being of this very modern and construcive approach to the problem of juvenile delinquency was heartening indeed. He said that Massachusetts might well feel a pride in the passage of the Youth Service Bill - tempered with a pleased surprise since the last laws on the subject were enacted in 1906. This new legislation which established the Youth Service Board was the result of a report by a Recess Commission on jhvenile delinqdency of which Mr. Kingman was a member.

Under the terms of the new law which will go into effect after January 1st,, the Youth Service Board, composed of three paid members will have jurisdiction over the delinquent from the moment of committment until release. It will have the responsibility for the diagnosis, treatment and parole of each child and is also charged with the setting up of a program for the prevention of delinquency. In carrying out its job the Board will create a diagnostic clinic-the first in Massachusetts. It will use all existing facilities for treatment, such as the Training Schools, and is authorized to set up any new ones advisable.

Mr. Kingman spoke enthusiastically of the three members of the Board appointed by Governor Bradford. He described them as a workman-like group who bring to their job a background of large experience, brains and a spirit of consecration. Excellent as the new Board is it will need community support, understanding and help in securing adequate appropriations from the Legislature for its work.

Miss Grace Wills, Chairman of Social Welfare in the League, was in charge of the very excellent program. She introduced the speaker whom she has worked with for a number of knew first as a colleague during her years as head of Lincoln House Settlement. An opportunity to meet Mr. Kingman was afforded during the tea hour following the program. Mrs. John Kingman and Mrs. Malcolm Nichols presided at the coffee urns while Mrs. Theodore Atkinson and her committee in charge of Hospitality helped to serve the guests.

Pfc. Charles E. Barrett, son of Lillian M. Barrett of 200 Forest street, has graduated from the Draftsman Course at the USAF Technical School Ft. Wyoming.

GIRL SCOUTS

Well, the Dry Ski School was a success . . . with a very good turn-out and a good day! Those of you who didn't get up there will be glad to know that next Saturday there will be another meeting. All 7th and 8th grade Scouts as well as Senior Scouts are welcome to attend every Saturday at 10 a. m. near the Boy Scout cabin on Border road. Please bring your skis, boots and bindings as you will want to put into practice what you learn . . . This is for all the above mentioned Scouts not too proficient in skiing, or who want to start at the beginning. Later on, there are plans for intermediates; but for now, only the 7th, 8th grade and Senior Socuts!

And along with other activities, we are pleased to tell you that the Winchester Scouts are singing Christmas carols at Filene's after school starting next week. The Senior Scouts will be there every afternoon as the sustaining group. Other troops will be there as follows:

December

13th St. Mary's Intermediate troops.

15th Lincoln School Intermediate troops.

17th Mystic School Intermediate troops.

20th Wyman School Intermediate troops.

22nd Wyman School Intermediate troops.

24th Washington School Intermediate troops.

Other troops not assigned, will fill in as needed . . . because they have been so newly formed.

And speaking of being newly formed, we should like to ask all mothers for their help in finding new leaders for several of the troops . . . We have the girls; but need new leaders! If you have a girl who was in a troop last year but now needs adult leadership, won't you lend a hand? Other mothers have helped with your daughter, and it would be well worth your while if you would assist the girls. And they would greatly appreciate it. These are OUR GIRLS and if we want them to be good Scouts and fine citizens, we should expend ourselves to the limit to further their interests . . . which in Scouting are wholesome ones! Mrs. Francis Parsons, for instance, is need of an assistant to lead the girls of the 7th and 8th grade and Freshman year . . . on the indoor activities while she will carry on their out of door activities. Can you help with crafts, with service projects and the like? If you can and will please call the Girl Scout Office or call in person. There is also a need for leaders for the Noonan 5th and 6th grade Scouts . . . and Washington 3rd and 4th grade Brownies . . . DON'T LET YOUR GIRL DOWN! Phone us at WInchester 6-2592 or come up to talk it over . . . We are upstairs over the Edison shop.

Winchester has one of the best Scouting programs in this area and one of the highest registration percentages per town in the whole U. S. Let's keep it that way!

LEST WE FORGET

Editor of the Star:

"Intelligent patriotism seeks the improvement of one's country and the correction of errors which may be found in it. Thus, if a patriotic American sees anything menacing the freedom upon which our Republic rests, it is his duty to warn his fellow patriots." Thus spoke Daniel L. Marsh, historian, scholar, and for twenty years President of Boston University, in a Commencement address August 21st, taking for his subject a quotation from Daniel Webster's address at the laying of the corner stone of Bunker Hill Monument: "The Last Hope of Mankind Rests with Us."

Dr. Marsh's address was notable and opportune. It should be in the curriculum of teen-age children in every school of the nation, in every college, and sermonized in every pulpit. The people should be told of the dangers threatening our freedom and democracy.

"The word 'democracy' comes from the Greek word, 'demos' which means people. Democracy is the rule by the people. Hope for a larger share of the good things of life has lured mankind up from slavery through feudalism to full democracy. It is the indispensable condition for the realization of the good life."

The freedom that once was enjoyed by Babylon, Assyria, Greece, Rome, Spain, and Germany was eventually destroyed in one country after another. Their governments died at the top, like organic growths. "Will some future historian write the 'Decline and Fall of the American Republic?'" asks President Marsh. At that time, surveying the past in a sad, reflective mood, will some patriot recall the poet's prophetic words, applicable to this country as it was written in England, "Lo, all our pomp of yesterday is one with Ninevah and Tyre?"

I have been a student of history for a good many years," said Dr. Marsh, "and I give it to you that it is my calm judgement that three forces have more often wrought the destruction of free governments than all other forces put together; that under three headings can be classified nearly all the factors contributing to the failure of self government across the ages."

"The first is war. Each of the great nations took the sword and perished with the sword. It was naval defeats that brought an end to the Grecian Empire. It was extended wars that spelled the collapse of Rome. It was the First and Second World Wars that not only brought a practical end to the Germany that was great, but also started the disintegration of the British Empire. It was the First World War that gave Russia Communism. The second gave it to the countries that we now describe as Russia's satellites. A third World War will probably give Communism to the world."

"The second cause of loss of freedom is too much regimenting, controlling and "Santa Clausing" by the Government and other agencies. Freedom of choice and freedom of initiative are indispensable to progress. Anything that trammels or restricts individual initiative, independence or self-reliance leads inevitably to a loss of national freedom and democracy. More substantial progress has been made in the United States in the past hundred and fifty years than was made in other countries and civilizations in the preceding two thousand years. Self government is lost because the freedom upon which it rests is lost."

"The third cause of freedom's collapse is individual corruption. In 1787 Benjamin Franklin said, "I believe that this Constitution is likely to be well administered for a course of years, and can only end in despotism as other forms have done before it, when the people shall become so corrupt as to need despotic governments, being incapable of any other." "One country after another has risen to power, only to decline the fall. One civilization after another has risen to preeminence and then collapsed, and in every instance the collapse has followed in the wake of corruption on the part of the people. To such warning we should give heed." On one facade of the building of the United States Department of Justice in Washington are these words: 'Justice in the life and conduct of the state is possible only as its first resides in the heart and souls of its citizens!"

The forces that through the ages have destroyed democracy are operative today. The principal ones have been enumerated. Where does a patriot's duty lie? President Marsh has told us. The most prenicious attitude is the laissez faire stand - let the other fellow do the crusading; that is pleasing to the communists, who are trying to destroy our democracy. Expose and resist corruption wherever you find it. Do it while you are still enjoying freedom and liberty, our heritage from the founders of this country. "The last hope of mankind rests with us."

"Judge of the Nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget - lest we forget"

Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.

FARRELL — WILSON

A wedding of Winchester interest took place at the First Baptist Church in Arlington on Saturday afternoon, December 4, when Miss Marjorie Marie Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold George Wilson of 15 Common street, Belmont, became the bride of F. Manning Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Farrell of 150 Cambridge street. The four o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Nathan Wood and was followed by a reception at the Hotel Commander in Cambridge.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ice blue satin, the skirt extending to form a train. Her full-length veil was arranged with a matching turban trimmed with seed pearls and her bouquet combined bride's roses and stephanotis.

Miss Doris Wilson of Belmont was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a wine satin dress with matching braided coronet and carried white chrysanthemums tinged with wine.

Mrs. Charles Boynton of Cambridge and Mrs. Carl Pynn of Winchester were bridesmaids, and Miss Sylvia Wilson, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Mrs. Boynton and Mrs. Pynn wore dresses of mauve satin with matching headpieces and carried yellow snapdragons. The junior bridesmaid also wore mauve satin and carried yellow and white snapdragons.

Mrs. Wilson, mother of the bride wore an orchid print crepe gown with an orchid corsage and black feathered hat. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Farrell, wore baby orchids with her purple crepe gown and matching hat.

Richard Wilson, brother of the bride, was best man, and the usher corps comprised Carl Pynn, Paul Blake and Donald Warren, all of Winchester, and Charles Boynton of Cambridge.

After a wedding journey to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell will make their home in Cambridge.

The bride is a graduate of Cushing Academy, Ashburnham, and served with the Women's Marine Corps Reserve in Washington, D. C., during the war. Mr. Farrell graduated from Winchester High School and served for three years with the Army Air Forces in the European Theatre.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The general committee of the Winchester Scholarship Foundation held its annual meeting Monday evening, December 6 at 7:30.

Mrs. Henry K. Spencer graciously opened her home at 1 Central Green so that the members might become better acquainted and enjoy the hospitality and friendship of a social hour during which Mrs. Richard Cunningham poured.

As head of the Scholarship Committee Mrs. Spencer then presented a most interesting report of the actual work of selecting those who received scholarships. FRANCIS C. RANDLETT

Francis C. Randlett of Brighton, a former resident of Winchester, died Friday, December 10, at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston.

Mr. Randlett was the son of Elmer P., and Annie (Chambers) Randlett, his father having been prominent in the wholesale fish business in Boston. The family home during the Randlett's residence here was at 2 Lagrange street.

Francis Randlett was born January 29, 1897, in Boston. He spent much of his boyhood in Winchester, attending the Winchester schools and Winchester High School, where he played fullback on the football team. He subsequently attended Worcester Academy and entered Massachusetts Institute of Technology during the days of World War I.

After completing a year at Tech, Mr. Randlett enlisted in the Marine Corps, serving overseas with the 76th company of the Second Marine Division, and participating in the Argonne and Meuse-Argonne offensives. After the armistice he served with the Army of Occupation in Germany, being honorably discharged in August, 1919.

Following his discharge Mr. Randlett entered the government service, and for the past 10 years had been in the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Fisheries.

He leaves two children, Franklin and Joan; a brother, Harold S., of Melrose; and a sister, Olive Randlett of Boston. Two half-brothers, E. Prescott and Royce Randlett of Winchester, also survive, with two half-sisters, Mrs. Virginia Hodgdon of Quincy and Mrs. Annette Handy of Hanover.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Kelley & Hawes Chapel with Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

Paid admissions at the Winchester-Woburn football game are reported from Woburn as 5,885, with the government receiving nearly $800 in taxes. Most trained observers would estimate the attendance well in excess of the paid admissions.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

On Monday night, December 13, the Mystic Glee Club held a Christmas party for its singing membership at the Masonic Hall in Winchester. Under the very capable direction of its entertainment chairman and toastmaster, Harry O'Brien of Medford, the party was a thoroughly enjoyable affair.

The entertainment for the most part was put on by every member of the club. Upon arrival at the party, each man was assigned to a team of six. Each team was required to put on an impromptu skit for the entertainment of the rest of the men. All kinds of hidden talents were uncovered in the amateur hour that followed. 'Musical' instruments seemed to appear from nowhere that would have put a one-man band to shame. Such improvised costumes that appeared all added to the hilarious skits.

Other entertainment included a two man banjo show put on by Ernest Hayward and Mark Gallagher that stems back to the old Banjo Club at Tufts College, a team of bottle blowers that gave an uproarious demonstration of 'bottle jive,' and impromptu singing by the whole club.

The Christmas party has come to be more or less of an annual affair with the Mystic Glee Club. Held a few days after the Christmas concert, it sort of winds up the Fall season for the club.

Mr. Edward J. Gallagher, Treasurer of the Boston and Maine Railroad, and a resident of Winchester was elected a Member of the Advisory Board of The Salvation Army of Boston at a meeting of the Board on December 13th.

FORTNIGHTLY NOTES

The Christmas Meeting of the Fortnightly was held on December 13th at Masonic Hall with Mrs. Harold H. Given, President, presiding. A very large membership was present. Fortnightly Christmas gifts were sent to our hospitalized veterans at Bedford Hospital and gifts of food to people in need across the sea.

Mrs. Gilbody announced the completion by the Co-operation with War Veterans Committee of twenty gay gift bags filled with attractive and useful things which will be sent to the Bedford Hospital for Veterans.

The over seas Christmas food packages included eighty-eight pounds of food to a resthome for children in Malvik Norway; a food package to an aged Norwegian lady with no living relatives; also food packages to three needy families in Winchester, England.

The fascinating decortions began with a Christmas tree on the stage decorated by Mrs. Wightman and Mrs. Smith, and continued on around the room to the charming tea table. The Golden Buffet piece by Mrs. Mitchell was beautifully artistic. The Lovely Gold Plaque for dining table or wall was by Mrs. Wills. A gay and colorful scene of Candle Figures for Children was the work of Mrs. Gordon Bird. Skillfully arranged by Mrs. Frederick Cole was a charming Dish Garden and two lovely table decorations. The beautiful Christmas Madonna Scene and the Minature Sleigh piled with evergreen were by Mrs. Connor who also contributed the Madonna on the stage. A beautifully designed Norwegian Viking Ship was artistically used in a Christmas decoration by Mrs. Given. And finally a delightful surprise in the form of an iced Christmas Cookie Tree by Mrs. Harrington amazed and enchanted everyone.

The fine musical program by Edith Marshall Clarke thrilled and delighted everyone, as with exquisite artistry she took her audience through a fine repertoire on English Hand Bells, Xylophone and French Lyre. All were enchanted by the breathtaking beauty of Fritz Kreisler's "The Old Refrain" and the strong triumphant notes of "The Holy City" both played with the Hand Bells. Skillfuly executed were many novelties on the Xylophone. The sweetness of Brahm's "Lullaby" on the French Lyre was a delightful highlight.

Miss Clark's accompanist Miss Rose Richman, entertained beautifully with piano solos going from Tchaikovsky to "A White Christmas."

Dessert was served by the Social Committee with Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Diggs serving as hostesses. Mrs. D. C. Linscott and Mrs. H. E. Moore honored as pourers.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY CHAPTER D. A. R.

The regular December meeting of the Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R., will be held on December 20th, 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Vanner, 10 Oxford street. The speaker will be Mme Aino Saari, who will speak on Christmas Customs of Colonial Times. Please bring Christmas gifts for the Hillside School, and also note change of time.

TOWN BASKETBALL LEAGUE

The Town Basketball League opened its program for this season with three games at the High School gym Monday evening. An unexpetedly large audience turned out to witness the games, two of which were real thrillers. With the teams playing a higher calibre of basketball than ever before, the League promises to enjoy a banner season.

Two of Monday's three games were close and exciting all the way. The Bonnell Motors trounced the Winchester Appliance Co. in the opener by a score of 44 to 13. The Bonnells were runner-up in last year's League championship and with the addition of Fran Poirier, Dick Murphy, and Bob Atkinson, they are stronger than ever and must be considered one of the favorites for the title.

The defending champions, the Rotary Club, defeated the American Legion in the second game but not before the Legionnaires had rallied to almost upset the favorites. Behind 15 to 8 at the half-time and 19-13 at the three-quarter mark the Legionnaires staged a spirited rally in the final period to tie the score at 21 to 21 with fifty seconds remaining. Dick Coon sank a rebound in the last ten seconds to give the Rotary their very welcome victory. The American Legion quintet has the most heighth of any team in the League and will cause plenty of trouble when they sharpen their shooting.

The final game was a slam-bang affair all the way as the Mercurio Insurance defeated the Sons of Italy in an overtime game by a score of 37 to 31. The Mercurio can thank Sammy Bellino for this victory as his team was trailing by two points with only five seconds to play. Bellino pulled the play of the night as he made a clean steal of the ball from the hands of a Sons of Italy player and dribbled in to score just as the final bell sounded. It was a tough game for the Sons of Italy to lose as they had out-played their favored opponents up to this point.

A seventh team was added to the League this week as an independent team, the Bombers, was entered. This team is managed by Jim Treacy and includes most of the personnel who have operated as the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the past two seasons. Because of this and because it is such a healthy indication of their interest in playing basketball that they would band together to form an independent team, they are doubly welcome.

FIRE IN MAIL BOX

Monday evening a fire was discovered in a mail-box at the corner of Mystic Ave. and Main St. The Fire Department was sent to put out the fire, but found they couldn't get at it, due to the nature of the box and the fact that it was locked.

A call to Police Headquarters brought a postal worker to the scene and he opened the box, permitting the firemen to extinguish the fire.

A cloth mail-bag was found to be burning, but was only partially consumed. Two letters in the box were not harmed, and with them were found several small calibre shells, which were turned over to the Postmaster.

Fire Nipped At Tannery.

What might have been a serious fire was nipped in the bud at the main plant of the Beggs & Cobb Tannery on Swanton Street shortly after 1:30 Tuesday afternoon.

At that time one of the plant officials, Harry Damon, discovered a fire smouldering on the stairway at the grain room. He called the Central Station at once and the Firemen got the fire out without serious consequence, and with only slight damage. Had Mr. Damon not discovered the fire when he did, it is the opinion of experienced firemen that a good fire would have been in the making.

LOCAL TRAVEL AGENT RETURNS FROM INSPECTION TOUR OF FRANCE

Mr. James F. McGrath, Jr., head of the McGrath Travel Service in Woburn, has just returned from a month's inspection tour of the tourist centers of France.

Mr. McGrath was sent to Europe by Air France and the French National Tourist Company and left New York on Air France "Comet", November 14. The plane made a stop at Shannon, Ireland, where, for a few hours, Mr. McGrath was able to renew some friendships and then proceeded directly to Paris.

In Paris he visited the well known historical spots of this famous City and after three days left by Air France plane for a three hour flight to Nice on the sunny Riviera, bordering on the Mediterranean Sea. Here for two weeks he visited all of the famous Riviera resorts such as Nice, Monte Carlo, Mentone, Cannes, Pins and by automobile many of the smaller towns more inland from the coast line. The Upper, Middle and Lower Corniche Drives with their interesting medieval walled cities were visited and all of the famous hotels, restaurants, night clubs and Casinos were thoroughly inspected.

Mr. McGrath who has, in the course of his travel business, visited every country in the world, was very enthusiastic about the tourist situation on The Riviera. He found the hotels all thoroughly equipped to handle a great influx of tourists, the beaches, Casinos, restaurants and night clubs all in perfect order to make for the happiness of American visitors, and he found the most delightful weather that he has experienced in any part of the world.

The cost of living at The Riviera, when bought with American Dollars, is less than half the cost of travel in the United States. This is true all through France. An instance of this is that the usual steak dinner which in the United States costs from $4.00 to $6.00, can be bought in the most famous restaurant in Paris or the South of France at about $2.10, tip included, where the same meal can be bought at the popular price restaurants in France for about $1.10.

After two weeks on The Riviera, Mr. McGrath returned to Paris where he spent another two weeks checking hotels, restaurants, shopping places, night clubs and excursions into the country surrounding Paris.

The restaurants can supply all kinds of food unrestricted. The only shortages that are there at present are milk and butter. No food coupons of any kind are needed and the traveler can stop at any restaurant in Paris and have a delicious meal, such as only cuisine can conceive, at a cost of from $1.00 to $2.50, depending upon the reputation of the restaurant.

The plane flights to and from France were accomplished with smoother flying than one can experience in a plane flight from Boston to New York. An example of the popularity of plane travel to and from Europe is that, at the present time, reservations have to be made months in advance.

On the return flight, Mr. McGrath came back on the Air France Constellation "Golden Comet", sleeper plane. Leaving Paris late afternoon they flew directly to Iceland in five hours and after a stop in Iceland during which Mr. McGrath contacted friends, the sleeper plane was boarded and they were flown straight to New York on a twelve hour flight, arriving in New York the following morning at 8:00 a. m. The flight on the sleeper plane was exceptionally smooth and quieter than one would find on a pullman train. There was absolutely no noise of the motor in the cabin. Mr. McGrath claims there is not a finer service to Europe than that which is supplied by the splendid planes of Air France.

DILL — NORTON

The Community Church in Annisquam was decorated with flowers and garlands of laurel on Saturday afternoon, December 11, for the marriage of Miss Nancy Norton, a former Winchester girl, and George Post Dill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Dill of Bronxville, N. Y. The bride's parents, Prof. and Mrs. Frederick H. Norton, now of Annisquam and Mt. Vernon street, Boston, formerly made their home on Sheffield road. The Rev. Keith Munson officiated at the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Norton farm in Annisquam.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown and short veil with pearl orange blossoms. Her bouquet combined white orchids and camellias.

Mrs. Richard W. Mechem of Concord, N. H., was her sister's only attendant. She was gowned in aqua faille and carried the new rust roses.

Mr. Dill had his father as his best man, and the usher corps was headed by the bride's brother, Frederick H. Norton, Jr., of Charlottesville, Va. Ushers were David Thurston and William Struby of New York City, John Chapman of Broadalbin, N. Y., Dr. Thomas Henry Hoover of Canton, O., and Morton Quantrell of Bronxville, N. Y.

The bride, a graduate of the Mary A. Burnham School and the Academy of Dramatic Art, is associated with the Children's World Theatre in New York City.

Mr. Dill prepared at the Taft School and was graduated from Williams College in the class of 1947. He is a member of the Zeta Psi fraternity.

After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Dill will make their home on West 54th street in New York City.

The fathers and daughters received communion together at the 8 o'clock mass at St. Mary's and then proceeded to Lyceum Hall where breakfast was served by a caterer.

Vincent Erhard, president of the society, presided at the breakfast and acted as toastmaster. Guest speaker was Lt. James Stapleton, U. S. N., Chaplain of the U. S. S. Sebonny, an aircraft carrier. Introduced by Rev. Fr. Thomas F. Sennott, spiritual director of St. Mary's Holy Name Society, Lt. EMPLOYS NEW ELECTRIC COUNTER KITCHEN

This modern interior plus good food cooked electrically make the Splendid Lunch a popular Winchester eating spot.

If the number of years a restaurant has been in business is a yardstick of success, then the Splendid Lunch at 555 Main Street, Winchester has compiled a fine record with 28 years of service at the same location.

Over this long period, Frank Antippas, owner and manager, has kept abreast of the latest restaurant developments with timely modernization programs. Important among these is the recent installation of an electric counter kitchen where beautifully matched and sparkling clean appliances do their jobs quickly and efficiently right before the customers' eyes.

In the kitchen section a modern electric bake oven furnishes the restaurant with all its pastry requirements while easy-to-clean and fat-saving electric fryers produce golden brown delicacies.

Whatever your cooking problem, why not investigate the advantages of electric cooking. For complete information as to equipment, kitchen planning and costs call Boston Edison's Electric and Steam Sales Department at HA. 6-3300, line 332.

NEW SCHOOL VIEWED WITH DISMAY

Editor of the Star:

One of your readers sent us a cutting from the November 26, 1948, issue of your paper reporting the discussion on automatic sprinkler protection by the Indian Hill School Building Committee.

We note with dismay that "it is the committee's opinion that no fire hazard is involved since every room in the building opens at grade, making it possible to empty the school in a very short time.

The committee evidently does not realize that the hollow joisted blind attic and extensive woodwork inside this school are potential fire breeders and that this hazard of combustible material and construction could easily make this building a fire trap for its pupils and teachers.

Even though every room in the building has an opening on the grade floor, the Building Committee is placing their responsibility for the life safety of the occupants upon their ability to make a prompt exit in case of fire.

As T. Alfred Fleming, Director of Conservation of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, so aptly expressed it: "The contents aren't fireproof - - and neither are the pupils. Even though you paid a million dollars for your school, it's a fire trap if you haven't got fire control built into it - - and the security of your children depends upon luck. And luck changes."

There are seven school fires daily throughout this country. Many cities and towns are conquered about the fire dangers in existing schools and are installing automatic sprinklers in their school plants now because of the difficulty and high cost of obtaining new structures. For example, the Brookline, Mass., Planning Board has carefully worked out a long-range plan for capital expenditures which, among other things, calls for equipping two school buildings each year with sprinklers and fire alarm connected to the Fire Department. The project is now nearly completed without noticeably affecting the tax rate.

In reporting this program, Gorham, Dana, well-known fire prevention engineer and author, remarked that it is his "belief that the schools of Brookline are now as safe against fire as if they were modern buildings. Many people do not realize that a building fully equipped with a sprinkler system, properly maintained, will prevent a fire from getting any headway. The statistics of the National Fire Protection Association, covering more than fifty years, prove that such buildings are as safe against fires as those of fireproof construction."

Also apropos of the matter under discussion is the following editorial from the Waterville, Me., Sentinel of October 23, 1948:

"The 'experts' are doing a great deal of shouting about the fire dangers in the schools of the nation. Yet we fail to hear them say anything about how the schools could be protected. They seem to want all school buildings replaced by a new type of structure which will cost the taxpayers many thousands of dollars. They forget the use of sprinklers which have time and again prevented fires which might have been serious. We would like to see every school building in the country equipped with automatic sprinklers and it is our belief they could put an end to all school fires and the deaths that so often go with them. Yet we see officials refusing to take this step although it has been proven very effective and costs nothing, as the savings on insurance pay for the sprinklers within a few years."

We hope that you will accord our letter space in your newspaper and that you will favor us with a copy of it.

Thanking you in anticipation of this courtesy, we are,

Yours very truly,
A. D. Bosch,
Secretary,
National Automatic Sprinkler and Fire Control Association

IRISH PRIEST FETED

Rev. Michael Connolly of Inishere, Aran Islands, County Galway, Ireland, who has been stopping in Winchester since his arrival in this country on the way to the west coast and eventually to Korea and the mission field, was given a "God-Speed-You" party last Saturday evening in Lyceum Hall.

About three hundred persons, many from the Isle of Aran, attended the party, there being a large number present from Winchester and Woburn.

"Mike" Curran, Woburn newspaper man, was master of ceremonies and the entertainment, all of a nature to tickle those who love the "auld sod", included Irish step-dancing by Jerry McCarron, "Big Mike" Connolly and Edward Sherry of Brighton; Irish songs by Dick McEachern of Woburn and Michael Connolly of Dorchester; monologues by William Flaherty of Woburn and a humorous sketch by Helen Doherty and Winifred McElhinney.

Music was by Dannie Doherty, accordian, John Cullen, violin and Winifred McElhinney, piano. General dancing interspersed the various entertainment numbers and followed the show.

Father Connolly addressed the gathering in Gaelic expressing his appreciation of the kindness shown him and thanking all those who aided in making the party so big a success. He got a great laugh when he humorously said that there seemed to be more Irish in America than in Eire itself.

Michael J. "Big Mike" Connolly was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, and was assisted by Coleman and Albert Flaherty, Peter Flaherty and Patrick Connolly.

AUXILIARY FIREMEN HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

On Tuesday evening, December 7, the Winchester Auxiliary Fire Department held its eighth annual meeting in Masonic Hall through the courtesy of the Trustees of the Hall.

The two alarm fire at the home of Dr. Clarke Staples on Wildwood street called the "Auxies" into action and the meeting was delayed until the fire was out.

Senior Deputy Chief T. P. Clarke presided over the business session, which engaged the attention of over one third of the active membership for the first half of the meeting. After the disposal of routine matters, the following officers were elected:

Chief Emeritus, John J. Gorman (retired).

Chief, T. Parker Clarke.

Senior Deputy Chief, Henry E. Simonds.

Junior Deputy Chief, Theodore E. Chilcott.

To fill the vacancies caused by the promotions above, a majority of the members of Companies One and Two elected Charles R. Joyce to succeed Chief H. E. Simonds as Captain of Company One; and Edward J. McDevitt to command Company Two, in place of Chief Chilcott. Deputy Chief C. W. Russell asked to be relieved of active duty.

Member Roland E. Simonds, the well-known fire prevention expert, gave a very interesting talk on modern fire hazards, and also spoke of the recent erroneous daily newspaper reports relating to a major failure of a giant water main in Lynn. Many older Winchesterites remember Roland as assistant chief when our local fire service was headed by "call" chiefs not so long ago. The concluding event was the usual light refreshments which the laddies expect and deserve at annual meetings.

Miss Nancy Calhoun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Frederick Calhoun of 33 Dix street sang with the Mount Holyoke Glee Club at their 24th annual Christmas Concert, December 16. A senior, Miss Calhoun is a graduate of the Brimmer May School in Boston.

Miss Margaret Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Holmes, 3 Lakeview road, has been elected song-leader of the freshman class at Wheaton College. Miss Holmes is a member of the Wheaton freshman Athletic Association board.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB

The Mystic Glee Club, with Keith Snyder directing and Mary Louise Wood, accompanist, opened its ninth season last Saturday evening in the high school auditorium, presenting the following program:

Bullard, "Wnter Song"; Dowland, "Come Again Sweet Love"; Rogers, "The Star"; Kountz, "The Sleigh"; Sjoberg - Balogh, "Visions"; DiLasso, "My Heart Commends Itself to Thee"; Czech Folksong, "Waters Ripple and Flow" (solos by James DeRevere and William Cruger); Foote, "Bedouin Song"; two spirituels, "The Battle of Jericho" and "Bones Come A-Knitting"; Cowboy Song, "Careless Love"; Kentucky Mountain Song, "Sourwood Mountain"; Welsh Christmas Carol, "Deck the Hall"; Shaw, "How Far Is It to Bethlehem"; Leontovich, "Carol of the Bells"; Darby, "'Twas The Night Before Christmas."

Assisting the club was Master G. Johnstone Geikie, Jr., pianist, who played "Impromptu in A Flat", "Nocturne in E Minor" and "Fantasy Impromptu" by Chopin and Cracovienne Fantastic" by Paderewski.

The usual capacity audience greeted the glee club and its new conductor, Mr. Snyder, with the customary enthusiasm, many expressing the belief this latest Christmas Concert was the club's best. While your reviewer would not subscribe to this view, there was much that was commendable in last Saturday's performance and the concert as a whole was most enjoyable.

First of all, the club for once had plenty of first tenor, and this despite the fact that several members of this section were not singing. Much of it seemed to come from a single voice early in the program, but this was rectified as the evening progressed and the top part held up beautifully to the very end.

The club has increased in size considerably this season, and generally the balance seemed improved. Tone, too, was much more pleasing than in previous seasons with the exception of last spring's concert, and once the club warmed up and got "The Sleigh" out of its system, the singers' response to their director's wishes was very commendable.

It should be remembered that last season the club had three different conductors, and with a new one again this year, it is not surprising that singers and director were not as closely en rapport during the first few numbers as they became as the program advanced.

Commencing with the splendid climax and release in the number by Sjoberg-Balogh the choir began to show its real stature and struck a first half high note with the fine performance of the "Waters Ripple and Flow". The solos in this number by Mr. DeRevere and Mr. Cruger were beautifully done, the audience especially liking to hear again from its long-time favorite, Mr. Cruger.

The favorite old Bedouin Song was excellent bravura singing, and carrying over into the second half of the program the club, as usual, gave outstanding performances of the two spirituels. The basses achieved a very pleasing tone in their lead passages in the Cowboy song, the high sustained tone of the tenors in the accompaniment being effective until the end when one of the very few deviations from pitch was apparent.

"Sourwood Mountain" was a joy alike to singers and audience, a repeat being demanded. The Bethlehem number and the "Carol of the Bells" were beautifully done, unaccompanied, in excellent tune, the modulation in the first named and the crisp diction of the second being particularly noteworthy. The Welsh Christmas Carol was less precise in its performance.

Closing the program was a first rate performance of the Waring arrangement of "The Night Before Christmas". The club has done this before, but not so effectively as last Saturday, chorus, soloists, accompanist and director combining in excellent fashion. Incidental solos were by Mr. deRevere, William Hopkins, Thomas Worthen and Dr. Cecil Pride. After Mr. Hopkins beautifully sung "Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night" the final stanza seemed very anti-climax. Spoken parts were by Austin Nanry and Bob Carlson.

Mr. Synder made a most pleasing impression throughout the program and evidently has the complete confidence of his singers. He obviously knew what he wanted and as he and his group work longer together he will undoubtedly secure the effects he seeks. In this connection it will help if more of his singers give him a glance once in a while.

Mrs. Wood gave her usual artistic performance at the piano. Always competent and unobtrusive, she is the true accompanist, supporting rather than leading and entirely equal to the most difficult scores. Her playing of the beautiful accompaniment in the Czech song was a joy, and the accompaniments she provided, especially for the Bedouin song and the final number added greatly to their effectiveness.

The youthful Master Geikie gave quite an exhibition in his piano numbers, showing a mastery of technique surprising for one of his years and a remarkable memory. Commendably modest, he was warmly received and added to his program, playing Debussy's "Gollywog Cakewalk" after his first group and a Chopin Waltz after the second.

As an extra treat the favorite Mystic Four sang four all too brief numbers during the second half, offering "That Slide Trombone", "Mood Indigo", "Revival Day" and "Old Gal of Mine" as only they can sing them. "Skip" White, "Bill" Hopkins "Tommy" Worthen and "Al" Swett were the singers. We have "tooted" them before. They are tops. Need we say more.

A meeting of Committee of Safety Chapter, D. A. R., will be held on Monday, December 20, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Vanner, 10 Oxford street. The guest speaker will be Mme. Aino Saari, who will use as her subject "Christmas Customs of Colonial Times."

MORE ON GRADE CROSSING

Editor of the Star:

I was most interested in Ed Sanderson's letter of last week on the grade crossing and it is good that somebody is still in there pitching to try and force some action on the elimination of this terrific menace to both life and property.

My feeling is that no action will ever be taken on this until the town acts in Town Meeting to appoint a special committee with funds to employ real legal aid, and aggressively go after the state and railroad for a proper allocation of funds for this vitally necessary project.

The responsibility for action in this regard should, in my opinion, first be with the Selectmen in getting into the 1949 Town Warrant the proper article to start this ball rolling. At any rate another year should not roll by with the situation getting more serious all the time without some real action.

Death and destruction are in the shadows of these passing trains speeding through the heart of this every growing community. It is, I agree, discouraging to know that letters like this have been written to the STAR long before I was able to read, and still no results. It is encouraging to recall the progress that was made in 1946 that was stopped, according to Ed Sanderson, by State politics!

Let's fight for some real progress on this project in 1949!

Very truly yours,
Daniel F. Barnard

WINCHESTER DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

The Winchester District nurses have had a very heavy schedule during November-December, with much overtime, and three nurses working to meet the needs of the patients, according to reports of Mrs. Jane Lord, Director, and Mrs. Richard Johnson, Chairman of the Nursing Committee, made at the December meeting of the District Nursing Association last Friday morning. Mrs. Lord also reported 45 new patients, 185 total patients in November, making a total of 3539 cases handled by the nurses so far this year.

Mrs. Ben R. Schneider, Finance Chairman, moved that the Association request the Community Fund to decrease WDNA's allotment for 1949 from $2800 to $2550, a saving of $250 to the Fund, due to investments of money which the WDNA trustees have made for the Association. It was unanimously approved.

Other reports were given by Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Nominating Chairman, of the slate of officers to be presented at the annual meeting in January, date of which will be announced in the STAR by Mrs. Henry Moffette, Educational Chairman; and Mrs. George E. Connor, Publicity chairman.

Mrs. Browne Reviews Book

Mrs. Theodore C. Browne gave a complete and interesting report on the current book, "Nursing for the Future" by Dr. Esther Lucille Brown.

Among the highlights of the report was the fact that there is, need today for more nurses in hospitals, clinics, health work. Yet despite this crying need ,the average graduate nurse is receiving $175 a month and less, has little opportunity for promotion and increase in salary, no compensation for hours of overtime, has too much office detail, little time off, and in many instances, is not accorded the dignity her office should have.

Dr. Brown's book pointed to the need of the professional nurse in remedial medicine, in health planning. "The registered nurse should become the physicians' colleague," it pointed out, adding that clinical nurses should be advanced according to merit, time given them for conferences and writing, and at every opportunity, more responsibilty and authority allocated to these nurses.

The book goes on to explain that there are 58 schools of practical nursing in this country, and that there should be many more to fill in the gaps in nursing needs. In addition there are public vocational schools giving practical nursing training. Dr. Brown recommends that vocational instruction in public schools in this field be given for one full year, one full year in hospital training, before the practical nurse is ready for her work. With such training, the practical nurse could give able assistance in hospitals and clinics.

Dr. Brown urged that states close hospitals of inferior quality, and also close nursing schools not giving adequate training today—and she insisted that there are many of these. She urged the Junior College system in nursing schools, with adequate teachers for the courses. She pointed to the weaknesses in many tuberculosis and mental hospitals in their training of nurses.

Also, Dr. Brown stated in her book that more and more MEN nurses are needed today, along with opportunity for married nurses to continue work, and for older nurses to take refresher courses and remain active.

Dr. Brown's Utopian plan of a four year college course for nurses, with its hours of study, years of nursing, outpatient and clinical training, was much discussed by the board members after the very able presentation of the review by Mrs. Browne—whose husband had been interested enough to write an entertaining introduction of "Nursing for the Future."

WINCHESER HOSPITAL NEWS

The shop is open from two until four-thirty, Monday through Saturday. Included in the varied stock are candy and a good assortment of baby things, as well as other small gifts. Coffee and tea are served.

Hospital Report. The Report of the Hospital for the year 1947-48 is now in the hands of the Directors and Staff members, and will be widely used in the appeal for contributions to complete the Building Fund. A new arrangement of material within the Report follows recommendations made by the Committee on Public Relations at the request of the Directors. The result sought was more detailed information on the actual operation of the hospital presented in easily readable form, and we believe this result has been achieved.

Two pages giving a summary of assets, liabilities and the year's income and expense items are readily understandable, and two more pages list the capital gifts which make up the Hospital's endowmen funds. For the first time the full Staff roster of one hundred and eleven doctors is printed, and in connection with Dr. Sheehy's report as President of the Staff there is a record of papers published and participation in radio programs. The executive staff serving under the Administrator is printed in a new form, giving all department heads.

Two pages outline in graphs and brief text the facts concerning the overcrowding of the hospital and the increasing unbalance of the services during the past decade. The need for expansion of facilities and the very serious nature of the strain which has increased rapidly since 1939 is clearly shown.

There is also a record of gifts in services and equipment which tells a story of community and individual generosity.

The cover of the Report is a cut from the Schell Lewis sketch of the present hospital and the proposed addition, the latter showing the plan before revision. There is also a double-page spread of eleven photographs grouped to show a "patient-centered hospital" in which departments and services all have as their function the restoration of the patient to health and strength.

Beggs & Cobb are putting in a new well at the factory on Swanton street, going down 128 feet. During the digging many round beach stones were found toward the bottom of the well, evidently from the bed of the old Merrimac River when it flowed down through this valley.

Wheeler-Mansfield Cup Winners
(left to right) Lynn Aitkens (Wheeler Cup), High School Principal Wade L. Grindle, Peter Dillingham (Mansfield Cup)

SPORTSMANSHIP CUPS AWARDED

Lynn Aitkens, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Lloyd J. S. Aitkens of Crescent road, and Peter Dillingham, son of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Paul W. Dillingham of Columbus Ohio, are the new winners of the Wheeler and Mansfield Sportsmanship Cups, awarded yearly to the girl and boy in the senior class at Winchester High School adjudged to have displayed the best sportsmanship and to have done the most for athletics while undergraduates.

The cups were given by Wendell D. Mansfield in 1928 while he was athletic director at Winchester High and by his wife, the former Priscilla Wheeler, who before her marriage was director of Physical Education and coach of girls at the high school here. The first winners were Ganzio Amico, now a captain in the Winchester Fire Department, and Dorothea MacKenzie, who makes her home with her mother, Mrs. Alexander MacKenzie of Washington street, and whose father was the late Fireman A. W. "Sandy" MacKenzie.

In this year's winners the Army and the Navy share honors, for Lynn's father is a Naval officer while "Pete's" father is an Army officer. This is probably a unique situation in the awarding of the trophies.

Both Lynn and "Pete" are outstanding seniors, and three letter athletes. Lynn has played on the varsity field hockey, basketball and soft ball teams and is captain of this year's basketball team. At the Interscholastic field hockey coompetition at Beaver Country Day School this fall she was chosen left wing on the honorary first team, comprising the best players participating. Aside from her high school athletic activity she has been one of the outstanding members of the Winchester Swimming Club during the past two seasons, being a former Massachusetts State 100 meter backstroke champion as well as a good breaststroke and freestyle swimmer. She is also a member of the high school rifle club, secretary of the executive board of the Athletic Association, has participated in two vaudeville shows and has been a school cheer-leader.

"Pete" has been a three sport performer since his freshman year. Last year he won varsity letters in football, basketball and track and this season in co-captain of track and counted on as a regular in basketball. In football he was one of Winchester's outstanding performers all fall and is the only Winchester boy to win honorable mention in the various "all" scholastic selections of the Boston sportswriters. He won the McCormack Trophy as the best Winchester back in the Woburn game, and had there been a trophy for the best back on the field, Peter would have had it.

Aside from sports "Pete" is an honor roll student who has consistently carried extra courses. Headed for Harvard, he won the Harvard Book Prize as a junior. He is a member of the A.A. executive board, has played in the band for two years and is vice president of the Student Council.

WINCHESTER BOYS HOME FROM GOVERNOR DUMMER

Winchester boys returning home to spend the Christmas holidays from Governor Dummer Academy include Charles P. Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. Benson, 13 Winthrop street; Marshall W. Jones, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Walker Jones, 27 Ridge road; and Arthur Withington II, son of Mrs. Frederic B. Withington, 174 Mystic Valley Parkway. Benson won his letter in varsity football and is a member of the Rifle Club. Jones received his letter on one of the junior varsity football teams, is a member of the Rifle Club, and a member of the Glee Club. Withington played junior varsity football and is a member of the Glee Club also.

BICKNELL MEMORIAL EXHIBITION

The memorial exhibition of etchings by the late W. H. W. Bicknell, which the Winchester Art Association is sponsoring this month at the library art gallery, is proof positive that whatever his own preference, etching was his real metier. "Bick," himself, with his many talent facets, used to say that he would rather paint than etch and rather play cello than either. He painted well, he played a good 'cello, he sang pleasingly, acted a bit and as a young man organized and produced several successful musical shows in Winchester and elsewhere. There was little in the artistic field he couldn't turn his hand to, and yet it is through his etching he will be remembered, and deservedly so.

Browse through the exhibition at the library. See what a master of his craft this former well known resident of Winchester was. Witness the imagination that enabled him to find the beauty he did in commonplace scenes and thrill to the artistic approach that enabled him to make so much of a single tree bending to the breeze preceding a storm, or row of evergreens stark against the sky line, or some pieces of driftwood forming a cross on the beach.

See his masterly portraits, "Bick" himself, sketching on the dunes; another self portrait done about 1930, and still a third, after the drawing by William Paxton. Mrs. Edward Johnson, W. E. Schrafft, Louis Parkhurst, Dr. Marsh, M. Richards and Mrs. Cornelia Houghton are among the subjects of fine portraits older Winchester residents will find most interesting, though there are other equally fine ones, like George Washington, Cardinal Newman, General MacArthur and Walter Damrosch. A beautiful portrait and character study is the sensitively done Benediction after Nicholas Mass, with its atmosphere of homely reverence.

A number of studies done around the Country Club are on display. "Bick's" Winchester home was near the club grounds and he loved the many little beauty spots around the links. Country Club Green-Keeper's House will have a special appeal for Country Club members.

Other fine studies of local interest are the Well Sweep with its view of the Vinson house on High street and the former Skillings House framed by trees and done with snow on the ground. Several intriguing little studies of the Aberjona before its final moving are shown and there are also a number of alongshore scenes, done probably at or around "Bick's" beloved Provincetown.

To get Mr. Bicknell's master touch study his landscape with the cows, in which he achieves almost the effect of a painting. His "Sunflower" is full of light and human interest while his "Cross on the Beach" shows his imagination and abilty to see the artistic in the commonplace.

Miss Ella May Emerson, who is spending the winter in Florida, writes the STAR that her present address is 835 Preston avenue, South, St., Petersburg. Miss Emerson is well known among many Winchester people, and as she did not have a permanent address when she left town, she will be glad to hear from those who may wish to contact her.

CAROL SINGING CHRISTMAS EVE

The annual Christmas Eve Carol Singing around the Tree on the Common, sponsored by the Fortnightly and in charge of Mary Ranton Witham, will take place on December 24 at 7.15 P. M. following the playing of the Carillon at the Unitarian Church at 7 o'clock.

Our old friends, T. Parker Clarke, Norman Clarke and Henry Fitts will be on hand to play, supplemented by a quartette of talented high-schoolers who have been working with Mr. Fred Felmet. They are John Hammond and Carol Hadley, trumpets; Douglas Nason and Fred Walsh trombones. All of the children are requested to bring bells so that "Jingle Bells" will be completely realistic.

The following Carols will be sung—

Silent Night

God rest you merry, gentlemen.

It came upon a midnight clear
Hark! the herald angels sing
O come, all ye faithful

Every so often some misguided soul, with a perverted idea of what constitutes a good time, drives an automobile over the surface of Ginn Field, usually when the turf there is soft. Ruts, more or less deep, according to the softness of the turf, are cut by the machine and the field in either case is damaged unnecessarily. Only recently a car, reported to contain several boys, drove all over the field and the police are trying to learn the identity of the operator. Let us hope that they find the responsible party and that the Park Commissioners let no mistaken idea of leniency stand in the way of giving him "the business". It would be a good idea, we believe, to place two substantial granite posts at either side of the road through the field at the tennis courts to the north of the field and at the end of the wooden fence on the slope off Bacon street, equipped with heavy chains like those strung across the snow-bridge at the foot of Mystic avenue. These chains could be unlocked to permit town and M. D. Sewer trucks to pass through, but would prevent pleasure cars from reaching the playing surface of the playground and incidentally threaten the safety of players and spectators at the summer soft-ball games there.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

The Washington School Christmas assembly will be presented Tuesday, December 21. This year's program will include the play, "Strangers Came to Bethlehem, by Harriet Van Ohlefen. The cast for this story of the first Christmas will be made up of the fifth and sixth grades. A group of students from these two upper classes will sing carols as part of the program.

All the classes are painting Christmas murals, either to hang in their own rooms or in the corridors. Many of the classrooms have table exhibits. Christmas pictures, and other holiday decorations.

The first grade pupils are making dictionaries containing the new words which they have learned this year.

Last week, all upper-grade students interested in skiing were invited with their parents by Roland A. Nault, fifth grade teacher, to meet with him to discuss safe skiing, and to see a demonstration by Charles Koch of the Sport Shop of proper skiing equipment and proper method of waxing skis.

PASSED POLICE SERGEANT'S EXAMINATION

Eight of the eleven men who took the examination for promotion to sergeant in the Winchester Police Department passed, according to Civil Service Director Thomas J. Greehan. Grades were not made public with the list of those who passed, and it will be probably two weeks before a list is submitted to the Board of Selectmen for the actual selection.

Those who passed, in alphabetical order, are Edward F. Bowler, 17 Winchester place, John J. Dolan 341 Washington street, William T. Haggerty, 41 Middlesex street, John J. Murray, 117 Forest street, James F. Noonan, 27 Sheridan circle, Archie T. O'Connell, 30 Lincoln street, Winthrop A. Palmer, 8 Wedge Pond road, and D. Irving Reardon, 226 Washington street.

DEER HUNTING CHAMPIONSHIP CLAIMED

Francis Circuit is claiming the deer-hunting championship of Winchester with a record of three hunters and three deer for 100 percent.

Hunters were Franklin Flanders, 160 pound spike-horn; Nelson K. Brown, 215 pound 10 point buck; and Jack Morgan, 130 pound doe. Incidentally Mr. Brown got his big buck with his first shot from 30-30 gun bought from Charles Koch at the Winchester Sport Shop. Surely the moral is obvious.

PRAISE FOR MRS. CUSHMAN

Editor of the Star:

Your review of "THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE" I thought excellent. However, if I may venture one criticism, I would like to call to your attention that no mention whasoever was made of our superb, uncomplaining, and perfectly wonderful accompanist, Mrs. Lucy Cushman. She didn't fail us at one single rehearsal and without her we never could have undertaken our show.

This letter I know expresses the sentiment of every member of our cast, as well as our excellent director, Mr. L. Hassler Einzig.

A member of the cast.

Ed. Note The Star yields to none in its admiration for Mrs. Cushman's ability and generosity as an accompanist and in extenuation of our reviewer we can state that the orchestra which played for the show, and of which Mrs. Cushman was one, was particularly commended. None of the orchestra members was singled out for individual praise and a reviewer outside the Staff and Key could not know who had done what in advance of the performance.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

Warrant for the town meeting will be closed on January 31st.

James B. Harlow, 17 Cabot street was drawn as juror to serve at the third session of the Superior Court (Civil) at Cambridge January 3, 1949.

An excellent photograph of Mayor Crompton of Winchester England was received this week. The Board's annual Christmas message has been sent to the Mayor.

William H. Sullivan, 281 Washington street, was appointed to the auxiliary fire force.

MONA PAULEE

Mona Paulee, mezzo-soprano, gave the second in the 1948-49 Community Concert series Wednesday evening in the high school auditorium, presenting a program of Italian and Spanish songs, operatic arias, Brahms lieder, and a final group of English songs, most of which are still in manuscript: A cordial audience of good size greeted the singer and demanded many extra numbers.

Miss Paulee has a voice of good size and luscious quality in its middle registers. Her top and lower tones lose some of this opulent texture and most noticeably early in the evening there was some slight trouble with pitch on the higher notes. Her interpretive skill is commensurate with her rich musical background and her great dramatic powers enable her to project her varied moods to her audience in most effective fashion. At all times she seemed much more concerned with the story of the song than with its mere musical setting though she also achieved at will rich tonal effects, particularly in the softer passages that were hauntingly beautiful. Her breath control and diction were at all times admirable, and the songs she sang in English were easily understandable, no small feat in itself.

In this connection she charmingly announced that she is a guinea pig for the singing of foreign composers' things in English, and offered the Brahms group in this tongue instead of their original German for the opinion of the audience. While your reviewer believes that Brahms lieder go best in their native German, the audience did not share this view apparently, for it voted via the applause index to have Miss Paulee sing the "Habenera" from Bizet's "Carmen" in English, too.

This lilting operatic gem was superbly done, though just how knowing that "Love is a woodbird always free, and if I love you, look out for me", aided the appreciation of the number isn't too apparent.

An actual cry of "bravo" mingled with the well-deserved applause after the familiar "Una voce poco fa" from "The Barber" by Rossini, and equally gripping was Miss Paulee's singing of the "Pleurez, mes yeux" from "Le Cid" by Massenet. The singer seemed to have a particular flair for Spanish music and did her group of Spanish songs beautifully.

Her final English group displayed Miss Paulee's ability to cope with the quirkful entertainment type of thing as well as the more intense songs like the thrilling "When You Walk Thru Woods" by Elinor Remick Warren, of which she gave a truly superb performance.

Miss Paulee was generous with encores, some of her extra numbers being especially enjoyable. Among them were the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria", not done in English by the way; "Comin' Thro' the Rye", done for this reviewer a "thoct" too dramatically; the appealing "Smiling Through", the lilting "O Dear What Can the Matter Be", with a brand-new counter accompaniment beautifully done by Lowell Farr; and the favorite "Summer Time' from George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess." Charming to look at as well as listen too, Miss Paulee had difficulty in escaping from her admiring audience.

Her accompanist-husband, Mr. Farr, played superbly, yet so unobstrusively that you were never over-aware of his contribution to the program, one when can not be over praised. Effortlessly he played the most difficult scores with a beautiful singing tone, each note even in the most rapid passages being articulate. His piano spoke as clearly as his wife's voice and the two combine in a most admirable team.

Mr. Farr contributed a group of greatly enjoyed piano selections to the program, and was literally forced to add two extra numbers to the group.

Finger paints, construction paper, crayons, art books are in stock at Wilson the Stationer. Star Building.

ATTRACTIVE CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS AT NATIONAL BANK

Among attractive decorations around the center are those at the Winchester National Bank, where the evergreen-draped name signs are illuminated in green and there is a gaily decorated and lighted Christmas tree in the window. It is reported Eva Christiensen is responsible for the tree decorations, but we saw Windover Robinson decorating the signs and very probably Gunnar Abrahamson had at least a hand in the whole business.

It pays to advertise in the Star.

A BEAUTIFUL SERVICE OF SONG

At the Unitarian Church on Sunday afternoon the program of Christmas carols as presented by the Mary Witham Singers was a notably artistic and reverened service. The carols were given in three groups effectively arranged for eloquence and contrast, bringing to mind the story of the Christ child in its varying aspects as it has impressed the spirit of mankind.

Opening with a simple Polish carol that told, "When the Savior Christ was Born," and briefly closed with adoring glorias, the group then sang an excellent arrangement of the early American," I Wonder as I Wander," the simple, plaintive melody moving from the soprano into the lower voices with telling effect. "O Bethlehem," a Basque carol, contains a brief alto solo of deep reproach effectively sung by Marian Wright. The well-known "Carol of the Russian Children" seemed to gain fresh beauty by the lovely quality of the women's voices, and the gay "Carol of the Bells," a capella, admirably done, brought the first section of the program to a close with care-free joy.

After the invocation and scripture reading by Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, the singers gave another, a capella number, "Adoramus Te Christs,," by Palestrina, with the deep reverence of ancient church music, following it with a joyous arrangement of a simple Polish carol, "He is Sleeping," stressing, "More than all their kingly coffers, 'Tis the love that each one offers, Wins the blessing of our Lord." Next came the sad Coventry Carol with its lovely melody in tender pathos surrounding a brief duet of the threatening menace of Herod to the Child. A Hungarian carol, "The Christ of the Snow," followed. There is something in it crystal-clear and sparkling as snow on a frosty night, and it was beautifully sung. "The Croon Carol," which is Old German, is a magnificent composition ranging from low tender crooning to robust acclaim of the Christ. The Sioux Tribal Carol, "Stars Lead Us Ever On," with which the second portion of the program closed, is dramaticly moving, the high ecstacy of the soprano solo, by Sophia Gardner," Man is by God redeemed!," undertoned always with the rythmic beat and deep grief of the lower voices which keep repeating, "Because of one man, one lovely man, on cruel, piercing thorn!"

The closing group of carols opened with an exquisite Bohemian cradle song, "Still Grows the Evening over Bethlehem Town." It was sung a capella with great tenderness and delicacy. In its swinging, "Rockaby! O Hushaby!" it is most gently maternal. "The Carol of the Wind" is from Silesia of the early 18th century and pictures, musically, wind and cold as Mary and Joseph tend the child. The lovely tone of the women's voices was next shown in Humperdinck's simple "Prayer from Hansel and Gretel," followed by the Slovak "Carol of the Sheep Bells" wherein description of simple shepherds and the tinkling of their flocks is alternated with passages of magnificent Alleluias. The Polish "Star Lullaby," gentle and lovely, led to the final number, a brilliant arrangement of a Portuguese Christmas canyone, "The Little Jesus of Braga." It is inspiring equally by the voices and by its vivid piano setting. It was a magnificent finale.

The Mary Witham Singers proved to be outstanding in enimeciation, words clearly heard as by one voice, and by their flexible and sensitive response to the desires of their director, Mrs. Witham. She has by her artistic ability achieved rare beauty through this group, and at the organ her offertory and posthide, the Pastoral Symphony and the Halleluyah Chorus from Handel's Messiah" were impressive for deep reverence.

Lucy Wilcox Cushman, accompanist of the Singers, with her usual sympathetic response, gave the voices just the right support, obviating the difficulties of a piano in a church auditorium.

The incidental solos not previously mentioned were all sung with beauty: Elizabeth Gardner and Nathalie Cary in "The Little Jesus of Braga," Suzanne Armstrong and Olive Bird in the Coventry Carol, and Ruth Diety in "The Carol of the Winds." Other members of the group who were:

WINTHROP HERE THURSDAY

The Winchester High basketball team will open its home season next Thursday evening, December 23, at the High School gym when they entertain Winthrop High School. Winthrop always presents a powerful quintet and has won three out of four contests played with the locals in the past two years. Another indication of the strength of the visitors is the fact that they have reached the semi-finals of the Tech Tournament in both of the past two years.

The locals will have had a game under their belts when they tackle the visitors and hope to start their home season off on the right foot with a victory over the North Shore boys. The Red and Black this year does not have the heighth of last year's quintet but does possess more speed and attempts to capitalize on that speed with a fast break that was not a part of last year's offense. This should make for a faster, higher scoring game which will appeal to the spectators.

The Red and Black will be sporting new uniforms that are quite eye-filling and are sure to make a hit with their rooters Another feature that will appeal to many spectators is the fact that a complete section of the bleachers will be reserved for adults only. For those who are hesitant about sitting in a section of yelling, howling students, the comparative peace and quiet of this reserved section will prove an added attraction. These seats will be reserved for adults until game time and then will be thrown open to all if not filled.

There will be a first and second team game, as usual, with the second team game getting underway at 7:30 p. m. A large turnout is expected as this is one of the most attractive games on the home schedule.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL POLYPHONIC CHOIR

Christmas Candle Light Carol Service Sunday Afternoon Dec. 19 At 4.00 o'clock

The public is cordially invited to attend the beautiful candle light Carol Service to be sung by the Polyphonic choir of the First Congregational Church in Winchester, under the direction of J. Albert Wilson, on this Sunday afternoon, Dec. 19th at 4 o'clock.

A program of ancient medieval and newly arranged familiar carols will be sung by the well trained choir of forty voices.

The Rev. Dr. Howard J. Chidley will conduct the devotions and congregational singing of Christmas hymns will be part of the program.

You are invited to attend in family groups and enrich your Christmas week through this musical service of worship.

An offering will be taken.

The complete program is printed elsewhere in this issue of the Star.

LAST CALL SOUNDED FOR LATE MAILERS

Last call was sounded yesterday by Postmaster Gilgun for patrons wishing to have Christmas cards and gift parcels delivered to cities any distance by Christmas Day.

Emphasizing that only 7 days remain until Christmas, the local postmaster warned late mailers that air mail and air parcel post facilities should be used exclusively. Otherwise, due to the unprecedented volume of mail now in transit, gifts traveling by slower methods face the probability of not reaching their destination in ample time.

He pointed out that mail going by air will reach any city in the United States overnight, and in some instances will reach overseas point in 24 hours, particularly to United States possessions and territories as well as Canada, Mexico and Cuba.

There is an average lapse of only seven seconds between landings or takeoffs of scheduled mail planes flying over the 127,000 miles of domestic routes, according to Postmaster Gilgun, while overseas bound planes leave every 30 minutes.

"With a modern postal system second to none, our 42,000 post offices stand prepared to expedite incoming and outgoing holiday traffic through the last minute. However, tardy patrons must take the responsibility from here on out unless they use our fastest transportation -- which is air mail and air parcel post," said Postmaster Gilgun.

The local postmaster estimates an increase of over 12% more than last year at the Winchester post office.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON LEAGUE

The Florence Crittenton League of Compassion, Winchester Circle, will hold its Christmas meeting on Friday, December 17th, at the home of Mrs. Albert Comins, 407 Highland avenue, at 2:30 p. m., with the President, Mrs. Frank H. Knight, presiding.

Miss Cushla de Lange, talented New Zealand soprano, will offer an interesting group of songs. Miss de Lange is well known to radio and concert audiences in her own country and in Australia, where, during the war, she gave freely of her time to sing for American troups at camps and hospitals. She has appeared locally at the Fortnightly Morning Musicale and as featured soloist with the Mystic Glee Club.

Miss Gertrude Treen, Director of Welcome House, and Miss Helen Fowler, Superintendent of Maternity House and Hospital, will speak to the members, telling of their accomplishments in their work with the girls.

Miss Denyse Wolff has arrived home from the Stoneleigh-Prospect Hill School in Greenfield and is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Wolff of 21 Stowell road. Miss Wolff is treasurer of the Senior Class.

Another Winchester girl, Miss Mary E. Bodman, is also home from Stoneleigh for the holidays. She is vice-president of the senior class and also vice-president of the Athletic Council, besides being a staff member of the school newspaper. Miss Bodman is the daughter of Mr. aand Mrs. John W. Bodman of 18 Wedgemere avenue.

Miss Susan Dalzell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dalzell of Sheffield West, is home from Stoneleigh-Prospect Hill to spend Christmas here. Miss Dalzell is secretary and treasurer of the Riding Club and a member of the photography staff of the year book.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL FIFTH GRADE TEA

On Thrusday, December 9, Mrs. John Doherty of Highland avenue was hostess at a tea for the mothers of the fifth-grade pupils of the George Washington School. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee which consisted of Mrs. E. Prescott Randlett, chairman, Mrs. Alfred Gullikson, Mrs. Paul Rimbach, Mrs. George Stratton, Mrs. Albert Thompson, and Mrs. William Urmson. The room mothers, Mrs. H. W. Tisdall and Mrs. William Young, also assisted in the tea preparations, and Mrs. Young presided at the tea table.

At the request of some of the mothers, Mr. Nault spoke on the science and the language arts presented at the intermediate grade level; and Miss Rich discussed the social studies program and arithmetic for the fifth grade. A lively discussion was begun on the skills expected at the fifth grade level.

This tea concluded the series of grade teas held at the school. Most mothers felt that much has been gained by affording them an opportunity to hear the grade teacher speak and to discuss with the teacher and the principal and with each other the problems that are common to the age level of a particular grade. In general the teachers and Miss Rich attempted to present to the mothers the theme of the development of good human relations at each grade level and the part of discipline in the home and in the schoool in establishing these.

The teas were for the most part very well attended with such active discussions by the parents and teachers that the time and effort of the hostesses who opened their homes and of the committees who served such attractive and delicious refreshments were well rewarded. Mrs. Philip Watson was in charge of arranging the series of teas at the George Washington School.

Virginia Symmes, 233 Main street, has been elected secretary of the student council and general student organization at the Boston University school of nursing.

TROOP 7 ENTERTAINS THE EXPERTS

Last Monday's meeting at the First Baptist Church was a doubly interesting one for the fellows of Troop 7. Two guest speakers were present to present expert information to the scouts, in their respective fields. Winthrop Palmer of the Winchester Police Department gave a talk on safety that was really worth hearing, coming from a man who has to use - and help others to use - safety principles every day.

The second guest speaker was Dr. Benson, lecturing on First Aid. This was Doc's second visit to the Troop this month - First Aid month in scouting - and he's promised to be back again, too. There's nothing to equal First Aid instruction from a doctor, and the leaders and the fellows at Troop 7 think Doc Benson is pretty swell to co-operate so closely with them, these days.

Yes sir, the Troop, that's got the whole town talking is going ahead next week. Investiture services are going to be held next Monday to officially "launch" Ken Cleaves and Ray Simpson as full-fledged Tenderfeet, and initiate Terry Tallman into the rarified upper air of a genuine Second Class Scout. Also, to try and give credit everywhere credit is due, Frank Lawton was recently up before the Board of Review for two merit badges. Nice going, men - but it's no surprise to anyone who knows Troop 7 scouts They just can't stand still!

As Ray Simpson puts it: "Never ask a fellow what troop he's from. If he's a Troop 7 man - he'll tell you! And if he's not, why embarrass him?"

You Winchester folks who have been saving your Christmas card money for the season's best buy: those Troop 7 "WINCHESTER CENTER" cards, had better hurry. The boys have a sales contest that's really hot, and the cards are really going fast. If you can't wait for a scout to bring you a pack, go to Hevey's, McCormack's, or Purtle's Drug Stores, the Winslow Press, the STAR Office, or Butterworth the jeweler's. Don't delay! BUY YOURS TODAY! A full dozen for just a dollar.

Don't forget Monday's meeting. First Baptist Church, downstairs. See you then!

The sixth grade pupils are making a stained glass window as their project for Christmas. With this in mind, the following mothers have planned a very interesting trip for these pupils. Mrs. Sears Walker, Mrs. Herbert Ross, Mrs. Donald Wright, Mrs. James McElroy and Mrs. Melvin Sears are driving them to visit the Charles J. Connick Associates, makers of stained glass windows, on Thursday of this week.

Mystic School received a wonderful Christmas gift this week from someone who wishes to be unknown; a set of the recording of the Messiah by Sir Thomas Beechem and the Royal Philharmonic orchestra. A more lovely gift for the children could not be imagined. Most hearty thanks go to the generous giver whoever it is.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE AT EPIPHANY

There will be the usual midnight service of Holy Communion at the Church of the Epiphany on Christmas Eve., December 24.

Every one is cordially invited to attend this service, and in past years many have availed themselves of the opportunity it affords to welcome Christmas in the ages-old tradition of reverence and joy.

The vested choir of the church under the direction of Organist Enos Held will sing Christmas Carols, commencing at 11:15, and at 11:30 the rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, will read the service of Holy Communion. The choir will sing Christmas hymns and an anthem.

WINCHESTER TOASTMISTRESS CLUB

The Winchester Toastmistress Club met at the home of Mrs. Helen Pietz, 99 Pine Ridge road, West Medford, at 8 p. m. Tuesday evening, December 7, 1948.

The meeting began with a dessert and everyone felt the Christmas spirit with the beautiful decorations through-out the house.

Toastmistress for the evening Miss Hilda Hope of Winchester introduced the guest speakers. Miss Ellen Riggs of Cambridge, Chairman of the committee for European Relief and Mrs. Henry Kidder of Concord, Mass., Chairman of the Women's Committee for radio station W. R. O. L.

Mrs. Lena Smith of Winchester gave a five minute Christmas story by Clement C. Moore "The Noel Candle".

Dorothy M. Evans, Choir Director of the West Medford Congregational Church played Christmas Carols while the group sang.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, January 11 at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Rachel Bagley, 36 Highland avenue, Cambridge. Mrs. Rene Bagley will serve as Toastmistress for the evening. Principal speakers will be Mrs. Hope Powell of Melrose, Mrs. Virginia Daly of Medford and Mrs. Rachel Bagley of Cambridge. HARLOW — OBER

Miss Janet Haskell Ober, a former Winchester girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Everett Ober of 37 Beacon street, Boston, was married on Saturday evening, December 4, to James Bradford Harlow, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bradford Harlow of 17 Cabot street. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother, Merton E. Ober, Jr., 163 Cambridge street, and was performed at 7 o'clock by Dr. Howard J. Chidley, pastor of the First Congregational Church, in a setting of white snapdragons and chrysanthemums. The bride and bridegroom stood in front of a fireplace decorated with smilax and white carnations.

The bride wore a dress of silver lame with flecks of brown and burnt orange, and brown accessories. Instead of a bouquet she carried a prayer-book with a white orchid.

Miss Carol Hersey of Winchester was the bride's only attendant, wearing a grey crepe dress and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations. John West of Winchester was best man for Mr. Harlow.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony with the members of both families assisting in receiving.

After their wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Harlow will live on Beacon street in Boston until May.

The bride is a graduate of the Mary A. Burnham School in Northampton and attended the Erskine School. Mr. Harlow is a graduate of Governor Dummer Academy and is attending Harvard University, where he is a member of the Speaker's Club.

DOUBLE CHRISTMAS MEETING

The Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will conduct two Sunday Christmas Services both the 19th and 26th. There will be special music for each Sunday.

This Sunday, the pastor will base his sermon on the classic Christmas experience of the "Man Who Was Too Busy To Find The Christ Child" by Lucius Bugbee. The following Sunday, the pastor will relate the experiences of a young soldier who had one of the most unusual Christmas Eves ever experienced in finding Christ. The subject for the morning, "Unto You Is Born."

OBSERVED GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clifford Ross of 17 Bacon street observed their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday evening at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bugbee, 22 Symmes road. Seventy-five relatives and old friends gathered to extend congratulations and best wishes, and the house was gay with flowers sent by well wishers in honor of the occasion. A large anniversary cake centered the refreshment table.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross were married December 14, 1898, in Plymouth. They have made Winchester their home for 45 years, their daughter, Mrs. Bugbee and their two sons, W. Campbell and Herbert F. Ross, also living here. There are eight grandchildren, Campbell's son and daughter, Bradlee and Maryanna; Mrs Bugbee's daughter and two sons, Margery, Richard and Alan; and Herbert's son and two daughters, Billy, Nancy and Martha.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ross are in good health, and Mr. Ross still goes daily to his shoe business in Boston. The STAR is happy to add its congratulations to those already received.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith (Velma Kelley) of 45 Wildwood street are the parents of a daughter, Valerie Dawn, born December 4 at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Kelley of Mystic Valley Parkway and Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Smith of Hopedale.

WILLIS O. BLAISDELL

Willis O. Blaisdell, formerly of Vine street, and widely known as a taxi operator in Winchester, died early Sunday morning, December 12, at the Rose Sanatorium in Salem, following several weeks illness. He suffered a shock six weeks ago, and after treatment at the Winchester Hospital for two weeks was removed to the sanatorium.

Mr. Blaisdell was the son of Samuel and Ellen (Ladd) Blaisdell. He was born June 11, 1870, in Dayton, Me., but as a boy of 11 came with his parents to Massachusetts and as a young man settled in Winchester. He first worked for S. W. "Sam" Smith, who had a slaughter house on Washington street near Swanton street, and he often drove cattle to Winchester from Brighton on foot, the trip taking all night.

Mr. Blaisdell was for a time partner in a shoe store in the White Block on Mt. Vernon street, then Pleasant street. He then went into the provision business, running a market on upper Main street at the site of the present Jenney Gasoline Station in the building which was moved from that location to Washington street and now houses Seller's Market. Moving across the street to the Niles Block, he then ran first an order provision business and later, a cash market. In recent years he had operated a taxi, having for his customers a fine Lincoln sedan. He was a member of Waterfield Lodge, I. O. O. F., and was well known, his genial personality making him many friends among his patrons and business associates in the center.

Mr. Blaisdell leaves a son, Harry O. Blaisdell of Marblehead, and four grandsons.

Funeral services were conducted at the Kelley & Hawes Chapel on Tuesday afternoon by Lottie Ladd of Newburyport, a Christian Science Reader and cousin of Mr. Blaisdell. Burial was in Saco, Me.

MRS. MINNIE RICHBURG FIELD

Mrs. Minnie Richburg Field, widow of Fred C. Field and a former resident of Winchester, died Monday morning, December 13, at the Nevins Home in Methuen after a long illness.

Mrs. Field was born January 25, 1869, in Jamaica Plain, the daughter of Henry J. and Bertha Richburg. She lived on Hemingway street for about 25 years, later living in West Hampstead, N. H., until the death of her husband in 1943. Following Mr. Field's death she entered the Nevins Home. She leaves no immediate family.

Christian Science funeral services were conducted at the home Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Ernest C. Hatch of Winchester. Interment was in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

DREAMING OF A WHITE XMAS?

Editor of the Star:

Answering accumulated questions: -

.1. "Dreaming" seems to be the right word while Reds to the right of us, Reds to the left of us, volley and thunder. If this be the charge of the light brigade, we had better re-examine our espionage laws before they roll up their heavy artillery. The writer does not feel that this column should be used to discuss cases before a Federal Grand Jury.

2. Central Intelligence Agency: - The writer is indebted to the "Army Information Digest" and Rear Admiral Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, U.S.N for the following information. This Agency functions under the National Security Council. The Council directs the planning, development and coordination of all foreign intelligence activities by the Central Intelligency Agency. All this came about as a result of the Pearl Harbor investigations.

The Director of the Central Intelligence Agency is Rear Admiral Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter; commissioned Ensign upon graduation from the Naval Academy in 1919; served as instructor of modern languages at the Academy from 1929 to 1931; from 1933 to 1935 and from 1938 to 1940, he was Asst. Naval Attache at the U. S. Embassy in Paris; after the fall of France, served as Naval Attache at the U. S. Embassy at Vichy; November 1941 appointed Exec. Officer of the "USS West Virginia" and later of the "USS Maryland"; served as Officer in Charge of Intelligence on the staff of the Commander in Chief, Pacific Ocean Area; 1943 commanded the "USS Dixie" and in 1945, the "USS Missouri"; July 1946 returned to Paris as Naval Attache; assumed his present duties in May 1947.

It is important that the public be informed of the background of the men holding such important positions; it would seem that Admiral Hillenkoetter certainly brings prestige and the proper "know-how" to the position. Internal security is the function of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; the Central Intelligence is concerned with the foreign intelligence activities of the United States. Eighty per cent of intelligence is derived from such prosaic sources as foreign books, technical and scientific surveys, photographs, radio broadcasts, etc. The amount of intelligence funnelled into the United States from these readily available sources is virtually staggering. It is the role of intelligence to winnow the extraneous data from the vital facts. Contrary to popular conception, the task that intelligence performs in time of peace is frequently more difficult than that performed in time of war. Information which can be collected during combat is largely denied us in peacetime. And remember, we are competing with other nations which have been building up their intelligence systems for centuries - systems geared to keep their leaders informed of international intentions long before those intentions have materialized into action.

3. Berlin Airlift: - The last food train entered Berlin from the West June 24 1948; the first airlift into Berlin was on June 26, 1948. American airlift planes fly from Rhein-Main and Weisbaden air bases and land at Tempelhof base in Berlin, a distance of some 267 miles through a "corridor" 20 miles wide. The distance from the RAF field at Fassberg (Br. Zone) is only some 147 miles to Berlin.

4. NAVAL RESERVE UNITS: - Boston branch, Office of Naval Research announces plans for immediate organization of Volunteer Naval Research Reserve Units throughout First Naval District, consisting of reserve officers and ex-enlisted personnel either employed or interested in scientific research. Main objective is to provide a nucleus of trained research personnel, which could be rapidly mobilized and expanded in event of a national emergency. For further information, contact Lt. Com. H. Wray Rohrman, USNR, Office of Naval Research Navy Bldg., 495 Summer street, Boston, Mass.

Very truly yours,

Gladys N. Toye, Chairman,

MILITARY MANPOWER COMMITTEE.

Anne Cusack, a sophomore at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., will return home Monday, December 20 to spend a three-week holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cusack of 38 Rangeley road.

All eight grade and senior Scouts are addressing envelopes for the "March of Dimes" . . . another of their service projects! Good Scouting, girls!

The Girl Scout Calendar is again on sale, and if you want one, and have no favorite scout who may procure one for you to buy, call at or phone the Scout Office.

Mrs. Barbara Metcalf, Mrs. DeAngelis and Mrs. Ditmar have just completed a course in Recreational Leadership at Boston University . . . Mrs. Kenneth Cullen and her Training Committee have their plans completed for all phases of training commencing in January.

Have you heard the Scouts singing at Filene's? ? ? ? Drop in there around four o'clock and listen.

For the benefit of the girls of our Senior Girl Scout Troops, we list the following dates and equipment needed.

We are very fortunate to have a group of outstanding ski enthusiasts to help us with our program - Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. HIGH SCHOOL NETMEN AT DANVERS

After three weeks of intensive practice, the Winchester High School hoopmen are mentally and physically prepared for their opening game of the season against Danvers High School at Danvers tonight. Winchester has not met Danvers on the court in recent years and very little is known of the strength of their tonight's opponents except that they lost their opening game on Tuesday against St. John's High, also of Danvers.

Three of last year's lettermen have nailed down starting berths for tonight's game. Captain Ken Donaghey will open at left forward, Pete Dillingham at right forward, and Paul Roche at left guard. Tom McGowan, high scorer last year for the second team, will start at center. The other starting guard will be Dennis Sanford, a transfer to Winchester High this year. Ready to spell the starting quintet are Bob Zirkel and Dick Mathews at forward, Walter Murphy at center, and George Tansey and Dave Coon at the guard positions.

Scrimmages have been held during the past week with Medford and Arlington and the locals have looked very good against such first class opposition. Coach Bartlett believes that this team may develop into one of the best to represent the Red and Black in years and is anxious to see his charges under game conditions. It will be interesting to see how this team compares with last year's quintet that won fourteen out of eighteen games played.

TROOP 6 GROWING RAPIDLY

The activities of this troop over the past years have proved so successful that the troop is quickly reaching full size. In fact, it has been growing so rapidly that there has been talk of closing the troop to new members. This, of course, we will try to avoid as there are many boys who are anxiously looking forward to the time when they may join this troop.

Hiking, camping, and skiing are among the various activities for the immediate future. These will be followed by many other activities including a camp-o-ree, mountain trips, inter and intra troop contests, and, of course, the Exposition in the Spring.

Yep! sure looks good.

The Christmas wreaths, for which the troop has been taking orders, are now being delivered under the capable direction of Fisher Wolfe. If you have ordered a wreath from us and not yet received it, please call Fisher at WInchester 6-9889-W.

The money earned by selling these wreaths is being spent for the conditioning of our troop car. This car, we feel sure, will be of unestimatable help in transporting the boys on various trips.

Last Saturday, under the very capable direction of our Scoutmaster, Mr. Hooper, a group of Scouts from this troop started the first in a series of weekend trips designed primarily to repair the cabin at Camp Lane in Burlington. Mr. Hooper and some of the boys camped overnight at the camp and from all reports they had an excellent time. A similar trip is planned for tomorow.

Troop 6 was also represented at the Board of Review last Monday evening. Neil Muncaster, Henry Hooper, and John Mooers, First Class while Bill Davies and Steven Dunn were up for merit badges.

PRAISE FOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

Editor of the Star:

I would like to commend publicly the Winchester Fire Department for the excellent and orderly way in which it handled the fire at my home at 53 Wildwood street, Winchester, recently.

The residents of Winchester can and should take pride and comfort in the knowledge that they have an able group of men who can efficiently deal with the menace of fire.

Sincerely yours,
Clarke Staples, M. D.

RED CROSS NURSES' AIDES GROUP REACTIVATED

A meeting of Red Cross nurses' aides at the Winchester Hospital on December 9 voted to reactivate the corps after the first of the year an emergency group on call to relieve the present-day nursing shortage. Hospital administrator Harlan Paine gave the following reasons for the continued shortage of nurses: general increase in public hospitalization, expansion of hospital facilities, expansion of services to veterans, recruiting for the armed forces and a drop in the nurse's work week from 48 to 44 hours. He said, however, that Winchester is still high as to the number or nursing hours per patient.

A number of nurses' aides have continued to serve through the summer and fall months but many more are needed. In January, the Red Cross will sponsor a refresher course for all nurses' aides and a supervisor will be chosen to coordinate their work at the hospital. Aides who have been trained in other cities but who now reside in Winchester are urged to join the corps at the Winchester Hospital. Call Red Cross Headquarters, WI 6-2300.

FINALE FROM ST. SAENS CHRISTMAS ORATORIO

Mary Ranton Witham, Organist and Director of Music at the Unitarian Church here, arranged an unusual and delightful program of Christmas music which began with carols in the Cloister preceding the service. The Senior and Junior Choir numbers were beautifully rendered and very much appreciated.

In response to requests, the Unitarian Choir is singing carols preceding the service next Sunday, December 26, at 10:45 in the Cloister and the Tower, and as an introit, "While By My Sheep," by Jungst, will be sung antiphonally.

Mrs. Witham will play "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring," by Bach, as a prelude, and for the postlude, "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah," by Handel. "And the Glory of the Lord," also from "The Messiah," will be sung as a Choir anthem. The special number for this Sunday will be the Finale from the "Christmas Oratorio," by St. Saens, sung by the quintet: Dorothy Perkins, Soprano; Nathalie Cary, Soprano; Muriel Thorley, Alto; Edgar M. Randle, Tenor; and John F. Jenkins, Bass.

"A Pattern for Living," is the subject of the sermon by Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, final in a series based on the booklet, "The Faith of Great Scientists."

Miss Betsy Martin will assist Mr. Chapman in conducting the services.

CANDLE-LIGHTING SERVICE

The Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will hold its traditional Christmas Eve Candle-lighting service tonight (Friday) at 7:45 P. M. Carol singing, special Christmas music and a short meditation by the pastor, Rev. John Snook, Jr. followed by the candle-lighting service will mark the Christmas Eve Service.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

A deputy tax assessor will be in Winchester in the General Committee Room, second floor, on February 2nd from 9:30 a. m. to 1 p. m. and 2 - 4 p. m.

CAROLS AT FIRST CHURCH

The Polyphonic Choir of the First Congregational Church sang a candle-light service of Christmas Carols last Sunday afternoon, their program being: Matthews, "Voices of the Sky"; Mendelssohn, "There Shall a Star from Jacob" (from The Christus); Broughton, "The Holly and the Ivy"; Jungst, "While by My Sheep" (17th Century); Shaw, "How Far Is It to Bethlehem"; Holst, "In the Bleak Mid-Winter"; Griggs, "There Dwelt in Old Judea"; and Reed, "Long Years Ago in Bethlehem" (from Tyrol 1700).

The choir, directed by J. Albert Wilson, sang much of its program unaccompanied, in excellent pitch and with a most agreeable tone. Mr. Wilson was careful to let the inner voices be heard in the richer scoring and his direction from the organ bench was masterly. The choir's response was that of well drilled singers who know what is expected of them. There was only a single entrance or two that could have been called below par.

Particularly notable was the fine singing of the sopranos in the English carol by Shaw, this section of the choir getting at all times a uniformity of tone that is rather unusual and very pleasing. The modulation at the end of this number was well done, and the alternate loud and soft singing of the entire choir in the 17th Century Jungst carol was strikingly effective. The basses did a good bit in the "Holly and the Ivy" which was generally well done. The "Voices of the Sky" sung unaccompanied by the choir just before its entrance into the auditorium made an unusual approach to the service and the final numbers with the organ displayed nicely the volume and depth of the ensemble.

No mention of the service would be complete without some description of the beautiful setting. Below the tall stained glass windows of the chancel a scarlet reredos was garlanded with green, the scarlet being reflected in the cottas of the choir. Poinsettias decorated the altar which was flanked by floor candelabra. The body of the church was lighted only by tall tapers in individual wrought-iron candlesticks, the brightly lighted chancel glowing by contrast with the more dimly lighted Church.

Despite heavy snow there was an audience of good size. The pastor, Dr. Howard J. Chidley, conducted the brief service of worship. Mr. Wilson played before and after the service and at the Offertory.

WINCHESTER NATIONAL GUARD PILOT INJURED IN CRASH

Lt. Louis E. Yeager, Jr., of 119 Arlington St., National Guard Pilot, was taken to the Lynn Hospital Sunday morning with severe injuries after his F-47 Thunderbolt had crash-landed on the edge of Hawkes' Pond in Lynnfield. Only the former Army flyer's skill and courage, and some extraordinarily good luck saved his life.

Assistant operations officer of the 101st National Guard Squadron, Lt. Yeager has the reputation of being one of the outfit's best pilots. Sunday morning he left the Boston airport in advance of the snow storm for formation flying with Lt. John Flynn of Charlestown. While 2000 feet over Lynnfield Lt. Yeager radioed Lt. Flynn that he was losing power and would have to land.

It is believed that Lt. Yeager was trying to reach the Colonial golf course across route 128, not far from Kimball's Starlight, but found houses in his path and attempted to land on the dry marsh at the end of Hawkes' Pond, located along Walnut St. near Mansfield Corners.

Fortunately William Darling of Lynn, a trouble-man for the Lynn Gas and Electric Company, was at Mansfield Corners repairing a fire alarm box and saw Lt. Yeager's plane begin to lose altitude. He was able to reach a control switch and shut off high tension wires seconds before the Winchester officer's plane crashed through the line.

The crash nearly tore loose a wing, but Lt. Yeager's skill proved equal to keeping the plane level as it sheared of about a thousand feet of tree tops along Walnut St., losing both wings altogether before completing its crash-landing. Had the plane gone 400 feet further it would have crashed into the homes of John Brockbank and Mrs. Samuel Cheney at Mansfield Corners.

Brockbank, 27 and an Army vetteran, cut Lt. Yeager from the wreckage of his plane with the help of Robert Sparks, 33, a Navy vet. Emergency squads from Lynnfield, Wakefield and State Police barracks responded and removed the injured man to the Lynn Hospital. He was conscious at the time of the accident and while rescue operations were being carried out, though he later lapsed into unconsciousness.

It was impossible at once to diagnose his injuries, but he was known to have sustained serious head and back injuries and possibly internal injuries. His name was placed on the hospital danger list.

By Tuesday his condition had improved and he commenced to regain consciousness, answering questions asked him by physicians. He was fully conscious Wednesday and his condition so greatly improved that his name was taken from the danger list. The full extent of his injuries had not been determined, but he is known, to have a compound fracture of two vertebra and head injuries, though there is no skull fracture or internal injuries. He was eating on Wednesday and every indication seemed most encouraging.

Lt. Yeager is the son of Mrs. Edith Yeager of this town and the late Louis E. Yeager. He is a salesman for the Shell Oil Company of Waltham and was a student at Boston University when he enlisted in the Army Air Forces in April, 1942. He was commissioned a lieutenant the next year, and served in the European Theatre from early 1945 until Jan., 1946, winning the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three oak leaf clusters.

Lt. Yeager and Frances F Keyes, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth (Symmes) Keyes of Sanborn St. and the late Walter P. Keyes, were married Jan. 24, 1947. They have a young son, Louis Ernest, 3rd, and live in the house they built on Arlington St. near Emerson Rd.

MRS. SYMMES PICTURES POPULAR

One of Winchester's local artists, Marion Ladd Symmes, was invited to exhibit some of her oil paintings this fall at the Hillsboro, N. H., Art Center. Most of those shown were scenes painted in the Monadnock Region where Mrs. Symmes spends her summers. These local scenes created a great deal of favorable comment. A small snow scene of Crotched Mountain was sent by a Derry, N. H. man to a relative living in North Carolina as a reminder of his own home state. Others found homes in nearby states. A Fall scene of Crotched Mountain from Antrim, N. H., went to Short Hills, N. J., and another went to Worcester. Mt. Washington from the Glen went to Bennington, Vermont, and a large snow scene entitled Winter in the Monadnocks went to the Laconia Tavern, Laconia, N. H.

FIRST REAL SNOW STORM SUNDAY

Winchester had its first real snow storm of the winter, from the standpoint of precipitation, Sunday, snow falling from midforenoon well into the night. With the gradual rise in temperature through the afternoon streets became slippery and driving conditions about town were bad. Highway Department crews were out during the night and most streets around town had been plowed before morning. In the center the workers didn't arrive in time to anticipate early morning motorists and as a consequence were considerably hampered in their snow-removal efforts by parked automobiles.

STEPHEN C. GREENE

ALUMNI SUNDAY AT FORUM

On Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the Senior Forum will sponsor a service for the Alumni. All the former members of Forum are invited to this service. Coming during the Christmas holidays, this service will provide an unusual opportunity for graduates of this youth organization to return to Ripley Chapel to renew old friendships in a place of rich memories.

Three former Forum members now preparing for the Christian ministry will participate in the service. They are "Steve" Greene of Yale Divinity School, Donald Armstrong of Wesleyan, and "Jack" Filler of Colgate.

"Steve" Greene, who is also serving as the Assitant Minister at the Center Congregational Church, Meriden, Connecticut, will deliver the sermon entitled, "What Happened at Bethlehem?"

The Welcoming Committee of Forum, Douglas Hawkins, chairman, is making plans for suitable recognition to the returning Alumni.

In addition to this activity, the Social Committee, Linda Bartlett and Leon Fernandez, co-chairmen, have planned a Skating Party for the members of Forum and the Alumni on December 29th at 7:30 p. m. at Wedge Pond. There will be games, dancing, and refreshments at the Church after the Party. If there is no ice for skating, or if there are those who do not wish to skate, there will be a Party at the Church at 7:30 p. m.

NORRISES ENTERTAIN TEACHERS

Teachers of the Winchester public school were guests of Dr. Forbes H. Norris and Mrs. Norris at a Christmas party in the Administration Building last Tuesday afternoon.

Assisting Mrs. Norris with the refreshments were daughter Marjorie Norris, home from Rollins College for the holidays, members of the Teachers' Club and Mrs. Charles Jellison, Mrs. William Speers, Mrs. Richard Rush, Mrs. Marion Chandler, and Mrs. Hazen Ayer.

ROTARY ENTERTAINED SONS AND DAUGHTERS

The Rotary Club of Winchester entertained the sons and daughters of member Rotarians at luncheon yesterday noon in Masonic Hall. There was a record attendance and a nice Christmas party was enjoyed by all. Forbes Norris headed the group in charge.

A feature of the meeting was the awarding by lot of a very handsome necktie brought home by Jim McGrath from his European trip. The tie was first won by Jim Scott, but owing to Jim's absence for the holidays at the family homestead in Pennsylvania, another drawing was necessary. This went to Bill Hevey, who is in Florida. On the third try Ben Breman won the handsome prize. Jim McGrath had originally brought home a tie for each Winchester Rotarian, but his collection disappeared in New York upon landing.

Songs

Singing of Christmas carols was led by Charles Koch with Jim McGrath at the piano and the attending sons and daughters were introduced by their fathers. Gene Pollard and Doc Blanchard were the entertainers, putting on a very tricky mind-reading act which delighted all.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB AT OLD PEOPLES HOME

A representative group of eighteen men from the Mystic Glee Club sang a forty-five minute concert at the Old Peoples Home in Winchester on Tuesday night, December 21.

After opening with a group of secular numbers, the club sang many of the carols included in the Winter Concert. The men concluded the concert by singing O Little Town of Bethlehem and Silent Night to the pleasure of all those present.

Robert M. Stone expressed his appreciation for the annual appearance of the Mystic Glee Club. He said that the concert made a grand opening for the Christmas season for the old folks.

Because of space limitations, the size of the singing group was necessarily limited to eighteen. The evening was concluded with very delicious refreshments served by the hosts.

MISS ALICE SHATTUCK

Miss Alice Shattuck, member of a family formerly prominent in Winchester, died Thursday, December 16, in Boston.

Miss Shattuck was the daughter of Charles W., and Elizabeth (Crocker) Shattuck. They came to Winchester from Lawrence where Mr. Shattuck was in the wholesale grocery business. Miss Shattuck and her parents and brother, Charles, Jr., an attorney, lived on Church street, their house having been removed to make way for the present Wyman School and their barn formerly housing the School Department's administrative offices being presently used as an annex for the Wyman school.

Funeral services were private. Interment was at West Andover.

MISS RUTH E. CLEARY MR. MICHAEL J. NICOLAIS ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Cleary of Cambridge street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, to Michael J. Nicolais, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Nicolais of Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York.

Miss Cleary, a graduate of Winchester High School, attended the New England Conservatory of Music.

Mr. Nicolais is a graduate of Columbia University and is presently on the staff of the Manufacturers Trust Company, New York.

BICKNELL ETCHINGS

The memorial exhibit of etchings by the late W. H. W. Bicknell, being held this month at the Library Art Gallery under the auspices of the Winchester Art Association, is attracting much attention and arousing the admiration one would expect from such fine examples of the etcher's craft.

A great many persons who have visited the exhibition have apparently failed to realize that the etchings are for sale. Most of them can be bought, and at attractive prices, with the proceeds going to the artist's widow. Here is a real opportunity.

MISS FARRAR HEADS COLLEGE GLEE CLUB

Norma Farrar of Myrtle street, Winchester, has been elected president of the University of New Hampshire Women's Glee Club.

A sophomore majoring in psychology, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Farrar of Winchester. She is a first soprano in the club of seventy voices.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Elaine Majchrzak, appears on the Christmas and Spring broadcasts and has also planned some Sunday afternoon concerts for this winter.

CAROL SINGING CHRISTMAS EVE

The annual Christmas Eve Carol Singing around the Tree on the Common, sponsored by the Fortnightly and in charge of Mary Ranton Witham, will take place on December 24 at 7.15 P. M. following the playing of the Carillon at the Unitarian Church at 7 o'clock.

Our old friends, T. Parker Clarke, Norman Clarke and Henry Fitts will be on hand to play, supplemented by a quartette of talented high-schoolers who have been working with Mr. Fred Felmet. They are John Hammond and Carol Hadley, trumpets; Douglas Nason and Fred Walsh trombones. All of the children are requested to bring bells so that "Jingle Bells" will be completely realistic.

The following Carols will be sung—

Silent Night
The First Noel
God rest you merry, gentlemen.
Away in a manger
It came upon a midnight clear
Hark! the herald angels sing
O come, all ye faithful
O little town of Bethlehem
I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
Jingle Bells

BURNS BACK IN SERVICE

Walter J. Burns of Canal St., former Telephone Company employee, is back in the Army and stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga., where he is on the staff and faculty of the Military Police School under the Provost Marshall, with the rank of captain.

Captain Burns is a veteran of World War II, having served in the Military Police and won the Distinguished Service Cross for gallantry in action during the Allied landings in North Africa. He came out of the war with the rank of major, and during his residence here following his discharge has been commander of Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion, and active in veterans' affairs.

Captain Burns and another widely known Winchester man, 1st. Lt. Sheldon Hamilton of Nelson St., are coming home today for Christmas, returning to camp next Wednesday. Returning with Captain Burns will be his wife, the former Ruth O'Melia, and their small daughter, Irene. Captain Burns is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Burns of Canal Street.

THE W. W. G. ANNOUNCE

The World Wide Guild Girls of the First Baptist Church announce January 29, 1949, as the date for the presentation of their play, "Now Mary".

"Now Mary", a play in three acts, has been written especially for the group by their leader, Mrs. R. Dale Simpson.

Members of the cast are: Alice Pride, Muriel Pride, Barbara Mulea, Jeanne McKinley, Marilyn Ward, Martha Hodge, Kay Nelson, Sally Horn, Helen Barrett, Joan Barrett, Joan Dade.

The Eight O'Clock Club, under the presidency of Mrs. Richard Swanson, will take care of all the business and house-front details.

BOYS TOOK MONEY AT BERLOW'S

Early last Saturday afternoon, in response to a call, Officer Alfred Poole of the Police Department went to the store of Myron Berlow on Main Street in the Center, where he found the proprietor holding two boys who had allegedly taken a good sized sum of money from a cash-box in the back room of the store.

According to the Police one of the boys had $80, said to have been taken from the box and hidden in the sleeve of his shirt. The boys also had between them some Christmas tree lights, a pipe and a ballpointed pen which they said they had taken from Woburn stores.

The boys, both aged 11 years, came from the Pinehurst section of Billerica. Officer Poole took them to Headquarters where they were questioned and held for their parents. Further action will depend upon the merchants from whom the articles in possession of the boys were taken.

CARS COLLIDED IN CENTER

During Sunday evening's snow storm a Buick sedan and Plymouth sedan were in collision in the center at the intersection of Main, Church and Mt. Vernon streets.

Joseph J. La Vallo of 20 Cantillion St., Lawrence, reported to the Police that he was driving his Buick sedan, east from Church Street across the railroad tracks when his machine was in collision with a Plymouth sedan, being driven south on Main Street by Arthur A. Cuneo, Jr., of 68 Winn St., Woburn.

Both machines were damaged and La Vallo told the police his sons, Frank, 9, and Joseph, 5, complained of injuries, the former to his right leg and the latter to his right elbow.

COUNTRY CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

Winchester Country Club staged a most successful Christmas Party in the club lounge last Saturday in a beautiful seasonal setting provided by the club manager, Bill Dansworth.

A children's party, at which about 200 happy youngsters were guests, took place from 3 until 5 o'clock with "Ed" Kuypers as a most convincing Santa Claus, and music on the piano by Ray Holdworth. The children sang carols and were served cocoa and cookies, each youthful guest being also given the opportunity to talk personally to Santa and present his particular Christmas gift preference to St Nick, this being a much-appreciated feature.

Following the Children's Party there was a social hour for club members, after which there was a buffet supper served from 7 to 8:30.

The supper was followed by an excellent entertainment program, for which "Ed" Kuypers was master of ceremonies, and the popular Mary Louise Wood, accompanist, of Mystic Glee Club, was pianist.

Opening the program the Winchester Country Club Singers male chorus sang Christmas Carols. Terese Daly, wife of club member Leo Daly of Belmont, offered two pleasing soprano selections, singing the First Noel with the male chorus and as a solo, the O Holy Night.

Miriam Hendrick Cahalin of Arlington, daughter of the club's veteran golfer, Phil Hendrick, presented two well done readings, "The Shopper," particularly apropos, and a "Christmas Story." The contribution to the party made by Mrs. Daly and Mrs. Cahalin can not be over-praised.

There followed two well-received duets by Sherman and Harlow Russell in very much the proper vein, and then the male chorus returned, this time as the Winchester Country Club "19 Hole Syncopaters." Five selections of the "barbershop" variety were offered and enthusiastically welcomed by the audience, the members of which in their own right thoroughly enjoyed community singing of Christmas Carols, led by Mr. Kuypers and with Mrs. Wood at the piano.

Arrangements for the party were in the hands of the Entertainment Committee, headed by Mr. Kuypers. Most of those who attended seemed to feel it was the best party of its kind in a good many moons.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

A Christmas party was given on the evening of December 17th, for the Intermediate Class of the First Baptist Sunday School. It was held at the home of the class' teacher, Mr. R. Dale Simpson.

After a baffling game of "tasting", which featured Donald MacFeeley, sport movies were run off by Ray Dowe. Christmas presents were then exchanged, (now, kids, don't fight over the shmoos!), and refreshments were served.

Those attending were: Helen Lunsford, Ray Dowe, Nancy Dowe, Donald Gray, June Ryan, Sandra Davis, Margaret Reid, Adele Jonah, Virginia Moore, Helen Barrett, Joan Barrett, Donald MacFelley, Nancy Glover, Ruth Griswold, Bill Griswold, Russell MacLeod, Curtis Ryan, Philip Dresser, Elaine Mingins, and Dorothy Mingins.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Blank are spending the winter at the Groton Inn, Groton.

WINCHESTER FIREMEN ASSISTED AT WOBURN DROWNING

Members of the Winchester Fire Department with their life-saving boat assisted at the drowning accident at the Mill Pond in North Woburn last Saturday afternoon, resulting in the drowning of a youth and young man who were seeking to rescue a boy who had broken through thin ice.

The Winchester Fire Department received a call for its life-saving boat at 3:45 Saturday afternoon. The service truck responding with Captain J. Edward Noonan, Fireman James T. Callahao, Chief James E. Callahan and Selectman Morris Kerr also went to the scene in the Chief's car.

Upon arrival the boat was launched by Captain Noonan and Fireman Callahan, the pair grappling and probing for some 15 minutes before locating the body of Donald Roger Butler, 15, of 72 Merrimac street, Woburn. The body mas brought to the surface and removed to the Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn, to which the other victims of the tragedy had been taken. He was pronounced dead upon arrival.

The local firemen continued to grapple and probe while radio connections were made the hospital via Winchester Police radio to see if all those involved in the accident had been accounted for. This information came back at 5:10, and the firemen came ashore, returning with their boat to Winchester. Woburn Police and Firemen, and Wilmington and Reading Firemen were at the pond to assist if possible.

TOWN BASKETBALL LEAGUE

The Town Basketball League played its second set of three games at the High School gym on Monday evening before an enthusiastic group of fans. Both of the Town League sessions this year have been well attended and more bleachers may have to be put up each night if the attendance continues to grow.

The Bombers were swamped in their initial contest in the League, losing to the Sons of Italy by a score of 52 to 17. The Bombers will need to strengthen if they expect to become a serious threat to the other teams in the League. Gaspar Lentine with 16 points and Dan Maffeo with 11 points were the high scorers in this contest.

The Rotary Club defeated the Winchester Appliance Co., by a score of 37 to 26 in the second game of the evening. This was a good game all the way as the Appliance Co., stayed within rallying distance at all times and constantly threatened to overtake the Rotary. The Rotary built up most of their superiority at the foul line as the Appliance Co., was guilty of many minor infractions. Roger Swanson was the high scorer for the evening as he tallied 17 points in a losing cause.

In the third game of the evening the Bonnell Motors put on a spirited second half rally to win from the American Legion by a score of 30 to 17. The Legion dominated the play throughout the first half and left the floor with a 10 to 6 lead at the half-time. The Bonnells really started to whip the ball around in the second half and went ahead 15 to 13 at the three-quarter mark. They continued to add to their margin during the final period to win going away. Teddy O'Rourke and Pat Patterson sparked the Bonnells during this second half drive and were the key players in the victory.

No Town League games will be played during this coming week as the High School gym is not available. The next set of games will be held on Monday, January 3.

HIGH SCHOOL HOOPSTERS WON OPENER

Winchester High opened its basketball season in impressive fashion by defeating Danvers High at Danvers last Friday night by a convincing 45 to 15 score. The locals were slow in getting their offense functioning smoothly but were in complete control of the game all the way and were in no danger of defeat at any time.

Coach Bartlett was particularly pleased with the way in which the Red and Black controlled the ball on the offense and did such an effective job of tying up Danvers on the defense. The locals set up their plays very well on the offense, breaking men clear for easy lay-up shots on numerous occasions. They made very few bad passes and committed few rule violations that would cause them to lose the ball without a good scoring opportunity. Their defense was especially impressive as they held Danvers to only five field goals throughout the contest.

Although it took several minutes for Winchester to score its first basket, the Red and Black compiled a 7 to 1 lead at the end of the first quarter. This was increased to 21 to 5 at the half-time and mounted to 33 to 10 at the three-quarter mark. Paul Roche was outstanding for the locals as he was the key man in setting up plays on the offense and was like a coach out there on the defense, shouting words of advice and encouragement to his team-mates and directing the team defense in general. Bob Zirkel and Pete Dillingham looked especially good for Winchester and were singled out for praise by Coach Bartlett for their fine performances.

The Winchester Seconds made it a clean sweep for the evening by trouncing the Danvers Seconds 50 to 27. Jack Costello with 13 points, Dave Coon with 11 points, and Dan Devlin with 10 points were the scoring leaders for the Winchester Seconds.

HIGH SCHOOL IN TWO HOOP CONTESTS NEXT WEEK

The Winchester High basketball team presents two fine attractions for next week that should tax the local gym to capacity. On Monday evening, December 27, they meet the Alumni and on Thursday evening, December 30, Belmont High comes to Winchester to open the locals' Middlesex League schedule.

The Alumni contest is always one of the most attractive on the schedule and this year's contest promises to be no exception. Usually the High School is able to defeat the Alumni because of their more cohesive team work and superior condition. This year, however, the Alumni appear to be too strong for the High School as Al Switzer, captain of last year's outstanding quintet, has a large nucleus of good basketball players to form a stronger than usual Alumni team.

From last year's quintet Al Switzer is playing for Harvard Freshmen, Harry Easton is regular center for the University of Maine Freshmen, Dick Smith is playing for the Norwich University Freshmen, and Joe Amico is playing in the Town League. Other alumni who will be seen in action are Dean Blanchard who is playing for Amherst, Jim Olivier of the Colgate University Freshmen, Pat Patterson of the Nichols Junior College team, Ed Hicks, John West, Art Howard, "Twig" Nolan Sam Bellino and Dan Maffeo.

Belmont comes here Thursday evening as the defending Middlesex League champions and the Tech Tournament Class "B" champions. Year in and year out Belmont has been the powerhouse of the Middlesex League and this year's team will be no exception. Already this season Belmont has defeated Brookline by a score of 54 to 32 and Waltham by a 39 to 36 score. When it is recalled that Belmont was in the Class "A" Tech Tournament last year, it can be seen that this Belmont team is really one of the best. Last year's Winchester-Belmont game was the best of the season and the Red and Black will be all out for this one, realizing that they must win in order to be a serious contender for the Middlesex League crown.

For these two games the policy will be continued of reserving a complete section of the bleachers for adults only. This practice has been well received by adults who prefer the comparative peace and quiet of this reserved section to sitting in the same section as the students. These seats will be reserved until game time at 7:30 p. m. and then will be thrown open to all if not filled.

WON HARVARD FROSH NUMERALS

Gregory Kolligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Koren Kollegian, was among those recently awarded major numerals as a member of the Harvard freshman football team this past fall. "Sarto" Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Walsh, formerly of Winchester, was also awarded Harvard freshman numerals. He is a former Winchester High football star and captained the '44 eleven, a team believed by many to be as a good a club as the high school ever had.

John E. Filler son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Filler of 9 Madison avenue west, was recently initiated into the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity at Colgate University. John, a graduate of Winchester High School, played varsity football and baseball and was a member of the Student Council while in school.

WINCHESTER SONS OF ITALY LODGE NEWS

The annual Childrens' Xmas Party was given to the children of our members on Sunday, December 19 at 1:30 p. m. in the Lincoln School.

The Party started off with cartoons and a Christmas specialty movie. Then Xmas carols were sung by the audience. Then the gifts were passed out to the children and refreshments were served to all.

The committee, headed by Joseph Russo as chairman did a good job and the Winchester Lodge thanks them for a job well done.

The tenth match of the Winchester Lodge Bowling League was rolled at the Sports Center Tuesday night. As usual, there was plenty of excitement during the bowling.

That man "Deadhorse" Chefalo took the Individual 3 string total from his brother. Harry "Deadhorse" knocked off Harry's 343 with a 346.

Frankie Penta whose average is 90.5 went on a spree and rolled a 337 for 3 strings Sam Corbi with a 323 and Musky Tofuri's 328 were also highlights of the match. "Deadhorse" also walked off with the night High single with a 128.

"Deadhorse" (there's that man again) increased his average from 101.2 for last week to 102.7 this week. Richard Fiore with 99.9; Danny Mistretta with 99.8; and Musky Tofuri with 99.6 are bunched up in second place.

Merry Christmas from the Winchester Lodge.

WRESTLING FOR HARVARD

David Smith, whose parents, Prof. and Mrs. Lyman Smith are former residents of Winchester, is wrestling for the Harvard varsity this year in the 126 pound class.

David, a former Winchester High School gymnast and hockey manager, wrestled for the Harvard cubs a year ago, and is following in his father's footsteps, Prof. Smith having wrestled for Harvard during his undergraduate days there.

In the recent Harvard-Tech match David won both his bouts and the admiration of County Commissioner Jim Cullen, who attended the tourney. Cullen, a former Tech wrestling star and captain, rated Smith the best grappler on the mat.

John J. Patterson of Cabot street, former Winchester High hoop star, is playing varsity basketball this year for Nichols Junior College in Dudley. "Pat" is a first year man at Dudley.

Miss Ellen Kenerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kenerson of Brooks street is among the Winchester Colby College girls spending the Christmas holidays in Winchester.

Christmas will be with us tomorrow. We think none can question the statement that all of us can well do with a large order of the Christmas Spirit, especially the spirit of peace and good will. There hasn't been too much of either in the world for so long that it is a good thing to have Christmas come once a year so that we can at least pay lip-service to the philosophy of Him whose birth years ago in Bethlehem changed the whole world as nothing else has ever done. How much better we all would be if we lived by the rule of peace and good will. We at the STAR can think of several whose spirit as manifest toward our humble efforts to run a newspaper in our town has been motivated neither by good will nor peace. On the other hand there have surely been times when our own will, particularly toward those who, for instance, have brought in late ads or copy has not been as "good" as it well might have been. This lack of good will between individuals is on a smaller scale the same as that which can sow the seeds of discord between communities, classes, sections and even nations, resulting in hostility among individuals, groups and Countries. It could all be avoided by the spirit of Christmas, the "Peace" and "Good Will", about which the angels sang those hundreds of years ago when the Prince of Peace was born in the humble setting of a stable. If we could only make the Christmas Spirit last all year, how much better everything and everyone would be. The results would certainly be worth the effort, and what better Christmas could we have to make the start than this!

We don't know just what prompts us to give you this. It does not apply particularly to Christmas and it certainly has nothing to do with the Great New Deal. So far as our fellow detective story readers are concerned they probably have read as good or possibly better bits. And when it comes to Mary Spaulding, who picks out our detective stories and gives us a constant series to keep the old eye busy when it works, why we don't know whether Mary every read it or not. Probably not. Although she is a good picker. But just to show you that all detective stories are not trash and that they can sometimes give you something to think over we quote the following from a recent volume:

"Why should you collect Alger?" I asked - puzzled.

Knox pointed to the bookshelves. "I notice you collect Americana and History; Alger history, too. His books give you a better picture of the sixties, seventies and eighties than you can find in history books. And the stories are about a class of people that are extinct today. Poor people. Proud people who were hungry at times, but who got their food through their own efforts, by their own sweat. They were individualists, these people. They didn't go whining to the government. Sometimes they were exploited by the employers, but they though that was better than being exploited by mealy-mouthed politicians, because they hoped to become employers themselves. And sometimes they did. They were the people who made this country. They were the kind of people who COULD have made a country like this."

Frank Gruber in "Murder '97."

The first real snow storm of the winter last Sunday brought the usual complaints of parked cars from members of the Highways crews attempting to plow streets and remove the accumulated snow from the sides of the streets in the business center. In the latter connection the concensus of those in the square seems to be that the clearing away should start earlier, before early shoppers get firmly parked in places that make the men's work doubly difficult. We personally saw the snow-loader crew delayed about half an hour fiddling around in front of the Star office with a car parked right where the men wanted to get. And blessed if another motorist didn't try to slide into the place vacated when the first chap was finally towed out of the piled up snow. He didn't make it, but it was only because one Thomas F. Cassidy, sergeant of the law, was strategically placed on the sidewalk and rather firmly advised him to go further! Something ought to be done to prevent wholesale parking around the center before the Highway men can get the snow removed. Particularly on Thompson street, a relatively narrow street at best, the snow rampart on the side used for parking can seldom be cleared away in time. It's a problem for the Selectmen to wrestle with, and doubtless they are, along with other matters of perhaps more real moment, but less hard on the blood pressure. If everyone who possibly could do so would leave his, or HER car at home for a day after a big storm, everything would be lovely. Surely that isn't such an awful lot to ask!

A WARNING

Our Chief of Police wishes to remind the citizens of Winchester that their Park Department has gone to both trouble and expense to place ladders at convenient points near streams and ponds about town.

These ladders have been placed in position for the express purposes of preventing drowning accidents. Having them instantly available may well prevent a repetition here of the tragedy which snuffed out two lives last week in a neighboring city.

The Chief is asking all parents to instruct their children that these life-saving ladders are to be left strictly alone except in cases of emergency. Having the ladders where they should be if and when the emergency arrives may be the means of saving a life, and the Chief wishes further to remind parents of the town that the life in danger sometime could well be that of their own child!

THE CADET PRAYER

To the Editor:

The Winchester Military Manpower Committee wishes our men in uniform, both at home and abroad, a very Merry Xmas and Happy New Year. In reverence, we repeat with you the Cadet Prayer:

"O God Our Father, Thou Searcher of Men's Hearts, Help us to draw near to Thee in Sincerity and Truth.

May our Religion be filled with Gladness and may our Worship of Thee be Natural.

Strengthen and increase our Admiration for Honest Dealing and Clean Thinking, and suffer not our hatred of hypocrisy and pretense ever to diminish.

Encourage us in our Endeavor to Live above the common level of life.

Make us to choose the harder Right instead of the easier wrong, and never to be content with a half truth when the whole can be won.

Endow us with Courage that is born of Loyalty to all that is Noble and Worthy, that scorns to compromise with vice and injustice and knows no fear when Truth and Right are in jeopardy.

Guard us against flippancy and irreverence in the Sacred things of life.

Grant us new ties of Friendship and new opportunities of Service.

Kindle our hearts in Fellowship with those of a Cheerful Countenance, and soften our hearts with Sympathy for those who sorrow and suffer.

May we find genuine Pleasure in Clean and Wholesome Mirth and feel inherent disgust for all coarse-minded humor.

Help us in our Work and in our Play to keep ourselves physically Strong, mentally Awake, and morally Straight, that we may the better maintain the Honor of the Corps untarnished and unsullied, and acquit ourselves like Men in our effort to realize the ideals of West Point in doing our Duty to Thee and to our Country. All of which we ask in the Name of the Great Friend and Master of Men. Amen."

Very truly yours,
Gladys N. Toye, Chairman
Winchester Military Manpower Committee.

MORE ON SPRINKLERS

Editor of the Star:-

I was very much interested in the article about sprinklers in last week's Star. I have had a great deal of experience working in factories and buildings that were equipped with sprinklers and never have I seen a large fire loss to a building in which the fire started which was protected with a sprinkler system.

A fire now is a very serious matter as replacement costs are very high and insurance protection has not kept up with the costs.

Many times have I brought this matter to the attention of past boards of selectmen in regard to the Town Hall. If a fire should start in the Town Hall basement at night the entire building will probably be a total loss as fire could rapidly burn through the partitions. It is now insured for $253,246.00 A new building would cost well over a million dollars.

Sprinklers are worth while and will pay for themselves in reduced insurance costs. This matter should be given very careful consideration. The Town Hall building is in good condition and will serve for many years to come. If we should lose this building it would be a financial catastrophe to our town which is facing large expenditures for school buildings.

THE MYSTIC GLEE CLUB SINGS IN BOSTON

Last Saturday night the Mystic Glee Club made a special request performance in the Grand Ballroom of the Copley Plaza Hotel. Forty-three members of the club together with its conductor, Keith D. Synder, and accompanist, Mary Louise Wood, provided the main entertainment of the evening for the Luncheon Club and their guests. Jack Gilbert the glee club's competent piano soloist, filled in with a medley of the Gershwin melodies while the singers rested their voices.

The glee club was delighted with the opportunity to make this unusual appearance and rendered a creditable account of themselves. The Luncheon Club, which is composed entirely of representative hotel and club purveyors, had their wives and many distinguished personages at this dinner party. Mr. Walter M. Crotty of Winchester was in charge of the entertainment.

The members of the glee club and their wives or guests were invited to participate in festivities of the evening following their part in the program. Mr. Keith Snyder conducted the large audience in the community singing of several appropriate Christmas numbers.

OXFORD WINS RIFLEMAN'S MEDAL

Robert N. Oxford, Jr., 17, of 15 Chesterford Road, Winchester, won the Distinguished Rifleman's Medal it was announced by the National Rifle Association today.

Young Oxford first took up the target sport in 1943. After a steady climb through the 14 lower rankings, he finally reached the top drawer of the junior shooters —the Distinguished Rifleman's Medal.

Young Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Oxford. He is a senior at Winchester High School and a member of the Winchester High School Junior Rifle Club.

POPULAR WINCHESTER YOUNG MAN TO LIVE IN TEXAS

Charles J. "Charles" Dolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Dolan left Saturday for Dallas, Texas, where he plans to enter the oil business and make his future home. During his service with the Army in World War II, "Charlie" was stationed for a while in Texas and since that time the Lone Star State has had a great attraction for him.

A three sport athlete at Winchester High, "Charlie" graduated from Boston College just before the war, and was with the Bacon Felt Company before entering the service, returning to the Felt business following his discharge. His sports activities have been more or less limited in recent years to officiating basketball.

A group of his friends, headed by Ralph Ambrose and "Robbie" Smith, and including such stalwarts of the old "Tourists' Club" as "Joe" Flaherty and "Johnnie" Lynch, gave "Charlie' a farewell party at his home last week and a substantial purse as a token of esteem. It was generally regretted that "the Deacon," Lt. R. S. Hamilton, now in the Army in Georgia, was unable to be present.

CAR HIT ON BACON STREET

At 5:15 Grant Burtnett of 36 Wildwood street notified police headquarters that about 15 minutes earlier his Chevrolet sedan, parked near 86 Bacon street had been struck and damaged about the left rear by a car that did not stop after the accident.

Twenty minutes later Stratton Vlahos of 54 Georgia avenue, Lowell, reported to the police that his car had struck a Chevrolet parked on Bacon street, the accident having been caused by approaching cars forcing his Franklin sedan too near the parked car. Vlahos was given Burtnett's name and address and left headquarters to contact him.

THANKS, JOHN!

The STAR wishes to extend hearty thanks to John Volpe of the Volpe Construction Co., for the receipt of a novelty, but strictly useful lighter, in the form of an eight-ball. Its receipt was the nicest way of being put "behind the eight-ball" imaginable and constituted the first time we personally ever enjoyed being placed in that position. Thanks, John, and while we are at it our "Larry" Penta more than appreciated his remembrance from you too. Merry Christmas from us to you and yours!

MR. EVANS ATTENDS INDUSTRIAL SHOW

Mr. Alfred Doherty of Sargent Road was another Winchesterite attending the show. Mr. Doherty is now Secretary of the Booster's Club.

ANTS OUT WEDNESDAY

A most unusual sight was recorded in the center Wednesday noontime in the appearance of a huge swarm of ants close to the White building at McCormack's Pharmacy. Where they came from or where they went is a mystery, but Leon Smith, popular janitor of the First Congregational Church, who was among those who saw the ants, predicted because of their appearance at this time, an open winter. Here's hopin'!

Miss Rose Pollitano, who has been ill in the Winchester Hospital, was expected to get home in time for Christmas. Miss Pollitano is the chief clerk in the office of the Collector of Taxes at the town hall.

WYMAN SCHOOL FATHER'S NIGHT

A large number of the parents of the children in Wyman School enjoyed a very pleasant evening attending Fathers' Night last Wednesday.

Mrs. Philip Wadsworth, president of the Wyman School Mothers' Association, introduced the speaker for the evening, Miss Mabel Lowry, principal of Wyman. Mrs. Wadsworth paid tribute to Miss Lowry's outstanding contribution to the community in her twenty-five years as teacher and principal at Wyman School.

Miss Lowry's topic was "Your Children". She gave her listeners an explanation of her crede in educating children from five to twelve years of age. She told a fairy story of the golden goblet, which exemplified the Christmas spirit of the cheerful giver. Her anecdotes, both amusing and sad, of some of her actual conversations with the children impressed her audience with her understanding of, and love for, her "little people."

Following Miss Lowry's talk, the children presented their play, "A Christmas Fantasy". The childrens' choir, under the able direction of Miss Martha Cunningham, sang several harmonious carols offstage and then marched to the rear of the assembly hall where they supplied the narrative music for the play. Over forty enthusiastic children took part in the play which obviously delighted their audience. Teachers and children alike should be complimented on their cooperation in producing such successful entertainment for the fathers.

After the play the parents were invited to visit the rooms which were gayly decorated with Christmas murals. Thanks are due to the Winchester Conservatories for their festive arrangement of holly and bitter sweet decorating the piano in the assembly hall.

One of the Water Department trucks was badly damaged about the left side Monday morning shortly before 8:30 when it skidded on Arlington street and struck a tree opposite the Country Club Parking lot.

Haggerty Jr., of 12 Baldwin street. Both were taken to the Winchester Hospital by Officer Alfred Poole in police patrol 52 and treated by Dr. Charles Rooney. They were permitted to go home after treatment.

JUNIOR HIGH NOTES

The Junior High School presented a musical Christmas play, "The Midnight Clear, Wednesday morning in the High School auditorium. The main characters were Philip Towle, Janet Archibald, Barbara Colucci, and Frank Van Umberson who were supported by a very able cast.

The musical background directed by Miss Anifantis, was supplied by a group selected from the Junior High Chorus and included solos by Patricia Carroll, Hiram Moody, Howard Carpenter and Jack Willis.

The costumes were supervised by Miss Sullivan and the scenery was made by Miss Hatch who was assisted by a student committee headed by P. Meigs.

Miss Hatch's art classes have been very busy painting murals for the classrooms throughout the Junior High building. Each class chose its subject and the room in which iti was to be displayed. Committees were selected to lay out the original designs and with the help of other members of their class, painted them. The murals are now posted and make a very effective and beautiful display.

Besides this project, everyone has made Christmas cards and tree decorations, and four eighth-grade classes have been gaining experience in ceramics. These classes are being coached in the arts of sculpturing, pottery-making, and glazing.

And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him" (Luke 5:12,13). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy include:

THE FORTNIGHTHLY NOTES

"Happy Birthday to You re-echoes down through the years, as The Fortnightly, commemorating its 67th birthday, turn back the pages to December 27, 1881.

As we reminisce, scenes almost forgotten live anew and hearts are quickened at thoughts of lasting friendships gained, and hallowed memories of days gone by.

We greet the Founders, distinguished women, the Presidents, eminent leaders, and other club members of notable character, many with professional talents.

We greet distinguished guests, some of whom were of World renown. And still the pages turn, denoting the passing years as revolutions of progressive attainments.

Now here's a surprising element. In May 1884, The Fortnightly with the cooperation of the Winchester School Committee and with some financial support from the Baptist Society established an evening school for adults. This school proved its educational value to such an extent that the School Committee took it over the following year, the Town having appropriated funds for the purpose.

We note with increasing interest further accomplishments of The Fortnightly's Committee on Education. Industrial Training was introduced into the public schools of Winchester through the work of this Committee who established and operated classes in cooking, sewing and manual training, and in 1885 an evening industrial school for both carpentry and sewing classes, was established. The Fortnightly hired rooms for this purpose, carpenter benches and tools were provided to accomodate fifteen boys, with space left for the sewing class which met on alternate evenings. This school was a success from the start and at the close of the first year, The Fortnightly offered the School Committee the use of the carpenter benches and tools but the School Board adamant to an increase in the School's Curriculum refused, and The Fortnightly reopened the evening school the following year and continued its operation until in 1889 the School Board, convinced of the value of this activity to the School, capitulated and borrowed the carpentry equipment for the use of the Grammar and High School Students. This equipment was ultimately purchased by the Town for the use of the public schools. In like manner, The Fortnightly introduced cooking classes into the Winchester schools, purchasing necessary kitchen equipment which was also later purchased by the Town for the use of the schools.

The Fortnightly was also instrumental in introducing Kindergartens into the schools of Winchester. And several years later —1899—, when the Town proposed action to abolish Kindergarten and manual training from the public schools, The Fortnightly used its influence to enlighten the Women of Winchester on the value of this type of education. A public meeting was held, at which addresses were made by prominent Educators with broad experience in this type of school work. As a direct result of this meeting, the March Town Meeting in the year 1900 was the largest in the history of the Town. We quote in part from the "Star" of that date:

A Notable Town Meeting

"It will be many a day before a scene is witnessed at a Town Meeting similar to that of last Tuesday evening, and it was a singular meeting in more ways than one. The complete filling of the hall with citizens, the crowding of both galleries and the stage with ladies and their occupancy of the small Town Hall to the exclusion of voters, were things never before seen at a Winchester Town Meeting and probably never will be again. Probably there is not a Town in the state where the inhabitants are better informed on Kindergarten and manual training than in Winchester. Every scrap of information has been eagerly read and the conflicting views of writers absorbed, so that both sides of the question received a good airing.

For the first time in many years, a Minister opened the meeting with prayer, the Rev. Mr. Lawrance being called upon by the moderator, Mr. Russell."

This meeting ended with a vote to raise additional school funds by taxation in order to retain Kindergartens and manual training for the Winchester Schools. The vote was carried by 402 to 36.

As we turn the page, we notice that it was The Fortnightly, still indefatigable in its efforts to promote educational improvements established a physical training class, one for children and one for Women.

The next page is scanned with eager delight, as we find Our Fortnightly group conducting a Vacation Playroom. We gaze with pleasure at a picture taken in 1901 of a scene from this Playroom, featuring a large number of children. We wonder if any of our readers were in that group. This school was further extended to include playground activities, picnics and other summer sports were enjoyed. Does any Winchester resident recall having a "barge" ride? That was one of the summer time activities featured by The Fortnightly's Vacation School. This school was maintained by The Fortnightly for many years.

We have reminisced at length on the work of The Education Committee for we find it to be one of the highlights of The Fortnightly's career. With keen intelligence and untiring devotion the members of this Club worked to prove by practical demonstration the feasibility of their educational plans. By 1893, Industrial Training in all its features, had become an integral part of the Winchester Public Schools.

We notice too, that at the close of each year's report mention is made of The Fortnightly's desire for a home of its own. We are beginning to feel a bit distressed about this situation for here again as we come to the end of its twelfth birthday, a pathetic note is interposed in the following quotation from the records: "The vexed question of a local habitation is ever present. When The Fortnightly will have a home of its own we cannot say."

Here's a page dedicated to the reception given to a most distinguished guest, Julia Ward Howe, author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Mrs. Howe related to the Club members the story of how she became inspired to write this Hymn which later became the favorite lyric of the Civil War.

Does any reader recall the "Chelsea Fire" of 1908? We have a picture in the Fortnightly records of its members busily sewing in the Town Hall, for the Chelsea fire sufferers.

Here's another interesting item. In 1909, a Dutch Kirmess was held which netted the Club $1,060. Two days of work and fun! The printed program contains an interesting picture of the Edison Light facade with the name of E. C. Sanderson over the door. We also note with delightful interest, the program includes the names of many Misses who have long since changed the "Miss" to "Mrs." The names of many prominent Winchester residents were also included, as patrons contributing to the success of the project. The proceeds were used for the support of the Vacation School.

A musical note is interjected in the pages, for here we find The Fortnightly supporting a Glee Club which of late years was directed by Mary Ranton Witham.

Dramatics too, have been featured. Notices of Home talent plays are scattered throughout the pages. What fun! What excitement!

Art, Literature, Antiques, The American Home, Legislature International Relations, Social Service and Conservation all working departments of The Fortnightly are commended as we turn the pages.

And again and again the question pops up, "When shall The Fortnightly own its own home?"

Co-operation with War Veterans Committee is another department of The Fortnightly which operates in times of War needs. Thousands of dollars have been expended through The Fortnightly for the aid of War relief, both at home and over-seas.

We notice the impressive figures of the financial report on various philanthropies throughout the years. Nearly $10,000 has been contributed toward the interests of Education and sizeable contributions have been made to meet other local needs. All in all The Fortnightly has contributed approximately $26,000 to various philanthropies over a period of many years.

We close the book with regret at the close of the 67th birthday of The Fortnightly. We have learned to love those early workers, many of whom we have never met. We honor them for their high ideals as expressed in their unwavering vision and faithful work for the Club.

It is with deep regret that we must admit failure in attaining our goal for a Club House of our own, but high courage still remains in the hearts of The Fortnightly members as we go forward into the new year.

WINCHESTER GIRLS PREP FOR BASKETBALL

The Winchester High School girls' basketball squad has commenced work for the coming interscholastic season by playing inter-class games with both Lexington and Concord, thus giving Coach Helen Jay Carroll a chance to see her candidates work under actual game conditions.

Winchester won two of its three games with Lexington, the seniors winning, 31-8; and the juniors, 12-8. The Lexington sophomores beat Winchester, 17-13. High scorers for Winchester were Ginny Gaffney and Peg O'Leary, seniors, 12 points each; Marilyn Chase, junior, 4; and Martha Whiting, sophomore, 6.

Concord won all three games from Winchester its juniors winning, 13-6; sophomores, 16-9; and its freshmen, 22-7. Winchester's best scorers in this match were Marilyn Chase, junior, 3; Bette Kneeland, sophomore, 7; and B. Chamberlain, freshman, 6.

The basketball squad includes: "Ducky" Baldacci, "Dee" Barrett, Barbara Chase, Marilyn Chase, "Ginny" Gaffney Jan Meacham, Jean Neiley, "Peg" O'Leary, Susan Ordway, Priscilla Symmes and Martha Whiting, forwards; and Captain Lynn Aitkens, "Marge" Carroll, Jane Chiswell, Carol Hawkins, Harris MacDonald, "Pat" McDermott, "Marce" Knowlton, Joan Rallo, Phyllis O'Neil, Joan Wolsey, Fay Zamanakos and Caroline Zinn, guards.

W. H. S. STUDENTS SUCCEED IN DRIVERS' COURSE

Christmas came early for nine Winchester High School students with the word that they have earned their automobile drivers' licenses. All who were qualified for the road test were granted licenses and Mr. William Branley, instructor, has the satisfaction that his efforts were rewarded.

The following students are to receive licenses: Bruce Bodin, Sandra Hall, Ann Keeney, Betty Ann Parker, Jean Roberts, Benson Synder, Mildred True, Richard Wickerson, and Malcolm Wilson.

Parents, too, are to be congratulated for their cooperation which made this venture possible.

The high school library, over which Miss Elizabeth Livingstone presides, has been resplendent this week with attractive Christmas decorations. Barry Grace and Leon Fernandez, art students, were largely responsible for the stars on the walls, the Christmas candy cane arrangements, the realistic candles, and other items which contributed to allow the Christmas spirit to reign over the library.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

A Christmas assembly was presented Tuesday, December 21, by the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. The program included the play, "Strangers Came To Bethlehem," by Harriet Van Ollefen. This story of the Nativity is in two acts with a tableau at the close. A selection from the "Bible" opened the assembly, and a student choir sang carols during the program.

The play was very successful, despite the fact that seven members of the cast were unable to participate; and three major roles were learned Tuesday morning.

The program for the assembly was as follows:

INJURED WHEN AUTO SKIDDED

Two Winchester young men were injured shortly after 11:30 last week Thursday night when the automobile in which they were riding skidded as it was turning from Main Street into Swanton Street.

According to the Police the operator of the car, a Packard sedan, was Robert E. Treacy of Water Street, and his passenger was Robert Walsh of Holland St. Both were thrown through the right front door of the car when it skidded and struck the south side of the Boston and Maine Railroad Bridge over the Woburn Loop.

Walsh was knocked unconscious and was taken to the Winchester Hospital in the Police ambulance by Sgt. Joseph Derro and Officers Clarence Dunbury and Robert Elliott. He sustained lacerations of the scalp and chest.

Treacy was taken to the hospital by William E. Chick of 24 Chester Street. He sustained lacerations of the face and scalp. Dr. Charles Rooney treated the injured men, and ordered them held over night at th hospital for observation. They were discharged next day. The car was damaged about the right side.

The Fire Department was called at 8.58 Saturday evening to put out a grass fire on Holton St.

BOOK REVIEWER'S CLUB

The Brackett Book Reviewers' Club met last Wednesday evening, December 15th, at the home of Mrs. Hiram Moody, 62 Oxford Street, which was appropriately decorated in the spirit of Christmas.

The group was enjoyably entertained with song and piano selections by Nancy Kittel and Hiram Moody Jr. After an exchange of Christmas gifts, each member recited or gave a reading.

Mrs. Harry Baxendale presented Mrs. Moody with the book "Crusade in Europe" by Dwight D. Eisenhower as a token of appreciation from the girls for her work in the club.

Refreshments were served from a table presided over by the hostess and ably assisted by Mrs. Greta Kittel. An informal discussion followed and an enjoyable evening was had by all.

Miss Narion Horwood of 29 Westland Ave. was one of 42 campus leaders at Boston University recently initiated into Scarlet Key, the all-University Honorary Activities Society, in recognition of their contribution to extra-curricular organizations. Miss Horwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Horwood, is vice-president of the College of Music Drama Club and secretary-treasurer of the "Copley Players."

The Star wishes to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a handy year-on-a-card calendar from "Brad" Bentley, managing head of the popular Camp Wyanoke for boys at Wolfeboro, N. H., on Lake Winnipesaukee.

Alastair H. MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. MacDonald, 37 Wedgemere avenue, and Charles Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving E. Jennings, 127 Church street, have returned from their studies at Vermont Academy, Saxtons River, Vt., to spend the holiday vacation. Jennings recenty received a varsity football letter at the Academy's annual sports banquet.

UNITARIAN CHURCH RALLY DAY SERVICE

On the first Sunday morning of the New Year, January 2, the doors of the Unitarian Church in Winchester will open at 10:45 for a Rally Day Service. It is to be an important day in the community life of Winchester, for on that day, not only the new and old members of the church family are invited, but friends will bring neighbors, and those who have no definite church affiliation here in town are cordially welcome.

For that day, a stimulating sermon will be preached by the Rev. Paul Harmon Chapman, "On Which Step Do You Stand?", which will be a thought-provoking, intensely personal message to the individual to help him seek and find a fuller participation in the tolerant, reasonable freedom of Unitarianism.

The service itself on Rally Day will be characterized by the singing of old and familiar hymns and by special music by the regular and junior choirs.

There will be a warm welcome by hosts and hostesses, and after the service coffee will be served, so that old and new friends may become better acquainted. For transportation, please call the church office.

This is your invitation and a challenge to join an inspiring first Sunday of the New Year Service at the Winchester Unitarian Church.

JUNIOR SENIOR DANCES

The Juniors and Seniors are looking forward to their Christmas dance to be held Monday evening, December 27 at the Music Hall. George Gould's Orchestra will furnish the music. The usual good refreshments will be served.

Students attending private school and last years seniors are also invited. Why not make this your holiday meeting place.

It pays to advertise in the Star.

GENERAL RADIO BUYS CONCORD TRACT

Winchester Man Chairman of Company Board

Mr. Harold B. Richmond of Swan road, is chairman of the Board of the General Radio Company of Cambridge, recent purchasers of a sixty-acre tract of land in Concord. The company does not make radio sets, but is one of the country's leading producers of electronic test equipment and scientific laboratory apparatus.

Mr. Richmond, in commenting upon the purchase, said the company has no immediate plans for the land, but with further expansion of its Cambridge plant impractical, it is necessary to have available a site, reasonably accessible to the company's 450 employees, where a plan can eventually be established, combining the best working conditions with adequate space and facilities for the future.

K. OF C. CHRISTMAS PARTY

Winchester Council, 210, Knights of Columbus, had four hundred happy youngsters as their guests last Sunday afternoon at the Council's Christmas Party in the town hall. If the snow kept anyone away he wasn't noticed, and there was fun and noise enough to guarantee that everyone had a good time.

Jim Mullen was a convincing Santa Claus, and those who assisted him with the distribution of gifts, candy and ice cream were Frank Nowell, Chet Thiebeault, "Mitch" Mawn and Harry Boyle.

Tommy Drapeau showed movies of "Mickey Mouse" and other favorites, and the children sang Christmas carols, led by Harry Boyle, with Mrs. Catherine Welch at the piano. A Punch and Judy Show which had been booked for the party wasn't able to get to Winchester because of the snow.

THE WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

The Spirit of St. Nicholas was present as the Winchester Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Virgil Ghirardini, 12 Foxcroft road on Thursday, December 16.

A delicious luncheon was served, followed by the Christmas program. Mrs. Norman Mitchell gave a reading on the "Symbolism of Christmas" followed by singing of Christmas carols.

Many unique and artistic Christmas arrangements for the home were displayed by the Club members.

Mrs. Roger Hadley, as Santa Claus, distributed gifts brought by the Club members, bringing to a close this most delightful afternoon

SANTA VISITS CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

When Santa Claus popped into Children's Hospital, Boston, the other day, Wayne Work of Quincy was all ready for him. Here Wayne, propped up in a hospital cot, tells Jolly St. Nick what he wants for Christmas. Topping his list is a desire to go home as soon as possible. Wayne is the son of Mrs. Frances Work of 26 Brighton Avenue, Quincy.

PALMER BEACH COLD SPOTS

With the temperature below freezing, the wind penetrating, and the terrain slightly frozen, the Palmer Beach Horse Shoe Association met for their weekly play, coats and wind breakers.

A drawing for partners found Wild Willie MacLaughlin, the prospective champ of Tyngsboro, we hope, and Royal Paper Trade Teele, lined up against Herbert Garralous Gardner, the Dix St., magnate, and Roland Thin Finger Pridham.

Play started with the Paper Trade confounding the players by going right to town, and with the able assistance of Mr. MacLaughlin, their opponents were given the works.

The second game went to Gardner and Pridham, as perseverance prevailed, and the previous winners fell by the wayside.

The third game went along nip and tuck, but the finish found MacLaughlin and Teele as winners, with two out of three for the set.

Charles Augustus Haggerty please note MacLaughlin has finally won a set, and he claims Tyngsboro didn't produce the real champ.

The second set brought Pridham and Teele against MacLaughlin and Gardner, and the latter pair took two straight from their opponents.

The third set was Gardner and Teele against MacLaughlin and Pridham, with the latter pair taking a shellacing, 25 to 17.

In the second game Gardner and Teele started off fast, building up a score of 17 to 7, but there they stymied, and had to watch their opponents through some brilliant pitching, forge ahead to a lead of 23 to 21.

It was Pridhams first throw, and he plopped two shoes right in front of the stake, and touching. It looked like the game as Teele had to get one ringer to keep the game alive, and two to win, and with cast iron shoes to land on, the chances were slim.

However, in spite of some scurilous remarks from the opposition, the Paper Trade squared away and threw the first shoe right around the stake. The second shoe followed, and landed flat a foot in front of the stake, but it slid over the two shoes blocking the way, and landed on top of the one around the stake.

This unusual win silenced the opposition, and once again they refused to congratulate the winners, which is bad sportsmanship to say the least.

They did remark it as a pretty cheap way to win a game, but as the Secretary says, it isn't the way you throw it that counts.

The games were finished in a snow storm, but it is hoped the ground keeper will have the course cleaned for next weeks matches.

Arthur E. Butters who used to play the game until he transferred to the easier sport called golf, should appreciate this ending.

POST - FAIR MEETING

Winship poured.

ROTARY NEWS

Still fighting for that first division crown in attendance the Winchester Rotary batted out a fine group this week. Of course with the knowledge that our district Governor-Lionel MacDuff was to be present as guest speaker the club really made an effort to look good. The holiday spirit pervaded the meeting as Christmas carols were sung and church Hindes led his ever-wonderful version of Allouette. Besides six guests and visiting rotarians the club also celebrated its usual custom of entertaining the football team for lunch. It certainly is a treat to see such a fine representative group of high school boys all together without the disguise of a football helmet and the usual padding worn on the field.

One unexpected pleasure was afforded a select few when the all-time slip-back of Woburn-Jim McGrath-appeared and gave a lurid version of living and particularly eating in France in these days of food costs. He even had some plans and pictures of some new French submarines that he showed to some of the more military minded members of the club.

After a very short business session and the annoucenment of the father's children luncheon for this week by Chairman Forbes Norris, the meeting went into the speaker part of the day. When Lionel was last with us we had hopes of a pennant here in Boston and since the "Video" was there he graciously gave up his talk for that. Those of us who were present at that meeting were doubly rewarded for having waited since the governors talk was well worth listening to let alone waiting for. Providentially his topic was 'Youth and its present day problems,' for we had the football team there as examples of what can and should be done for youth of today. The governor began his speech by pointing out what is already too evident in the picture of youth delinquency today. Authorities are more and more concerned because, instead of being on the decrease, it is really increasing. Tragic cases where no family care has been given and too little done by responsible members of the community to rectify the situation were cited. The governor pointed out that in Rotary we had a ready made group for handling this problem. Here were business men, professional men and leaders in the communities who were alive to the situations and could and should do something about it. He pleaded with the club to set up a practical means of coping with this here in our own community. 'Service above self' means just that in all phases of life whether adult of the younger people. A really inspiring talk and just what every club whether Rotary or other, needed to bring home again in straight language the importance of this ever present problem.

After his talk Lionel concented under Duress to sing some songs for us which he did with that fine voice of his that makes every song ring out and be remembered for some time. A really high spot on our programs for this year!

HOLIDAY DINNER AT WINCHESTER DAY

In a gayly decorated Christmas atmosphere the parents of the Winchester Country Day School met for a holiday dinner party at the School on Thursday evening, December 16. Mrs. Walter Ennis, Jr., director of the School; Mr. Ennis; and members of the staff were hosts for the evening, and about thirty six mothers and fathers were present to enjoy a delicious dinner, much of which the mothers themselves had prepared.

The absent three and four year old pupils of the school were much present in spirit as all the unique tree decorations had been made by them with great care, and around the room was a variety of other Christmas handwork diligently cut and pasted by very small hands for the joys and appreciation of their parents. This was the first time the fathers had been present to see the play quarters and working tools of the school, and after dinner Mrs. Ennis gave a short talk which brought them up to date on the program for their young ones. Some of the recordings used in rythm work were played, and suggestions made of music for the home. The evening came to a happy end with the showing of a short movie taken of the children at their costume party at the school at Halloween time. Winchester day closed its first term yesterday when the children had their own party around their tree.

Mr. and Mrs. David F. Choate, Jr., of 21 Brookside Avenue are the parents of a son, David Foster Choate, 3rd, born December 21 at the Richardson House. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. David F. Choate of Wedgemere Avenue and Mrs. Nathan T. Tobey of Dorchester.

HOW TO HAVE GOOD SKATING IN WINCHESTER

(It is hoped that all who can read will read this to those who cannot read)

We all want good ice for good skating. So we all need to do what we can to keep ice good for skating.

Sticks and stones and anything on the ice dulls skates, causes falls, spoils good skating.

Let us urge ourselves and then others in a very friendly way to help preserve good ice for good skating.

If stones and sticks get on the ice, they will spoil the new ice planer the Town has bought and then it cannot resurface the ice for good skating.

The ice will soon be forming. Sometimes little children throw stones and things on the ice while the ice is thin. No one can go on the ice to remove the stuff and it gets imbedded or frozen into the ice by the time the ice is safe for skating. Explain to young future skaters why they should keep the ice clean. Also, if skaters will remove stones, sticks, pieces of tire or friction tape dropped from hockey sticks, papers, etc., this will be a big help.

Let's keep off and keep dogs off ice while it is soft. Walking, sledding, dogs, or skating on soft ice leaves deep marks and ruts that spoil ice for a long time.

Let's each encourage the other to help do these things to make skating good. But let's keep sweet tempered.

The Town will try to keep ice on Big and Little Winter good for skating if weather and we all help.

Watch for signs around Big and Little Winter where ice forms early. These signs will tell you about skating.

If we can keep ice clean, the Town will give us light for evening skating.

Let's keep off ice till it is marked "SAFE". If there is any doubt about skating, telephone Police or Park Department.

KEEP ICE GOOD for SKATING. KEEP OFF ICE UNTIL IT IS SAFE, AND GOOD.

EXPERT OKAYS WINCHESTER HEALTH EDUCATION PROGRAM

Dr. Leslie Irwin, Professor of Health Education at Boston University, said last Tuesday, before a meeting of physical education and science teachers, school administrators, and medical staff, that the Winchester public school health program compares favorably with that of other schools.

In Winchester on the request of the health education instructors, Dr. Irwin, who is well known as an author of books on health education and as an outstanding authority on the subject, has helped the staff to recognize problems common to all teaching health and physical education.

This meeting is further evidence that health is one of the basic interests of the Winchester public schools.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE

The lecturer spoke substantially as follows:

The Promised Messiah

One of the first and most precious promises to be found in the Scriptures is the promise of the coming of a Messian, one who would fulfill the promise of salvation for mankind from its ills This promise came of old to men of great spiritual vision, those who caught glimpses of the true nature of Life and of the creator as Spirit One of these was that prophet of beauty and promise--Isaiah In these words he describes the promised Messiah "His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears He shall bring forth judgment unto truth To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house."

Christ Jesus Fulfills Promise

This promise of the Messiah was fulfilled in the coming of Christ Jesus—Jesus the man who demonstrated the Christ, Truth, which indeed opens the blind eyes and brings forth the prisoners from the prison house of matter.

Jesus has been called the "man of sorrows" and the "humble Nazarene" Both of these titles have given an incomplete impression of him whose life was one of transcendent power and beauty, a power and beauty no material atheism can deny or overthrow. Could anyone endowed with power to dispel all manner of evil, to hold command over all the so-called forces of matter or the carnal mind, who at the same time loved little children and was keenly aware of the beauty of the lilies of the field—could such a one possibly be a man of sorrow? Could he possibly know either fear or sorrow in the presence of his creator, or Father? Must he not have been a man of such a transcendent joy that material sense could not behold it or material circumstances defeat or destroy it? That joy Jesus promised to all his followers He said, "Your joy no man taketh from you" Shall we not accept this great legacy of joy and see to it that no man, no claim or clamor of the material senses, steals it from us? It is the radiant, eternal joy of our true selfhood.

What about the humility of this humble Nazarene? It was the scientific humility of the scientist, standing selfless before the laws he would demonstrate. In Christ Jesus we have the greatest Scientist that has ever lived, standing selfless before the divine Principle which he understood and demonstrated. Mighty humility, indeed, that recognized only one power and demonstrated that power in healing all manner of sickness and disease, raising the dead, walking over the water, and stilling the tempest! Mighty self-immolation, indeed, that recognized the reflection of that power as the only selfhood possible of being. He proved that humility before God is power before men. Here indeed is fulfilled the promise of the Messiah.

The Promised Comforter

Another of the precious promises in Scripture is given by Jesus himself—the promise of another Comforter. Did he not say, "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; . . . he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you"? Jesus did not promise that the Comforter would be a person, but "even the Spirit of truth"

Today has this promise been fulfilled, and the Comforter has come to us—the Spirit of truth which leadeth into all truth—even Christian Science. This promised Comforter, even the Spirit of truth, has been made known to the world by Mary Baker Eddy, who discovered and founded the sacred Science of Christianity Here is a follower of the Master who was truly humble enough to perceive the impersonal, spiritual nature of the promised Comforter, and who was self-sacrificing and loving enough to labor untiringly to make that Comforter known to mankind in its tender omnipotence.

After being healed herself through spiritual power alone of an injury pronounced fatal by her physician, Mrs Eddy devoted several years to consecrated research and study of the Scriptures, searching for the exact Science of that healing power that she might make it known to others In her textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," she writes (p 109): "I knew the Principle of all harmonious Mind-action to be God, and that cures were produced in primitive Christian healing by holy, uplifting faith; but I must know the Science of this healing, and I won my way to absolute conclusions through divine revelation, reason, and demonstration."

Who can measure the magnitude of the work of this intrepid, gallant, self-sacrificing follower of the Master of Christianity? Clad in the full armor of God, she stood. She had taken unto her the breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit—even the Word of God—and her feet indeed were shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace Thus clad, she stood alone and maintained her vision of Truth and Love undimmed by the hatred and persecution of materialism until she saw that vision in its vigor and grandeur established in the world as Christian Science She is one of those of whom St Paul spoke as "sealed with that holy Spirit of promise"

Here we have fulfilled the promise of the Messian and the Comforter Christianity as demonstrated by Christ Jesus and Christian Science as given to the world by Mary Baker Eddy Christianity and Science! These two has God joined together, and no man can put them asunder Said the Psalmist, "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God."

A New Heaven and New Earth

St John, the close friend of Christ Jesus and the one among his immediate followers who most clearly understood his mission and saw the reality of spiritual being, unfolded many promises of good to us, even that transcendent promise of a new heaven and a new earth in which is found no evil Of this new heaven and new earth he says "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." Christian Science shows us how this promise of a new heaven and a new earth will be fulfilled through the intelligent and scientific destruction of the claims of evil.

This new heaven and new earth represent the creation of divine Mind, or divine Principle, which we reverently designate as God and it is the one and only true creation. Mrs. Eddy tells us that the primal quality of this divine creative Principle is intelligence. She says (Science and Health, p. 469): "Intelligence is omniscience, omnipresence, and omnipotence. It is the primal and eternal quality of infinite Mind, of the triune Principle.—Life, Truth, and Love,—named God"

In this creation of intelligence, omniscience, omnipresence, and omnipotence evil is of necessity an impossibility It is an illusion, a mistake. We may even call it a mental absurdity, just as a mistake in figures is a mathematical absurdity. Is not 2 times 2 equals 10 a mathematical absurdity, impossible of existence in the principle of numbers? So fear, greed, hatred disease, and so forth, are mental absurdities, impossible of existence in the divine Principle, the divine Love which is God

As evil exists only in the unreal realm of false belief, never in the one creation of Mind, it is devoid of power either to create or destroy aught that is truly existent. Only within the belief of two powers, two creations at war with one another, can a sense of destruction be experienced. As evil is understood as deception, we see that its elimination does not involve any element of destruction, any more than the correction of a mistake in mathematics involves the destruction of the numbers involved. This is only a matter of enlightenment, obedience, and adjustment of numbers to the principle which governs them.

In Science and Health Mrs. Eddy states (p. 480): "If sin, sickness, and death were understood as nothingness, they would disappear. As vapor melts before the sun, so evil would vanish before the reality of good."

Evil, in its own suppositional realm, fulfills its own law of destruction, destroys its own suppositional creation and agencies, but what is called evil itself can be destroyed only by good. The evil of war never destroys the evils that cause war, whether it is a quarrel between neighbors and friends or a battle between nations. The quarreling will be overcome and and the battles cease, not through the victory of one faction over another, but by the coming of peace, and intelligence, and love, into the hearts of men.

Peace, universal peace, will be established and remain unshaken only as the law of Love, divine Principle, is recognized as supreme, commanding and enforcing obedience and fulfilling its own good purposes.

St. James wrote, "If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well." Shakespeare, speaking of a war which mad ambition had kindled between two nations, wrote:

"This might have been prevented and made whole
With very easy arguments of love."

God, whose primal quality is intelligence, eternally maintains His own creation, including man, in immutable majesty and power, uninterrupted harmony and beauty, and in this presence is proved the nonexistence of evil. "As vapor melts before the sun," so does evil vanish before the ever-present penetrating power of Truth, before the tender, irresistible persuasions of Love Hear this imperative message of the Christ, the saving Truth: "This is my commandment, That ye love one another." So is fulfilled the promise of a new heaven and a new earth.

Promise of Eternal Life Fulfilled

Here is another of the promises given to us through the understanding of John: "And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life" How may we see this promise fulfilled? The key to the fulfilling of this promise of eternal life is given in the words of Christ Jesus: "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent" How mental, how spiritual it all becomes! Life is knowledge of God, and God is Spirit, as Jesus declared and proved The conclusion is inevitable in its logic Spirit is Life, and to come into knowledge or understanding of Spirit or Mind is to be instructed into eternal life.

We have seen that the primal quality of Life or God is intelligence Is it possible that intelligence could need nonintelligence as a medium of expression? Can deathless Life possibly need lifeless matter as a medium through which to express itself? That is illogical and impossible on the face of it Spirit must and does express itself through its own intelligent, vital, imperishable qualities and ideas. Knowledge of God involves knowledge of love, joy, peace, intelligence, wisdom, freedom, dominion To know and express these qualities and ideas in their indestructible substance is to have eternal life.

As there is only one God or Mind there is only one Life. Life cannot be divided into lives any more than Mind can be divided into minds. Life cannot be separated into "my life" and "your life," "our life" and "their life." This does not mean the elimination of the individual expression of Life; rather does it make individuality infinite and imperative, otherwise Life would be unexpressed. We would have absorption rather than emanation. Do not be afraid, dear friends, of losing your individuality by acknowledging only one Life Rather let us rejoice to find our individuality in the beauty, order, goodness, power, and activity—in the divinity—of Mind's ideas and qualities.

It is to be kept in view that Life is eternal. There is no transient life. The transient life of matter concepts is an illusion, at best a counterfeit of Life eternal. Life is found only in the infinite depth, sweetness, and fullness of its own infinite being Life has nothing to do with time. In the knowledge of God there is "time no longer"—another of the promises given by St. John. Understanding this, we find what is called time illumined by eternity—the "glory of eternity." In Science and Health, speaking of the light of spiritual truth thrown on the material concept of life, Mrs. Eddy says (p. 502), "Even thus the crude forms of human thought take on higher symbols and significations, when scientifically Christian views of the universe appear, illuminating time with the glory of eternity."

Time illuminated with the glory of eternity means life freed from the limitations of mortal belief and lifted into the eternal verities of true being and of inexhaustible good

In one of his best-loved plays Shakespeare (if I may quote him again) declares, "Time travels in divers paces with divers persons" Then follows a graphic description of those for whom time trots, ambles, gallops, or "stays it still withal." To the human mind generally, however, time passes all too quickly, because the passing of time very often seems the passing of good—the passing of what is called youth, of strength, of health and activity of life itself. In the light of eternity we find that spiritual good, the only good, never passes. It is the ever-present substance and condition of man and the universe. No good thing ever passes with what is called the passing of time. This is the glory of eternity.

Perhaps time is arguing that it is allowing you only so much of itself and you must hurry up and get things done or you will miss something. It may say, "You have just so much of me, time, in which to carry out that good plan necessary to your human welfare; you have just so much of me in which to get well." It may even say, "You have just so much of me in which to be saved, else you will go to hell."

In the light of the glory of eternity one is saved from this threat and worry. One sees that all good is already created and established, maintained by the omnipotent God. Each individual's good is by Him ordered and maintained, and His law of good governs immutably the individual's every moment and assures the success of his good purpose. This is demonstrated as one intelligently trusts and obeys eternal Truth, the substance of his spiritual being.

Life, veritable spiritual life, is never interrupted by the claim of material birth, nor by the experiences which follow that birth on the way to death. None of the storms and stresses, ecstasies or agonies of the dream of mortal living interrupt the clear shining, the purity and spiritual bliss of true Life or of its reflection, man and the universe

Life, though individualized, is never personal. The belief that life is personal, in and subject to matter, tinges our living with uncertainty, a balancing of good and evil. To know one's life as spiritual, altogether good, gives to thought, speech, and action the certitude of Spirit, divine Truth.

Sometimes, in our human sense of living, we seem to make mistakes They may appear to be very grave mistakes, but in every such experience, no matter how serious it may seem to be, there is to be found a blessing. The ever-present light of Truth reveals this blessing to purified consciousness.

If, through what seems to be a mistake, we learn to know more of God the mistake is erased by this knowing Learning more of God means gaining more of Life The divine order and harmony of Life are never interrupted by what seem to be human mistakes.

Time cannot divorce one moment from the eternity of God's goodness. Every moment of what is called time, when illumined with the glory of eternity, is found to be safe in the heart of divinity

Spiritual Life, true consciousness, is never impressed by evil, never diminished by its claims, nor scarred by its illusions Life maintains its own beneficent nature in omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience, and omniaction and uninterruptedly expresses itself in infinite individuality This truth, understood, is the greatest healing power in the universe This was proved to one student of Christian Science who had struggled for many weeks with a physical difficulty which did not yield to her own earnest work and that of a Christian Science practitioner One day this idea, a ray of light, shone through the seeming darkness of fear and suffering: "My eternal, individual, spiritual being never has been, and is not now, interrupted by fear, sickness, or disease." At that instant the healing began and was shortly consummated.

We never come into touch with Life through the physical senses. Life is never either young or old. Can one really think of young life or old life unless one's thinking includes acceptance of a physical body? Life is never exhausted, never grows weary Life is never shabby nor drab nor dreary Life never shrinks nor shrivels Life is always expressing itself in life uninterruptedly, individually, and universally What can interrupt Life, exhaust its power of expression, make drab its fadeless beauty, or make dreary its unfolding way of vital activity?

Veritable Life and its reflection is never interrupted by death, either that seemingly continuous death process which is called the carnal mind, or the immediate incident that seems the dissolution of that mind. Thus the dream of life in matter leaves untouched, undimmed, the glory of the ever-presence of Love, the all-power of Principle, the beauty of Soul, the indestructible essence and substance of Spirit, that which is eternal Life.

So is fulfilled the promise of eternal life

The power of this spiritual understanding that God is ever-present, uninterrupted Life was evidenced in the experience of a student of Christian Science—a consecrated practitioner. While she and her son were devoted students of Christian Science, other members of the family were adverse to its teachings. So when a member of that family, one who to human sense was well advanced in years, was taken seriously ill with heart disease, materia medica was naturally resorted to. For several weeks he was lovingly cared for by physician and nurses until the physician said there was no use of his coming any more. There was absolutely nothing he could do. One night after the patient had been unconscious all day, the nurse called the family to the bedside and said the last enemy had passed over their beloved one. The grandson then turned to his father and said: "You have tried materia medica and it has not helped. Why not let grandfather have Christian Science? I know he would wish it." Consent was given, and the Christian Science practitioner, a beloved daughter-in-law, was asked to give Christian Science treatment, which she did. In a short time the watching family were filled with awesome astonishment when the patient suddenly sat up in bed, looked at them all with a smile, and said: "I am all right. Annie has been helping me." He was restored to health and resumed his happy and normal activity with his family.

Man the Son of God

One of the most inspiring and comforting promises in Scripture is that we shall know as we are known. So, as we learn to know God, we learn to know ourselves as we are known of God—the one creator, even divine Mind. As we learn to know God, we no longer turn to what is called the physical body to learn what is true about ourselves, our health, our character, our so-called prospects.

The physical body represents the myth-mind of the Adamic race and has no reality in true being, no more substance, law, or activity than its legendary origin. One of the definitions of Adam in the Glossary of our textbook is (p. 580), "The first god of mythology." This being true, everything that stems from that parent myth must be mythical in nature—even in embodiment. This is the man of whom the prophet Isaiah wrote when he said, "Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?" Wherein, indeed, except in the idolatrous assumption of two creators and two creations, an illogical and nonintelligent premise from which to think. Then one should never look to the physical senses to tell him what kind of man he is, what kind of health he has, how his faculties are functioning, what his environment is, or what is his character.

In spite of what is called animal magnetism, the lure of the senses to look to them for life, health, substance, and happiness, one who knows God will turn resolutely away from sense testimony and intelligently know himself as he is known of God. He will know his health to be in Spirit, the reflection of the holiness or wholeness of Soul, and held in immutable harmony by divine Principle. He will learn that he sees and hears because he reflects the all-seeing, all-knowing Mind. He will no longer ask of the physical body how well he can see or hear; how well material eyes and ears are functioning. Man sees with Mind, not matter; and seeing with Mind, he sees with intelligence, with delight, with beauty, with love and peace. He sees ideas rather than objects. He knows as he is known and sees as God sees. This truth is a law to the human sense of sight

This truth is illustrated by a case of healing of blindness through Christian Science. Failing to find help or hope from materia medica, a man turned to Christian Science for help. After a few weeks' treatment, great improvement was marked, but there seemed only a partial healing, which did not satisfy the consecrated practitioner. One day she was led to ask this man if there was any strained or ruptured relationship between him and those dear to him He admitted that for three years he had not spoken to his son, with whom he had quarreled

Such a sacred sense of love filled the practitioner's thought at that moment that she was able to impart this to the man and asked him to write to his son and express all of the love which he knew he was reflecting from God right that minute. This he did the same afternoon and sent it air mail to California, where his son was living. The father lived in an eastern city, and in just three days he had a loving letter from his son, written the same day the father sent his letter off to the son. The son had felt the healing touch of love thousands of miles away and had written to his father.

Great was the joy of that man, and while rejoicing over Love's victory, he discovered his eyes were completely healed and he could see perfectly This healing was permanent. He had learned to see as God sees, with Love.

This is but one of the many proofs given in Christian Science today that the health of man is not in or of matter, a physical body It is of Mind, and as thought reflects God's thoughts, health is found to reflect God's holiness or wholeness, eternally unimpaired and unimpairable. Then what about man's character or nature? It is even the reflection of God's nature. The only man there is, is the man of God's creating, His exact image and likeness. What then of the common man of whom we so constantly hear today? Now the word "common" has two accepted meanings: "that which implies qualities below the average" and that which pertains to a joint source "which is had in common, shared alike by all."

Jesus, in his ministry, did not appeal to any particular class of men. He knew all men as equally in need of understanding Truth. So, to all men alike, ruler and nobleman, pauper and magdalen, he brought the gospel of the nobility of man and demonstrated its reality. He did not say, "if I be brought down into the street," but, "I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

It is worthy of note that our Leader has not in all her published writings used the word "common" in defining man. She has used the word a number of times in its higher significance, that which pertains to a joint source. In "Miscellaneous Writings" she says (p. 18): 'Thou shalt recognize thyself as God's spiritual child only, and the true man and true woman, the all-harmonious 'male and female, as of spiritual origin, God's reflection,—thus as children of one common Parent,—wherein and whereby Father, Mother, and child are the divine Principle and divine idea, even the divine 'Us'—one in good, and good in One"

Who then is the common man? He is the man who shares in common with all existence the nature of the one creator, divine Mind This man may be seen everywhere if one looks for him with the eyes of spiritual discernment, the eyes of Love. The senses may say that we are seeing a very common man, discourteous, uncivil, sick or sinful, inebriate, deformed. Let us turn from the senses and see in Science the man of our common Father. If our vision is clear enough, there will be lifting up out of the street of the senses to the mount of transformation, where man knows himself the son of God, reflecting the nature of God in purity, intelligence, nobility, dignity, and joyous liberty.

Thus, in the revelation of Christian Science, is fulfilled the promise of knowing even as also we are known—as sons of God.

Prayer Fulfilled in Power

As Christian Science spiritualizes every human concept viewed in the light of its teaching, so it spiritualizes the concept of prayer. It lifts it out of the suppositional mental realm of man separated from God, pleading for help, into the reality of man at one with God, with His completion and goodness. It enables one to find prayer one with the power that fulfills prayer. Then, to pray aright, one must understand true power aright, the power that is called God.

Men have generally looked upon God as an unknown quantity, a capricious deity, sending good and evil upon His creation, according to His will. Men are not yet freed from this mythology and the superstitious belief that sees God operating through what are called forces of nature. They give these forces Adamic names and stand in awe before their own falsities of belief. Can an almighty God be divided against Himself or share His power with the opposite of Himself? Has He not said, "My glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images"? The power of God, Spirit, who of creative necessity is good, is law and intelligence, is not found in any material force or element, assuredly not in the splitting of atoms, producing earth-blasting and most horribly destructive detonations

True power is in the indivisible oneness of almighty Mind, its divine ideas and spiritual qualities; in the perfect intelligence which could neither create nor permit an element the opposite of itself; in Love divine, whose beneficence is expressed in beauty, impartial joy, and blessedness; in Principle, whose immutability preserves eternal justice and righteousness. Power is to be found only with the one God, who is of "purer eyes than to behold evil"

One man there has been, the man Christ Jesus, who perfectly understood God as Spirit and who demonstrated the power of Spirit, proving it to be good alone He set aside every so-called law that material sense has imposed upon itself What is called the law of gravity was set aside by his understanding of divine Love, which knows no weight of fear. Material laws of production were set aside by his understanding of Spirit as the only substance, whose ideas were ever available to meet the human need. He set aside the so-called law of death by his understanding of eternal Life, self-existent and incapable of extinction. Time and space ceased to exist to his understanding of omnipresence. He demonstrated this power as immediately available. And he said, "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also."

Thus Jesus taught us to pray. He taught us the dynamic power of spiritual qualities and their effect on mortal beliefs. He taught us that Love is dynamic, and that when divine Love is reflected in love, it dispels the shadows of fear, hatred, sickness, and sin, individually and collectively Answered prayer, indeed! He taught us that peace is dynamic—dynamic in its very quietude and stillness—the peace which our Leader says is "spiritual; never selfish, stony, nor stormy, but generous, reliable, helpful, and always at hand" (Miscellany, p. 121) The presence of this dynamic peace, always at hand, is found stilling the seemingly troubled waters, dissipating fatigue, and lifting into rest, the rest of prayer fulfilled. Joy is dynamic. True joy, the joy of Spirit, is instant and constant, self-sustained, fadeless, heavenly, unprecarious, and sturdy. This joy, realized as consciousness, dispels depression, discouragement, weakness, and despair. Potent prayer, indeed!

Intelligence is dynamic, dispelling confusion, vacillation, and indecision. This divine intelligence is ever present to be reflected, as Jesus proved when confronted by the Pharisees and Sadducees, who sought to trap him with the subtleties and sophistry of their traditional teachings. Again a potent answer to prayer.

My friends, this Christlike manner of prayer while almighty in power is simple withal—and most readily understood by the humble in heart. Love, peace, joy, intelligence! When one accepts these divine qualities and others akin to them, as ever at hand, as indeed his very being, and allows them to govern his thinking and acting, he finds fulfillment of prayer through at-one-ment with God, with power omnipotent. He finds the kingdom of heaven within and walks his heaven-on-earth way humbly and gladly as the son of God, conscious of fulfilled prayer.

Divine Love Fulfills All Promise

"God is love" These three words understood in their tender significance, their omnipotent law, will remedy every ill, every threat, every would-be curse that the carnal mind in its enmity against Love can suggest God, the omnipotent One, the only creator, is Love This means that man is the expression of Love, is cradled in Love, provisioned by Love, immutably governed by Love, and maintained in immortality by Love divine This is immutable truth, to be known and demonstrated by men, and is the fulfillment of all promise.

God is Love! Seeming hate and ill-will cease for the one who finds refuge in Love He sees his would-be enemy as well as himself included in that Love, each equally dear equally endowed with blessings, equally gifted with confident ability He finds enmity displaced by neighborliness, good fellowship, and good will

God is Love! How gently the words fall upon the restless one, the self-willed one, the one imposed upon, the burdened one Oh, then, dear friend, be still and hear the tender message, "God is Love," and the good will of Love is the only will It is done in earth as it is in heaven. This assurance quiets fear, eases tension, and, yielding to Love's good will, you find yourself at rest and the kingdom at hand

God is Love! How searching is the power of these words! How incisively they light up the seeming depths of lust, cruelty, dishonesty, vanity, false appetites, pride, and hypocrisy, showing forth the falsity of all enmity against good its empty boastfulness, its nothingness, and revealing the verity of man, joyous and pure in sinless being, whom God, Love, indeed rejoices to call His own.

On page 520 of Science and Health stand forth these inspired words: 'The depth, breadth, height, might majesty, and glory of infinite Love fill all space That is enough'" In this royal law of Love is the fulfillment of all promise.

NOONAN NEWS

The kindergarten pupils of the Noonan School have been very busy planning a holiday party for their mothers. They have bought a Christmas tree and have decorated it. Under the direction of Miss Mary McAuley, kindergarten teacher, the party will be held in the classroom next Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock. The children have been making surprises for their mothers and they will be presented at the Christmas party. The children have been busy making dolls to send to "The Home for Little Wanderers" for Christmas presents.

The children of the kindergarten extracted the seeds from their Hallowe'en Jack-o-Lantern, dried them in the sun for two or three weeks, and then planted them in a flower pot. The plants have been growing rapidly and have five sprouts three or four inches high.

Each class of the school has been making a Christmas murat for their classroom.

The pupils of the sixth grade have seen a number of helpful movies in the past week. These include films entitled "Blue Coal, The New South, Conservation of Our Natural Resources, Wheat Farmer, and two very helpful movies, Fractions, and Spelling is Easy."

CAST OF WINN'S CHRISTMAS MINSTRELS

J. H. WINN'S SONS' CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas Party by the employees of J. H. Winn's Sons was held at Metcalf Hall, Monday evening, December 20th. One hundred and sixty-five employees sat down to a delicious banquet starting at 7:00 p. m. During the banquet a few lively songs were sung headed by Fiddler McGee and his orchestra.

At the conclusion of the banquet Toastmaster Jim Milnes opened the evening's program with a few remarks and jokes. From all reports it looks like a permanent job for our good-natured and jolly Jim. Mr. Snow, Vice President of the company extended his thanks to all those who helped on the various committees and stated that at least fifty percent of the employees had worked either on a committee, or in some way helped to make the evening's program a success. Mr. Newhall, at the request of Toastmaster Jim, took a bow and wished all employees a Merry Christmas. Mr. Jim then acknowledged the efforts of all the officers of the company, and asked the following employees to stand and receive the greetings from their fellow employees: Messrs. Harley H. Dickie, Henry L. Clark, Jr., Roger T. Lohnes and Ralph W. Jury.

Toastmaster Jim next introduced President Ernie, as he is known to all his employees, stating that he thought after all the hunting trips he expected a banquet of venison in place of what was served. President Ernie invited Jim to his house after the party and guaranteed some venison for him. Wonder how old is the venison?

President Ernie reviewed the past year in respect to the business and its relation to each employee. He clearly brought out a number of conditions existing in our production lines that will need to be improved. Mr. Dade then gave his personal opinion on what he thought was ahead for the year 1949, and what effect this would have on each employee. At the conclusion of his remarks, he informed the group that there would be some increases starting the first of the year.

Versatile Bob Low seemed to be in so many places at the time. As chairman of the decorations, the snow men appearing on each table made one feel that the newly fallen snow had been rolled up and brought in by his committee just specially for the party. He was the one to encourage a belated hesitant employee to find a place at the tables, and with his assistance the tables fast disappeared after the dinner, making room for the fellow workers and their guests to be seated in anticipation of the program.

And what a program with thirty-seven young ladies, seven endmen and the interlocutor. Many were immediately taken back a few years when Mr. Hartley played a Bones solo in a very able and spirited manner. Some can remember marching into school keeping step with the help of the Bones. Then the moment arrived, the curtain was parted and the entire company in gay array, took part in the Opening Chorus.

"That Certain Party" rendered by "Rainbow Jones" sounded like wishful thinking, and "Tootin' Joe" certainly appeared reassuring with his "Melancholy Baby". But "Mandy Eulalie Brown" really had them guessing, a sweater girl of the deep south, wearing bracelet sized earrings, the envy of all the gals. And when she burst forth into song, assisted by the entire company, "Alexander's Ragtime Band" was really made famous again. But was it the song or those syncopating steps that had to be repeated in an encore? Of course one could not help but feel sorry for "Blackjack" whose Mammy had evidently neglected to teach him the Golden Rule, that it is better to do somethin' for somebody, than do nothin' to "Nobody".

An accordian solo played in a delightful manner by Anna Dango, was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Marjorie Nickerson charmed the audience with the selection "Ramblin' Rose". And "Lightin' Flash" assisted by the "Pickaninies" and Endmen were good, and how they strutted and sang the "Darktown Strutters Ball". Bet "Lightin' Flash" has been in ministrel shows before! Our little "Pickaninies" made a hit with the popular song "Buttons and Bows". We wondered why "Al Jolson" sang so lustily "Hair of Gold", he has already made a little blonde his own. The "Lord's Prayer" sang by Marjorie Quimby made us think for a few moments, that Christmas has a finer and more serious side than just merry-making.

Ah! but "Stepinfetchit Washington" - who could resist when he sang so meaningful "Give Me a Little Kiss" - but he had not better trust his buddies next time, just come prepared with a few safety pins. A rendition of "Dinah" by Marie Connor proved very pleasing. A unique specialty of the evening was given by the entire company in the form of a combination of "White Christmas and Jingle Bells." "White Christmas" was given first followed by "Jingle Bells" sang with the lights out, and lighted flashlights waving in unison which gave a pretty effect.

But more talent was a-stalking round the stage and "Asleep in the Deep" by "Smoky Stove" was received with much enthusiasm. Lucky for J. H. Winn's that "Singin' Sam was not listening or he might have grabbed him to double for him on the radio. Our "Interlocutor", far from having been asleep, with his previous duties as Toastmaster, favored us with a selection "Sleep, Kentucky Babe", assisted by the Endmen. And speaking of the Endmen, were they good! How they played and tossed those tambourines! If they were any better, the Red Sox would be stealing them for outfielders for next year.

Just as all good things have to finally come to an end, so our program was brought to a close with a group of songs by eight young ladies and the Chorus. And the chorus should not go without special mention - they gave of their time just as generously and willingly as those taking part in the specialties, and no minstrel could be put on without the chorus. Very much credit for the fine show is due to Mrs. Viola Belt of Melrose, who directed at the rehearsals, assisted by Mrs. Marion Moore, and who played and directed at the party. An impromptu, unrehearsed duet by these two ladies, was enjoyed in the place of the guitar specialty, as George Reeves was detained at home account of illness.

Dancing followed, and even those who rarely engage in this pleasure, could not sit still when Fiddler McGee and his boys started to swing. All around the hall one could hear, "These parties grow better each year", "This was the best ever", "What a dinner" which tempts one to speculate on what can be in store for the employees at the J. H. Winn's Sons' Christmas Party in 1949.

WINCHESTER BEAT MAPLE LEAFS, 8-2

Playing with a spirit that was refreshing to see the local hockey sextet shook down the colorful St. Jean Maple Leafs from Manchester, N. H., at the Boston Arena last Monday night to the tune of 8 to 2. This game was the second of a twin bill, the first contest being between the U. S. A. H. A. all stars and the Canadian A. H. A. all-stars.

Almost all the locals had a hand in the scoring, Don Armstrong being the only Winchester player who scored twice. Frank Livingstone counted at the opening of the game assisted by Roy Monson. Bob Collins followed assisted by brother Dick, then Dick got one unassisted. Monson rang up Winchester's fourth on a set-up by Ted Madden, the latter playing in place of Jim Fuller, confined with a cold. As the first period ended Winchester led 4 to 0.

Whip Saltmarsh opened the second period with his goal of the evening assisted by Armstrong. Don Ellis then put on a beautiful solo rush that ended with the puck in the net. Just to show that it could be done both ways Saltmarsh and Armstrong reversed their previous technique, Don counting and Whip getting the assist.

As the final period began with Winchester leading 7 to 0 St. Jean staged a desperate rally. Plourde, their left defenseman, succeeded in scoring their first marker. Armstrong got the locals' eighth and last goal midway of the period. Plourde sank his second near the end of the game.

The game was cleanly played, only one penalty for roughing being drawn by a player from each team. In addition to Jim Fuller Scott Doub was unable to play on account of a previous knee injury, and Dean Tolman was likewise missing because of a cold. Scott Connor did a good job in the net and Madden and Don Ellis played fine defensive hockey. The Collins brothers displayed their best effort to date.

WINCHESTER H. S. TIES STONEHAM

In their second game in as many evenings Winchester battled the strong Stoneham Hockey Club to a tie at the Boston Arena last Tuesday. The contest was played right after the Boston College-Boston University match.

The locals seemed a little tired from the game with St. Jean the previous night, while Stoneham started off with great zeal, scoring twice at the beginning of the first period. Cogan got the first unassisted, then he set up Manuel with a nice pass for their second. Wimpy Burtnett got back one of these near the end of the period on Roy Monson's pass.

In the second period McDermott made it 3 to 1 for Stoneham on assists by the two Manley brothers. Strange as it seems from here on Stoneham began to fade and Winchester took on a new lease on life. Dave Merrow caged a neat goal on a pass from Don Armstrong early in the third period. At about the halfway mark Burtnett sank his second of the game for the equalizer. From here on most of the play was in the Stoneham zone, with the locals firing shot on shot, and only the brilliant work of the Stoneham goalie, Kenny Prescott, saved his team from impending disaster.

Scott Connor made many hard saves for the locals. Don Ellis was a tower of strength on defense, and it was well that he was, with both Scott Doub and Jim Fuller missing from the lineup. Billy Dingwell also did well defensively. Burtnett led in the attack.

The game was cleanly played, with but three minor penalties, two to Stoneham and one to Winchester.

RED CROSS WORKERS SPREAD CHRISTMAS CHEER

Eighteen Winchester Red Cross workers brightened the holiday season for 216 veterans at Bedford last Monday when a gala Christmas Party was held at the hospital. Forty homemade cakes, made by En Ka members and Winchester women, and 14 gallons of ice cream provided by the Winchester Red Cross was served in the wards. An accordianist and carollers strolled through the wards to lead the men in singing Christmas songs. Among the Winchester women present were: Mrs. Ray E. Mauger, Canteen Chairman; Mrs. George W. French, Mrs. William S. Phippen, Mrs. W. E. Ramsdell, Mrs. A. Allen Kimball, Mrs. W. H. D. Townley-Tilson, Mrs. George O. Farrar, Mrs J. B. Fellows, Mrs. Gladys Schad, Mrs. George F. Nardin, Mrs. Alfred Osgood, Mrs. William Holdich, and Gray Ladies Mrs. Edward M. Feeley, Chairman; Mrs. Allan P. Lindblad, Mrs. Oscar E. Merrow, Mrs. Charles A. Farrar, Mrs. Paul H. Howard and Mrs. Whitelaw Wright.

Previously, groups of women under the leadership of Mrs. Colver Dyer visited Bedford Hospital to wrap Christmas packages which were distributed in the wards. Quantities of wrappings were supplied by the local Chapter. Workers assisting Mrs. Dyer included: Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. William McDonald, Mrs. Harold Nichols, Mrs. Alden Symmes, Mrs. Aldrich Forward, Mrs. Robert Gardner and Mrs. Herbert Gardner.

In the Junior Red Cross department, boys and girls from the elementary schools and St. Mary's were kept busy packing 50 Christmas boxes filled with toys and necessities for displaced children in the European area. High Schoolers provided thousands of Christmas cards for the veterans at Bedford to mail to their families and 100 original hand painted tray covers for use at the hospital, while Junior High School made gay holiday calenders for hospital distribution.

Praise is due the Motor Corps who gave instintingly of their time in driving entertainers to and from Bedford Hospital and in transporting patients to parties in Winchester. Patients who are able to go home for Christmas are driven to the South and North Stations by the Motor Corps.

YOUR LIBRARY

"Christmas Treasures of a Collector" are now on display in the glass case in the foyer of the library. Mrs. Earle Edwin Andrews of Highland avenue is the collector and has arranged the display. In the case are some very old Christmas cards and Christmas Tree Ornaments of other years. There are old time candle holders of various types, tiny dolls that hung from Christmas Tree branches and several small toys. In this collection are Christmas seals of many years and old buttons and plates with symbols of the Christmas season. This exhibit will be on view through January 8.

CHRISTMAS CAROL

The earth has grown old with its burden of care,
But at Christmas it always is young,
The heart of the jewel burns lustrous and fair,
And its soul full of music bursts forth on the air,
When the song of the angels is sung.

It is coming, Old Earth, it is coming to-night!
On the snowflakes which cover thy sod
The feet of the Christ-child fall gentle and white
And the voice of the Christ-child tells out with delight
That mankind are the children of God.

On the sad and the lowly, the wretched and poor,
The voice of the Christ-child shall fall;
And to every blind wanderer open the door
Of hope that he dared not to dream of before
With a sunshine of welcome for all.

The feet of the humblest may walk in the field
Where the feet of the Holiest trod,
This, then, is the marvel to mortals revealed
When the silvery trumpets of Christmas have pealed,
That mankind are the children of God.
Phillips Brooks

F. of L., of which he was believed to have been the oldest member in the country. He had been a resident of Winchester for the past five years and was the father of Guy E. Bearers were Elmer Hunt, superintendent of the Globe's stereotyping department; Philip Diunal, night foreman, and Frank Taylor both members of the Globe stereotype department; and Joseph LeForge, president; Fred Gervesi, treasurer, and Jason Mutter, representing Local 2 of the Stereotypers and Electroplaters Union. Of Winchester interest is the marriage which took place at the First Unitarian Church in New Bedford on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 26, when Miss Barbara Preston Rowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Brainard Rowe of Chestnut street, New Bedford, became the bride of Edward --Dubois Sprague of Durham, N. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Sprague of Wentworth place, Lynn. Rev. Robert J. Holden, minister of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Rowe was given in marriage by her father, who formerly lived in Winchester on Myrtle Terrace and who is a graduate of Winchester High School.

The bride wore a white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, outlined with pearls, long pointed sleeves and a short train. Her fingertip-length veil of tulle was brought from Paris 50 years ago for the wedding of her maternal grandmother, and was worn also by her mother. It was caught to a crown-like cap of antique silver outlined with pearls. With her cascade bouquet of white carnations and orchids the bride carried a Rainbow Girls Bible.

Miss Ruth M. Worthing of Holyoke, roommate of the bride at University of Massachusetts, was maid of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta dress with matching mitts and a coronet of gold flowers and leaves. Her cascade bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Phyllis M. Downing of Ipswich, and Miss Linda Sprague of Marblehead, cousins of the bridegroom, were bridemaids, wearing identical dresses of blue with satin bodices, bustle sashes and buffant tulle overskirts. Their coronets, slippers and wreaths were gold, like those of the honor maid.

Mrs. Rowe, mother of the bride, wore a draped print gown in green, brown and yellow, with a dark green feathered hat and green and gold accessories. Mrs. Sprague, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in dark green with matching gloves and feathered hat. Both wore corsages of cypripedium orchids.

Willard C. Rowe, brother of the bride, was best man, and another brother, Preston B. Rowe, Jr., carried the rings in an heirloom daguerreotype case. Ushers were Harold H. Rafuse of Lynn, Robert Bevins of Salem, Harlow E. Pendleton of Fitchburg and Richard E. Lord of New Bedford.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the church parish house. Upon their return from a honeymoon spent in the winter sports centers of the White Mountains Mr. and Mrs. Sprague will live in Durham, N. C., where the bridegroom is a graduate student in forestry at Duke University. He is a veteran of four years service with the Army Air Forces.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

"The Citizen Pays The Bill" will be the subject of a panel discussion at the regular meeting of the League of Women Voters on Wednesday, January 5th at the home of Mrs. Philip Woodward, 13 Sheffield road at 2.30. The program arranged by Mrs. Marshall Pihl, chairman of Economic Welfare, will come to grips with such questions as: Should Federal expenditures be cut or raised next year? Should Federal taxes be cut? If so which taxes? Now while we are in a boom period how can the Federal budget help us to avoid a bust? The present sizes of the budget, roughly 40 billion dollars, makes it a key factor in the control of business fluctuations.

Most people are agreed on the desirable ends to be attained by a sound fiscal policy but there are varying points of view as to the best method for achieving them. The round table will present the many ramifications of this thorny problem in a clear and graphic manner with the use of charts. Among those taking part in the discussion will be Mrs. Horace Abbott, Mrs. J. Girard Chandler, Mrs. Joseph Dolben, Mrs. Harold Hall, Mrs. Marshall Pihl, Mrs. John W. White, Mrs. Warren Whitman and Mrs. Charles B. Waston.

On Thursday evening January 6th at 7:45 in the Winchester Library, the United Nations Workshop in the League will show a program of movies on the U. N. There are three films. The first, "One World or None" with Raymond Gram Swing as commentator is one of the best that has been produced on Atomic Energy. "Palestine," a March of Time film shows some of the past problems as well as the present crisis in Palestine. "The World is Rich" is a British Information Service release which deals with the basic facts of the world food situation today, and dramatizes the plans put forward by the Food and Agriculture Organization in the U. N.

This evening of movies has been arranged by Mrs. Henry K. Spencer, Chairman of the U. N. Workshop. It has been prepared especially for community use and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of the opportunity to see these excellent films. However because of the aspect of some of the scenes of starvation in the last film the League does not consider them suitable for children.

GLEE CLUBS SUPPLIED CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Aided by Narrator Robert Singer, the Boys' and Girls' glee clubs and the Octette of Winchester High School, under direction of Miss Eleanor Anifantis, Director of Vocal Music, provided a most pleasing Christmas program on Thursday morning, December 23.

Annette Barbaro played the violin solo "Ave Maria" by Schubert to open the program. Her accompanist was Janet Macaulay. Then in order came the following musical numbers properly introduced by Narrator Singer:

Joy to the World
Whence Comes the Rush of Wings
Jesus in the Manger
Girls' Glee Club
accompanied by Judith Flanders
Deck the Halls
While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks
A Christmas Hymn
Octette
accompanied by Judith Flanders
The First Noel
The Three Kings
Boys' Glee Club
accompanied by Dorothy Brandt
Holy Child
No Candle Was There
White Christmas
Ocette
accompanied by Judith Flanders
'Twas the Night Before Christmas
Mixed Glee Club

The girls of the glee club made a fine appearance in their red skirts and white long-sleeved blouses, and the boys looked trim with their dark trousers, white shirts, and red and black ties.

The Nativity Scene was dramatized by Janice McCarthy, Richard Phippen, Thomas Wilder, and Thomas McElhinney.

James Quine as the small gentleman in the familiar red suit did a good job in the "Night Before Christmas" act, ably assisted by Richard Carroll and Linda Bartlett.

Stage crew members were Robert Elliott, Robert Oxford, Peter Millett, and Walter Maroney.

ENTERTAINED PAUL REVERE TEAM

Winchester's team in the Paul Revere Baseball League last summer was entertained Tuesday evening by its manager, "Lou" Warsky, at his home on Stowell road. All the members of the team were present except battling "Sammy" Bellino, who was in the hospital undergoing an operation for the correction of a nose injury sustained in football. With last year's team members were several players who expect to be candidates for the team this coming summer. Samples of uniforms were looked over and discussed.

Delicious refreshments were served by a caterer, and for entertainment there were sport movies galore, including the first Lewis-Wolcott fight, the Harvard-Princeton football game, Football Highlights of 1948, showing "Chucker" Roche in action; and the New York Giants-Los Angeles Rams professional football game. This last reel was provided by Wendell Mansfield, former Winchester High Schol athletic director, now coaching at Pomfret School and a member of the Giants coaching and scouting staff, who was among the guests.

A pleasing highlight of the evening was the presentation to Mr. Warsky of a complete cribbage set from the members of his team. "Lou" was pleased with the gift and promised to take any member of the club over the bumps any time he cares to drop around. There were no takers up to adjourning time, most of the boys having tried out "Lou" before!

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS ALFRED HOCKING FLETCHER SANITARY ENGINEER

Born: December 30, 1897 at Winchester, Mass.

Alfred Hocking Fletcher is one of the Country's outstanding authorities on public health and municipal sanitation. The son of Edwin L. and Edith (Hocking) Fletcher, he prepared for his profession at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science in Sanitary Engineering in 1921, and thereupon as his first position, was engaged for a year in malaria control work for the International Health Board at Memphis, Tenn.

Since then, the scope of his activities has been broad and diversified, and until 1929, he was employed successively as sanitary engineer for the health departments of the states of New Hampshire and Louisiana. From 1929 to 1940, he was sanitary engineer of the City of Memphis, and, during this period, it is interesting to note that he took time out to pursue graduate studies at Harvard University which resulted in the degree of Master of Science in Engineering in 1932.

From 1940 to 1944, Mr. Fletcher served as instructor at the school of Hygiene and Public Health of John Hopkins University; and, at present, he is director of the Bureau of Sanitary Engineering, Health Department, New York City.

Mr. Fletcher is the author of numerous publications pertaining to his field, and these include "Problems of a Housing Enforcement Program", 1938; "In-Service Training for Sanitary Inspectors", 1939; and "Integrating Industrial Hygiene with Local Health Service," 1940. As an indication of his professional standing, he is a Fellow of the American Public Health Association and is active in the affairs of the Conference of Municipal Public Health Engineers, the American Water Works Association and the Smoke Prevention Association of America.

Married to Elizabeth Koonce at Memphis, Tenn., in 1923 and the father of two sons, he makes his home in Malba, Long Island, N. Y.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ORGANIZE FUND DRIVE FOR STUDENT CENTER

Boston University alumni from all sections of the United States are currently campaigning for funds to erect a Union Building which will be the next project of the new Boston University Charles River Campus development along Commonwealth Avenue. Dr. Daniel L. Marsh, president of Boston University, announced that the cost of the new building will be in excess of one million dollars.

The five-story building will be the all-University center for student recreation, housing a large auditorium, lounges for men and women, a snack bar, bowling alleys, a small theater and other facilities for student activities. In addition to recreation facilities, the building will house offices for the student newspaper, student council, Inter-Fraternity Conference, the Chaplain, the Placement Service, and other student services.

Representing this district in the campaign for funds to erect a Union Building for the new Boston University Charles River Campus Development, is Marshall R. Pihl, Esq., 30 Mystic Valley Parkway, who is acting as class agent.

WINCHESTER MAN FIGURES IN PATENT GRANT

On November 30, 1948, the United States Patent Office granted patent number 2,454,793 on a "Shock Gauge" to Charles E. Crede, of Brookside avenue, Winchester, and Charles H. Grogan, West Falls Church, Virginia.

Various types of equipment, such as gun barrel slides or mounts, railway apparatus, pile drivers, rolling mills, etc., have to withstand shocks of rather high magnitude. Obviosuly, it is necessary to know the nature and extent of such shocks in order to properly design and test such contrivances.

These characteristics may be measured with a reasonable degree of accuracy with existing instruments, but, according to Messrs. Crede and Grogan, such devices are ordinarily rather bulky and include electronic mechanisms such as an oscillograph and amplifiers. Furthermore they require considerable time to set up for operations, get out of order easily, and need skilled operators to enable them to function properly. Thus, they are not generally satisfactory for use in field tests where ruggedness and lack of complexity are prime requisites.

Messrs. Crede and Grogan have therefore devised a comparatively simple mechanism for measuring the nature of shocks, and, in general, their apparatus comprises a cylindrical block or casing within which are a number (for example, five) of vertically extending bores, each fitted with a conically-pointed piston, a helical spring, and a spacer or member which is utilized to vary the initial spring compression. Directly below each of these bores is a mass of modeling clay or other deformable material, and to complete the construction, the top and bottom ends of the casing are closed with suitable plates and bolts.

The aforementioned bottom bolt may serve as the means for mounting this instrument on the object under investigation. When the latter is subjected to shock each piston moves downwardly relative to the block, and, its conical point produces a permanent indentation in the clay surface in accordance with its maximum displacement. The sizes of these depressions constitute a measure of the shock.

The application for this patent was filled on November 30, 1948 and consists of four claims of originality.

THREE CARS IN COLLISION

Three cars were in collision on Main street near Lawson road shortly before 3:30 last week, Thursday afternoon.

The first of the cars, a Plymouth sedan, driven by Beatrice Hatch of 20 Jefferson road, was headed south on Main street and stopped to let traffic pass before entering Lawson road. Behind the Plymouth a Ford tudor, driven by Louis J. Russo of 78 Swanton street, had also come to a stop.

According to the police, the third machine, also a Ford tudor, was driven south on Main street by Frederick C. Gath of Maple street, Tewksbury. This machine was in collision with the rear of Russo's car, driving it in turn into the machine operated by Mrs. Hatch.

All three cars were damaged and Mr. Russo and Mrs. Irene Ward of 1 Holland street, a passenger in his car, complained of injuries as a result of the collision.

WINCHESTER SET BACK WINTHROP

Winchester High won its second basketball contest of the season by defeating Winthrop High by a score of 35 to 25 at the Winchester High gym last Thursday evening. This victory marks the first time in the past three years that Winchester has defeated Winthrop in their opening game of season and may well portend the a highly successful season for the local hoopmen.

The Red and Black started off as though they were going to sew up the contest early by jumping off to an 11 to 5 lead at the end of the first quarter. The locals attack bagged down during the second quarter, however, and they left the floor with only a 14 to 12 margin. They came back in the third period to accumulate a 29 to 20 advantage by displaying their best offensive effort of the game. The local's nursed their lead carefully during the last quarter while adding another point to their winning margin.

Winchester continued to look very good defensively, rebounding well and permitting Winthrop very few scoring opportunities. Coach Bartlett was a bit disappointed with the Winchester offense but is confident that this team will soon start to click offensively and roll up some impressive scoring totals.

George Tansey, starting his first varsity game for Winchester, looked very good while Tom McGowan and Dick Mathews showed considerable improvement over their first game performances. The two veterans, Captain Ken Donaghey and Paul Roche, continued to provide the necessary poise and experience and proved again that they are the key to the success of this team.

The Winchester High Seconds were also victorious, defeating the Winthrop High Seconds by a score of 36 to 25. Big Walter Murphy was high man for the locals with 13 points as he continued to show considerable improvement.

GRADS RULED H. S. HOOP TEAM

Winchester High suffered its first defeat of the season on Monday evening at the hands of a well-conditioned Alumni team by a score of 40 to 27. A good crowd was on hand to see the stars of the past three years pin a defeat on the present high schoolers. The Alumni even had their own cheerleaders and cheering section to spur them on to victory with Libby Fenno, Rosanne Borden, Jean Monson, and Ann Albree leading the cheers for the graduates.

The Alumni broke away to a good early start and piled up a 13 to 6 margin at the end of the first period. The High School rallied in the second quarter to show their best form of the game and went ahead 17 to 16 at the half-time. Contrary to expectations, the Alumni came out strongly in the second half and actually appeared to be in better condition than the High School players. The graduates enjoyed a good third quarter as they piled up a 16 to 5 margin in that period to go ahead 32 to 22 at the end of the period. They increased their lead during the last quarter by three more points to finish strongly.

The Alumni had too much heighth for the present crop of High School performers and were easily able to control both backboards. The school team could have given the Alumni more trouble if they had been shooting better but their shooting percentage was very poor. Harry Easton, Al Switzer, and Dean Blanchard turned in fine performances for the Alumni while Coach Bartlett found some solace in the improved performances of Dick Mathews and Walter Murphy.

The Alumni also won the second team game by a one-sided 46 to 23 score. "Twiggy" Nolan with 14 points and Jim Olivier with 13 points were the high scorers for the Alumni in this game.

TOWN BASKETBALL LEAGUE

The Town Basketball League will resume activities this week after a break in the schedule caused by the holiday period. There will be three games played on Monday evening and another set of three games on Wednesday evening. The Town League is exceptionally well balanced this year and the resultant closer games with frequent upsets are attracting larger audiences than every before.

The best attraction on Monday evening would seem to be the second game of the evening between the Mercurio Insurance and the Bonnell Motors. Both teams are undefeated and are well supplied with reserve strength which should insure a fast game all the way.

On Wednesday evening the third game on the program brings together the Bonnell and the Rotary Club. These two teams appear to be the strongest in the League and are picked by the experts to battle it out for the League championship. The Rotary has a good deal of experience and heighth but the Bonnell Motors possess more speed and greater reserve strength which they hope will provide the necessary winning margin.

Next week's schedule:

Monday

Bombers vs. Rotary.
Mercurio Insurance vs. Bonnell M.
Am. Legion vs. Win. Appliances.

Wednesday

S. O. I. vs. Winchester Appliance.
Mercurio Insurance vs. Bombers.
Bonnell Motors vs. Rotary.

WINCHESTER PLAYS LEXINGTON, READING

The Winchester High School basketball team plays two Middlesex League games this coming week. On Tuesday afternoon the Red and Black entertains the perennially strong Lexington High quintet. Lexington has finished in either first or second place in the Middlesex League for the past eight years and is definitely one of the teams the locals must defeat if they hope to be a strong contender for the League title. It is too bad that this is not an evening game as it is one of the most attractive on the home schedule. Last year's game was one of the best of the year with Lexington nosing out the Red and Black in the closing minutes by a score of 38 to 37. The second team game gets underway at three o'clock followed by the varsity game.

On Friday evening Winchester travels to Reading for another Middlesex League game. Reading is reputed to be much stronger this year and the locals will have to be at their best to take this one. The tight zone defense played by Reading on their home floor has bothered many good Winchester teams in past years and will be difficult for this year's team to overcome. The second team game is scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m. and many Winchester fans are planning to be present for this contest.

The STAR office had a rather unique bit of Christmas Carol singing late in the afternoon of the day before the holiday with Leon Smith, Ken Pratt, Dot Lord, Al Wilson, Gunnar Abrahamson and Jim Penaligan as either principals or alternates. "T. P." happened to be out at the time, making the ensemble the poorer for his absence, as we have Al Wilson's word for it that "T. P." was a good second tenor in the old Medford Boat Club quartet days.

Every once in a while in our rounds of the town we come upon something that warms the cockles of our heart and revives our sometimes flagging faith in present-day human nature. This time it was the Fireman's Christmas remembrance of young "Davie" Meskell, son of the late Fire Lt. David J. Meskell, whose tragic passing so shocked the town last fall. We will wager that no one was more appreciative of a gift than was "Davie" of the one he got from his dad's "buddies" at the Central Fire Station!

Those sidewalk tractors may be better than the old horse-drawn plows, and we will grant you that they don't get tired, but they surely do quite a job on lawns and sidewalk grass-plots when they don't stay in the groove. There are places around town, following the activity of that Sunday-before-Christmas storm, that look like a plowed field. We can see the "why-for" of those marking wand[illegible] and more people [illegible] their lawns and [illegible]s. The old "hos-[illegible]d the better sense

Happy New Year! The STAR hopes that you and yours will have just that as 1949 slides past the fading 1948 and takes over for the next 365 days. A lot has happened during the year just past, and some of it hasn't been too pleasant. It is probable that the year that lies ahead will not be all happy, but there is no harm in wishing that it may be, particularly for our friends, whose friendship and encouragement always aid, either in the enjoyment of good fortune or the enduring of ill luck. For upwards of 70 years the STAR has been "coming out" each week in Winchester. During that time many friends have assisted our efforts to serve the town as a newspaper in many ways. We are grateful for the friendship and assistance we have had in the past and just as appreciative of the good will and loyalty of our present-day well-wishers. Being in an expansive mood as we extend the season's greetings, we will not confine our good wishes to our good friends, our subscribers, advertisers and regular readers, much as we appreciate their support. We'll cut the whole hog! Happy New Year EVERYBODY*

If you don't think STAR advertising pays just ask Officer "Connie" Bowler. Following the publication of last week's issue the desk officer at Police Headquarters answered upwards of a hundred telephone calls from children or their parents, or both, asking if it was safe to skate on this or that pond around town. The reason for it was of course that skating bulletin thing of "Jack" West and the Recreation Committee in last week's STAR, advising people among other things to ask the police whether it is safe to skate. Much as we regret letting "Jack" down, we have been asked to tell people not to call local Police Headquarters for information about skating. The simple fact is that the Police do not know what ponds about town are safe for skating. They couldn't know unless they made a personal investigation and they are too busy to do that. Generally speaking Officer Bowler told the STAR that the only advice police can give people about skating on any particular pond is that if there seems to be quite a few persons skating on its surface it is probably safe. If a pond is void of skaters, it is a good plan to keep off the ice on it. It is never a good plan to go skating alone, particularly on a pond about which you know nothing. Never take a chance. It denotes foolhardiness rather than courage, and it is a particularly bad thing to do because skating accidents many times result in drowning, not alone the person who first breaks through the ice into deep water, but also one or more brave people who try to save him. Don't risk ice you are not sure of! Don't venture near, let alone too near, open water! Don't go skating alone, and finally don't call the Police to tell you whether it is safe for your children to skate on this or that pond, because, frankly, they don't know!

JUNIOR HIGH COMMITTEE PRESENT PRELIMINARY REPORT

Editor of the Star:

There is enclosed for publication a Preliminary Report which the Junior High School Addition Building Committee believes will be of interest to the people of Winchester. Many inquiries have been made by interested groups of citizens concerning the program of the plans for the Junior High School addition. While this report is not final, it is indicative of what the Committee will recommend at the Annual Town Meeting.

The Committee intends to participate in a series of public meetings shortly after the first of the year, to show lantern slides and to familiarize the townspeople with details of the plans being proposed and to ask for their suggestions and criticism.

We would appreciate your including this letter and the Report in the December 31st issue of the STAR.

Respectfully yours,
Philip P. Wadsworth, Chairman
Junior High School
Addition Building Committee

Committee Report

Pursuant to the recommendation of the School Committee in its Annual Report of last year, the Junior High School Addition Building Committee was established by a vote of the March 1948 Town Meeting. It was specifically authorized and empowered by the vote "to make a study of the proposed addition to the Junior High School Building, to procure engineers' plans and architectural drawings and to make the necessary plans for such addition."

In directing our Committee to study and make plans for the "proposed addition" to the Junior High School, the vote had reference to the addition proposed in the Final Report of the Committee on School Facilities and Activities, containing that Committee's recommendation, after an extensive and thorough study over a two-year period, as to what accommodations and facilities should be provided for the pupils of the seventh to twelfth grades.

It seems proper to review briefly the conclusions reached by the School Facilities Committee. Their report, prepared in close cooperation with the School Committee, the Superintendent of Schools, and the principals of the High and Junior High Schools, who were in accord with the Committee's conclusions, states their belief that the enlargement of the Junior High School building to house grades seven, eight and nine should have priority in the school building program after construction of an Elementary School on the West Side of Cambridge street. For many years, the Committee and the School Administrators have desired to establish a 6-3-3 division of grades in the school system and to get away from the detached ninth grade in the Wadleigh Building which has reduced the efficiency of administration and teaching in both the Junior High and High Schools.

Furthermore, the Facilities Committee and the School Committee both agreed unanimously that to effect economies in construction and operation there should be the maximum possible interchange in the use of facilities between the Junior High and High Schools, particularly in the case of the cafeteria, auditorium and various art and industrial art rooms. Having reached these conclusions, the Facilities Committee recommended plans for enlarging the present building with new wings at either end of the main building, an addition above an enlarged gymnasium and the addition of an auditorium and cafeteria at the north end of the present Junior High School Building.

It was this suggested plan which our Building Committee undertook for study. While our report, prepared for printing in the Town Reports, is preliminary to a final report to be presented at the Annual Town Meeting in March, 1949, it summarizes the conclusions reached to the time of writing.

Our Committee is of the opinion that the necessity and urgency of building a Junior High School Addition, was adequately presented in the reports referred to and that the Town has signified its interest in the proposed project by establishing the Building Committee.

The School authorities have outlined to our Committee in considerable detail the requirements for a school to accommodate 750 pupils. These include additional classrooms, art and music rooms, enlarged accommodations for the science home economics and shop courses, enlarged gymnasium and physical education facilities, and certain miscellaneous changes in the offices, teachers' rooms, supply, book and store rooms, etc.

In addition to these, the school authorities recommended a cafeteria capable of seating 600 diners, to relieve the present crowded and unsatisfactory conditions existing in the high school cafeteria which serves both schools. The proposed cafeteria room is also to be used as a study hall and for social functions. The school authorities also recommended an auditorium to be built above the cafeteria, with an adequate stage, dressing rooms and other facilities, suitable to be used by both schools and to provide additional room needed for high school graduation exercises, school plays and other functions. The School Committee has set 1,000 as the minimum number of auditorium seats required for school purposes and the School Facilities Committee recommended a seating capacity of 1,200 to make possible the use of the auditorium as a Town Hall, as well as for school purposes.

The Building Committee was organized in May, 1948, and set out to study the proposals presented in detail. Numerous conferences were held with the various school administrators and the School Committee with a view to determining the fundamental aspects of the problem. The location of the addition was necessarily determined by the site of the present school buildings. After a thorough study of the probable increase in school populations, it was decided to plan for 750 Junior High School pupils, with some consideration being given to future additional classrooms if required. It was determined that the building addition should be planned with joint use of the cafeteria, auditorium, shops and Industrial Arts facilities, by both the Junior High and High Schools.

The Committee retained the firm of Sturgis Associates, Inc., as architects, that firm having designed the existing building and prepared plans for the enlargement of the building for the School Facilities Committee and being considered fully qualified to serve this Committee in proceeding to its objective.

The Committee proceeded to study alternative plans to those proposed by the Facilities Committee, particularly in reference to the auditorium, gymnasium and cafeteria. Various schools were visited by members of the Committee and the architect sketcher various arrangements with a view to finding a less expensive plan that would satisfy the accepted requirements. After several weeks of study, the Committee decided unanimously that the original proposal was the most acceptable solution.

Detailed sketches were prepared adopting many suggestions and revisions of interested persons meeting with the Committee. In comparison with the plans presented by the School Facilities Committee, some of the stairways were widened, rooms rearranged, additional balcony seats provided in the auditorium, thereby increasing the total seating capacity to 1,290, and additional kitchen facilities, needed by the cafeteria, incorporated. As a result of these and other minor changes the cube of the entire project as proposed by the School Facilities Committee was increased by approximately 5% to a total of nearly a million feet.

With the detail of the floor plans decided upon, the architect proceeded to complete the preliminary eighth scale plans and outline specifications. The Committee has since studied certain problems of heating, has prepared interior specifications, has recommended some changes to modernize and improve the present school rooms, hallways, etc.

The School authorities have definitely advised the Committee that the Junior High School Addition should be ready for occupancy by the fall of 1950. With this in view, it is the intention of the Committee to participate in a series of public meetings prior to the Annual Town Meeting in order to inform the townspeople of the details of the proposed addition. The Committee hopes to be able to present to the Annual Town Meeting, reliable estimates of the probable cost of the project and to propose definite plans for carrying out the plan to completion.

Because the Committee was created to study the plan as proposed by the School Facilities Committee, and because that plan included an auditorium to be available for public use, some mention of this should be made in this report. The Committee feels that the town is definitely in need of an adequate auditorium for town meetings, musical and theatrical performances, lectures and other types of civic programs. It should nevertheless be remembered that the auditorium is included primarily as an essential requisite for school purposes; in addition it should prove a great asset to the town's people outside of its use by the school. The plans provide for an attractive auditorium, a professional stage, good accoustical qualities, adequate ventilation, a lobby, check rooms, and such other facilities as are necessary to make this portion of the project a municipal building in which Winchester may be proud. The Building Committee is in accord with the Facilities Committee proposal that this portion of the addition might well be erected as a memorial to the residents of Winchester who gave their lives in World War II, and suggests that a suitable tablet be placed in the entrance hall of the auditorium.

We believe that the proposed Junior High School Addition meets the considered requirements of the Town and that the plans should be studied with care and given full consideration by the people of Winchester with a view to favorable action at the Annual Town Meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Philip P. Wadsworth, Chairman
Richard M. Rush, Secretary

WELCOME NAVY!

To the Editor:

The Winchester Military Manpower Committee welcomes the participation of the U. S. Navy in the activities of the Committee. Starting next Tuesday, and every Tuesday thereafter, Chief J. E. Burke, Naval Recruiter assigned to Winchester, will be at the Recruiting Office in the basement of the police station to serve the people of Winchester. This will eliminate going to Boston for information about the Navy, as Chief Burke is equipped to give full information to interested applicants or their families. If it is not convenient for you to contact Chief Burke on Tuesday, you will notice a box on the door of the Recruiting Office with "take one" cards. The filling out of these cards does not obligate you in any way; it simply lets the Recruiter know who you are and where you are, and he will promptly get in touch with you.

To the Officers of Organizations belonging to the Women's Council: The writer has been invited by Com. Samuel H. Read, Jr., PIO, First Naval District, to take a group (similar to the Deven's group) to inspect one of the Navy's larger ships. This trip should prove extremely interesting and informative; as soon as the details are worked out, I will again contact the presidents. Now, the writer is strictly a landlubber, so in order not to be too much of a disgrace, is contacting some Navy veterans for a course in Navy lingo! Faced with the fact that there are at least 80 ratings to master, we ask the Navy personnel to bear with us if we ask "What are you?" Incidentally, Chief Burke is a Chief Aviation Machinist's Mate.

But seriously speaking, there are so many things about the Navy in which mothers are deeply interested. We want to know how the boys eat, sleep and train; what are their schooling opportunities, their religious contacts, etc. The writer had a two hour conference with Commander N. J. Nicholas, Officer in Charge, U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Boston and Lt. J. G. Fifield, Acting Director, Naval Officer Procurement, Boston. They have supplied me with considerable literature and will continually advise me as to Navy Policy. Inasmuch as two High School boys recently contacted me about joining the Navy, I pass on to them and to all citizens of Winchester, a message from the Navy: - "STAY IN SCHOOL. You do not want to be a kite in a jet-propelled age! You want to earn what you are worth from your eyebrows up. Remember, it's not what you make by quitting school and taking a job NOW that counts, but what you will be earning when you are 35. Now is the time to play it smart and - STAY IN SCHOOL!" This is sound advice and it pays off in dollars and cents. Statistics show that high school graduates are twice more likely to be in the $3,000 and up class than boys who start high school but do not finish. Thirty-nine out of one hundred high school graduates will be in the $3,000 and up income groups. Furthermore, when unemployment strikes, the men with more schooling hold their jobs longer than others.

Answering several questions on the same subject: - The Navy will NOT accept men with police records nor with habits inimical to their shipmates. Incorrigibles, which a judge, community or a school may want to be rid of, are NOT acceptable.

Answering question on Chaplains: - New Navy Regulations provide for a Chaplain for every 800 men as compared with 1 for every 1250 as formerly.

NAVAL OFFICE PROCUREMENT: The Naval Aviation Cadet program calls for 2,000 men a year. Applicants must have had two years of college. Will give full information on the Naval Officer Procurement programs in January, meanwhile interested individuals should contact Commander Francis Fletcher, Jr., or Lt. Commander Irving A. Henry, Navy Building, 495 Summer street, Boston, Mass.

Grade Crossing Elimination Not In Master Plan

Editor of the Star:

In response to your recent request for a statement from the Selectmen as to what progress is being made toward the abolition of the grade crossing I will endeavor to bring you up to date.

During the past three years frequent hearings and conferences have been held with the Department of Public Works. We have had the active support of Senator Harris S. Richardson and Representative Harrison Chadwick.

It has evolved itself into a question as to whether $2,500,000.00 of Federal funds should be spent in Winchester for grade crossing work or should be added to other Federal funds to be used throughout the State for much needed road work.

Still further, in August 1947 a special commission was appointed and directed to make a study and present what would be known as the Master Plan for Highways for the Boston Metropolitan Area. This plan was completed in February of this year, but just what happened to Winchester's grade crossing is best outlined in the accompanying letter from Commissioner William H. Buracker.

These very conclusive decisions make it extremely difficult for the Board to make such headway.

Until such time as the State authorities and the Boston & Maine Railroad become much more sympathetic with our problem I doubt if we can look for a settlement of our grade crossing situation in the very near future

Very truly yours,
Board of Selectmen
Kenneth P. Pond, Chairman

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
Office of the Commissioner
100 Nashua Street, Boston 14
December 22, 1948

Kenneth P. Pond, Chairman
Board of Selectmen
Winchester, Massachusetts.
Dear Mr. Pond:

In reply to your letter of December 14, 1948, relative to the abolition of the grade crossing in Winchester Square being included in any of our current programs, I would advise that no improvement at this location is included in such programs.

You will recall that under date of October 29, 1947, I advised the Board of Selectmen that any commitments on the use of Federal Aid Urban funds for any proposed improvements at Winchester Square would be withheld, pending the completion of the Master Plan for Highways for the Boston Metropolitan Area. This Master Plan has since been completed. The improvement of Winchester Square is not included in the recommendations of the Master Plan. However, the Master Plan does include a recommended northerly expressway extending from Boston toward the Merrimack Valley Area, which expressway would bypass Winchester Square a little to the west. It would be expected that such an expressway would provide more adequate facilities for through traffic now passing over the grade crossing in the Square, thereby relieving some of the hazards and congestion now encountered. This northerly expressway would not, of course, include any provisions for the elimination of the railroad grade crossing and further would not provide for any direct improvements for local traffic in the vicinity of the Square.

At the present time, all State funds appropriated to finance Federal Aid projects are programmed. If and when sufficient funds are made available to provide for any such improvement as that needed at Winchester Square, consideration will be given to such a proposed project at this location, if the Town still so wishes.

Very truly yours,
W. H. Buracker
Commissioner

NEW UNIVERSITY REPLACING OLD IN WAR-BATTERED HISTORIC CAEN

In a museum city of old Normandy, a new cornerstone is making headlines. It is the one recently laid for the new university of Caen, which will replace the ancient institution demolished in the 1944 battle for the beachhead in France.

Caen was an old settlement, already linked with the life and exploits of William the Conqueror, when the University was founded in 1432, recalls the National Geographic Society. Exactly how old the town was then is still an unsolved question, though it is known that a village existed there as early as the 9th century.

William of Normandy made Caen his home and capital. From it the invasion of England was launched in 1066. There, William and his wife, Matilda, built two magnificent abbeys.

English Founded It

The original University of Caen was founded by Henry VI of England nearly four centuries later, when the tide of conquest was running counter to the arms of Normandy. At that time the English held much of France, and established their Caen institution as the third oldest English university after Oxford and Cambridge.

From the beginning the fortunes of the University fluctuated with the ebb and flow of international and religious wars, of revolution, of prosperous and hard times. Started with only church-code and civil-law departments, it had added theology, arts and medicine before 1440, in order to support the English rulers competing with the University of Paris.

It survived when the French took over Caen in 1450, though it was soon reconstituted with the loss of its former royal privileges. Submerged by the French Revolution, the modern university was re-established in 1894.

Priceless Records Lost

The University's 18th-century buildings, its furnishings and museum collections, historic Norman manuscripts and books were all destroyed in the bombings and fires that leveled most of Caen in the summer of 1944.

The new structure, it is reported, will rise on a height overlooking the city and the castle founded by William the Conqueror. Among the contributions offered for a new start are book collections from United States libraries, and a donation including 14th-century French documents from the Library of the British House of Commons.

Plans for the rebuilding of Normandy's museum city were under consideration almost as soon as the Germans started retreating. Two major landmarks still raised their towers above the bettered "City of a Thousand Spires" — William's Abbaye aux Hommes and Matilda's Abbaye aux Dames.

Golden Text: "As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all them that trust in him. For who is God, save the Lord? and who is a rock, save our God?" (II Samuel 22:31,32).
Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:
"Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignst over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all" (I Chronicles 29:11,12). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:
"All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is Life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (p. 275).

SCIENTISTS GET RICH BAG IN STONE-AGE AUSTRALIA

The Stone Age country of Arnhem Land in northern Australia has yielded a scientific jackpot to a U. S. - Australian expedition of naturalists who have spent the last eight months amid its tropical swamps and jungle-like forests.

Returning to civilization the scientists brought back a collection of more than 10,000 fish, 351 birds and 460 mammals — a number of them species previously undescribed. Valuable data also were amassed on the living habits, customs and relics of the primitive aborigines who people the little-known corner of Australia.

Charles P. Mountford, Australian leader of the expedition, pronounced its work "an unqualified success from all aspects" in a radiogram sent to Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, President of the National Geographic Society, when the party reached Darwin last week after a 150-mile barge trip from the final base near Oenpelli to the east.

The expedition was sponsored by the National Geographic Society, the Smithsonian Institution and the Commonwealth of Australia.

American museums stand to benefit from the fish, bird and mammal collections made by three Smithsonian naturalists — Dr. Robert R. Miller, of Fairlington, Va.; Herbert G. Deignan, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. David H. Johnson, of College Park, Md.

Stone - Age Axe Heralded

The fourth Smithsonian scientist with the expedition, anthropologist Frank M. Setzler, of Washington, D. C., scored a major triumph just before the expedition broke camp by unearthing a complete stone-age hatchet.

Discovery of this artifact, sought in vain by past expeditions, was termed "one of the most significant archeological discoveries made in Australia" by Fred McCarthy, Curator of Anthropology at the Australian Museum of Sydney.

For weeks Setzler patiently shoveled and sifted dirt and ashes in hill caves around Oenpelli. He found an occasional skeleton and, along with other relics of primitive man, countless pieces of chipped quartzite obviously shaped and polished to a cutting edge by human hand.

Were they scrapers or heads of small axes? Before they could be called axe-blades, he would have to find a tool intact. Describing his big moment on one of the days just before the expedition broke camp, Setzler says:

"At the back of one cave on Oenpelli Hill, we struck a rough piece of wood in the deposit. Clearing away charcoal and ashes, we carried the piece into the sunlight. I couldn't help cheering out loud, to the amusement of my two native assistants.

"At the end of the stick was a neatly formed gob of cement or pitch fixed at an acute angle to the handle. Protruding from the edge of this gum was the shiny edge of a quartzite scraper. Here at last, was the answer to how the early Australian aborigine had used the quartzite scrapers which we numbered by the hundreds in Arnhem Land and which had been found over so many parts of eastern Australia."

Research at Five Stations

Australian photographers with the party exposed five miles of color film at four stations within the Arnhem Land Aboriginal Reserve — Yirrkala, Millingimbi, Roper River, and Oenpelli — and on Groote Eylandt (Big Island), off Arnhem Land's east coast. The expedition stayed in the field for the full duration of the region's dry season — late March to early November.

Final days were spent packing specimens for shipment. Most of the expedition members have by now proceeded from Darwin south across the continent to Adelaide, where Mountford is ethnologist of the South Australia Museum. The Americans with their specimens are expected to reach Washington early in 1949.

WELLINGTON, U. S. EMBASSY SEAT, MADE LAND FOR COMMERCIAL AREA

A lively arena of ocean-port commerce in a gale-blown amphitheater of mountainside homes — that is Wellington, capital of New Zealand. The United States diplomatic mission there, elevated from consulate to legation in the critical war days of early 1942, will shortly take on full-fledged embassy status.

Since its consulate days, the mission now designated as an embassy has been housed in a modern office building of Wellington's bay-level port section. Much of this busy commercial area lies on made land, notes the National Geographic Society, and highlights the romance of Wellington's growth.

Now a spreading city of 180,000 people, Wellington compares with Hartford, Connecticut, in relative latitude as well as size. About 6,700 airline miles southwest of San Francisco and 1,385 miles southeast of Sydney, Australia, it began in 1840 as a settlement of British colonists. They chose a Maori village site where the mountains sloped down to the lakelike waters of Port Nicholson, a sheltered arm of the Pacific Ocean.

Waterless Quay

Because of its central position on Cook Strait, which separates New Zealand's North and South Islands, Wellington became the capital in 1865, superseding Auckland, the Dominion's only larger city. Soon after the change, expanding commerce created for Wellington the dilemma of where to grow. It could only climb steep hillsides or push out into the bay. It did both.

In those days, Lambton Quay, as its name implies, was a waterfront street. Still the main street for stores, shops, and offices, it holds to the curve of the natural shore line, although now several blocks inland from the deep-water port.

In its sheltered port position, Wellington is compared to Seattle. Its tiers of homes mounting the hills, with cable cars serving some sections, also suggest San Francisco. For persistent windiness, it puts Chicago to shame.

Northeast trade winds, roaring down from the tropics, hit North Island's mountain barrier, which funnels their flow into the land break at Cook Strait. Wellington weaves and rolls with the full force of the blast. The winds, credited with giving bugs and germ no chance to settle, average 24 miles an hour the year around.

War Memorial in Hills

Recognizing their position in the Pacific earthquake belt, Wellington's planners built of frame in the early days. Through recent decades, however, they have erected many large and beautiful stone buildings, incorporating 'quake-proof features that provide against heavy loss of life. Outstanding are the white marble Parliament buildings.

Combined overseas and coastal trade now place Wellington ntp and tuck with Auckland in volume of export-import commerce. Both cities provided important facilities to the United States Navy in its World War II campaign in the central and northern Solomon Islands.

With the Japanese threateningly near, in the war's early phases, Wellington fortified a high peak within the city reaches, equipping it with long-range guns. In the cemetery for war dead on a hill behind the city, an Oregon pine marks a "spot of the United States in New Zealand" where sailors and marines lie buried. New Zealanders have pledged its elternal care.

ART ASSOCIATION

On Tuesday evening, January 4, at 8 o'clock, members of the Winchester Art Association and their guests will enjoy the opening of the January exhibit in the Gallery, Winchester Public Library, of American contemporary art. The highlight of the evening will be a talk and demonstration painting by Mae Bennett-Brown, noted Rockport artist, who will create a flower painting in oil for her audience.

The exhibit committee, Mrs. Stanley Cairncross, chairman, has secured an impressive number of contemporary artists' work through the cooperation of Mr. Arthur G. McKean of Doll and Richards' Gallery. Flowers and landscapes furnish the bulk of the subjects, and all are in conservative vein. All of the paintings exhibited in the library during the entire month of January as for sale at moderate prices. Mr. G. Russell Man, Chairman of the Speakers' Committee, has arranged for Miss Bennett-Brown to be present at this opening meeting in 1949. Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes will preside.

Artists in the exhibit include the following: in oil, Charles Curtis Allen, Alexander Bowers, Loring W. Coleman, Stephen Etnier, Antoinette Inglis, Alexander James, William A. Millet, Carl J. Peters, Marion P. Sloane, and Stanley Woodward; in water color, Randulph Bye, Dodge Macknight, Glenn MacNutt, Eliot O'Hara, James Wingate Tarr, Vladimir Pavlovsky, Dwight Shepler, and Andrew Wyeth.

The public is invited to see these paintings in the Gallery daily during Library hours.

TRUCK SIDESWIPED CAR

Last week Thursday, a Chevrolet sedan, in charge of Oliver Rutherford of 118 Washington street, Woburn, while parked in front of the First National Stores market on upper Main street was sideswiped and damaged about the left rear by a truck headed north on Main street.

The driver of the truck did not stop at the time of the accident, but his number was secured and given to the police. The truck was registered to a Boston firm in the market district. The firm was contacted and sent the driver to Winchester. He told the police he was unaware his truck had hit anything and went to Woburn to see Mr. Rutherford about the damage done.

RALLY DAY SERVICE

Sunday, January 2nd

The Unitarian Church of Winchester extends to the community a cordial invitation to the service on next Sunday morning January the 2nd. It is to be designated as Rally Day when old and new members, their friends and neighbors will be welcomed into the the friendly congregation.

The Reverend Paul Harmon Chapman is going to use for his sermon the subject "On Which Step Do You Stand?" which, in a most interesting provocative manner, will search the individual's progress on the way up to a fuller participation in fellowship.

The order of Service on Rally Day will include special music by the regular and junior choirs and the singing of the old and most familiar hymns such as "Faith of Our Fathers, Living Still." After the regular service coffee will be served so that all who attend may become better acquainted. Those who wish transportation that day may call the church office.

So remember Rally Day in Winchester at the Unitarian Church, on the Parkway, where to seek knowledge is freedom, to serve mankind is fellowship.

ATTENDED WASHINGTON CHRISTMAS PARTY

Among those of official Washington who gathered at a Christmas party at the home of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney in Georgetown were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Clifford, former residents of Winchester, their daughters, Marjery and Joyce, and Mrs. Kimball's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Kimball of Kimball Arms, Cambridge Rd., Woburn, also well known to many residents of this town.

The Washington Post in its report of the party mentioned everyone's joining in Christmas carols, the wide variety of refreshments for guests of all ages and preferences, and in connection with the Cliffords the fact that Mrs. Clifford got a Christmas kiss under the mistletoe from "Jerry" Wadsworth, who, whatever his official capacity, is evidently a man of some little discernment. Mr. Clifford is of course one of President Truman's secretaries and a young man of not a little influence on Capitol Hill.

BAY STATE HISTORICAL LEAGUE

The Winter Meeting of the Bay State Historical League, of which the Winchester Historical Society is a member, will be held on Saturday, January 15 at 2.30 in Cambridge at Harvard's Lowell House on Holyoke Place.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Louis M. Lyons, a distinguished member of the Harvard Faculty and Curator of the Nieman Foundation.

Refreshments will be served and a social hour will follow.

"PINE HILL" WINS CONTEST FOR TROOP 7 CAMP NAME

It's official—"Pine Hill" is the new name for Troop 7's own campsite, on Ridge St. The name was submitted by Ray Simpson in a troop contest, and was selected from a large and pretty swell bunch of names, by judges on the Troop Committee. The name is attractive, simple, and descriptive of the scenic pine-clad hill that tops the campsite.

Ray received the Troop's thanks and his prize, a scout knife, at the meeting on December 20. Other prize-winners who cashed in were Dave Ripley, winning the "I like scouting because—" essay contest; and Stu Carlisle, who won the "best reporting" contest for the past month's articles in the troop newspaper. (Yes, Troop 7 has it's own paper!) These last-mentioned fellows won a knapsack and canteen, respectively.

The December 20 meeting also featured an Investiture Service for Ken Cleaves and Ray Simpson, new Tenderfeet. Stu Carlisle and Paul Leverett received attendance badges then Stu and Paul along with Andy Robertson and Lee Staff received service stars. Of course, the meeting was rounded out with test-instruction and passing, and the usual rousing game.

Very close to 100% attendance at the last meeting in the 27th with 12 boys on hand. And just to keep the competitive spirit, alive in all activities, Troop 7 awarded more prizes: this time to the three top men in the Christmas Card Sales contest. Stu Carlisle won a swell sleeping bag for selling the most cards himself, 26 packs. Phil Dresser was next top salesman with 18 packs, and picked up a flashlight. Stan Mullen won a pup tent for having the best store sales. Hevey's, his "charge," sold 24 packs. These boys - and the whole troop - did a swell job in helping bolster the Troop treasury, and every one of them deserves to reach right around and pat himself on the back! This is just one phase of scout activity, but it's mightly important in a practical way, and certainly proves the value of a real cooperative spirit!

Plans for January activities are well formulated, and make good reading. Monday meeting projects center on preparations for Troop 7's "camping" booth at the coming Exposition. A booth feature will be a model of the new Pine Hill Camp, showing scouts engaged in various activities. On Saturdays, the fellows are going to (1 make a camp flag of Pine Hill 2) have a splash party - with swim test passing - at an indoor pool 3) hike to Pine Hill 4) ski party 5) take trip to Handicraft Center.

Yes Sir, never a dull moment at Troop 7, and never a meeting without real activity, and advancement! That's the basis of real scouting, what the boys want, and what the really alert troop must be prepared to offer. Incidentally, parents, friends, and visitors are always more than welcome at Troop 7. Come down, yourself, next Monday night to the First Baptist Church social hall, downstairs, 7 P. M. See you then! D. B.

WEEK-END FIRES

The Fire Department's first run of the holiday week-end was at 5:10 last Friday afternoon for a grass and brush fire on Horn Pond Mountain off Pond street.

Christmas morning at 2:05 there was a still alarm for a chimney fire at the home of Mrs. Marshall J. England, on Ledgewood road. At 9:05 Christmas morning there was a call from the home of Mr. Ernest L. Parker, 8 Wilson street, where papers burning in a closed fireplace caused the house to be filled with smoke.

At 3:58 Christmas afternoon there was a chimney fire at the home of Dr. Arthur Hertig, 21 Everett avenue.

SCOUT OPERETTA IN METCALF HALL

A mystery operetta in two acts, "Sunny of Sunnyside", will be presented by the Girl Scouts of Winchester, 7th and 8th grade girls, on the stage at Metcalf Hall, Unitarian Church, Thursday afternoon, and Friday evening, January 13 and 14. The Thursday performance will begin at 3:30 p. m. and is for school children, while on Friday the curtain rises at 8:00 p. m., and the show is for parents and friends.

Tickets for the operetta may be obtained from the Girl Scouts, or from Mrs. James K. McElroy, WInchester 6-2812. Mrs. William McClintic is production manager, ably assisted by Mrs. Robert B. Graham, Jr., and Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham.

The operetta, with its many changes of excellent costumes and its fine chorus concerns the story of Sunny, a youngster at the orphanage, who, at the rise of the curtain, has just come home to the orphanage after a stay in the local hospital, after an injury saving the life of another orphan at Sunnyside. Events, once Sunny is back, come thick and fast - - there is a theft, counter-plot, kidnapping, and a wealthy woman who wants to adopt an orphan as companion for her own neice. Along with a good story the cast supply tuneful music and gay dances, with plenty of life and color.

Barbara Colucci plays "Sunny", and other principals include Judith Nannery, Judy Higgins, Janet Young, Althea Hersey, Elizabeth Curtis, Mary Rehm, Mary Cuellen, Joan Moore, Sheila Scanlon, and Mary Lou Armstrong.

A MESSAGE FROM THE RECREATION COMMITTEE OF WINCHESTER, MASS.

We all want to have good ice for good skating. The town is going to try to clear snow from the ice whenever snow falls after the ice is safe to bear our weight.

To have good ice we need to avoid throwing sticks or stones on it before it is ready for skating. That should be soon now. We shall need to avoid leaving any sticks, stones or pieces of tire tape from hockey sticks on the ice both while we are skating and afterwards. We should ask others to help in this way to have and keep good skating.

You see, if we leave these things on the ice, they will dull our skates and will also cause us to fall. And too, when the Town tries to use the ice planer to improve the ice for us, these things will spoil the sharp edge of the planer that shaves the ice smooth. If the planer is spoiled, good skating will stop.

Also, let us be sure to keep off the ice whenever it is soft or even getting to be soft. Walking, sledding, or skating on soft ice will make ruts or marks deep in the ice which will spoil good skating.

Be sure to read the signs which will appear on or around Big and Little Winter Ponds. Here, with your good help, the Town will try to keep good skating first. These ponds freeze sooner than the others do.

If you question whether or not ice is safe to hold you and others, telephone the Park Department. They will tell you where skating is good and ice is strong.

If we all cooperate, what fun we can have with good skating. Let us all try to have good skating. Talk to your brothers and sisters about how to have good skating in Winchester. Let us keep sweet-tempered if they do not cooperate. Just keep on telling them what it means to them now or will mean some day to keep ice good for skating. You and I can do a lot towards having good skating.
December 23, 1948
By request of the recreation committee.

SKI NEWS

The combined ski clubs of Winchester met for the second time on December 22, 1948. The members voted on and selected the CHAMOIS SKI CLUB of Winchester as the new name for the club. The new by-laws were passed and the two clubs are now completely merged.

Rolly Nault, who has charge of the juniors this year, is looking for ski donations so that a junior who doesn't have a pair of skis may have a chance to learn. If anyone has an old pair of skis they would be willing to donate for the benefit of the junior skiers, please contact Rolly Nault, 203 Washington street, Winchester.

The first important ski event will take place January 9, 1949 when this club will compete with the Lynn Snow Chasers and the Massachussers in downhill and slalom racing. This meet will take place at Laconia or North Conway whichever resort has the best skiing conditions. This triangular ski meet January 9 is the first of our three scheduled meets in the Eastern Amateur Intra Ski League.

Anyone interested in joining the club and entering into these races please contact Charlie Koch at the Winchester Sport Shop.

The next meeting is on January 5, 1949 at Staff Rogers on Winchester Place.

SECOND ALARM

The alarm from Box 242, the high school box, at 5:55 Wednesday morning was caused by trouble with the air sprinkler system at the school building. A broken coupling in the water sprinkler system on Monday caused considerable damage, and firemen believe that the work done on the system at that time may have caused the trouble that developed Wednesday morning. There was no water damage in the latter instance.

BROKEN SPRINKLER DAMAGED HIGH SCHOOL

Considerable water damage was reported at Winchester High School as the result of a break in the building sprinkler system early Monday afternoon.

The Fire Department was notified and the men found after a search that a reducer coupling in the wet sprinkler system had burst in a small compartment under the motion picture projection booth in the balcony of the auditorium. Apparently the coupling which connected a two inch line with one half an inch smaller, had frozen and burst when the heat came back into the building after the holiday. Water was pouring from the break into the balcony foyer and down into the foyer below, soaking the walls and the ceiling of the lower foyer and main auditorium under the balcony. The Firemen got salvage cloths into position and prevented the water from seeping down into the gymnasium, where the floor could easily have been badly damaged by the flood.

It was particularly difficult for the Firemen to reach the break, the only access being through a small door about 18 by 24 inches. It was necessary to remove the last row of seats in the balcony to get at the break, but even the smaller firemen were unable to use the heavy wrenches necessary to remove the coupling in the limited space available.

Sprinkler men repaired the damage on Tuesday and both wet and dry sprinklers were again in operation on that day. Fire Chief James E. Callahan said that the broken sprinkler surely covered all the area claimed for it in the specifications and delivered a fine volume of water.

FLOWER TALK AT BUSINESS WOMEN'S GUILD JANUARY 5

"A Day in a Flower Shop" is the intriguing title of the talk to be given by Mr. George W. Scott of Scott-Flowers, Arlington, before members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's Guild, First Congregational Church, Wednesday evening, January 5, at 8 o'clock in the Ladies' Parlor. All women are invited to attend, and each one in the audience will be asked to write her name on a card, a drawing of names will take place, and several ladies in the audience will receive vases of flowers and corsages which Mr. Scott will create.

The talk will combine information with wit and humor, as Mr. Scott, whose vocation and avocation are combined in his flower shop, tells of the problems, customers, and requests that come to him in a single day. While he talks, his nimble fingers will fashion corsages and arrange flowers in vases for special occasions. The program has been arranged by Miss Marjorie McGraw of the program Committee, and Miss Helen Monroe will be in charge of the social hour that will follow. A report on the Candy Table at the Fair will be given by Miss Alfreda Kearney and Miss Cassie Sands. Mrs. George E. Connor will preside.

NAVY CALLS FOR RESERVISTS TO MAN WARSHIPS FOR MANEUVERS

First Naval District Headquarters announced today that applications are desired from all classes of Naval reservists, both officers and enlisted men, for an extended training cruise with 2nd Task Fleet. Fleet exercises will be held in the Atlantic from February 21 to March 19.

Full pay and allowances have been authorized for the 28-day cruise, for which reservists from the New England states will embark at Newport, R. I.

Large quotas have been assigned to the various Naval Districts in an effort to bring the fleet complement up to strength for the scheduled exercises.

Applications for this cruise are especially desired from inactive V-6 Naval Reservists.

Those interested in this cruise should make application to the Naval Reserve Training Center nearest their home, or direct to the Commandant, First Naval District (Director of Training), Navy Building, 495 Summer street, Boston, Mass.

HOCKEY CLUB DEADLOCKS DEDHAM

After the flying ice chips had settled at the Boston Skating Club last Thursday night the local hockey club and Dedham wound up in a tie at five goals each.

Dedham's flashy Anderson was the first to score with the game hardly three minutes along. Moose Merrow got the equalizer for Winchester six minutes later on Don Armstrong's clever assist. Wimpy Burtnett broke the tie with two fast goals in succession after the second period got underway, both on passes from Roy Monson. Late in this period Malwicz got back one of these for Dedham assisted by Paradise.

Merrow fired a hard shot early in the third period that Quinn made a sensational save on, but Whip Saltmarsh was in fast for the rebound and scored Winchester's fourth. Bob Collins followed this with the locals' final tally on Ed McGrath's pass. Dedham, then trailing 2 to 5 resorted to power plays in the last six minutes of the game. Anderson got the equalizer less than a minute before the final buzzer.

Cunningham made his first appearance in goal for the locals and did especially well on the short shots. Don Ellis and Billy Dingwell played excellent defensive hockey, with Burtnett, Monson and Merrow showing strength on the offense. The entire team covered well except against the power plays thrown against them toward the end of the contest.

For Dedham, Houston sparkled on defense, with Anderson, Malwicz and paradise supplying the best offense.

The second game in this two game series is being played at the Skating Club Thursday night, December 30th and the locals have been practicing long hours every day to put them on edge for a victory.
